Chapter 531: Zhang Ronghua's Promotion

"How did Grand Secretary Cui react?"

"From the beginning to the end, including Cheng Zhijie's conviction, no one from his faction stood up to stop him."

"This old fellow is very bad! We have to be careful."

"The Ministry of Works isn't under his jurisdiction," Zhang Ronghua said. "Even if he were to act in the name of the Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets, it has to be reasonable. Otherwise, the Minister of Works wouldn't agree if he were to extend his hand."

"That's true, but I'm afraid they'll exchange benefits."

"Who is the Minister of Works?"

Ding Yi pondered for a moment before shaking his head. "I'm not too sure! Since he was already qualified to challenge the Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets, he probably wouldn't get involved in the royal family's affairs unless he gave up."

"You can't look at things from the surface. These old fellows are hiding very deeply. Until the last moment, we will never know who they are."

"Brother, when are we going over?" Ding Yi asked.

"I have to hand it over today. Tomorrow morning, I'll go to the Ministry of Personnel to handle the transfer procedures. I should be there in the afternoon."

He took a sip of tea.

Zhang Ronghua teased, "You're also a Rank-4 now. You'll go through the transfer procedures at the Ministry of Personnel tomorrow and attend the morning court session. How do you feel?"

Ding Yi's face immediately turned bitter. It was as ugly as it could be. "Look at a bunch of old fellows. They're all spitting here and there. How can they be as happy as watching the girls dance in the Education Bureau? They can even hug each other, kiss each other, and touch each other..."

Ding Yi suddenly remembered.

"Brother, you promised me a few days ago that after you recover your energy, you would invite me to drink and listen to music."

"What a good memory."

"Hehe! I always have a good memory when it comes to women."

"You're not young anymore. It's time for you to start a family.'"

Ding Yi was dejected and sighed helplessly. "I want to too! However, reality did not allow it. His reputation had long been tarnished. Who among the nobles in the capital would dare to marry their daughter to me? Wasn't this pushing him into the fire pit? "Even if I take a fancy to an ordinary family, although grandfather isn't around, His Majesty will definitely not agree on behalf of grandfather. Instead of making them sad and ruining their innocence, it was better to stay single. At least this way, they would not harm others."

"There are many princesses and princesses in the royal family waiting for the emperor. Which one of them won't propose marriage to His Majesty?"

Ding Yi shook his head. If you know who I am, why would you harm the princess and the princess? Even if he tried to force her, she might not relent."

That was true, but in the royal family, what was important was still benefits. As long as it could bring huge benefits, they would marry. It could only be said that Ding Yi was still a little lacking.

“Call Chen Youcai, Lu Zhantang, and the others. We’ll go to Heavenly Earth in the future.”

“How do we get there?”

“Huo Jingyun came to support the opening of my business a few times in a row, including yesterday.”

“Chang ‘an?”

Ding Yizhi knew that Zheng Fugui was already engaged and would be getting married in a few days. It was not good to go and hook up at this time. If there was a misunderstanding, it would affect their relationship.

Thinking of Zhang Ronghua’s other rewards, he asked again,””Brother, did you get the True Dragon Token?”

“Yes.”

“And a four-horse carriage and two thousand gold taels?”

The carriage was drawn by four top-notch divine heavenly dragons. With Zhang Ronghua’s official position, this was an exceptional reward. It represented a great significance, surpassing the value of the carriage itself. It showed that he was in the emperor’s heart and was deeply valued by Emperor Xia.

His right hand patted the Five Dragon Spirit Taming Belt on his waist and took out a plate of black grapes and a plate of ginseng fruits.

Zhang Ronghua threw a black grape into his mouth, ate the meat, and spat out the grape skin. "I haven't seen the carriage yet. The gold will be sent over later."

"In the future, when your chariot travels on the streets, the number of people who turn their heads will definitely be very high. It will be much more convenient for you to do anything."

Speak of the devil.

Lu Junxiu hurriedly ran in from outside and stopped at the door. He knocked on the door and said, "Milord, Eunuch Xiao has brought people." Zhang Ronghua smiled, "He's here. ""

He stood up from the chair, opened the door, and went out.

Eunuch Xiao led a team of Human Emperor Guards and stopped in the courtyard with four boxes. He smiled and felt happy for Zhang Ronghua. "His Majesty asked me to send over two thousand gold taels."

"Thank you!"

Eunuch Xiao waved his hand, and the Human Emperor Guards opened the chest, revealing the gold inside. It was shiny and neatly stacked. Under the sunlight, it was very eye-catching.

"Two thousand gold taels, one tael is not a small amount."

He gestured for the Human Emperor Guard to close the box and asked, "Where?"

"Put it in the main hall first."

The eight Human Emperor Guards carried the box and walked towards the hall.

Eunuch Xiao winked at him, signaling for him to follow. The two of them stopped in a corner. There were no outsiders around, so they spoke casually. "Eunuch Wei asked me to pass you a message. Read more books when you have nothing to do."

Zhang Ronghua understood that this was to remind him not to forget about creating a cultivation technique. "Please tell Eunuch Wei that Qinglin has loved reading since she was young."

The official business was over.

"How's your recovery?" Eunuch Xiao asked with concern. "Let Grandpa Xiao take care of it, and it's basically recovered."

"Your status is getting higher and higher. Although your cultivation is extraordinary and you're at Zongshi realm tier 7, it's better to be safe than sorry. Some people are desperate and will do anything.. If something happens, even if the murderer is killed later, it won't help!"

Chapter 532: Zhang Ronghua's Promotion

"I know!"

In the main hall.

Lu Junxiu and the others were called in. The four chests were opened and placed in front of them. At a close distance, they felt the visual impact of the gold. No matter how strong their restraint was, they could not help but look over when faced with the temptation.

Each chest contained five hundred taels of gold, which added up to two thousand taels of gold.

Zhang Ronghua pointed at a chest.” Divide the gold in this chest among yourselves. Each of you will get eighty taels.””

The five of them were stunned.

Lu Junxiu reacted very quickly and hurriedly refused.”Sir, you can’t do that! This is a gift from His Majesty...”

Zhang Ronghua waved his hand to interrupt him.” You don’t have any other business outside. You only rely on your salary. Although it’s enough to maintain the expenses of the residence, it’s inevitable that you’ll be short of money. If he stretched out his hand and was discovered by others, he would not be able to eat his pocket and leave if he was stabbed to the Imperial

“This, this...

Zhang Ronghua took out an empty Sumeru Bag and threw it to Cao Hang. ””“This is a reward for you.”

Cao Hang received it excitedly. With the Sumeru Pouch, it would be much more convenient for him to do things in the future. He hurriedly thanked him,”Thank you for your reward, sir!”

He took a step forward and kept the box. He would divide it when it was time.

After they left, the door closed.

Zhang Ronghua pointed at a box.”

Ding Yi didn't stand on ceremony. Although he didn't lack money, this was his brother's kind intention. He had to accept it and put the box into his Sumeru Pouch.

He waved his sleeves.

Zhang Ronghua put the remaining two boxes into the Five Dragons Spirit Controlling Belt and looked at Ding Yi. After this period of cultivation and the help of sufficient spiritual herbs, Ding Yi's cultivation had already advanced to the ninth level of the Postnatal realm. His foundation was very solid. Under the nourishment of the Nirvana Supreme Life Technique, his meridians were thick and strong. His body and soul had also become stronger, and his lifespan had also increased a little.

