Chapter 561: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

“Sun class upper echelon?” Zhang Ronghua frowned.”

“It might be even bigger!”

“God Lord?”

The leader of Jingshen was called Master God. It was a position, not a name.

“I’m not sure.” Yang Hongling shook her head.” I only know that he has a high status.”“

“We’ll know tonight.”“

After finishing the last candied haws in his hand, he casually threw the wooden stick in a beautiful curve and accurately landed in the trash can not far away.

Yang Hongling blinked her eyes playfully, bit off a candied haws, and handed over the rest.”“Still eating?”

Zhang Ronghua refused immediately. He used his Heaven and Earth, and took out the silver and gold he had obtained from the Gilded Man. There was really too much of it, a total of hundreds of thousands of taels. Silver took up the majority, almost 400,000 taels. Although there was less gold, less than 100,000 taels, the value of gold was higher than silver. One tael of gold could be exchanged for 100 taels of silver in the Great Xia Bank. This was the official price, and the black market would be even higher, reaching 1:110 or 1:120.

Golden and silver light mixed together, shining brightly, illuminating the ground. The visual impact was very great. Even if Little Four wasn't human, when he saw the scene in front of him, he subconsciously swallowed his saliva. His beast eyes rolled, emitting a scorching glow.

Yang Hongling furrowed her brows. She thought about it and combined it with the information she had received. She guessed the source of this money."Did Gilded Han get it?"

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua nodded.

"Did you also kill the king realm soul master in the palace?"

Zhang Ronghua shrugged his shoulders and spread his hands helplessly."He wants to attack Zi Cat."

"Did you obtain the Creation Soul Treasure?"

Seeing that she was puzzled, he briefly explained what had happened.

"Strange!" Yang Hongling said. None of you have obtained the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny. Where did it go? Could it have hidden it?"

"Time! It's fate!"

"You're quite open-minded."

Zhang Ronghua smiled and pointed at the gold and silver."Help me deal with them and buy spirit herbs for cultivation."

“Alright!” Yang Hongling agreed.

He stretched out his little foot and kicked Little Four. The latter came back to his senses, and his four-colored true spirit light flickered, transforming into a huge mouth that could swallow the sky. With a domineering swallow, he swallowed all the money in front of him.

He pointed at the stone bench at the side.

The two of them sat down across the stone table. Yang Hongling poured two cups of tea from the teapot and handed one over.

Zhang Ronghua didn’t drink the tea. He took a black grape and threw it into his mouth. “Is the school not busy recently?”

“I’m busy!” Yang Hongling said. But it has nothing to do with me.

He told her everything.

rlkvvo days ago, there was news that Jixia Academy had set up Jixia Hall to nurture disciples who had comprehended Righteousness through the Haoran Bone Setting Secret Art. When Changqing Academy found out about this, they did not want to fall behind. They also set up a hall called “ Green Heaven “. As one of the three major academies, they set up a special hall to gather resources and teachers to nurture the core pillars. Fate Academy naturally would not sit still and wait for death. The inner and outer school principals and other higher-ups held a meeting and finally named it “ Creation Hall “. Taking the will, seizing the fortune of heaven and earth, competing with the sun and moon for glory, transcending heaven and earth, and standing proudly in the world.

With Yang Hongling’s qualifications, she was the most suitable candidate to be the Hall Master of the Hall of Fortune. However, the dean of the inner court was not confident in persuading her, so he asked the Palace Master of Destiny Academy, who was also her senior brother, to come forward.

Yang Hongling’s personality was clear. She did not like power and only wanted to do what she liked. She cultivated, studied, improved her culinary skills, and then subdued demons and devils to improve her combat experience. No matter how much the Palace Master of Destiny Academy said, she would not budge. Finally, she mentioned that her senior brother's daughter, September, had sufficient qualifications and profound cultivation. She could take on this important task.

Helpless.

The Palace Master went to find the old teacher. The old teacher knew his precious granddaughter's personality. Once she made a decision, she would not change it easily. Moreover, she did not like it and would not take it seriously if she insisted on it. It would only delay the disciples of the Hall of Fortune and hinder the development of the school. According to Yang Hongling's suggestion, the girl, September, would be the Hall Master and be responsible for teaching the disciples who comprehended the Righteousness Qi with the Haoran Bone Setting Secret Skill. Then, the Great Scholar would be transferred to assist.

"What's your next plan?" asked Zhang Ronghua."

"I plan to set up a hall, and all the disciples in the school can participate. Firstly, we can subdue demons and eliminate those rogue cultivators who rely on their martial strength to commit crimes. Secondly, we can improve their actual combat skills! "Those who have rendered meritorious services, other than personally guiding them and pointing out their shortcomings, I also taught them martial techniques, cultivation techniques, and even divine powers to further increase the overall strength of Fate Academy."

"That's a good idea. But this way, it won't be any easier than being in charge of the Creation Hall."

Reaching out her hand, her slender and fair fingers stroked her hair, revealing a pair of delicate earlobes. She smiled knowingly and said in a relaxed and firm tone,"As long as it's something I want to do, it doesn't matter even if I'm tired."

Zhang Ronghua was happy for her. Although he wasn't in charge of the specific affairs of the Fate Academy, what he did was to improve the strength of the academy, making it stronger and developing in a healthy direction.

"Have you thought of a name?"

“I’ve thought of a few, but none of them are suitable! Aren’t you here? You’re a genius. Help me think of a name.”

Zhang Ronghua didn’t refuse. Given the relationship between the two parties, it was a piece of cake for them to name the name..

Chapter 562 - 562: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

With his hands behind his back, he paced on the spot, thinking about a suitable name. After a while.

“Holy Church! ”

“Holy Church?” Yang Hongling muttered to herself.”

Saint had many meanings, but there was one thing that was universal. It was extraordinary and different from ordinary people. It was not bad to name it with the word “Saint”.

“It’s called the Holy Church!”

An old voice came from behind, ““Coming!”

Looking in the direction of the voice, the old man was wearing a white robe with a golden flame embroidered on his chest. He walked over with his hands behind his back.

Yang Hongling’s beautiful eyes lit up as she called out, ““Grandpa!”

She jogged over and hugged the old man’s arm, shaking it slightly.

The old man rolled his eyes at her and said, ""You're already so old, yet you're still not serious. Can't you be more mature?"

