Chapter 421 - Three Heads and Six Arms

"Help me serve the dishes." Zhang Ronghua called out."

"Yes." Yang Hongling put away the strange feeling in her heart and walked over. She carried the dishes and left the kitchen with him.

In the lobby.

The old teacher and Little Four were waiting there. Seeing that they had come, Little Four wanted to escape, but under the temptation of the delicious food, he couldn't move his body. He lay on the ground and pretended to be dead, as if he didn't see him.

After putting the dishes on the table, Yang Hongling stopped beside it. She reached out her hand and pulled its ear. She said with a straight face, ""What did you just say? My feet stink?"

Little Four was filled with a desire to live. He shook his head vigorously and refused to admit it no matter what."You must have heard wrongly. Your feet don't stink at all. On the contrary, they smell very good! It was ten or twenty times more fragrant than the delicacies on the table. Whoever was lucky enough to smell it would have a lingering aftertaste for the rest of their lives."

Seeing that she didn't relent, the beast's eyes rolled around and it began to transmit its voice.

Yang Hongling was stunned. She looked at Little Four, then at Zhang Ronghua and asked,""Really?"

"Yes." Xiao Si nodded heavily.

"I'll let you off this time! If you dare to spout nonsense again, I'll tear apart your basin."

He took back his jade hands and picked up the bowl. He put some vegetables into it until the bowl was full and placed it in front of it. Little Four held the bowl in his mouth and rushed out without looking back. He was afraid that if he ran too slowly, the delicacies in the bowl would be snatched away.

He sat on the chair.

He scooped two bowls of rice and placed them in front of the old man and Zhang Ronghua. He then handed the chopsticks over and scooped a bowl for himself.

With the elders present, Yang Hongling was very quiet. She lowered her head and ate the rice silently.

Zhang Ronghua was the same, eating his food.

His sixth realm skill was almost Dao level, and the dishes he cooked were very fragrant. One could tell from the old man's appearance. His chopsticks flew around, and he took one bite after another. The rice did not even touch. Almost two-thirds of the table was eaten by him.

The old man knew that the young man had something to say. He put down his chopsticks, patted his stomach, stood up from his chair, and said, "I'm old! I feel sleepy at night."

Stroking his beard, he swayed as he left.

Yang Hongling stood up from her chair and said, "Wait for me."

She walked towards the kitchen with the bowl and chopsticks.

Zhang Ronghua didn't know what she was going to do. He left the hall and sat on the threshold. He looked at the dark night sky and waited in the night wind.

After a while.

Yang Hongling didn't stop when she returned. She called out, ""Come here." He walked towards the backyard.

Zhang Ronghua was confused. It was so late, why did you bring me to the backyard? After hesitating for a moment, he still followed.

When they reached the backyard, they stopped outside her boudoir.

Yang Hongling's heartbeat accelerated to more than 120 horsepower. She gritted her teeth and pressed her tongue against her teeth. She was shy in her heart, but her expression did not change. Her eyes were natural, and she could not see any expression. She pushed open the door and walked in. She walked towards the bedroom.

After Zhang Ronghua came in, he looked at her back, then at the room and the open door.

After some thought, he decided to close the door as a form of respect for her.

He stood in the hall and looked around. He had been here once before. The room was simply decorated and there was nothing extra. On the table, there were six plates of spiritual fruits. He walked over and took a ginseng fruit. He did not peel it and wiped it on his clothes. He took a bite and ate it.

In the bedroom.

Yang Hongling was sitting on the bed. The outside was blocked by the bead curtain and jade tent. She stood outside and couldn't see inside. Zhang Ronghua wasn't there, so she didn't have to hide her expression. Her exquisite face was as red as the sunset, all the way to her earlobes. Her small ears were dyed red. Although she wasn't wearing earrings, she was still very beautiful, making people want to bite her.

She lowered her head and looked at her feet. She wondered if he had listened to Little Four's nonsense and mistakenly thought that her feet were smelly. He had been struggling with this question since the afternoon. Should he let him smell it and see through Little Four's lies?

As time passed, the blush on her face did not disappear. Instead, it became redder and redder, and her alluring charm became more and more intense. Her wavering heart finally made up her mind. She would let him smell it once, just once, to prove that her feet were fragrant and not smelly, and then she would take them back.

At the thought of this, she took off her black boots, revealing a pair of jade-like feet wrapped in black socks. The stockings were transparent, especially her toes. It was as if she was not wearing them at all. They were exposed to the air and she moved around happily, wanting to break free from the restrictions and move freely.

She reached out with her jade-like hand and took off her black socks, revealing her fair and jade-like feet. They were as smooth as milk and flushed red. They were beautiful and eye-catching, and they had a great visual impact.

Her ten toenails were painted with beige nail polish. It had only been a few days, and the nail polish had been changed again. After admiring it again, she was more and more satisfied. She quickly retracted her feet and pulled the pink blanket beside her to cover them. After a few seconds, the blush on her face disappeared and she returned to her previous appearance. "Come in."

Zhang Ronghua had already eaten two ginseng fruits and half a plate of black grapes. She didn't say anything and kept eating. When she heard the voice coming from inside, she hesitated for a moment and walked over.

In the bedroom.

Their eyes met, and no one could tell what they were thinking from their faces..

Chapter 422 - Three Heads and Six Arms

“What’s the matter?” asked Zhang Ronghua.

Yang Hongling tried her best to appear natural. Her beautiful gem-like eyes were not mixed with any strange emotions. With a faint smile, she stretched out her index finger and hooked it twice.”Come closer.”

Without a doubt, Zhang Ronghua took a step forward. The distance between them was less than an arm. Standing there, he could clearly smell the fragrance coming from her body. There was the smell of the milk of the Heavenly Fragrant Cow and the unique fragrance of a woman. Mixed together, it formed a unique temperament. It was fresh, heat-resistant, and could not be tired of smelling it.

Yang Hongling lifted the blanket. Although she looked natural, she was panicking inside! Like a deer bumping into a deer, she jumped non-stop. She raised her right foot and placed it in front of Zhang Ronghua. It was less than a palm away from his face. Just as she was about to speak, Zhang Ronghua instinctively grabbed her five delicate toes. He felt the strangeness from his palm. It was hot, soft, boneless, and very smooth. It was like a piece of art. It felt beautiful to the touch. He instinctively asked, “What are you doing?”

Yang Hongling was even worse. Even though she was smiling and her facial expression did not change, she was very embarrassed, especially when her feet were grabbed by Zhang Ronghua. She was so shy that she wanted to find a rat hole to hide in. However, she endured it and could not let her thoughts be exposed.

Hearing his words, she said naturally, “Xiao Si said my feet are smelly. Can you smell them and see if they are smelly?”

Zhang Ronghua glanced at her, trying to see something else from Yang Hongling’s face. However, he failed. His faint smile did not change at all. He looked at her feet. He had grabbed all five of her toes, so he could only see her feet. He wondered if she really wanted to lie down and smell it. Was he shameless?

However, the distance was too close. Her feet were less than a palm away from his face. The rich milk fragrance entered his nose, but there was no stench. He retracted his hands and said seriously, “Little Four is lying!”

Before Yang Hongling could speak.

After saying that, he left in a hurry. It was as if there was a big tiger behind him. If he was slow, he would be eaten by the tiger.

Bang!

