

East Palace 91

Chapter 91: The Battle Between the Princes

Moreover, the fire in the surroundings was getting fiercer and fiercer. It seemed that many nobles were involved, so he tried not to offend them as much as possible.

He circulated his Black Yellow True Essence and shouted, "Zhang Ronghua is the commander of the Eastern Palace's Rong Guards. Everyone, calm down!"

Like rolling thunder, it exploded in their ears.

The furious crowd calmed down.

Zhang Ronghua continued, "We just finished drinking and passed by here. We saw them setting fire and escaping, so we killed some of them. We left this one alive and was about to interrogate him when you arrived.""

The leaders of the two forces hurriedly stepped forward and bowed.

However, the battle between the two sides grew fiercer and fiercer as they drew closer. In less than ten breaths, they had arrived. Each and every one of them was filled with killing intent. They killed anyone they saw, brandishing their swords and swords as they charged over.

There were too many people. Even these two forces did not want to participate, but they killed their own people indiscriminately. In the end, their eyes turned red and they raised their sabers to fight.

Zhang Ronghua and the others were also forced to kill some people.

In the corner.

The three of them stood together. Ma Ping 'an recognized them and said with a solemn expression, ""“Their identities are not ordinary. They are either the people of the princes or the people of the nobles.”

Zhang Ronghua's brain worked very quickly. These forces had started fighting for no reason, and they were killing each other like this. People were falling every minute and second. As far as he could see, there were corpses everywhere, and blood was thick. Many people had died. If it wasn't for careful planning and preparation in advance, there wouldn't be such a lineup, especially this fire."Could it be that the Witch's people are attacking again?" Combined with the previous situation, the possibility was very high.

The Demoness was the upper echelon of the Shocking Gods, and these people were all death warriors who were not afraid of death!

Seeing that he was silent.

"What should we do?" Ma Ping 'an asked again.

Looking at Zheng Fugui, Zhang Ronghua ordered, ""“Take this man in black and quickly return to the Eastern Palace. Report the situation here to His Highness and make preparations as soon as possible.”

"Yes."

With the man in black and the Flood Dragon Sword in hand, he carved out a bloody path and rushed toward the Eastern Palace.

"What about us?"

Zhang Ronghua sneered. This was a good opportunity for them. The more the princes lost, the more benefits the Crown Prince would receive."Watch the show! "

Ma Ping 'an was also a smart person and understood what he meant.

The two of them moved to another place. This was the center of the battle. They stopped on a roof and sat on it to watch quietly.

“Who do you think is the most likely?”

Zhang Ronghua shook his head and took out the black grapes that the purple cat had given him. He threw half of them over and picked one and gave it to the cat. The purple cat opened its mouth and ate it, spitting out the grape skin. He also ate one. “It’s possible, but it’s also impossible.”

“Strange! Why wasn’t His Highness ‘business affected?”

Knowing that he had misspoken, Ma Ping ‘an pursed his lips.””A slip of the tongue!”

“It’s not like you don’t know what happened some time ago. His Highness sent people to strengthen the protection. With preparations, it’ll be very difficult for them to succeed.”

“I still don’t understand. What benefits can the person behind the scenes get by stirring up their dispute and causing such a huge commotion?”

He pondered for a moment.

Zhang Ronghua guessed all the possibilities.”His goal is likely to mess up the situation.”

Ma Ping ‘an pointed in a direction. They seemed to be the Second Prince’s men.

His mansion was the closest to here.”

After the Second Prince’s men arrived, the other princes ‘men also arrived.

Very quickly.

Everyone who was supposed to be here had arrived. Looking at the chaotic situation in front of them, their people did not act rashly. They all knew what consequences they would bring to their masters if they joined in, so they maintained their calm.

However, the situation was not something they could control just because they wanted to. They did not make a move and chose to put out the fire to reduce their losses. However, there were people arranged by the mastermind in this chaotic battle. When they saw them coming, they led the flames of war over and forcefully pulled them down.

Even a fool would resist when he saw someone kill him, let alone these guards.

The situation escalated, and more and more people were involved.

“Stop!”

The patrolling city guards arrived. The person in the lead was a Sima, leading five hundred soldiers. They rode on horses and circulated their internal strength while roaring.

As soon as the voice sounded, it was dispersed by the sky-piercing shouts.

Since the battle had escalated to this point, the number of people participating in the battle had already exceeded 2,000. Their eyes were bloodshot from killing, and it was not something that could be stopped with a single sentence.

Just like earlier.

As soon as his voice rang out, some people subconsciously stopped. Before they could come back to their senses, they were slashed to the ground by the people around them. No one dared to stop.

Sima's face was cold as he looked at the battle in front of him. His head was swollen as he quickly made a decision. "Release the signal flare!" One of his confidants took out the signal flare of the Fifth Division of City

Defense and released it.

Bang!

Dazzling fireworks bloomed in the night sky, very eye-catching.

"What should we do now, Milord?" asked his confidant.

Sima looked around. These people were all red-eyed. There were about four times more people than them. Most of them were martial artists. Even if they knew some fake moves, their strength could not be underestimated. Even if they were placed on a wide flat ground, they would not be able to resist the enemy in a military formation, let alone in an urban battle.

But he had to ask. He had not patrolled this area. No matter how they killed, they had already arrived. If he sat idly by, no matter what the consequences were, he would be unlucky..

Chapter 92: The Battle Between the Princes

"Surround this place. We can't let it spread!"

"Yes, sir!"

There were five battalions of soldiers in the first platoon, each with a hundred men. They were led by the military marquis, and they all knew what Sima's order meant. They might die here tonight, but their duties were there. From the moment they put on this armor, the mission given to them did not allow them to retreat.

Without waiting for them to take action, the people in the chaotic battle and the mastermind behind the scenes deliberately expanded the battle situation. Especially when they saw them, they had already made up their minds to drag all the soldiers of the Fifth Division of City Defense into the water and deliberately lead the battle to charge towards them.

Seeing that the group of people was getting closer and closer.

Sima had nowhere to retreat. He was expressionless and his eyes were firm. He waved his hand and immediately ordered, "Release the arrows!"

The archers of the 1st Battalion stepped forward and took out their crossbows from their backs. The arrows were only in the chamber and could be fired five times in a row. They had powerful penetrating and destructive power.

"Release!"

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The sound of arrows piercing through the air rang out as countless arrows shot out. The people who charged forward first were too late even if they wanted to dodge. There were too many of them, and they were either killed or heavily injured.

After a volley of arrows, the ground was littered with corpses.

At this moment, it was already too late to reload the arrows. Sima ordered again, "Form the formation and kill the enemy!"

Although the street was very big, it was still too small for a large number of people. It was impossible to spread out the army formation. Only a dozen people could form a formation and coordinate with the formation.

They had just finished all of this when they charged over.

When warriors met soldiers, the former had high cultivation while the latter was fearless. As long as they still had a breath, their beliefs would not collapse. They would fight with their enemies with swords and swords, and the battle would be even more intense.

On the roof.

Zhang Ronghua sighed, "They are all good!"

Ma Ping 'an's hand was tightly pressed on the hilt of his sword. His expression was ferocious, and a terrifying killing intent was brewing in his eyes. As a general, although he belonged to different units, he was still a soldier and a member of the general. Seeing the city guards killed, he wanted nothing more than to charge down and kill all these damn people.

