

East Palace 431

Chapter 431 - Desperation (2)

“Open the door!” Zhang Ronghua ordered.”

The prison guard immediately took out the key and opened the cell door. He tactfully retreated to the side.

He entered the cell.

Looking at the injuries on their bodies, Zhang Ronghua walked over and converted his Xuanhuang True Qi into Xuanhuang Internal Qi. He pointed his finger and three golden lights entered their bodies. The healing effect erupted and the injuries on the three people’s bodies quickly recovered at a speed visible to the naked eye.

After a while.

The scars on the surface of their bodies healed and fell off, leaving no scars behind. They had completely recovered. Other than hunger, the three of them were filled with energy.

“Greetings, Your Excellency!”

He was very humble and treated Zhang Ronghua as his master.

“Yes.” Zhang Ronghua replied.

He turned around and looked at the warden. The words he said were very cold, making him feel like he had fallen into an ice cave.

“Who did it?”

The prison guard panicked and broke out in cold sweat. His legs were trembling as he stammered, "It's, it's Deputy Jailor Zhao!"

"Bring him here!"

He walked out of the cell and towards the hall.

Ding Yi, Jin Yaoguang, and the others followed behind.

The warden summoned two jailers and ordered one to lock the cell door while the other informed Deputy Warden Zhao.

In the hall.

Zhang Ronghua sat on the chair with a cold face. His gaze was like a knife. His powerful aura pressured the prison head and the others to the point that they could not breathe and lowered their heads.

Footsteps sounded as a middle-aged man wearing the uniform of a prison guard with a punishment knife hanging at his waist walked out in large strides. He was Deputy Warden Zhao. Just as he was about to ask the Warden why he had called him over, he swept his gaze over and saw two adults sitting on chairs with Jin Yaoguang and the other two standing behind them. His heart collapsed and he panicked. The arrogance on his face disappeared. With a fawning look, he quickly walked up and cupped his fists to greet them. "Greetings, Milord!"

No one responded to him. He could sense that two cold lights were like needles, landing on his body. A huge pressure, invisible and intangible, was pressing down on him from all directions.

Facing the unknown fear, his heart collapsed. His knees went soft and he knelt on the ground uncontrollably.

Bang!

The ground shook, and dust splattered everywhere. He didn't dare to move and remained where he was.

Without even looking at him, Zhang Ronghua said, "Return the torture he used on you!"

Jin Yaoguang was stunned. He hesitated for a moment and said, "Sir, will this bring you trouble?"

Zhang Ronghua turned his head and glanced at them. Jin Yaoguang and the other two saw disappointment in his eyes. They did not dare to delay any longer, afraid that they would lose the opportunity they had seized with great difficulty!

If it was, then the pledge of allegiance he had previously submitted would have been in vain.

He walked to the torture rack, took the whip from it, and stopped in front of Deputy Jailor Zhao.

Deputy Jailor Zhao was afraid and explained, "Sir, this has nothing to do with me! The higher-ups gave the order for the little ones to torture them to death." Pa!

Jin Yaoguang was the first to make a move. He held the whip with all his strength and violently whipped him. Although he was a scholar and was old, when he was ruthless, his strength was not small at all. The whip landed on Deputy Jail Leader Zhao's body and directly tore his prison uniform, leaving a shocking scar on his back.

Cui Daoqing and Zhou Yi moved quickly. Almost as soon as his whip landed, their whips landed on him. Their eyes were fierce, and they gritted their teeth. They even rolled up their sleeves and attacked fiercely.

One whip after another, accompanied by Deputy Warden Zhao's screams, echoed in the cell.

This scene frightened the warden and the others. At the same time, they were glad that the confrontation above the secret passage was far from what they could get involved in. Deputy Warden Zhao was the best example.

After a while.

Jin Yaoguang and the other two stopped and looked at Deputy Warden Zhao. He was lying on the ground half-dead. His prison uniform was torn and his flesh was a mess. He was a bloody man lying on the ground weakly and panting heavily.

Zhang Ronghua ordered, "This person is abusing his power. Take him down!"

Let the Ministry of Justice send someone to investigate."

Deputy Warden Zhao was in despair. He knew that once this crime was confirmed, even if he escaped, he would be sent to the border. He struggled on his deathbed. "What crime have I committed? Are you going to be so ruthless?"

"They have already been conscripted by me to assist in writing the new Legend of the Human Emperor, but you! A small deputy warden dared to touch them just because he had some power in his hands. Did he want to disrupt the progress of the writing of the Newcomer's Imperial Legend?" Shua!

Bean-sized beads of cold sweat dripped down his forehead.

Deputy Jailor Zhao was completely terrified. He struggled to get up from the ground and knelt on the ground, kowtowing and begging for mercy. "I know my mistake! I beg you to be merciful and let me live."

Zhang Ronghua waved his hand and said, "Take him down!"

The warden had long been displeased with him. He did not put him in his eyes just because he had some connections. Now that the opportunity had presented itself, how could he be lenient? He ordered two jailers to arrest him and lock him in the cell.

“Let’s go!”

He stood up from the chair and walked out.

Jin Yaoguang and the other two were excited. From Zhang Ronghua’s words, they heard what they wanted. Even though they were wearing prison uniforms, they still held their heads high and were in high spirits. They left the prison and stopped on the street.

Looking at the sky, it was already dark.

“Bring them to the Education Bureau and wash them up. Change into clean clothes and welcome them!” Zhang Ronghua ordered. Bring them to the Scholar Hall tomorrow. ”

“Yes.” Ding Yi agreed.

He knew that his brother must have something to do if he said so. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have asked him to do it..

Chapter 432 - Desperation (3)

He looked at the three of them.

Zhang Ronghua continued,” Enjoy it and save some energy. The show has just begun.””

Plop!

Jin Yaoguang and the others knelt on the ground with gratitude on their faces.”Sir, we can’t repay you for saving our lives. In the future, if you have any orders, we will definitely charge forward, even if it means risking our lives!”

“Yes.” Zhang Ronghua nodded in satisfaction.

He turned around and left.

Ding Yi brought them onto the Changping carriage and rushed towards the Education Bureau.

Cui Manor.

In the study room.

He Wenxuan received news from the Ministry of Justice’s prison. He ordered his men to prepare a carriage and rushed over quickly to explain the matter.

After listening.

Grand Secretary Cui didn’t say anything. He had played too many tricks. A simple matter often had a deeper meaning to it. He went through the whole thing from the beginning to the end and locked onto Pei Caicai. He wondered if Pei Caicai was the one who had set up a trap for Zhang Ronghua to use Jin Yaoguang to make a move. If it was just Zhang Ronghua, a rank four official, he wasn’t qualified enough!

Moreover, he was now in charge of writing the new Legend of the Human Emperor. At the critical moment, even if he wanted to make a move, he would not have enough energy. Once they clashed, he would not be able to withstand it with his strength alone.

