

Chapter 3

Lilly walked down the stairs holding a few bags of luggage in her hands. Kade immediately walked over and took all of them from her, heading back outside.

Cadence walked in from her phone call and was shocked about what was going on. She saw the gorgeous alpha from the Diamond pack and she was tempted to sneak taking a picture of him.

Lilly walked over and gave Mattie a hug bye. "Stay in touch?"

"Always," Mattie said sadly.

She walked up and gave her father a hug goodbye. "Take care of yourself, Daddy."

"If you ever need anything, you call me," Ethan said as he watched his daughter nod up to him.

Lilly then went and wrapped her arms tightly around Aaron. "I'm going to worry about you every day." Aaron felt depressed seeing his baby sister ready to leave.

"Don't worry about me, Aaron. Be the wonderful leader that I know you are." Lilly whispered up to him as he kissed her on her forehead.

Cadence walked up to Aaron. "What's going on?" She asked sweetly to Aaron.

"Lilly is leaving with her new mate." Aaron frowned, looking at Lilly in front of him.

"You mean she found a mate and he actually wants her?" Cadence accidentally slipped out causing Aaron to growl at her.

Tyler looked at Cadence with a dark glare. He didn't like this girl who was disrespecting his luna. He walked up and pulled Lilly into his arms, causing her cheeks to heat up from the close proximity. "I don't appreciate the way you speak about my mate," Tyler said as he gazed down at the blushing girl in his arms.

"You're Lilly's mate?!" Cadence was shocked. Her friends are going to go to bed crying when they hear that Tyler now has a mate and not with just anyone, but with Lilly. "You know that Lilly is...different, right?" Aaron snuffed out air angrily and made Cadence hunker back from his reaction.

"So I've been told." Tyler didn't care what was different about her, she was his, and was more perfect then he ever could have imagined. Tyler lowered one arm but left a protective limb around Lilly. He nodded towards Aaron and escorted her out of her home.

Tyler opened the car door and helped Lilly inside. He then walked around to the other side and sat in the back seat next to her, while Kade drove them back to the Diamond pack.

"Did you mean all of that before? About your own pack not wanting you?" Tyler asked curiously.

"Yes. Just ask any of them. I only have Mattie, my brother and father in my pack." Lilly looked out the window and watched as they drove away from her home. She did not really care about leaving this place. It was not dear to her heart, but leaving Aaron was a deep wound. She always had him around to comfort her and she felt suddenly very alone.

"That Mattie is in love with you," Kade said from the front causing a low growl to escape from Tyler's throat.

"I don't know about that, but if he is, he won't be once he finds his mate." Lilly said with a soft smile. That was the way it was. No matter how strong your feelings were for someone, once you meet your mate, that was it. Your connection with them was all but gone. All you could think about was your mate and they were the only one who could fill your heart. Only your mate could make you whole.

"Isn't that the truth." Kade snickered out.

"Enough", Tyler snapped quieting Kade.

This reaction was surprising, but she didn't take the time to analyze it. She was going to a new place and was nervous about what to expect.

"I'd like to meet your wolf soon." Tyler spoke casually as he turned to look at her.

Lilly turned and met his gaze. "I...I....I dunno...I'm afraid she might try to attack your wolf." Lilly looked down biting her bottom lip.

"My wolf is her mate; she wouldn't attack him." Tyler smiled at Lilly who only shrugged.

"The rejection from our pack hurt her, she says she wants to be a rogue, but she just doesn't want to get hurt again. We like to keep our distance." Lilly answered and looked back up to meet Tyler's gray hypnotizing eyes. She could feel the mate bond pulling her to him. The more they were together, the stronger the pull would become. Already, her thoughts were being filled with him, and her heart as well. She leaned her head back feeling tired and soon dozed off, soothed by the sound of the hum of the vehicle's engine.