But he couldn't!

The battle situation is already very chaotic, the situation is unclear, the situation is down, if he is true, this is done, will bring great trouble to the prince, can only endure.

Patting his shoulder, Zhang Ronghua signaled him to relax. He pointed in a direction where the True Dragon Palace was located. "This place is very close to the True Dragon Palace. With their power, they should know about the battle."

He let out a breath of turbid air and loosened his clenched fists.

Ma Ping 'an was grateful. It almost caused a disaster."

As soon as he finished speaking.

A middle-aged woman, the Azure Dragon Envoy, who was emitting a powerful soul aura, rushed over with hundreds of people. They were a mix of the White Dragon Envoy and the Golden Dragon Envoy.

"Li Rong!"

Zhang Ronghua was curious when he saw the fear in his eyes and the tone in his voice. "You know him?"

"This person is an Earth Rank Soul Master. Her methods are ruthless and she kills without batting an eye. Mentioning her name could make the child stop crying."

As they spoke.

Li Rong had already rushed here with her men. Looking at the chaos in front of her, her gaze was very cold and emotionless. She licked her lips wickedly like a demon from the Netherworld. "Leave no one alive!"

He was the first to attack. He mobilized his soul power and formed hundreds of soul blades. Each blade was about three feet long and had great power. He ruthlessly attacked and slashed at these people.

Except for a few people who blocked it, the others were instantly killed. With their own strength, they forcefully opened up a bloody path.

The other people of the True Dragon Palace followed behind her, waving their swords and harvesting their lives like hungry wolves charging into a flock of sheep.

Zhang Ronghua frowned and looked in a certain direction in the crowd. When Li Rong attacked, there was a demonic aura leaking out. Although it was very faint, it could not hide from his eyes. His gaze fell on a devilish young man. His Qi Restraining Technique was not bad. He had restrained all the demonic aura in his body. His cultivation had reached the fifth tier of the Great Grandmaster Realm, far surpassing her.

"There's a demon hidden inside."

"Demon?" Ma Ping 'an couldn't believe it."

At this moment, the devilish young man had already reached Li Rong's side. Although she had noticed it, she did not take it to heart. Just as she was about to attack and kill him, the devilish young man no longer hid. He attacked with all his strength and used his innate divine ability. It was actually an escape technique. He turned into a green lightning bolt and appeared in front of her.

Li Rong's expression changed drastically, and she was so scared that she broke out in a cold sweat. She hurriedly shouted, "Quickly block him!"

"It's too late!" the devilish young man mocked."

Soul masters were invincible in the same realm, but they had a weakness. Their physical bodies were very weak. Once they were close to someone, without a treasure to protect them, they would not be able to resist someone in the same realm.

Moreover...

The devilish young man's cultivation was even more profound than hers, so it was even more impossible.

Hundreds of green lights shot out from his palm. Surrounded by the green lights, they turned into a sharp claw that contained supreme power. It ruthlessly grabbed at her head.

"No...

Before he could finish his sentence, his head exploded and his broken body fell to the ground.

Looking at the other people from the True Dragon Palace, the devilish young man used his ability and charged at them.

Zheng Fugui rushed over at this moment. He stepped on the eaves and stopped in front of them in a few flashes. He hurriedly said, "His Highness has ordered us to suppress the rebellion! The rest of the Flood Dragon Guards were also about to arrive.."

Chapter 93: The Battle Between the Princes

“Did the man in black speak?” asked Zhang Ronghua.”

“Yes.” Zheng Fugui quickly nodded.

” They are all men of sacrifice, trained by the Demoness. Tonight’s incident was also planned by her. She targeted the properties of some princes and nobles, completely messing up the situation and making them fight each other.”

The situation was urgent, so he did not ask in detail. Right now, he had to clean up the mess here.

Looking at the street ahead, the crowd surged and the sound of uniform footsteps could be heard. No matter how loud the killing sounds were, they could not be suppressed. The aura of the two thousand Dragon Guards condensed together like a sharp sword that pierced through the sky, cold and murderous.

“Attack! ”

He was the first to rush down from the eaves.

Ma Ping ‘an and Zheng Fugui followed closely behind.

The devilish young man had just finished off half of the True Dragon Palace’s people when he suddenly felt a sense of danger. He didn’t even dare to look back and hurriedly rushed to the side.

He was fast, but Zhang Ronghua was even faster.

The people around him were all people from other factions. They didn’t use their full strength. They secretly mobilized a bit of soul power to condense into a sharp small sword. There were no abnormalities, but the power contained was extremely shocking.

As if it had eyes, it rushed up and heavily injured him before leaving a mark on his body.

The devilish young man was severely injured. His chest was pierced through and blood flowed out. He was terrified that there was a Heaven Rank Soul Master hiding nearby. He was scared out of his wits and did not dare to delay any longer. He abandoned his opponent and used a secret technique to turn into a bloody shadow and rush forward.

Zhang Ronghua didn't chase after him. No matter where he ran to, he could find him by following the mark.

He had to settle the matter here first. Otherwise, it would be a tough battle with just the Flood Dragon Guards.

Without revealing his cultivation, he took out the Golden Dragon Sword and charged into the battle with the power of a Numinous Treasure and his cultivation at the sixth tier of the Zongshi realm.

As long as they weren't from the Fifth Division of Town Security or the True Dragon Palace, they would kill them.

He did not show any mercy in dealing with these princes and nobles.

As the Flood Dragon Guards arrived.

Most of them had learned the Universal Sword Formation. When they attacked, they would use the sword formation, increasing their power by twelve times. Sword qi surged everywhere, as if they had entered a state of anatta, killing these people until they cried for their parents.

In the end.

They could not stop even if they wanted to.

The Flood Dragon Guards, the Fifth Division of City Defense, and the remaining True Dragon Palace troops didn't show any mercy and joined forces to kill them.

At this moment.

Zhang Ronghua had already left quietly. When the battle was coming to an end, he put away his Golden Dragon Sword and chased after the devilish young man following the mark he had left behind.

The more he chased, the deeper his frown became.

In the end.

He actually stopped at the Tranquil Heart Lake. His mansion was right next to it.

He stood by the lake and looked at the devilish young man hiding at the bottom of the lake. He had been hit by his move and lost more than half of his life. He was taking medicine to heal himself. When he saw him appear, his pores opened and his face was filled with fear.

A bold guess appeared. He, he couldn't be that Heaven Rank Spirit Master hiding in the dark, right?

He made a hand seal and was about to use a secret technique to escape.

"Humph!" Zhang Ronghua snorted.

He grabbed at the air, and a terrifying suction force erupted from his palm. At the heaven ascension realm, his combat strength had increased drastically. The river water exploded and split into two sides, and the devilish young man was grabbed out uncontrollably.

"No...

No matter how he struggled, it was futile.

She grabbed his neck and smashed him onto the ground.

Walking up to him, Zhang Ronghua stepped on his chest and looked down at him. He asked, "Where is the witch?"

"Senior, please spare my life! I really don't know where she is."

"Is that so?"

He used the Seven Severing Soul Extinguishing Hand and grabbed the bones on his body. He squeezed them roughly and looked at them coldly with his hands behind his back.

A shrill scream came out of his mouth.