After sorting out everything, he had a plan in his heart and said in a deep voice, “Pass down the order. Tomorrow, send someone to the royal court to test the progress of the new Emperor’s Legacy. If there is no progress after four or five days, take the opportunity to give them a taste of their own medicine!” “Where’s Jin Yaoguang and the others?” He Wenxuan asked.”

“If there’s no progress with the newcomer’s Imperial Legend, we’ll take the opportunity to send them on their way! If there was, there was still a lot of progress. Zhang Ronghua had borrowed them to help speed up the writing process. This matter could only be dropped! ”

“I understand!”

“You may leave!” Grand Secretary Cui waved his hand.”

“This official will take his leave!”

After he left, Grand Elder Cui’s eyes glinted with coldness. He clenched his fists tightly. He was just a pawn, and it was difficult for him to deal with him now!

Looking in the direction of the Eastern Palace, the Crown Prince had played a good game of chess.

Pei Manor.

Zhang Ronghua had come here after parting ways with Ding Yi. Since he was going to make a move, he had to be prepared to prevent Grand Secretary Cui from taking revenge.

Seeing that he had arrived, Pei Xingzhou respectfully welcomed him. “You’re here!”

“Uncle Pei is at home?” Zhang Ronghua asked.”

“Yes! I’ll bring you in now.”

Following behind him, he entered the Pei residence and stopped outside the study. The lights were on inside. It seemed that Pei Caihua was handling official business and had not rested yet. He made a gesture of inviting:

He tactfully retreated.

Zhang Ronghua walked over, stopped outside the room, and knocked on the door. "Uncle Pei!"

In the study room.

Pei Caihua paused and looked outside with a puzzled expression. Why did he come over so late at night? Was there something wrong?

He thought of his encounter with the Crown Prince during the day. The two of them had formed an alliance for a short time and completed the exchange of interests. They had each taken a position as a doctor. Could it be that they had come for this matter?

He placed the brush on the inkstone and stood up from the chair. He walked over and opened the door. "Come in and talk."

He pulled out a chair and sat down. He poured two cups of tea from the teapot and placed one cup opposite him.

He closed the door.

Zhang Ronghua sat across from him and took a sip of tea. He put down the teacup and said with a serious expression you heard about Jin Yaoguang and the others?"

"Yes." Pei Caihua nodded.

"You don't know?"

"???" Zhang Ronghua frowned and looked puzzled.

Seeing him like this, Pei Cai was puzzled. Did the Crown Prince not tell him? If so, what was his purpose for coming here?

He briefly explained the matter.

“Have you joined forces with His Highness?”

“It’s a rare opportunity. There are many people eyeing the six empty spots on Grand Secretary Cui’s side. If we want to snatch a piece of meat from them, we have to join forces.”

Zhang Ronghua said, “The three people of the Golden Yao Light have sued Cao

Shanchang and the others. They are related to me.””

“???” This time, it was Pei Cai’s turn to be dumbfounded. His face was filled with suspicion and scrutiny, as if he wanted to see through him.

He briefly recounted his encounter with them on the street the night before, and then the matter of rescuing them from the prison of the Ministry of Justice.

“I didn’t expect Jin Yaoguang to have such a weapon in his hands!” Zhang

Ronghua said again.”

Pei Caicai tapped his fingers on the table, causing a “dong dong” sound to ring out. His thoughts ran through his mind quickly. After a long time, he realized that all of this was because of him. It was quite unexpected, but it was also within reason. He Wenxuan had attacked so many times, and their relationship was already irreconcilable. One of them had to fall. It made sense that Zhang

Ronghua could seize the opportunity to give them a taste of his own medicine.

After some thought, he said, “I’m afraid they’ve received the news and guessed that you’re the mastermind behind this. If that’s the case, tomorrow’s court will be very exciting. It will be very difficult for us to take the two doctor positions!””

Even if they couldn't keep the six positions, they wouldn't let him have them. They might give them to someone else instead of increasing their power.

His eyes shone brightly, and his fighting spirit was high.

"Who knows until the last moment?"

Pei Caicai smiled." I like your unyielding personality. If we can't even take the two doctor's positions, we'll flip the table. No one can take advantage of us..""

Chapter 433 - The Great Desperation of Guanchang

He said again.

"Do you really want to use Jin Yaoguang and the other two?"

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua nodded.

" When the new biography of the Human Emperor is written, I will probably be transferred out of the Scholar Hall and push Lu Junxiu to the top. With this contribution and his qualifications, he should be able to advance further. However, it will be very difficult for him to control the Scholar Hall alone! If he had Jin Yaoguang's help, even if He Wenxuan attacked, he would be able to deal with it. He would not be defeated so easily. In this way, the Scholar Hall will become our base."

"Have you ever thought that they would transfer someone over to be the manager at the same time as Lu Junxiu to take charge of the Scholar Hall?"

"Yes! The arrangement for Jin Yaoguang was also for the upcoming confrontation."

Pei Caihua stroked his beard with admiration. Zhang Ronghua was more far-sighted and was not mesmerized by the surface. He considered all possibilities and said, "Don't worry and do it boldly! Uncle Pei fully supports you."

"Thank you, Uncle Pei!"

Pei Caicai reminded him, "We still have to inform His Highness about this matter. One thing shouldn't bother two masters. Go over now and let His Highness prepare.""

"Nephew understands."

After the discussion, Zhang Ronghua left.

After leaving the Pei Residence, there were many things to do. Later, he would have to go to the Fate Academy to ask Yang Hongling for help. Ji Xueyan was still waiting for him at home. He circulated his movement technique and rushed to the Eastern Palace.

In the Eastern Palace.

Outside the bedroom, Qing 'er and Shuang' er were guarding the door. They were surprised to see him.

Qing 'Er stepped forward and asked suspiciously, "What's the matter?"

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua replied.

"Is His Highness asleep?" "I just fell asleep! You want me to report?"

Zhang Ronghua nodded.

Qing er controlled the commotion and pushed open the door. After entering, she closed the door again. After a while, the door opened again. Qing' er spoke, "His Highness wants you to come in."

After entering the main hall, the lights were lit to disperse the darkness. The Crown Prince wore a purple robe woven from phoenix wings and sat on the main seat. His eyes flickered with wisdom.

Zhang Ronghua took a step forward and bowed. "Greetings, Your Highness!" Pointing to the chair on the left, the Crown Prince said, "Sit down and talk."

Sitting on the chair, Zhang Ronghua explained his purpose of coming.

After listening.

The Crown Prince was surprised. He had been wondering who had attacked Grand Secretary Cui and used Jin Yaoguang to get rid of Cao Shanchang and the others. He had already joined forces with Pei Caicai to get the two professors. He didn't expect that the mastermind was one of his own. This was a big reversal.

