

BE EATEN UP WITH LOVE

Chapter 25: Where You Date With Sara Grant? (2)

My heartbeat accelerated uncontrollably after Wayne Gilbert finished his words.....

Although I knew that a man's words always confuse a woman's heart, and I should not believe it.

But I am still moved inexplicably.....

"Mr. Gilbert, I will do it well!"

"You can call me Wayne. Of course, I prefer to hear you call me Uncle Wayne!"

I blushed in embarrassment. On that day, I thought Simona Gilbert was his girlfriend, so I made a joke and called him uncle Wayne. Now, several days has passed, he still remembers my embarrassment at that time.

"I'll call you Wayne in private. When I get to the company, I'll call you Mr. Gilbert."

"That's all right. You can come to the company on Monday. I'll arrange it in advance."

Watching Wayne Gilbert's Bentley vanish into the traffic, I went upstairs in a happy mood.

In the next door, Granny was washing rice and vegetables. she smiled and greeted with me: "Lydia, it seemed that you got a boyfriend."

I smiled embarrassingly and said. "Yes, Granny."

Granny sighed and looked at me. "Lydia, it's not Granny that said you, Granny eats more salt than you eat rice. It seemed that that man was in his thirties. He drove a car and seemed to a successful man. But he maybe is a cheater, and especially cheat the girl like you who was students. You should be careful and never be cheated by others.

"Granny, this will never happen."

Seeing that I have a strong attitude, Granny put down the things in hand and walked toward me and said:"Lydia, I saw a boy stood at your door and waited for you for several hours this morning!" I think that young man is very good, you must not be dizzy and deceived. Even if you met a rich man, you can not ignore anybody who treat you sincerely. Granny heard that those rich people like to spend money to cajoling you, when you slept with him, he will abandon you is not responsible....."

I was surprised to hear this, because there were only a few people who knew I lived here. Who will wait for me?

The phone rang in my bag when I was wondering.

After I said hello to Granny, I picked up the phone as I walked.

"Lydia, you finally answered the phone! Geoffrey asked me for your address in the morning. He threatened me that if I did not give your address to him, he will go to your uncle's house. I was afraid of causing some trouble, so I gave it to him. You won't blame me for my action, will you? Katherine Gilbert asked me apologetically on the phone.

I suddenly understand it. It was Geoffrey who waited at my door in the morning. It's ridiculous. How could he come here to look me now.

"Katherine, did you mentioned the relationship of Geoffrey and me with Simona Gilbert?"

"I haven't mentioned it to my sister-in-law yet, but I'll talk directly to my grandmother in recent days. Grandma hate people who was a snob and a social climber. Geoffrey wants to be such people, but he also needs to see if he deserves it. My sister-in-law have a crush on him but my grandmother is awake."

I don't care if Geoffrey want to be such people or not, even if he became Wayne Gilbert's brother-in-law, here is nothing to do with me. Now, I just want to get rid of him completely!

I asked Katherine Gilbert for Geoffrey's phone number. When Geoffrey answered the phone, I made a direct appointment with him and planned to talk to him clearly.

When I arrived at the cafe next to No.1 School of Liang city, there was still a quarter of an hour before the appointed time. I asked for a place and ordered a pot of tea.

It wasn't long before he came. He looks gentle as usual and matched with gentle boy in my memory, but I can something different in his eyebrows.

"Lydia, do you remember that it is in this position that I pursue you as my girlfriend, but I didn't think you chose this position again today.

He looked at me tenderly, as if the two years had ceased to exist, and everything that had happened was my dream.

I sneered, Geoffrey must have chosen wrong job. If he had chosen job in the entertainment industry, he may now acquire the title of the film emperor!

Geoffrey, today I chose this place, I just think about where to start and where to end!" After I had a sip of tea, I said leisurely.

He frowned and looked at me. "Lydia, you have changed in these two years. In the past, you are very kind, but now you became so cruel.

Chapter 26: Being Regarded as a Mistress

I sneered that it was just because of the indecision at that time, I failed to find that Geoffrey was a scumbag.

