

Doctor 2651

Chapter 2651: You Can't Fool Me!

As Lingyun Immortal Emperor spoke, he urged on the auspicious clouds beneath his feet, slowly approaching the pretty Female Immortal.

"Senior Brother Lingyun, please show some respect!"

The "Junior Sister Liyu" in Lingyun Immortal Emperor's mouth arched her delicate brows, a cold light flashing in her beautiful eyes, her expression one of pushing people a thousand miles away.

"Junior Sister Liyu, you look so beautiful when you're angry..."

Before tailing Junior Sister Liyu out, Lingyun Immortal Emperor had already made up his mind that this time, no matter what, he had to taste her sweetness at least once. Hearing her words, not only did he not stop his advancing figure, he instead sped up and rushed toward her.

"If you come any closer, don't blame me for being rude!"

With a delicate shout, Junior Sister Liyu flicked out a streak of green glow, and a fully verdant sword-shaped Immortal Artifact appeared in her hand.

Junior Sister Liyu was none other than Lu Liyu, one of Fang Bai's Immortal companions, and the sword-shaped Immortal Artifact in her hand was precisely the Green Bamboo Sword that Fang Bai had forged for her in former years.

Ever since ascending to the Immortal Realm, Lu Liyu had always carried this Green Bamboo Sword. In the meantime, she had spent a large amount of Cultivation Resources several times to have Artifact Refiners help her upgrade it, and now it was already a Superior King Grade Immortal Artifact.

Not long after Lu Liyu ascended to the Immortal Realm, it happened that Red Lotus Palace was widely recruiting Disciples. She had previously learned from Fang Bai that the Red Lotus Immortal Emperor was one of the eight peak Immortal Emperors and also a mortal enemy of the Emperor's Palace, so she concealed her own aura and decisively joined Red Lotus Palace.

Her purpose in joining Red Lotus Palace was not to bide her time to slaughter Red Lotus Palace Disciples and take revenge on behalf of Emperor's Palace Disciples, but to act as an "undercover agent," to probe the true strength and weaknesses of Red Lotus Palace, so that when she saw Fang Bai in the future she could tell him all this and help him truly know both himself and his enemy.

Lu Liyu possessed an Innate Spiritual Root and extraordinary aptitude. After joining Red Lotus Palace, she quickly drew the attention of the upper echelon and became one of the key targets for nurturing.

Living within Red Lotus Palace, Lu Liyu was extremely cautious and careful. She had never used the Emperor's Palace Immortal Technique Secrets, so her identity had never been exposed; even the Red Lotus Immortal Emperor had been kept in the dark.

This time, Lu Liyu went out to temper herself, first to seek an opportunity to break through to the Immortal Emperor Realm and raise her own strength, and second to gather news about Fang Bai or other Immortals from the lower realm.

When she discovered Lingyun Immortal Emperor tailing her all the way, she felt extreme disgust in her heart. She had originally wanted to drive him away with harsh words, but who would have thought that he would brazenly rush up anyway.

Seeing his eyes reddened and his expression full of greed, clearly harboring ill intentions, Lu Liyu was instantly enraged. She raised the Immortal Artifact across her chest, taking on a stance of fighting to the bitter end.

Lingyun Immortal Emperor was stunned for a moment, then burst into loud laughter. "Junior Sister Liyu, do you really think that with your strength you can stop me?"

His gaze fell upon Lu Liyu's graceful figure, and a fanatical light shone in his bloodshot eyes. His breathing grew ragged as he shouted, "Junior Sister Liyu, I don't want to hurt you. As long as you agree to become my Immortal companion..."

"Don't even think about it!"

Lu Liyu cut him off before he could finish speaking. Pointing the Green Bamboo Sword at him, she said coldly, "If you dare to harm me, aren't you afraid of being severely punished by the Sect later?"

"I'm afraid... of course I'm afraid..."

Seeing that Lu Liyu refused to agree to him, Lingyun Immortal Emperor finally abandoned his illusions and also cast aside all scruples. He slowly pressed in on Lu Liyu, shouting sternly, "Junior Sister Liyu, I sincerely wish to become your Immortal companion, yet you've repeatedly rejected me. Do you know how heartbroken I am? Fine, since you're unwilling, then today I'll just throw caution to the wind and take your body first..."

"Senior Brother Lingyun, don't force me too far! Otherwise, even if it costs me my life, I won't let you get your way!"

Under the oppressive might of an Immortal Emperor Realm Expert that he released, Lu Liyu slowly backed away, while her thoughts raced as she pondered countermeasures.

Although she had the ability to challenge above her level, she did not have absolute confidence that she could kill Lingyun Immortal Emperor.

And once the two sides actually started fighting, if she wanted to contend with Lingyun Immortal Emperor, she would have no choice but to use the Emperor's Palace Immortal Technique Secrets. Once she did that, her true identity would be exposed, and if she wanted to continue staying in Red Lotus Palace in the future, she would have to kill Lingyun Immortal Emperor.

Looking again at Lingyun Immortal Emperor in his seemingly crazed state, he most likely had already resolved to take advantage of her and might then kill her to silence her, so as to prevent her from reporting the matter to the upper echelons of Red Lotus Palace and thus evade responsibility.

"If I clash with him head-on, who lives and who dies is still unknown. It seems I can only win by wits."

Lu Liyu was not the sort of Female Immortal who would lose her head and throw everything aside in the heat of the moment. As her thoughts flashed, she came up with a plan.

She understood Lingyun Immortal Emperor's temperament very well, and knew that in his current fevered state his mind was far less sharp than when he was calm. If she used a stratagem, he would find it hard to see through.

"Senior Brother Lingyun, stop for a moment... As for you and me becoming Immortal companions, allow me some time to consider it, all right?"

Lu Liyu's tone softened considerably, and her face was no longer as icy as before, but the Immortal Artifact in her hand was still pointed at Lingyun Immortal Emperor, maintaining a wary posture.

Hearing this, Lingyun Immortal Emperor's figure paused, but he refused to believe Lu Liyu's words. Frowning, he said, "In the past, you repeatedly rejected my courtship, and now you want to 'consider' it? Don't think you can fool me."

Lu Liyu sighed. "Actually, Senior Brother Lingyun, you have handsome looks and decent strength. In my heart, I... do have some good feelings toward you. The reason I kept rejecting you before was only because... because I had no choice, due to some hidden hardship!"

Lingyun Immortal Emperor raised his brow. "What hardship?"

Lu Liyu said, "Does Senior Brother Lingyun know Senior Brother Lingyi?"

Red Lotus Palace had nearly a hundred thousand Disciples, and no one could possibly know all their fellow sect members. However, Lingyi Immortal Emperor was also frantically pursuing Lu Liyu, and he too was a Disciple with an Innate Spiritual Root, his strength slightly higher than Lingyun Immortal Emperor's. Thus Lingyun Immortal Emperor regarded him as his greatest love rival, so how could he not know him?

"I know Lingyi Immortal Emperor. What about him?"

Although quick to act on impulse, Lingyun Immortal Emperor was not stupid. Hearing Lu Liyu bring up Lingyi Immortal Emperor, he vaguely thought of something, and his expression relaxed quite a bit.

"Senior Brother Lingyi once secretly threatened me, demanding that I become his Immortal companion and forbidding me from accepting any other admirers' affections... Senior Brother Lingyun, you know that I entered the sect late and have no real foundation in the Palace, so..."

As Lu Liyu spoke up to this point, her eyes reddened slightly, tears shimmering as if about to fall, looking extremely pitiful.

"I understand... That bastard Lingyi! That damned bastard!"

Before Lu Liyu finished, Lingyun Immortal Emperor felt he had already understood and instantly flew into a rage, cursing nonstop.

"Although Senior Brother Lingyi has better aptitude, his temper is violent, and he is not a good match for me. By comparison, I prefer someone gentle and considerate like you, Senior Brother Lingyun..."

In order to hook Lingyun Immortal Emperor, Lu Liyu watched his face light up with delight, forced down the waves of disgust surging in her chest, and said softly, "Every word I speak comes from the bottom of my heart. If Senior Brother Lingyun doesn't believe me, then today I'm willing to give this body to you. Afterward, you and I will return to Red Lotus Palace together and go before the Palace Master to lodge a complaint against that Senior Brother Lingyi... Senior Brother Lingyun, what do you say?"

"Good! Good! Hahaha... Junior Sister Liyu, I couldn't ask for anything more! Come, come, let's find a quiet place, dual cultivate, and share supreme bliss..."

Hearing Lu Liyu's words, Lingyun Immortal Emperor was instantly overjoyed, utterly incapable of calming down to ponder why Lu Liyu had changed so quickly; he merely threw his head back and laughed.

Chapter 2652: You Lied to Me!

This is a small valley spanning a few miles, with flowers and plants everywhere, and a serene environment.

Lu Liyu, having maintained a facade all the way, arrived at this valley with the overjoyed Lingyun Immortal Emperor and descended therein.

"Junior Sister Liyu..."

Just as his feet touched the ground, the intensely eager Lingyun Immortal Emperor lunged at Lu Liyu, wanting to hold her delicate and gentle body in his arms and indulge for a while.

"Hold on..."

Lu Liyu stepped back, dodging Lingyun Immortal Emperor's pounce, and said bashfully, "Senior Brother Lingyun, you're too hasty..."