Hearing the sound of the door closing, Yang Hongling couldn’t hold it in anymore. She pulled the bedding on the side and covered her body. She curled up and thought shyly, Yang Hongling, you’re going to die! She even let him see a girl’s little feet, such a private place. Forget it, she even dared to let him smell it? But now, he was still holding five cute toes in his hand. Couldn’t he have some sense of shame?

Her heart was in a mess. She rolled around on the bed like a straw...

They left the backyard.

Xiao Si sneakily came up from the side and asked, “You came out so quickly?”

“???” Zhang Ronghua was a little confused. What did this mean?

“It’s already very late, go back and rest early!”

Zhang Ronghua walked out of the courtyard.

She was thinking, Yang Hongling really just wanted to prove that her feet didn’t stink?

He shook his head and stopped thinking about it.

Outside the Fate Academy.

He happened to see Mei Changshu changing shifts and was about to go in to rest. Seeing him come, the former stopped and asked, "Senior Brother, are you leaving just like that?"

Was he implying that he wasn't going to spend the night here?

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua replied.

"I have good news for you. Tonight is my last shift. If you come again in the future, you won't be able to see me."

"Were you fired?"

"???" Mei Changshu was stunned, and a series of question marks appeared above his head.

He came back to his senses.

"No! The guards were on duty during this period of time. The higher-ups saw that my performance was not bad, so they transferred me to the outer court to study and strive to comprehend the Righteousness Qi as soon as possible. Once I comprehend the Righteousness Qi, I can enter the inner court and become a disciple of the Great Scholar. I can cultivate advanced martial techniques and even divine arts."

"This is a good thing!" Zhang Ronghua congratulated.

"My dream is to become the strongest disciple in the younger generation of Fate Academy, other than Big Sister!"

The disciple at the side couldn't stand it anymore and teased him, "You can't even beat me! He wanted to become the disciple who was the best at fighting other than Big Sister?"

Mei Changshu ignored him. His gaze was firm. "Senior Brother, I'm serious! Do you believe me?"

"It doesn't matter if others believe it or not. The key is yourself. If you don't even believe in yourself, your dreams will never come true. If you really wanted to become the best disciple of the younger generation, you had to plan well and arrange your time reasonably. You had to do what you needed to do when you needed to. For example, you had to learn when you needed to learn, cultivate when you needed to cultivate, and consult a teacher or a great scholar if you didn't understand anything. You had to seize all the time to become stronger so that your dream could be realized."

Mei Changshu nodded solemnly. "Listening to Senior Brother's words is better than studying hard for three years. Don't worry!" I will definitely work harder for my dream."

Zhang Ronghua patted his shoulder to comfort him.

He pondered for a moment.

The two of them had known each other for a long time, and they got along quite well. Every time he came over, his senior brothers would greet him. Since he had the heart, he would help him.

"I have a comprehension of Righteousness Qi here."

Mei Changshu's eyes lit up, and he was excited. His senior brother's comprehension must be very precious.. He hurriedly thanked him, "Thank you, Senior Brother!"

Chapter 423: Three Heads and Six Arms

Zhang Ronghua raised his index finger. Golden light flashed on his fingertip. He pointed at the center of his brows and imparted his understanding of Righteousness Qi to him.

He retracted his finger and watched quietly.

After a while.

Mei Changshu woke up and had already digested his comprehension. He bowed solemnly. "I will never forget Senior Brother's kindness!"

Zhang Ronghua smiled and turned to leave.

The disciples at the side surrounded him curiously. The disciple who had spoken just now was called Duan Jiu. He asked, "How is it?"

Mei Changshu rolled his eyes at him."

He turned around and left.

Under the night sky.

Zhang Ronghua remembered something. He had made an agreement with Ji Xueyan last night. She would come earlier tonight and bring along the basic cultivation techniques of the Righteousness Qi so that he could better understand them. Then, he would create a feasible cultivation technique for the disciples who had comprehended the Righteousness Qi with the Righteousness Bone Setting Secret Technique to cultivate.

He had actually forgotten!

Thinking of this, he quickened his pace and took a shortcut. He even used his movement technique to rush home.

In a small alley.

It was so quiet that one could hear a pin drop on the ground. Two stray dogs were eating the abandoned bones they had found in the garbage dump in the corner.

Kacha!

The dog's teeth crushed the bones, making a crisp sound. It was very eye-catching in the night.

At this moment, a gust of demonic wind rushed in and stopped in the alley. When the demonic wind receded, it revealed the appearance of a middle-aged man. It was Heavenly Tiger King. Last night, he tried to snatch the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. After the battle with Daoist Shangqing, he led the Heavenly Tiger Clan and followed behind the cow-nosed group. With their help, he wanted to find the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse and snatch the treasure.

It didn't take long for Daoist Shang Qing to discover them and guess their intentions. However, he was helpless and couldn't kill them! Even if he used all his trump cards, it would only be a waste of time. If the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse escaped or attracted the people of the Imperial Court and Fang Zaitian, it would be troublesome. He wanted to get rid of them.

After a while.

Daoist Shangqing was in despair. The Heavenly Tiger Clan was like sticky candy, unable to shake them off. Seeing that the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse was getting further and further away, if he delayed any longer and let it escape, all his previous efforts would be in vain. He endured his displeasure and continued to chase, allowing Heavenly Tiger King and the others to follow behind him.

There were 200 people in the mansion, and none of them survived. There was a thick smell of blood and broken corpses everywhere. He was furious and gave a death order to find the culprit behind the scenes.

In less than an hour.

They were discovered by the soldiers of the Fifth Division of City Defense. After killing them, the Heavenly Tiger King knew that something had happened. If they continued to follow them, they would die before they caught the Time

Treasure-Seeking Mouse. However, they were unwilling to give up like this.

They brought the Heavenly Tiger tribe to meet the cow nose of the Shangqing Dao Sect. They spread the cards and asked them what to do.

Daoist Shangqing felt aggrieved. He wished he could slap them to death, but there was nothing he could do!

Fang Zhengzhi had already made his move and started to mobilize his forces to find them. If they delayed any longer, everyone would die. Helpless, they began to compromise. The two groups of people joined forces and temporarily put aside their grudges. First, they captured the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse. After leaving the capital, they would use their own abilities to snatch that treasure.

After the discussion, the speed of the pursuit became faster. Within an hour, the heavily injured Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse had shaken them off three times at the cost of its vital energy. Once, it was almost caught.

It knew that if this continued, it would be difficult for it to escape from their demonic claws. The rat became ruthless and sensed the imperial court's troops on the ground. It ran towards them and followed behind the soldiers of the Fifth Division of City Defense. The rats will run this way unless you give up!

The two groups of people were caught in a dilemma again. There were only two choices in front of them. Should they do it or not?

However, that treasure was too valuable. After thinking about it, he made up his mind to get rid of the soldiers of the Fifth Division of City Defense as soon as possible. Then, he left the capital and rushed out of his hiding place. He killed the soldiers of the Fifth Division of City Defense in an instant. Just as he was about to catch the Treasure-Seeking Mouse of Time, an Azure Dragon Envoy of the True Dragon Palace arrived with his team. Seeing the situation, he started to fight with them. As the battle escalated, more and more experts came. Heavenly Tiger King and Taoist Shangqing panicked. By now, half of their men had died. Even he was injured, and he wanted to cut the Time Treasure -Seeking Mouse into pieces, but he had no choice. He could only break out of the encirclement and care about nothing else.