After going through everything in his mind, he guessed Zhang Ronghua's goal. Controlling the Scholar Hall was a good thing for him!

Zhang Ronghua was his man, and the more power he had, the more help he would have in the imperial court. His voice would also be heavier, and no matter what he did, it would be easier.

He looked at him seriously for a while. The former general had grown to his current height in a short period of time. He was both resourceful and brave, which was admirable.

"Don't worry and do it. There's no one to worry about! ""

"Thank you, Your Highness!"

"How's the writing of the Newcomer's Imperial Legend going? How far has it progressed?"

In my plan," Zhang Ronghua said," it will effectively be different from the old version of the Legend of the Human Emperor. The new version will be changed to the Legend of the Celestial Emperor.'""

The Crown Prince frowned, his two sharp eyebrows tightly knitted together. He was slightly stunned. "The Heavenly Emperor's Legacy?"

The meaning of these three words was easy to understand. The word 'Heaven' represented the heavens, and the word 'Emperor' was the same. It represented imperial power. Together, it represented the limits of one's full power. The entire world was under the control of Father?

Shaking his head, he denied this guess!

Although the territory of Grand Xia was boundless, Grand Shang had yet to be conquered. Other than them, there were also the True Spirit races, beasts, demons, ghosts, and monsters. In addition, there were also some other places like the Eastern Sea.

"Continue!"

Zhang Ronghua said," The Heavenly Emperor is the supreme being of the Three Realms. He rules over the gods, devils, humans, demons, and ghosts. His words are the law. No one dares to disobey!""

Hiss!

The Crown Prince was shocked, and his heart was in turmoil. It was no less than a magnitude 12 earthquake. It turned out that he had underestimated the situation. Zhang Ronghua had thought even further than him. According to him, everything in the world, whether dead or alive, no matter where, was the territory of the Great Xia Dynasty and was under the jurisdiction of his father.

Once he submitted it, it was easy to guess that his father was very satisfied.

Only by doing so could he show his extraordinary achievements.

As for the impact of this matter, had Imperial Father ever been afraid of it?

No matter who the enemy was, they had never compromised. Even if the reputation of the Heavenly Emperor spread and the Grand Shang Empire led their troops to attack, they would not even frown.

He could already imagine that when the biography of the Heavenly Emperor was written, it would be the time for Zhang Ronghua to take another step forward and leave a heavy mark in his father's heart.

"According to my plan, the biography of the Celestial Emperor is divided into three parts. The first part tells about Your Majesty's diligence and hard work. The second part described how His Majesty ruled the country. The people had ample food and clothing. Everyone had new clothes to wear. They had extra money to go to restaurants and eat meat every three to five days. The third part was also the most important part. It described how the Emperor suppressed the True Spirit race, beasts, demons, and ghosts, and then took over half of the Grand Shang Empire."

After saying so much, Zhang Ronghua was a little thirsty. He took a sip of tea and put down the teacup.

"In the future, when Your Majesty has pacified the continent, vanquishing the

Chapter 434 - Desperation

The Crown Prince held his teacup and took a sip to calm himself down. Zhang

Ronghua's flattery was a little too much, and his father was very happy with it. He had thought that Zhang Ronghua was talented, capable, and had good political tactics. Now, it seemed that his flattery skills were incomparable to the vast court, including himself!

This flattery was simply...He had captured the deepest part of his father's soul.

Putting down the teacup, he smiled and praised, "Good! As expected, I didn't misjudge you."

After the official business was finished, Zhang Ronghua took his leave. The crown prince ordered Shuang 'er to escort him out of the Eastern Palace until the palace doors closed.

"Is he omnipotent?" Qing 'Er asked. Why do you know everything?"

The Crown Prince sighed." The more I interact with him, the more mysterious he becomes. He's like a treasure trove. As long as I hand things over to him, no matter how difficult it is, he'll be able to complete it."

Waving his hand, he dismissed Qing er.

There were no outsiders present.

The Crown Prince's eyes flickered. It was unknown what he was thinking, but his expression changed very quickly. After a while, he muttered to himself, "How can we make him obedient? What he saw, what he saw, all of it was rotten in his heart?"

At the entrance of the Eastern Palace.

"Be careful!" Shuang 'er stopped.

"Yes." " Yes," Zhang Ronghua replied. He left her with his back view and left in a suave manner.

This time, it was the Fate Academy, and there was really not enough time. He wished he could break it in half. Since he was on low duty, he had not been idle. Other than drinking two cups of tea, he had not even eaten dinner.

In an abandoned house.

Three thousand feet below the ground, the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse was like a stray dog. Its nerves were tense, and its fur stood on end. It rushed into the sky, its eyes looking at the ground with deep fear.

The night before yesterday, he had eaten Fang Zaitian's family. After he had shaken off Shangqing and the others in the chaotic battle, his injuries were too severe. After escaping for half a night, he could not hold on any longer. He had to find a shop that sold medicinal pills. When they were unprepared, he took some medicinal pills and healed his body. Just as he recovered a little, Shangqing chased after him like a sticky candy. Later, Heavenly Tiger King also arrived with his men. Fortunately, the people of True Dragon Palace arrived at this time. Taking advantage of the chaos, he narrowly escaped death.

As night fell, it stopped in front of the courtyard and prepared to heal its wounds. When it was about to fully recover, that damned Daoist Shangqing chased after it again with the Myriad Treasure Compass in his hand.

Before it could escape, Yin Li led the troops of the True Dragon Palace and arrived as if they had discussed it beforehand. They confronted Daoist Shangqing. After two days of fleeing, Daoist Shangqing was the only one who was still alive. The rest were either dead or captured. Looking at the enemy in front of him, Daoist Shangqing wanted to eat his flesh and cut him into pieces, but he couldn't kill him. Now that he was surrounded, it was a problem whether he could leave alive, let alone capture the Treasure-Seeking Mouse.

Up until now, Yin Li had figured out their goal from the captured Upper Pure

Dao Sect elder. The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse had a top-notch Numinous

Treasure in its hands, which was suspected to be a Creation Numinous Treasure. It had completely gone crazy! The moment Fang Zaitian learned of the news, he ordered the news to be sealed and strictly prohibited from spreading. In the name of avenging his family, he wanted to capture the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. At the same time, he wanted to take revenge and obtain the Creation Spiritual Treasure in its hands.

Even so, the news was leaked out immediately. There were people from other factions among his people, and it reached the ears of those who were interested. However, there were still very few people who knew about the Creation Spiritual Treasure.

Whether it was Fang Zaitian or those who knew about this matter, they were all trying their best to seal off the news. They did not want more people to get involved. Otherwise, the more people involved, the more difficult it would be to snatch the Creation Spiritual Treasure from their hands. Even if they could get it, they would not be able to afford the price! If the higher-ups, or even Emperor Xia, were to find out about this, he would not be able to keep the Creation Numinous Treasure.