Lingyun Immortal Emperor rubbed his hands together and laughed, "Heh heh, it's all because Junior Sister's beauty is unparalleled, and also having an Innate Spiritual Root body, I can hardly resist!"

Lu Liyu's beautiful eyes glanced around the valley, and she had a plan in mind as she lightly bit her lip and said, "This valley may be secluded and serene, but if an immortal flies by, we're still easily spotted..."

Lingyun Immortal Emperor asked, "What should we do then?"

Lu Liyu replied, "I once learned some formation setting skills, how about we set up a Concealment Formation in this valley, so no matter what we do inside, we won't be disturbed by immortals outside, doesn't that sound good?"

Lingyun Immortal Emperor nodded in agreement, "Yes! Yes! Then Junior Sister, please quickly set up the formation!"

He didn't want to be discovered by other immortals while dual cultivating with this beautiful and charming Junior Sister, as it would affect his mood.

As for whether this Junior Sister would play any tricks, he was confident in his strength and didn't worry about it.

Moreover, to prevent this Junior Sister from complaining to the higher-ups in the palace afterward, he planned to force her to consume an Erosion Pill after dual cultivation, thus having her life and death under his control, leaving her with no choice but to accept fate and become his immortal companion.

Lingyun Immortal Emperor believed that no matter what, Lu Liyu couldn't escape his grasp and felt pleased with himself.

"Senior Brother Lingyun, setting up a Concealment Formation requires quite a few Immortal Stones, can you lend me some..."

Lu Liyu smiled sweetly and extended a hand to Lingyun Immortal Emperor.

"Once you and I become immortal companions, my Immortal Stones will also be yours in the future."

Lingyun Immortal Emperor laughed "heh heh" and handed over the Space Immortal Ring from his finger to Lu Liyu.

Lu Liyu took the Space Immortal Ring, turned to survey the surroundings, preparing to set up the formation, a trace of cold light flashing in her beautiful eyes.

Moments later, prompted by Lingyun Immortal Emperor, Lu Liyu swiftly threw thousands upon thousands of Immortal Stones to the four directions.

Subsequently, her hands danced, drawing formation sigils in the void before her, then embedding them into the surrounding Immortal Stones.

Radiance swirled, and a barrier condensed; centered on Lu Liyu and Lingyun Immortal Emperor, a hundred-foot-radius Immortal Array was thus set up and began circulating.

Lu Liyu let out a gentle breath, the corners of her mouth slightly curved, showing a hint of a relieved smile.

When she turned to face Lingyun Immortal Emperor again, her pretty face was already filled with killing intent.

"Junior Sister, you..."

Lingyun Immortal Emperor, seeing Lu Liyu who was bashful just a moment ago now wearing a frosty expression brimming with Evil Qi, his heart couldn't help but thump.

"Senior Brother Lingyun, do you know what this Immortal Array is?"

Lu Liyu coldly laughed and asked.

Lingyun Immortal Emperor grew more uneasy, saying, "Isn't it a Concealment Formation?"

Lu Liyu chuckled, "This array is called the Demon Trapping Array, it's a Slaughter Array!"

"You... you deceived me!"

Lingyun Immortal Emperor was startled, reaching out with a big hand, producing a "swoosh" sound as it pierced the air, reaching for Lu Liyu.

Lu Liyu's delicate body flickered, retreating instantly out of the array, disappearing from Lingyun Immortal Emperor's sight, leaving him alone within the Demon Trapping Array.

"Demon Trapping Array... Demon Trapping Array... hmph, a mere array, what can it do to me!"

Lingyun Immortal Emperor believed Lu Liyu's cultivation level was just the Ninth Grade Immortal King Realm, so the array she set up couldn't be of high grade and couldn't possibly trap him, though left and right, punching and kicking, he couldn't budge the array in the slightest.

Only now did Lingyun Immortal Emperor realize that everything his Junior Sister had done to him before was a guise, merely to deceive him into her set array and then take the opportunity to escape.

"Junior Sister Liyu, come out... Lu Liyu! Come out for me! Get out... wait till I break out of this array, I surely won't spare you! Aah... aah..."

Upon realizing, the furious Lingyun Immortal Emperor shouted and attacked the Immortal Array trapping him with all his might.

But he didn't know that the Demon Trapping Array wasn't some low-grade formation, but an Emperor Rank Immortal Array Lu Liyu learned from Fang Bai.

Although with her realm and cultivation, the Demon Trapping Array she set wasn't as powerful as what Fang Bai could set up, it was more than enough to deal with an early-stage Immortal Emperor Realm expert like Lingyun Immortal Emperor.

While Lingyun Immortal Emperor was attempting to break out from within the array, Lu Liyu, outside, controlled the array, launching a fierce attack, swearing to kill the Lingyun Immortal Emperor.

After thousands of breaths, in the array, Lingyun Immortal Emperor's immortal power was exhausted. Lu Liyu thought that in another moment, the Demon Trapping Array could successfully strangle him, and she couldn't help but feel a secret joy.

Suddenly, a crack appeared in the void, and a red-robed immortal appeared above the valley.

The red-robed immortal looked down, and when his Divine Sense swept past Lu Liyu's body and discovered her Innate Spiritual Root, his blood pupil eyes lit up.

"Blood of an Innate Spiritual Root would benefit my cultivation. It's a pity that she's just a low-rank Immortal King, too weak in cultivation... hmm, I'll take her with me, nurture her well, and wait until her cultivation reaches the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak before enjoying her blood."

The red-robed immortal licked his lips, a Bloodthirst light flashing in his eyes; the next moment, he was beside Lu Liyu.

Lu Liyu, startled by the sudden appearance of a figure beside her, shifted her body a hundred feet away, and when she focused on that figure, seeing his blood-filled pupils and enveloped in Evil Qi, she immediately thought of the demons, the mortal enemies of immortals.

"You... you're from the Demon Clan..."

Thinking of the legends about the Demon Clan's penchant for devouring immortal blood, Lu Liyu couldn't help but feel her scalp tingling, raised her Green Bamboo Sword defensively, and remained extremely wary.

"Haha, you little immortal, have you heard of the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor? That would be me!"

The red-robed immortal introduced himself, then continued, "This Immortal Emperor obtained a demon arts, cultivated it successfully, and now possesses some Demonic Qi. Call it immortal or call it demonic, it fits both. But, regardless of immortal or demon, strength reigns supreme!"

Upon hearing the four words "Golden Crow Immortal Emperor," Lu Liyu's mind roared, immediately recalling one of Fang Bai's mortal enemies in the Immortal Realm.

The Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, one of the top eight legendary immortals in the Immortal Realm, known as an equal to the Red Lotus Immortal Emperor, who also participated in the siege against the Emperor's Palace Master in the past.

However, in recent years, rumors have circulated in the Immortal Realm that the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor obtained a demon arts and was cultivating it, making him a public enemy in the Immortal Realm. Unexpectedly, he would appear here now.

Chapter 2653: Lu Liyu's Decision

When a hawk flies across the sky, it will never notice an ant on the ground.

In Lu Liyu's eyes, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor was like that hawk in the sky, while she herself seemed no more than an ant on the ground.

What she couldn't understand was why this tiny "ant" like herself would draw the attention of that "hawk," the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor.

And judging from the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor's expression, he seemed quite interested in her.

Thinking of how the Demon Clan liked to drink Immortal blood, and how she possessed an Innate Spiritual Root body that would likely be even more to their taste, Lu Liyu shuddered uncontrollably.

"Little Immortal, don't be afraid. I won't kill you!"

Seeing the fear on Lu Liyu's face and how she kept retreating, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor grinned and said, "This Emperor happens to be lacking a successor to my legacy. I see your aptitude is not bad and wish to take you as my Disciple. What do you think?"

Lu Liyu was stunned; she had not expected the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor to have such an idea.

However, first, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor was a mortal enemy of the Emperor's Palace; second, he cultivated Demon Arts, had fallen into the Demon Dao, and was already the public enemy of the Immortal Realm. Just based on these two points, how could she possibly 拜 him as her master?

Even if she set aside everything else, traveling together with the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor would be no different from keeping company with a tiger. If his demonic nature flared up and his baleful aura wrapped around him, how would she keep her life?

But if she refused the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, the consequence would probably be that he killed her on the spot!

Lu Liyu neither nodded nor dared to shake her head; her heart was filled with despair.

"If you 拜 me as your master, I will pass on to you the Heaven Devouring Art of a Demon Clan Emperor. Heh heh, once you cultivate the Heaven Devouring Art, in the future, not to mention becoming an Immortal Emperor, even achieving the Great Emperor Realm will be possible!"

Seeing Lu Liyu remain silent, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor continued to coax her patiently.

He simply did not believe that within the Immortal Realm, there existed any Immortal who could refuse this Heaven Devouring Art.

Take himself, for example. Back then, after obtaining the Heaven Devouring Art, he clearly knew it was a Demon Art, that cultivating it might cause him to fall into the Demon Dao and be rejected by the Immortal Realm, yet in order to shatter the shackles of the Immortal Emperor and advance to the Great Emperor Realm, he had still cultivated it without hesitation.

When Lu Liyu heard that this Heaven Devouring Art was actually a Demon Art belonging to a Demon Clan Emperor, and that cultivating it would give her hope of advancing to Immortal Emperor and even the Great Emperor Realm, her heart couldn't help but stir slightly.