He had spent a lot of effort to kill his way out. All the Heavenly Tiger clansmen he had brought with him had died in battle. Only he had managed to escape, and he was severely injured. Seeing that the sky was bright, he found a place to hide and recuperate. Only at night did he dare to show his face and look for Daoist Shangqing. As long as he could find him, he would be able to find the Time Treasure- Seeking Mouse.

His luck was really bad. He was already very careful when he showed his head, but he did not expect to meet the Azure Dragon Envoy from last night. The other party did not say anything and rushed forward. He attacked with a killing move. Even Heavenly Tiger King might not be able to take him down when he was at his peak, let alone when he was heavily injured. He could not do it anymore. He had to run!

Only after using all of his foundation did he manage to escape from the other party's hands. However, the injuries on his body were even more miserable, already reaching the point of a lamp that had run out of oil.

A mouthful!

Spitting out a mouthful of blood, he staggered and fell to the ground. Leaning against the corner of the wall, he glanced at the two stray dogs not far away. They were glaring at him, baring their teeth and looking fierce. They wanted to hit him..

Chapter 424: Three Heads and Six Arms

This had angered him. A tiger that had fallen to the plains was bullied by dogs. No matter how down and out this king was, he was still a demon and the patriarch of the Heavenly Tiger Clan. How could he be bullied by two stray dogs?

His injuries were too severe, and his demonic power was almost scattered. He could not use it at all. He could not even move his fingers. He could only leak a little demonic aura to scare them away.

The two stray dogs seemed to have seen the most terrifying thing in the world. They whimpered twice and ran wildly. Heavenly Tiger King thought that it would end like this. He did not expect that after a while, the two stray dogs would actually return. They stayed in the distance and bared their teeth, barking at him. "Woof woof!"

He was saying that he couldn't take it anymore!

The other stray dog was saying, "F * Ck him!"

F * cid

Heavenly Tiger King's face was turning green with anger! These two damn dogs were actually discussing how to kill him. They didn't hide it at all. They were aggrieved, but at the same time, they were worried that if their barking attracted the Azure Dragon Envoy, he wouldn't be able to resist it in his current state. He lowered his voice and roared, "Roar!" They were also saying, shut up, you two idiots!

He used beast language!

The tiger's roar gave the two stray dogs a fright. The bloodline suppression between the two species made them retreat. After ten steps, they stopped again. Their dog eyes were crazy, with a bloody light, and they looked at him passionately. If they ate him, they would obtain great benefits. They barked again.

The stray dog on the left was saying, "You go first!"

The stray dog on the right was saying, let's attack together!

The two dogs looked at each other. Seeing that their companions were not willing to compromise, they were in a stalemate for a while. The temptation of tiger meat was too great. They overcame the fear in their hearts and went forward together. They were even more ferocious and barked louder. It was as if they were using this method to vent the fear in their hearts and were prepared to bite the Heavenly Tiger King to death.

Heavenly Tiger King was about to go crazy. The night was so quiet, and the two of them were screaming louder and louder. They could be heard from far away. If they could move, they would definitely be slaughtered and eaten."Shut up!"

"Woof woof! "

The two stray dogs barked ferociously, approached him, and surrounded him. They were about thirty feet away from him. They circled around him, staring at him, looking for an opportunity to attack.

After a while.

Seeing that Heavenly Tiger King only roared angrily and lay motionless, the dog was relieved! Taking advantage of his weakness, she pounced on him fiercely and opened her bloody mouth to bite his neck.

Although they were skinny, their combat strength was not weak at all. They were even more ferocious than ordinary domestic dogs. Their sharp dog teeth flickered with a faint light.

Heavenly Tiger King was already furious. He ignored the serious injuries in his body and forcefully used a secret technique to temporarily suppress the injuries on his body. He felt a sweetness in his heart and spat out another mouthful of blood. Blood flowed out from the many wounds on his chest and dyed the ground red. With the support of the secret technique, he only had the power to attack once, but it was enough to kill a dog.

He slapped them roughly on the head, shattering their heads and causing their bodies to fall to the ground.

"Phew!"

After the attack, Heavenly Tiger King leaned weakly against the wall. At this moment, he really did not have any strength. He panted heavily, thinking that the world was finally quiet.

He turned his gaze and glared at the figure opposite him. The figure was dressed in white and held the Hundred Birds Facing the Phoenix Fan in his hand. He looked at him mockingly.

Although he couldn't move, his eyesight was still there. He actually couldn't see through this person's cultivation base. However, for him to appear so quietly in his vicinity, his cultivation base must be very strong. It must be more terrifying than he thought!

Suppressing his fear, he tried his best to make his voice sound calm. "Who are you?"

Zhang Ronghua took a step forward and took a small path back. When he passed by, he was attracted by the barking of the stray dogs. He swept his soul power and saw a tiger king lying there. He came over and asked tentatively, "Did you kill Fang Zaitian's family?"

Heavenly Tiger King suppressed his fear and rejected, "'No!"

"Is that so?"

With a strong gust of wind, Zhang Ronghua appeared in front of him and kicked his head violently, sending him flying and crashing heavily on the ground.

She walked up to him and looked at his frightened gaze. "Isn't that so?"

Heavenly Tiger King was in despair. He hated these two stray dogs to death. If not for them, he would have already escaped! How could it fall into the hands of the Imperial Court?

Seeing Zhang Ronghua's eyes getting colder and colder, and the killing intent on his body getting stronger and stronger, he was afraid. He did not dare to be stubborn anymore. Even if he died, he did not want to be tortured. He directly admitted, "It wasn't this king who did it! But this king knows who did it." Zhang Ronghua retracted his right foot. "'Speak! "

Heavenly Tiger King told him about how the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse killed Fang Zaitian and his family.

"Be more detailed!"

Heavenly Tiger King hesitated and looked at the injuries on his body. In this state, that treasure was not fated to be with him. Instead of letting those bull-nosed people from the Upper Pure Dao Sect benefit, it was better to let outsiders benefit! If this king can't get it, you can forget about getting it. Very straightforward, he didn't hide anything and told the whole story in detail.

From his mouth, he learned that his son had accidentally entered a spatial rift. He thought that he would have a narrow escape. He did not expect to enter an ancient giant's cave. Here, he had the inheritance left behind by the other party. He had a powerful formation, a restriction, and a guardian. However, after countless years, the formation and restriction had long been damaged. Anyone could enter. His son had obtained the other party's inheritance without any effort. After leaving the cave, he rushed towards the Heavenly Tiger Clan. On the way, he met Daoist Shangqing. Seeing a tiger demon in the grandmaster realm whose tiger penis was extremely nourishing, Daoist Shangqing wanted to kill his son and take all his materials, especially the tiger penis, to brew wine..

Chapter 425 - Three Heads and Six Arms

After severely injuring his son with one move, the treasure fell out from his bosom, emitting a powerful spiritual light and creating a huge phenomenon.

There were also sounds of the bell of the Great Dao. The treasure light shot into the clouds, and it was obvious that it was not an ordinary item. Before Daoist Shangqing could take it, the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse appeared underground at some point. With its second innate divine ability, the light breath, it escaped Daoist Shangqing's detection and suddenly rushed out, killing his son with one claw and snatching the treasure away. They fled underground.