She took out the remaining bottle of Hundred Spirit Pills and threw it over. She introduced it to his puzzled gaze, "This is a Heaven Rank low-grade Hundred Spirit Pill."

Ding Yi accepted it with a smile and didn't ask further. "Thank you, brother!"

"Don't waste wasting time."

Zhang Ronghua got up from his chair and went into the inner room. He sat on the carpet and cultivated the Phoenix Divine Fire. He wanted to raise this divine power to the sixth revolution as soon as possible. By then, its power would become even stronger. The Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets.

In the office hall.

The two pairs of small eyes looked at each other. There was no emotion in each other's eyes. They were as cold as ice.

After a while.

He Wenxuan couldn't hold it in any longer. The anger that he had suppressed in his heart over the past few days exploded. He said unwillingly, "Why? He rose to the fourth grade!"

Bang!

Grand Elder Cui grabbed the teacup and smashed it on the floor angrily. The tea spilled onto the expensive carpet and he said angrily, “This old man is also unwilling!”

He said again.

Originally, we could have suppressed his promotion speed, but His Majesty has already calculated everyone. If we don't agree, he will be transferred to the army and become the Right General of Sky Bearing. That way, even though there is no direct relationship, he will still be involved in the conflicts between the factions. At the same time, he would offend most of the factions.”

He Wenxuan knew that the First Prince and the others would hate them if Zhang Ronghua was transferred to the army because of them. A single prince wasn't a threat, and with their power, they wouldn't be a threat. However, if all the princes worked together, even with Grand Secretary Cui's protection, their lives would be difficult.

He was still unconvinced! It was also very aggrieved! They were the ones who proposed to write the biography of the Celestial Emperor. Not only did they lose people, but they also helped their political enemies get promoted and increase the arrogance of their enemies. However, they and the others were reduced to a joke in the imperial court.

Even a department directly under the Scholar's Hall was controlled by Zhang Ronghua's people. Grand Secretary Zeng had also taken advantage of the situation this time. He had transferred one of his men to the Scholar Hall and made him one of the managers.

In this way, in the end, everyone had benefited from the battle. Only they had worked hard for nothing and lost their men.

“Is Minister Fu really unrelated to the palace?”

Minister Fu's full name was Fu Kun, Minister of Works.

“This old man doesn’t have any concrete information that can prove that he has joined the palace.”

He Wenxuan understood that even though there was no written rule to enter the Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets, there was a tacit rule. Only those with a clean identity and no connection to the palace would be qualified to be selected. Once they had connections with the palace, no matter how capable they were, they would be unable to advance further and become one of the most powerful people in the Great Xia Dynasty.

Pei Caihua is better than Fu Kun, who belongs to the younger generation. Although he is a minister of the Ministry of Industry, he is a low official. He is not qualified enough. He still has to wait for two or three years before he can run for office.

“Why don’t I make a trip there after I’m off duty?” he asked tentatively.”

Cui Ge Lao didn’t speak, he stretched out two fingers and knocked on the table, making a “dong dong” sound. His thoughts spun, he quickly thought about the pros and cons, and finally shook his head. “The situation isn’t clear, don’t act rashly!”

Knowing that He Wenxuan was not willing to accept it, she patiently comforted him.

“Fu Kun is a local tyrant, and Zhang Ronghua is a dragon who has crossed the river. When the biography of the Heavenly Emperor is written and spread to the lower levels, his reputation will soar and he will be in the limelight. He is in high spirits and can cause so many things in the Scholar Hall. Do you think he will stop when he reaches the Ministry of Works? Even if he was willing, would Fu Kun agree? After he went to the Ministry of Personnel Affairs to complete the transfer procedures tomorrow and went on duty, the eyes of the court would be focused on the Ministry of Works to watch them fight..”

Chapter 533: Zhang Ronghua’s Promotion

He Wenxuan understood immediately. He didn’t expect that his anger would cloud his rationality and he would forget about this. After he understood, he sneered and gloated, “If Zhang Ronghua loses, not only will he lose face, but Pei Caihua and the Crown Prince will also lose face. As the minister of the Ministry of Works, Fu Kun would definitely take revenge at all costs. At that time, the show would become more and more exciting.”

Stroking his beard, Grand Elder Cui smiled proudly and added, “It’s not just this! If Zhang Ronghua won, it would be a good opportunity to test Fu Kun’s strength. Knowing yourself and knowing your enemy, you will win every battle. Since you can’t win him over, you might face him one day. There’s no harm in making preparations in advance.”

“Understood ! ”

I’ve already spoken to Grand Secretary Zeng,” Grand Secretary Cui said.” After he leaves the Hall of Scholars, he’ll support someone to work with Li Yiming to take over Lu Junxiu and the others.”

“Yes, sir!” He Wenxuan’s eyes flashed with excitement as he clenched his fists tightly.

“You may leave!”

He Wenxuan got up from his chair and didn’t leave immediately. He picked up another teacup and poured himself a cup of tea. He placed it in front of Grand Elder Cui and swept the broken teacup on the floor with his broom before bowing and leaving.

He took a sip of tea.

“Although his abilities are a little lacking, he knows how to be grateful. It’s not in vain that I spent so much effort to nurture him!” Elder Cui Ge said.

In the afternoon, when it was time to go on duty, the people from the Ministry of Personnel brought Li Yiming over. He was a doctor. He could not give face to others, but he had to give face to the Ministry of Personnel. Zhang Ronghua brought Ding Yi and the others to welcome them in the courtyard. After some small talk, the doctor from the Ministry of Personnel left. Li Yiming put down his pride and bowed.”Greetings, Milord!”

You don’t hit a smiling face.

"Yes," Zhang Ronghua replied. He brought Lu Junxiu along with him to carry out the handover. Lu Junxiu had already made arrangements. Bringing him over was just a formality.

After a while.

He returned to the office hall.

Ding Yi's expression was serious as he said in all seriousness, "Judging from his appearance, he looks like a smiling tiger. I wonder if Lu Junxiu and the others can handle him with Grand Secretary Zeng's help."

"Not only that!"

Ding Yi reacted quickly."

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua nodded.

"Such an important department specializes in nurturing talents and increasing qualifications. It's impossible not to have it in our hands."

"Brother, what do you plan to do?"

Zhang Ronghua was calm and composed. He sat on the fishing platform and casually took a sip of tea. He put down the teacup and said calmly, "The eagles can only see the rainbow after experiencing the wind and rain! The opportunity had already been given. Whether or not it could be of great use would depend on their abilities."

Ding Yi pondered for a moment and then said, "Be it Lu Junxiu or Jin Yaoguang, the three of them have been in the officialdom for so many years. Especially the latter, he has rich experience. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to sit firmly in the position of Chancellor of the Imperial College. The four of them should be able to block it if they work together."

Zhang Ronghua smiled. Otherwise, why would he spend so much effort to arrange for Jin Yaoguang and the other two to join the writing team of the Legend of the Heavenly Emperor? It was all to help Lu Junxiu control the Scholar Hall.

The result would depend on their performance.

“Do you know anyone from the Supreme Court?”

