TEN.

Today's Friday, I'm in my school uniform but a pacifier clipped on my shirt. I tried to compromise and put it in my bag but daddy wouldn't let me. I pout the whole way toward the cafeteria, he goes to get me my breakfast and I don't even bother to go along with him I stomp to our table and see that Rory too got a paci clipped to his shirt, well at least I'm not alone.

Today's class is about regression, how to go into our little space, what can trigger it, and what can snap us out. The last five minutes were spent with paci inside our mouths. My academic classes passed quickly thank god I didn't have English today, so most of them were with Rory. In our last class with our daddies, we had to sit in their lap the whole period while Sir Milo explained about trust and caregiving while in little space.

After the class was over Tasha and Timmy came to get us to Madame P's office, I had to make my decision if I want Dimitri to be my daddy or not. Well the answer was simple I said yes, I had to sign a few papers that made me officially his, and I got a new school Id with my name on it "Sophia Vitale"

I moved well officially moved to Dimitri's room, we spent Saturday talking and getting to know each other. I found out why they all call him prince due to his status with the mafia he's the Vitale empire heir. I still wasn't cool with the criminal part but I could do nothing about it.

We watched movies he let me chose what I want to watch, he cooked for me instead of going to the cafeteria, we even colored together he got me so many crayons, water paint, coloring books. I got more used to my pacifier, I haven't slipped to a full little mindset yet but I was close.

The weekend passed quietly for us, Monday I had a new schedule, daddy's doing of course. Instead of PE, I got "little activities" and I got a new class of English along with an extra course about vampires. Mine and Rory's schedule are identical now so that's a plus, in every class, I would see one of Dimitri's friends they are Victor, Dante, and Maria the girl who gave me candy. If not them then I got Vincent or daddy along with me. I was never alone which made me feel kind of safe.

As the days went by I was getting used to my routine, waking up with daddy getting ready for school, breakfast, classes, lunch, classes, homework, quality time with daddy, dinner, bath, and finally bed.

It's Thursday morning when daddy breaks the news to me "Sophia love I have some work to do, I won't be at the school today but I'll be back by dinner time. Be a good girl for me okay" I feel my eyes start watering I don't want him to leave.

"No don't go," I say and the tears start falling.

"Baby baby come on don't cry, please. Maria, Victor, and Dante will walk you and Rory to and from class they'll take care of you till I'm back okay" he says and kisses my forehead I'm still crying I don't want him to leave. He gets up and lifts me on his hip to go get some breakfast I cling to him like a koala refusing to be put down. I eat a few bites of my breakfast while sitting on his lap, he takes me toward my first class and I start crying again not wanting him to leave.

"Shh that's enough kitten stop crying...I'll be back by dinner time and I better hear that you've been a good girl or there would be consequences" he stuck my pacifier into my mouth and go talk to my teacher.

I'm grumpy all day I don't participate in class, I don't eat lunch no matter how much the other three try to feed me. By time for our last period I'm really pissed I have no daddy to sit with me. The moment I walk into class with red puffy eyes and pout on my face Sir Milo calls me to him.

"What's got you so mad little girl," he asks

"Daddy's busy" I grumble

"Oww come on sweetheart I'm sure he got some important errands to run" he kisses my forehead and stuck my paci in my mouth I spit it out immediately. He gives me a stern look and sends me to my seat.

I don't pay attention in class and Sir Milo calls me on it twice, by the third time he got enough from me and send me to stand in the corner. I stayed in the corner for a full fifteen minutes. When the bell rings I try to run out of class but he calls me back in

"If your Dom isn't here that doesn't give you a free pass to sulk and not pay attention in class. Dimitri will be notified about your behavior you are dismissed" great now my teacher is threatening to snitch on me.

I stay inside our dorm till dinner I try to skip but victor said I either go with him or he's calling Dimitri what is it with these people threatening to call my daddy.

I'm wearing one of Dimitris hoodie with some legging, Victor asks me to bring a paci when I gave him sass about not needing one he reminded me that's it's a school rule since my regression age is below four. I stomp back inside and snatch one in my hand and walk back out. Victor holds his hand palm up waiting for me to give it to him, when I do he clip it to my hoodie. He tries to carry me but I refuse to choose to walk....a very bad choice indeed.