However, at the beginning, the devilish young man could not withstand it. Although demons were strong, had strong bodies, and had long lifespans, their willpower was really weak compared to humans.

He tortured her for a while.

He really didn't know where the Demoness was. He learned from her that the Demoness had saved his life in the past. Some time ago, she had ordered someone to find him and ask him for help. She had even promised him a 500-year-old ginseng after the matter was done. That was why this scene had happened.

However, it wasn't as if he hadn't gained anything from tonight's operation. In the First Prince's shop, he had obtained an ancient text fragment from the secret room.

A sword Qi slashed down and took his life.

He searched the corpse and found the ancient text on his chest.

Purple Cat jumped down from his shoulder and looked at Zhang Ronghua's corpse with a fiery look. "You want to eat him?"

"Meow!"

"He's a fiendish demon with the cultivation of a great grandmaster. You're only at the tenth level of the Connate realm. Even if you have some phoenix bloodline, can you digest it?"

Purple Cat nodded heavily.

Zhang Ronghua was still worried. If the crown prince gave it to him and it exploded, he would think about it later and it would be difficult to explain. However, the purple cat wanted to eat it. The demon's corpse was very tempting to it.

Helplessly, he helped.

A stream of Black Yellow True Essence struck down and purified the demonic Qi in his body, leaving only the purest power. Although it was less than one-tenth of his peak strength, he did not have to worry about bursting after eating it.

The purple-red light of True Spirit bloomed from Purple Cat's body. Under Zhang Ronghua's gaze, it expanded to three meters in size. It opened its mouth and swallowed him. A terrifying suction force erupted and swallowed him. Its huge body rapidly shrank and returned to its original appearance.

He did not dare to delay.

He sat on the ground and circulated his cultivation to refine it. His aura increased and he began to break through.

Zhang Ronghua shook his head." He stood at the side to protect it.

Fifteen minutes later.

With his powerful Phoenix bloodline, he refined the body of the devilish young man and broke through to the Zongshi realm. The Light of True Spirit was retracted into his body and disappeared.

He jumped into Zhang Ronghua's arms and cuddled up to him. ""Meow!"

First, he returned to the residence and left it at home. He warned it to stay obediently and not run around. Then, he rushed to the Eastern Palace.

At this point.

The Crown Prince was not around and had already entered the palace. Such a huge matter had happened, and he had finally stepped forward to resolve it. This matter had already been reported to the Xia Emperor. Other than him, all the princes and nobles who had participated in the matter tonight had been summoned.

Ma Ping 'an and the others had already returned. When they saw him, they hurriedly welcomed him with a concerned expression. "Are you alright?"

Zhang Ronghua nodded as if he knew what he was going to ask. He said, "I didn't catch up!"

He did not get any useful information from the bewitching young man. It was better to avoid trouble.

He continued to wait.

The Crown Prince only returned from the palace at noon the next day and called them over.

Xuanhe Hall.

The door of the hall closed. Without waiting for them to ask, he took the initiative to tell them what had happened.

In the chaotic battle last night, half of the princes' businesses suffered huge losses, including some nobles. The remaining princes' businesses were not damaged..

Chapter 94: The Sixth Prince's Doomsday

The First Prince's businesses had suffered the greatest losses, and almost all of his businesses in the capital had been destroyed.

At the same time.

The Xia Emperor pointed at their noses and gave them a vicious scolding. His words were sharp, and he was just short of slapping them. Each and every one of them had lost all their face, and they wished they could find a rat hole to hide in and be imprisoned for seven days.

The True Dragon Palace and the Fifth Division of the City Defense were not doing their jobs well. The former pushed a Purple Dragon Emissary who had relied on connections to get to the top to take the blame and was stripped of his position. The general who was on duty last night was expelled from the army and demoted to a commoner.

The nearby shops and residents who suffered losses would be compensated by the participating princes.

The Crown Prince made a prompt decision. When he discovered the situation here, he immediately mobilized the Flood Dragon Guards to suppress it and resolve a potential crisis. Emperor Xia rewarded him with a pair of jade ruyi and praised him verbally.

"Did you catch that demon?" he asked Zhang Ronghua."

"No! The other party's escape technique was very fast and he was also good at concealment. Even if he was injured, it would be very difficult to take him down."

Crown Prince nodded and did not dwell on the issue. He already knew what to do in his heart, so he asked again, "What do you think about what happened last night?"

He pondered for a moment.

Zhang Ronghua voiced out his guess, "The motive of the mastermind behind the scenes is very clear. He wants to drag everyone down and throw the situation into chaos. On the surface, although the matter has been resolved, the seeds of hatred have also been planted. When the opportunity is right, he will definitely kill them."

"I think so too. The First Prince suffered the greatest loss this time. When he left the Imperial Palace, his face was completely black."

"There's still no news from Witch and Jingshen?"

The Crown Prince shook his head. He had already ordered people to investigate, but the capital was too big. There were millions of people. It was really easy to hide someone. Just finding a place to hide would take a lot of effort.

Moreover...

It was not the right time yet. Some forces could not be revealed. Otherwise, someone would not be able to sit still and could only carry out the investigation in secret. This would increase the difficulty of the investigation again.

He changed the topic.

"You did well this time. Each of you will be rewarded with 2,000 taels of silver and a portion of spiritual fruit."

"Thank you, Your Highness!"

“You’ve been busy since last night and haven’t rested yet. I’ll give you half a day off and you’ll be back on duty tomorrow.”

They left the Hall of Proclamation and Harmony.

“He really didn’t catch them?” asked the Green Girl.”

The Crown Prince shook his head.” That’s not important. If there was news, he wouldn’t hide it.”

He left the Eastern Palace.

Ma Ping ‘an left first. Zheng Fugui stopped and asked,””Cousin, are you going to Shangjing?”

Zhang Ronghua guessed what he wanted to do. He transferred the mansion that the Crown Prince gave him to his name and then moved over. He smiled and said,”No! You can go by yourself.”

“Alright! When I come back, I’ll ask you to visit it together.”

He left in a hurry.

Back home.

Uncle Shi had just finished preparing lunch and didn’t know that he was coming back. There were only two dishes and a bowl of soup. He brought a bowl over from the kitchen.

In the lobby.

Uncle Shi took a mouthful of rice and asked,””Where’s wealth?”

“His Highness bestowed him with a courtyard not far from here. He went to the Shangjing government to transfer the ownership, and he will live there from now on.”

He looked around but did not see Purple Cat.

“What about it?” Zhang Ronghua asked curiously. “He was just sunbathing in the courtyard.”

After dinner.

Zhang Ronghua found Purple Cat at the side of the bedroom. The little fellow was smart and occupied a room. After confirming that it did not run around, he returned to the room and closed the door.

He sat on the bed and took out the ancient text fragment.

There were only nine pages in a book. Those who had not studied the ancient texts would not be able to understand them at all. It was like reading a wordless heavenly book.

He raised his eyebrows in surprise.

He discovered that this incomplete text was actually a part of the Chaos Celestial Body. It could be supplemented to make the Chaos Celestial Body more complete. “Where did the First Prince’s men get this?”

If last night’s incident hadn’t happened, he could have captured the person in charge of the shop and interrogated him.

However, they died in that chaotic battle. Even if someone was lucky enough to escape, they would not know.

He put away the ancient text fragment.