“How can you send a message without anyone knowing?”

“This works!”

Zhang Ronghua’s eyes flashed with a cold light as he said coldly, “Send a message to Cheng Zhijie. Someone wants to use the opportunity of the birth of the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny to silence the demons!”

Ding Yi understood that this was to force Cheng Zhijie to bite out some people.

He said seriously, “Don’t worry, I’ll do it! We won’t leave any clues behind.”

Thinking of what had happened a few times before, he stretched out his hand and pointed in the direction of the Tranquil Heart Palace. “Don’t tell me they’re looking for you again?”

Zhang Ronghua rubbed his head with a headache. He thought of this pair of sisters. They were clearly powerful, but they were still not satisfied. They even wanted to rope him in. He said uncertainly, “That’s possible!”

“Why don’t we go down now?”

“You can hide for a while, but you can’t hide forever. What if you can hide today, tomorrow, and the day after tomorrow?”

"I still don't understand!" Ding Yi was puzzled. They were all from the same faction, so why did they do this?"

Zhang Ronghua warned sternly, "Keep these words in your heart and never say them out loud!"

In the bedroom of the Tranquil Heart Palace.

A huge phoenix bed was hung with a silk curtain that was as thin as a cicada's wing. It had been dyed and changed to a pink color. It fell from the ceiling like a fairy scattering flowers to cover the phoenix bed, adding interest and setting off the atmosphere. The curtain at the front was separated and tied up by a golden ribbon.

The Empress was like a wild cat, lazily lying on her side. Her left arm supported her left face, her left leg was straight, and her right leg was bent, casually pressing on top of her left leg. Her jade-like feet swayed and rubbed against each other. Her sexy and delicate little feet kicked around in the air. Her toenails were painted with gorgeous rose-red nail polish. Her toenails were very long, fragrant, and delicate, provoking the most primitive desires of people.

Moving up her feet, her smooth and delicate skin was slightly flushed, as if she had just had a massage. It was soft and delicate, and only a moon-white chiffon was draped over it. It was really thin, as if air did not exist at all. It was as if it was not used to cover the spring, but to accentuate her charm.

Her long, curved eyelashes were adorned with some crystals that looked like crystal beads or eye cream. Her red lips were red and alluring. The lipstick was applied very thickly, making her look very red. Not only did it not feel out of place, but it also made people want to taste her red lips.

Her slender, white, and soft hands picked up a black grape and threw it into her mouth. Her pink, soft tongue licked her lips.. "Did you get promoted again?"

Chapter 534 - 534: The Empress's Plan

Su Qitang reached out her hand and pinched a black grape between her slender fingers, preparing to throw it into her mouth. She then placed the black grape in her mouth and bit it with her teeth. The grape was tender and juicy, and it carried a rich spiritual energy. She spun it around and spat out the grape skin, which fell accurately into the trash can.

She raised her eyebrows and rolled her eyes. "What else?"

Reaching out with her jade-like hand, she took out a ginseng fruit from the fruit plate. She then picked up the fruit knife at the side and pressed her thumb on the knife's surface. She began to peel the fruit, and the skin peeled off in circles. In a dozen breaths, she was done. She handed the ginseng fruit over. The empress lazily reached out to take it. Her red lips opened, revealing her bright teeth. She took a small bite and a large amount of water splashed out. It was very sweet and moist. Her delicate eyebrows were tightly knitted together. 'Who is Your Majesty testing?

Their eyes met!

The atmosphere was heavy and oppressive. The powerful aura made it difficult for people to breathe.

After a while.

Su Qitang said seriously and even stopped what she was doing. "" Or perhaps, you've all been '

"No!" The Empress shook her head.

Her soft and beautiful hair swayed and fell down a little, covering her beautiful face a little. She reached out her jade-like hand and tucked her hair behind her ear. "I'm not referring to this!" Su Qitang reacted quickly and said what was on her mind, ""Zhang Ronghua!"

"Yes." The Empress nodded.

If it wasn't for the fact that he was the Right General of the Sky Bearing Empire, the Left Assistant Minister of the Ministry of Official Personnel Affairs would have suggested that Zhang Ronghua take over Wu Yangjian's position. It would have been impossible for him to be promoted and take over the Spirit Research Department!

There was no need to talk about Grand Secretary Cui's faction. The greater the potential of the enemy and the higher his position, the greater the threat to them. There was also the First Prince and the other factions. Although there was no conflict of interest at the moment, as time went by, it would be inevitable!

The higher they rose, the more they would step on the corpses of others. Even if they didn't make a move, when the ability they displayed threatened others, they would think of ways to get rid of them and stabilize their position.

The moment the Left Assistant Minister of the Ministry of Official Personnel Affairs finished speaking, the civil and military officials would jump out to stop him, unless His Majesty personally gave the order! If it was, Wei Shang would have taken out the imperial edict and read it out at the beginning of the court session, instead of going through the routine.

However, with the presence of the Right General, the officials had no choice but to choose between the former and the latter. If they chose the former, Zhang Ronghua would indeed be kicked out of the civil service, but with his abilities, he would benefit even more. Once he gained a firm foothold, he would pose a huge threat to the court and other parties.

At the same time, they would have to offend all the princes and the forces behind them. They would only suffer more losses.

Prerequisite.

Zhang Ronghua was highly regarded by Emperor Xia, which was why he had appeared in the morning court.

Su Qitang probed, "Is there something we don't know?"

The Empress's face sank, and like the might of the heavens, a huge aura exploded out of nowhere. Cold light flickered in her red phoenix eyes, and the surrounding temperature dropped to freezing point. "I have a feeling that figuring this out will benefit us greatly!" He changed the topic and gave a death order.

“Investigate at all costs!”

“I know!” Su Qiutang knew the seriousness of the matter.

He asked again.

“What about Zhang Ronghua?”

Speaking of this, the Empress also had a headache. It was fine if it was just Zhang Ronghua, they didn’t take it to heart, but he actually got together with Yang Hongling. For him, Yang Hongling injured Shi Xueyuan and even said that this was the last time. If he used the honey trap again, he would let the old master enter the palace!

Although Yang Hongling was a Heaven’s Favorite and did not pose much of a threat, the old teacher was different. They were also afraid of him.

She stretched out her jade-like hands and rubbed her temples. This matter was tricky, but she had no choice.

Zhang Ronghua was already a Rank-4. He had cultivated his own force by writing the biography of the Heavenly Emperor. He was the leader, and Ding Yi, Lu Junxiu, and the others were the assistants. This included Cao Xing and a small lieutenant. They did not take him seriously, but this lieutenant was a lieutenant of the Golden Scale Mysterious Heaven Army. He was very useful at a critical time, so they had to pay attention to him.

After tomorrow.

Zhang Ronghua went to court once again. There were two more people in his faction. If something really happened, with Ding Yi and Lu Junxiu’s personalities, even if they knew it was wrong, they would still charge forward without hesitation. Including him, there were three people in total! In the huge court, although this number of people was not enough, they were still showing their talents. As time passed, his official position rose again, and he nurtured more people. He would have a decisive position in the court, forming a faction that could carry the sky.

If he did not rope them in now, it would be too late to do so when the time came.

"Phew!" The Empress sighed and said helplessly.