Daoist Shangqing's lungs were about to explode from anger. The cooked duck had flown away just like that. He immediately gave chase. With the help of the Myriad Treasure Compass, he injured it several times and wanted to capture it every time. However, the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse escaped with its first innate divine ability, Time. After that, he received news and led his clansmen to chase after it. Seeing this, Daoist Shangqing sent a message to the Shangqing Dao Sect and called for the elders to help.

They had been tracking them for thousands of miles, from the vicinity of Shangqing Mountain to the capital city. Last night, the Time

Treasure-Hunting Mouse had become ruthless and wanted to use the power of the master of the mansion to get rid of them. They did not expect to provoke a terrifying existence like the True Dragon Palace.

After listening.

Zhang Ronghua caught the main point.” What kind of treasure can cause a phenomenon in heaven and earth? And the bell of the Great Dao can cause treasure light to shoot into the clouds?”

It shouldn't be a Numinous Treasure!

He had several Numinous Treasures in his possession, including the Golden Dragon Sword, but none of them could trigger the phenomenon of heaven and earth. It could only be said that the treasure that Heavenly Tiger King's son had accidentally obtained was of a higher grade than Numinous Treasures.

Above Spiritual Treasures were Creation Spiritual Treasures!

Every single one of them had the power to destroy the world. Once they were born, countless experts would fight for them. It could even lead to a war between two empires. Even the Hundred True Spirit Clans, demons, and ghosts would do everything they could to get them.

The power of a Creation Spiritual Treasure was simply too powerful!

If one obtained one, they could use it as an inheritance and continue to pass it on. If they did not die midway, they could become a top force even if they could not become a super force.

If that was the case, everything would make sense. Heavenly Tiger King knew that the capital was very dangerous, so why did he risk his life to barge in? In the face of absolute benefits, it was completely worth it to pay some risks!

He just didn't know if Fang Zaitian knew. Half of him knew, and the other half didn't.

Heavenly Tiger King said, "I've already told you what you want to know. Please give this king a quick death. Don't hand it over to Fang Zaitian!"

"I am his political enemy!" Zhang Ronghua said."

Heavenly Tiger King smiled. This way, he did not have to worry about falling into Fang Zaitian's hands.

He flicked his finger.

A sword Qi slashed down and killed Heavenly Tiger King. Without the remaining demonic power to maintain the transformation technique, Heavenly Tiger King returned to his true form. A huge tiger appeared on the ground.

Zhang Ronghua laughed. The tiger penis was good stuff! Especially for the elderly, drinking a little wine made from tiger penis would make them lively. Moreover, it was the Heavenly Tiger King's tiger penis, so its value was even greater.

With a wave of his right hand, he put its corpse into the Five Dragons Spirit Controlling Belt and turned around to walk out.

As soon as he walked out of the alley and onto the street, he stopped. He sensed that a group of uninvited guests had arrived. The leader was an Azure Dragon Envoy, who was leading some White Dragon Ambassadors and Golden Dragon Ambassadors. Besides them, there were also soldiers from the First Battalion of the Fifth Division of City Defense. They rushed over and blocked his way.

The leader of the group was called Yin Li, Fang Zaitian's confidant. He recognized him and looked at Zhang Ronghua. His expression changed. After a while, he walked up with a cold face. "Isn't this Manager Zhang? Why would he appear here in the middle of the night?"

"Who do you think you are? Do I have to report to you whether I'm sleeping or not?"

Yin Li's expression turned extremely ugly. He turned green and then white. He didn't even dare to fart after being humiliated by him!

"Get lost!" Zhang Ronghua shouted.

Yin Li wanted to stop him, but he didn't dare to. Not to mention him, even if Fang Zaitian was here, he wouldn't dare to offend him!

Putting aside the True Dragon Token in his hand, his current identity and what he had done were not things that the True Dragon Palace could offend, at least not on the surface.

Enduring the grievance in his heart, he opened up a path. Seeing that his master had made way, the people he brought were even more cowardly. They hurriedly took a step to the side and let Zhang Ronghua leave.

After he left, Yin Li looked at the alley beside him and rushed in. He stopped at the spot where the Heavenly Tiger King died and looked at the bloodstains on the ground and the corpses of the two stray dogs. He guessed that the Heavenly Tiger King had been seriously injured by him and had almost lost all his cultivation. Such a demon could be sent to hell by any martial artist, let alone Zhang Ronghua, who was in the Zongshi realm. Otherwise, the two stray dogs would not dare to have any designs on him.

If he had known that Heavenly Tiger King would meet Zhang Ronghua, he would definitely have held back and used him to kill Zhang Ronghua. It was too late to regret now.

No matter what, Heavenly Tiger King was already dead. One of the murderers of the Fang Residence had already been executed. Once the rest were caught, this matter would be over.

“Let’s go!” He waved his hand and ordered.

Returning to the home of the Vermillion Bird Lane

The lights in the room were on. Zhang Ronghua had a headache. The matter with Heavenly Tiger King had been delayed for a while. In his senses, only Purple Cat was sitting on the table, with a small paw holding a black grape and stuffing it into its mouth.

He pushed open the door, walked in, and closed the door.

He pulled out a chair and sat down. There was a lingering warmth on the chair, and there was also a faint orchid fragrance. It seemed that Ji Xueyan had just left not long ago..

Chapter 426 - Three Heads and Six Arms

“Meow!” Purple Cat meowed. Your Escape into Infinite Tales.

She had just left.

Zhang Ronghua smiled bitterly. Was he standing her up?

“Meow!” The purple cat meowed again. She was asking why he had only returned now.

“I was delayed by something.”

He took a black grape and threw it into his mouth. After eating the flesh and spitting out the skin, Zhang Ronghua said, ‘Go over now and tell her that I’ll be waiting for her at home tomorrow night.’

Purple Cat nodded and jumped down from the table. She ran out of the room and returned after a while. She stood on the ground and closed the door with her paws. She jumped on the table again and called out, "Meow!"

He was saying that he had already told her and she had agreed! I'll definitely come over early tomorrow night.

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua patted its head. Having a sensible cat saved him a lot of trouble.

"How's your reading?"

Purple Cat sat on the table with her upper body upright. She threw a black grape into her mouth and said proudly. Wasn't reading a piece of cake for a cat?

"Ask if you don't understand."

Purple Cat nodded.

Zhang Ronghua stood up from the chair and patted the Five Dragons Spirit Controlling Belt with his right hand. He took out the Heavenly Tiger King's corpse and placed it on the ground.

Purple Cat's eyes lit up and she immediately stood up from the table. She looked at Heavenly Tiger King's corpse with a burning heart. Her cat's cultivation could be improved again.

He extended his palm.

The Xuanhuang True Essence erupted from his palm. Under Zhang Ronghua's control, he took out the Heavenly Tiger King's tiger whip and placed it on the side. Then, he expelled the demonic aura from its body and began to purify it along with the demon core.

When he stopped, he retracted his palm. After purification, the demonic aura in Heavenly Tiger King's body was dispelled, leaving only one-tenth of its essence.

“Eat!”

“Meow!” Purple Cat cried out excitedly.

He was saying, thank you!

Jumping down from the table, he rubbed his legs affectionately and walked in front of Heavenly Tiger King. His Light of True Spirit exploded out, expanding to three meters in size. He opened his mouth and swallowed Heavenly Tiger King’s corpse. His huge body rapidly shrank back to its original size and he began to refine it.

