

Doctor 2481

Chapter 2481: The Empress's Whereabouts

A few Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts took turns taking action, yet none could shake the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron.

Fang Bai sat cross-legged inside the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, extending his Divine Sense outward, observing clearly the actions of those Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts.

"What a joke, this Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron exists beyond the Emperor's Instruments. Although I cannot control it to attack you, don't think of taking it away!"

Fang Bai sneered coldly.

Inside the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, he could observe the outside environment with his Divine Sense, while the Immortals outside could not penetrate the cauldron with their Divine Sense, unaware of his presence.

A few Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts tried various methods to take the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, even attempting to store it in their Space Immortal Rings, but all failed.

The Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, merely a zhang tall, weighed more than a ten-thousand-zhang mountain, exuding a formidable aura of immovability against the elements.

"Let's join forces and see if we can move it!"

One Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert suggested.

"Let's try!"

Another Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert chimed in.

The Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts, having expended much immortal power without success, were all filled with frustration and nodded in agreement.

After a brief rest to restore their strength to peak condition, the Immortal Emperor Realm experts surrounded the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, invoked their Immortal Essence Big Palm, each grabbing one side of the cauldron, and exerted their combined strength.

The combined power of several Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts was comparable to that of an Immortal Emperor, able to easily uproot a ten-thousand-zhang mountain.

Yet even with all their might, the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron stood unmoved.

"This cauldron truly is a Supreme Emperor Artifact!"

One Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert exclaimed, drooling as he looked at the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron.

The combined might of several Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts failed to shift it even slightly, confirming it unmistakably as an Emperor's Instrument.

"I wonder which Immortal Emperor this cauldron will belong to in the future!"

Another Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert sighed.

Knowing only an Immortal Emperor could subdue and take it, the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts felt a mix of loss and frustration, realizing this supreme treasure they discovered would end up in the hands of some Immortal Emperor.

With no hope of obtaining the Emperor's Instrument, the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts left, carrying regrets, to continue training in the purple Thunder Zone.

Fang Bai waited until they were far away, then cautiously continued to maneuver the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron forward.

Time passed unnoticed, and Fang Bai, observing the landscape outside the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron with his Divine Sense, found himself enveloped in darkness.

Bolts of black lightning, as thick as an adult's waist, tore the void and struck the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, causing it to tremble despite being unshaken by the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts.

"Have I reached the eighth layer of the Nine Nether Thunder Sea?"

Fang Bai murmured, his heart filled with a mix of anticipation and anxiety.

He hoped that the Hundred Flowers Empress had trained in this thunder zone a century ago and remained safe.

Yet his anxiety stemmed from the possibility that if she were not in this black Thunder Zone, it might bode ill for her fate.

"Hopefully, there will be good news..."

Fang Bai muttered to himself.

This vast expanse of black Thunder Zone was as far as Fang Bai had reached in his previous life's training.

The destructive force of the lightning, carrying strands of Emperor Aura, was terrifying, even an Emperor Realm Expert couldn't linger here long.

Even staying within the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, Fang Bai felt his spirit tremble from the thunder outside, not daring to emerge from the cauldron.

In the Immortal Realm, Immortals who committed significant transgressions yet possessed formidable strength were often subdued by more powerful Immortals and discarded in this black Thunder Zone to endure lightning punishment.

The result was usually annihilation without any chance of survival.

Fang Bai recalled from his previous life, some High Rank and even Peak Immortal Emperor Realm experts, upon committing grave sins and incurring the wrath of the Immortal Realm, were seized by an Emperor Realm expert and thrown into the black Thunder Sea for punishment, where they were shattered into pieces under the lightning strikes in mere moments, meeting a grim end.

Thus, the Nine Nether Thunder Sea was known as the "Land of Immortal Punishment," striking fear into many Immortals.

Though inside the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, the cauldron was bombarded by black lightning infused with Emperor Aura, causing it to tremble increasingly violently, with the risk of overturning at any moment.

The thick black bolts of lightning striking the cauldron's body resounded with continuous "thump-thump" noises, reverberating within the cauldron like sound waves, causing Fang Bai unbearable pain, making him keenly aware he could not stay much longer, lest his physical body be shattered from the inside.

Upon arriving in the purple Thunder Zone, Fang Bai wasted no time, swiftly extending his Divine Sense to search for the traces of the Hundred Flowers Empress.

He believed that if the Hundred Flowers Empress had been here, she would surely have left some trace.

A grand Empress, possessing immense strength, even if she had fallen in this Thunder Sea, couldn't have vanished like lesser Immortals without a trace.

"It's her... there's her aura here..."

Moments later, Fang Bai's eyes brightened suddenly, his whole body trembling with excitement.

Within the thickly suffusing Thunder Immortal Qi around him, Fang Bai sensed a faint trace of the Hundred Flowers Empress's aura, proving she had once trained in this black Thunder Zone.

Fang Bai maneuvered the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, continuing to extend his Divine Sense.

Shortly after, a half-exposed Immortal Sword appeared on the ground ahead.

Seeing the Immortal Sword emanating a peach-colored glow, Fang Bai's previously excited heart sank.

Fang Bai recognized that Immortal Sword.

It was one of the Bipartite Dual Swords, the personal Emperor Artifact of the Hundred Flowers Empress.

The Bipartite Dual Swords naturally should come as a pair.

But now, only one of the Bipartite Dual Swords appeared, leaving the other missing, which stirred Fang Bai's concern.

Fang Bai knew, in the hands of the Hundred Flowers Empress, the Bipartite Dual Swords were never separated, always used in concert to aid in battle.

Now, only one Immortal Sword remained, combined with the faint aura of the Hundred Flowers Empress lingering in the void, Fang Bai inferred that a fierce battle must have taken place in this black Thunder Zone in the past, involving the Hundred Flowers Empress as a participant.

However, the outcome of that fierce battle, whether victory or defeat, was hard to determine.

Had the Hundred Flowers Empress won, she would have surely taken both her swords.

If the opponent had won, they too would not have ignored such an Emperor Artifact.

"The opponent who could force the Hundred Flowers Empress to wield both swords must also have been an Emperor Realm expert. It's possible that the two Emperor Realm experts battled into the Endless Space?"

Thinking this, Fang Bai looked up into the void, consoling himself, "That must be it! That must be it!"

Chapter 2482: Is the Empress Alive or Dead?

The Immortal Emperor can tear the void with bare hands and traverse a million miles in endless space.

Fang Bai thought it possible that the Hundred Flowers Empress could have entered the endless space during a battle with an opponent, to fight elsewhere.

However, if the Hundred Flowers Empress truly entered endless space and crossed to another region, why has she not returned to Hundred Flowers Mountain in nearly a hundred years? Why is there no news?

The endless space is filled with terrifying chaotic wind currents. Even one as strong as the Immortal Emperor would need to use all their Immortal Qi to protect themselves, otherwise their flesh would be shredded by the swirling forces.

Fang Bai was most worried that the Hundred Flowers Empress was wounded when she entered endless space; under such conditions, wounds would not heal, blood would flow endlessly, and facing strong opponents would be extremely dangerous.

Up to now, there are only two possibilities for the lack of news about the Hundred Flowers Empress: either she is trapped somewhere and cannot escape, or she has fallen.

Of course, Fang Bai hopes for the first possibility.

Though Fang Bai has the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron to protect him, he cannot stay too long in the Black Thunder Zone that even the Immortal Emperor fears.

He drove the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron with all his might, reaching the Emperor Artifact left behind by the Hundred Flowers Empress, released a Puppet Corpse, controlled it to grasp the Emperor Artifact, and threw it into the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron.

Although he acquired the Emperor Artifact, the Puppet Corpse Fang Bai released became a sacrifice, struck by several black lightning bolts simultaneously and reduced to ashes.

Fang Bai does not feel pained by exchanging the Emperor Artifact left behind by the Hundred Flowers Empress with a Puppet Corpse.

As Fang Bai held the Emperor Artifact, a familiar aura and feeling surged in his heart, and the enchanting face of the Hundred Flowers Empress, radiant with delight or anger, appeared before him.

The Bipartite Dual Swords of the Hundred Flowers Empress were obtained by chance during a training experience after she became an Immortal Emperor.

Later, during a battle with another Immortal Emperor, the Hundred Flowers Empress defeated her opponent, but her Bipartite Dual Swords suffered damage, and it was Fang Bai who helped repair them.

The Emperor Artifact repaired by Fang Bai bears his imprint, allowing Fang Bai to sense its echoed aura.

Since acquiring one of the Bipartite Dual Swords, Fang Bai could return it to the Hundred Flowers Empress if she were still alive.

If the Hundred Flowers Empress had fallen, he could keep it as a memento.

After obtaining the Emperor Artifact left by the Hundred Flowers Empress, Fang Bai's endurance in the Black Thunder Sea was reaching its limit.

Fang Bai knew that if he did not quickly leave the Black Thunder Zone, even while hiding within the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, he would be gravely injured by the powerful sonic waves generated by black lightning strikes upon the cauldron.

Ultimately, Fang Bai's cultivation level was too weak; he could not fully unleash the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron's power, or else the Black Thunder Sea would not pose any threat to him.