Her original purpose in joining the Red Lotus Palace had been to do everything in her power to gather information related to the Red Lotus Immortal Emperor and the Red Lotus Palace, in order to aid Fang Bai in rebuilding the Emperor's Palace and exacting revenge.

But her own strength was far too weak. Even though her aptitude was extraordinary, at her current rate of advancement, reaching the Emperor Realm within a hundred years was simply hopeless.

Meanwhile, Fang Bai's talent far outstripped hers, and he carried the Immortal Technique Secrets of his previous life in his heart. Perhaps by now, he was already not far from the Emperor Realm.

According to what Fang Bai had said back in the lower realm, once he advanced to the Emperor Realm, he would summon the Disciples who had once served under him, begin rebuilding the Emperor's Palace, and accumulate strength in preparation for retaliating against the eight top-tier Immortal Emperors.

Calculated this way, she was falling far behind Fang Bai's pace. How then could she lend him a helping hand?

Thinking of this, Lu Liyu couldn't help feeling somewhat anxious.

She knew that rebuilding the Emperor's Palace and taking revenge on the eight top-tier Immortal Emperors was Fang Bai's firm resolve. No Immortal or force could stand in his way.

And back in the lower realm, she and the other Immortal companions at Fang Bai's side had sworn together that once Fang Bai rebuilt the Emperor's Palace in the Immortal Realm, they would support him with all their might; and when he took revenge on the eight top-tier Immortal Emperors, they would also give their all to assist, with no one allowed to be absent.

But with her current level of strength, how could she support him, how could she help?

Unless, in the path of Cultivation, there was a shortcut she could take to rapidly raise her realm and Cultivation Level.

Only this shortcut...

Lu Liyu glanced at the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, her heart pounding violently.

If she borrowed the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor's power to quickly advance to the Emperor Realm, then when Fang Bai rebuilt the Emperor's Palace and took revenge on the eight top-tier Immortal Emperors in the future, she would be able to stand side by side with him.

As for cultivating that Heaven Devouring Art and possibly falling into the Demon Dao and being rejected by the Immortal Realm—so what?

Lu Liyu took a deep breath and slowly closed her eyes. A few breaths later, when she opened them again, her gaze had become incomparably firm.

"Fine, I agree!"

Lu Liyu said solemnly, "I hope you will keep your promise and pass that Heaven Devouring Art to me."

Seeing Lu Liyu take the bait, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor was overjoyed as well. Chuckling, he said, "No problem! No problem! From now on, we master and Disciple will comprehend the Heaven Devouring Art together. In the future, we'll sweep across the three realms of Immortals, Demons, and Monsters, making all living beings in the three realms crawl at our feet!"

"Before I拜 you as my master, you must first help me kill an Immortal!"

Lu Liyu raised her hand and pointed at the Demon Trapping Array, saying, "This Red Lotus Palace Disciple tried to act against me. If I don't kill him, I can't vent the hatred in my heart."

The Golden Crow Immortal Emperor cast a glance at the Demon Trapping Array, feeling that this Formation looked somewhat familiar, but he didn't bother to examine it carefully. He nodded and said, "Disciple, that one is tired of living! Watch as I slap him to death for you!"

His blood-red pupils flashed with crimson light, his baleful aura billowed out, and he raised his hand, slapping his palm down toward the Demon Trapping Array.

He was originally a top-tier Immortal Emperor; after cultivating the Heaven Devouring Art, his strength had increased even further. The Demon Trapping Array Lu Liyu had set up was indeed an Emperor Rank Formation, but its defensive power was far inferior to the one Fang Bai had arranged and could not withstand even a single strike from the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor.

With a thunderous boom, under the slap of the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor's Demon Qi Big Palm, the Demon Trapping Array collapsed. The Lingyun Immortal Emperor trapped within didn't even have time to let out a scream before he was turned into a pile of flesh pulp and fell on the spot.

"An Emperor Realm Expert is this terrifying..."

Seeing her Formation crumble so easily before the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, Lu Liyu couldn't help but secretly click her tongue in astonishment. At the same time, she felt a faint excitement, thinking that if she advanced to the Emperor Realm in the future, she would possess such power as well, right?

After Lu Liyu performed the ceremony of拜ing her master, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor burst into loud laughter, pointed in the direction of the Red Lotus Palace, and said, "While that old bastard, the Red Lotus Immortal Emperor, is away, let's go have a good slaughter, seize some Cultivation Resources, and then head to the Demon Realm to lie low. Once we reach the Demon Realm, I'll pass the Heaven Devouring Art to you!"

Although she felt fear toward the legendary Demon Realm, staying by the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor's side would likely ensure her safety. Besides, after拜ing the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor as her master, she was already no longer in control of her own fate, so Lu Liyu could only nod.

Although bringing Lu Liyu along meant he could not tear open the void and traverse the Endless Space, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor's speed was still astonishing. A distance of ten thousand miles took only thousands of breaths.

The Disciples of the Red Lotus Palace never imagined that shortly after their Palace Master left, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor would arrive wreathed in awe-inspiring imperial might.

Because the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor arrived too quickly and without the slightest warning, the upper echelons of the Red Lotus Palace failed to activate the Sect's Defense Array in time. They were slaughtered into a Corpse Mountain Blood Sea Killing, had massive amounts of Cultivation Resources plundered, and suffered disastrous losses.

Some high-level members of the Red Lotus Palace crushed their Messaging Jade Token to call their Palace Master for aid, but before the Red Lotus Immortal Emperor could rush back, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor had already left with Lu Liyu.

When the Red Lotus Immortal Emperor rushed back to the Red Lotus Palace and saw the tragic scene before him, then learned that the heaven's proud daughter Lu Liyu had been abducted by the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, his vision went black with rage, and he nearly spat blood.

Chapter 2654: Nine Dragons Mountain Range

The Golden Crow Immortal Emperor caused havoc at the Red Lotus Palace and abducted the prodigious daughter, Liyu Fairy...

This news spread, causing an uproar in the Immortal Realm.

The immortals were not concerned with the abduction of Liyu Fairy but rather with the appearance of the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor.

The Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, Flying Swan Immortal Emperor, and Carefree Immortal Emperor, who cultivated the Heaven Devouring Art, were always unstable factors in the Immortal Realm. It was assumed that they had entered the Demon Realm due to their inactivity over many years. But then, to everyone's surprise, the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor suddenly attacked the Red Lotus Palace, causing severe losses.

With the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor's precedent, no one can anticipate when or where the other two Immortal Emperors might appear or what damage they might bring to the Immortal Realm.

Therefore, all Immortal Sects and doors within the Immortal Realm became unprecedentedly tense, and they enhanced their sects' defensive measures to prepare for unforeseen events.

Especially, the top-tier forces in the Immortal Realm were exceptionally vigilant, not daring to be careless.

...

Fire Lotus Immortal City is the nearest Immortal City to the Red Lotus Palace, under the control of the Palace.

On this day, a young, white-robed immortal appeared within Fire Lotus Immortal City.

After settling in an Immortal Residence in Fire Lotus Immortal City, the white-robed immortal began enquiring widely about Liyu Fairy. Eventually, compiling information from all sides, he confirmed that Liyu Fairy from the Red Lotus Palace was indeed Lu Liyu.

"How did Li Yu end up in the Red Lotus Palace? What does the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor intend by abducting her?"

The white-robed immortal murmured to himself in the Immortal Residence, worry evident between his brows.

The white-robed immortal was none other than Fang Bai.

Previously, Fang Bai was exploring other places in the Chengtian Domain. Upon hearing about events near the Red Lotus Palace, he hurried over and learned that Liyu Fairy was indeed Lu Liyu, whom he had been searching for, leaving him both joyful and concerned.

He was happy to finally receive news of Lu Liyu, whom he had been searching for years.

He was worried because Lu Liyu fell into the hands of the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, who cultivated the Heaven Devouring Art and feared her fate would not be favorable.

Luckily, he shared an extraordinary mutual perception with his fellow immortals, where their emotions and well-being were reflected in each other's moods.

Recently, Fang Bai's mood hadn't been infused with sorrow or suffering, suggesting that Lu Liyu remained safe for now.

Though Fang Bai truly couldn't comprehend why the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor abducted Lu Liyu without harming her, which seemed illogical.

The movements of Emperor Realm experts are unpredictable, able to cover thousands of miles in an instant. Finding the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor would be harder than finding a needle in a haystack.

Even if he found the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, rescuing Lu Liyu would be extremely challenging.

Fang Bai realized that only if he reached the Emperor Realm would he have any hope of rescuing Lu Liyu from the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor.

After all, without ascending to the Emperor Realm, one couldn't tear open the void or traverse endless space.

Not being able to even catch up with the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor, how could he rescue Lu Liyu?

Thus, after leaving Fire Lotus Immortal City, Fang Bai found a secluded spot, set up a Concealment Formation, entered the Five Elements Space Ring, and embarked on an unprecedented frenzy of cultivation.

Three years passed in the blink of an eye; when Fang Bai emerged again, his energy and spirit were renewed, reaching the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak.

The four immortals who cultivated with Fang Bai inside the Five Elements Space Ring—Wu De, Great Sage Sun, Zhuge Lian, and Xiao Ying—also made significant progress in their strengths.