He took the tiger whip out and washed it clean. Then, he used his Xuanhuang True Essence to expel the remaining demonic Qi inside. He took out a larger jar and placed it inside. He also took out six bottles of Tianqiong Jade Wine and poured the wine into it. He added more than ten dozens of spiritual herbs and sealed the lid.

He took the jar into the hall and placed it in the corner. When he returned to his room, Purple Cat had already refined the Heavenly Tiger King’s corpse and had even broken through a small realm. His cultivation had increased to Level Ten of the Grandmaster Realm. Under the concealment of the Black Tortoise Spirit Technique, it was only Level Six of the Grandmaster Realm.

When she saw him return, she jumped up from the ground and landed in his arms. She cuddled her head affectionately and acted cute.

Zhang Ronghua sat down on the chair and thought about the matter of the Spiritual Treasure of Fate. Even if Fang Zaitian didn’t know about it now, he would definitely find out from the people of the Pure Dao Sect. At that time, it wouldn’t be as simple as revenge. He would definitely get it at all costs. It was very likely that the True Dragon Palace would also appear.

He couldn’t use the Crown Prince’s power. Otherwise, should he give him the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny? If he didn’t give it to her, there would be a gap between the two of them. If he gave it to her, he wouldn’t be willing!

Who wouldn't want to keep something good for themselves? What was the point of being an official? It was all about power, money, and treasures. There was no reason for him to give away the treasures he had obtained.

In this way, Chen Youcai and Lu Zhantang could not be used. Only the Flood Dragon Guards were left. It was good to have them secretly pay attention when they were on duty. If they could not find out, they would think of other ways.

Other than them, there was also Yang Hongling. Among all the people, she was the only one who could be trusted without reservation!

Thinking of this...

Zhang Ronghua had decided to go to the Fate Academy after tomorrow's shift and ask Yang Hongling for help!

No matter what method he used, he had to obtain the Numinous Treasure of Destiny!

After making up his mind, he put the purple cat down and patted its head. He instructed, 'Go study!'

"Meow!" Purple Cat meowed.

He left the room and ran towards the study. After a while, the sound of it reading came from the study. To others, it was meowing. They thought it was just for fun, but to his ears, it was very serious.

He stood up from the chair and did not sleep. Instead, he sat on the bed and cultivated the Phoenix Divine Fire.

An hour later.

Uncle Shi's voice came from outside."

He ended his cultivation.

Zhang Ronghua opened his eyes and muttered, ""Time passed so quickly?" "Yes," he replied.

He got down from the bed, opened the door, and walked out. Looking at the dark night sky, he sighed in his heart. He had such great power, but he had already woken up to attend court before the sun had risen and the rooster had crowed. His strength was mediocre. If he did not work hard, how could he catch up?

After washing up, he changed into his official uniform and got on the carriage of time. There was breakfast on the table. He took off his boots and sat on the soft couch, eating breakfast.

When he was done, he slept on the soft couch. When he reached the Vermillion Bird Gate, Uncle Shi called him up.

He alighted from the carriage and entered the outer palace, walking towards the Purple Extreme Hall. When he arrived at the inner palace's gate, Zheng Fugui led some Flood Dragon Guards to stand guard at the side and nodded at him. He entered the palace and went up the Purple Extreme Avenue. Then, he entered the Purple Extreme Hall from the side door on the left and stopped at the back of the Ministry of Rites..

Chapter 427 - Three Heads and Six Arms

He looked at his nose and mouth, fishing.

Zhang Ronghua thought to himself," These people are also talented. They attend court 365 days a year, sometimes one more day. Other than taking a break, they don't even have time to rest. They're so diligent and come so early. It's hard on them."

When it was time, the Purple Extreme Gate and the two side doors closed. With the arrival of Emperor Xia, the morning court session began. It only ended after about an hour. When he returned to the Purple Extreme Hall, Lu Junxiu and the others were standing guard at the door. Seeing that he had arrived, they followed him into the hall and closed the door.

Zhang Ronghua sat on a chair and took a sip of the tea that Ding Yi poured for him. He asked, ""How's the editing going?"

I've checked carefully," Zhao Bai said." There's nothing in the biography of the Celestial Emperor that you wrote that needs editing. ""

"This is what I wrote at home yesterday," Zhang Ronghua said."

"Yes, sir!"

The four of them took their leave. After they left, Cao Xing closed the door.

Sir, " Lu Junxiu reported," I humiliated Cheng Zhijie yesterday. I watched his expression the entire time. He seemed to have accepted his fate." Last night, he asked Cao Hang to investigate again. After he went off duty the night before yesterday, he did go to Cui Manor!"

" As expected," Zhang Ronghua said." An abandoned chess piece lost its value. The outcome can be imagined.""

The voice of a member of the Golden Scaled Mysterious Heavenly Army came from outside.""Sir! Lord Tao of the Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets had brought two people over. He was holding a memorial in his arms as he waited at the door."

Lu Junxiu had done his homework in detail. He lowered his voice and said," Your subordinate has inquired about the Tianji Pavilion. It has indeed been very busy lately. There are many memorials that have piled up into a small mountain. Even His Highness is also busy. I've brought a batch of them back from the palace to deal with them.""

"Let him in."

Lu Junxiu understood. He opened the door and ordered the Golden Scaled Mysterious Heavenly Army to let him in.

After a while.

Tao Xuezhi brought two people in from outside and instructed them to place the memorial on the desk before turning around and leaving.

Zhang Ronghua waved his hand, and Lu Junxiu tactfully left with Cao Hang and closed the door from the outside.

After sitting for a while.

He got up from his chair and brought Ding Yi towards the Hall of Ten Thousand Books.

On the other side.

At the entrance of the Shangjing government, there were tall lions on both sides. Around them stood ten soldiers and a team of yamen officers.

Three figures walked over from afar and stopped at the main gate. They were the three people from the Imperial College. They were wearing the long robes of the Confucian scholars from the Education Bureau. Each of them carried a bag in their hands. It was full and seemed to be long. From the outside, it should be books or account books.

They looked at each other and saw determination in their eyes. They did not even look at the soldiers and yamen guards at the door and walked to the bronze drum.

The Imperial College Chancellor handed the package in his hand to them, rolled up his sleeves, held the drumstick, and used all his strength to hit the drum.

Dong dong dong...

The drumbeats sounded and spread to the surroundings. Soon, it reached the magistrate's office. The surrounding yamen couldn't sit still.

He put down the drumsticks.

The Chancellor of the Imperial College held his bag and the three of them held their heads high and puffed out their chests as they entered the government office under the "guards" of the bailiffs.

Fifteen minutes later.

Ren Shangxuan, the governor of Shangjing, had found out the whole story. The Chancellor of the Imperial College had sued some officials of the Imperial College and the directorate. Over the years, they had pocketed and secretly accepted bribes. There were six people in total. They were either Grand Secretary Cui's men or He Wenxuan's men. The evidence was conclusive.

As the elder of the Cui Pavilion, Ren Shangxuan was in a difficult position. He rubbed his head in pain. If it was just him, it would not be difficult to suppress this matter. However, the judge Huang Daoning and the judge Chen Youcai were also present. They had two factions behind them. One was the Crown Prince, and the other was the Changqing Academy. They could not suppress this matter at all.

If he dared to suppress them, the two of them would immediately exert their strength and jointly submit a memorial to him. The forces behind them would also submit a memorial to kill him, not giving him any chance to turn things around.