Tyler felt her head slide onto his lap, and he sat there frozen for a moment. He reached out and gently stroked her hair from the sides of her face. She was beautiful. He was enraged when he heard how her own pack didn't want her. He wasn't sure why, maybe their loyalties to their previous Luna? All he knew was, that he couldn't get her out of his heart the moment he touched her. He wanted nothing more than to mark her as his and to complete the mating bond. He would wait, for as long as he could, hoping she would soon be ready. She was perfect, everything about her was perfect. She was more than he could have ever asked for. And to think, he gave up looking for his mate and was about to marry someone else. Kade was right, the moment he met Lilly, everything he thought he felt for Jessica disappeared. He knew he had to have Lilly and would kill to have her. Tyler leaned down and kissed her temple, his Luna.

"Lilly, we are here." Tyler said as he gently played with her golden strands.

Lilly opened her eyes and realized her head was laying on someone's legs. She quickly sat up and turned her head to look over at Tyler. "I'm sorry. I guess I was really tired." She bit her bottom lip as she looked at him uncertainly.

"You can fall asleep on me anytime." Tyler chuckled as he opened the door hopping out of the vehicle.

Lilly peered out of the car window. They were pulled up to a beautiful mansion that made her father's look like a house. There were flowers planted all along the front and a white fenced in porch wrapped around the entire length. The entrance had these two lovely oak solid doors, it was breath taking.

The car door opened, and Tyler pulled her out by her waist and slid her next to his body. The warmth of his touch sent little bolts of lightning through her body. The closeness allowed her to fully take in his soothing scent, it seemed it was made just for her. She wanted nothing more than to wrap her arms around his neck and place her lips on-- no no get your mind out of the gutter. Lilly scolded herself. She noticed Tyler was watching her and a blush crept upon her face from getting caught eye groping him.

He lowered his head to hers and placed a warm gentle kiss on her cheek. "Welcome home beautiful. You made me wait a long time for you."

Lilly blushed and looked down. She was not used to all this attention, especially the intimate ones. She had never been kissed before intimately and the feelings she was feeling were all new to her.

Kade grabbed Lilly's bags and headed towards the house as Tyler wrapped a possessive arm around Lilly's waist and escorted her inside.

Once entering her new home, Lilly looked at it in awe. The first half of the door was open concept. There was a large kitchen to the left with a bar to eat at and then to the right was a big theater area. In front of her was a large wide staircase. The entry way allowed for you to look straight up to the third-floor ceiling. From each floor you could peer down and see the entry level floor. It was very elaborate and overwhelming.

"I'll show you to your room and then I can have you shown around." Tyler said as he led her up the stairs. He led her down a long hall and then stopped at a room on the second floor.

"This is your room here." He pushed open the door as Kade was walking out.

"All the bags are here." Kade smiled at Lilly and then left them in the room.

"Your room has its own bathroom suite too." Tyler said as he motioned to the door to the left side.

Lilly looked at the big king size bed that had a hanging canopy over top of it. There was a TV on the wall and two big windows to the outside.

"This is your room for now, eventually you will be moving into my room. It is right beside this room if you ever need me.... for anything." Tyler said with a flirtatious wink. "I'm going to have Kade show you around and then.... you hungry?"

Lilly nodded up to him. She had not eaten dinner yet.

Tyler looked down at her for a moment, like he wanted to say something more. He sighed and rested his arm around her leading her back out of the room. He could take his time with her, for now.

"Kade." Tyler barked.

"I'm right here," Kade yelled from below them.

"Show Lilly around, I'm going to address the pack and let them know that their luna is here." Tyler brought Lilly down to the first floor where Kade was. He then leaned down and kissed her cheek before quickly walking out of the large double doors.

Lilly's face lit up red. She wasn't expecting Tyler to kiss her on the cheek, again. He has been keeping an intimate touch on her at almost all times. She liked it but was afraid of it. She was afraid of how bad she would feel if he chose to reject her. She wanted him, and wanted him to mark her as his own, but it wouldn't be fair to trap him with the likes of her.

"Luna, come on I'll show you your home." Kade said holding out his arm for her to take.

Lilly nodded with a small smile and took his arm. Kade walked her around showing her the house. He explained that the beta and the third also lived in the house along with their mates or future mates. The nally made his way back down the stairs and towards the kitchen.