"Let's change the method! The honey trap will stop here. We'll start from the root and take two measures. Order someone to find a courtyard beside Zhang Ronghua's mansion so that Shi Xueyuan can win Zheng Rou and the others' favor. Then, we'll use his parents' hands to matchmake the two of them. At that time, we'll let Shi Xueyuan have a good time. Even if he can stop it temporarily, he won't be able to stop it for a lifetime. In the long run, he'll definitely become one of us!"

"What about the other type?" Su Qiutang asked."

"If Shimin is willing to spend so much money to win him over with spirit treasures, cultivation resources, and mansions, why can't we?"

"Giggle Su Qiutang laughed mockingly.

Her bell-like laughter echoed in the hall. It was light and pleasing to the ear. Her chest trembled so hard that it almost tore her dress.

"Sis! Shimin is your biological son. The heavens have already been angered by you once. Aren't you afraid of what will happen if you anger him again?"

The Empress glared at her and poked her forehead with a finger." "Don't hide your mouth!"

Looking at the pair of sexy and charming feet in front of her, perfect and flawless, like a work of art made by nature, Su Qiutang couldn't help but caress them. She reached out and held her right foot. Her soft five fingers gently stroked her toes as if they were electrocuted, and then slid over her toenails. She praised, "So beautiful!" "Don't tickle me!"

It reached the lower value.

Zhang Ronghua ended his cultivation and stood up. He walked outside. Ding Yi had also finished his cultivation. He opened his eyes and hurriedly stood up. He smiled happily. "Brother, he didn't come!"

"He's already here."

"Where is he?"

Looking at the door, Ding Yi quickly walked over and opened the door.. In his line of sight, a palace maid walked over...

Chapter 535 - 535: Battle! Battle! Battle!(First Time Going Back On His Word)

Looking back, Ding Yi's face revealed a helpless expression. Seeing her come over, he made way for her and stood at the side. Cai 'er closed the door, as if she hadn't seen him, and walked to Zhang Ronghua, bowing and saying, "Manager Zhang has made great contributions in writing the biography of the Heavenly Emperor. Under the orders of the Empress, I will send you a batch of spiritual fruits!"

She patted the pouch on her waist and took out some spirit fruits. She placed them on the table. There were ginseng fruits, black grapes, pineapples, and many others. There was also a golden jade box with a spirit sealing talisman attached to it.

Pointing at the golden jade box, Cai 'er introduced, "This is spirit tea, bitter bodhi tea. There are five taels in total."

Ding Yi was stunned. He had thought that Su Qitang had ordered her to come over to ask for his brother. He did not expect that it would become a spiritual item and that she would spend so much money. She even took out the spiritual tea and bitter bodhi tea. He was shocked and confused. What exactly did they want?

He pondered for a moment.

This time, Zhang Ronghua didn't reject the request. He wanted to reject but he couldn't. He cupped his hands in the direction of the Tranquil Heart Palace."Thank you for your reward, Empress!" Cai 'er took her leave, turning to leave.

They were the only ones left in the hall.

Looking at the spiritual fruits on the table and the spiritual tea, Ding Yi said seriously,""Now I'm sure that their scheme is very big."

Zhang Ronghua seriously said, "Do your job well.""

With a wave of his right hand, he put away all these things, leaving only the spiritual tea and bitter bodhi tea. He took off the talisman and opened the box, revealing a golden tea pot. It was exquisite and beautiful, and there was a picture of mountains and rivers carved on it. He took out one tael of spiritual tea and bitter bodhi tea, put it in an empty tea box, and threw it over."Catch."

"Thank you, brother!"

Zhang Ronghua put away the remaining spiritual tea and said,""Let's go!"

After leaving the Scholar Hall, the two of them walked towards the Vermilion Bird Gate.

At this point.

There was a four-wheeled carriage parked at the entrance. Four top-notch Divine Heavenly Dragon Horses appeared with spiritual light. They were sacred and righteous, making people feel warm from the bottom of their hearts. The carriage was made of thousand-year-old purple wood, which was magnificent and luxurious. It was engraved with exquisite patterns. On both sides of the carriage was engraved the word "Zhang", representing his identity.

Eunuch Yang was standing guard with two eunuchs. When he saw them, he smiled and greeted them. He cupped his hands and introduced them, "This is the Tianji Chariot, the name His Majesty personally gave it."

"Thank you for your concern, Your Majesty!" Zhang Ronghua returned the gesture. "

"Sir Zhang, you may wish to go in and take a look.""

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua nodded.

Stepping onto the carriage, he lifted the curtain and looked at the interior. He sighed at the Emperor's generosity. The layout was similar to the Time Carriage, but it was more luxurious. The body of the carriage was surrounded by feathers woven from phoenix wings and fused with the body of the carriage. There were soft cushions and passenger seats on both sides. There was a blanket made of phoenix wings. The low table was made of thousand-year-old purple wood and a set of glazed tea utensils. It was high-end and grand. The overall quality was higher than the interior of the Time Carriage.

He put down the curtain and jumped down from the carriage."Tell Your Majesty that in my new position, I will work hard and study hard to live up to

Your Majesty's kindness!" "I'll definitely bring it back intact," Eunuch Yang said."

He waited for them to leave.

"Brother, does the name of the carriage have a special meaning?" Ding Yi walked over."

"What do you think?" Zhang Ronghua asked.

Tianji, Tianji. It was His Majesty who had personally named it. Emperor Xia was telling him that if things were done well, the Pavilion of Tianji would definitely have a place in the future!

Ding Yi thought it through and was happy in his heart, but he did not say it out loud. There were many people around him, so he scratched the back of his head and asked, "Brother, if Uncle Shi isn't here, who will drive your carriage?" Zhang Ronghua smiled and said, "You go over first."

"Alright!"

Ding Yi boarded the Changping carriage and left.

No one was driving the carriage? He wasn't?

Leaping up, he sat on the carriage. He held the reins and shook them violently. He struck out a huge force on the four Divine Heavenly Dragon Horses. His buttocks hurt, and the Heaven Fate Carriage drove forward.

It was Zhang Ronghua's first time driving a carriage. He thought of his current status as a fourth-rank official, a doctor of the Ministry of Works, and in charge of the Spirit Research Department. Who was qualified to let him be the coachman? Just thinking about it was interesting.

After a while.

The Heaven Secrets Carriage stopped at the entrance of the Eastern Palace. The Sima in the lead saw that Daren was personally driving the carriage. With Daren's current status, who was qualified to let him be the coachman? His Highness had already returned. Could it be that he was an important figure in the palace?

At the thought of this, he quickly came forward. When the Tianji carriage stopped, he moved the small stool down and placed it on the ground. He bent his body and held Zhang Ronghua's arm. He stretched his neck and looked at the carriage.

"What are you looking at?" asked Zhang Ronghua."

“Sir, are you alone?” Sima was puzzled.”

Zhang Ronghua smiled. He had guessed it when he came, but he didn’t expect it to happen. He nodded and continued, “His Majesty just bestowed it with the Heaven Fate Chariot. The steward didn’t come.”

“Daren will always be Daren. No matter where you are, you are like the sun in the sky, emitting a scorching light!”

“Your Highness is inside?”

“Qing ‘Er has instructed that you can enter directly after you arrive.”

“Yes.” Zhang Ronghua responded and entered the Eastern Palace, heading towards the rear hall.