"Geoffrey, I'm really curious that when did you start to hook up with Simona Gilbert? If Katherine and I were not involved in it, can you know Simona Gilbert?" Hearing that I told the truth, Geoffrey' indifferent and calm face finally changed. He looked at me with strange eyes that I had never seen before. Looking at him, inexplicably, I suddenly felt cold and gloomy...

"Lydia, if I marry Simona, I will be Wayne Gilbert's brother-in-law in the future. You and Katherine must be very familiar with Wayne Gilbert, such a big shot. Simona's husband is just a title. You needn't mind it. Besides, Simona is just a victim for me to get more power and interests. Marrying her can bring me the best benefits. And if you are together with me, you will live a luxurious and beautiful life."

He was more shameless than that I had imagined. It was unbelievable that he asked me to be a third party, a mistress that couldn't be accepted by others.

"Geoffrey, let me tell you that I will never look at you again, even if I am poor all my lifetime. Please stay away from me in the future, and never mention my past relationship with you in the future..."

After that, I threw a hundred dollars to the waiter and left without any regret.

I was depressed all the way to home, but I thought that Simona Gilbert was more pitiful than me, who was still deceived by this scumbag, and still loved this scumbag and had lost her virginity.

I didn't want to be nosy, but Wayne Gilbert was kind to me, and I didn't want his only younger sister to be fooled by a scumbag.

I called Katherine and told her what happened today. I repeated Geoffrey's shameless words in detail. Katherine immediately decided to destroy the marriage at all costs.

After hanging up, I directly dropped Geoffrey's phone number into the blacklist.

...

At noon, I casually found a restaurant and ate a bowl of noodles. After eating enough, I planned to ask Merlin to go to the mall and buy a suit of professional dress.

For me, joining in the secretarial department of the Wayne Group had already broken the rule. And it was the boss himself who broke the rule for me. As a student enrollment, I was airborne to the secretarial department without an examination or an interview. It could be estimated that there was a lot of gossip as soon as I took office. I understood the truth that people preferred to repeat word for word what others say.

Indeed, it was true for me to get this job because of sleeping with the boss. If I didn't sleep with Wayne Gilbert, I wouldn't get this position even though I worked hard for ten years.

Merlin had a good eye for beauty. She chose several suits which matched my skin very much. But the price exceeded my budget. Although I really wanted to buy them, I still controlled myself and put them back.

"Lydia, how did you get into Katherine's uncle's company? Wasn't it because of the unwritten rule?" Merlin picked up a light grey skirt and compared whether it fitted me, then she suddenly asked.

"I really have something to do with Wayne Gilbert, but it's not as dirty as you think." We are just the casually sexual friends...

Merlin didn't think much about it. After all, It was not realistic that I had an affair with Wayne Gilbert. If I myself didn't get involved in it, I would not believe that the relationship between Wayne Gilbert and I had been like this, from one-night stand to all-night stand!

"Merlin, the other days I saw you wrote in the circle of friends that you entered the theatrical group?"

Merlin had been acting for five or six years, but she even didn't ranked in the second and third level. She played some insignificant roles who would die in a very short time in the studio city every day.

"Yeah, I have undergone a screen test for a character the other days. Although there are not many episodes, I can be photographed, and there are several pages of lines for me!"

"Congratulations, Merlin!"

Then, we went to several brand discount stores and bought two discounted black professional suits. We didn't go out of the shopping mall tirelessly and reluctantly until it was 4 p.m.

With shopping bags in both hands, I was going to say goodbye to Merlin. A woman with heavy makeup came out of the entrance of the elevator in the shopping mall and headed straight for our direction.

"Little bitch, I finally find you today. You are Merlin Felton, right? You, a shameless woman, dare to seduce my husband. You want to sleep with my husband and to be famous, right? I think you have been crazy in order to be famous. Please look at yourself, a bitch."