At this moment.

It was too late for Fang Zaitian to regret. He wanted to find the person who leaked the information. When Yin Li was interrogating him, there were many people present. With so many people refusing to admit it, there was nothing he could do in a short period of time.

He could only put this matter aside for now and focus on the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny. He sent out all his people and gave a death order to snatch the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny at all costs.

Just as Yin Li was about to give the order to take action, another person appeared. The people of Jingshen rushed over. A while ago, Perfected Woriless was killed, and Jingshen's branch in the capital was wiped out. These people came from other places and wanted to re-establish their stronghold. After all, the capital was the administrative center of the Great Xia Dynasty. The benefits here were too great, far from what other places could compare to. They didn't want to give up this piece of fat meat, and they didn't want to benefit other factions. Unexpectedly, as soon as they arrived here, the higher-ups gave an order. He had asked them to lead a team here. No matter what the price was, he had to snatch the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse from them.

From one side, it had evolved into three forces.

Daoist Shangqing calmed down as he looked at Jingshen. Even if they were to fight later, he could join forces with Jingshen. Yin Li and the others wouldn't be able to do anything to him.

In less than three seconds, the fourth group arrived. This time, they were from the Scarlet Heaven Palace. Like the True Dragon Palace, the Scarlet Heaven

Palace was also one of the four super departments of the Great Xia Dynasty. Their power and influence were not weaker than the True Dragon Palace, and they were slightly stronger than them. The official positions were the same as the True Dragon Palace, both ranked at the sixth rank. However, the titles were different. They were Palace Master, Angel, Violet Angel, Green Angel, White Angel, and Golden Angel..

Chapter 435 -Desperation

The person in the lead was called Xu Xing. He was a fatty, about 1.7 meters tall, and weighed more than 200 pounds. He was a Green Angel, the same rank as Yin Li. Other than that, he also had another identity, the Duke of the Great Xia Dynasty-Duke of Baiyun.

Although his surname was Xu, his identity was special. He followed his mother's surname. His mother was an extraordinary woman. Because of her merit, she was granted the title of Prince. She inherited her mother's title.

Among Fang Zaitian's people, there were his people. When they found out that the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny had appeared, they secretly ordered people to pay attention to their movements. Once there was news, they would immediately report it, which led to this scene.

He was wearing a red robe with a green base and a gold collar. There was a green Kirin embroidered on his chest and a red sword hanging from his waist. It was also green, but there was a mini Kirin engraved on the hilt. This was the standard set of the Red Heaven Palace. It was similar to the True Dragon palace.

Squinting his eyes, his round and bright eyes were covered by his eyelids. He glanced around and saw the scene in front of him. He could sense that the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse was hiding about 3,000 feet underground. It didn't dare to move. It teased, "It's quite lively!"

Yin Li's face was very ugly and his eyebrows were filled with killing intent. True Dragon Palace was the one who found out about this first. Because of this, his master's entire family was killed by the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse. Because of his carelessness, the news was leaked and the people of Crimson Heaven Palace were attracted. He was very angry! As for Jingshen, he was just a group of motley crew.

He didn't put him in his eyes and said coldly, "The two of us can join hands and take them down. Then, we can use our own abilities to snatch the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse."

Daoist Shangqing and the people from Jingshen panicked. They were officials of the same dynasty. No matter how dirty the four departments were, they had the same stance on the outside. Both sides subconsciously looked at each other and moved closer to each other to prevent them from joining forces. If they really fought, they would have more help later.

Xu Xing's answer was unexpected. He raised his right hand and casually waved it twice before saying disdainfully, "'Your True Dragon Palace's reputation is too bad. Cooperating with you will only bring shame to me!"

Yin Li was furious. He pointed two fingers at him angrily. "Don't go too far!"

Xu Xing's expression immediately turned cold. The pressure of a Regional king erupted as he scolded, "'Who do you think you are? Are you even worthy of pointing fingers in front of this king?"

Only then did Yin Li come to his senses. Other than being the Green Angel, Xu Xing was also the Duke of Baiyun. Even if the latter did not have any real power and was just an empty title, he was not someone he could offend. Without saying anything more, he took out a signal flare and released it.

Bang!

Brilliant fireworks bloomed in the night sky, condensing into a huge green dragon with long fangs. In the pitch-black night, it was very obvious that it represented his identity. As long as anyone nearby saw the signal flare, no matter what they were doing, they would rush over unconditionally.

They were not in a hurry to make a move. With Xu Xing around, they simply did not have enough manpower. They first surrounded Daoist Shangqing and the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse and waited for reinforcements to arrive before making a move.

The corners of Xu Xing's mouth curled up and he said mockingly, "'Can't you guys be more promising? No wonder the reputation of the True Dragon Palace was so bad!"

He took out a signal flare from his Sumeru Pouch. Who wouldn't?

The overall strength of the Red Heaven Palace was even stronger than that of the True Dragon Palace. Among the four departments, the True Dragon Palace was recognized as the weakest and was a proper underling!

Bang!

The signal flare was released in the night sky. The green fireworks condensed into a green Kirin, burning with green flames as it roared between heaven and earth.

"You're shameless!" Yin Li was furious.

Xu Xing shrugged."

Daoist Shangqing and the leader of Jingshen looked at each other. They didn't have much time left. If they delayed any longer, they would die here as their people arrived. They nodded in tacit understanding and attacked at the same time. Their cultivation base erupted, and they used fist techniques (palm techniques) to slap the ground, trying to send the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse flying with a powerful force.

Underground.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse wanted to curse. It had already hidden so deeply, but it still didn't let them go. Sensing the terrifying force from their martial arts, it rushed towards it at an extremely fast speed. It didn't dare to delay at all and hurriedly used its first innate divine ability, Time. It left behind an afterimage on the spot and dodged by the skin of its teeth.

Seeing Daoist Shangqing and the God-shocking people attack, Xu Xing and Yin Li did not stay idle either. They led their troops and charged towards them to snatch the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse.

A chaotic battle broke out...

On the other side.

Zhang Ronghua was on his way to Fate Academy when he suddenly saw the signal flares of True Dragon Palace and Red Heaven Palace. They were advanced level signal flares. He stopped and squinted his eyes. He wondered why Red Heaven Palace and True Dragon Palace were together. Could it be because of the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse?

This was the only possibility that could explain it. He changed his direction, circulated his movement technique to the limit, and rushed over..

Chapter 436: Destroy!(Happy New Year)

Underground.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse bared its teeth in anger.

He was also saying, "Why do you want to keep the rat when you're fighting each other?"

It would be fine if it stayed where it was, but if it dared to move, or if it used its first innate divine ability, Time, to escape, one or even four powerful forces would come from above and stop it.