The White Thunder Zone in the deepest part of the Nine Nether Thunder Sea has the most powerful lightning, and even the Immortal Emperor considers it a forbidden area and dare not venture inside.

In his past life, Fang Bai planned to enter the White Thunder Zone of the Nine Nether Thunder Sea and attempt to reach the Great Emperor Realm when his battle strength peaked, but various events delayed him.

Later, the Eight Great Immortal Emperors surrounded him, and the Emperor Palace perished, dashing his plans of entering the White Thunder Zone of the Nine Nether Thunder Sea.

Now, he has returned to the Immortal Realm. Though once again reaching the Black Thunder Zone of Nine Nether Thunder Sea with the help of the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron, the process was incredibly difficult, and his cultivation level was much weaker than in his previous life, so he did not dare to forcefully enter the White Thunder Zone.

After obtaining the Emperor Artifact left by the Hundred Flowers Empress, Fang Bai quickly exited the Black Thunder Sea, passing through the Purple Thunder Sea and Blue Thunder Sea, returning to the Azure Thunder Sea.

After witnessing the astonishing power of the Black Thunder Sea, upon returning to the Azure Thunder Zone, Fang Bai felt the pressure and lightning strikes here were incredibly "tame".

Fang Bai released his Divine Sense, searching for traces of Xielei Immortal Emperor, Fairy Yun Lei, and Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor, quickly establishing contact with them.

Xielei Immortal Emperor and Fairy Yun Lei sighed with relief upon seeing Fang Bai return safe and sound, but from Fang Bai's indifferent face, they could not discern if he had found traces of the Hundred Flowers Empress.

"I wonder which level of Thunder Zone our Junior Immortal Friend Wushuang went to practice?"

Thunder Immortal Sword Emperor asked with keen interest.

With their mid-level Immortal Emperor Realm cultivation, they could only practice in the Azure Thunder Zone, and they thought even with the protection of a Supreme Immortal Artifact, Fang Bai could only reach the deeper Blue Thunder Zone.

However, being able to practice in the Blue Thunder Zone meant acquiring higher-grade cultivation resources, which thunder immortals like Thunder Immortal Sword Emperor greatly envied.

Fang Bai naturally wouldn't reveal he had been to the Black Thunder Zone as that would be too astonishing, and Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and the others probably wouldn't believe it, so he smiled and said, "By chance, I reached the Purple Thunder Zone and stayed there for a while."

"What?"

Thunder Immortal Sword Emperor was shocked upon hearing this, thinking the Purple Thunder Zone is a perilous place that only those with the peak cultivation level of the Immortal Emperor Realm can reach. How could the Wushuang Immortal King enter it with just a Supreme Immortal Artifact?

Could it be that his Supreme Immortal Artifact is of a higher grade than imagined, able to withstand the strikes of Purple Thunder?

"What's the scene like in the Purple Thunder Zone? Are there immortals practicing?"

Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor had never been to the Purple Thunder Zone, so he was skeptical and asked.

Fang Bai said, "The power of the world pressure and lightning strikes there are more than ten times stronger than here in the Azure Thunder Zone. I stayed there for several days, obtained some cultivation resources, and discovered several peak Immortal Emperor Realm experts... I intended to explore the Black Thunder Zone but feared losing my life, so I retreated."

"With your level eight Immortal King Realm cultivation, entering the Purple Thunder Zone is an unprecedented miracle. Yet, you wanted to enter the Black Thunder Zone?"

Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor looked at Fang Bai and bitterly smiled, thinking that the Black Thunder Zone is only a place where the Immortal Emperor dares to tread, and even those at the peak level of the Immortal Emperor Realm would be blasted to pieces.

"We have never seen the cultivation resources of the Purple Thunder Zone. I wonder if our Junior Immortal Friend Wushuang could display them for us?"

Thunder Blade Immortal Emperor was straightforward, unlike other immortals who might not directly ask and instead hint to avoid awkwardness, but Thunder Blade Immortal Emperor thoughtlessly asked outright.

Even if Thunder Blade Immortal Emperor had not asked, Fang Bai, considering the face of the Thunderflame Immortal Emperor, would gift them some cultivation resources brought back from the Purple Thunder Zone to aid in their cultivation.

After all, the disciples of the Thunderflame Immortal Emperor would become powerful allies in rebuilding the Emperor Palace and fighting the Eight Great Immortal Emperors in the future. Naturally, the stronger, the better.

Fang Bai did not mince words and waved his left hand, causing the Five Elements Space Ring to flicker slightly, and a large number of thunder attribute Immortal Stones and Immortal Elixirs, glowing with purple light, appeared before the immortals.

Chapter 2483: Trying to Escape? No Way!

Purple light dazzling, thunder Immortal Qi suffusing.

The pile of purple thunder-attribute Immortal Stones and Immortal Elixirs before them left the Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and other immortals stunned.

They knew that Fang Bai bringing out these Cultivation Resources proved that what he said earlier was true; he indeed entered the purple thunder ocean, accessible only to those at the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak.

Several immortals training in the Azure Thunder Ocean, upon discovering Fang Bai revealing a large number of Cultivation Resources, swiftly moved towards this side, showing eager looks.

However, when they observed Fang Bai's side possessing Xielei Immortal Emperor, Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and six other Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank experts, they dared not approach, only watched from afar.

The immortals who came to the Nine Nether Thunder Sea to train mostly traveled alone, rarely forming groups, and the group consisting of Xielei Immortal Emperor and six other Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank experts was a formidable force. Unless possessing Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank cultivation or higher, who would dare provoke them?

Thus, Fang Bai, who had only reached the Immortal King Cultivation Realm, became an extremely conspicuous presence among them.

Yet, no immortal underestimated Fang Bai, not to mention the Blood Blade in his hand exuding a strong Blood Fiend Aura. Just seeing the respectful demeanor of the two Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank experts standing on either side of him revealed that this immortal's identity was extraordinary.

At this moment, an Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert retreated in disarray from the Blue Thunder Zone, wearing slight injuries, looking very embarrassed, clearly having suffered a setback within the Blue Thunder Zone.

Thus, this Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert's misfortune seemed deserved, as when Fang Bai was in the Blue Thunder Zone, he had slain two Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank experts, leading most immortals training in the Blue Thunder Zone to fear him, which this expert was unaware of.

Seeing the pile of purple thunder attribute Cultivation Resources before Fang Bai and others, and noticing no presence of Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts nearby, the Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert became overexcited, raising his hand to summon a large Immortal Essence palm to seize the Cultivation Resources, intending to depart swiftly with them.

Purple thunder attribute Cultivation Resources were the dream of this Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert, thinking that if he could return with these resources, this trip to train in the Nine Nether Thunder Sea would have been tremendously rewarding.

"Old dog, get lost!"

Xielei Immortal Emperor and Fairy Yun Lei, noticing the situation, shouted angrily while attacking.

They summoned their Immortal Artifacts, setting up a Combined Assault Formation. Though over time, they still could not match the Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert, in the short term, defeating them was impossible.

The immortals, including Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and four others, upon seeing Xielei Immortal Emperor and Fairy Yun Lei resisting an attack from an expert of a higher realm than their own, were secretly astonished, thinking their Combined Assault Formation was truly marvelous.

"These Cultivation Resources are for you!"

Fang Bai knew Xielei Immortal Emperor and Fairy Yun Lei would not lose quickly, so he calmly spoke to the Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor.

"For... for us?"

Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and three disciples exchanged glances, somewhat disbelieving.

So many Cultivation Resources from the purple thunder zone, if truly given to them, would be a great gift. Yet they couldn't understand, why would this Wushuang Immortal King give such hard-earned resources to them?

Could it be just because of the good relations between the Emperor's Palace and Thunderflame Sect?

"The Emperor's Palace and Thunderflame Sect have always had close relations. These small gifts are my goodwill... take them! I have more of such Cultivation Resources in my Space Immortal Ring!"

Fang Bai transmitted his voice to Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and four others.

Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and four others, not overly ceremonious immortals, upon hearing that Fang Bai had more of the same Cultivation Resources, did not hesitate to divide the resources into four parts, storing them in their respective Space Immortal Rings.

The Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert who wanted to snatch the resources became infuriated upon seeing Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and four others collecting the resources, yelling "Wah-wah" loudly, and while retreating Xielei Immortal Emperor and Fairy Yun Lei, charged towards them angrily, shouting: "Hand over the Cultivation Resources! Or I'll kill you with a slap!"

Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and four others, though not as powerful as him, were, after all, disciples under a current Immortal Emperor, how could they show weakness?

"Want Cultivation Resources? Take them by your own skill!"

Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and three disciples, with a shared mind, simultaneously summoned Immortal Artifacts forming a four-person joint formation, facing the fast-approaching Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert.

Their formation, taught by Thunderflame Immortal Emperor, who learned from Fang Bai, although not as exquisitely powerful as the dual combination formation of Xielei Immortal Emperor and Fairy Yun Lei, was still immensely potent, trapping the Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert temporarily.

During this period, Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and four others, and Xielei Immortal Emperor and two others rotated in battle. Whenever one side could no longer hold, the other would continue the fight against the Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert.

The Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert, already injured, had weakened combat strength, and amidst the rotating battles from Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor and Xielei Immortal Emperor, his Immortal Qi rapidly depleted. Knowing continued fighting would lead to defeat, he lost his will to fight and attempted to withdraw.

"Trying to escape? No way!"

Fang Bai, seeing the Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert attempting to flee, how could he allow him to leave after provocation? Immediately released Chaos Heaven Immortal Emperor from the Five Elements Space Ring, extending an Immortal Essence Big Palm to capture the expert.

Refined into a Puppet Corpse, Chaos Heaven Immortal Emperor's combat prowess among those of the same realm was considered peak, yet the Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert's strength at this moment was barely half of his peak, unable to escape? Captured by Chaos Heaven Immortal Emperor's Immortal Essence Big Palm, his Qi Sea sealed, brought before Fang Bai.

"State your title."

Seeing the Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert still struggling, Fang Bai slapped his head, then questioned.

"My immortal title is Nvlei Immortal Emperor! Villain, undo this seal immediately, or I'll reduce you to ashes!"

Being slapped by a mere Immortal King Cultivation Realm immortal, Nvlei Immortal Emperor felt humiliated and infuriated, shouting angrily with red eyes.

Fang Bai laughed heartily, slapping his head again, saying, "Why shout? Once you're refined into a Puppet Corpse, you'll be honest! Hmm, Chaos Heaven Immortal Emperor plus you, two Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank experts, just perfect for forming a small joint assault formation..."

Fang Bai, saying this, stroked his chin and smiled broadly at Nvlei Immortal Emperor.

Nvlei Immortal Emperor hearing "Puppet Corpse," and seeing Fang Bai's sinister smile, shivered involuntarily, wanting to speak but was slapped by Fang Bai, sealing his life force, and thrown into the Five Elements Space Ring.

The immortals watching from afar were unaware that Fang Bai possessed a Five Elements Space Ring capable of containing living beings, thinking Nvlei Immortal Emperor was thrown into the Space Immortal Ring and must have been slapped dead by the young immortal.

"These immortals are not to be provoked! Best to keep away!"

Seeing a dignified Immortal Emperor Realm High Rank expert slain, the watching immortals quickly departed, unwilling to appear in sight of Fang Bai and others again.

Chapter 2484: The Bloody Storm in the Immortal Realm

The four immortals including the Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor were utterly shocked when Fang Bai summoned a Puppet Corpse with High Rank Immortal Emperor Realm strength for battle, never expecting him to possess such means.

This Wushuang Immortal King, possessing an Innate Spiritual Root, mighty battle power, and being protected by a Supreme Immortal Artifact with the aid of powerful puppet corpses, it's no wonder he could venture into the Purple Thunder Zone for tempering.

The four immortals including the Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor had heard from their master, Thunderflame Immortal Emperor, about how formidable the Emperor's Palace once was, and also knew there were many geniuses within.

However, later, the vast majority of the Emperor's Palace geniuses fell during the pursuit by eight top-tier forces.

This Wushuang Immortal King is young in immortal age, but possesses rare aptitude and extraordinary skill. If he could rise successfully in the future, perhaps he can revive the Emperor's Palace once more.

As disciples under the Thunderflame Immortal Emperor, the four immortals including the Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor naturally would rejoice to see such a development.

"Are you four staying in the Nine Nether Thunder Sea for further training, or leaving with us?"

Fang Bai inquired to the four immortals including the Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor.

Fang Bai, on this trip to the Nine Nether Thunder Sea, although he discovered the Emperor's Instruments left by the Hundred Flowers Empress, still remained unsure about her life or death, leaving him with some regret.

But given his current strength, this was all he could achieve.

Fang Bai planned to return to the Nine Nether Thunder Sea for a thorough investigation once he becomes powerful enough in the future.

By then, Fang Bai hopes to enter the core White Thunder Zone of the Nine Nether Thunder Sea to see if he can find more traces of the Hundred Flowers Empress and solve the mystery of her disappearance for nearly a century.

Fang Bai has many things to do in the meanwhile, and can't stay long in the Nine Nether Thunder Sea, so he's preparing to leave.

"We want to stay here and train a little longer. You three immortals can leave first if you have things to attend to."

The Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor thought over the question before he spoke.

His words also represented the other three disciples' intentions.

Fang Bai nodded and said, "Once you return to the Thunderflame Sect, deliver a message to the Thunderflame Immortal Emperor for me, saying that his cherished friend Fang Bai would visit him someday if given the chance."

The Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor didn't know who this "Fang Bai" mentioned by the Wushuang Immortal King before him really was, nor had he heard of their master having such an intimate friend. Although his heart was filled with curiosity, he did not ask, but smiled and nodded in agreement.

A thousand years ago in the Immortal Realm, the name of the War Emperor shook the Immortal Realm, known to all immortals, while the name "Fang Bai" was known only to the few immortals who had a deep bond with him, including the Thunderflame Immortal Emperor.

At that moment, both sides exchanged farewells in the Azure Thunder Zone of the Nine Nether Thunder Sea. The four immortals, including the Thunder Sword Celestial Emperor, stayed to continue their training, while Fang Bai, Xielei Immortal Emperor, and Fairy Yun Lei departed from the Nine Nether Thunder Sea, riding flying creatures across the hundred-mile-wide canyon, returning to the opposite Beast Bone Wasteland.

After leaving the Beast Bone Wasteland, Fang Bai released the Lotus Fairy from the Five Elements Space Ring, first introducing Xielei Immortal Emperor and Fairy Yun Lei to her, then explained the process of entering and leaving the Nine Nether Thunder Sea, and handed one of the Bipartite Dual Swords obtained from the Purple Thunder Zone of the Nine Nether Thunder Sea to the Lotus Fairy.

"This Emperor's Instrument was used by your master back then. Now that your master is not here, you shall keep it for her instead. If you meet her in the future, return this Emperor's Instrument to her; if not, you can use it yourself."

Fang Bai told the Lotus Fairy.

The Lotus Fairy regretted and felt saddened for not finding her master this time, accepted the Emperor's Instrument from Fang Bai, bowed her head to scrutinize it, her eyes turning red, and choked, "Upper Immortal, is my master...alive or dead?"

Fang Bai said, "It is too early to assert the life or death of your master now. When the opportunity arises in the future, I will investigate again, to find out whether she is still alive or not."

Seeing the Lotus Fairy's low spirits, he added, "Now you are alone at Hundred Flowers Mountain, hence in the future you shall follow me, and I will teach you Immortal Technique Secrets. Then we shall go to the Nine Nether Thunder Sea together to seek news of your master. Alright?"

The Lotus Fairy thought for a moment, then silently nodded.

The Lotus Fairy knew her master had a close relationship with the immortal before her whose previous incarnation was the War Emperor, and if she wanted to learn news of her master, he was her sole reliance.

Moreover, the Lotus Fairy understood the demise of her nine senior sisters was not unrelated to the eight top-tier forces of this age, and if she followed the War Emperor for guidance and instruction in the future, her strength would certainly rapidly rise.

In the future, when the War Emperor seeks revenge against the eight top-tier forces, she, too, can contribute to avenging her senior sisters.

Xielei Immortal Emperor and Fairy Yun Lei, knowing the female immortal before them was a disciple of their master's friend, the Hundred Flowers Empress, took particular care of her.

One day, Fang Bai, the Lotus Fairy, Xielei Immortal Emperor, and Fairy Yun Lei returned to the Secret Realm where Xia Chenyu, Qin Yaorao, and other immortals were located, reuniting with them, leading to inevitable exchanges of greetings.

In the ensuing period, Fang Bai resided temporarily in this Secret Realm, occasionally guiding the cultivation of the Lotus Fairy and other immortals, mostly venturing to nearby Immortal Cities for seeking news of other immortals from lower worlds.

As for the Nvlei Immortal Emperor, who challenged Fang Bai and other immortals in the Nine Nether Thunder Sea, he was turned by Fang Bai into another Puppet Corpse.

Though Fang Bai had lost half of the early and mid-level Immortal Emperor Realm Puppet Corpses during the Nine Nether Thunder Sea trip, he gained a High Rank Immortal Emperor Realm Puppet Corpse, making his combat strength even stronger.

Using two High Rank Immortal Emperor Realm Puppet Corpses to lead, Fang Bai practiced a Combined Assault Formation with overwhelming power. Once this formation is proficiently practiced, Fang Bai would be assured of survival within the Immortal Realm unless a Immortal Emperor personally intervenes.

...

While Fang Bai was guiding the Lotus Fairy and other immortals in cultivation and seeking lower world immortals in the Immortal Cities, he was unaware of the storm of blood and carnage unseen for a millennium erupting within the Immortal Realm.

And the protagonist of this storm was none other than one of the eight top-tier Immortal Emperors of today, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor.

Reportedly, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor was frenziedly searching for a Heaven Devouring Art of a Demon Clan Emperor, questioning immortals encountered about the Heaven Devouring Art, and if the reply was unsatisfactory, he would strike to kill immediately.

During this time, thousands of immortals had fallen to the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, including numerous disciples from strong Immortal Sects and Immortal Gates.

The Immortals of the Immortal Realm, recalling the Heaven Devouring Art of the Demon Clan Emperor, believed the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor had already cultivated Demon Clan Techniques, his mind corrupted by demonic influence, having fell into the Demon Dao, causing his temperament to change drastically.