The woman went straight to Merlin and slapped her in her face without saying one word. I was stunned. Merlin was beaten in a daze and stared at the woman who was carrying the LV bag and dressing up in fashion.

"You're insane. My friend doesn't have boyfriend. You, a crazy woman, why are you unreasonable and making a mess here?" I pushed the woman aside and protected Merlin.

"Well, you ask her if she knows Richard Hunter? I'm Richard Hunter's wife. She's Richard Hunter's mistress outside."

Looking at that the woman was serious as she said and Merlin's face was pale, I felt terrible and I thought that what the woman said might be true.

"You are Nelly Smith. It is impossible. Richard told me that you have divorced. He won't lie to me. He has been together with me for half a year. He won't cheat me for half a year." Merlin looked doubtful.

Nelly Smith sneered and said, "Little bitch, don't you know whether we have divorced or not? I think that in order to get rich, you even can be shameless. You slept with a man who is more than ten years older than you and you broke up others' family. I ask you, did Richard give you money? I advise that you'd better return the money he gave you..."

"Hey, you old woman, don't speak so rudely. And since my friend has said she didn't know, it must be true." When I saw Nelly Smith was unwilling to stop humiliate Merlin, I immediately stepped forward bravely and protected her. Once the woman named Nelly Smith heard my irony, she turned around like a mad woman, rushed over and slapped me on my right face!

Chapter 26: Being Regarded as a Mistress (2)

I had expected that she would do that in advance. So I stopped her arm and shook it off.

"You, a bitch, dare to strike back?" She went crazy and rushed over, grabbed my hair, pushed me to the ground, and kicked me a few feet in my stomach with ten centimeters of high-heeled shoes.

Seeing that I was wrestling with her, Merlin immediately put down her shopping bag and then went to pull Nelly Smith.

Merlin was thin, short and slender. Compared with Nelly Smith who looked heavy and strong, Merlin was much weaker. At once, she was struck by Nelly Smith. When I got up from the ground, Merlin's face hurt and a bit of her hair was pinched off. I saw the situation was terrible, so without thinking anything else, I heavily slapped Nelly Smith in her face, which made her spit out the blood.

"You, two bitches, dare to slap me!" Nelly Smith screamed and staggered to me again, with the print of five fingers left on her face and the blood seeping out from her mouth and nose, which seemed that I had slapped her very heavily. Naturally, I wouldn't suffer any loss and wrestled with her fiercely.

After a cruel fight, Nelly Smith hurt seriously.

Later, I didn't know who called the police. The policemen came over very quickly, and took us all to the police station. On the way to police station, Nelly Smith looked at me with her ferocious eyes as if she would dissect me.

The barefoot was not afraid to the man wearing shoes. Who dared who?

"You, little bitch, dare to hit me. I must revenge you. Do you know who my brother is? The second in command in the public security bureau. I'll call him now! And you, the shameless mistress, I'll break the news on the Weekly magazine tomorrow that in order to be known and get the better role, you are so shameless that you climb up the bed of the deputy director! Do you want to be famous? Don't dream..."

After she finished speaking, Nelly Smith took out her cell phone from her bag.

When she got through, she cried pitifully and exaggeratedly said something which was not true to the other side. Then, I didn't know what the other side on the phone said, but I saw she looked at me proudly, as if I was going to encounter something terrible when I arrived at the public security bureau!

Before, I was indifferent. After all, it was I who hit her first, which could be proved by the monitor in the shopping mall. But sometimes, in front of super power, unpractical events could become evidence of conviction!

Since Nelly Smith had close relationship with a powerful man in the police security bureau, then it was obvious that Merlin and I had become the weak side. Maybe it was not easy to handle this matter!

In the police station, Merlin and I were invited to enter a small room with the sign of "interrogation room".

"We're just having some arguments. Sir, there is no need to be so serious, right?"

"Don't talk nonsense. Fight with others and intentionally hurt others. Don't you know what you will be convicted later? I advise you to tell the truth that why you beat Miss Smith and then write a petition to ask the judge to give you a suspended sentence considering that you are a first offender." After glancing at us, the auxiliary police locked the door.