In this aspect.

Whether it was Xu Xing, Yin Li, Daoist Shang Qing, or even the god-like Moon-ranked higher-up, Ye Jinglei, they all cooperated very well.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse was anxious. It knew that once the battle above was over, it would die. It had learned its lesson and did not dare to run around. It stayed where it was obediently. Its eyes moved very quickly. It secretly circulated its cultivation technique to recover from its injuries and adjusted its mental state to its peak. It was looking for an opportunity. Once the opportunity appeared, it would escape at all costs. Waiting for death was not the character of a rat!

On the ground.

Xu Xing, Yin Li, Daoist Shangqing, and Ye Jinglei were engaged in a chaotic battle. The battle was one-sided. Even if Daoist Shangqing and Ye Jinglei tried their best to resist, they were no match for Xu Xing and Ye Jinglei. In the beginning, they could still hold on for a while, but as they used their techniques, the battle became white-hot. Whether it was in terms of cultivation or martial arts, they were suppressed by a level. Every minute and second felt like a year to Daoist Shangqing and Ye Jinglei. They tried their best to resist, but they still could not block it. The injuries on her body gradually increased, and her clothes were dyed red with blood. She looked terrifying.

The other people from the Red Heaven Palace and True Dragon Palace saw their masters surrounding Daoist Shangqing and the others, and at the same time, they set their sights on the other people from Jingshen Palace. They fought to kill them. They couldn't even defeat one department, let alone two departments.

In just a dozen moves, under their combined efforts, except for Ye Jing Lei who was still alive, everyone else who had brought them here was killed. The ground was filled with corpses, broken weapons, and a thick smell of blood.

Seeing this.

Daoist Shangqing and Ye Jinglei were in despair. At this moment, it was no longer about snatching the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse, but whether they could leave this place alive.

Another clash!

Under Xu Xing and Yin Li's powerful sword techniques, the two of them each spat out an arrow of blood, retreating backward uncontrollably until their backs were touching each other.

Puff!

But the power of Xu Xing and Yin Li's sword was too great. It was far from what they could withstand. Although their bodies were not pierced through, it still heavily injured the two of them, adding injuries on top of injuries, spitting out another arrow of blood.

It was quite ironic that two people who had nothing to do with each other actually chose to give their backs to each other under the pressure of life and death.

Looking at the people of the Red Heaven Palace and the True Dragon Palace, the two groups of people stood behind Xu Xing and Yin Li, forming a circle that surrounded them and the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. The cold sword light pointed at them, and a strong, murderous, and bloodthirsty aura pressed down from these executioners.

Daoist Shangqing took a healing pill and temporarily suppressed his injuries. With his last bit of hope, he asked, "Where's your superior?"

The night thunder is equally uncomfortable. His cultivation is weaker than Shang Qing Taoist. He is heavy. He is Yin Li. He has a fatal attack. He has lost his life. He has lost half of his life. He has lost his life. He has taken out healing pills. He has taken them. He has wiped away the blood at the corner of his mouth. He is angry. He has said: "It's not like you don't know our rules! In a one-way communication, only the superior could contact the subordinate. It was impossible for the subordinate to find the superior!"

The more he spoke, the angrier he got. He had just entered the capital when the higher-ups had given him a mission. He thought it would be easy to find a rat, but who would have thought that the moment he showed up, he would attract the attention of the Red Heaven Palace and the True Dragon Palace. He couldn't deal with either of them, let alone the joint efforts of the two departments. N velBjn: Your Escape into Infinite Tales.

His gaze was fierce, like a lone wolf that had been forced into a desperate situation and was licking blood. "Kill one and you'll make a profit!"

Daoist Shang Qing's hope of getting lucky was completely shattered. If there were a God-stunning Sun-ranked powerhouse here, they would be able to escape, but there were no such things as ifs in the world! "What about the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse?"

“Why did you capture him?”

Daoist Shangqing was stunned. If it wasn't for the fact that he couldn't turn around, he would have seen the expression on his face and asked, “You don't know

Ye Jing Lei was aggrieved. He gripped the hilt of his saber tightly. He could not suppress his anger any longer. The veins on his forehead bulged out in anger. “If I knew, why would I f*cking ask? Seeing that he was about to die, he couldn't be a muddle-headed ghost!” “A Manifestation Spiritual Treasure!”

Boom!

Ye Jing Lei was shocked and looked at the people from the Scarlet Heaven Palace and True Dragon Palace in disbelief. Everything made sense now. No wonder they had arrived as soon as he had arrived.

His face was filled with madness, and the words he said were even crazier. “Are you willing?”

Daoist Shangqing was also unwilling to accept this. It was originally in his pocket, but it was snatched away by this damned rat. He chased it from Shangqing Mountain to the capital, thousands of miles away. For this, he even had to deal with a group of elders from the Shangqing Dao Sect. He wished he could eat the Time Treasure-Seeking Rat alive. He gritted his teeth and said, “I can't accept this!”

“Destroy! If we can't get it, they can't get it either.”

Daoist Shangqing hesitated. With the Myriad Treasure Compass, as long as he escaped, he would be able to find the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse no matter where it hid. As long as it did not fall into the hands of the imperial court, it would be his one day..

Chapter 437: Destroy!(Happy New Year)

Seeming to have guessed his thoughts, Ye Jing Lei asked, “Are you hiding something from me?”

Before Daoist Shangqing could say anything, Yin Li continued with a sarcastic tone, “You can die if you want! Hand over the Myriad Treasure Compass, or I’ll let you experience a torture that’s even more terrifying than death.”

“What is it?” Ye Jinglei asked.”

By now, this matter could no longer be concealed. Daoist Shang Qing said with a cold face,“Support-type Numinous Treasures can track down their opponents as long as they have blood essence! This sect master relied on this treasure to chase all the way from Shangqing Mountain to the capital and even find this stinky rat in the capital.”

“You’re still hoping for luck? Did he think that he could escape and use this treasure to capture the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse?”

Daoist Shangqing was silent. That was what he thought.

Ye Jing Lei mocked, completely shattering his luck.”Stop dreaming! We are surrounded by them, and the Red Heaven Palace and the True Dragon Palace are on their way here. When the reinforcements arrive, do you think you can take on the two super departments alone?”

Without giving Daoist Shangqing any time to react, he continued.

“I have a secret technique here. Sacrificing one’s life to temporarily increase one’s combat strength is enough to stall them! Take advantage of this time to destroy the Myriad Treasure Compass and help the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse escape.”

Daoist Shang Qing clenched his fists tightly, and a cracking sound rang out. His eyes were bloodshot. The treasure had been snatched away by this beast, and he didn’t expect that he would still have to help it escape. He felt aggrieved!

Ye Jing Lei didn’t give him time to consider.””Do you want to do it or not? Give me a straightforward answer!”