The Golden Crow Immortal Emperor's deranged thirst for blood incited rage among many immortals and Immortal Sects and Immortal Gates, who gathered to convene a meeting to campaign against the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, ultimately deciding that four Half-Step Immortal Emperors and ten Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts would join forces to campaign against the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, avenging fallen immortals and ridding the Immortal Realm of a scourge.

Chapter 2485: Annihilating the Golden Crow Palace

Originally, the eight supreme powers in the current world had mutual alliances, agreeing that if one side encountered difficulties, the other seven would provide support.

However, since the fall of the Emperor's Palace, the eight supreme powers have gradually grown into conflicts for their respective sect interests. Although they have not openly broken ties, their relationships are already superficial and insincere.

Back when the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor acquired the Demon Clan Emperor's Heaven Devouring Art, despite his efforts to conceal this fact, the other seven supreme Immortal Emperors still caught wind of it, each becoming increasingly tense.

What made them anxious was the prospect that if the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor were to one day advance to the Great Emperor Realm, the Golden Crow Palace would unite the Immortal Realm, and they, the supreme Immortal Emperors, would either be slain by the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor or reduced to his servants.

Therefore, when they heard that the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor was recklessly killing immortals, igniting the wrath of the immortals, the seven supreme Immortal Emperors were outwardly astonished but inwardly delighted.

They hoped that the immortals could join forces and battle the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, preferably leading to mutual destruction, allowing them to reap the benefits as a third party.

Some of the more scheming supreme Immortal Emperors even felt the conflict was not intense enough. They not only fanned the flames from the sidelines but also secretly sent high-level members of their sects to assassinate some hostile immortals, pinning the blame on the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor.

Thus, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor's enemies grew in number, tarnishing the reputation of the Golden Crow Palace.

The disciples of the Golden Crow Palace discovered that when they went out to train, many immortals looked at them with disdain and anger; some immortals even attacked them without asking questions, causing many fellow disciples to fall.

Later, when the news of the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor wreaking havoc in the Immortal Realm returned to the Golden Crow Palace, the disciples were dumbfounded.

The disaster caused by the Palace Master was something they had to accept with tears.

Thus, many of the Golden Crow Palace's disciples could only stay quietly in the palace, shutting themselves away.

Later, when the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor invaded a first-rate sect and was ambushed by the prepared immortals of the Immortal Realm, a fierce battle ensued for several days, darkening the skies and dimming the sun and moon, eventually ending with the wounded Golden Crow Immortal Emperor escaping.

The immortals, having jointly defeated the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, grew exuberant and high-spirited. Therefore, they united more immortals and stormed towards the Golden Crow Palace, declaring that they would flatten the golden crow palace, avenging the immortals who had fallen to the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor.

The mob of immortals grew like a snowball, overwhelming in numbers by the time it reached the Golden Crow Palace, crushing the Golden Crow Palace in sheer magnitude.

The various forces that depended on the Golden Crow Palace, seeing the mighty force of the immortals, were frightened and withdrew, silently observing.

The seven supreme powers weren't idle either; they dispatched numerous disciples to blend discreetly among the immortals, stoking the fires, preparing to use the opportunity to destroy the Golden Crow Palace and divide its spoils.

Thus, a grand, protracted siege of the Golden Crow Palace commenced.

The reason for its prolongation was that the Golden Crow Palace possesses several defensive arrays. Once activated, breaking them is by no means easy.

Moreover, the Golden Crow Palace has a legacy spanning tens of thousands of years. Whether in terms of the number of disciples or their quality, it remains one of the most elite in the Immortal Realm. Even a million immortals joining forces cannot eradicate it quickly.

This can be understood by looking at the Emperor's Palace of the past.

The Emperor's Palace of old, though its heritage wasn't as rich as the Golden Crow Palace, possessed the War Emperor, making its overall strength even greater than the Golden Crow Palace today. The eight supreme Immortal Emperors, seeking to destroy the Emperor's Palace, exerted their full strength, mobilizing over a million immortals, but even after a thousand years, they could not completely eradicate the disciples of the Emperor's Palace.

Those disciples who managed to escape remain formidable and are a lingering concern for the eight supreme Immortal Emperors.

In the midst of the battle between the immortals and the Golden Crow Palace, the seven supreme Immortal Emperors finally broke their silence, they stepped forward, announcing their alignment with the immortals and joining the forces to vanquish the Golden Crow Palace.

Of course, many immortals believed the seven supreme Immortal Emperors' step as disgraceful, as they merely are seeking to gain some benefit from the impending downfall of the Golden Crow Palace.

But the seven supreme Immortal Emperors and their forces were extremely powerful, and their participation could accelerate the destruction of the Golden Crow Palace. Therefore, the alliance of the immortals and the seven supreme Immortal Emperors came to a temporary agreement, claiming that after the downfall of the Golden Crow Palace, the spoils would be shared equally: half to the seven supreme Immortal Emperors, the other half to the immortal alliance.

The seven supreme Immortal Emperors were eager to monopolize the Golden Crow Palace's spoils, but they knew the immortal alliance was not to be trifled with. If the two sides clashed, it could become a great disaster for the Immortal Realm, benefiting the Demon Clan and the Demon Dao for nothing.

Therefore, reaching and adhering to the agreement was a win-win scenario.

As for the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, from start to finish, he never reappeared, and no immortal knew where he had gone.

In the battle of the Golden Crow Palace, the seven supreme Immortal Emperors formed a deadly enmity with the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor.

Hence, concerning the whereabouts of the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, the seven supreme Immortal Emperors were very attentive. After extinguishing the Golden Crow Palace, they dispatched a large number of disciples, as they once hunted the Emperor's Palace disciples, to search for the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, preparing to join forces to eliminate him upon discovery to prevent his frenzied retaliation.

An Immortal Emperor's power is immense; if the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor is not destroyed, even the seven supreme Immortal Emperors would be restless.

Furthermore, the seven supreme Immortal Emperors were wholeheartedly exploring the whereabouts of the Demon Clan Technique, Heaven Devouring Art.

Since the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor is frantically searching for the Heaven Devouring Art, it means the technique indeed exists, and it is not in his possession.

Although the seven supreme Immortal Emperors knew that the Heaven Devouring Art is a relic of the Demon Clan Emperor and that cultivation could drastically alter one's character and potentially lead to the Demon Dao, their craving for power makes them yearn fervently for that Great Emperor technique.

"Is there internal strife? Haha, Golden Crow, oh Golden Crow, in the past, whether you joined the siege against me or the annihilation of the Emperor's Palace, you were a proactive participant. Who would have thought those events would now unfold upon your Golden Crow Palace?"

When Fang Bai, one day near his residing Secret Realm within the Immortal City, heard of the Golden Crow Palace's destruction, he couldn't help but laugh.

Speaking of which, Fang Bai played a crucial role in the downfall of the Golden Crow Palace.

If Fang Bai hadn't stolen the Heaven Devouring Art, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor wouldn't have gone out madly searching and slaughtered so many immortals, thereby angering the immortals and leading to the collapse of the Golden Crow Palace on the path to doom.

The downfall of the Golden Crow Palace marked the public conflict between the eight supreme Immortal Emperors, which for Fang Bai was beneficial, as it meant one less formidable enemy when seeking justice for the Emperor's Palace disciples in the future, and reduced obstacles when planning to rebuild the Emperor's Palace.

When Fang Bai returned to the Secret Realm and shared the news with the immortals there, everyone felt incredibly relieved.

"I intend to go out, continue to search for other lower-realm immortals, and by the way, stir up the waters of the Immortal Realm a bit more. The Golden Crow Palace has met its deserved fate, but the other seven supreme powers cannot be allowed to remain untroubled."

Fang Bai said to the immortals within the Secret Realm.

Chapter 2486: Expansive Heaven Domain

A few days later, after leaving behind some messaging jade tokens, Fang Bai left the Secret Realm with his Single-Horned Dragon Horse.

Two high-rank Immortal Emperor Realm puppet corpses, three mid-rank Immortal Emperor Realm ghost corpses, five low-rank Immortal Emperor Realm puppet corpses...

Within Fang Bai's Five Elements Space Ring were these puppet corpses, and they could form formations to confront enemies. With just these, Fang Bai could already stir up considerable trouble among the seven top forces, leaving them in chaos and unable to attend to anything else.

Thus, it was beneficial for both Fang Bai himself and the surviving disciples of the Emperor's Palace in the Immortal Realm.

After emerging from the Secret Realm, Fang Bai directly entered an Immortal City tens of thousands of miles away.

This Immortal City was under the jurisdiction of the Dragon Taming Palace, which was founded by the Dragon Taming Emperor. Fang Bai planned to stir up a storm in this Immortal City, creating some trouble for the Dragon Taming Emperor.

The steward stationed in this Immortal City was a mid-rank Immortal Emperor Realm cultivator from the Dragon Taming Palace.

Although the mid-rank Immortal Emperor Realm was not considered powerful, with the strong backing of the Dragon Taming Palace, and most of the forces in this Immortal City relying on it, other forces dared not cause trouble here.

Other immortals dared not, but Fang Bai dared.