The Single-Horned Dragon Horse, always inside the Five Elements Space Ring, hadn't been summoned for riding by Fang Bai for a long time. It spent its days eating, drinking, and running wildly, and besides Fang Bai, its strength grew the fastest, leaving Wu De and other immortals far behind.

In fact, if Fang Bai continued to retreat, there was hope of attempting the Quasi-Emperor Realm within five years.

Unfortunately, after three years of bitter cultivation, combined with the cultivation of several immortals, the cultivation resources inside the Five Elements Space Ring were depleting at a startling speed, and by the time he advanced to the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak, it was nearly barren.

If not for the endless release of Immortal Qi from the World Tree and assistance from the Water of Life, Fang Bai would face the embarrassment of lacking cultivation resources to consolidate his realm.

Forced by circumstances, after consolidating his realm, Fang Bai left the Five Elements Space Ring, once again traveling to seek cultivation resources.

Regarding Lu Liyu, Fang Bai knew that being anxious was futile; he could only probe for news of the Golden Crow Immortal Emperor while searching for cultivation resources.

...

The Nine Dragons Mountain Range, located in the central Chengtian Domain, resembles nine horizontal Immortal Dragons, stretching over a million miles north to south. It is said to be one of the most resource-rich areas for Immortal Stones in the Immortal Realm.

Thousands of years ago, when the Emperor's Palace still existed, many immortals would come to mine Immortal Stones in the Nine Dragons Mountain Range.

However, since the fall of the Emperor's Palace, the Eight Major Forces have occupied the Nine Dragons Mountain Range, forbidding other immortals from mining there.

This aroused strong dissatisfaction among all sides of the Immortal Realm. Some Immortal Sects and doors with Emperor Realm experts gathered forces from all over the Immortal Realm to jointly oppose the Eight Major Forces.

The Eight Major Forces, though strong and overbearing, did not want to fall out with the entire Immortal Realm over this matter, so after discussions, they split the Nine Dragons Mountain Range into two halves—one under the control of the Eight Major Forces and the other for various immortals to freely mine.

Although the Nine Dragons Mountain Range is abundantly rich in Immortal Stones, it primarily consists of Royal Grade Immortal Stones, which hold little attraction for Emperor Realm experts.

In his previous life, Fang Bai had also been to the Nine Dragons Mountain Range to seek Immortal Stones for the Emperor's Palace.

At that time, Fang Bai's strength was at the Emperor Realm Peak, and every time he found an Immortal Stone Vein, he would wield Supreme Immortal Power, as if pulling dragon tendons, directly extracting the entire vein from the mountain, piling it into the Space Immortal Ring, astonishing the other immortals.

That day, Fang Bai flew near the Nine Dragons Mountain Range and landed on a mountain.

A thousand years had passed as he revisited the old place, seeing those majestic Immortal Mountains, meandering rivers, thousands of birds flying, and countless beasts running, and he couldn't help but feel a thousand emotions.

From time to time, immortals flew past Fang Bai, and upon realizing his cultivation level was at the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak, many immortals regarded him with awe.

The Nine Dragons Mountain Range is seldom visited by Emperor Realm experts, thus an expert of the Immortal Emperor Realm Peak is the strongest existence here.

Although half of the Nine Dragons Mountain Range's Immortal Stone veins are freely open for mining, over thousands of years of division, this half has mostly been apportioned by some strong sects, leaving loose cultivators with the option to unite for a share.

Thus, upon noticing Fang Bai's attire, which did not belong to any Immortal Sect or door, several Immortal Emperor Realm experts approached Fang Bai.

"Immortal friend, have you come for Immortal Stone Veins?"

One Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert of equal cultivation level asked while scrutinizing Fang Bai.

Despite Fang Bai's transformation and altered aura, appearing only a few hundred years old, the immortal was greatly surprised, thinking when such a young Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert appeared in the Immortal Realm.

Chapter 2655: White-Haired Fairy

A few hundred years old Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert is indeed rare in the Immortal Realm, though not unheard of, hence that immortal felt a bit of respect while speaking to Fang Bai.

The Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert, known as Qingyang Immortal Emperor, was accompanied by three immortals: Fairy Qingxia, White-Haired Fairy, and Leiling Immortal Emperor—all high-rank cultivation level, all loose cultivators.

Logically, their combination of four Immortal Emperor Realm experts is quite powerful, but many of the Immortal Stone Veins were occupied by Immortal Sects, which they cannot compete with in terms of numbers or quality.

As for other immortal groups banding together, they range from seven or eight Immortal Emperor Realm experts to a dozen, equally strong and not to be underestimated.

Therefore, these four immortals, led by Qingyang Immortal Emperor, planned to recruit a few more Immortals with similar cultivation levels to seize the Immortal Stone Vein.

Upon Fang Bai's arrival, Qingyang Immortal Emperor was the first to notice and approached Fang Bai before any other immortals did.

However, following Qingyang Immortal Emperor, several immortals appeared around Fang Bai, eager to have him join as well.

Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts like Fang Bai, with their powerful mana, are most welcomed by those immortal groups.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor looked at the many immortals surrounding Fang Bai, who were more eloquent and mostly also Immortal Emperor Realm Peak experts like him, though annoyed, he could not drive them away without mutual harm.

Besides, their team of four immortals was only middle-tier among many immortal teams; if Fang Bai were rational, he would choose to join one of the strongest teams instead of theirs.

So when Qingyang Immortal Emperor exchanged glances with his three immortal friends, they all doubted hope and sighed collectively.

To everyone's surprise, Fang Bai chose Qingyang Immortal Emperor's team in the end.

The other immortals were puzzled by Fang Bai's choice, but Qingyang Immortal Emperor and his three companions were overjoyed.

"It's truly wonderful to have Immortal Friend Wushuang joining us!"

Upon hearing Fang Bai report his title, Qingyang Immortal Emperor was momentarily surprised but soon accepted.

He thought Fang Bai's self-proclaimed title "Wushuang" was merely youthful pride and arrogance, common among young immortals.

Regardless of whether Fang Bai was invincible in his realm, he was, after all, an Immortal Emperor Realm Peak expert with sufficiently powerful strength, which was good enough.

"Immortal Emperor Wushuang, please wait. Let me recruit a few more immortals, and we will together delve into the Immortal Stone Vein! Ha ha, let's see who can stop us then!"

After chatting with Fang Bai for a bit, Qingyang Immortal Emperor left with his sleeves fluttering, heading towards the recently arrived immortals.

Fang Bai watched Qingyang Immortal Emperor leave, then turned to Fairy Qingxia and Leiling Immortal Emperor with a smile, finally resting his gaze on White-Haired Fairy, with her cold demeanor and white hair, and said with a smile, "White-Haired Fairy, I seem to have seen you before."

White-Haired Fairy was startled, closely examining Fang Bai, and frowned, "Oh? Forgive my poor vision. Where and when have we met?"

Fang Bai said, "Mystical Heavenly Blessed Land."

Upon hearing "Mystical Heavenly Blessed Land," White-Haired Fairy's pupils suddenly contracted, and her facial expression shifted slightly.

Her change in expression did not escape Fang Bai's eyes.

Fang Bai smiled lightly, kept silent, and quietly observed White-Haired Fairy's response.

"Immortal Emperor Wushuang... how do you know of Mystical Heavenly Blessed Land?"

White-Haired Fairy quickly calmed down, regaining her serene demeanor, but Fang Bai noticed her clenched fists hidden in her long sleeves.

Fang Bai said, "Well... I've been there before!"

White-Haired Fairy asked with a faint tone, "When did you visit?"

Fang Bai said, "A thousand years ago."

White-Haired Fairy said, "Immortal Friend Wushuang's immortal age is merely five hundred. How could we have met a thousand years ago? This joke is not amusing!"

Fairy Qingxia and Leiling Immortal Emperor heard Fang Bai and White-Haired Fairy mention "Mystical Heavenly Blessed Land," but could not think of any such place in the Immortal Realm, assuming Fang Bai was deliberately trying to chat up White-Haired Fairy, exchanging knowing smiles.

Although White-Haired Fairy had white hair, her skin was like alabaster and jade, presenting an elegant appearance, and she was of high-rank cultivation level. Moreover, without an immortal partner until now, many immortals had pursued her through the years.

Though White-Haired Fairy's immortal age was notably older than Fang Bai's, in the long lifespan of immortals, such a gap is insignificant, and within the Immortal Realm, there are countless partnerships where the woman is older than the man.

Therefore, Fairy Qingxia and Leiling Immortal Emperor thought Fang Bai was interested in White-Haired Fairy.

But little did they know, what Fang Bai and White-Haired Fairy were contemplating was entirely different.

At first glance, Fang Bai recognized White-Haired Fairy's origins, aware that she was disguised and altered in appearance, though her white hair remained unchanged from a thousand years ago.

The reason Fang Bai joined their immortal team was actually because of White-Haired Fairy.

Since Fang Bai mentioned "Mystical Heavenly Blessed Land," White-Haired Fairy became wary of him. If she wasn't much weaker than Fang Bai, she might have acted against him.

Despite her adept disguise and aura concealment, the techniques she used, the disguise art and Concealment Aura Art, were taught by Fang Bai, and naturally, could not deceive him.

"Is Tianze Immortal Emperor doing well these days?"