Before closing the door, I saw Nelly Smith's unkind eyes and proud expression, which made me feel anxious.

Being locked in the interrogation room for two hours, Merlin and I were anxious and worried.

During this period, I got to know the situation from Merlin, which made me more unconfident and anxious.

After all, about this matter, it was Merlin's fault. In the bottom line of social morality, the mistress, even if she was innocent, would be accused and be condemned. No one would stand up for Merlin. Even though she said all the time that she did not know they hadn't divorced and was deceived, the unrelated people would not care her weak reasons.

Besides, Merlin was working in the entertainment circle. Once this happened and the reporters avoided the important and dwelt on the trivial in their articles. Then only the pressure from public opinion would ruin Merlin.

I was immediately regretful that why I was so impulsive to wrestle with Nelly Smith at that time. If I suffered some sort of loss, the situation would not be so serious.

"Lydia, I really haven't expect that Richard is such a person! He told me clearly that they had divorced, but he lied to me. I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry... Lydia, you slap me, you slap me! It's all my fault, and now you have been involved in this matter because of my fault!"

Merlin had collapsed under the pressure from the bottom of her heart and the cruel facts. She paralyzed at my feet and kept slapping on her face.

Merlin and I were very good friends. In fact, we became friends because we had the same experience, we lived the same poor and lonely life, and we felt sympathy for each other. Her father was addicted to gambling and lost all his property, and even sold her younger sister in order to pay off his gambling debts. After years of torture, her mother could not bear to kill her father and then committed suicide.

Later, she went to the orphanage and lived there for more than ten years. After graduating from junior high school, she went to the studio city to make a living.

Chapter 27: Flipping Out for a Confidante (1)

When I met Merlin Felton, she was looking for her sister, and I was running around for my sister!

"You are not wrong, Merlin, cheer up, the wrong one is that scum!" I helped Merlin from the ground, wiped the tears on her face, and said to her with solemnity: "Merlin, for so many years, so many things, you have not been crushed, this time you will certainly be able to go through it. We have to go out unscathed, and then find the scum to fight with him!"

Merlin is desperate and embarrassed: "Lydia, I've heard about Nelly Smith's family from Richard Hunter before. Her father is working in the important position of the Liangzhou Military Region. Her brother is the captain of the Criminal Investigation Team of the Liang city Public Security Bureau. Smith family's has power in Liang city. We offended Nelly Smith today, she will not let us go."

I was silent for a moment, Nelly Smith was poach from Merlin, and she was looking for a reason but be ruined, in the case of physical and mental damage. If this my business, I will not let the culprit go!

Then, waiting for the worst result of our two...

Two hours later.

The interrogation room door was opened and two men in police uniforms came in.

Then the door was closed again.

"You are Merlin Felton? This is a transcript. If you have no problem, sign it and press on it."

The man glanced at me coldly, he turned to Merlin and then put two documents on the table.

After reading the above content, I became angry.

"Sir, how does this become our premeditated intentional injury? And there is one above. If I am not mistaken, is it an attempt to kill people? I think you are wrong, we are just dispute a few words, and then the fight caused by the squabble, why has it come premeditated? As for killing, it is even more vain!"

I pretended to be calm and said, It is the first time that I have ever encountered such a situation where a little indiscretion would be fatal!

Compared to my calm, Merlin went flurried suddenly, and looked frightened.

"We found two daggers in your bag, as well as a set of controlled knives. I don't think girls go shopping and carry knives with them?"

I and Merlin were confused, until the police threw our two bags in front of us, saw the swaying blade in the half-open zipper, we instantly understood...

Nelly Smith is really cruel, burn the bottom of the pot to draw money, to kill us until the end!

"Well, there is nothing wrong if someone wants to blame sin on us! sir, do you really think we are stupid? We know who put these knives in the bag. To make us sign it? no way... "

Attempted murder, if we really committed this crime, we need not to go out without a decade!

"Little bitch, you have no choice, sign it!"

