

Doomsday 41

Chapter 41: Busy for getting the crystal core

Di Ping already had a plan in his heart. He must be weak to go by himself. If you bring Boogie, the safety of the castle cannot be guaranteed. After all, there are dozens of people here? So Bogie has to stay, so he can only take advantage of the time today to go out to spawn monsters, to see if he can get more crystal cores, and then recruit a hero to take the road, which will be safer.

"but?"

At this moment, there were some people who wanted to say something, Di Ping stretched out his hand to interrupt.

"No, please keep your home safe so that I can go out with peace of mind, so be it!"

"I will set off tomorrow morning. After I leave, you will be responsible for things here." Di Ping everyone calmed down, and then they were assigned tasks. "Big Brother Cheng, you are in charge of the guard patrol!" After finishing Di Ping, he thought about it and said: "By the way, I will stay in Boogie. You and him will clean up the mutant beasts in the community as soon as possible to ensure the safety of the manor reclaimers..."

"Yes, Brother Di!" Cheng Chao stood up from the sofa one by one, "Guaranteed to complete the task!"

Di Ping smiled and nodded, "Fatty, you and Lao Luo, organize some people to repair the fence of the community, and reinforce the place where mutant beasts can easily enter!"

"Okay, don't worry Dige!" The two stood up and promised.

"Brother Di!" Yu Shujie looked at Di Ping anxiously and asked, "Where are we?"

"Right right! Where are we?" Liu Bingyu's third daughter also followed.

"Okay! Of course you also have tasks!" Di Ping smiled at the four heroic and charming women, his heart moved slightly, but he hurriedly closed his mind, and smiled slightly: "Management of the living personnel in the castle, as well as the population deployment of the manor. But you have to be responsible!" After finishing talking, Di Ping's face became serious and became serious. "This matter is very important. How about it. Can you do it?"

"Huh!" The four women looked unconvinced, and Yu Shujie raised her pretty face. "Don't underestimate people, we promise to complete the task..." The other three women followed and nodded again and again.

Di Ping looked at the four women, haha laughed, "Okay! I believe you!" Then Di Ping's face changed, his smile disappeared, and his face looked serious at everyone in the room. "After I leave, you have to discuss everything. Don't make conflicts?"

"George Di, don't worry!" Several people hurriedly promised.

Seeing several people filed out of his room, Di Ping leaned on the chair and closed his eyes to rest his mind, and his mind turned quickly. Judging from the performance of the people today, these people are not bad, knowing the importance of things, not the kind of blind and unprincipled. He has gradually understood. The way of survival in the last days.

Of course, apart from the fat man, it seems a little too idealistic, but this is not a bad thing. I believe it will gradually change. In such a world, it is difficult for an unprincipled good old man to survive. He believes that the fat man will quickly understand.

After a short break, Di Ping put on a sportswear and went out with a sword. He didn't notify anyone. Now it's just after noon, then it is important to take advantage of this time to get some crystal cores and recruit more heroes. And he saw that the system warehouse icon was also lit up. The construction of this warehouse is also imminent. Although he doesn't know what the warehouse is for, he believes that the system is definitely a boutique product, but all of this requires the consumption of coins.

Quickly out of the gate of the community, the trees on the road became taller, and the weeds became more luxuriant. The mutant snake that was hung high on the branch by Di Ping was still there, but it was already a little smelly in this weather.

The sun is high in the sky, and the sun is a bit venomous. Although the temperature is not too high when the vegetation is too much, the grass is still a bit sultry at this time. Just a few hundred meters away, Dipin is already sweating, cursing in his heart, and turning away from the grass. Walked onto the road.

There is much less grass and trees on the road. Although the road surface is damaged by the roots of big trees, it is better than walking in the grass. Only there is space here and you can feel a breeze. Giant trees on both sides, green shade Good day, it feels much better without direct sunlight.

Di Ping was walking forward cautiously, when suddenly there was a humming sound not far ahead, Di Ping listened carefully, it seemed to be a pig hum.

He grew up in a rural area, and he used to feed pigs at home. He was familiar with this sound, so he slowed down and moved forward softly.

Passing around a few abandoned cars, as expected, three black pigs were arching under the tree roots fifty meters away, seeming to be looking for something to eat, and they were still humming and chirping very cheerfully.

Di Ping watched these three black pigs really grow big. These three mutated black pigs were nearly 1.5 meters tall and 4 meters long. They had two huge fangs sticking out of their long pointed mouths and their feet stretched out. It was 30 centimeters long, and the hair on his body was erected like steel needles, and it looked numb to the scalp. From the outside, these three were not domestic pigs, but ferocious wild boars.

What made Di Ping even more shocked was that these three wild boars were so powerful that when a car on the side seemed to be blocking its arch, just two huge fangs directly picked the car out of five meters. .

The wild boar is not only powerful but also very fast. The main vitality is strong. Once attacked, it will slam into it. It runs slowly, either dead or maimed, so many hunters before the end of the world are unwilling to hunt. Mess with this animal.

Di Ping has a feeling that this mutant wild boar may not be as powerful as his own, and may be stronger than himself. Thinking of this, Di Ping doesn't know if he wants to do it. If he doesn't do it, there are three crystal nuclei. I'm really scared to do it. You must know that wild boars are wild animals that even tigers dare to fight when they go crazy.

"Crack!"

Di Ping was thinking about whether to use his hands. When he accidentally stepped on a tree branch, the tree board broke. Although the sound was very small, the sound was like a needle falling in a quiet room on this quiet road. It was clearly audible. The three wild boars stopped arching and looked up in the direction of Di Ping.

"Shit!"

Di Ping stood there in embarrassment for a while, and cursed secretly. At this time, he was in no hurry to hide, and he was caught by the three wild boars.

The three wild boars seemed to be very angry when Di Ping interrupted their food, their hair exploded, red eyes filled with blood, a low growl, and suddenly black hoofs hit the ground, like three black arrows shooting at themselves. , Three giant wild boars nearly one person high ran like a mad bull, with great momentum. Every time the huge pig's feet hit the ground, the ground shook, and everything on the road was swept away by three black winds.

Looking at the three-headed behemoth, Di Ping was too powerful to face him. He didn't know how powerful he was, so he chose to dodge honestly. He dodged and jumped out four or five. Meters away, he flew straight from the roadside to behind a big tree.

"boom..."

With a loud noise, a jeep off-road vehicle in the position where Di Ping was standing just now was directly shattered by three black lights. The parts of the vehicle were scattered and the frame of the car flew up high, rolled over ten meters away, and then smashed heavily. On the thick trunk.