Fang Bai had a unique physique, capable of changing his appearance and aura at will. Moreover, he was once very familiar with the Eight Great Immortal Emperors and their high-ranking subordinates, having some understanding of their cultivation techniques and secret techniques, allowing him to easily impersonate experts from the eight top forces.

After entering this Immortal City, Fang Bai spent a few days investigating, familiarizing himself with the composition of immortals in the City Lord Mansion, making thorough preparations, and then one deep night, impersonated a high-rank elder under the Myriad Sword Immortal Emperor and bloodwashed the City Lord Mansion, seizing its accumulated cultivation resources.

The news spread, causing an uproar in the Immortal Realm.

The Dragon Taming Emperor was furious, vowing blood for blood against the Myriad Sword Sect.

However, the Sect Leader of the Myriad Sword Sect, the Myriad Sword Immortal Emperor, claimed innocence, stating that the said expert had been in secluded cultivation all along and could not have gone out to bloodwash the City Lord Mansion of an Immortal City under the Dragon Taming Emperor.

Only, at the time of the bloodwash of the City Lord Mansion of the Immortal City under the jurisdiction of the Dragon Taming Palace, some lucky-to-escape disciples of the Dragon Taming Palace witnessed the culprit was indeed a Myriad Sword Sect elder.

Therefore, despite how the Myriad Sword Immortal Emperor pleaded and explained, the Dragon Taming Palace side refused to believe, firmly believing that the matter was indeed done by that Myriad Sword Sect elder.

Actually, ever since joining forces with various immortals of the Immortal Realm to annihilate the Golden Crow Palace, the relationships among the seven top forces not only did not consolidate but instead further tore apart, especially on the matter of dividing the benefits of the Golden Crow Palace, there have been frequent skirmishes due to uneven distribution. The most intense were those between the Myriad Sword Sect and the Dragon Taming Palace.

Thus, the incident of the Myriad Sword Sect elder bloodwashing the City Lord Mansion under the Dragon Taming Palace appeared not entirely impossible in the eyes of other immortals.

The two top forces of the Immortal Realm, because of this matter, completely tore their relationship apart, causing chaos, dragging in numerous Immortal Sects and gates dependent on them.

The other five top forces hoped for an all-out conflict between them to fish in troubled waters themselves, thus using their old tactics, secretly fanning the flames, provoking and inciting, to intensify the conflicts between the two top forces.

Due to the City Lord Mansion bloodwash incident, the seven top forces of the Immortal Realm became somewhat embroiled, ultimately breaking the relative peace of the Immortal Realm that had lasted for a millennium.

After bloodwashing the City Lord Mansion of the Immortal City under the Dragon Taming Palace and taking away all its cultivation resources, Fang Bai fled far away.

In the subsequent years, each Heavenly Domain of the Immortal Realm occasionally reported incidents of subordinate forces of the eight top Immortal Emperors being seized and bloodwashed, resulting in the fall of numerous Immortal Kings and Immortal Emperors, with massive amounts of cultivation resources being looted and severe losses incurred.

Fang Bai, the instigator, traveled around the Immortal Realm, today impersonating a high-level under the Qingtian Immortal Emperor to kill a few disciples under the Ice River Empress; tomorrow impersonating a high-level under the Thunder Immortal Emperor to kill a few disciples of the Flying Swan Immortal Emperor...

The seven top Immortal Emperors, not being fools, found the matter suspicious, and also sent disciples to investigate, but for a time couldn't figure out who was truly behind the scenes manipulating it all. Furthermore, with their own disciples stirred up, hard to restrain, once encountering each other during training, provocations and conflicts would occur.

As a result, the relationships between the seven top forces became increasingly strained, involving countless immortals, numbering in the hundreds of millions.

Chaos in the Immortal Realm thus began to gradually arise.

.....

The Expansive Heaven Domain is the sixth of the nine great domains of the Immortal Realm.

Skyflame Forest is a renowned cultivation holy land in the Expansive Heaven Domain, sprawling over a million miles, covering a vast area, where all flowers, grasses, and trees are of the fire attribute.

Legend says that in the Ancient Era, an extraterrestrial heavenly fire descended here, burning the entire million-mile forest to ashes, which after many years regrew into this fire-based forest.

All the flora of Skyflame Forest constantly release heat, making it seem like an endless sea of fire within, unbearable for immortals of weak strength.

Therefore, immortals who come to train here either primarily cultivate fire-based techniques and secret techniques, or have sufficiently strong cultivation levels.

In the vast Skyflame Forest, every day hosts immortals from all corners of the Immortal Realm training, harvesting immortal elixirs, and hunting immortal beasts.

"Let's see where you can run, little leopard!"

On this day, deep within a thousand miles of Skyflame Forest, a crisp shout suddenly resounded, followed by a Fairy in a red dress leaping out from behind a giant red fruit tree.

The Fairy in the red dress held an Immortal Sword, merging man and sword into one, drawing a scarlet glow to stab at a Fire Cloud Leopard engulfed in fire.

The Fairy in the red dress appeared to be in her twenties, with a graceful, alluring figure, seemingly unparalleled in beauty.

Her brows and eyes exuded endless charm, her beautiful eyes sparkled, naturally revealing an enchanting allure, making one's heart skip a beat with every smile and frown.

"Beware, Baimei Junior Sister!"

Seeing the Fairy in red attacking the Fire Cloud Leopard, a male immortal in a red robe hastily pursued, shouting loudly to stop her.

That Fire Cloud Leopard matched the combat power of a fifth-rank Immortal King Realm expert, while the Fairy in the red dress was only at the fourth-rank Immortal King Realm.

Generally, compared to immortals and immortal beasts of the same realm, immortals stand no chance against immortal beasts, let alone the Fire Cloud Leopard being a minor realm stronger than the Fairy in the red dress?

The male immortal in red was known as the "Furious Arrow Immortal King," a disciple of the "Lihuo Sect," possessing an eighth-rank Immortal King Realm level.

This time, the Furious Arrow Immortal King and several of his fellow disciples came to Skyflame Forest for training, and as the senior disciple, he bore the responsibility of protecting his junior brothers and sisters. If any mishap befell them, he might face punishment from his master later.

The Furious Arrow Immortal King knew that "Baimei Fairy," was the dearest disciple to their master, the Lihuo Immortal Emperor, and if something untoward happened to her, he would be in big trouble. Therefore, seeing her overestimate herself trying to hunt the fifth-rank Immortal King Realm Fire Cloud Leopard, the Furious Arrow Immortal King was instantly anxious.

Chapter 2487: I'm Thinking of My Immortal Partner

The figure of Baimei Fairy was like a flash of lightning as she darted through the forest, moving even faster than the Fire Cloud Leopard.

Strangely, although the Fire Cloud Leopard was evidently stronger than Baimei Fairy, it was frantically escaping in panic.

The Furious Arrow Immortal King, having caught up with Baimei Fairy, noticed the peculiarity and couldn't help but ask, "Sister Baimei, what's going on? That Fire Cloud Leopard seems to be quite afraid of you!"

Baimei Fairy slightly curled her lips, showing a trace of pride, and pointed to the fleeing Fire Cloud Leopard ahead, "That little leopard was once tamed by me using the Beast Taming Scripture. For some reason, it managed to break free from my control today... Hmm, it seems my Beast Taming Scripture is not yet refined enough, I should practice more in the future."

The Furious Arrow Immortal King asked curiously, "Beast Taming Scripture? Where did you learn such a secret technique?"

Baimei Fairy rolled her eyes and said, "Last time during my training outside, I accidentally learned it in an Immortal Remnant..."

She seemed unwilling to say more on this matter. Seeing the Fire Cloud Leopard in front running further away, she waved her hand and said, "I won't talk with you anymore! I'm going to chase after that little leopard! Hmm, once I tame it, I'll make it my mount!"

Her cherry lips slightly parted, emitting a clear whistle, and her figure suddenly sped up to catch up.

Upon hearing the whistle, the Fire Cloud Leopard momentarily paused, and its speed suddenly slowed down.

However, it seemed unwilling to be controlled, with a look of struggle in its eyes, and continued to run desperately.

But as Baimei Fairy's whistle became increasingly clear, it finally couldn't resist the power of the Beast Taming Scripture, gradually losing itself, and obediently lay down on the ground.

"You little leopard, isn't it good to obediently be my mount? You dare to escape! Trying to escape, huh? You think I, the Fairy, can't deal with you? Watch me beat you!"

Baimei Fairy caught up, raised her hand, and slapped the Fire Cloud Leopard's head twice, speaking with an angry expression.

The Fire Cloud Leopard, over ten feet tall and thirty feet long, with a cultivation level of the Fifth Rank Immortal King Realm, was unexpectedly struck without any resistance by Baimei Fairy, whose size and combat strength were far inferior. It lay on the ground whimpering, looking pitifully at Baimei Fairy as if begging for mercy.

"Sister Baimei is truly impressive!"

The Furious Arrow Immortal King, who followed later, watched the tamed state of the Fire Cloud Leopard and couldn't help but marvel.

"Little leopard, stand up!"

Baimei Fairy raised her eyebrows, lifted her palm slightly upwards. When the Fire Cloud Leopard stood upright, she flew onto its back and excitedly said, "Run! Take me for a ride in this Sky Flame Forest!"