Zhang Ronghua stepped forward and bowed."

"Not bad! You still think of me when you have something good, but there's only one tael of spirit tea and bitter bodhi tea. It's gone after tasting it."

"Last time, this junior only got 20 taels of silver. After deducting what I drank, there isn't much left! I got more this time."

As he spoke, Zhang Ronghua took out a golden box from the Five Dragons Spirit Taming Belt. It looked grand and exquisite, with patterns of mountains and rivers. It contained five taels of spiritual tea and bitter bodhi tea. He handed it over."This is what I specially left for you."

The old man smiled and stroked his beard in satisfaction. He put away the jade box and pointed at the stone bench to sit down.

Yang Hongling brewed tea and boiled the spiritual liquid. She then made some spiritual tea and bodhi tea. She poured them a cup but did not sit down. Her red lips opened slightly. "I'll go cook."

Little Four's eyes lit up and he hurriedly said, ""Can I cook two more spiritual fish?"

"Alright." Yang Hongling agreed.

Walking to the side of the lake, she stretched out her jade-like hand and grabbed at the air. A terrifying suction force spread out, and she caught six spiritual fish from the lake. She strung them up with grass ropes and carried them in her hand as she walked towards the kitchen.

The old man held the teacup and poured some tea. When the tea was cold, he took a sip and asked, "How does your first day at the Ministry of Works feel?" "It's like throwing a small stone into a river and breaking the balance."

“How many days can I refine the Sky Shaking Powder?”

“You know about it too?”

“This matter is top secret, but with my status, I only need to say a few words if I want to know,” said the old man.”

Zhang Ronghua smiled bitterly. He was certain that he could refine the Sky Shaking Powder. “It will take about three days to finish reading the books in the library of the Spirit Research Department. On the fourth day, we will be able to research the replacement materials.”

Is your craftsmanship very high?”

“A little! ”

The old man raised his two white eyebrows and glared at him. The young man was not honest with his words. He held the teacup and carefully tasted the spiritual tea and bitter bodhi tea.

“Did you get the Netherworld Holy Water and the Heart of the Morning Sun?” asked Zhang Ronghua.”

He put down the teacup.

The old teacher stopped smiling and said with a serious expression,“”It was just delivered this morning. If you don’t come today, I will ask Hong Ling to call you over.”

Zhang Ronghua knew what was going on. According to their previous discussion, once the materials were gathered, he would be the one to test the divine power. Firstly, his talent was heaven-defying, and his comprehension ability was very fast. He had also participated in the creation of the three heads and six arms, so his theoretical knowledge was very solid. Secondly, his cultivation was profound, and he was also a King realm soul master. His body was also very terrifying. No matter what changes occurred during the experiment, he could guarantee that he would not suffer any losses.

Taking a step back, even he had failed. In the entire Fate Academy, including the old teacher, no one could succeed. It was not that they could not succeed, but compared to Zhang Ronghua, their overall conditions were much worse.

It was simpler.

Take the old teacher as an example. Although his cultivation base was high, he was not a soul master. His physical body was only passable, and his talent was not as strong as Zhang Ronghua's. The other old monsters of the Fate Academy were even worse.

Only when he proved that the Three Heads and Six Arms was feasible could he promote it and let the higher-ups of Fate Academy cultivate it to increase their strength and become one of the powerful foundations.

“Junior wants to test the power of this divine ability!”

The old man stroked his beard in approval. His temperament, character, and responsibility were all passable. He was not afraid of anything and could achieve great things.

He waved his right hand.

A golden light struck down and evolved in the courtyard, activating the super array in the courtyard. Golden spiritual light circulated, forming a layer of gray clouds that enveloped the entire courtyard. As it circulated, a huge power was emitted. It was both offensive and defensive, and its power was unparalleled. “With the protection of the Xuanhuang Taiyi Formation, we can experiment in peace. ”

“Yes.” Zhang Ronghua replied.

The old man didn't waste any more time. He waved his sleeve and the materials for practicing the Three Heads and Six Arms appeared on the ground. The first three were the Netherworld Holy Water, the Heart of the Morning Sun, and the Creation Myriad Spirit Grass.

Each of the three materials was heaven-defying and extremely valuable. Once they appeared, countless major powers would go crazy for them and try to obtain them at all costs.

The other materials were also precious, but they were not as valuable as these three materials.

Altogether, there were a total of 81 pieces, which matched the number of nine and nine.

‘ Let’s discuss it again before we start,” the old man said solemnly.” We should strive to have a deeper understanding so that we can increase our success rate when we practice. ’”

Zhang Ronghua would not joke around with his own life. He agreed, “Good!”

Starting from the first part of Three Heads and Six Arms, he would refine two heads, and refine nine apertures in each head, one main and eight auxiliary. Then, he would refine four limbs, nine meridians, one main meridian, and eight auxiliary meridians, corresponding to the two heads. Finally, he would refine coordination..

Chapter 563 - 563: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

This point.

The old man had already created the Supreme Mindfulness Technique, which solved this problem. Zhang Ronghua practiced it again on the spot. After a large circulation, he cultivated it to the initial stage of the first realm. After another fifteen minutes of cultivation, his terrifying talent exploded and he directly advanced to the perfection of the third realm. Only then did he stop.

“His talent is not bad!”

“It’s just so-so!”

The old man rolled his eyes and praised him. Then, he went straight to the point. "Are you ready?"

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua nodded solemnly.

"Let's begin!"

He stood up from the stone bench and walked to the pile of materials. He stopped in front of them and looked at the three main materials.

[Yellow Spring Holy Water: Flesh and bones, revives life, and has magical effects on life and death. Killing people is the most terrifying spiritual poison in the world. Saving people is equivalent to having a second life.]

[Heart of the Morning Sun: Innate Morning Sun Qi. After countless years, it has gradually formed into a supreme spiritual item. It contains vigorous vitality and can increase one's potential. It can transform one's life level and reach a higher realm.]

He had obtained the All-Creation Grass when he and Yang Hongling were slaying the dragon. They had split it among themselves. The extra-large dragon bed was still lying in the Five Dragons Spirit Controlling Belt. It was too big and made of purple gold. It was even more precious than gold and was inlaid with expensive gems. It could not be seen in the light. He had wanted to dissolve it before, but he felt that it was a waste. The key was that he did not lack money, so he kept it.

