

Divorcement 571

Chapter 571

Charlie found it a bit embarrassing to talk about this topic

He had always been a stubborn man.

However he nodded seriously when he heard her words “Yes, I love you. So, stay with me, okay? We are not getting a divorce I don’t want it! I agreed to divorce you because i was angry. In fact, I do not want to do it at all

Now after having sex with her, he didn’t want to divorce even more.

His words made Theresa’s heart flutter

Yet thinking about her relationship with him.

She knew he only wanted to be responsible for her.

Theresa said. “That night, we were both drunk. I told you that you didn’t need to take it to heart. I’m an ordinary woman who was divorced. You can find someone better after leaving me. You are now pushing yourself here and insisting on being responsible for me. In the future, you will regret it if you stay with me for the rest of your life.”

Charlie looked at her. “I’m pushing myself? What do I have to regret about being with the woman I love? You just don’t believe I love you, do you?”

Theresa was at a loss for words. She didn't know what to say and nor could she think straight The man stood in front of her, saying those tender and affectionate words. It was touching Charlie looked at her. "You're not talking. Does it mean that you'll stay with me?"

"No, it doesn't."

Don't try to make a decision for her like that!

She had already made up her mind to leave him.

Why was he trying to sway her here?

Charlie said. "Then what do you want me to do before you say yes? I can fix what I did wrong."

"She promised?" Leticia was a bit surprised "She refused when I talked to her about it today. Dick's men are not to be messed with, so I was afraid she'd be fooled. Will she tell them about your business?"

Leticia was worried about Charlie.

Charlie heard his mother's words and said, "Don't worry. Theresa has never paid attention to that. She doesn't know anything about my business."

Leticia said. "That's good. When are you going to get a divorce?"

Hearing the word "divorce" Charlie had mixed feelings.

Leticia looked at him. "If you get a divorce, you should make it up to her If you don't handle women's affairs well, you'll have to suffer later"

Charlie said, "Theresa is not that kind of person

He knew what his mother was worried about.

Nowadays, there was a lot of news online about people who suffered because of women.

Leticia said, "I don't want to think of her in a bad way either, but I don't really know about Theresa. Well it's okay if she is with Eugene. Why does she have to be with Dick's man? She's the one who wants the divorce. Is she blaming you? I can't really tell what she's thinking."

Theresa was afraid that he would know what she was thinking, so she said, "Nothing. It's the end of the year. You must be quite busy, right? It's twenty to nine. You should go to breakfast."

Charlie looked at Theresa without moving. "What? You want me to leave?"

Theresa was silent for a moment when he suddenly read her mind.

She looked at Charlie and suggested, "Why don't we get up and go to breakfast?"

She sat up, not wanting to sleep either.

She hadn't slept well lately with things on her mind.

She had just gotten up when Charlie said, "You can go without me. I'm not going to the office today"

He didn't want to go on like this!

Since she wanted to leave, he would do as she wished!

Theresa looked at Charlie, who seemed very determined when he said this.

But Theresa, who had made up her mind long ago, didn't take it to heart when she heard him say that Wasn't this the way it should be?

It would be strange if the two people who were getting divorced were still as close as ever.

After dinner, Charlie went out.

And Theresa came out of the house and went to Dick's place.

Unlike before, Dick was just up today, sitting on the bed in his office, looking a little lazy.

After all, he was also a man who had uncomfortable at Nandlall's Group, so you're a lot of great things about you, Mr. White."

Chapter 576

Although he hated Charlie, Charlie was better than Jimmy anyway?

Jimmy nodded. "Yes. But Charlie is now divorcing that woman. However, I've had enough of doing things in the Calsis family depending on his emotions. so I can only come to you to make a living "

Kole, who recommended him to the company, told him that Dick was a particularly odd person who liked people talking badly about Charlie, so he was now undermining Charlie in various ways.

When Dick heard this, his face really looked better and he said to Jimmy, "Go ahead and behave yourself. If you do a good job, I won't treat you badly" He didn't care what kind of person Jimmy was. As long as he hated Charlie, they were good friends.

Hearing Dick's words, Jimmy nodded. "Thank you, Mr. White."

It was only when Jimmy left Dick's office that Theresa came out of the inner room. When Rawlins saw her, he said, "Dr. Cameron Theresa nodded and glanced at Dick. She didn't expect Jimmy would be appreciated by Dick after he left the Calsis family.

It seemed that the more a person is hated by Charlie, the more Dick liked him.

It was too dangerous to let Old Mr Calsis go outside because if Old Mr. Calsis got up in a frenzy, no one could stop him. Theresa said, "I want to take you to your favorite opera, and I happen to have bought the tickets. Shall we go together?"

Old Mr. Calsis liked to listen to Peking Opera

He used to tell Theresa this when he played chess with her before.

Theresa always wanted to take him.

He seemed to be pretty bored every day either at home or at the hospital.

So, she wanted to take him to do something he liked to do.

Old Mr. Calsis said, "Really?"

Of course, Rose refused. Why should I listen to you?"

It made her feel disgusted to sit at a table with such a woman.

Theresa said, "Well, why don't I say something online right now?"

Fearing that her Uncle Eugene's reputation would really be ruined by Theresa, Rose had to sit back enduring the humiliation.

Looking at that with satisfaction, Theresa knew that Rose was simple and had seen little of the world, so, she would be fooled by Jimmy like this

Sooner or later. Rose would regret it, and she was in no hurry

It was just as well that Old Mr Calsis had almost finished eating

Theresa was ready to take him away, "Grandpa, let's go back."

Rose sat aside and looked at Theresa.

Theresa said. "You go back too, and don't appear in front of me in the future. If you come to me again, I won't let you go as easily as I did today"

Rose looked very aggressive but was actually very weak and easy to be bluffed.

Rose came to Theresa today to trouble her, so, Theresa wanted to teach Rose a lesson so that Rose wouldn't try to bully her every time Rose saw her in the future

If you didn't teach him a lesson, he would always try to touch your bottom lines.

Old Mr. Calsis looked at Theresa and suggested, "By the way, what is Charlie doing? How about we Mr. Calsis to make such a sudden request.

Looking at Old Mr Calsis, Paul slowed his voice and said, "He'll be back right away"

Paul looked over at Old Mr. Calsis and said, "Grandpa, how's your health these days?"

"I'm fine."

"That's fine." Paul said, "Theresa is a very sophisticated woman. So, don't always go out with her."

He thought Theresa was not a good person!

She either fooled Charlie's two children or his grandpa. The old and young in the family had all been fooled by her. She really knew how to take advantage of the weak.

Hearing Paul's words, Old Mr. Calsis looked at him and didn't say anything.