As soon as she spoke, the Fire Cloud Leopard turned into a line of fire, taking her far away and appearing a thousand feet away in an instant.

"This Baimei junior always acts so impetuously..."

The Furious Arrow Immortal King watched the direction in which the Fire Cloud Leopard disappeared, shook his head with a bitter smile, looking helpless.

He summoned an Immortal Sword surrounded by flames, leaped onto it, and with a "whoosh," the flaming Immortal Sword flew three feet off the ground, speeding off following the trail left by the Fire Cloud Leopard.

Along the way, the Furious Arrow Immortal King occasionally let out a long whistle to inform other fellow disciples of his position, urging them to catch up.

"Fang Bai, Fang Bai, where are you in the Immortal Realm? Are you searching everywhere for us at this moment?"

Riding the Fire Cloud Leopard, Baimei Fairy delved deep into the Sky Flame Forest, feeling the increasing heat ahead, knowing she couldn't go further; otherwise, she would face danger, so she gradually slowed down.

She sat on the Fire Cloud Leopard's back, wandering in the forest, and suddenly thought of Fang Bai, her eyes softening, and her expression showing a bit of infatuation.

"Sister Baimei, what are you thinking about?"

The Furious Arrow Immortal King caught up, seeing Baimei Fairy somewhat lost in thought, seemingly immersed in memory, and casually asked.

A breeze blew through the forest, lifting a few strands of Baimei Fairy's hair. She raised her arm, tucking the strands behind her ear.

This inadvertent small gesture left the Furious Arrow Immortal King slightly awestruck, thinking that this junior sister was truly naturally graceful, each movement conveying boundless charm; every detailed look at her revealed an unexpected beauty.

The Furious Arrow Immortal King already had an immortal partner and was deeply in love; otherwise, he felt he might also become one of the many pursuers of this junior sister, just like other seniors and juniors of the same sect.

"Brother Furious Arrow, I'm thinking of my immortal partner! Since coming to the Immortal Realm, I haven't heard from him at all; I don't know where he is or how he's doing... Oh, I'm really worried about him!"

Baimei Fairy mumbled, sighing softly.

"You have an immortal partner?"

The Furious Arrow Immortal King asked unconsciously, thinking if these words spread, they would break the hearts of many senior and junior disciples.

Baimei Fairy nodded, "Yes, I already had one while I was in the lower realm!"

The Furious Arrow Immortal King saw in her expression a deep longing and love, knowing that her relationship with her immortal partner was profound and strong, not faded over time.

The Furious Arrow Immortal King suddenly felt some admiration for the immortal partner Baimei Fairy spoke of, wondering what kind of outstanding male immortal could be worthy of this junior sister with dual attribute innate spiritual root and high cultivation talent?

At this moment, several figures shot over like lightning, landing around the Furious Arrow Immortal King and Baimei Fairy.

These immortals, both male and female, were all disciples of the Lihuo Sect, who came with the Furious Arrow Immortal King and Baimei Fairy to train in the Sky Flame Forest.

They entered the sect earlier than Baimei Fairy, their immortal age much older, and even the one with the lowest cultivation level was at the Fourth Rank Immortal King Realm.

Since joining the sect, Baimei Fairy, with her nimble eyes and sweet mouth, gained great popularity among fellow disciples. Nearly all disciples of the Lihuo Sect adored this bewitchingly unmatched junior sister, spoiling and doting on her just like their master, the Lihuo Immortal Emperor.

On this training trip to the Sky Flame Forest, the Furious Arrow Immortal King and a few other Lihuo Sect disciples were given special instructions by the master to ensure Baimei Fairy's safety.

"Junior sister, do you... really have an immortal partner?"

"You're tricking us, aren't you?"

Two male disciples of the Lihuo Sect, clearly having heard the conversation between the Furious Arrow Immortal King and Baimei Fairy, asked urgently upon landing.

Since Baimei Fairy entered the Lihuo Sect, these two male disciples were astounded by her beauty like a celestial being, considering her the best candidate for their immortal partners, and though repeatedly rejected in their confessions, they remained unwavering in their adoration.

Previously, Baimei Fairy hadn't mentioned anything about having an immortal partner, so they always held onto hope in their hearts.

But this time, Baimei Fairy mentioned an immortal partner for the first time, causing them nervousness and a bit of anxiety.

What if what she said was true? What should they do then? Would their unrequited love just end fruitlessly this way?

"Yes, it's true! I already had an immortal partner while I was in the lower realm!"

Baimei Fairy raised her smiling face and told the two Lihuo Sect disciples, "Dear senior brothers, in my heart, you've always been my admirable elder brothers! Your care and indulgence, letting me be willful, I have kept in my heart! You won't stop caring for me just because I have an immortal partner, will you?"

Chapter 2488: You Have No Chance!

The two disciples of the Lihuo Sect looked at Baimei Fairy's charming face with a smile. Although they felt painful and disappointed that she already had an immortal companion, they couldn't bring themselves to ignore her.

"Junior Sister Baimei, do I... still have a chance?"

One of the disciples of the Lihuo Sect asked emotionally.

"What chance?"

Baimei Fairy feigned ignorance.

The Lihuo Sect disciple took a deep breath and said, "I mean... your immortal companion, you haven't seen him for years, right? The Immortal Realm is dangerous. If he has fallen, I..."

Before he finished speaking, Baimei Fairy's previously smiling face instantly turned cold. She said in a frosty voice, "Senior Brother Yun Luo, that's an inauspicious thing to say, and I don't like hearing it. Please don't say it again, okay?"

Known as "Yun Luo Immortal King," the Lihuo Sect disciple had never seen his junior sister speak harshly to him like this. He was stunned for a moment and then murmured, "Junior Sister Baimei, I..."

Baimei Fairy interrupted him and continued, "My immortal companion, Linghu Baimei's immortal companion, is a unique immortal in the Immortal Realm. Other immortals can praise him, but they must not speak ill of him, or I will be upset!"

Another disciple of the Lihuo Sect smiled bitterly and said, "Junior Sister Baimei, don't be upset. You probably misunderstood what Junior Brother Yun Luo meant. He was just saying in case..."

"There is no 'in case'!"

Baimei Fairy exclaimed, "I haven't seen my immortal companion in years, but I believe he will be fine! One day, he will appear before me, stepping on Auspicious Clouds!"

"Junior Brother Yun Luo, Junior Brother Jihuo, your words were inappropriate, making Junior Sister Baimei upset. Apologize to her quickly! Junior Sister Baimei, calm yourself as well! We are all of the same sect, and we should be harmonious and loving!"

The Furious Arrow Immortal King, the senior brother of the Lihuo Sect, saw that Junior Sister Baimei Fairy was emotional and that the two junior brothers looked embarrassed, so he immediately spoke up to mediate.

Yun Luo Immortal King and the Lihuo Sect disciple known as "Jihuo Immortal King," seeing their senior brother speak and not wanting to truly upset Junior Sister Baimei, obediently apologized to Baimei Fairy, admitting their previous mistake in speaking.

"Two senior brothers, my immortal companion is my reverse scale. As long as you refrain from saying anything inauspicious or unpleasant about him, I will not mind anything else."

Baimei Fairy's tone softened, but her expression remained somewhat indifferent.

"My affection with my immortal companion is deep and sincere. I will wait for him to come to me, or I will seek him in the future. Even if we cannot meet again in this life, my heart remains with him. You... have no chance! Two senior brothers, there are plenty of outstanding senior sisters and junior sisters in our Lihuo Sect. How am I, Linghu Baimei, worthy of your such deep affection?"

Baimei Fairy continued.

Previously, she had never discussed her immortal companion. Taking this opportunity, she wanted to sever the thoughts of the two senior brothers who were deeply infatuated with her.

Yun Luo Immortal King and Jihuo Immortal King exchanged wry smiles, thinking that although there are many senior sisters and junior sisters in the Lihuo Sect, none could compare to the bright moon of the little junior sister before them. How could they be mentioned in the same breath?

However, since the little junior sister had declared they had no chance, it meant that no matter how much effort they put in the future, they would never win her favor, causing them great disappointment and loss.

"If there is a chance to meet Junior Sister Baimei's immortal companion in the future, I'm determined to see what kind of outstanding male immortal he is that makes Junior Sister Baimei so unforgettable!"

Yun Luo Immortal King said with unwillingness.

He was a prodigy of the younger generation in the Lihuo Sect and had already reached the seventh-grade Immortal King Realm cultivation level, second only to Junior Sister Baimei among the sect's younger disciples. He thought that if he saw Junior Sister Baimei's immortal companion in the future, it would be fine if he were superior, but if not, it would leave him restless.

Baimei Fairy beamed and clapped her hands, "Great! When the two senior brothers see my immortal companion, you will definitely feel that my taste is excellent!"

Seeing that Junior Sister Baimei's face lit up with excitement and her eyes brightened when mentioning her immortal companion, Yun Luo Immortal King and Jihuo Immortal King knew that in her heart, their status was incomparable to that of her immortal companion, leaving them with a bitter taste.