He sat down cross-legged on the ground and looked at the materials in front of him. He didn't dare to be careless this time. He didn't care about the loss of the other materials, but the three main materials weren't easy to obtain. Even if the old teacher could get them again, he would have to wait for a while.

With a tap of his finger, a stream of true essence of the Yellow Star fell on these seventy-eight supplementary materials. They were classified according to their attributes, Yang attribute and Yin Attribute.

With a flip of his palm, the Phoenix Divine Fire rushed out. The golden flames burned and had already reached the fifth revolution. It was not far from the sixth revolution. As it rotated, a huge power was emitted.

The old man paused in his action of drinking tea and frowned. He had hidden it so well!

Zhang Ronghua shouted. With the support of the Black Yellow True Essence, the Phoenix Divine Fire rushed out and enveloped the 78 materials. It began to refine them. A huge soul power rushed out and divided them into 78 parts to control them, purify the impurities, and then refine them into liquid.

Fifteen minutes later.

There were only three main ingredients left that had not been refined. The rest were refined into liquid form. Following the same process, it took some time for the three main ingredients to be refined into liquid form. At this point, all the ingredients had been purified and were wrapped in soul power, floating in the air.

This was the most crucial step.

He was not the only one. Even the old man's eyes were wide open as he stared intently. Whether or not he could successfully cultivate the Three Heads and Six Arms depended on this moment! Even with his temperament, the old hands hidden under his sleeves could not help but clench together. He was too nervous.

Little Four didn't doze off anymore. He stood up from the ground and controlled his breathing. He stopped beside the old man and looked at Zhang Ronghua, wanting to see if he could succeed.

He opened his mouth and swallowed. Ten thousand rays of golden light erupted from his mouth, enveloping the pile of materials and swallowing them in one gulp.

As soon as it entered his stomach, although the eighty-one materials had been refined, the attributes contained in them were very pure. They were also divided into different categories, turning into two attributes of Yin and Yang. They rampaged in his body and exploded with powerful destructive power, wanting to destroy his meridians, flesh, blood, and internal organs.

Zhang Ronghua's expression did not change. He was fully focused and did not take the huge impact of the explosion of the pile of materials to heart. With his current physical cultivation, it was comparable to the heaven ascension realm. Moreover, he cultivated the Chaotic Celestial Body. In addition, he cultivated the Nirvana Sovereign Life Technique to nourish his meridians, physical body, and soul, making his potential even more terrifying.

Not to mention this little destructive power, even if it was increased several times, it would not be able to hurt him.

In the next second.

The Chaos Celestial Body circulated and released a chaotic spiritual light that suppressed the power formed by the 81 materials. He formed a seal with his hands and began to condense the first head according to the cultivation method of Three Heads and Six Arms.

He had reached the sixth realm of medicine and alchemy, and he knew the meridian diagram of the human body like the back of his hand, including its structure. He first condensed the first main aperture, then condensed the remaining eight auxiliary Aperture points, and then perfected the head, eyes, eyelashes, ears, nose, and so on. This process was very slow and couldn't be rushed. The more carefully he condensed it, the stronger the power that erupted.

If someone could see through it, they would find that his body was divided into three parts. The left side was condensing a head, the middle was the liquid of the materials, and the right side was the Black Yellow True Essence. If the situation was not right, he could save it at any time.

Tens of thousands of golden lights spun crazily and rushed out of his body, spreading in a circle.

After an unknown period of time, the first head was finally condensed successfully.

Break!

The black and brocade clothes on her body exploded, revealing her upper body, revealing her fair and tender skin. It was whiter than a woman's, like milk, shining brightly.

Little Four's beast-like eyes rolled around. It was unknown what he had thought of, but he looked in the direction of the kitchen and smiled maliciously.

The first head had been successfully formed, and it had reached a critical step. If he could not break out of the body, all his efforts would end in failure. He had to succeed no matter what!

"Open!" Zhang Ronghua shouted.

It was really ruthless to itself. It used a stream of Xuanhuang True Essence to open a hole in its left rib. Blood dyed its shoulder red, but it didn't seem to feel the pain. It focused all its attention on its body and controlled its head. It seized this once-in-a-lifetime precious opportunity to use Xuanhuang True Essence to protect itself. It broke out of the hole and formed a correspondence with its own head, but its eyes were closed..

Chapter 564 - 564: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

The abnormal recovery ability of the Celestial Devil Technique erupted. The injury on his left rib was healed in less than a full cycle as he circulated the technique.

"Phew!" I let out a long breath.

The successful condensation of a head proved that this divine power was feasible. As long as there were no mistakes, Zhang Ronghua would be able to successfully cultivate it. He was slightly relieved.

With the previous example, condensing a second head became simple. Step by step, it took a little time to condense the right head. He used the Black Yellow True Essence to open a hole in the right rib and protect the head. At this point, both heads were successfully refined, but his eyes were closed.

From his facial features, including facial expressions and details, other than the lack of hair, everything else was exactly the same. It was as if they were carved out of the same mold.

There were still four arms left. The most difficult part of Three Heads and Six Arms was the condensation of the head. Relatively speaking, the arm was easier. He refined one main meridian and eight auxiliary meridians. Then, he refined four arms directly. He struck a hole from the top and bottom of the two arms and released the four arms.

From the outside, Zhang Ronghua was sitting cross-legged on the ground with his upper body exposed. He had three heads and six arms. Golden light appeared and enveloped him. free.c om

The first and second steps had been completed, leaving only the final step of coordination. Once it was handled well, this divine power would be considered complete.

He circulated the Supreme Heart Technique to adjust his head and arms so that they could be controlled as if he was born with them. Then, he used his soul power to control them.

Shua!

The two pairs of eyes that were tightly shut opened in an instant. Each eye shot out a ray of golden light that fell in the air and stirred up a terrifying force. It formed a small storm vortex that lasted for a long time before dissipating.

He also stood up from the ground. His three heads looked at his new body, which looked different from the rest. He tried to move it, and there was no difference in coordination. The other two heads could also operate on their own, as if they were multitasking. They could instantly perform different sound-wave martial arts techniques. The effect still needed to be tested.

His body swayed.

The old man rushed up impatiently, his eyes burning with excitement. He looked around him, then reached out his palm and touched the two heads and four arms that he had refined. He pinched them and saw that they were exactly the same. His worried heart was relieved, and he hurriedly asked, "How is it?"