According to the records, he began to complete the Chaos Celestial Body. He used some time to perfect it and increase its power by 20%. He circulated it again according to the new cultivation technique and only stopped after two hours.

“My strength has increased again.”

At this moment, Zheng Fugui’s voice came from outside.””Cousin, come out quickly. I’ll bring you to see my mansion.” “This guy!”

He opened the door and walked out.

The latter impatiently urged him to hurry up. After crossing two streets, they stopped outside a small courtyard. The location was not bad. Although it could not be compared to his place, it was not much different. The scenery was also quite good, and there were flowers and plants around.

He opened the door to the courtyard.

It was clean and tidy. There was not a speck of dust or fallen leaves on the ground. It seemed like it had been cleaned. Even the furniture was new. There was also a small lake with some ornamental fish. The Crown Prince had considered the details very well.

He finished reading it in one go.

Zheng Fugui’s mouth was crooked from laughing. He was very satisfied with this mansion and said happily, “I’ll go back now and call my parents, aunt, and uncle over. We’ll have dinner here tonight.”

After he left, Zhang Ronghua stopped at the lake. He suddenly had an urge to practice all the martial techniques and divine arts he had.

He did as he was told.

He started with the simplest Taizu Long Fist. That year, he pestered Zhang Qin for a long time and was annoyed by him, so he taught him this Lower Yellow Class fist technique. He did not expect Zhang Qin to be so talented that he could master it in one go. Not long after, his family's wealth was emptied, and Zhang Ronghua's strength had reached a very high level..

Chapter 95: The Sixth Prince's Doomsday

Simple fist techniques were common on the market. Each of his fists contained immense power and the charm of Dao.

Then, there were other fist techniques, followed by leg techniques, sword techniques, and saber techniques... He rehearsed them one by one.

In the end.

He used the Mountain River World Suppression Fist, the Vast Myriad Sword Technique, and the Nine Tribulations Overturning Sea Sword Technique that he had created by combining his sword comprehension. After he finished practicing, Zhang Ronghua withdrew his palm and stood up. Although his strength did not increase, his comprehension of martial arts had increased by another level.

Footsteps sounded.

Hearing the commotion, it seemed like his parents had arrived. He went up to welcome them. When he reached the front courtyard, he happened to see Zheng Fugui proudly bringing them in. He greeted them and accompanied them to tour the courtyard.

His mother and eldest aunt were cooking, and his father pulled him to the side.

Seeing his serious expression, Zhang Ronghua stopped smiling and asked, "What's wrong?"

"The Crown Prince asked Shuang 'er to send a batch of spiritual items over two days ago. Do you know?" Zhang Qin asked."

“There’s such a thing?”

Calculating the time, it should be the day when Su Qutang came to see him.

The next day, he found Su Qutang and wanted to transfer him to the Scholar Hall. Connecting the dots, the Crown Prince made his move on the same day.

He sorted out his thoughts.

“Don’t think too much, he’s trying to rope me in.””

Qilin Lane, No. 68.

In the luxurious courtyard, there were only a few guards on duty. Even the maids and servants were the same. It was very deserted.

In the backyard.

There was a group of guards guarding the door. Other than them, no one dared to approach.

In the study room.

Prince Six stood by the window and looked out at the sky that was about to turn dark. The remaining sunset and the red clouds that were left behind gradually disappeared as time passed.

He stood there for a long time without moving.

There was no sadness or joy on his face. One could not tell what he was thinking from his face.

The door was pushed open and the witch walked in.

Unlike her previous dressing, she had deliberately dressed up today. Her skirt was very short, and her upper body only covered her important parts, revealing her snow-white skin. Her lower body was even more exaggerated, and it couldn't even cover her buttocks. Her evenly slender jade legs flickered with a beautiful luster.

Very thin!

Wearing it was like not wearing it, and the scenery inside was faintly discernible.

She wore a navy blue bracelet on her wrist, and her long fingernails were painted with crystal nail polish, which looked like stars. It was beautiful.

Her hair was coiled up high, locked with an expensive hairpin, and tied into a knot.

Her exquisite face was covered with bright red lipstick, making her jade-like lips even more alluring and sexy.

Before it reached the Sixth Prince, the fragrant wind passed over first and stopped beside him, looking at the sky outside together.

At this moment.

"Why haven't you left yet?" Prince Six asked calmly."

"Where to?"

"Jingshen's side has been dealt with, they won't cause you any more trouble.

Before Xia Shimin finds out about this place, leave the capital and go to Da Shang! No matter how powerful he was, he would not be able to do anything if he hid his identity there.”

The Demoness shook her head and pretended to be relaxed. With a gentle smile, she asked, “Do you know what I admire most about you?”

“I have a lot of good points, but I was unlucky enough to be tricked by that slut Princess Chang Xi. Otherwise, even if I couldn’t have the last laugh, I wouldn’t have fallen so quickly! ”

“Wrong! ”

Prince Six was stunned, and the expression on his face changed for the first time. His eyebrows were tightly knitted together, and then he relaxed,””Was it wrong?”

“Yes.” The witch nodded seriously.

“What I admire the most about you is not your political tactics or ruthlessness, but your courage to face desperate situations and your tenacity to not admit defeat!”

He looked at the sky outside again.

At this moment, the sky was already dark. Night had fallen, and darkness spilled over the ground. However, the study was still very dark. There were no candles lit, and no luminous pearls were used to illuminate it.

However, they could hear each other’s breathing and heartbeat.

‘ Just like you said, it’s not your fault that you failed. Regarding Princess Changxi, that letter was just an excuse. Neither the Crown Prince nor the other princes will let you turn the tables and destroy your power so that no one else will dare to get close to you. This plan started from Heavenly Earth. It involved Huo family of Marquis Wushuang, Yin Guoping, and the Shen family. It also included the matter of Jinxiu Pavilion, the Crown Prince’s business, and the failure of the assassin. Then, it targeted the businesses of some princes and nobles. Although it almost failed, it was not without gains. At least the True

Dragon Palace and the Fifth Division of City Guard were dragged into the mess. In this matter, they had suffered the greatest loss. If there was a chance, they would definitely not let the other princes off.”

Prince Six shook his head.”

“I don’t understand. Why did you extract the Shen family’s Azure Dragon bloodline to help me get rid of the Jingshen?”

“All these years, you’ve made countless contributions. BenGong couldn’t reward you and couldn’t bear it. In the end, knowing that you were going to die, why would I drag you down? There was no meaning to it. It was better to give you freedom, to break free from the control of Jingshen, and to live a

He paused for a moment, and a regretful expression appeared on his face.

“What a pity! In the process of destroying the Shen family, some of them escaped, but it was not a big deal.”

“Have you really accepted your fate?”

Prince Six smiled. His smile was very sweet and warm. No one in the royal family was ugly. Their genes were very strong. Coupled with their 1.82 meters height, they were like the big brother next door..

Chapter 96: The Sixth Prince’s Doomsday

“All the cards have been played, but if you want me to accept my fate and hand over my life to them, Xia Shimin or anyone else, they don’t have the right to do

He looked in the direction of the palace, revealing his affection.

“BenGong has already ordered people to hand over a memorial, begging Imperial Father to let BenGong see Imperial Mother.”

The Witch’s expression changed drastically.

Prince Six was very open-minded.”