Accompanying Furious Arrow Immortal King, Yun Luo Immortal King, Jihuo Immortal King, and Baimei Fairy were two other female disciples of the Lihuo Sect. They had just arrived at the scene following Yun Luo Immortal King and Jihuo Immortal King, standing dozens of feet away, and did not approach.

These two female disciples also heard the conversation between Baimei Fairy and Yun Luo Immortal King and Jihuo Immortal King.

They both had a fondness for the sect's prodigies, Yun Luo Immortal King and Jihuo Immortal King. Unfortunately, the two senior brothers were infatuated with Little Junior Sister Baimei instead of them.

At this moment, upon hearing that Little Junior Sister Baimei already had an immortal companion and clearly stated there was no chance between the two senior brothers and her, the two female immortals felt both joy and a bit of faint sadness, with mixed feelings in their hearts.

The Furious Arrow Immortal King, an experienced man regarding romantic feelings, observed the expressions of his junior brothers and sisters and realized the situation was somewhat complex and not something he could mediate, so he changed the subject, "We've been out on this training mission for a year. It's time to return to Lihuo Sect!"

"Let's go! Let's go! We've gained a lot on this trip, and we can show off to our fellow disciples when we return!"

Baimei Fairy said with a laugh, then patted the Fire Cloud Leopard beneath her.

The Fire Cloud Leopard understood her intent, roared, flicked its tail, and dashed off, leaving a trail of flames in its wake.

The Furious Arrow Immortal King and the others ascended their Immortal Artifacts, flying through the sky, swiftly pursuing.

After flying several hundred miles and almost leaving Skyflame Forest, two huge flames suddenly appeared ahead, accompanied by waves of scorching fire, approaching them.

"Two Ninth Grade Immortal King Realm's Fire Cloud Leopards..."

The Furious Arrow Immortal King and others gasped in surprise when they saw the two massive flames were two Fire Cloud Leopards with cultivation levels far surpassing theirs.

Although they had six Immortal King Realm experts on their side, the gap in cultivation was too large. Even if they joined forces, they were no match for a single Ninth Grade Immortal King Realm Fire Cloud Leopard, let alone two equally powerful ones blocking their way.

"Could these two Fire Cloud Leopards be from the same brood as the one beneath me?"

Baimei Fairy, a very clever female immortal, noticed that the two Fire Cloud Leopards blocking the way were staring at her and the Fire Cloud Leopard beneath her with anger in their eyes. She immediately dismounted from the Fire Cloud Leopard and stepped aside, simultaneously releasing her control over it.

The Fire Cloud Leopard, regaining its freedom, immediately rushed to the other two Fire Cloud Leopards, affectionately rubbing against each other.

Chapter 2489: Sound of the Great Dao

"One male, one female, and a cub... these three Fire Cloud Leopards are obviously a family! I've stirred up major trouble..."

Baimei Fairy muttered under her breath, quickly exchanged a look with several fellow Sect members, and prepared to ride her Auspicious Clouds and flee.

Only at this moment did they realize that the surrounding space had already been imprisoned by the powerful aura of the two Fire Cloud Leopards, as if they had fallen into an invisible net, leaving them no way to escape.

Furious Arrow Immortal King and the other Immortals exerted themselves to the utmost, charging fiercely several times, but finding it all in vain, their hearts couldn't help sinking into despair.

Those two Fire Cloud Leopards at Ninth Grade Immortal King Realm had battle power comparable to Half-Step Immortal Emperor Realm experts; if they launched an attack, these six Immortals would likely not have a single one escape alive.

"Lihuo Sect disciples, form the formation! No matter what, we must protect Junior Sister Baimei!"

As the senior disciple of the Lihuo Sect, Furious Arrow Immortal King forced himself to calm down. He knew what the peerlessly talented Junior Sister Baimei meant for the future of Lihuo Sect and that she absolutely could not fall here, so he made a prompt decision and spoke.

The other five Lihuo Sect disciples had also heard their master say that Junior Sister Baimei possessed Immortal Emperor aptitude, and that her importance to the Sect far surpassed theirs.

And as Lihuo Sect disciples, they had to place the Sect's interests first at all times and in all places, so after hearing Furious Arrow Immortal King's words, Yun Luo Immortal King and the other four Immortals immediately shifted their positions, and together with Furious Arrow Immortal King formed a defensive stance, protecting Baimei Fairy in the center.

"That cub was tamed by me; it has nothing to do with my fellow Sect members! If you want to kill someone, then kill me!"

Baimei Fairy was not the sort to fear death. Unwilling to let her fellow Sect members protect her, and knowing that once an Immortal Beast's Cultivation Level reached a certain realm, it could speak human language and communicate with Immortals, she raised her delicate voice to address the two powerful Fire Cloud Leopards, speaking from behind the few fellow disciples shielding her.

"You little Immortal, daring to bully my son—you deserve death!"

The male leopard on the left stared at Baimei Fairy with cold, merciless eyes and spoke in a dull tone.

"You Immortals must all die!"

The female leopard on the right said harshly.

The pair of male and female Fire Cloud Leopards were wreathed in killing intent, their gaze brimming with the ferocious savagery unique to Immortal Beasts. The terrifying pressure from them surged forward like wave after wave of tides, relentlessly crashing toward the group of Lihuo Sect Immortals opposite them.

Furious Arrow Immortal King and the other Immortals each released their auras and summoned their Immortal Artifacts, doing their utmost to withstand the pressure of the two Immortal Beasts, but their strength was insufficient, and they were forced to constantly retreat.

Baimei Fairy retreated along with them, but most of the pressure released by the two Fire Cloud Leopards was borne by Furious Arrow Immortal King and the others, so the pressure she endured was not as heavy.

"Puff!"

Furious Arrow Immortal King's body suddenly swayed, and he opened his mouth to spit out a mouthful of fresh blood.

Among the Lihuo Sect disciples, Furious Arrow Immortal King was the strongest, bearing nearly half of the pressure; he finally couldn't endure it and was injured to the point of coughing blood.

"Senior Brother Furious Arrow!"

Several drops of blood splattered onto Baimei Fairy's body, and she blurted out in alarm.

"Junior Sister Baimei, the enemy is too powerful. I fear your senior brother will find it hard to hold them off! But if they want to harm you, they'll have to step over my corpse first!"

Furious Arrow Immortal King held his Immortal Artifact crosswise before his chest, not turning his head as he spoke with grim resolve.

The two Fire Cloud Leopards bared their fangs, growling low as they advanced slowly.

Wherever they passed, the temperature rose to scorching heat, turning everything into a sea of fire.

Their oppressive might came in wave after wave, and the scorching heat and sonic blasts carried in their roars all exceeded the limit that Furious Arrow Immortal King and the other Immortals could endure, causing each of them to spit blood and be flung backward.

Baimei Fairy possessed a Dual Attribute Innate Spiritual Root, giving her an extraordinary physique, and she was secretly circulating the Nine Revolutions True Fire Art learned from Fang Bai, thereby dissolving part of the pressure from the Fire Cloud Leopards. Even so, she was still injured, though her injuries were the lightest among the Lihuo Sect disciples.

Seeing the two powerful Immortal Beasts drawing closer and closer, Baimei Fairy gritted her teeth, fixed her gaze on one of the Fire Cloud Leopards, parted her cherry lips slightly, and let out a shrill, piercing howl, attempting to use Beast Taming to control that Fire Cloud Leopard.

Her hope was that if she could successfully control one Fire Cloud Leopard and make the two powerful Immortal Beasts turn on each other, then they Immortals would have a chance to escape.

However, she also understood that the gap in Cultivation Level between her and that Fire Cloud Leopard was immense, so this hope was extremely slim; she could only force herself to try.

As her howl rang out, the advancing Fire Cloud Leopard on the opposite side suddenly paused, its eyes going momentarily vacant.

But before Baimei Fairy could rejoice, that Fire Cloud Leopard threw off the confusion caused by her howl, its gaze regaining clarity.

"You little Immortal, you deserve death!"

That Fire Cloud Leopard seemed to realize it had almost fallen for a trick and was enraged. It bared its fangs and claws, roaring as it pounced through the air at Baimei Fairy.

At this moment, Furious Arrow Immortal King and the other Lihuo Sect disciples were being attacked by the other Fire Cloud Leopard and were barely able to protect themselves; they simply had no strength left to save Baimei Fairy.

Knowing that she was at the brink of life and death, Baimei Fairy bit down hard on her lower lip, formed an Immortal Domain around herself, and hurled a jade-green seal from her hand, using all her strength to strike back.

That green seal was a gift to Baimei Fairy from her master, Lihuo Immortal Emperor. It was a Superior King Grade Immortal Artifact, and its power was quite formidable.

But Baimei Fairy was limited by her own Cultivation Level and could only draw out sixty to seventy percent of the green seal's power, unable to effectively defend against the Fire Cloud Leopard's attack.

"Boom!"

The green seal smashed into the Fire Cloud Leopard that was pouncing down from midair, producing a muffled, resounding crash.

The Fire Cloud Leopard's figure only paused slightly, then it continued its plunge.

"It's over, it's over! To think that I, Linghu Baimi, would fall to the attack of an Immortal Beast!"

Seeing the Fire Cloud Leopard break through the Immortal Domain she had formed as easily as splitting bamboo, its bloody maw right before her eyes, Baimei Fairy knew she could not escape this calamity, and she couldn't help but sigh in her heart.