"Perfect!" Zhang Ronghua said with a smile."

“Let’s test it out.”

“Good!”

With a step, he turned into a golden light and rushed into the Purple Bamboo

Forest at the side. As he entered, the Purple Bamboo Forest instantly revolved. Purple spiritual light rose and illuminated the entire bamboo forest. In an instant, he set up the Great Five Elements Heaven-Splitting Sword Formation. Thousands of sword qi floated in the air and slashed down at the same time in the next second.

It was powerful and fast. Wherever it passed, a whistling sword hum sounded.

Zhang Ronghua calmly stood where he was and looked at the huge Sword Qi coming from all directions. Each Sword Qi was three meters long and had astonishing power. Seeing that it was getting closer and closer, he patted his waist with his right hand and took out the Golden Dragon Sword. He used the second move of the Nine Tribulations Overturning the Sea Sword Technique, the Alluring Love. Dazzling golden light bloomed from the sword. The terrifying Sword Qi was as sharp as the heavenly power. He compressed the power to the extreme and slashed out.

The other five arms did not stay idle either. A pair of arms executed the Great Five Elements Heaven-Splitting Sword Formation. More than 600 sword silks floated behind him. They were densely packed, and each sword silk was nearly 20 feet wide. One sword silk could easily kill a heaven ascension realm big shot. Under the control of the two palms, it transformed into a sword formation. As it rotated, destructive power erupted and slashed at the sword qi of the Purple Bamboo Forest.

The remaining three palms didn’t stay idle either. One of them used the Five Elements Illusionary Spirit Technique. The five saint beasts condensed and with the support of the Xuanhuang True Origin, their momentum was shocking. In a flash, they turned into hundreds of feet large. The light of the True Spirit flickered and they used their innate abilities to attack the sword Qi.

With only one palm left, Zhang Ronghua performed a hand seal and executed the secret skill of Trampling the Sky. The secret skills of “Trampling” , “Sky” , and “Movement” were used at the same time. His attack, defense, and speed were doubled, making the power of Zhang Ronghua's divine power even more abnormal, reaching a super terrifying level.

The three heads also attacked. The left head had a god-like face and a dignified gaze. It roared, "Mantra Focus Spell!

The middle and right heads activated their soul power at the same time. It was simple and crude. They didn't use any soul skills or divine arts. They transformed into two mountains and pressed down fiercely.

Coupled with the operation of the Chaos Celestial Body and the support of the supreme physical strength, this situation could be considered Zhang Ronghua's peak state. Although he still had some trump cards that he had not used, it was not much different.

A terrifying divine power erupted from his hand and bombarded the thousands of sword qi in the Purple Bamboo Forest one after another.

Chi...

The sword Qi was instantly broken and couldn't even last a breath. It formed a world-destroying storm that swept towards the surroundings.

Seeing this.

Zhang Ronghua quickly moved to destroy the airwave so that it wouldn't affect the surrounding Purple Bamboo Forest. Thousands of golden lights converged and entered his body in an instant. He put away the Golden Dragon Sword and many other divine powers, leaving only three heads and six arms.

He took a step forward and returned to the side of the spiritual lake. He told her his thoughts, "First, your physical body must be strong. You must at least reach the grandmaster realm to be able to withstand the impact of three heads and six arms. The second was the Ultimate Heart Chant, which could only be cultivated after one had reached the basic level. The third and most important point was to train the soul to at least the peak of the golden class. Only then would one be able to use different spells to fight without being countered.."

Chapter 565 - 565: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

The old man stroked his beard with a satisfied expression. He was really relieved this time and said with a smile, ""It wasn't in vain that I spent so much effort creating this divine ability!"

Zhang Ronghua had just used three heads and six arms, and his power had increased by more than three times. If it was a real battle, not to mention that the two sides were evenly matched, even if they were two or three minor realms higher, they could still kill him.

"The only flaw is that the consumption is a little too high. It can't be sustained without cultivation techniques and divine arts."

The old man didn't care about this. The more powerful a divine art was, the more energy it consumed. For old monsters like them, there were big factions behind them, and the techniques and divine arts they cultivated were all top-notch. Although they couldn't compare to the techniques of gods and devils, they couldn't be underestimated.

"Thank you for your hard work!"

"If the elder needs it, I will do my best. However, I have already used up the Yellow Spring Water and the Heart of the Morning Sun. I still have some Creation Myriad Spirit Grass with me."

The old man waved his hand nonchalantly. "We can look for it after we're done. The continent is so big, so as long as we put our heart into it, we'll be able to find some."

Xiao Si walked over and looked at his two heads. He teased, ""Bald?"

Zhang Ronghua was stunned. He subconsciously reached out his hands and touched his left and right heads. He slid them down and smiled casually. "This is easy."

He retracted his palm and circulated the Xuanhuang Heaven-Opening Art, using his Xuanhuang True Essence to stimulate it. The black hair broke through his scalp and in a short while, it was already level with the hair in the middle.

“What about now?” he asked with a smile.”

Little Four thought about it seriously and said, “”Monster!”

A cold and dissatisfied voice was heard. “”Say it again!”

Yang Hongling walked over with a cold face. Her beautiful gem-like eyes glared at it fiercely, as if Little Four would beat it up if he dared to say anything bad.

Looking at the sky, Little Four was filled with a desire to live. “”Who was talking just now?”

She walked over and stopped beside him.

Looking at him, Yang Hongling found that his skin was as fair as her own. It was full and fleshy, and contained extreme strength. Yang Hongling did not blush. She stretched out her jade-like hands and pinched Zhang Ronghua’s four arms. She asked, “How is it?”

“It’s even 30% stronger than the Great Five Elements Heaven-Splitting Sword Formation. ”

Looking at the torn clothes on the ground, Yang Hongling took out a white silk brocade robe from the pouch at her waist as if she didn’t see her grandfather’s half-smiling face. The collar was inlaid with gold, and the two patterns were very long. There was a ball of flame on the chest. She handed it over.”Put it on.” “Thank you!” Zhang Ronghua said.

He didn’t dare to look at the old man. He put on his clothes. They fit perfectly, as if they were tailor-made. The tightness was strong, and it didn’t affect his movements.