Daoist Shangqing couldn't refuse. If he didn't agree, the Time

Treasure -Seeking Mouse and the Myriad Treasure Compass would fall into the hands of the two departments, and even he would die! If he agreed, although he would still die, he could at least destroy the Myriad Treasure Compass and help the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse escape. This would make the two departments' plans fall through, and he would end up empty-handed.

Yin Li was anxious. If he really let Daoist Shangqing destroy the Myriad Treasure Compass and let the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse escape, Fang Zaitian would definitely not let him off! His expression was ferocious, and his killing intent soared."

The people of the True Dragon Palace charged at them.

Xu Xing's side reacted very quickly too. When the True Dragon Palace had just made a move, he led his subordinates and rushed up.

"What are you still hesitating for?" Ye Jinglei scolded. Why didn't he destroy the treasure and give it to them?"

Daoist Shangqing finally made up his mind and exploded with rage. "If I can't get it, no one can!"

Ye Jing Lei laughed and licked his lips, looking even more ferocious. Throwing away his saber, he took a step forward and stood in front of Daoist Shang Qing. He formed a hand seal and cast a secret art, the Blood Transforming Art. He sacrificed his life in exchange for doubling his strength. Thousands of black demonic lights bloomed from his body, illuminating him like a ghost. The surging murderous aura was like an endless ocean. Under his control, it suppressed the people from the two departments in a domineering manner. Under the powerful aura, it fluttered without wind. Even its eyes turned red and black, and it was even more brutal than before.

"Hurry up and do it!"

With a low growl, Ye Jing Lei attacked, using the Box-pressing Fist Technique. Relying on the increase in strength that he had exchanged for by sacrificing his life, he disregarded the consumption of internal strength and crazily executed it, charging towards Xu Xing and Yin Li.

Xu Xing laughed mockingly, "Interesting! Street-Crossing Rat had actually cooperated with the Ox Nose."

He ordered his subordinates to charge at Daoist Shangqing, snatch the Myriad Treasure Compass from him, and then capture the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse.

Yin Li was the same. Being dragged by Ye Jinglei, he could not get away and could only order his subordinates to let them take action while he and Xu Xing attacked Ye Jinglei.

Facing Ye Jing Lei's attack, the two of them did not fight head-on. Instead, they chose to move around and fight. They were both going to die. At his rate of consumption, he would fall after a few minutes. Why exchange injuries for injuries?

Looking at the compass in his hand, Daoist Shangqing was unwilling to give up. His eyes were bloodshot and his face twisted like a devil. He looked at the people from the two departments who were rushing at him. No matter how unwilling he was, he had to destroy it. He raised his arm and circulated his cultivation technique to the extreme. He gathered his internal energy on his fist and launched a powerful attack, smashing it down ruthlessly.

Yin Li had been paying attention to them, but he was held back by Ye Jing Lei and couldn't get away. Seeing Daoist Shang Qing's fist coming down, he shouted angrily, "No!"

He wanted to rush over to stop her, but before he could take a step, Ye JingLei's fierce fist technique had already arrived. Helpless, he could only retreat and defend.

At the critical moment, a fifth force appeared. Or rather, it was a demon who had suddenly attacked. It had been hiding in the dark and was good at hiding. It had deceived everyone present and wanted to reap the benefits. After being tricked by Daoist Shangqing, it saw that the Myriad Treasure Compass was about to be destroyed and couldn't sit still any longer, so it made its move.

Whoosh!

As if he had teleported, he took a step forward. His speed was really too fast.

He raised his hand and countless black lights flashed, rushing out between heaven and earth. They turned into sharp claws and grabbed Daoist Shangqing's body from behind. With a rough twist, the powerful force was about to tear his body into two halves.

Daoist Shangqing was also a ruthless person! After being severely injured, the Myriad Treasure Treasure Compass in his hand had already left his hand. Seeing that his body was about to be torn apart, his face was ferocious and filled with madness as he growled, ""Explode!"

Boom!

His broken body self-destructed, and a terrifying force rushed out. The first to be attacked was the demon that had ambushed him..

Chapter 438: Destroy!(Happy New Year)

The demon's name was Wind Roc, a descendant of the Kun Peng True Spirit. It was good at speed and its triangular eyes were about to go crazy from anger. Not only did it not manage to get the Myriad Treasure Compass, but it also put itself in danger. At the critical moment, it used its innate ability Wind Escape and disappeared from where it was.

However, Daoist Shangqing's self-detonation didn't stop. It swept out in all directions. The people from the two departments who rushed over were either killed or injured by this attack. Even if they were lucky enough to escape, they would lose more than half of their lives.

Only those who were slow and dilly-dallying at the back were lucky enough to avoid the fatal blow.

Ye Jing Lei didn't expect Daoist Shang Qing to be so crazy, but it was understandable. His body had already been torn apart by the wind roc. If he had been any slower, he would have been torn into two.

Since he was going to die anyway, he might as well self-destruct. Even if he couldn't kill it, he could at least drag the people from the two departments down with him.

The courtyard was in ruins. Other than the broken corpses, there was only the smell of blood.

The Thousand Treasure Compass drew a beautiful curve in the air and fell in the direction of Ye Jing Lei.

At this moment, he had used a secret technique and sacrificed his life. He was at the end of his rope and could die at any moment. Looking at the spirit treasure, his eyes lit up and he laughed arrogantly. "If we can't get it, you can forget about getting it!"

He flew over at lightning speed and used his fist technique to the limit. He mobilized all his internal strength and gathered it on the surface of his fist. "Break!"

"No!" Yin Li and Feng Peng roared at the same time.

The former wanted to stop him, but he was too far away and couldn't make it in time. The latter had used his innate divine ability, Wind Escape, to avoid the aftershock of Daoist Shangqing's self-explosion. He had escaped a little too far, and although he had dodged the disaster, he was still slightly grazed and injured. Dark red blood flowed from the corner of his mouth. It was too late for him to rush forward now. He watched the scene helplessly.

Underground.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse had been waiting for an opportunity, but it had never expected that the battle above would be so crazy. At the beginning, it had been Daoist Shangqing's side, but now, it had turned into a five-sided battle. It was a complete mess. Seeing that their attention had been drawn to Ye Jinglei, it had recovered by now. Its injuries had already recovered by more than half. It immediately used its first innate divine ability, Time, and fled into the distance.

It had to be said that the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse had seized this opportunity too well. No one noticed it, or rather, they ignored it. They were all attracted by Ye Jing Lei.

After leaving the courtyard, he used his second innate divine ability, Light Breath, to conceal his aura. He didn't care about the consumption of energy and desperately used his innate divine ability, Time, to escape. In a few flashes, he was gone.

At this moment.