Facing White-Haired Fairy's cold, cautious gaze, Fang Bai used the Thread Condensation Sound Transmission Technique to quietly ask.

White-Haired Fairy's body visibly trembled upon hearing "Tianze Immortal Emperor," her breathing became hurried and disordered.

Fairy Qingxia and Leiling Immortal Emperor gave White-Haired Fairy a puzzled look, unaware of her sudden loss of composure.

After a few moments, White-Haired Fairy forcibly suppressed her emotional disturbance, and transmitted to Fang Bai, "Who exactly are you?"

Though Fang Bai consistently kept a smile, speaking amicably, seeming not to be an enemy as imagined, White-Haired Fairy had spent a millennium evading the top eight powers' pursuit, necessitating a hidden identity in the Immortal Realm, revealing herself to no immortal.

Nevertheless, Mystical Heavenly Blessed Land and Tianze Immortal Emperor—one being a Cultivation Holy Land owned by the Emperor's Palace, and the other one of the thirty-six mighty generals of the Emperor's Palace—the fact that Fang Bai could mention them indicates he has connections to the Emperor's Palace.

Yet, if he were a disciple of the Emperor's Palace, why did he not possess the unique aura of Emperor's Palace disciples?

This was precisely the source of White-Haired Fairy's doubts and caution.

Chapter 2656: It's Not About Quantity, but Quality for Immortals!

The White-Haired Fairy and the Tianze Immortal Emperor were once immortal companions and belonged to the ranks of the one hundred and eight generals under the War Emperor's command.

After the Emperor's Palace was destroyed a thousand years ago, the White-Haired Fairy and the Tianze Immortal Emperor were hunted by the eight top forces. To ensure the White-Haired Fairy's escape, the Tianze Immortal Emperor self-detonated and perished.

Years passed, and whenever the White-Haired Fairy thought of her beloved immortal companion, she remained deeply saddened. However, she buried this pain deep inside when facing other immortals.

At this moment, Fang Bai suddenly mentioned the Tianze Immortal Emperor in her presence, touching her deepest wound and almost causing her to lose her composure.

Fang Bai caught the fleeting sadness on the White-Haired Fairy's face, knowing that the Tianze Immortal Emperor had met with misfortune. He also felt a bit melancholy, sighed, and transmitted a message to the White-Haired Fairy, saying: "The Tianze Immortal Emperor will not fall in vain. The blood debt will certainly be repaid by the eight top forces tenfold! As for who I am..."

After pondering for a moment, Fang Bai finally revealed his true identity to the White-Haired Fairy; otherwise, she would remain wary of him, preventing them from working together in the impending battle to mine the Immortal Stone Vein.

The White-Haired Fairy never expected that the white-clad immortal before her would actually be her own Palace Master.

When Fang Bai revealed many obscure matters related to the Emperor's Palace Master and discreetly formed a seal with his palm that only the high echelon of the Emperor's Palace could understand, the White-Haired Fairy had no further doubts about his identity.

In an instant, the White-Haired Fairy's eyes grew moist with tears. If not for the current circumstances, she would have already bowed in ceremonial salutation.

"White-Haired Fairy, what's wrong?"

Fairy Qingxia, observing the tears in the White-Haired Fairy's eyes and her slight trembling, seemingly suppressing some strong emotions, asked with concern.

Just now, Fairy Qingxia saw the scene of Fang Bai and the White-Haired Fairy exchanging glances, and she assumed Fang Bai had said something inappropriate via the Thread Condensation Sound Transmission Technique, causing her distress.

Thus, her gaze towards Fang Bai was tinged with a hint of dissatisfaction.

Fang Bai, knowing Fairy Qingxia had misunderstood him, couldn't help but shake his head with a bitter smile.

"It's nothing... Just suddenly remembered some past events..."

The White-Haired Fairy took a deep breath, her expression swiftly returning to normal.

Yet, who could know that her heart at this moment was filled with inexplicable excitement and overwhelming emotion?

The Palace Master reincarnated and returned to the Immortal Realm, raising hopes for the revival of the Emperor's Palace, revenge against the eight top Immortal Emperors, and avenging her long-deceased companion, the Tianze Immortal Emperor, filled her with uncontrollable excitement.

However, she also knew that the current realm and cultivation level of the Palace Master were not enough to contend with the eight top Immortal Emperors, and the power of the Emperor's Palace was too weak, forcing them to continue hiding in silence.

"These three Immortal Emperors accompanying you, is there a possibility they could join the Emperor's Palace?"

Fang Bai transmitted to the White-Haired Fairy again.

Fang Bai thought that the character of the Qingyang Immortal Emperor, Fairy Qingxia, and the Leiling Immortal Emperor should be good; otherwise, the White-Haired Fairy wouldn't be with them.

Currently, no one knows how many disciples remain in the Emperor's Palace after its destruction. To rebuild the Emperor's Palace and exact revenge on the eight top forces, Fang Bai needs to gather all the remaining disciples and seek support from various powers in the Immortal Realm.

Therefore, recruiting more immortals, especially Immortal Emperor Realm experts, to join the Emperor's Palace, is crucial for Fang Bai.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor, Fairy Qingxia, and Leiling Immortal Emperor are three Immortal Emperor Realm experts—one Immortal Emperor Realm Peak, two High Rank, all with considerable strength. If they join the Emperor's Palace, it would certainly be a significant boost.

After thinking it over, the White-Haired Fairy responded, "I have subtly discussed the matters of the Emperor's Palace with Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others; they all have sympathy for the Emperor's Palace and despise the actions of the eight top forces. I believe... if we can show enough sincerity, they would be willing to become part of the Emperor's Palace."

Fang Bai said, "Good, when there's an opportunity in the future, I will personally invite them. Meanwhile, maintain close contact with them."

The White-Haired Fairy agreed with a sound of "mm."

Moments later, Qingyang Immortal Emperor returned from afar, but this time without bringing back a single immortal.

"I invited those immortals to join us, but upon hearing that we only have five immortals here, they refused to come over and chose to join other teams with greater overall strength. Alas..."

Qingyang Immortal Emperor looked somewhat dejected, shaking his head and speaking bitterly.

Fang Bai smiled and said, "I think the five of us are enough. Immortals do not matter by number, but by quality!"

The White-Haired Fairy nodded deeply in agreement, saying, "The Wushuang Immortal Emperor is right! If there are too many immortals in a team, even if an Immortal Stone Vein is found, not much can be allocated to each immortal."

Qingyang Immortal Emperor sighed, "But if there are too few immortals, the overall strength is weak, making it challenging to compete with other immortal teams!"

Fang Bai replied, "That may not necessarily be the case... To be honest, I have a keen sense for cultivation resources. Perhaps we don't need to clash with other immortals but can find some Immortal Stone Veins ourselves."

Hearing this, Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others' eyes brightened, knowing that immortals in the Immortal Realm with both Innate Earth Spirit Root and Innate Golden Spirit Root are exceptionally sensitive to cultivation resources, often easily finding Immortal Stone Veins and other resources.

However, such immortals are extremely rare in the Immortal Realm, and unexpectedly, the Wushuang Immortal Emperor before them is one.

"That would be wonderful! Then we shall not recruit other immortals and proceed into the mountains immediately!"

Seeing other immortal teams readying themselves and flying into the depths of the Nine Dragons Mountain Range to search for Immortal Stone Veins, Qingyang Immortal Emperor could not wait any longer.

The Nine Dragons Mountain Range is vast, with numerous Immortal Stone Veins, so there is no concern about them being mined out quickly by other immortals. However, if other immortals have occupied the Immortal Stone Veins before them, it would be much more challenging to compete for them later.

The rule regarding Immortal Stone Veins in the Nine Dragons Mountain Range is that whoever discovers it first gets to mine it. If other immortals want to replace them, it must be settled through strength.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor hoped Fang Bai could discover some unclaimed Immortal Stone Veins, thus reducing the chances of conflicts with other immortal teams.

At this point, Fang Bai, Qingyang Immortal Emperor, the White-Haired Fairy, Fairy Qingxia, and Leiling Immortal Emperor, a group of five immortals, followed several other immortal teams into the depths of the Nine Dragons Mountain Range.

Typically, Immortal Stone Veins are buried very deep, and the divine senses of ordinary immortals cannot penetrate too deeply into solid rock layers, making it difficult to locate an Immortal Stone Vein.

As a result, most immortal teams opt to compete for already discovered and actively mined Immortal Stone Veins, rather than expending effort searching for new ones.

During their flight, Fang Bai and the five immortals witnessed some immortal teams engage in fierce battles over the rights to mine Immortal Stone Veins, with the victors gaining mining rights and the losers retreating silently.

Chapter 2657: Immortal Stone Vein by the Furious Flame Sea

After flying for 100,000 miles, they had already entered the depths of the Nine Dragons Mountain Range.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other immortals followed Fang Bai in flight, noticing that Fang Bai would occasionally land on various mountaintops, closing his eyes to sense something, causing their hearts to rise and fall with anticipation.

On this particular day, Fang Bai and the five immortals flew to the western edge of the Nine Dragons Mountain Range. Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others gazed at the vast, sky-covering flames in the distance and exchanged glances.

They knew that proceeding further, out of the Nine Dragons Mountain Range, would lead them to the "Furious Flame Sea," one of the forbidden areas of the Immortal Realm. In the Furious Flame Sea, apart from the pervasive area of flames and fire-attributed immortal birds and beasts, there wouldn't be any Immortal Stones.