Along the way, he didn’t see Zheng Fugui. It seemed like he had already gone over. From Ding Yi, Xiao Mi was very assured to be with him. Even if it was going to Heavenly Earth, Xiao Mi would immediately approve it. There was no time limit, but there was a condition. When Cousin left, he had to leave with him..

Chapter 536: Battle! Battle! Battle! The First Concealment

They arrived at Xuanhe Hall.

Shuang ‘er stood at the door and smiled gently. There was shyness hidden in the depths of her beautiful eyes, but she quickly regained her composure. She took a step forward and greeted him with a smile.”Coming!”

“Shuang ‘er has become more and more beautiful after not seeing you for a while, ” praised Zhang Ronghua.”

Shuang 'er's heart felt warm and she wanted to blurt out. If I went to your residence, would you accept me?

The time had not come yet. He would wait for the Crown Prince's arrangements and His Highness's arrangements before seeing his reaction.

"His Highness is waiting for you. ""

After Zhang Ronghua entered the hall, he followed him in and closed the door.

"Greetings, Your Highness!" Zhang Ronghua bowed."

The Crown Prince was in a good mood today. Zhang Ronghua had been promoted and was transferred to the Ministry of Works 'real power department to take charge of the Spirit Research Department. Even his people had taken a step forward. On the surface, his influence in the court was even greater. From the end of the court meeting, he was feeling very happy. He pointed to the chair beside him and said,"Sit!"

"Thank you, Your Highness!"

Zhang Ronghua walked over and sat on the first seat on the left. He quickly observed him from the corner of his eye. His sword-like eyebrows were relaxed, and his facial expression was relaxed. There was a smile in the corner of his eyes. He seemed to be quite happy.

Shuang 'er served tea and placed the teacup beside him. She also placed down the four plates of freshly made pastries. She tactfully retreated behind the crown prince and stood with Qing' er.

The Crown Prince smiled and introduced," This is the Spirit Tea, Bitter Bodhi

Tea. It's a gift from Mother. Try it!""

Zhang Ronghua held the teacup and pressed the lid. When the tea was slightly cold, he took a sip and put the teacup down. He said seriously, 'Good tea!'

In his heart, he cursed that there were still four taels in the Five Dragons Spirit Taming Belt.

Pa! Pa!

The Crown Prince stretched out his palms and clapped them. Shuang 'er went out, and when she returned, she was holding a golden jade box in her hand. It was also golden in color, and its packaging and appearance were exactly the same as the one Cai' er had given him.

"I'm not interested in tea leaves. There are five taels of spirit tea and bitter bodhi tea inside."

"Thank you, Your Highness!"

He put it into the Five Dragons Spirit Controlling Belt.

He stopped smiling.

The Crown Prince said seriously, "The Ministry of Works is not like the Scholar's Hall. The situation is more complicated and there are many factions. The Minister of Works, Fu Kun, is the backbone of the young faction. He is a tough person and will not go back on his word. When you get there, do your own thing well. If you can avoid making enemies with him, try not to make enemies with him. If you really offend him, don't be afraid! Don't worry and do it boldly. I will always be your strong backing."

"I understand.

"Do you still remember what I said to you the day before you went to the Scholar's Hall?"

"I remember! You said that as long as I didn't make a mistake, I would take responsibility even if I had to pierce the sky."

The Crown Prince smiled and his expression softened. He stood up from his chair and walked over. Seeing this, Zhang Ronghua also stood up. The Crown Prince stopped in front of him and stretched out his hand to tidy up his collar. He then patted his chest twice to sweep away the dust on it. "I believe you! No matter how deep the water in the Ministry of Works is, it can't trap you. It was as if he had created a world in the Scholar's Hall."

"I will not disappoint you!"

He pondered for a moment.

"Who is Wu Yangjian's subordinate?" Zhang Ronghua asked."

The Crown Prince was puzzled. Why did he suddenly ask about him? Could it be related to the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse? It shouldn't be! Zhang Ronghua had been recuperating for the past few days. Even if he wanted to go out, his body did not allow it! Moreover, Wu Yangjian had died at the hands of the beast, and even the people he had sent out were on the verge of death. He did not think too much about it and said, "This person's ability isn't bad, he climbed up with his own abilities."

Zhang Ronghua didn't believe it. How could a single Wu Yangjian nurture so many men of sacrifice? Refining six more boxes of Black Demon Beads? Even if he was a doctor of the Ministry of Works, he would not be able to steal the materials with the help of his position. There was also Chen Jianyi of the True Dragon Palace. These few clues all pointed to the fact that there was a huge force behind Wu Yangjian, but it was hidden very well and had been hidden from many people. It seemed that his guess was correct. The Saber Emperor was indeed a big shot in the imperial court! He nodded without batting an eyelid.

Now, he had to look at Lu Zhantang, hoping to find some useful clues.

The Crown Prince beckoned for him to follow.

With doubts, they followed behind and left through the back door. After a while, they sat on the roof and looked at the sky. Night fell, like a dog devouring the sunset. Under its devouring, it gradually became dark.

The Crown Prince sighed.” The last time I sat in the palace and enjoyed the night view was in the palace. At that time, I only felt that the night view was very beautiful and peaceful.”

It was already the beginning of the month. There were more stars in the night sky, and even the moonlight was a little brighter. The night wind blew, and her hair swayed. Her clothes rustled. At a glance, the lights of thousands of houses were indeed relaxing.

Zhang Ronghua felt the same way.” No matter how beautiful the night is, it is also a moment of beauty. What really makes people quiet is not the night view, but themselves!”

“When I was on duty in the Eastern Palace, why didn’t I notice that you were so talented?”

“Isn’t there you? My duty is to protect the Eastern Palace. All I do is fight and kill. I have nothing to do with literary talent.”

“Sly!” The Crown Prince rolled his eyes in annoyance. “Make a poem!”

“I’m untalented and inexperienced. Forget it!”

Seeing the Crown Prince staring at him, Zhang Ronghua knew that he couldn’t hide. How could he register the books in the Scholar’s Hall? To be able to write the Legend of the Celestial Emperor? And even made the ministers submit?

After thinking for a moment, he said seriously, “The four sides of the city are lit up with lights, and the galaxy is shining on the world!”

The Crown Prince thought for a moment and understood the meaning behind it.. He smiled and teased,””Is this what you mean by lacking talent and learning?

Chapter 537: Battle! Battle! Battle!(No.1, go back on your word (3)

Zhang Ronghua smiled.

“You’re like a sponge. You can squeeze out a little bit of water when you force it, and you can squeeze out more when you force it again.”

After a pause, the Crown Prince said in a joking tone, “I am very curious. If I force you to a dead end, what kind of potential will you unleash?”

Zhang Ronghua smiled bitterly. “Don’t tease me. Compared to you, I’m far from capable.”

“Do you believe me?”

Qing ‘er and Shuang’ er answered in unison, ““This servant doesn’t believe it!”

“Did you see that?” the Crown Prince asked with a smile. If they don’t believe me, how can I believe you?”

Zhang Ronghua didn’t reply and pretended not to hear him.

“I heard that your painting skills are not bad. How about you help me make one?”

“Yes!”