Yang Hongling was happy to see that her efforts were not wasted. She pretended to be calm and greeted, ""Eat!"

Three people and one beast walked towards the hall.

After entering the lobby, she washed up and sat on a chair.

Yang Hongling handed the bowls and chopsticks to them, holding a large basin filled with True Dragon Meat, Kun Peng Meat, Spiritual Fish, and other dishes.

She stopped at the door, stretched out two fingers, and pulled Xiao Si's ear. She glared at him and warned, "" Later on, you're not allowed to say vulgarities.""

"Yes." Xiao Si nodded heavily.

He returned the bowl to Zhang Ronghua and sat opposite him. He picked up his chopsticks and started digging.

Zhang Ronghua ate the dragon meat and said casually, ""Three Heads and Six Arms has been successfully created. Have you ever thought of creating a divine art that can make your body bigger and stronger?"

The old teacher was intrigued. At his level, he no longer cared about mundane matters. There were also people managing the school. Other than reading books or cultivating, he would occasionally cultivate his character and do some interesting things.

It could be said that the successful creation of the three heads and six arms allowed him to find a direction. Firstly, the divine power he created could increase the strength of himself and the school. Secondly, his comprehension of the Dao would also increase. It was the best of both worlds. "Like a truesoul?

Randomly changing its size?"

“Yes.” Zhang Ronghua nodded.

“However, that’s not entirely true. No matter how big a True Spirit’s transformation technique is, it’s just a display of its own strength. As for the transformation technique that I’m referring to, once it becomes bigger, the increase in strength will be different depending on the size of the body. If one can head the sky and step on the ground, one’s physical body will be able to support an entire world, increasing one’s strength by countless times. Coupled with the three heads and six arms, even if one only uses these two divine abilities, they will be invincible in the world. They will be able to tear apart gods and devils with a snap of their fingers, destroying the Grand Shang Empire. Suppress the True Spirit Hundred Races and return peace to the world.”

The old man stopped eating and frowned. His thoughts were running quickly as he pondered Zhang Ronghua’s suggestion. With his terrifying accumulation and comprehension of Dao, he roughly deduced that this divine power was feasible and should be able to be created!

However, the difficulty was very high, even more exaggerated than three heads and six arms. Just the height alone would increase his strength by a lot, and there were no side effects. It was already difficult for him!

However, the more difficult it was, the more challenging it would be. If he really created this divine power, it would be just as Zhang Ronghua had said-invincible!

Seeing that he had almost digested it, Zhang Ronghua continued,” As I become stronger, my defense must also increase along with my agility. Otherwise, if I can’t keep up with my huge physical body, I’ll just be a live target in the eyes of others..”

Chapter 566: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

The old teacher had a headache. It was too chaotic! He had no clue at all. This question could not be rushed. He remembered this matter and said seriously, “Let’s try it later and see if it works.”

“I’ll discuss it with you when I’m done with the matters at hand.”

“Good!” f(r)ee

The matter of the Dharma Idol was decided just like that.

He continued eating.

After the meal, the old man left and went to the study to read and prepare for the creation of the Dharma Idol.

Yang Hongling washed the dishes and returned. Seeing him standing at the door, looking at the scenery in the courtyard, she asked, “Is there really such a divine ability?”

Anything in the world is possible,” Zhang Ronghua said seriously.” For example, three heads and six arms. Before they were created, are you sure they didn’t exist?!”

“This divine ability is even more powerful. It’ll be very difficult to create it in a short period of time.”

“Everything depends on effort. With the accumulation of the old master and I, there should be no problem!”

Zhang Ronghua wasn’t sure either. The main reason was that the power of the Dharma Form was too great. If it was really as he said, with his head above the sky and his feet on the ground, how many times would his strength increase?

He didn’t dare to think about it. Just thinking about it was very terrifying.

Looking at the sky, it was almost dawn. “It’s time to act!” Yang Hongling said seriously.”

“Yes.”

The two of them left the courtyard and rushed outside. They left the Fate

Academy and used their movement techniques under Yang Hongling's lead. They rushed towards the east city. According to her, near the city wall in the east city, the people of the Shocking Gods met with the big shots in a private house.

Soon, they arrived. They sat on the roof and looked at the houses a thousand feet away. Zhang Ronghua made a move and used his soul power to hide them in the darkness. If one's cultivation wasn't high enough, they wouldn't be able to find them even if they were close.

They chatted casually and waited for the person to appear.

Fifteen minutes later.

A Moon-Class higher-up brought a group of subordinates, wearing a night-traveling suit and covering their faces, revealing only their eyes. They appeared in the house, and after checking that there was no danger, they ordered people to set up defenses in the surroundings to prevent any accidents.

When it was dawn, three young women, led by a person in a purple dress, climbed over the city wall and sneaked into the capital. They looked around and saw that the surroundings were normal. They brought two maids and rushed to the agreed location.

"He's here!" Zhang Ronghua said. He was also an early Earth class Spirit

Master."

Yang Hongling furrowed her brows and looked puzzled. "Strange! The news I received was that they were all powerful figures. Why are they the only ones here? Could it be that her identity is extraordinary?"

"It's very likely that she's the daughter of the God Lord."

Yang Hongling's beautiful eyes lit up. If the news was correct, this purple-robed woman must be!

Seeing them enter the house.

He stood up from the roof and called out, "It's time to go over."

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua nodded.

The two of them were like ghosts, shuttling through the darkness and rushing towards the residential building in front of them.

In a private residence.

The Moon -Class leader, Zhao An, knelt on one knee and cupped his fists. He lowered his head and bowed respectfully, 'Greetings, Goddess!'

The goddess looked around but didn't see the person she wanted to see. Her voice was very cold. "Where's Mu Tianchen?"

Mu Tianchen was a Sun Rank upper echelon, the person in charge that Jingshen had sent over.

The surrounding air was cold, and Zhao An was so scared that he broke out in cold sweat. He replied nervously, "'D-Daren died in the chaotic battle the night before yesterday! "

"Trash! Useless thing."

Seeing that there were only a dozen people left in the courtyard, the Goddess suppressed her anger and asked coldly, "'Are they the only ones left?"

Zhao An wanted to deny it, but it was the truth.

The treasure-hunting rat was born in the world. Not only did he not see the rat fur, but he also suffered a serious loss in manpower.

Bang!