Due to the western edge of the Nine Dragons Mountain Range bordering the Furious Flame Sea, and the Immortal Fire that made up the Furious Flame Sea having the might to burn the sky and obliterate the earth, immortals often avoided lingering in this area, making it the most remote part of the entire Nine Dragons Mountain Range.

"Immortal Friend Wushuang, you brought us here, could it be that there is an Immortal Stone vein in this area?"

Qingyang Immortal Emperor believed that Fang Bai wouldn't make a purposeless journey and asked with high hopes.

Immortals at the level of Qingyang Immortal Emperor consume a great deal of Cultivation Resources during their practice. Due to the recent scarcity of these resources, which made continuing their cultivation difficult, they came to the Nine Dragons Mountain Range in search of Immortal Stones to supplement their needs.

They hoped to return fully laden from this trip, but the Nine Dragons Mountain Range was only so large, and the number of immortals arriving to search for Immortal Stone veins was increasing, facing an obvious "more monks than gruel" situation.

Therefore, they placed their hopes on Fang Bai, hoping he would lead them to find an Immortal Stone vein.

If that didn't work, they would have to think of other methods.

At this moment, the Furious Flame Sea was only about Baili away from them, its billowing heat waves enveloping them. Occasionally, groups of fire-attributed immortal birds shot out at high speed from the Furious Flame Sea, approaching them in a show of might.

Those fire-attributed immortal birds were extremely powerful, some with attack strength even comparable to that of Qingyang Immortal Emperor. When they approached, they brought with them a body of Immortal Fire, causing the temperature where Fang Bai and the others stood to suddenly rise.

Even Qingyang Immortal Emperor felt somewhat anxious, having to use a fire-avoidance technique to repel the surrounding scorching heat.

"Hmm, there is indeed an Immortal Stone vein here..."

Fang Bai paid no attention to the approaching fire-attributed immortal birds, pointing down at the mountain range below, confidently telling Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others, "If my sensing is correct, there is an Immortal Stone vein 3,000 feet underground here. It's 50 miles wide, 300 miles long, and the quality is all at the Immortal Emperor Level..."

Upon hearing this, Qingyang Immortal Emperor, Fairy Qingxia, and Leiling Immortal Emperor all widened their eyes, looking down at the mountain peak below and extending their Divine Sense downward.

However, the mountain rock here was extremely solid, and their Divine Senses could only penetrate about 2,000 feet underground, beyond which they could do nothing.

Therefore, they couldn't ascertain whether there was an Immortal Stone vein beneath, and could only rely on Fang Bai's words.

The White-Haired Fairy naturally had full confidence in Fang Bai, silently calculating in her heart, "50 miles wide... 300 miles long... that means this Immortal Stone vein contains millions of stones."

Millions of Immortal Stones would constitute a large Immortal Stone vein, and with the stones being of Immortal Emperor Level quality, it was even more extraordinary.

Usually, such large Immortal Stone veins in the Immortal Realm would be occupied by powerful Immortal Sects or Schools, and Loose Cultivators would find it difficult to maintain possession if they discovered such a vein.

However, Fang Bai and the others had no such concerns.

This area was not only remote but also close to the Furious Flame Sea, meaning few immortals would fly this way. Moreover, if the Immortal Stone vein truly lay 3,000 feet underground, then even if the Immortal Emperor himself came, he might not be able to find it.

Perhaps that is why this Immortal Stone vein has remained undetected by others until now.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other immortals were extremely excited, thinking that if what Fang Bai said was true, then this Immortal Stone vein would be a great treasure for the five of them, sufficient for their future cultivation needs.

However, after their initial excitement subsided, Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other immortals became somewhat worried.

If they were to mine the Immortal Stone vein, there was a risk of Immortal Qi spilling out, potentially attracting covetous eyes from other immortals. They had no confidence they could defend the vein at that time.

Fang Bai seemed to notice Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others' worries, quickly formed tens of thousands of Immortal Stones in his hands and then conjured Array Runes one after another, casting them to create a Concealment Formation centered around the five of them.

"With this Concealment Formation, we can safely mine the Immortal Stones."

Fang Bai said with a smile to Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others.

Although Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others did not understand the Array Path, they possessed excellent eyesight and recognized that Fang Bai's Concealment Formation was ingeniously set up, effectively concealing their location and preventing any Immortal Qi from leaking during mining, achieving two goals at once.

"Haha, what are we waiting for? Let's go down and take a look!"

Qingyang Immortal Emperor, impatient to verify Fang Bai's claims, immediately used the Earth Escape Technique to drill underground.

Fang Bai and the other immortals followed suit, performing the Earth Escape Technique to head below the mountain peak.

The majority of immortals in the Immortal Realm understood the Five Elements Techniques, although some were more adept at certain specific Immortal Technique Secrets.

Fang Bai, with a delayed start, soon surpassed Qingyang Immortal Emperor, appearing ahead of the other immortals.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor marveled, not expecting Fang Bai's Earth Escape Technique to surpass his own, which fueled his competitive spirit, prompting him to accelerate downward, yet he always remained a step behind Fang Bai.

Upon reaching a depth of 2,000 feet, Qingyang Immortal Emperor extended his Divine Sense once more, indeed discovering the dazzling glow emanating from a multitude of Immortal Stones and sensing the concentrated Immortal Qi, filling him with immense joy.

Fang Bai was the first to reach the area where the Immortal Stone vein was located. With a punch, he shattered the stones, creating a space several yards wide around him, enough for the five immortals to stand.

"Aha... Immortal Friend Wushuang, we owe this to you. There truly is an Immortal Stone vein here!"

Qingyang Immortal Emperor, gazing at the Immortal Stone vein before him, started waving his arms and legs in excitement.

Fang Bai and the other immortals were also filled with joyful smiles.

"With these Immortal Stones here, let's not stand on ceremony, let's start mining!"

Saying this, Fang Bai reached out with his left hand, amidst hissing sounds, large quantities of Immortal Stones fell off, which he immediately collected into his Five Elements Space Ring.

The other four immortals reached out in four different directions and began collecting the fallen Immortal Stones.

Immortals of their level typically carried multiple Space Immortal Rings for contingencies, so whenever one Space Immortal Ring was filled with Immortal Stones, they would immediately switch to another.

In the end, their Space Immortal Rings were all filled with Immortal Stones, and after a quick count, they had each collected over a million Immortal Stones.

While Fang Bai's right hand continuously punched the Immortal Stones, his left hand waved unceasingly, collecting Immortal Stones at a rate several times faster than Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others. When they stopped to glance at him, they were stunned to find such a vast space before him.

Chapter 2658: The Huo Hai Within the Mountain

What left the Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other immortals puzzled was that, despite using several Space Immortal Rings, they only managed to collect about a million Immortal Stones.

However, looking at the vast space before Fang Bai, it seemed like he had stored at least over ten million Immortal Stones.

Over ten million Immortal Stones, surely it would take dozens of Space Immortal Rings to hold them all, right?

Yet, they noticed that Fang Bai did not seem to switch out his Space Immortal Ring while collecting the Immortal Stones.

In other words, all of those millions of disappearing Immortal Stones were stored in the Spatial Ring worn on Fang Bai's finger.

Only an Emperor-level Spatial Ring could hold millions of Immortal Stones, right?

Could it be that the Spatial Ring on Fang Bai's finger is actually an Emperor's Instrument?

However, upon closer inspection, the Spatial Ring on Fang Bai's finger looks no different from other Space Immortal Rings, and even appears quite ordinary from the outside.

"This ring, I was fortunate enough to come across during my training in the Immortal Realm, it should be an Emperor's Instrument."

Seeing the Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other immortals staring at him in astonishment, Fang Bai raised his left hand and said with a smile.

"In the Immortal Realm, not even every Emperor Realm expert possesses an Emperor's Instrument. Immortal Friend Wushuang, you truly are fortunate!"

Hearing Fang Bai confirm that the Spatial Ring on his finger is indeed an Emperor's Instrument, the Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other immortals were filled with envy.

"How large is this Emperor's Instrument space exactly?"

The Qingyang Immortal Emperor asked curiously.

He only knew that an Emperor's Instrument used for storage contains an astonishingly large space, but exactly how many Immortal Stones it could hold remained unknown.

Fang Bai pondered for a moment, then said, "It should be able to hold this entire Immortal Stone Vein!"

"Hiss..."

The Qingyang Immortal Emperor drew in a sharp breath, exchanging shocked glances with Fairy Qingxia and the other immortals.

This Immortal Stone Vein, according to what Fang Bai described, contains millions of Immortal Stones. The storage capacity of an Emperor's Instrument that could hold such a vein far exceeded the Qingyang Immortal Emperor's imagination.

"You all wait here. Once I finish collecting all the Immortal Stones, we'll leave this place and discuss how to divide them."

As Fang Bai spoke, his hands did not stop, and swathes of Immortal Stones vanished before him as he gradually advanced forward with the constantly appearing space.

However, according to what Fang Bai said, this Immortal Stone Vein was a hundred miles long, so fully collecting it into his Immortal Ring would take some time.

The Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other immortals wanted to help, but their Space Immortal Rings were already depleted, so they sat cross-legged in place, waiting for Fang Bai to return.