Qing ‘er jumped down from the roof. When she came back, she held the Four Treasures of the Study in her hands. She laid out the drawing paper and stopped beside Zhang Ronghua to grind the ink. Shuang’ er handed her a pen.

Zhang Ronghua looked at the Crown Prince as he sat on the roof and looked up at the sky. He was quite casual and had the temperament of an emperor. He was surrounded by a huge aura that could not be ignored.

The dark night could not block his vision. He dipped the tip of his pen into the ink and started drawing.

The painting skill of the sixth realm skill, Near Dao, was too powerful. As the tip of the pen danced, the painting paper was dyed black, and a painting containing a profound intent was gradually produced.

The night sky and the lights of thousands of houses set off the Crown Prince's nobility and loneliness. He was also strong and fearless of the wind and rain. No matter what was in front of him, he would break through the violence, clear the clouds, and see the light.

He took back the brush and handed it to Shuang 'er. He picked up the painting and waved his right hand. The Black Yellow True Essence was converted into Black Yellow Internal Strength and swept across the painting. The ink dried up and the painting was formed. He did not have to worry about accidentally staining the ink and destroying this beautiful painting.

He took a step forward and stopped beside the crown prince, handing the painting over.

The Crown Prince smiled in satisfaction after taking a look. He stretched out his palm and pointed at the lower right corner."Sign it!"

"There's no need, right?"

Seeing his insistence, Zhang Ronghua was helpless. He took the pen from Shuang 'er's hand and was about to write the words' Zhang Ronghua 'when the crown prince's voice sounded again,""Written by Qing Lin!"

With a wave of the brush, he left three words,"Written by Qinglin", and handed the painting over.

He took the painting.

The Crown Prince was very satisfied.” Good painting, and even better calligraphy. I didn’t expect your painting and calligraphy skills to have reached the sixth realm, the Dao of Nearness.”“

After looking at it for a while, he passed the painting to Shuang ‘er and instructed,””Mount it well!”

“Yes, sir!”

With his hands behind his back, the Crown Prince looked at the lights of the ten thousand houses. His arrogance soared to the sky, and he carried with him powerful self-confidence and the tenacity to not admit defeat. “I believe that darkness is temporary and cannot cover the sky!”

“No matter what the road ahead is, I will accompany you. ”“

“When I came back from the palace in the afternoon, I had a talk with Chang

‘an. I added more responsibilities to him and appointed him as a general of the Eastern Palace’s Rong Guards, a rank five official position!”

“Chang ‘an will not let you down. We will definitely do a good job in defending the Eastern Palace.”

The Crown Prince smiled. When talking to a smart person, one would be able to see through it with just a little bit. There was no need to say too much.

“Meeting Chen Youcai and the others?”

“If I don’t treat you, I’ll be scolded to death later.”

“Beijing has been a little chaotic recently. Don’t stay up too late.”

“Yes, sir!”

The Crown Prince waved his hand, and Zhang Ronghua cupped his hands in farewell. He leaped off the roof and walked out.

She stood on the roof and waited for him to disappear.

The smile on the Crown Prince’s face disappeared. His voice was very cold. “Has the Ziwei Dragon King recovered from his injuries?” “It’s already done,” replied the Green Girl.

“They are both humans, but why is the difference so huge?”

The two of them couldn’t accept it. It made sense. His Highness had previously instructed Zhang Ronghua to do something. No matter what it was, as long as he appeared, it would be as easy as playing. When he returned, the matter would definitely be completed.

Without comparison, there would be no harm. Ma Ping ‘an was a good-for-nothing, and so was the Ziwei Dragon King. He had lost more than half of his life and did not even know how he was still alive.

However, it was impossible for Zhang Ronghua to come forward!

A rank four official, assistant minister of the Ministry of Works, in charge of the Spirit Research Department. If the Crown Prince dared to do such a thing, those censors would either curse him to death or disgust him to death!

After a while.

The Crown Prince’s cold voice sounded again. “If I can’t get it, no one else can!

They could not fall into the hands of any faction in the capital, especially them. Pass down the order to let Huo Tiangang take action! He told them that if they failed again this time, they would find a place to bury themselves!”

He left the Eastern Palace.

Zhang Ronghua drove the Tianji carriage to the Pei residence. After staying for a while, Pei Caicai told him to be careful when he arrived at the Ministry of Works. If someone wanted to find trouble with him, he should not be afraid. If the other party wanted to make things difficult for him, he should hit back. At this point, if he wanted to rise up, he had to be firm and not compromise easily. If he had to fight, he should fight. If he did not fight, he should admit defeat. In the eyes of the higher-ups, no matter how powerful he was, he would not be of much use. He also did not have to worry about things getting out of hand and causing trouble in the court. They would fight as they should.

Zhang Ronghua thanked him and left behind a tael of spiritual tea and bitter bodhi tea. He left with the butler and drove towards Heavenly Earth.

West City.

The Time Treasure Hunting Mouse had been having a hard time recently. Last time at Wu Yangjian's mansion, it was almost caught by the black cat and almost died in the aftermath of the explosion of the Black Demon Bead. Although it had dug a hole to escape, it had been affected by the shockwave and suffered more injuries. West City did not dare to stay any longer. It wanted to leave this dangerous place and hide in South City for a period of time..

Chapter 538: Battle! Battle! Battle!(First Time Going Back On His Word)

I thought that under the torrential rain, the people chasing him would be less, the days of rats were better than a little, on the contrary, under the cover of the torrential rain, this gang of bastards were even more unscrupulous, the people chasing him doubled, even doubled, there were some soul masters among them, regardless of the consumption, frantically using soul power, searching under the ground, digging three feet under the ground, trying to find it. He didn't dare to stop! They didn't dare to stay in one place. Once they stopped, even if they had the light breath of the three realms to conceal their aura. as the enemy became stronger and stronger, the methods they used would become more and more terrifying. They would be found in a short while.

In addition to the people from the imperial court, the Scarlet Heaven Palace and the True Dragon Palace, there were even more powerful people. They covered their faces and only showed their eyes. This group of people was even more ruthless. Although they had fewer people, their methods were too powerful.

When the forces chasing him met the people of the Imperial Court, they were like mice meeting a cat. They hid as far away as possible and waited for them to leave before looking for him.

As for the rat, it had to face everyone and silently shoulder everything. This exhausted it. Its injuries had not yet recovered, so it did not dare to casually show its head. It also did not dare to have any ideas about the medicinal pills in the shops or the spirit medicines in the noble houses. Some had set up an inescapable net. As long as it showed its face, it was waiting to catch the rat.

Even if they didn't set up an ambush, once the pills were stolen, they would report it immediately. Then, the people of the imperial court would seal off the area and catch the rats.

Facing their encirclement, the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse even used its strength to eat women. Its life was on the line countless times, and not only did its injuries not recover, they worsened, making it escape even more happily.

Not long after, the thing that worried Rat the most happened. That damned black cat was chasing after him again. With its powerful sense of smell and True Spirit bloodline, even if it cultivated its second innate divine ability, Light Breath, to the perfection of the third realm, it still could not hide from the black cat's nose. In terms of speed, Rat realized that he was only slightly better than it. The black cat was actually wearing Numinous Treasure shoes and was also proficient in speed-type divine abilities. With the combination of the two and the cultivation of a martial grandmaster, it chased after it. Fortunately, the time divine ability was strong. Only then did he manage to shake off the black cat with much difficulty.