“No, I can’t! This was not it! If you agree, I’ll protect you with my life.”

“We can’t escape! You know that there’s a powerful force hiding in the dark. It could be Xia Shimin or the Empress’s men. If I leave the mansion, they’ll find out in a few minutes. Do you think they can escape the capital with their power?”

He pointed at his own body.

“The Samsara Heart Devouring Gu’s poison is very overbearing. BenGong has a feeling that time is running out!”

The Demoness gritted her teeth. Her face was ferocious, and the veins on her face could be seen. She looked like a crazy beast. “Damn Xia Shi Min!”

The Sixth Prince continued,” The fights these days and his character, I don’t think it’s him. I lost my mind in anger and made a wrong move, but it doesn’t matter anymore. I’ll die no matter if I win or not. Although the result is not satisfactory, it will at least make the water even more muddy. With their ambition, if they don’t fight, it will be harder than ascending to the heavens to overthrow him when he has the support of the Grand Tutor! Even Princess Changxi, that b * tch, could understand such a simple logic. They could understand it too. The good show was yet to come.”

The witch turned around and looked at him.”You want me!”

Prince Six was stunned and wondered if he had heard wrongly.

However, she did not give him any time to react and took the initiative to step forward...

After a long time.

Prince Six was lying on top of her. He was subdued by her and could not move.

The devilish female caressed his face reluctantly. Tears welled up in her eyes, but she tried her best to hold them back. It was as if she wanted to brand his appearance into the depths of her soul so that she would never forget it for the rest of her life. She gently said, "After two hours, the true essence left in your body will dissipate and you will regain your freedom."

The Sixth Prince struggled violently, trying to break free with his internal energy. However, the Demoness was a half-step Celestial Being, and half of her internal energy had been converted into true essence. She was only one step away from breaking through to the Celestial Being Realm, so how could he break free?"Let me go!"

This time, he didn't call himself 'bengong', but 'me'.

"I don't care if Xia Shimin did it or not, I'll make him pay for it!"

"Are you crazy? Not to mention that you're only a half-step into the Celestial Realm, even if you break through to the Celestial Realm, you won't be able to kill him either!"

The witch smiled gently and shook her head."Who told you that I wanted to kill him?"

Prince Six was very smart and guessed her intention."You want to kill Ji Xueyan?"

"Yes."

She softly responded and her jade-like hand stopped on his face.

"No! The power of the Grand Tutor is more terrifying than you can imagine.

Don't provoke him! Listen to me, leave before he notices you!"

"When I came here, I got someone to investigate. Ji Xueyan went to Jixia Learning Palace today and hasn't come out yet."

Prince Six was in despair. He had never felt so helpless before. His eyes were bloodshot."Don't make me hate you!"

The Demoness suddenly hugged him tightly in her arms. She wished she could continue like this. The water in her eyes could not be held back anymore. It flowed out uncontrollably like a dam that had been released, wetting his clothes. She spoke even more softly, "If you weren't poisoned by the Reincarnation Heart-Devouring Worm, I would have taken you away from the capital even if I had to give up my life. I would have found a place that no one knew about and accompanied you until you were old. However, all of this was taken away by them. They couldn't even satisfy this small request."

The softest part of Prince Six's heart was touched. He stopped struggling and quietly enjoyed the last warmth.

He knew that once she let go, it would be the time for them to say goodbye forever.

"If you're going to die, what's the point of me living in this world? What was there to be afraid of when he was about to die? Kill Ji Xueyan and enrage the Grand Tutor. If we can't do it, let him do it! If we can drag one down with us, that's one."

She let go of him and pressed her hand on his shoulder. Her beautiful eyes were filled with reluctance as she kissed his forehead gently."The road to the netherworld is too dark. I'm willing to be your lamp to illuminate the darkness."

Prince Six's eyes turned red as he stared at her. He wanted to remember this most beautiful scene in his heart forever. With a firm gaze, he said calmly,"Let me go!"

Their eyes met.

In the end, the Demoness was defeated. She saw the choice in his eyes. She waved her hand and dispelled the true essence in his body, restoring his ability to move.

Opening his arms, Prince Six hugged her tightly in his arms. He used a lot of strength and wanted to rub her into his body. The witch hugged him too.

After a long time, he let go.

He held her cheeks and kissed her domineeringly. When they were separated again, he said, "Don't go too fast, wait for me!" The witch smiled and replied, "Yes."

He stood up and walked out.

Seeing that her figure was about to disappear, Prince Six rushed forward like a madman and hugged her from behind. "Let's get married! "

"Now?"

Chapter 97: The Sixth Prince's Doomsday

"Now!"

"There's not enough time."

"There's still time!"

‘You have a phoenix coronet and a ceremonial robe?’

“Give me some time!”

Let go of her.

Prince Six took the pen as fast as he could and cut his right wrist with his fingernail. Blood sprayed out and the tip of the pen was stained with blood. He walked in front of her and stopped, smiling. “I’ll draw it for you!”

The demoness raised her head and looked at the ceiling. After everything she had experienced over the years, she thought that she was already very strong and would not fall for anyone else. She did not expect to fall in love with him. She had never cried like this before. Tonight, it seemed that she had cried all the tears in her life.

Tears once again wet her cheeks!

This phoenix coronet was the most beautiful gift she had ever received in her life!

He finished drawing.

“Do you like it?” Prince Six asked.

“I like it! It’s my turn.”

She took the pen from his hand and cut her own wrist. She also used her blood to draw a set of official clothes for him. She took out a candle and dyed it red with her blood, representing the red candle.

The two of them held hands and knelt on the ground.

“Ancestors of Great Xia, I, Xia Shizhong, will marry the witch today. Please bear witness!”

"I, the Demoness, am marrying Xia Shizhong today. I am his person in life and his soul in death!"

They looked at each other and smiled.

He bowed to heaven and earth!

Second bow to heaven and earth!

The three husband and wife bowed to each other!

No one witnessed it, only them.

Even though he didn't offer sacrifices to his ancestors or the ancestral temple, the Sixth Prince was still a member of the royal family. He had a portion of the Great Xia Dynasty's luck on him. The moment they completed their ceremony, a portion of the Great Xia Dynasty's luck fell on the Demoness. With the support of this trace of luck, it helped her complete her breakthrough. All of her internal energy was converted into True Essence, and she broke through to the Celestial Realm!

He took out a jade pendant that was surrounded by golden light and emitted an ancient power that made one's heart palpitate. Looking at him, the devilish female was puzzled. "This is?"

The Sixth Prince's expression was serious." When we get married, you are already a member of the royal family. The fate of Great Xia will descend on you.

If you don't hide it, it won't be long before the ancestor guarding the ancestral temple discovers it."

"Could it be that the energy just now was the destiny of Grand Nia?"

Prince Six nodded and crushed it. He made a hand seal and growled,""Go!"

The jade pendant transformed into the power of heavenly secrets and rushed into the sky, concealing the fate of Grand Xia.

“It can’t hide for long. The ancestor will be able to deduce it soon. ””

In the ancestral temple.

This place was filled with the ancestral tablets of the various ancestors of Grand Xia, as well as some of the supreme meritorious officials. It was only slightly weaker than the imperial palace and was guarded by an old ancestor. At this moment, he opened his eyes and cast his pupil innate technique, staring at the sky. The golden dragons of luck were covered by the fog formed by the heavenly secrets, and even the pupil innate technique couldn’t see through them.