After a moment of silence, he met their gazes and said in a deep voice, "How do you think we should handle this matter?"

Chen Youcai was the first to speak. The Crown Prince and Grand Secretary Cui had never been on good terms, and as one of his subordinates, he would not let go of this opportunity. "This case is of great importance, and it is not under the jurisdiction of the government. It should be handled by the Supreme Court.”

Huang Daoning didn’t understand. Where did the Imperial College Chancellor and the other two get this evidence? Why didn’t they take it out when they fought with He Wenxuan? What was the purpose of bringing out all this evidence now?

Among the six, one of them was the Secretary of Industry, Cao Shanzhang, a third-grade official and Grand Secretary Cui’s disciple. Before the Imperial College Chancellor lost his position, this person was his deputy and had great power. With a stomp of his foot, the Imperial College would be shaken by 30%. The remaining five were doctors and teachers. They were either Cao Shanzhang’s men or He Wenxuan’s men.

Could it be that there was someone behind this? If so, who could it be?

There weren’t many people who could withstand Grand Secretary Cui’s anger, and they were his political enemies. There were only a handful of people in the imperial court, and they were all extremely powerful. However, from the information he had received, the three Imperial College Chancellors didn’t join them. In other words, others didn’t like these three trash, so they naturally wouldn’t accept them. After thinking for a while, he couldn’t guess who had attacked.

Seeing that they were looking over, he said, “Minister Chen’s words are reasonable. This matter is indeed not under our jurisdiction! I think they can’t enter the Outer Palace and can’t send the evidence to the Supreme Court. That’s why they beat the bronze drum and want us to report the case.”

The ball was kicked in front of Ren Shangxuan. He knew that once this case was brought to the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court was not a united whole. There were people from all forces. No matter who was behind it, now that the Imperial College Chancellor and the other two had sent over the evidence, they would definitely not let go of the opportunity to beat the dog when it was down. They would definitely do it to the death and even join forces with the Imperial Censorate to settle the case of the six people, not giving them a chance to turn things around.

In this way, six official positions would be vacated. In the confrontation between the various parties, there would be meat to eat. Taking down one or even two of them would allow one’s own people to rise and increase one’s authority.

This was especially true for the position of the Imperial College Secretary. This was an official third-grade position. At this stage, many people wanted to advance further, but there was no way. One carrot and one pit. Unless someone at the top fell, the people below could step on the bones to rise. Otherwise, no matter how strong you were, there was no extra position for you. There was nothing you could do!

Now that the position of Chancellor of the Imperial College was vacant, if he became a minister, he would undoubtedly control the Imperial College and become the actual controller. His power would be too great.

Furious, he cursed at Wan Guoqiang, who was a good-for-nothing! He was an expert and the Purple Dragon Emissary. His cultivation was monstrous and he had brought a group of trusted aides. It was fine if he did not escort them to Shangliang Town, but he was killed on the way and these three old fellows actually survived. Couldn't he have taken them away before he died?

But now! The three old fellows had survived, but they did not know where they had gotten the evidence to jump out and harm their faction.

With a cold face, his expression did not change at all."Send him to the Supreme Court immediately!"

He stood up from his chair and walked out. He ordered his men to prepare a carriage to enter the palace and head to the Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets. He wanted to inform Grand Secretary Cui of this news so that he could be prepared.

Chen Youcai and Huang Daoning also stood up from their chairs and looked at each other. They saw something in each other's eyes, but it seemed like they didn't see anything. They left in tacit understanding and passed this important news back. They were prepared to snatch their empty seats when the case was solved.

As the wild goose plucked its feathers, they would eventually bite off a piece of meat..

Chapter 428 - He Wenxuan Was Understood

The case had already spread throughout the capital before it was sent to the Supreme Court. All the forces had received the news and guessed who had secretly ordered the Imperial College Chancellor and the other two to attack Grand Secretary Cui. He had also ordered his own people in the Supreme Court to strictly handle the case and not give Cao Shan Zhang and the others any chance to take them down.

After considering the positions that the six of them had vacated, they set their eyes on the positions that they were confident of. They were prepared to make trouble in the imperial court tomorrow and push their own people up so that they could take another step forward and increase their own strength.

Those who didn't feel confident or weren't confident enough would join forces with other factions to exchange benefits and form temporary alliances.

Chen Youcai's news spread very quickly. When the Crown Prince received the news, no one else had received the news yet. At this moment, he was resting in Zhantai Hall.

Zhantai Hall was where the Crown Prince studied in the palace, followed Emperor Xia to handle government affairs, and rested at noon or rested.

Normally, Chen Youcai would need some time to pass the message over. The other factions would already know about this, but it was very simple now.

Zheng Fugui had been leading the Flood Dragon Guards to follow the Crown Prince into the palace since morning. He had been guarding around the Tianwei Gate of the inner palace. Firstly, he was waiting for the Crown Prince's orders. If the Crown Prince had any orders, he would be the first to receive the news and then leave the palace to do it. Secondly, when the Crown Prince left, he would lead the Flood Dragon Guards to guard around.

When news of Chen Youcai arrived, Zheng Fugui ordered someone to inform Eunuch Xiao about Cao Shanzhang's matter. Eunuch Xiao then sent someone to inform the Crown Prince. This way, they would save more time.

After listening.

The Crown Prince frowned. His mind was racing as he tried to guess who had used the three of them to attack Grand Secretary Cui, while also scheming for benefits.

There was limited information, so he couldn't guess!

Fortunately, he did not think about it. Since the other party had made a move, it would not be long before they surfaced. The most important thing now was how to maximize the benefits.

Although Si Ye was the most important of the six positions, there were too many people watching him. The forces in the dark could not be touched, or else some people would not be able to sleep. It was unrealistic to take this position just by relying on the forces on the surface.

Other than this position, among the remaining five positions, he had his eyes on the doctor. Although the doctor position was not prominent, it was the same as the Scholar Hall. It was used for gilding. There were few people watching, it was easy to operate, and it was well planned. There was a 50% chance of snatching a position from the other factions, but it still lacked a little help.

He was the Crown Prince, so he couldn't go down personally. On the surface, the leaders of the court were the Right Assistant Minister of the Ministry of Justice, followed by Chen Youcai. The two of them had the highest positions.

The others, like Zhang Ronghua, were only Rank-4 and had very low presence. Even if they stepped out to express their opinions, they didn't have much weight and there weren't many of them.

He thought of Zhang Ronghua and knew that he was busy writing the new Legend of the Human Emperor with Ding Yi in the Hall of Ten Thousand Books. However, he thought of the person behind him- Pei Caicai.

The Crown Prince had also sent people to investigate their relationship. Pei

Caihua was the old man's in-name disciple, and Zhang Ronghua and Yang Hongling were very close. Their relationship was extraordinary. It was probably because of Yang Hongling that they got together and were very close.

His eyes flashed with a bright light. He had a plan. He would work together with Pei Caihua and the two factions would work together to obtain a doctor position.

It might seem difficult to get two positions at once, but as long as Pei Caicai stood up and his people worked hard, they had a 50% chance of getting two PhD positions.

If we really provoke them and muddy the waters, you guys can forget about getting what we can't get. At most, we'll let all six positions go empty at the same time. With six fewer people, the Imperial College and the directorate can still operate.

The Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets.