The alley was as dark as ink, and one could not even see one's fingers. It was so dark that it was terrifying. Waves of whistling sounds could be heard, making people feel nervous and afraid from the bottom of their hearts.

A hundred steps away from him, there was a tall pavilion. It was brightly lit, and a group of guards stood at the door. People came and went, entering and leaving expectantly, leaving in a refreshed manner, as if they were sages who had no desires.

Standing outside, one could see two people or even many people hugging and chewing through the reflection of the window. The laughter and laughter could be heard from far away.

At this moment.

In a corner of the alley, the ground was shattered by a sharp claw. A black and white rat emerged from the ground. The spiritual light on its body was completely retracted. If it didn't, it wouldn't even know how it died. As soon as it appeared, its injuries exploded. It opened its mouth and spat out an arrow of blood. Its limbs went limp and it staggered to the ground.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Rat shouted angrily, "'Buzz..."

He was cursing at the damned black cat! The rat and you are enemies.

He looked at the pavilion opposite him with his small eyes. He could still see it clearly even though he was a hundred steps away. The plaque on the door said 'Gilded Han.' Those who didn't know better would think that this was an academy that taught and nurtured the next generation of the dynasty. In fact, it was a brothel. Although it couldn't be compared to Heavenly Earth and the Education Department, it was very famous in the West City. It was beautiful, lived well, and was well-liked by customers. There were many repeat customers. After walking around, he decided to hide there and pass the night.

Just as it was about to move, the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse instinctively felt danger. It turned around and saw a black cat, like a king in the darkness, flashing. With a few jumps, it appeared ten steps behind it, leaving a series of afterimages.

The rat's fur exploded and turned into a barbed shape. It stabbed into the sky.

Its nerves were highly tense as it retreated. It bared its teeth and had a ferocious expression."Buzz!"

He was cursing,"Damn it!"

He didn't dare to waste any time and used his first innate divine ability, Time. With the power of time, his speed increased greatly. He didn't care about his injuries and charged towards Gilded Han.

Purple Cat was disdainful. He raised his beard and sneered, "Meow!"

He was saying, "Stinky rat, where are you running to?"

With a tap of the Cloudy Wishful Shoes, he used the top divine power, Dancing Phoenix in the Nine Heavens, leaving behind an afterimage as he chased after her again.

The cat was very excited and happy. As long as he caught it, he could go back.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse did not dare to turn back. It felt the wind behind it getting closer and closer. It was so scared that its soul was about to disappear. It once again used its innate divine ability, Time. Under the stunned gazes of the guards at the door, it directly rushed in. It jumped from the ground and rushed towards a room on the third floor.

As soon as it left, the purple cat caught up with it.

The guards at the door did not see it clearly either. When they came back to their senses, the window of the room on the third floor was smashed by the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. The huge commotion frightened them. The guard leader's expression changed drastically and he roared, "Take them down!"

Pulling out the sword at his waist, he circulated his movement technique to the extreme and took the lead to rush forward. The other guards followed closely behind...

He entered the room.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse did not dare to stop. If it stopped, it would be caught by the purple cat. It looked at the two people in the room. A young woman was lying on the table with her skirt lifted up high. A pot-bellied man was standing behind her. When he saw the window broken, he subconsciously looked over with fear and panic written on his face. Before they could react, he opened his mouth and swallowed. Black and white spiritual light appeared and condensed into a huge mouth that swallowed the two of them..

Chapter 539: Battle! Battle! Battle!(First Time Going Back On His Word)

Just as it was about to escape, it sensed the aura of a treasure coming from a room not far away on the left. Within its range, as long as it was a treasure, it would not be able to hide from its nose without the protection of a Spirit Sealing Talisman. Its eyes lit up, and it excitedly cried out twice. Ignoring its injuries, it once again used its first innate divine ability, Time, and turned into a bolt of lightning. It violently smashed the wall and rushed in a straight line towards the treasure.

As soon as he left, the purple cat chased after him. Looking in the direction that the stinky rat had escaped, it chased after him again.

The sudden change frightened Gilded Han. Other than the guards at the door, the guards inside also rushed over, wanting to take down the troublemaker.

The guests who came to play were either rich or noble and had a certain status. When they heard the commotion, some of them brought guards or people with high cultivation levels to watch the show. Who was so bold as to dare come to Gilded Han to cause trouble? This brothel had a very strong background and was not a secret in the eyes of well-informed people. The owner behind it was the First Prince. Did he want to die?

No matter what, people were very curious. Some people even sent guards to investigate the situation...

In a luxurious room, a young man wearing expensive purple clothes and expensive jewelry sat on a chair. His pants were unbuttoned, and he held a white jade glass cup in his hand. There was spiritual wine in the cup. Judging from the smell of the wine and the spiritual energy contained in it, although it was not as good as the Heavenly Jade Wine, it was similar to Zhang Ronghua's self-brewed Qinghua Wine. It was slightly shaken and he was not in a hurry to drink it.

His name was Ning Jinchou, the eldest young master of the Ning family. He was not good at literature or martial arts, but he was very proficient in eating, drinking, and playing. He had always claimed that Ding Yi was first and he was second. No one else was convinced!

Why did he have to submit to Ding Yi? He was a ruthless person. He was clearly on the verge of death, but he still stayed in the brothel every day. He did not even care about his life. This was something he could not do.

It was a beautiful woman with smooth skin and a slim figure. Her waistline and buttocks were outlined. Her hair was like a waterfall, and it was casually scattered on her shoulders. Although her face could not be seen, she was a beauty from her skin and back. Her name was Shi Shi, the number one beauty in Gilded Han City. She was also the top courtesan. She was proficient in music, chess, calligraphy, and painting. She was beautiful, had a sweet voice, and was very pure.

Compared to Ning Xue, although it was a little inferior, it was still rare.

At this moment, she was kneeling on the ground with her head lowered. Her cheeks were puffed up like a balloon that would burst in the next second.

Ning Jinchou's face was filled with satisfaction. He took a sip of the spirit wine and squinted his eyes happily. This was enjoyment. Suddenly, the guard's voice came from outside, "Young Master, there's danger on the side. Why don't you leave first?"

Ning Jinchou's expression immediately turned cold. He had spent so much effort, money, and even sacrificed some of the Ning family's resources. He had paid a huge price before the manager of Gilded Han reluctantly agreed to let Shishi accompany him for a night. If he missed tonight, who knew when the next time would be? Even if he could, he would have to make a huge sacrifice. If his father found out, no matter how much his mother doted on him, he would definitely be beaten up. He could not do this! "Don't let them disturb me!"

He finished the wine in one gulp and smiled evilly. He stretched out his palm and pressed it on Shi Shi's head. Just as he was about to take another step forward, the wall shattered and a huge commotion came from it. Before he could turn around, the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse rushed up and looked at his chest with a burning gaze. The treasure was in his bosom, leaving a shadow in the room. Its cultivation erupted and condensed into a huge mouth, swallowing it in a domineering manner.

Bang!