However, he could tell that the fate of Xia would only be like this if a prince or princess got married.

This was a matter of great importance, and he had to find it in the shortest amount of time possible to ensure that the luck of Grand Xia wouldn’t be lost or stolen by demons and monsters.

“You don’t have much time left,” Prince Six said.”

“I’m going!”

Opening the door, the witch’s figure disappeared into the night.

Vermilion Bird Lane.

Zheng Fugui’s new home. After dinner, his uncle and the others stayed behind. Zhang Qin and the others wanted to go back, but Zhang Ronghua asked his parents to stay at his place, but they rejected him. Helplessly, he could only send them back to Riches Lane.

At the entrance.

"You're not staying here tonight?" asked Zheng Rou."

Zhang Ronghua smiled and shook his head. There is also a cat at home. It is very naughty. If I don't control it, it might cause some trouble." They had already talked about the purple cat during dinner.

"Be careful!"

"Yes."

He left his house and took a small path towards the Vermilion Bird Lane.

Jixia Learning Palace.

Ji Xueyan finally finished her work. She put down the pen in her hand and stood up from the chair. She stretched her body and looked at the night sky. "There is still one more day to compete with Xu Xirou!"

Retracting his gaze, he left the academy and rushed toward the Grand Tutor's Residence as usual.

In the capital, with the power of the Grand Tutor's Residence, no one dared to touch her.

Moreover...

She wasn't easy to bully. With her cultivation as a Great Grandmaster, she wasn't far from the Heaven Tier. Even if she encountered danger, she could easily resolve it, which was why she didn't bring any guards with her.

When she crossed two streets and walked to the third street, a figure walked towards her. She was wearing a very strange dress, but it was painted with blood. Her face was very cold, and her eyes were filled with terrifying killing intent. Her aura was firmly locked on her, as if she was determined to take her life.

Ji Xueyan stopped ten steps away.

His cold and beautiful eyes swept over her body. His Heaven Tier cultivation was not concealed at all. It was like the sun soaring into the sky, forming a huge aura.

With a solemn expression, she took out the Golden Light Sword. Righteousness erupted, and tens of thousands of golden lights enveloped her. Holy Righteousness and the power of extreme Yang were added to the sword.

Weng!

Sword Qi circulated, and a terrifying power spread out.

“Who sent you here?” he asked coldly.”

The Demoness was expressionless as she said coldly,””There’s no need for a dying person to know too much!”

He formed a seal with his hands and used a secret technique. He burned his cultivation and prepared to kill her with a powerful attack.

She knew that Ji Xueyan was the favored son of heaven, the beloved daughter of the Grand Tutor, and the leader of the younger generation of Jixia Learning

Palace. Such a prodigy, even though she was only at the eighth tier of the Great Grandmaster Realm, she had a lot of resources. Even if she broke through to the Celestial Realm, it would be difficult to take her down..

Chapter 98: The Sixth Prince’s Doomsday

Taking a step back.

Even if he could take her down, it would take a long time.

After such a long time, the people from the Grand Tutor's Residence and Jixia Learning Palace would have arrived long ago. She would be the one to die!

Moreover...

She was prepared to die. After killing Ji Xueyan, she would commit suicide. On the road to the netherworld, she would be Prince Six's lamp, illuminating the road ahead and dispelling the darkness.

It didn't matter whether he died earlier or later. To ensure that nothing would go wrong, he chose the safest method, burning his cultivation and sacrificing all his Heaven Tier strength in exchange for a powerful attack.

She believed that in front of this move, even if Ji Xueyan had a strong foundation, she would not be able to block the Life-Risking Strike of a Celestial Realm warrior.

Seeing this.

Ji Xueyan's expression was grave. She wanted to release the signal flare but it was too late. The surrounding air was sealed. Even if she took out the signal flare, she would not be able to take off. Instead, it would expose a flaw and bring her fatal danger.

He held the Golden Light Sword in his right hand and mobilized all his internal strength. He injected it into the sword qi and condensed it into a few feet large. However, this was not the end. His left hand patted the pouch at his waist and took out a pink umbrella, emitting the aura of a spiritual treasure.

This was a defensive spiritual treasure called the Misty Rain Red Dust Umbrella. The last time she returned from the ruined temple, the Grand Tutor had given her a defensive treasure.

Activating the umbrella, she took it out of her hand and floated it above her head. Pink light shone down and enveloped her, forming a pink screen of light.

If he attacked first, he could not wait for the sacrifice to be completed, or the consequences would be unimaginable!

“Nine Layered Righteous Reincarnation Sword Technique!”

This was the strongest divine art she had mastered, and also the one with the deepest attainments.

The Golden Light Sword flourished, and the Sword Qi fused with the Righteousness Qi. Hundreds of sword shadows overlapped, forming a supreme sword light that contained the power of reincarnation.

The sword tore through the air and ruthlessly slashed towards the demoness.

In front of this sword, everything in the world stopped. Just the scattered sword qi that shot out could easily kill a martial grandmaster.

The Demoness had also completed her sacrifice. Looking at the supreme sword light that she slashed at and the Misty Rain Red Dust Umbrella that protected her, she felt jealous. As expected of someone from a large faction. She had many trump cards.

But so what?

How could she block the attack that he had unleashed after sacrificing his cultivation?

“Dark Fire!”

Countless black flames rushed out and covered seventy to eighty feet. As they burned, they emitted a world-destroying power. Although it was not a divine art, it was only a low-grade Heaven Realm martial technique. She had cultivated it to the Return to True Realm. Coupled with the sacrifice of everything, the power that erupted could kill gods and buddhas.

He transformed into a terrifying flame that swept through everything and rushed forward.

The sword light shattered and landed on the Golden Light Sword. It lasted for two breaths before it was sent flying. Then, the multicolored light of the Misty Rain Red Dust Umbrella was unleashed. It was indeed a defensive spiritual treasure. Under Ji Xueyan's full power, it blocked for more than ten breaths before the multicolored light was broken. The monstrous flames rolled up, and with just a little bit of power, she was severely injured. She spat out a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground.

He tried his best to get up from the ground, but his injuries were too serious. He spat out another mouthful of blood, closed his eyes, and fainted.

"Die!"

The demoness went completely mad. She controlled the flames and rushed forward. Just as she was about to take another step, a golden light descended from the sky and blocked her path.

It was none other than Zhang Ronghua.

Just as he was about to take a small path back, he heard the sound of fighting. He scanned the surroundings with his soul power and saw that it was Ji Xueyan. He didn't care about consuming his Zhen Yuan and flew over.

Fortunately, he wasn't late and arrived at this place at the critical moment.

The devilish female's pupils changed as she looked at the face in front of her. It was actually Zhang Ronghua. Although she had never seen him before, she had seen his portrait and knew that he was the Crown Prince's man.

Now.

However, he descended from the sky. To be able to step on the sky and fly, he was definitely a big shot in the heaven ascension realm!

Thinking back to the information they had received previously, Zhang Ronghua was only at Zongshi realm tier 6. He was shocked. The Crown Prince was hiding too well. The huge force in the dark was probably his.

In front of the heaven ascension realm, not to mention her little cultivation, even the tenth level of the Heaven Realm was not enough!