"Dong!"

"Dong!"

"Dong!"

...

Just then, from deep within the Skyflame Forest, there suddenly came a drum-like muffled booming.

This sound seemed to contain the Great Dao of heaven and earth, and also like some primordial colossal beast that held up the sky and trod the earth was stomping on the ground, beating in time with the heartbeat of every Immortal present.

With each of its strikes, heaven and earth trembled in response. All the Immortals and Immortal Beasts present, including the two powerful Fire Cloud Leopards, felt waves of dizziness in their heads, as if even their souls were about to be shaken apart.

"Legend has it that at the very core of Skyflame Forest, there exists an Immortal Beast at Immortal Emperor Realm. Could this sound be coming from it?"

Furious Arrow Immortal King gazed toward the depths of Skyflame Forest, his face showing an expression of horror.

The other Lihuo Sect disciples all turned deathly pale, their faces filled with fear.

The two Immortal Beasts at Ninth Grade Immortal King Realm before them were already incomparably fierce and could easily take their lives; if an Immortal Beast at Emperor Realm appeared on top of that, how ferocious would it be?

As soon as the "dong dong" sound rang out, the two Fire Cloud Leopards stopped their attacks and went prone on the ground, their eyes filled with terror and their bodies trembling violently.

The "dong dong" sounds continued a dozen or so beats and then vanished, followed by a strange, faint noise, as if emitted by some Immortal Beast and seeming to come from the very vault of heaven.

One of the Fire Cloud Leopards, upon hearing this sound, suddenly sprang to its feet, rushed over to the Baimei Fairy, whose entire body had been weakened by the "dong dong" vibrations, clamped her in its jaws, and bolted toward the depths of Skyflame Forest, disappearing in an instant.

Chapter 2490: I Alone Am the Overlord!

The Furious Arrow Immortal King and other immortals from the Lihuo Sect watched helplessly as Baimei Fairy was carried away by the Fire Cloud Leopard. The "dong dong" sound from deep within the Skyflame Forest reverberated, almost scaring their souls out, leaving them no strength to pursue.

The other two Fire Cloud Leopards hurriedly retreated, tails tucked, once the "dong dong" sound ceased.

"Brother Furious Arrow, what do we do now?"

Yun Luo Immortal King and Jihuo Immortal King were deeply concerned about Baimei Fairy's safety. Seeing her taken away by the Fire Cloud Leopard, with her fate unknown, their eyes reddened with urgency as they asked.

For a moment, the Furious Arrow Immortal King was at a loss and, after some thought, said, "Venturing deep into the Skyflame Forest is unpredictably dangerous. We should not enter rashly, or we might lose our lives in vain."

He paused, then continued, "Our priority now is to sit down and recuperate, and only act once we've regained our strength. If things truly cannot be done, we will have to return to the Lihuo Sect and inform the Sect Master about this matter."

He chuckled bitterly at this point, thinking to himself that having failed to protect Junior Sister Baimei, he would have a hard time explaining this to the Master once he returned.

So, the Furious Arrow Immortal King and other Lihuo Sect disciples sat cross-legged to recuperate, hoping to quickly regain their strength.

Meanwhile, the Fire Cloud Leopard, having taken Baimei Fairy, darted like lightning towards the depths of the Skyflame Forest.

Baimei Fairy, hanging by the side of the Fire Cloud Leopard's mouth, felt a twinge of horror but knew she was no match for this Immortal Beast. She chose not to struggle further, waiting to see what exactly the beast intended to do.

The further into the depths of the Skyflame Forest they went, the higher the temperature rose, with the Fire Immortal Qi in the air becoming richer, and the pressure from the heavens and earth growing stronger, becoming almost unbearable for both the Fire Cloud Leopard and Baimei Fairy.

A hundred breaths later, Baimei Fairy only felt the surrounding temperature suddenly rise several times over, and the Fire Immortal Qi in the air turned a brilliant crimson. Looking ahead, she saw a massive ball of fire gradually moving in this direction, with a vaguely large silhouette within it.

The Fire Cloud Leopard released Baimei Fairy, crouching on the ground, letting out soft whimpers, fear evident in its eyes.

Baimei Fairy frantically circulated the Nine Revolutions True Fire Art, urging the Fire Immortal Qi to flow within her body.

Strangely enough, her body quickly adapted to the high temperature, and her skin no longer felt the burning pain as if scorched by flames.

Seeing that the Fire Cloud Leopard seemed extremely terrified of whatever was inside the ball of fire ahead, she guessed it must be incredibly powerful, causing a sense of unease to rise within her as she squinted to get a better look at what it was.

The enormous fireball moved unhurriedly towards them, stopping only when it was about fifty feet from Baimei Fairy.

Baimei Fairy's ears twitched, as if she heard that thing let out a surprised "huh," though she didn't know what caused the astonishment.

"You little Fairy, what is your name? Where do you come from? Who taught you the Nine Revolutions True Fire Art?"

An old, booming voice emanated from within the gigantic fireball.

"Nine Revolutions True Fire Art? I don't understand what you mean... Who are you?"

Baimei Fairy rolled her eyes and loudly retorted.

In the past, when Fang Bai taught her the Nine Revolutions True Fire Art, he had warned her not to easily reveal this immortal law after reaching the Immortal Realm, as it would be extremely dangerous if discovered by the eight top-tier Immortal Emperors.

Therefore, upon realizing the other party recognized her circulating the Nine Revolutions True Fire Art, Baimei Fairy immediately grew highly vigilant, fearing the other might have ties to the eight top-tier Immortal Emperors, deciding to play dumb and firmly deny it.

"Heh heh... You little Fairy, trying to play tricks in front of this emperor, you're just a bit too inexperienced!"

The old voice came once more as the massive fireball gradually shrunk, revealing the shape of an Immortal Beast.

"Is that... a Kylin?"

Seeing the shape of the Immortal Beast is a leopard, Baimei Fairy's eyes widened in shock.

The Immortal Beast stood one zhang tall and was about three zhang long, enveloped in flames. It appeared fierce and majestic, brimming with power, resembling the tales of ancient Kylin Beasts Baimei Fairy had heard in the mortal world.

The Kylin's eyes held a mischievous gleam as they gazed at Baimei Fairy.

Its gaze carried a hint of Emperor Realm pressure, making Baimei Fairy feel as if the entire void was pressing down on her.

"Yes, my true form is a Kylin. In this million-mile wide Skyflame Forest, I am the Overlord!"

The Kylin Beast's old voice brimmed with unparalleled arrogance.

Baimei Fairy's master, the Lihuo Immortal Emperor, was only at the peak of the Immortal Emperor Realm. As for the rumored Emperor Realm experts, she had only heard of them before, but now was seeing one for the first time.

She knew that Immortal Beasts were brutal, fond of feeding on immortals. If this Kylin Beast wished to eat her, she truly had no chance of escaping.

"You, as a grand Emperor Realm expert, why trouble a mere fourth-grade Immortal King Realm little immortal like me? Spread the word, and it won't do your reputation any good!"

Understanding the life-or-death situation, Baimei Fairy was no longer as fearful and tried to provoke the Kylin Beast in front of her with words, hoping it might let her go.

The Kylin Beast chuckled and said, "I only felt your cultivated immortal law seemed familiar, and became a bit curious, so I had that little beast bring you here. When have I troubled you? You little Fairy shouldn't speak carelessly and ruin my reputation!"

Upon hearing this, Baimei Fairy felt a glimmer of hope for survival and said, "About this Nine Revolutions True Fire Art you mentioned, I truly don't know it... This immortal law was taught to me by an immortal during my past training."

As she spoke, she carefully observed the expression of the Kylin Beast, trying to determine if this Emperor Realm Immortal Beast was a friend or foe of Fang Bai's past life.

If this Emperor Realm Immortal Beast was an enemy of Fang Bai's past life, Baimei Fairy would never admit any association with Fang Bai, to prevent the other from learning Fang Bai had survived and returned to the Immortal Realm.

If it were a friend of Fang Bai's, she also wouldn't admit to any relationship with Fang Bai, at most claiming she was a disciple of the Emperor's Palace to gauge the Kylin Beast's next reaction.

In any case, unless she could be 100% sure this Emperor Realm Immortal Beast was Fang Bai's past life's ally, Baimei Fairy would never reveal her true identity or her connection to Fang Bai.

The Kylin Beast remained silent, its gaze fixed on Baimei Fairy, seemingly seeing through her inner thoughts.

Under its gaze, Baimei Fairy had an overwhelming sense that nothing could be concealed, and sweat began to form on her forehead.

Meanwhile, the Kylin Beast glanced at the Fire Cloud Leopard lying on the ground, shivering.

The Fire Cloud Leopard seemed relieved, whimpered twice, and took off in flight.

"The Nine Revolutions True Fire Art you've cultivated is of the highest caliber, something an ordinary disciple of the Emperor's Palace could never pass down..."

The Kylin Beast suddenly spoke again, its ancient eyes gleaming with wisdom.

Baimei Fairy pouted, thinking that when Fang Bai taught her the Nine Revolutions True Fire Art, he never mentioned there being any distinctions, so how did this Immortal Beast know?