"A bunch of scum!" I picked up the statement, just thinking about ripping it off, someone pulled my hair in the back and yanked me.

I took a few steps and turned back. As I didn't react, my face was slapped by someone. The man slapped very heavy. I was dizzy, my ears roared, and felt blurred then. After hitting me, the man sneered and slammed me to the corner.

After being smashed, I realized it instantly. 'Signature' is just an excuse for Nelly Smith to hit me. Even if I signed it at the beginning, I will also be hit.

And the policeman, I guessed he is Nelly Smith's brother, Jerry Smith!

Just when Jerry Smith still wanted to hit me, the door of the interrogation room suddenly opened.

I squinted at the group of people who suddenly appeared in front of me, most of them are uniformed policemen! In the crowd, I saw a familiar figure, I saw that the person was surrounded by people and walked into the interrogation room.

Wayne Gilbert, how did he come here?

However, I just haven't seen him for half day. But I look like a wolverine. In front of Wayne Gilbert, I can't wait to dig a hole to bury myself.

I don't know why, the only thing I don't want is to let Wayne Gilbert see what I am suffering today!

His eyes were indifferent, and look coolly, which made people unable to see his anger. After looking around, Wayne Gilbert is opposite to see me!

Suddenly, I saw the rising anger from his eyes. He stepped in toward me. The cold fingertips twitched my chin, the rough palm touched my swollen face, and finally fell to my mouth...

I wiped the blood from the corner of my mouth and looked at him. I smiled faintly:

"How do you know that I am here?"

"I called you, it was picked up by a policeman and said that you were arrested by the Public Security Bureau."

He helped me stand up, I fell to my feet, my hands licked my stomach and limped.

He saw that I was badly hurt, and his face was even more angry: "Who did it?"

I didn't answer it, after Wayne Gilbert glanced around for a lap, he set his gaze on Jerry Smith who was planning to run away.

Wayne Gilbert looked coldly at Jerry Smith, while the Jerry Smith looked scared and squatted and hid in the crowd.

Things got into this situation. Fortunately, Wayne Gilbert came. Regardless of the result, Merlin and I must have been saved from the jail. But the rest of the estimates are nothing to blame. I don't think that Wayne Gilbert will continue to make a big fight for me.

Unexpectedly, the next moment, I opened my mouth with amazement!

I saw Wayne Gilbert rolling his sleeves, loosening the tie, and then taking up steps and walking towards the crowd...

Chapter 27: Flipping Out for a Confidante (2)

He grabbed Jerry Smith 's skirt's collar, his movement was clean and quick without losing momentum, at that moment, I held my breath, stared widely. Just look at him, he swang his right hand and punched Jerry Smith's face...

Suddenly, the interrogation room's people were all suffer a crushing defeat, Jerry Smith was hit by his fist, he overturned on the table, rolled a few laps, and fell on the ground!

Countless pairs of eyes on Wayne Gilbert, they look at each other, no one dare to dissuade.

Merlin was scared badly, gaping to see Wayne Gilbert ' Flipping out for a confidante '. she was scared by his cold appearance, even I was as if I had been fixed, staring at the scene in front of me.

Jerry Smith spit a blood, staggered to stand up, he pointed to Wayne Gilbert: "

Who are you, why you dare to fight here, are you insane?! "

"Whether I am insane or not depend on me, as for you, just care about yourself. "

Wayne Gilbert restrained his eyebrow, with a cold eye light. He walked slowly toward Jerry Smith, took off his suit, threw it casually on the table, and then hit Jerry Smith 's face again.

The scene changed too quickly, at first, Jerry Smith in front of me, as if I was the mole ants in his hands, to squeeze me to dead is only a peace of cake! But now ,he was hit by Wayne Gilbert discomfited, even have no resistance to hit back!

A few minutes later, Wayne Gilbert picked up the tissue on the table, graciously wiped the blood on his hands, and then walked to me.

"I take you to the hospital."