Grand Secretary Cui received the news as soon as the crown prince did. As Ren Shangxuan left, his face darkened and he ordered, ""Go and call Manager He over!"

The person outside hurriedly agreed and jogged away to call He Wenxuan.

Very quickly.

He Wenxuan appeared outside the palace door and knocked on it. "Can I come

"Come in!"

He Wenxuan's heart sank. He could hear the suppressed anger in Grand Elder Cui's voice. He knew the man well enough to know that he would only act like this when something big happened or when he felt wronged. He thought about everything that had happened recently. Everything was normal. Nothing had happened!

He didn't do anything to Zhang Ronghua, and Grand Secretary Cui knew that he had sent someone to deliver the memorials. The Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets was very busy, and there were too many memorials to handle, so they had sent someone to deliver them. They had even asked Tao Xuezhi to convey the message that the new biography of the Human Emperor was the most important thing. They would deal with it when they had the time, and if they didn't, they wouldn't be affected at all.

If it wasn't him, who else would it be?

Suppressing the strange feeling in his heart, he pushed open the palace door and walked in, closing it from the inside.

He walked inside with a straight face and looked at Grand Secretary Cui, who was sitting on a chair. He was expressionless, but the cold air he was emitting was very strong. He was not angry, but he was intimidating. He had a great pressure that made others breathless. He bowed and said, "Greetings, Cui Lao!"

Grand Elder Cui didn't say anything. He looked at He Wenxuan coldly, which gave He Wenxuan even more pressure. He was like a mountain that pressed down on He Wenxuan, making it hard for him to breathe.

He Wenxuan was drenched in cold sweat and felt uncomfortable under his stare. He asked weakly, "What are you doing?"

"How did I teach you?"

"???" He Wenxuan was dumbfounded..

Chapter 429 - He Wenxuan Was Understood

He cursed in his heart, You taught me too many things, I really can't recite them sentence by sentence.

He lowered his posture and deliberated for a moment before speaking again, "Look more, talk less. Do things ruthlessly and don't leave the enemy any leeway."

"Come here!"

He Wenxuan had a bad feeling about this. Last time, he had been slapped like this. If it was possible, he really didn't want to go over, but he couldn't!

This was his teacher, his backer, and the person who was counting on him to enter the Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets. No matter which of the three, he could not go against them.

He braced himself and made up his mind. At worst, he would suffer another big round of humiliation in front of Cui Lao. That was not embarrassing!

He took a step forward and took the initiative to stretch his face over. He closed his eyes and waited for the slap.

He had wanted to slap him, but seeing that he was taking the initiative, Grand Elder Cui suppressed his anger and put down his raised hand." "Open your eyes!"

He Wenxuan opened his eyes, feeling suspicious. Had he dodged a bullet? "You knew they came back?" Grand Elder Cui asked in disappointment."

"Who is it?"

"Jin Yaoguang!"

Jin Yaoguang was the Imperial College's sacrificial wine.

"I know." He Wenxuan nodded.

"I immediately announced that no one was allowed to accept them. Even their families were rejected outside the residence. They were even beaten up by the guards and forced to live on the streets, begging for a living."

"And then?"

He Wenxuan wasn't sure either. He had already spread the word and ignored them. He was so busy every day, how could he have time to keep an eye on them? He said uncertainly, "He should be begging on the streets, right?"

Bang!

Grand Elder Cui couldn't hold it in anymore. He was so angry that he kicked him in the chest without warning, causing him to fall to the ground. He suddenly stood up from his chair and pointed at him angrily. "If you don't get rid of the roots, the grass will grow again in the spring breeze! How did I teach you? Since they dared to come back, you wouldn't have sent people to send them to Shangliang Town?"

He Wenxuan felt wronged. Until now, he still could not understand what was wrong with Jin Yaoguang and the other two. Why was Cui Lao so angry? Grand Elder Cui suppressed his anger and told him everything.

After listening.

He Wenxuan's eyes were spitting fire and his veins were twisted together. His expression was fierce like a ferocious beast that was about to devour someone.

He said angrily, "They dare!"

His thoughts turned quickly and he thought of Zhang Ronghua.

"Could he be the one making a move?"

Grand Elder Cui had thought about it too. He had a long-term view. If it was Zhang Ronghua, could Pei Caihua have been behind it?

However, the former was busy with the matter of the Newcomer's Imperial Legend, and the news was tightly sealed. Cheng Zhijie was targeted every day, so he didn't even know about it, let alone interfere.

The new Emperor's Legend was of great importance. With Zhang Ronghua's political wisdom, he would not waste his energy before he finished writing it. After all, they only had fifteen days. If they exceeded the time limit and did not finish writing the new Emperor's Legend, the consequences would be very serious. It was definitely not something he could bear. Even if Pei Caicai and the Crown Prince appeared at the same time, they would not be able to protect him.

Whether it was him or not, it still needed to be confirmed.

Grand Secretary Cui was getting thirsty. He was about to reach for the teapot to pour some tea, but He Wenxuan was quick enough to grab the teapot and pour him a cup without even wiping the footprints on his robe.

He took a sip of the tea.

Putting down the teacup, Grand Secretary Cui's eyes glinted coldly. "Since Jin Yaoguang and the others are courting death, let's fulfill their wish! Secretly escaping back from the road, violating the imperial court's decree. Pass down the order to have them arrested and locked up in the Ministry of Justice's prison. They will be executed in three days!"

"Where are Cao Shan Zhang and the others?"

Grand Elder Cui looked at him coldly, disappointed. "The evidence is conclusive. Tell me, what should I do?"

He Wenxuan understood now. He was abandoning the six of them.

“You can give up the other five positions, but you can’t give up the position of the Secretary of Education! Cui Lao, do you have any other methods?”

“Instead of taking advantage of others, it’s better to sell a favor! I’ll go see you later. ”

Elder Zeng was Zeng Runyu, one of the five Pavilion Elders of the Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets.

He Wenxuan understood what he meant. He wanted to help his man get this position and make up for it elsewhere.

Grand Elder Cui’s eyes were cold.” You can hide for a while, but you can’t hide forever. When Jin Yaoguang and the other two are captured, the mastermind will show up. When that time comes, keep an eye out and see who goes to the Ministry of Justice’s prison to visit them.”

“I understand!”

“Yes, sir!” He Wenxuan took his leave and left.

Grand Elder Cui poured a cup of tea and finished it. He stood up from his chair and walked toward Elder Zeng’s office.

Time flies by in the blink of an eye

It reached the lower value.

He put them into the Five Dragons Spirit Taming Belt and stood up from the chair. He stretched his body and a thunderous sound came from his body, like frying beans.

“Let’s go!”

Ding Yi hurriedly ended his cultivation and stood up from the ground. He followed behind him and walked out.

They left the Myriad Books Palace.

He would first return to the Scholar Hall to check on their progress. Even if he didn't need to revise, he still had to do what he needed to do.

Just as he entered the courtyard.

Lu Junxiu and Cao Hang were guarding the door. They seemed to have been waiting for a long time. When they saw them return, they quickly came up to them with serious expressions, as if something big had happened.

Just as he was about to speak, Zhang Ronghua interrupted him, "Let's talk inside."

He entered the main hall.

Lu Junxiu asked Cao Xing to stand guard outside. He closed the palace door from the inside and walked over to tell him what he had heard.

After listening.

Zhang Ronghua was surprised. Jin Yaoguang and the other two actually had evidence of Cao Shan Chang and the others?

