

Doomsday 98

Chapter 98: Sensational passion to kill

Di Ping's murderous aura surged under his anger, and immediately everyone around him felt that the surrounding temperature had dropped a bit, shivered involuntarily, and began to back away.

"me...."

The five of them were holding their broken arms and sweating with pain on their heads. Seeing Di Ping's murderous eyes, the five of them trembled and stammered with their mouths open.

"What's the matter? What's the matter? Get out of the way!"

At this time, a loud and hurried voice came from outside, and he split the crowd and rushed inside while asking.

Di Ping didn't speak when he heard Han Zhongguo's voice. He just stared sharply at the five people and didn't say anything. He wanted to wait for these people to come in. He felt that things would not be too simple. Even these five people had no courage. If he didn't plan to kill himself, he had to get rid of this secret person. He didn't want to be on guard against the secret hands of those behind him at all times. He liked to wipe out all the disadvantages.

After a while, a few people rushed in, and it was Han Zhongguo Lu Guoliang, followed by Ge Zhongping, Lu Hai and others, all sweating profusely, and the passage was crowded with people. Broke in.

At this time, someone had turned on the led light, and when a few lights were on, it was shining brightly. When a few people came in, they saw the situation in the circle, and a few people had scalp numbness.

They saw Di Ping and Gina standing at the door, and five bundles of grenades were under their feet, five pistols were still lying on the ground, and five people in uniforms were holding their arms and humming painfully. One of Han Zhongguo. Seeing this situation, I immediately understood.

As soon as they realized it, the hearts of the few people were broken, their souls almost frightened, sweat suddenly appeared like a spring, and the back was all sweaty for a second.

Can anyone not understand this situation?

Is this someone trying to kill Di Ping with a grenade?

This is who is so bold and frantic. I don't know if these grenades explode, not only Di Ping will not survive, but they will not survive. This bomb can definitely blow the roof of the building down, and they will pay if the underground mall collapses. There is a way to survive, this man wants everyone to die?

"Mr Di·Di·Xian...This..."

Han Zhongguo couldn't even shout at Xiao Di at this time. It was Mr. Di who yelled directly. He just stuttered and couldn't say the whole thing. He was really shocked. Who is this vicious, and even afraid that Di Ping will be angry. The change.

"Okay! Everyone is here, the five of you talk about, why are you assassinating me? Who is it?"

Di Ping ignored Han Zhongping, his eyes swept across the faces of several people, then looked at the five people who were holding their arms again and asked.

"Ah! Someone is going to assassinate Mr. Di? Who is so bold?"

"Oh my God! How come someone assassinated Mr. Di, if it weren't for Mr. Di, we would have died a long time ago, and if I knew who it was, I would kill him!"

"Yes, it's too bad for him to be hacked to death. Mr. Di is here. We have just eaten our stomachs. Who is so vicious? He should be killed!"

"Someone doesn't want us to live, find him, and kill him!"

"Protect Mr. Di!"

After hearing Di Ping's words, the crowd knew that someone had assassinated their hope, Mr. Di. Yesterday, the base spread. Mr. Di killed dozens of mutant dogs before saving everyone in the base.

They also made meat for them to eat. After eating the meat, all of them became energized, and their illnesses were much better. Everyone thanked Mr. Di very much, but now there are people who want to assassinate their saviors, and they are immediately filled with righteous indignation and shouting. To kill these bad guys.

"I...we..."

The five people looked at the angry crowd around them in horror, and looked at the flat-headed people who usually feared themselves.

At this moment, his eyes were wide and wide, as if he was about to rush up to kill him, he was shocked and backed back again and again, only to retreat to the wall, his body shivered, his eyes were so helpless.

"Yes, yes! These people should be killed, Lu Hai, they have been pulled out and killed, a bunch of black sheep, even Mr. Di wants to kill, is there any king law?"

At this time, Ge Zhongping suddenly stood up and pointed to the five people's screaming righteousness, even too late to wipe the sweat.

"You, you... Ge Zhongping, you bastard, you are too cruel..."

When the five people heard Ge Zhongping's words, they all raised their heads and looked at him, with unbelievable expressions in their eyes. One of the short middle-aged men pointed at Ge Zhongping's eyes and cursed with hatred.

"Come on, pull five of them out!"

At this moment, Lu Hai stepped out and pointed his finger at the five people and said sharply.

"You...you..."

The short man looked at Lu Hai with astonishment, his mouth was trembling, and he touched Lu Hai and Ge Zhongping with his finger, and he couldn't say anything for a while.

At this time, five people in uniforms rushed out of the crowd and swarmed in front of the five people. These five people seemed to have been trained and were all good hands. Without saying anything, they punched the broken arm with a fierce punch. Five people on their stomachs.

"Wow....."

The punch was heavy and fierce. The five people immediately bent over and spit out acid water, losing the ability to resist; the five people who rushed up again twisted their arms and pushed their arms behind them and pushed them out of the crowd.

"Did I make you move?"

At this time, a cold voice came, and the five people suddenly froze in their ears and did not dare to move, but they all looked at the land and sea.