At this moment, the door was kicked open and two guards rushed in. They saw a black and white rat that was using a divine power to eat the young master. They were furious and mobilized their internal strength. They used fist techniques (palm techniques) and exploded with terrifying force to attack.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse did not dare to dodge. The purple cat was right behind it. If it was delayed, with that darn cat's speed, it would definitely catch up with it at once. By then, it would be too late to think about getting the treasure. It would risk taking a hit from the two of them and swallow Ning Jinchou, Shishi, and the treasure.

The expressions of the two guards changed drastically as they cried out in despair , ""Young Master!"

With the support of anger, the power of the fist technique (palm technique) increased by 30%. It landed on the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse's body. It was already heavily injured and had not recovered yet. Under their attack, it was even more injured. It was sent flying, causing the wall behind it to collapse and bury it. Before the two of them could take another step forward, the purple cat rushed over. Seeing that there was another one, the two guards did not think twice and instinctively attacked, wanting to kill it.

The purple cat was disdainful. With a casual slap, a terrifying power erupted from its small claws, sending them flying. It rushed towards the Time Treasure -Seeking Mouse. Seeing that it was chasing after it, the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse in the ruins revealed a look of despair. It could not even use its innate divine ability, Time. Its injuries were too serious. It could only watch as the purple cat rushed over. The cat's paw slapped its head, knocking it unconscious. It opened its mouth and held it in its mouth. Just as it was about to leave, Gilded Han's guards rushed over from the surroundings and surrounded it.

They looked at the rat in its mouth. Although it was unconscious, its body was covered in black and white spiritual light. It was very similar to the Time Treasure -Seeking Rat that had been causing a lot of trouble in the capital recently. All of them were excited. One of them immediately ran out, prepared to pass the news to the steward and send experts to take them down..

Chapter 540 - 540: Battle! Battle! Battle!(The first time I went back on my word.)

The guards sent by the dignitaries were standing outside. When they saw this scene, they were stunned for a moment before they thought of something. With excitement, they ran towards their masters.

The two Ning Jinchou guards who were sent flying by the purple cat fell from the third floor to the courtyard on the first floor. They were not dead, but they were seriously injured. They struggled to get up from the ground. Their young master had been eaten by a stinky rat. No matter what, they had to catch the murderer. However, with their abilities, it was impossible to snatch the stinky rat from the black cat. One of them took out a signal flare and released it.

Bang!

Brilliant fireworks blossomed in the air, condensing into the word "Ning". By the time Gilded Han and the nobles reacted, it was too late to stop them.

All of them cursed in their hearts. It was impossible to block the news. The signal flare had appeared. No matter who had placed it, it would definitely attract the nearby forces. At that time, there would definitely be a big battle here. They had to take down the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse and obtain the Creation Spiritual Treasure before they arrived.

Updated on BoX?0VEL.com

He had given a death order and a generous reward to snatch the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny at all costs.

Looking at the people in front of him, Purple Cat did not panic at all. He did not let go of the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse in his mouth. Although there were many of them, there was not a single one who could fight. He knew that he could not afford to delay! He had to break out of the encirclement and leave before those people from the major factions arrived. Otherwise, it would be troublesome if he wanted to leave.

The Cloudmist Ruyi Shoes tapped on the ground, and with the help of the Dancing Phoenix in the Ninth Heaven, it left a shadow on the spot. It was as fast as lightning. The guards around it didn't even have time to react before it escaped and landed on the street outside. Just as it was about to leave, vigorous footsteps sounded. The people of the True Dragon Palace arrived. The leader was Fang Zaitian, and he brought a group of people to block its path. Looking at the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse in the purple cat's mouth, his eyes lit up and he waved his hand, "Surround them!"

The True Dragon Palace's people rushed up and surrounded them.

Gilded Han's guards and the nobles looked at the True Dragon Palace's people with ugly expressions. They knew that they couldn't interfere, so Gilded Han's steward immediately sent a message to the First Prince, asking him to send experts or make other preparations.

Fang Zaitian narrowed his eyes and sized up the purple cat. Its fur was very bright and naturally black. It did not emit any aura, but it had a noble aura, as if it had a powerful bloodline. To be able to capture the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse, its cultivation must not be low. It was very likely that it was also a true spirit. Those who raised true spirits as pets either had high cultivation or were very powerful. Knowing that they could not delay, he shouted, "Hand it over!"

Purple Cat stepped back and looked around from the corner of her eyes, looking for an opportunity to escape. She mocked in her heart. The cat had spent so much effort to catch this stinky rat. How could she hand it over? If you provoke the cat, I will use the small soul sword to kill you all.

There were a lot of forces in the West District, and it would be troublesome when they arrived. Fang Zaitian's patience was exhausted, and his face was dark and ferocious. "You don't want face!"

With a step, a huge force crushed the ground. With a purple afterimage, his palm turned into a claw, and a strong wind whistled. He ruthlessly grabbed at the purple cat. A huge aura crushed over, sealing its escape route.

The purple cat knew that it was not a match for Fang Zaitian, so it did not fight him head-on. It relied on the Cloudmist Ruyi Shoes and Dancing Phoenix in the Nine Heavens to dodge. The black shadow flickered. Every time it wanted to break out of the encirclement, the people of the True Dragon Palace would block it in front and fight for an opportunity for Fang Zaitian.

After a dozen moves.

Fang Tian was furious. He didn't expect this silly cat to have a speed type spiritual treasure. His movement technique was so fast that he didn't dare to hold back. He went all out and exploded his speed to the extreme. His tyrannical cultivation crushed over fiercely. His claw technique was executed to perfection, bringing with it destructive power. He wanted to kill the purple cat and obtain the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse. Even his subordinates went up.

No matter how fast it was, it was useless if it could not unleash its full potential in the face of the encirclement. Under their pressure, the purple cat really did its best. It was injured by a claw on its back and a huge force entered its body. It resisted the urge to vomit blood and still held the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse in its mouth, but it fell to the ground.

The people of the True Dragon Palace didn't give it any chance. They quickly rushed over and wanted to kill it and take down the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse.

Purple Cat was furious. She was determined and her eyes were cold. She looked at these people as if she was looking at a dead person. Just as she was about to take out her small soul sword and use her ultimate move to kill them all, something unexpected happened.

Two masked men rushed out of the darkness and appeared around it. They used their sword skills and saber techniques to block the attacks of the True Dragon Palace's troops. They protected it and were determined to get the Time Treasure -Seeking Mouse.

Fang Tian was afraid as he looked at the two people in front of him. The one on the left was still alright. She was wearing a purple robe and covered her face, revealing her eyes. She looked like a woman. The one on the right was filled with a murderous aura, as if she had crawled out of a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood. It made people's hearts palpitate and they instinctively felt danger. It was impossible for him to give up. He shouted coldly, "Get lost!"

The two of them had a tacit understanding. The black-robed man stepped forward and took the initiative to attack. The saber in his hand emitted a demonic light. The supreme saber aura exploded and slashed out crazily, enveloping Fang Zaitian and the people of the True Dragon Palace.

The purple-robed woman quickly turned around and a huge force erupted from her palm as she grabbed at the purple cat.

Purple Cat was very angry. She knew the purple-robed woman in front of her and knew that she was the Crown Prince's man. She had even saved her life on the night of the rainstorm. She did not expect that she would want to capture her now and even snatch the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse. Even if it was the Crown Prince's order, it would not work! The stinky rat must be Zhang Ronghua's..