Then why didn't they hand it over before? Using Changqing Academy to inflict heavy injuries on Grand Secretary Cui and the others?

However, he was very satisfied with this declaration of allegiance.

He waved his hand to dismiss Lu Junxiu. After he left, he took a sip of tea. "I didn't know that they actually had this ability," Ding Yi said."

"It's indeed quite surprising."

"Brother, what should we do now? Jin Yaoguang and the other two are already locked up in the Ministry of Justice's prison. If we go over now, won't we be telling Grand Secretary Cui that we're the ones behind this?"

"Are you scared?" Zhang Ronghua asked with a smile."

"Not to that extent! Even without this matter, our relationship with them will not change. Once we seize the opportunity, we will kill them. Is it really worth it to do it like this?"

"It's worth it!" Zhang Ronghua nodded seriously.

"First, we are political enemies with them. If we seize the opportunity, we will kill each other. Just like this time when we wrote the biography of the Celestial Emperor, their original intention was to kill us! "To be honest, I don't have much hope for Jin Yaoguang and the other two to surrender. It's best if they can be disgusted. It doesn't matter if they can't. We won't lose anything! He hadn't expected them to be so powerful that they had killed six people from Grand Secretary Cui's faction, including a third-grade official. Overall, he was not trash and had some value."

Ding Yi understood that his brother wanted to protect Jin Yaoguang. He asked again, "Go over now?"

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua replied.

"If my guess is correct, Grand Secretary Cui should have sent someone to guard the prison. If anyone sees them, the news will be sent back immediately."

He looked disdainful.

“So what if I know? It was not time to write the biography of the Celestial Emperor. No matter how unhappy they were, they had to endure it! When the Heavenly Emperor’s legacy is written and His Majesty’s reward is given, my power will be further and I will not be afraid of them!”

He stood up from his chair and greeted, “Let’s go! Go to the prison of the Ministry of Justice.”

Ding Yi was excited. This was even more exciting than a real sword clashing with a real knife. He had even slapped Grand Secretary Cui in the face. Just the thought of it was enough to excite him. He followed them out of the Hall of Scholars and headed for the Ministry of Justice’s prison..

Chapter 430 - Desperation

In the prison of the Ministry of Justice.

In the depths of the first level of the prison cell, the Yin Qi was dense, dark, humid, and the stench was overwhelming. It was much worse than the prison cells outside.

Cell 266.

Jin Yaoguang and the other two were imprisoned together. Their hair was disheveled and they were wearing white prison uniforms. Their hands and feet were chained. Some parts of their clothes were torn, as if they were caused by whips. The dark red blood had already dried up.

The three of them lay weakly on the ground, panting heavily.

Some cockroaches and bugs were crawling on their bodies. They were obviously disgusting and wanted to chase them away, but they had just been tortured, hung up and beaten by the jailers, and half of their lives had been lost under the whipping. Moreover, since they were imprisoned, they had not eaten and were weak. The combination of the two made them even more unbearable. They did not even have the strength to move their pinky, let alone chase away the cockroaches and bugs.

"You all heard what the warden said just now," Jin Yaoguang said. "Bring him to the market three days later for execution.""

The other two were the main registrar of the directorate, Zhou Yi and Cui Daoqing.

Cui Daoqing had just opened his mouth when his injuries were affected. He grimaced in pain and asked, "Do you regret it?"

Zhou Yi shook his head. Instead of living like a dog, begging in the capital, being looked down upon, or even beaten, it was better to take a gamble! Even if he's using us, it's not a loss to drag Cao Shan Zhang and the others down with him before he dies!"

"What about you, Elder Jin?"

Jin Yaoguang looked at the ceiling. It was pitch-black like paste. It was thick and solid, and there was dust everywhere. Some Yin Qi formed dirty water droplets that dripped down from above, making the cell even more humid. He said calmly, "This is our only chance. We discussed this before we attacked. The result, including his and Grand Secretary Cui's reactions, is within our expectations. This is our only chance. The only person who dares to fight Grand Secretary Cui in court is Pei Caicai. He works for him and His Highness, and he's in charge of editing the New Emperor's Legacy. He also has the True Dragon Token. If he doesn't help us, it means we're useless. It's good that we're dead!"

Cui Daoqing nodded in agreement. Before he made his move, he had considered all kinds of consequences, including the current situation and the fact that he was about to be beheaded in the market.

The atmosphere was silent.

Who would want to die if they could live? Who would be willing to be a commoner if they could be an official?

He didn't hesitate to offend Grand Secretary Cui and hand over his pledge of allegiance just to regain his official position.

Gulp!

Zhou Yi's stomach grumbled. He was so hungry that it overshadowed the pain in his body. "I want to eat chicken!"

The two of them turned to look at him.

"I want to!" Cui Daoqing added."

Jin Yaoguang thought of more." Another pot of wine, a plate of rice, and two girls.

Outside the prison of the Ministry of Justice.

This was not the first time he had come here. Counting this time, he had been here seven to eight times, if not more than ten times.

A troop of soldiers stood guard outside, led by a military officer. Seeing the two of them come over, one of them was wearing official robes. Judging from the official robes, one was a lower rank four, and the other was a regular rank five. The military officer stepped forward with a cold face and stopped Zhang

Ronghua and Ding Yi."The forbidden grounds of the Heavenly Prison! Milords,

Zhang Ronghua was expressionless, but he was not angry. His powerful aura mixed with his official aura formed a unique aura. His every move carried a huge pressure. "Move aside!"

Sima didn't give in and continued, ""If you want to enter the imperial prison, you must have the approval of the Ministry of Justice!"

Zhang Ronghua knew that this person must have received orders from Grand Secretary Cui, so he took out the True Dragon Token without saying anything. Seeing the token in his hand, Sima was shocked and quickly cupped his fists. "Greetings, Milord!"

"Move aside!"

Sima didn't dare to stop them anymore. He didn't even hesitate. He quickly retreated to the side and gave the order to let them pass. After they entered, he called a confidant to pass the news of their arrival back.

In the hall.

When the warden saw them coming, his heart skipped a beat. His thoughts turned quickly. The higher-ups had already given a death order to prohibit outsiders from entering. Those who could enter at this time must have a high status. They should be related to Jin Yaoguang and the other two. The higher-ups were fighting, and he was just a small warden who could not afford to offend them. He did not dare to offend anyone on both sides. He put on a smile and bent down to greet them ingratiatingly. "Greetings, sirs!" He stopped in his tracks.

"Where are Jin Yaoguang and the others?" Zhang Ronghua asked coldly.

"This, this..." The warden hesitated.

Bang!

Ding Yi kicked him to the ground and scolded him with a straight face, "Bring us there!"

The prison guard got up from the ground and couldn't be bothered to wipe the footprints on his chest. He looked troubled and said with a trembling voice, "The higher-ups have given a death order that no one is allowed to visit."

Before Ding Yi could say anything, Zhang Ronghua took out the True Dragon Token and looked at it. The jailer was shocked and changed his expression, "Milord, this way please! I'll bring you there now."

He led the way into the depths.

After a while.

They stopped outside Jin Yaoguang's cell and heard the footsteps outside. The three of them endured the intense pain in their bodies and raised their heads with difficulty. When they saw that their savior had arrived, they were excited.

It was as if there was endless strength in their bodies as they struggled to get up from the ground.. "Sir..."