The goddess kicked him on the head, but she forgot that she was wearing a dress and not stockings. This kick was inevitably revealing, but no one dared to look and lowered their heads.

Zhao An hurriedly got up from the ground. He did not even dare to wipe the shoe print on his forehead. He knelt in front of her again, waiting for her punishment.

Suppressing the anger in her heart, the Goddess asked again, “What about the person who asked Mu Tianchen to take action?”

“The other party’s information is in the lord’s hands, this subordinate doesn’t know! ”

The Goddess raised her palm and was about to kill him, but she remembered that she had just arrived in the capital and did not have many people to use. If she killed him, wouldn’t she be alone? He endured it and withdrew his hand. He ordered coldly, ‘Go to the stronghold!’

“Yes, sir!”

Standing up from the ground, Zhao An was still very weak after walking through the gates of hell. Just as he was about to move, two figures rushed over and stopped in the courtyard. Seeing this, he hurriedly shouted, “Protect the Goddess!”

He pulled out his long sword at lightning speed and pointed the tip of the sword at Zhang Ronghua and Yang Hongling. He shouted, “Who are you?”

“I’ll do it,” Yang Hongling said.

"Alright." Zhang Ronghua replied.

He took a step forward.

Yang Hongling's cold eyes ignored Zhao An and landed on the Goddess."The daughter of the God Lord?"

After carefully sizing them up, the goddess realized that she could not see through them. Her heart tightened. There was only one possibility that she could not see through. The other party's cultivation was higher than hers.

At the thought of this, he hated Zhao An to death. This trash! He had leaked the news and sent people to ambush him. However, now was not the time to punish him. The most important thing now was how to escape.

Without waiting for her to make any move, Yang Hongling had already made her move. She stomped her black dragon boots on the ground and golden light swept out in a circle. It swept out in all directions at an extremely fast speed and carried a huge force. It hit the body of the person who shocked the gods. He could clearly see it, but he did not have the ability to resist. His body exploded and turned into a blood rain that fell on the ground one after another..

Chapter 567: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

After the attack.

Only the Goddess and Zhao An were left standing. This was Yang Hongling's intention. It was useful to keep them alive.

Whoosh!

A gust of wind flashed as he rushed forward. The two of them only felt their vision blur. Their chests seemed to have been heavily injured as they were hit by a huge force. Several of their ribs were broken, and they spat out blood arrows. Before they could land, their faces hurt as they were kicked. All their teeth were kicked away, and they lost the opportunity to bite their poisonous teeth and smashed fiercely onto the ground.

Zhang Ronghua stepped forward and stopped beside Zhao An. ""Who told you to assassinate me?" "You, you are Zhang Ronghua!"

"Do you recognize him?"

"I don't know!" Zhao An was scared and hurriedly said. All of this was arranged by Mu Tianchen. He had died in the battle the night before yesterday."

"Trash!"

After cursing, Zhang Ronghua made his move. With a flick of his finger, a sword Qi slashed down and killed him.

Yang Hongling knocked the goddess unconscious and carried her over. "" You're busy dealing with the Sky Shaking Powder now. Leave Jingshen to me. I'll find you when the spirit herbs are ready. ""

"Thank you for your hard work," said Zhang Ronghua.

"I'm going back."

"I'll send you on your way!"

Zhang Ronghua sent her all the way to the gate of the School of Fate. Yang

Hongling smiled sweetly, her bell-like laughter echoing in the night. She teased, "Why don't you come in and sit?"

When Duan Jiu and the others heard this, they hurriedly turned around and covered their ears with their backs facing them. It was better to hear less of such vicious words. Zhang Ronghua shook his head and declined."

"Be careful!"

Zhang Ronghua waved his hand, leaving her with his back view. Then, he turned around and left.

He carried the goddess into the Fate Academy and handed her over to someone else to watch over. When he returned to the courtyard, he saw his grandfather sitting in the pavilion, reading an ancient book. He walked over and stopped behind the old man. He stretched out a pair of white jade arms and placed them on his shoulders. He pinched them gently and asked, "Wait for me?"

The old man put down the book and took a sip of the tea. The spiritual tea and the bitter bodhi tea were very fragrant, but it was useless to him. He said, "Did you make that dress yourself?"

"Can you tell?"

"Nonsense! It was the same as the fabric on his grandfather's body, even the workmanship was the same. Did he really think that his grandfather had become an old fool?"

Yang Hongling lowered her head. If one looked closely, one would notice that her face was already red, spreading to her ears. Her earlobes were also dyed red. There was an additional temptation that made one want to lick her...

"How far has it developed?" The old man asked again."

"We, we are just friends!"

“Hehe...!”

“Whether you believe it or not, we are friends.”

Yang Hongling stomped her feet, afraid that she would continue to stay any longer. Her grandfather’s questions became sharper and sharper. Yang Hongling turned around and ran towards the boudoir.

Looking at the night sky.

The old man sighed.” So many years have passed in a flash. Even Hongling has grown up. I’ll go and resolve that matter on their wedding day and get rid of the regret in my heart!”“

He finished the tea in his cup, picked up the book, stood up, and walked towards his room.

Back home.

He walked to the door and stopped. The study room beside him was lit up, and the purple cat’s meowing could be heard. To others, it was meowing, but in Zhang Ronghua’s ears, it was reading ” The Heaven Scroll and the Earth Act...” He smiled slightly. The little guy was quite hardworking in order to cultivate Righteousness Qi.

As its master, it naturally couldn’t lose to it.

He took off his white silk brocade clothes, which were the same as the clothes worn by the old man. Even the flame on his chest was very similar. At that time, he guessed that it was very likely that Yang Hongling had done it, but he was too embarrassed to ask.

Putting away the Five Dragons Spirit Controlling Belt, he revealed his upper body and performed a hand seal with both hands. He activated Three Heads and Six Arms, and golden light appeared. Two heads and four arms grew out from between his ribs. As he cultivated this top-notch great divine power, he could freely retract and retract it, and there was no need to cultivate it like the first time.

There were no specific moves. He followed his heart, and he used them casually. If it wasn't for the fact that it was already late at night, the three heads would still be able to use sound wave martial techniques. As time passed, they became more and more proficient in using them.

In a room not far away.

Uncle Shi woke up from his sleep, put on his shoes, and walked to the window. Through the open window, he looked at the figure in the courtyard. Seeing that he had three heads and six arms, his old brows furrowed.