The other party only needed one move to kill her.

However, she did not give up. Even if she died, she would do her best to control the monstrous flames and attack crazily.

However, they were all eggs!

No matter how hard she tried, she couldn't even break through the protective spiritual light that Zhang Ronghua was emitting.

"Sacrifice?"

When her cultivation was exhausted, her life would be lost. Even if she was left alive, she wouldn't be able to get anything out of her. He opened his palm and grabbed roughly. Black Yellow True Essence rushed out and enveloped her.

The black flames that she was burning quickly disappeared. She didn't even last for three breaths.

"I can't accept this!" In despair, he was killed.

Bang!

A token fell to the ground. He picked it up. Now was not the time to check. He wanted to see how Ji Xueyan was doing.

He helped her up from the ground and glanced at her. The dress on her chest was torn, revealing a green undergarment. Her skin was burnt black, and she looked like she was seriously injured.

He grabbed at the air and put away the Golden Light Sword and the Misty Rain Red Dust Umbrella that had fallen around him. He brought her forward and injected a bit of Xuanhuang True Essence into her body to stabilize her injuries.

After a while.

He stopped in an abandoned courtyard and entered a room. He placed her on the bed and assumed a meditative posture. He sat behind her and circulated the Black Yellow Heaven Opening Technique with all his might.

After breaking through to the heaven ascension realm, coupled with the fact that it had reached the minor success realm, the power of the Godfiend cultivation technique was beginning to show its might.

As the majestic Black Yellow True Essence entered her body, it unblocked her meridians and repaired her injuries. The aura on her body quickly stabilized. In the end, all the injuries on her body recovered, and even the charred chest disappeared. There was no scar left on her flat abdomen..

Chapter 99: The Sixth Prince's Doomsday

He retracted his palm and looked at the sleeping her. There was still some time before she woke up.

He took out a coat and draped it over her body to block out the light from the outside. He then placed the Golden Light Sword and the Misty Rain Umbrella by the side. He did not stay any longer and turned to leave. However, he did not go far either. He guarded her in the dark and waited for her to wake up before moving.

He took out the waist token that she had dropped. It was golden in color and seemed to be made of a special material. The two words “Demoness” were engraved on the front and “Shocking God” was engraved on the back. Zhang Ronghua frowned and his eyes sparkled. “Demoness?”

What a pity!

If she hadn’t offered up her cultivation, she would have been captured and interrogated. However, if she offered up her cultivation, she would have died by the time her true essence was exhausted.

Why did she want to kill Ji Xueyan? Could it be that he was instructed by the mastermind? Who was it?

He speculated for a while, but there were too few clues, so he could not guess.

She put away the token and went to the Eastern Palace after she woke up. Perhaps the Crown Prince could find something from this token.

He looked into the courtyard.

His heart was complicated again. Fate seemed to be playing a joke on him. He didn’t want to have anything to do with her and insisted on pulling them together. From the time he escorted her back to her hometown to worship her ancestors, they were deeply entangled.

He could feel this.

Yesterday at the Grand Tutor’s Residence, although she seemed normal, he still noticed something. Ji Xueyan looked at him with a strange gaze, which was different from normal good feelings.

The more he thought about it, the more confused he became.

He thought about the green dudou he saw earlier. Although it was just a quick glance, he could still see the mandarin duck pattern embroidered on it

“Phew!”

Zhang Ronghua let out a breath and forced himself to stop thinking about it. He was afraid that he would not be able to control himself!

At this moment.

A figure rushed out of the room. Seeing that she had woken up, Zhang Ronghua’s anxious heart relaxed. He did not stay any longer and left silently, rushing towards the Eastern Palace.

In the courtyard.

Ji Xueyan looked around, but she couldn’t find the person who saved her. She held a black coat in her left hand, and the masculine scent of a man wafted from it. She held the Golden Light Sword in her right hand. The dress she was wearing had already been changed, and her body was no longer exposed. Her jade-like feet touched the ground and landed on the roof. She looked around, but she still couldn’t find any clues.

Her shapely eyebrows were tightly knitted together, and her exquisite and beautiful face was locked. She guessed, “Who saved me?”

He looked at the coat in his hand. As long as he found its owner, he would know who it was.

However, the capital was so big. How difficult was it to find someone through a piece of clothing? Not to mention her, even if the Xia Emperor gave the order, he would not be able to do so.

A gust of night wind blew, and the smell of soap powder on her coat entered her nose-the smell of willow catkins.

Remember this smell and follow this trail. We’ll definitely find it!

He put it and the Golden Light Sword into his pouch. This was a Sumeru Pouch that contained space and could store inanimate objects.

He used his movement technique and rushed towards the Grand Tutor's Residence.

The attack tonight was in the capital, her base camp. No matter who did it, they would have to pay a huge price.

In the Eastern Palace.

A commander led the Flood Dragon Guards on duty. When he saw Zhang Ronghua, he was puzzled. His Excellency had come so late at night. What was the matter?

He hurriedly stepped forward and cupped his fists."

Zhang Ronghua nodded and rushed in.

He stopped outside the bedroom.

Qing 'er and Shuang' er stood guard at the door and stopped beside them.""Is His Highness asleep?"

"Yes."

"Please inform them that I have something urgent to do!"

"Wait a moment!"

Qing er pushed open the door of the palace in a low voice and controlled her footsteps to enter. Very soon, the lights lit up and the door opened again. She nodded at him, indicating for him to enter.

They entered the palace.

The crown prince sat on the main seat with his coat draped over his shoulders. His eyes were very bright, and it seemed that he had woken up a lot.

He took out the waist token of the Demoness and handed it to Qing 'Er, asking her to pass it to him.

He took the waist token.

The Crown Prince sized it up seriously and his gaze turned cold. He held it tightly and asked, ""Did you catch the girl?"

"He's already dead!"

Zhang Ronghua told him the prepared words. After sending his parents back, he met a severely injured witch on the way. Before he could make a move, she was already dead. He obtained this from her.

"Thank you for your hard work!"

"It's my duty."

"It's already very late. Go back and rest early. I'll order someone to investigate and inform you as soon as there's news."

After he left.

The Crown Prince handed the token to Qing 'er, asking her to find the mastermind as soon as possible.

He stretched out two fingers and tapped on the table, muttering, ""What is your cultivation level?"

Just as he was about to get up and go back to his bedroom to rest, the Green

Girl returned and stopped in front of him with a solemn expression. "Your Highness, Miss Ji has been assassinated!"

"What happened?"

"There's news from the Grand Tutor's Estate that Miss Ji was ambushed by a Heaven Tier elite on her way back. After a brief exchange, she realized that she had a deep foundation and couldn't be taken down in a short period of time, so she fled."

"Pass on my orders. Order the Flood Dragon Guards to search. We must find this!"

"Yes, sir!"

Just as the Green Girl was about to leave, the Crown Prince's voice sounded again, "Stop!"

She turned around and looked at him in confusion.

'You said two things. Could there be a connection? Assuming that the murderer who intercepted Xue Yan was the Demoness, she fled after seeing that the assassination had failed and was then killed by Zhang Ronghua."