Ye Jing Lei's fist radiance had already landed on the Myriad Treasure Compass. Under everyone's gaze, the Myriad Treasure Compass was forcefully shattered by him.

Bang!

Zhang Ronghua finally arrived at the last moment with a flash of golden light. It wasn't because he was too slow, but because the battle had changed too quickly. Daoist Shangqing was defeated, then the Wind Roc's sneak attack, and finally, Ye Jinglei's destruction of the Myriad Treasure Compass. It was completed in a very short time.

At this moment, he was wearing a night-traveling robe and his face was covered, revealing only his eyes. He was cautious, and there was a barrier formed by soul power on his body. From the outside, it was a blur. Not to mention his face, even his figure could not be seen clearly. Even if he used a secret technique related to pupils, it would be the same. It would not be able to break his soul master technique.

He grabbed at the air and swept out his powerful soul power, catching all the falling fragments of the Myriad Treasure Compass and putting them away.

He didn't even look at them and used his soul power to check. In his senses, the ground was empty. The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse had already escaped. His face was very ugly. He looked at these people and changed his voice to make it sound old. From there, people would think that he was a hidden old monster. He scolded, "A bunch of trash! There were so many people, but a stinky rat escaped!"

Xu Xing and Yin Li looked at the mysterious person who suddenly appeared in front of them and jumped in fright. There was actually a sixth party of people hiding in the dark!

He subconsciously looked around and wondered if there were other people in the dark.

Looking at Zhang Ronghua, the newcomer was a soul master. There was only one explanation for them not being able to see through him with their cultivation. The other party's cultivation was even more terrifying than they had imagined. He was at least a Heaven Rank old monster. Their hearts sank, and their hearts fell to the bottom of the valley. They approached each other in tacit understanding. The survivors of the two departments stood behind them.

Those who were seriously injured lay on the ground and pretended to be dead. Whether they could survive or not depended on heaven's will.

Feng Peng was even more panicked than them. This was the capital, the headquarters of the two departments. They had already released the signal flare, and reinforcements were on the way. He was alone, and the longer he delayed, the more he would die in the hands of the two departments. His cultivation erupted, and he used his innate ability, Wind Escape, to the limit. Black light appeared behind him, condensing into a huge phantom of the wind roc. With a domineering flap of his wings, he turned into a hurricane and rushed up into the nine heavens, wanting to escape from this place.

"Did I let you go?" Zhang Ronghua said disdainfully."

He flicked his finger!

The soul power transformed into a giant sword that was over a hundred feet in size. It slashed down in a domineering manner, facing the Wind Roc's despairing gaze and killing it. Under his control, the Wind Roc's corpse remained..

Chapter 439 - 439: Destroy!(Happy New Year)

Sweeping with his soul power, he sealed the Wind Roc's corpse into a demon pearl in a breath's time. It was only the size of an egg, and he put it away casually.

Looking at this scene!

A fiendish demon on the same realm as them and even possessed the Kun Peng bloodline was killed by this old monster with just a raise of his hand. Xu Xing and Yin Li's hearts fell into an ice cave, and they were certain in their hearts! The other party must be a Heaven Rank Spirit Master.

His cold gaze fell on them.

"I have a grudge against the True Dragon Palace!" Zhang Ronghua said hoarsely. Are you going to stay and fight alongside him, or are you going to take your men and scam?

Xu Xing cupped his hands and said very straightforwardly,"

She brought the Crimson Heaven Palace members and left quickly.

"This is the capital. Aren't you afraid of the True Dragon Palace's revenge?" Yin Li panicked and struggled."

The remaining people of the True Dragon Palace were the same. They gripped their weapons tightly and their hands trembled. Their eyes were filled with fear and they didn't even have the desire to fight.

"Are they even worthy?"

Zhang Ronghua attacked with the Black Lotus Apocalypse. Boundless soul power condensed into a black lotus that was more than 100 feet in size.

Demonic light shot into the sky, and golden flames burned on the surface of its body. With a flash of the wind, it arrived in front of Yin Li and the others. Yin Li and the others tried their best to resist, but they couldn't even last a breath. As the black lotus swept over, they were burned into ashes. They couldn't be more dead.

Get rid of them.

Zhang Ronghua withdrew his soul power and left in another direction.

Not long after he left.

The people of the True Dragon Palace appeared, and the leader was Fang Zaitian. He looked at the broken corpses and weapons on the ground, and the thick smell of blood filled the air. His trusted aide Yin Li had died in battle. His face was twisted, and he clenched his fists tightly to suppress his anger. He gritted his teeth and ordered, "Pass on my orders! Even if he had to turn the capital upside down, he had to find this and the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse!"

The subordinates he brought hurriedly split up to search for Zhang Ronghua and the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse.

As for walking slowly.

After he left with his men, he met up with the people who had rushed over. He didn't return and didn't get involved in the True Dragon Palace. He set his target on the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse and sent people to secretly watch Fang Zaitian's tracks. Once they found the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse, they would snatch it at all costs.

Destiny Academy.

Zhang Ronghua had already changed into a black brocade robe and a golden cloak. The Five Dragon Spirit Controlling Belt on his waist was very eye-catching. He held the Hundred Birds Flapping the Phoenix Fan in his hand and appeared at the door.

Duan Jiu's eyes lit up. He had been guarding the door for two to three days, looking forward to the stars and the moon every day, hoping that Zhang

Ronghua would come. If he could be rewarded by his senior brother like Mei

Changshu, then he would have made a big profit. Seeing him appear, he was excited and came up to him from a dozen steps away. He called out enthusiastically, "Senior Brother, you're here!"

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua replied with a smile. He took out two Ginseng Fruits and handed them over.

"Thank you, Senior Brother!" "Report?"

"No need!" Duan Jiu shook his head.

"The Headmaster of the Academy has instructed us to go over directly after you arrive. "

Zhang Ronghua asked out of politeness and nodded. After entering the Fate Academy, the patrolling disciples were already used to it. They were obviously not from the Fate Academy, but they came more frequently than they did. They smiled and greeted each other before continuing to patrol.

They arrived at the old man's courtyard.

Little Four was resting by the lake when he heard footsteps. He opened his eyes and asked, ""Why are you here now?"

He squatted down.

"I have something to discuss with Hongling." Zhang Ronghua patted its head."

Little Four looked at the sky. There was still some time before dawn. It was the middle of the night, and a man and a woman were alone. What was a little thing?

The beast was thinking wrongly!

"She's in her room."

“Help me.”

Little Four shook his head.” It’s not like you can’t find it. It’s not like you haven’t been there before. Just go by yourself.””

“Is it convenient?”

“As long as she thinks it’s convenient, then it’s convenient!” “..!”Zhang Ronghua was speechless.

He knocked on its head and walked towards the backyard.