She retracted her gaze, got into bed, and continued sleeping.

An hour later.

Zhang Ronghua stopped. After cultivating for such a long time, he had finally cultivated this great divine power to the minor success of the second realm. Its power had become even stronger. He nodded in satisfaction and put away his two heads and four arms. He took some water from the well to wash up and entered the house. When he came out again, Uncle Shi had already returned. He wore his official robe and boarded the Tianji carriage. After eating breakfast in the carriage, he lay down on the soft couch to rest.

All the way to the Vermilion Bird Sect.

After getting out of the car, Ding Yi stood at the door. He had to go to court today and had fun until midnight before he fell asleep. He was full of energy and greeted, "Brother!"

"How long have you been here?" asked Zhang Ronghua.

"Not long after I arrived, you came."

"Let's go!"

He brought him into the Vermillion Bird Gate and walked towards the Purple Extreme Hall. On the way, he told him all the things to take note of.

Outside the main hall, they entered from the side door on the left. Things were different now, and they could no longer stand in the ranks of the Ministry of Rites. They walked towards the ranks of the Ministry of Works and saw Lu Junxiu standing at the back of the ranks. They communicated with each other through their eyes, warning him to look more and speak less. They stood in the ranks of the Ministry of Works with Ding Yi. This time, they moved forward a little, in the middle and slightly behind, a lot further from the front..

Chapter 569: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

Huang Zhongshi's eyes lit up as he understood."This subordinate will do it now! "

After he left.

Zhang Ronghua waved his right hand and put all the ten sacks into the Five Dragons Spirit Taming Belt. With this batch of spiritual fruits, he did not have to worry about it for a short time. He could eat as much as he wanted.

Just as he was about to continue reading, a member of the Golden Scaled Mysterious Heavenly Army walked over quickly and appeared outside the hall.

He knocked on the door and a respectful voice came from outside, "Milord, Commandant Cao has an urgent matter to see you!"

Zhang Ronghua thought of Cao Xing. Only he could order the Golden Scale Mysterious Heavenly Army to send a message.

Could it be that something big had happened?

Thinking of this, he waved his right hand, and the book in his hand left a beautiful curve in the air and accurately landed on the bookshelf. He opened the door and ordered, "Bring him to my main hall!"

He strode away and headed towards the office hall.

At this point.

Ding Yi was sitting on a blanket, consuming a spirit herb to cultivate the Nirvana Supreme Life Technique. It nourished his meridians, body, and soul, increasing his potential and increasing his lifespan. When he heard the door open, he closed his hands and ended his cultivation. He opened his eyes and stood up from the ground. Seeing his brother's serious expression, he asked, "What happened?"

He pulled out a chair and sat down.

"Cao Xing is here," said Zhang Ronghua.

"What is he doing here at this time?"

Ding Yi's expression changed. He had also thought about it. If there was nothing important, they would all be on duty and would not have come. Now that they had appeared, they should be passing on a message.

Soon, Cao Xing arrived. After the Golden Scaled Mysterious Heavenly Army left, he closed the door and cupped his fists. He quickly said, "Sir, something happened to His Highness!"

Zhang Ronghua's expression changed, wondering if he had heard wrongly. He thought about how he had not seen the Crown Prince during the morning court session. Combined with Cao Hang's character and the importance of this matter, it was very likely to be true. He asked seriously, "Speak!"

“Just now, General Zheng found me and ordered me to pass a message to you. Something happened to His Highness and he asked you to put down everything at hand and rush over immediately.”

“Where is he?”

“He has returned to the Eastern Palace!” “This matter is rotten in my heart!”

“This subordinate understands!”

Zhang Ronghua waved his hand, and Cao Xing tactfully retreated and closed the door.

“Brother, I’ll go with you,” Ding Yi said.”

Zhang Ronghua shook his head and did not agree.””No need!”

“But I’m worried.” [I have a mission for you to accomplish.]

“Tell me!”

Zhang Ronghua explained the plan of the spiritual fruit and took the opportunity to arouse the dissatisfaction of the other departments of the Spirit Research Department, so that the registrar could work together to attack Cui Jiancheng.

After listening.

Ding Yi understood. He was Zhang Ronghua’s assistant. If the higher-ups asked, he could say that his brother had left the rest of the work to him to be responsible for the research and development of the replacement material for the Sky Shaking Powder. Even if others wanted to make trouble, they would not have the chance. The initiative was in their hands. He instructed, “If things don’t work out, don’t forget me!”

Zhang Ronghua smiled and patted him on the shoulder. He gave him a reassuring look and changed out of his official robe. He took out the white silk brocade robe that Yang Hongling had personally made and put it on. He opened the door and rushed out.

With the True Dragon Token, even if he skipped work, the censors wouldn't dare to say anything!

At the Tranquil Heart Palace.

Su Qitang waved her hand, and the Phoenix Guards at the door retreated. She pushed open the door and entered the palace. She closed the door and walked inside quickly. When she reached the bedroom, she saw her sister like a lazy kitten. She was casually draped in a pink chiffon that couldn't even cover her skin, revealing a large part of her body. Her snow-white legs were exposed as she leaned against the bed and read a book. Her expression was solemn and unprecedentedly serious. "Something happened!"

He put down the book.

The Empress looked at her, her red phoenix eyes rolling, her beautiful eyelashes slightly narrowed. Seeing her serious and serious, she put away her laziness, and her temperament changed. She was dignified, domineering, and a word could decide the life and death of thousands of people. Her red and sexy lips opened. "Speak!"

"There's news that Shimin is 'sick'. He ordered Zheng Fugui to inform Zhang Ronghua and Cao Hang to go to the Ministry of Works to find him. He changed into plain clothes and rushed out of the palace.""

The Empress did not speak immediately. She stretched out two slender, fair, and jade-like fingers and pointed at the ginseng fruit in the fruit plate. "Cut one for me."

Su Qitang walked over, holding a ginseng fruit and a fruit knife. She placed two fingers on the knife and began peeling the fruit. The skin fell off one after another in a very orderly manner. In less than ten breaths, she was done peeling the fruit. She held it between two fingers and handed it over.

The Empress took it and took a bite with her pink and fragrant mouth. Her shapely eyebrows were tightly knitted together, forming the word "Chuan". She said again, "Shi Min sent someone over?"