The Green Girl blinked and tried to hold back her laughter. She said seriously, "How old is he? He had just been crowned, and he was from the Imperial Army. Although such a family background was not bad and belonged to the lower middle class, he had no resources or cultivation techniques. Even if he hid his cultivation, he would at most be a Great Grandmaster. How could he be in the Celestial Realm? If so, then wouldn't his talent be heaven-defying? Beating up the young generation of the capital, where would the pride of those great factions be put?"

The Crown Prince also felt that it was reasonable. No matter how Zhang Ronghua concealed his cultivation, his age was obvious. He was probably at the limit of a great grandmaster. It wasn't that he was looking down on him. Talent was important, but resources were also indispensable. Even Ji Xueyan, Yang Hongling, and the others had only just broken through to the eighth level of the Great Grandmaster Realm. He was completely clean. How could he break through to the Celestial Realm?

Even Xu Xirou, who was born in a poor family and had shown great potential in Changqing Academy, was only on par with Ji Xueyan and the others with the support of the resources of Changqing Academy, as well as her talent and hard work. She couldn't surpass them, so how could he, a member of the Imperial Army, do it?

He shook his head.

He threw this unrealistic thought to the back of his mind and ordered, "Order someone to prepare a carriage. I will go to the Grand Tutor's residence to visit

Xue Yan now."

The Green Girl quickly left and carried out his orders.

Returning to the home of the Vermillion Bird Lane

As soon as he arrived at the artificial lake, he heard footsteps. A purple shadow rushed out of the lake and looked back at him. He was shocked and rushed back to his room without looking back.

Zhang Ronghua's face darkened. He looked at the man-made lake and saw that all the fish were gone. He was furious and shouted, "Come here!"

Seeing that it did not stop, he grabbed at the air. A terrifying suction force grabbed it and lifted it by the back of its head in the air.

"Delicious?"

"Meow!"

The purple cat shook its head and acted cute, indicating that it was wrong and would not dare to do it again..

Chapter 100: Burial Together

Zhang Ronghua didn't plan to let it go just like that. Back in the Eastern Palace, he had taught it a lesson many times and warned it again when he came back, but it still couldn't change its habit of eating fish. It even dared to eat the fish in the artificial lake. This time, he was going to be ruthless and leave a deep impression on it.

He pressed it to the ground, spread out his four limbs, and aimed at its butt before violently whipping it.

"Meow..."

The purple cat cried out in pain and struggled desperately. The more it struggled, the more painful it became. In the end, it did not even dare to move. It had resigned itself to its fate!

He vented his anger.

Zhang Ronghua stopped, then looked at its curled up body, shivering, and pitiful cat eyes. "You ate the fish. No matter what method you use, make it up to me!"

Purple Cat shook its head as if to say, "Aren't you making things difficult for me?"

"If you can't do it, I'll stew you!"

It was so scared that its pores opened up in the shape of barbs, and its nerves were highly tense.

Just as she was about to return to the bedroom.

After taking two steps, she stopped and squatted down in front of it. She looked at it suspiciously and asked, "I'm puzzled. You have the blood of a cat and a phoenix in your body. Logically speaking, the two are natural enemies. Why did they have offspring? Tell me, what exactly happened?"

The purple cat buried its head and covered its head with its two front paws. It was scared out of its wits.

"Forget it! I won't tease you anymore."

He entered the bedroom.

Sitting on the bed, Zhang Ronghua cultivated the Righteous Song of the Great Path and tempered his soul power with Righteousness Qi. After this period of cultivation, Zhang Ronghua had a feeling that he would be able to break through as a Soul Master in a few days.

He cultivated overnight.

The next day, not only was he not tired, but he was also exceptionally relaxed. He had not eaten breakfast when Zheng Fugui came in from outside and stopped in front of him. "His Highness has just sent us a message, ordering us to search for the murderer who assassinated Miss Ji!"

"Tell me everything."

From his mouth, he found out that Ji Xueyan didn't tell him the truth and changed her wording.

Zhang Ronghua heaved a sigh of relief. When he handed the Witch's waist token to the Crown Prince, he was already prepared for him to guess. Even if they confronted each other afterward, Ji Xueyan was unconscious at that time. Even after she woke up, she didn't see him. She refused to admit it. She insisted that when she saw the Witch, she was already dead. There was nothing she could do.

Now that he was here, it saved him some trouble.

He didn't understand why she had changed her words.

He shook his head and stopped thinking about it.

No matter what, it was good news for him.

“Split up!”

They left the courtyard.

Zhang Ronghua bought some breakfast at the market and ate as he walked. He couldn't possibly be indifferent while others were looking for the murderer, right?

In such a short time, he had met many Flood Dragon Guards, as well as people from the Fifth Division of City Defense and the yamen. It seemed that the Grand Tutor was angry.

Very quickly.

They arrived at the Qilin Market. The people who lived here were either rich or noble. They could not be underestimated. They continued to search, not letting go of a single place.

Sixth Prince's Mansion.

In the study room.

Ever since the demoness left, he had not slept the entire night and had been waiting for her. It had been so long, but she still had not returned. In addition, there was news from outside. He was afraid that he had failed!

At this moment.

Eunuch Xiao led a group of people and appeared outside the manor. The guards at the door did not dare to stop him and immediately let him in. One of them quickly ran over to report.

“Your Highness! Someone from the palace has arrived.”

The Sixth Prince’s eyes gleamed as he muttered to himself, “You must be anxious from waiting downstairs, right? Bengong will accompany you now!” He put away the strangeness.

He opened the door and walked out. He saw Eunuch Xiao in the backyard.

“Your Majesty has ordered Xia Shizhong to enter the palace to see Consort Qing! ”

Consort Qing was his mother.

“Wait a moment!”

He called for a servant girl to help him bathe and change his clothes. Then, he sprinkled ambergris on him. It was not until fifteen minutes later that he was ready. The group of people left the courtyard and arrived at the door. They happened to meet Zhang Ronghua.

“Eunuch Xiao!”

“General Zhang!”

Eunuch Xiao already knew about Xiao Mi and Zheng Fugui’s matter. With a smile on his face, after exchanging pleasantries, the Sixth Prince boarded the carriage and rushed to the Imperial Palace.

Zhang Ronghua frowned. Wasn’t Prince Six grounded? What was he going to do in the palace at this time?

Looking at their disappearing backs, he was about to leave when he stopped. There was a familiar fragrance in the air. It was ambergris. He had smelled it on the Demoness last night. It was very strong!

At that time, they had just finished their official business and got married, so they smelled a little ambergris from the Sixth Prince.

A bold guess appeared. Could it be him?

Looking at the mansion in front of him, he thought for a moment and decided to check it out.

He sneaked into the mansion from another direction. The huge mansion was very deserted and there was almost no one around. He entered the study without any effort.

There was some blood left on the ground, which was left behind by the Sixth Prince and the Demoness last night. The candles on the side were dyed red with blood, and the smell was very strong. One was the Sixth Prince's, and the other was the Demoness'. There was also some ashes on the ground, which seemed to have been burned not long ago.

"It's actually him!"

Zhang Ronghua had guessed countless possibilities, but he never thought that the person who plotted against the Crown Prince would be the Sixth Prince.

HOW could a crippled and grounded prince have such great power

Now was not the time to think so much. The most important thing now was to find the Crown Prince and tell him about the matter before entering the palace.

He had a bad feeling that something big would happen if the Sixth Prince entered the palace!