Seeing him leave, Little Four immediately stood up from the ground and changed directions. After a while, he appeared outside the old man’s room and raised his hoof to knock on the door twice.”Are you asleep?” “What is it?”

“Qing Lin is here. He went to the backyard to look for Hong Ling.”

The room fell silent. Little Four was about to leave when the door opened and the old master walked out. “What is he doing here now?”

“I’m looking for Hong Ling!”

“This old man is asking you, what is it?”

“I don’t know!”

The old man glared at it and looked in the direction of his granddaughter’s room. His two white eyebrows raised, and his wise eyes quickly turned. Then he shook his head. “There should really be something!”

“???” Little Four was dumbfounded. ‘You’ve been thinking about it for so long, and this is all you can say?’

He didn’t dare to say this, but he thought about it in his heart.

After closing the door, the old man continued to tidy up the Three Heads and Six Arms. Although he had already created it, it would be better if he could improve on it. If it really didn’t work, there was no loss.

Outside the door.

Little Four’s beast-like eyes rolled around. Curious, he decided to go over and take a look. He ran over like a wisp of smoke.

Outside the boudoir.

Just as Zhang Ronghua was about to knock on the door, he had already stretched out his hand. Hearing the sound of water flowing from inside, he guessed that Yang Hongling might be taking a bath.

In the room.

Yang Hongling was lying in a large bathtub, bathing in the milk of the Heavenly Fragrant Cow. She also sprinkled some red rose petals on the bath. There was a pot of Hundred Fruit Wine beside her. Occasionally, she would take a sip from the wine glass, which made her exquisite face very red, as attractive as the sunset..

Chapter 440 - 440: Destroy! (Happy New Year)

A pair of long and slender legs lazily stretched out in a straight line. Occasionally, she would lift them up and place them on the bathtub. Under the light, they were white with a tinge of red and yellow. Some milk flowed along her smooth legs and dripped into the bathtub below. It slid all the way to the bottom, giving off an infinite charm.

Her lips were as thin as a cicada's wings, exquisite and alluring. Recalling the scene when Little Four said that her feet smelled bad, Zhang Ronghua grabbed five toes. Her upper lips were slightly curled up, revealing her white teeth. An impulse appeared. She wanted to smell her feet. Although she knew it was fragrant, she couldn't help it.

She bent her right leg and hugged her little foot, forming an arc with her left leg. As her upper body straightened, the milk parted, revealing a beautiful and illusory scene. Spring appeared, but unfortunately, no one could appreciate this beautiful scene.

She looked at her toenails, which were painted with beige nail polish. They were eye-catching and sexy at the same time. There was also a hint of wildness and fire.

She sniffed it with her nose. It was so fragrant!

The fragrance of the Heavenly Fragrant Cow, the flower petals, and her own body entered her nose. She revealed a smug expression and said with certainty, "It smells good!"

At this moment, Zhang Ronghua's voice came from outside and gave her a fright. She hurriedly put down her feet and stood up from the bathtub. She looked down and saw that everyone was exposed. She crossed her arms and squatted down again. "Why are you here?" "I have something to tell you!"

"Don't come in! Don't come in."

He came out of the bathtub at lightning speed. His internal strength shook, and the water droplets on his body were shaken dry. He grabbed his clothes and quickly put them on. He checked them again to make sure that he didn't miss anything. Only then did his worried heart relax.

However, her heart was beating very fast, like a deer hitting its head. It kept beating, and her chest was heaving up and down violently. She took a deep breath to calm herself down, but the more she did so, the harder it was for her to calm down. Instead, it beat even faster.

After a while.

Seeing that there was no movement inside, Zhang Ronghua asked again, "Are you done?"

"Wait... Wait!"

Yang Hongling hurriedly circulated her internal energy, trying to calm her nervous heart. However, it was useless. She looked outside and gritted her teeth. Her lips were tightly pressed together. She knew that she could not delay any longer, so she braced herself and walked over.

Yiya!

When their eyes met, he saw that her face was as red as a big apple, tender and alluring. It went all the way from her ears to her chest, and even her exposed arms were the same. Zhang Ronghua felt strange. "What's wrong?"

Although she was extremely nervous, Yang Hongling's expression was very natural. She did not panic at all. It was related to her personality. Only by looking at her appearance could one know her shyness. She pretended to be calm and said, "I was in the bath just now. The water temperature was very hot.

Maybe I was in the bath for a long time?"

She did not give him a chance to ask back and took the initiative to ask.

"Why are you looking for me so late at night?"

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua nodded, smiled, and pointed at himself.

Yang Hongling instantly understood. How could they talk outside? She thought to herself that she was too nervous. She moved aside and waited for him to come in before closing the door.

Little Four poked half of his head out from the flowers, his beast eyes rolling twice as he muttered, "He looks quite normal!"

The beast shook its head and left.

In the room.

The redness on Yang Hongling's face hadn't subsided. It was still very red and very attractive. However, her actions were natural and unrestrained. If one didn't know the inside story, they would really think that it was caused by the bath. She took the teapot and poured two cups of tea. She handed one cup over and took a sip of the other cup to hide the shyness in her heart.

"I need your help."

Putting down the teacup, Yang Hongling looked at him with her big, gem-like eyes and said, "Tell me!"

"Have you heard about what happened in Beijing recently?"

"Fang Zaitian's entire sect was annihilated?"

"Not just this!"

"Is there something hidden?"

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua replied.

"This is a complicated matter.

He recounted the entire process of Fang Zaitian's family being exterminated in detail.

After listening.

Yang Hongling was shocked. She opened her mouth and stuck out her tongue, looking cute."A Manifestation Spiritual Treasure? Are you sure?"

After knowing him for such a long time, with his understanding of him, it was impossible for him to lie about such a big matter.

"No wonder Fang Zaitian made such a big commotion. He actually has other motives!

Zhang Ronghua said," This matter can't be suppressed anymore. There are many people who know about it. I reckon that it will spread throughout the capital by tonight or tomorrow at the latest. Everyone will know about the birth of the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny.""

Yang Hongling knew that the value of a Spiritual Treasure of Destiny was too great! Once they found out, they would fight for it with all their might no matter what the price was. They might even attract foreign forces to join them.

"I know! Tomorrow, he would bring Little Four to look for the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse."

Zhang Ronghua nodded and took a sip of tea. He looked regretful. "It's a pity that the Myriad Treasure Compass is already broken. Otherwise, with its help, no matter where the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse is hiding, we can find it."

Yang Hongling agreed. The rat had two Innate Mystical Powers, one was Time Mystical Power, and the other was Breath Holding Mystical Power. After this incident, the rat was probably scared out of its wits. It was too late to hide now, so how could it dare to show its face? It would be extremely difficult to find it again!

No matter how difficult it was, he had to dig three feet into the ground and search the entire capital to find it and obtain the Creation Spiritual Treasure..