While advancing, Fang Bai continually released Divine Sense to determine the trajectory of the Immortal Stone Vein.

After advancing dozens of miles and collecting more than half of the Immortal Stones in the entire vein, he suddenly paused, and his action of collecting Immortal Stones also came to a stop.

Frowning slightly, he concentrated his Divine Sense to investigate further ahead, but discovered that after advancing a few dozen miles, it was barred by an astonishingly oppressive force, unable to proceed further.

"Such pure Fire Immortal Qi! Could there be an Emperor Realm expert ahead?"

Within that oppressive force, Fang Bai sensed traces of an Emperor Realm expert's presence, realizing it belonged to someone who cultivated Fire System techniques.

But he quickly dismissed his own hypothesis.

He felt that the aura was stronger than that of an ordinary Immortal Emperor, more like an Emperor Realm expert of the Beast Clan.

"There aren't many Beast Clan Emperor Realm experts in the Three Realms. But... how could a Beast Clan Emperor Realm expert appear here?"

Fang Bai was puzzled, but he also knew that his current strength was far from being able to contend with an Emperor Realm expert, so it seemed he could no longer advance.

"Wait, this isn't right!"

Just as Fang Bai was about to turn back, he suddenly paused, thinking, "If it were an Emperor Realm expert, they could dominate the Immortal Realm, so why would this Beast Clan Emperor Realm expert linger inside this mountain? Could it be..."

Fang Bai realized a possibility, and couldn't help but raise his eyebrows, excitement showing on his face.

Though aware of the unknown dangers ahead, Fang Bai's strong curiosity still compelled him to continue forward.

He gritted his teeth, summoned the Blood-Drinking Mad Blade to shield himself from surprises, and continued to cautiously advance.

As he drew nearer to the source of the aura, Fang Bai's Divine Sense penetrated through layers of rock, discovering a sea of flames.

This sea of flames was located at the end of the Immortal Stone Vein, enclosed by the Nine Dragons Mountain Range, appearing normal from the outside.

The Fire Immortal Qi that formed this sea of flames was extremely pure, only possessed by an Emperor Realm expert proficient in Fire System techniques.

"Is this Beast Clan Emperor Realm expert fallen here, or sealed within?"

Fang Bai suppressed the excitement in his heart and, for his safety, even took out the Houyi Bow.

In his knowledge, the Houyi Bow should be a Fire System Divine Artifact, and Fang Bai felt that holding it might produce miraculous effects.

With two Divine Artifacts for protection, Fang Bai felt much more at ease, accelerating the collection of Immortal Stones and advancing forward.

A hundred breaths later, with a muffled crash, a large amount of Immortal Stones broke away and entered Fang Bai's Five Elements Space Ring, revealing a massive entrance before him.

Scarlet flames surged from the entrance, trying to engulf Fang Bai.

Fang Bai extended his hand, holding the Houyi Bow horizontally across his chest, channeling Chaos Immortal Qi from his body into the bow's body.

The Houyi Bow's brilliance surged, turning entirely crimson, then trembled slightly, flying from Fang Bai's hand to meet the rushing flames.

The three-foot-long Houyi Bow, just as it was about to meet the flames, erupted with a terrifying aura as if it were a deity, standing a few meters in front of Fang Bai.

The roaring flames, upon touching the bow's body, instantly disappeared, as they were absorbed by the bow.

The Houyi Bow was like a thirsty Flood Dragon, continually absorbing the surging flames, with the bow becoming increasingly crimson and radiant.

Fang Bai was astonished to find that as subtle changes occurred in the bow, mysterious runes began appearing on its surface.

These runes were extremely profound, beyond Fang Bai's understanding.

Upon the bow's body, Fang Bai also sensed a power distinct from immortal power, much stronger, as if it could break any barrier, destroy anything.

Fang Bai's eyes gleamed with realization, thinking, "If this Houyi Bow is a Divine Artifact, then its current transformation might be due to triggering a trace of divine power?"

If that were true, his ability to protect himself while traveling the Immortal Realm would be greatly enhanced.

Fang Bai controlled the Houyi Bow, advancing while absorbing the flames, with his own figure following suit.

A dozen breaths later, the flames comprising the sea of flames were completely absorbed by the Houyi Bow, and Fang Bai appeared within a massive cavern inside the mountain.

Chapter 2659: Emperor Realm Dragon Corpse

Although this huge mountain cave is enclosed by the mountain body, because all the walls are made of Immortal Stones, it's bright as day.

Fang Bai stands inside the cave, looking at the massive creature in front of him, feeling both excited and slightly regretful.

The monstrous creature is covered in scales, each piece crimson like clusters of flames, unexpectedly an exceedingly rare Redflame Dragon in the Immortal Realm.

The Redflame Dragon is a type of Dragon Clan, naturally possessing the ability to control Immortal Fire, with amazing immortal power, making it one of the most formidable Immortal Beasts within the Immortal Realm.

And the Redflame Dragon before him, though lying on the ground lifeless, still emanates the majestic power of an Emperor.

Evidently, it was an Emperor Realm Expert, able to dominate the Immortal Realm during its lifetime.

In Fang Bai's eyes, this Redflame Dragon's body, both internally and externally, shows no injuries, suggesting it may have fallen due to the end of its lifespan.

Despite reaching the peak of the Immortal Realm, the life spans of Emperor Realm Experts are not eternal.

Therefore, many Emperor Realm Experts hope to breakthrough further, reaching the legendary Great Emperor Realm, and then escape the nine Heavenly Domains of the Immortal Realm, across Endless Space, to the Divine Realm, which they aspire to, though its existence remains uncertain.

Falling due to exhausted lifespan is the sorrow of all Emperor Realm Experts, but it is also an inevitability.

This Redflame Dragon, despite having fallen many years ago, still retains its dignity, making average immortals unable to approach.

The blazing sea of fire within this cave contained pure Immortal firepower, imbued with imperial majesty, which if not absorbed by the Houyi Bow entirely, would have made Fang Bai's entry impossible.

Facing the Dragon Emperor's corpse, Fang Bai dares not be careless, holding the Houyi Bow in his left and the Blood-Drinking Mad Blade in his right, using these two divine artifacts to defend against potential attacks from the dragon corpse, and observing from a distance.

Though this Redflame Dragon has fallen, it was an Emperor Realm Expert in its lifetime, and each part of its body is a treasure to Fang Bai.

For instance, the surface covered in dazzlingly crimson, incredibly durable scales, can be used to forge Fire System Emperor's Instruments.

Furthermore, Dragon meat and blood, containing Supreme Immortal Power, can be consumed, greatly enhancing a immortal's physical robustness, akin to consuming an Emperor Elixir.

Dragon tendons, bones, and horns are also excellent materials for crafting Emperor's Instruments.

As for the dragon's eyes, they can be absorbed into the Sea of Consciousness within the forehead for refining, potentially granting the ability to visually perceive thousands of miles in future without releasing Divine Sense.

However, Fang Bai is most concerned about the Dragon Ball within this Redflame Dragon.

The Dragon Ball is equivalent to the Beast Cores of other Immortal Beasts, it is the essence of the Redflame Dragon, practically the source of all its immortal power.

A Dragon Ball from an Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon contains vast and oceanic immortal power, equivalent to thousands of Emperor Elixirs.

Gazing at the Dragon Emperor's corpse, imagining all its benefits, Fang Bai's eyes glow with greed, unable to resist swallowing a gulp of saliva.

His current cultivation level has reached the peak of the Immortal Emperor Realm, to breakthrough further requires a great amount of cultivation resources.

Thus, the appearance of this Dragon Emperor's corpse is truly timely for him.

Despite having encountered more than one Beast Clan Emperor Realm Expert in past lives, the Dragon Emperor's corpse before him still excites Fang Bai.

Fang Bai circled the Redflame Dragon's corpse a few times, then temporarily left the cave, returning to Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the four immortals.

"I seemed to sense an immensely powerful aura earlier; has something happened on your side?"

Qingyang Immortal Emperor, seeing Fang Bai unharmed, sighed in relief, then glanced at the deep passage Fang Bai had opened, his gaze full of doubt.

Fang Bai didn't conceal anything, sweeping his gaze over Qingyang Immortal Emperor, solemnly saying: "At the end of the Immortal Stone vein, I discovered a Redflame Dragon corpse a hundred meters long..."

Before he finished, Leiling Immortal Emperor exclaimed: "A hundred meters long Redflame Dragon? That would be at least a high rank strong presence comparable to the Immortal Emperor Realm!"

A Redflame Dragon at high rank Immortal Emperor Realm holds great allure for such Immortal Emperor Realm Experts; even Qingyang Immortal Emperor, Fairy Qingxia, White-Haired Fairy had their eyes shining.

However, in White-Haired Fairy's view, since the Redflame Dragon was discovered by their Palace Master first, it belongs to the Palace Master; if Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the others dare to compete for it, she wouldn't care about their previous goodwill and would ally with the Palace Master to jointly kill them.

She has full confidence in Fang Bai, knowing their Palace Master, with his ability to challenge across realms, can suppress Qingyang Immortal Emperor, Fairy Qingxia, Leiling Immortal Emperor alone, and with her assistance ensuring victory.

"No, that Redflame Dragon possessed Emperor Realm prowess during its lifetime."

After Fang Bai spoke, his gaze fell on the faces of Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the three immortals, awaiting their reaction.