Su Qitang understood what her sister meant and shook her head. ""No!"

"When children grow up, they will always have some immature thoughts.

When they hit their heads and bleed, they will know how good we are."

Su Qitang knew what to do and asked again, ""You want to send someone to stop Zhang Ronghua?"

The Empress shook her head. Her exquisite and beautiful face relaxed. With a disdainful expression, she asked, "Is he worthy?"

Thinking of Zhang Ronghua's ability, no matter what, as long as it was given to him, there was nothing that could not be done. Su Qitang reminded, ""We can't be careless!"

The empress did not take it to heart and continued to bite the ginseng fruit. A spiritual fruit the size of a baby was gradually eaten up by her small and exquisite mouth. She threw the fruit core into the trash can and took a handkerchief to wipe the water off her mouth. She casually threw it aside. "Why don't you understand? Despair wasn't the most terrifying thing. Only when one had tried, tried any method, and had no way out, that kind of torture was the most terrifying.. It was still fresh in his memory!"

Chapter 570: Something Happened to the Crown Prince

Su Qitang took a deep breath, lifted her skirt, and sat on the bed. She was in a daze as she held a ginseng fruit. Without even peeling it, she opened her red lips and revealed her bright silver teeth. She took a big bite and chewed hard. "I just can't bear to!"

He finished a Ginseng Fruit.

She had also vented her anger, and her expression was cold. Her almond-shaped eyes narrowed into a straight line, as if she was resentful that iron did not meet steel's expectations."Indeed! If we can use this opportunity to get Zhang Ronghua, it will be of great benefit to us."

“Zhang Ronghua’s matter is easy to deal with.”

The empress’s tone became even colder and emotionless. She sounded like a demon from the abyss, making people feel as if they had fallen into an ice cave. “Have you investigated that force?”

“It’s very tricky!” Su Qitang’s expression was solemn.

“After all these years of fighting, this faction has hidden itself very well. It’s good at hiding and is very large! I suspect that it isn’t just one, but two, or even several combined. We can’t hide Shimin’s ‘illness’ from them without making a move. It’s very likely that they’ll send experts to destroy it!”

A group of rats that could not be seen in the light, treated seriously strategically and looked down upon tactically, was not worth the Empress’s full attention.

“I’m worried about His Majesty.”

Su Qitang said, “Shimin sent someone into the palace this morning to tell His Majesty that he has been dealing with government affairs at a high intensity recently. He only sleeps very late every day and has fallen ill due to the exhaustion of his energy. He will recover in two days. His Majesty also sent Wei Shang to visit him with spirit herbs.”

The empress’s phoenix eyes moved even faster, and the light that bloomed became stronger and stronger. She thought about the mistakes and the areas that she had to pay attention to.

After a while.

“After this incident, we can’t let him continue to cause trouble like this.”

Su Qitang felt the same way. Once or twice was fine, but if it happened too many times, it would arouse suspicion. If he ordered someone to investigate again, it would be very troublesome! It might trigger a series of variables: “I’ve already made good arrangements here. I can strike at any time!” The Empress asked again, “What methods has Shimin prepared?”

"I don't know yet! He would probably only know when Zhang Ronghua arrived."

"Him again?"

Su Qiutang frowned and thought of the news from below. She said uncertainly, "'The Snow Stone Garden seems to be under surveillance."

"His Majesty's men?"

"Our people have investigated, but there are no clues at all! However, you know that although the person sent in the dark doesn't have much cultivation, he's good at hiding and tracking. His intuition is very sensitive."

The Empress twirled her hair and exposed her beautiful and elegant earlobes to the air. She took off the earrings she was wearing, but it was still difficult to hide their beauty. "Zhang Ronghua's family is protected by a force. It's not like you don't know. Previously, we guessed that these people were very likely His Majesty's people. Isn't it normal for them to monitor the Snow Garden?"

Su Qiutang shook her head."

"Who is it?"

"Yang Hongling!"

The Empress was puzzled." Why is it her?"

"The Snow Garden was injured by her the last time and she even sent word to us, so she ordered people to investigate seriously."

Thinking of this old man, the Empress's expression became even colder. Her ten fingernails, which were decorative and added to her dignity, clenched tightly together with her jade-like hands. She cursed, "Old fogey!"

Su Qitang continued, "There's no concrete evidence to prove that we're harming Zhang Ronghua's family. That's why the force that's secretly monitoring them didn't make a move."

Her phoenix eyes continued to turn and finally landed on Su Qitang's body. Facing her sister's gaze, she didn't know what was going on. Su Qitang felt uncomfortable all over, as if something bad had happened. She probed, "What?"

The anger on her face disappeared. The Empress stretched out her hand and held her soft hand as a precaution. "Don't get angry if you can't say it."

"It's best not to say it!"

The Empress did not seem to hear him and continued, "With your charm, it's rare in the world. No man can stop you..."

Su Qitang understood and was furious. "Shut up!"

"Hehe..." The Empress covered her mouth and giggled. Her bell-like laughter echoed in the hall.

He rolled his eyes at her in a bad mood.

"I'm just joking. Look at how anxious you are."

Su Qitang did not fall for her trick and asked, "What if I play such a joke on you?"

"!!!" The Empress was instantly stunned.

He put his two fingers together and bent them into a " nine " shape. He was about to knock her head lightly, but Su Qiutang dodged.

After the joke, he became serious again.

Zhang Ronghua has to be taken down. He has been hiding secrets ever since he entered the palace. The speed of his promotion is too frightening. He is also close to Yang Hongling. Once he enters the Pavilion of Heavenly Secrets, coupled with the support of the Fate Academy and the old teacher, the power he can unleash will be able to change the situation in Great Xia!"

Su Qiutang had a headache. She rubbed her temples helplessly and said weakly,""The plan you set has just been implemented, and it won't be effective in a short period of time. Even if you change it now, there's no better plan. Unless he got rid of him, there was nothing he could do."

"Let's watch for a while more."

In the Eastern Palace.

In the bedroom.

Zheng Fugui had already returned to the main hall. He led the Flood Dragon Guards to stand guard outside, and the rear hall was fortified like an iron bucket. Not even a fly could fly in.

Within the palace, the spell formation was activated. As it circulated, it emitted a supreme power that sealed this place and isolated it from anyone. Not a single aura could be leaked..