Fang Bai knew, as long as they are immortals, hearing of an Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon corpse here, will inevitably spark greed, which is understandable.

If Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the three have self-awareness not to turn against him for the Redflame Dragon corpse, Fang Bai won't treat them poorly, sharing part of it with them except for the Dragon Ball.

But if they wish to monopolize the Redflame Dragon or compete with him for the Dragon Ball, Fang Bai would show them no mercy.

Just as White-Haired Fairy anticipated, Fang Bai's strength compared to Qingyang Immortal Emperor, has a crushing advantage, able to easily kill them if conflict arises.

However, Fang Bai doesn't wish for such outcomes.

"Emperor... Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon corpse? That is a supreme treasure indeed! Haha... can't believe we've discovered this Immortal Stone vein first, and now this encounter!"

Leiling Immortal Emperor rubbed his hands, unable to conceal his excitement and joy on his face,

Fairy Qingxia remained calm, her thoughts intricate, glancing at Qingyang Immortal Emperor beside her, waiting for his stance.

Fairy Qingxia and Qingyang Immortal Emperor are siblings, and Leiling Immortal Emperor has been friends with them for many years, with great relations, thus they always advance and retreat together, led by Qingyang Immortal Emperor.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor's cultivation, like Fang Bai's, is also at the peak of Immortal Emperor Realm, hearing Fang Bai mention the Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon corpse, he first thought of was the Dragon Ball, knowing its immense benefit for entering the Immortal Emperor Realm.

However, Qingyang Immortal Emperor isn't a young, impulsive immortal; after a moment of excitement, seeing Fang Bai's half-smile gaze, he swiftly calmed down.

Though he hasn't seen an Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon, he knows its surrounding sea of fire and imperial pressure emitted, even from a fallen one, are unapproachable.

The discovery of Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon in the depths of the Immortal Stone vein within this mountain body, indicates proximity; Fang Bai bearing the sea of fire heat and imperial pressure, proves his strength surpasses Qingyang's.

Chapter 2660: Qingyang Immortal Emperor's Choice

Qingyang Immortal Emperor is undoubtedly a very clever immortal.

And clever immortals often think a lot.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor considers that if Wushuang Immortal Emperor were replaced with himself, upon discovering the corpse of the Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon, by personal motives, he might initially conceal this news and then think about how to claim the Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon corpse for himself, instead of Wushuang Immortal Emperor returning and telling the other immortals the news.

However, Wushuang Immortal Emperor did exactly that.

Thus, Qingyang Immortal Emperor finds Wushuang Immortal Emperor increasingly unreadable, wondering whether Wushuang Immortal Emperor is truly righteous, ready to share the benefits of the Emperor Realm dragon corpse with all immortals, or whether he has strong confidence in his own strength, not fearing any immortal would compete with him for benefits?

"The treasure of the Immortal Realm belongs to those who are destined for it. Since the Redflame Dragon corpse was discovered by Immortal Friend Wushuang, it should belong to him."

Qingyang Immortal Emperor paused briefly before speaking seriously.

Though he has personal desire and greed, he is ultimately not a ruthless and unscrupulous immortal. Previously, when Fang Bai discovered the large Immortal Stone Vein and shared it with them, it had somewhat moved him, so he did not want to fight Fang Bai to the death for the Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon corpse.

Moreover, in his eyes, although Wushuang Immortal Emperor's realm and cultivation level are equivalent to his own, there seems to be a layer of fog covering him, making him unreadable, which adds a bit of dread to his heart.

He also speculates that Fang Bai returned to inform them of the news because he realized he could not obtain the Redflame Dragon corpse by his own strength, thus seeking their assistance.

If the five immortals join forces to obtain the Redflame Dragon corpse, then each immortal can rightfully receive a portion of the benefits.

Regardless, this is the goodwill released by Fang Bai. If they are oblivious and insist on seizing greater benefits, it would be a disgraceful behavior.

The words Qingyang Immortal Emperor said earlier, "Since the Redflame Dragon corpse was discovered by Wushuang Immortal Emperor, it should belong to Immortal Friend Wushuang," was actually a strategy of retreating for advance; he believes Fang Bai would never monopolize it.

Fang Bai smiled and said, "I have a method to obtain the Redflame Dragon corpse. However, once obtained, the Dragon Ball is mine, and I want thirty percent of the other parts of the dragon corpse. The remaining parts will be equally divided among you four. How about it?"

With these words from Fang Bai, Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other four immortals looked at each other.

White-Haired Fairy naturally has no objections.

Fairy Qingxia and Spirit Thunder Immortal Emperor once again directed their gaze at Qingyang Immortal Emperor.

Qingyang Immortal Emperor furrowed his brow slightly, pondering without speaking.

Like Fang Bai, he most desires the Dragon Ball and then relying on the abundant immortal power contained in the Dragon Ball, to attack the Emperor Realm.

But after all, there is only one Dragon Ball, and it cannot be split into two, meaning among the five immortals, only one immortal can obtain it.

"Of course, if any of you have the ability to obtain the Redflame Dragon corpse, the Dragon Ball can also belong to you. But you should understand, although the Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon has fallen, it cannot be approached by ordinary immortals."

Fang Bai's gaze swept over Qingyang Immortal Emperor, Fairy Qingxia, and Spirit Thunder Immortal Emperor and then said: "Therefore, I advise you: if you are not confident in withstanding the killing intent attack of the Emperor Realm expert, do not take risks lightly; otherwise, the possibility of falling is high."

The immortals, including Qingyang Immortal Emperor, know Fang Bai is not exaggerating.

Though their strength is of high rank at the Immortal Emperor Realm, and even at its peak, they can stand proudly above most immortals in the Immortal Realm, they are powerless against an Emperor Realm expert.

Even the killing intent of a fallen Emperor Realm expert is challenging for them to withstand.

Thus, after Fang Bai said that, several immortals including Qingyang Immortal Emperor fell silent.

"Immortal Friend Wushuang, are you truly confident in obtaining the Redflame Dragon corpse?"

A moment later, Qingyang Immortal Emperor asked.

Seeing Fang Bai nod with confidence, he exhaled lightly, smiled, and said: "In that case, we shall wait here for good news from Immortal Friend Wushuang."

The meaning of his words was now evident: he acknowledged Fang Bai's proposed method of distributing the Redflame Dragon corpse.

Seeing Qingyang Immortal Emperor display a willingness to follow Fang Bai's lead, White-Haired Fairy also sighed in relief and quickly exchanged a glance with Fang Bai.

They both feel Qingyang Immortal Emperor has self-awareness, knows how to advance and retreat, and is worthy of being drawn into alliance.

With Qingyang Immortal Emperor being this way, Fairy Qingxia and Spirit Thunder Immortal Emperor naturally have no objections.

"Once the killing intent of the Emperor Realm expert is released, it can cause this mountain range to collapse. Therefore, it would be better for all of you to leave this place temporarily to avoid being affected."

Fang Bai said, giving White-Haired Fairy a glance, then turned and headed towards the cave where the Redflame Dragon corpse was located.

"Wushuang Immortal Emperor is right; the killing intent of the Emperor Realm expert is something none of us can withstand, let's leave here as soon as possible!"

White-Haired Fairy watched Fang Bai's silhouette disappear, then sternly addressed Qingyang Immortal Emperor and the other immortals.

Thus, Qingyang Immortal Emperor, White-Haired Fairy, Fairy Qingxia, and Spirit Thunder Immortal Emperor ascended into the sky and within moments returned to the mountaintop outside, where they exited the concealment formation and flew into the ten-thousand-foot-high sky, focusing downward, monitoring the situation below.

Meanwhile, Fang Bai has once again appeared in the gigantic cave containing the Redflame Dragon corpse.

Fang Bai knows that to claim the Redflame Dragon corpse for himself, he must first exhaust the killing intent contained within its enormous body.

Therefore, Fang Bai once again summoned the Blood-Drinking Mad Blade, intending to attack the Redflame Dragon's corpse with it, thereby stimulating the killing intent it contains.

Simultaneously, Fang Bai also summoned and expanded the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron to shield himself against the strong impact that the Emperor Realm killing intent might exert on him.

Fang Bai understands that in the Nine Dragons Mountain Range, there are many immortals gathered; although this area is very remote and seldom visited by immortals, he must collect the Redflame Dragon corpse within the shortest possible time, otherwise if any immortal senses the commotion here and comes to investigate, conflict will be unavoidable.

Therefore, after making adequate preparations, Fang Bai swung the Blood-Drinking Mad Blade, rapidly slashing out dozens of times in an instant.

Dozens of fierce blood rays aimed at the Redflame Dragon's corpse.

"Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh..."

The sound of dense air tearing rang out as the dozens of blood rays from the Blood-Drinking Mad Blade stimulated the counterattack of the dozens of Emperor Realm killing intents hidden within the Redflame Dragon corpse.

The killing intent from the Emperor Realm Redflame Dragon corpse was very perceptive; the killing intent it releases would target wherever the attack came from.

Hence, with Blood-Drinking Mad Blade in hand, Fang Bai became the target of those dozens of Emperor Realm killing intents.

Dozens of Emperor Realm killing intents, concentrated together to attack Fang Bai, the power was evident.

Fang Bai felt a force capable of destroying the heavens and earth, his scalp tingling as he swiftly hid inside the Five Elements Origin Qi Cauldron.