I shook my head. " I am fine. My face is just swollen. I think I will be ruined if I go to your company to work on Monday. "

"How can you think of such things now, Lydia, what a great heart you have! Wayne Gilbert sneered, saw I still have the ability to joke, the tense face finally faded down.

I was brought back to his home, on the way, the driver was driving, the atmosphere was very serious.

I lowered my head for a long time, and then I got up the courage to say, " Well, Wayne Gilbert, you hit people in public today, and you probably do not know. His name is Jerry Smith, his backstage is very powerful, you hit him like that, he will not forgive you. For me, it is not worth it to offend someone, and it is not the first time I have been beaten on my face... "

"Lydia, I do not care what you used to be, but since I have slept with you, I will surely protect you. At least we still maintain the relationship, I will not let anything happen to you! "

What Wayne Gilbert said is not the most beautiful love words, compared to Geoffrey. The promise he made was not so big. But my heart warms for what I just listened.

So many years, in adversity, my heart has been as hard as iron, even encountered the greatest injury I can be smile and go through it. I thought, this time I also could bear it, but the appearance of Wayne Gilbert let me instantly see that little bright from the adversity!

"Wayne Gilbert ,you know what, if you do not come today, I will probably go to jail!"

"What the hell is going on?"

I told him the feud between Merlin and Nelly Smith in details, including we fight each other in the mall, and then grasped to the police station, how did Jerry Smith hit on me, Wayne Gilbert turned angry after listening to me.

"Leave it alone, I will deal with it! You are going to be at home for a few days to care about yourself, and you just have to stay out of it . "

I nodded, see the Wayne Gilbert's certainty at the moment, I wondered according to his strength in liang city, it should be able to change small! After all, Merlin and I did not make a big mistake, but to hurt Nelly Smith, mostly we need is to apology.

It is Nelly Smith and Jerry Smith who framed this case, if I want to care about it, I think they will not be able to run away!

When I got home, I followed Wayne Gilbert into the door.

When he went to the study, I immediately went to the room to put a bath of water, intended to take a comfortable bath, and then rub some medicine.

I took off my clothes, stood in front of the mirror, looking at my delicate and slippery body, a piece of black and blue on my white skin. In front of my chest and back, there were scratch and Nelly Smith mutual blows nail scratch, all kinds of wounds doped together, so scared!

Compared to the body's bruises, the face is more frightening, the left cheek swelled into a pig's head, my mouth has a scary blood stain.

Just as I was about to sit in the bathtub, the door handle suddenly turned and the next moment, the door suddenly opened.

I was dumbfounded, so stupefied to see Wayne Gilbert walked in.

"How did you... how did you get in? Didn't I lock the door?" I screamed as if I were a hairy rabbit, no longer conscious of pain, and quickly jumped into the bathtub.

Chapter 28: His Rage

Even though I had been naked with Wayne for several time, they were all in dark. I stopped him every time when he would like to turn on the light.

But now, the power of the bath heater in the shower room was 100W so the luminance of it was brilliant for sure. I dared to promise that the eagle like eyes of him definitely watched my body all over at the moment when the door was opened.

I was a kind of shy little woman anyway. In my opinion, I could only accept being naked with a man after a long time of a love affair!

But now, with Wayne, from strangers to have sex, we did all the things forwardly that should be done when a man and a woman having a love affair.

"This is my home, of course I have the key. Lydia, do you have to close the door since our relationship was already come to this? What a pretentious woman..."

He was holding a tube of unguent, I glanced briefly, it was probably for swelling and pain relief.

He put the tube on the sink and then walked towards me.

I lowered my all my body under the water and only exposed my clavicle and neck.

I was blushed. I kept my head down and tried to sweep the bubbles to cover my body.

Under the hazing light, the temperature in the narrow space full of vapour was suddenly raised up!

Wayne approached me. He crouched down and pushed aside the hair covered on my cheek. I raised my head a little and our sights met each other. His sight that full of love and cares fell on the injury on my scapula then suddenly it turned cold and dim.

"Where else you got hurt on your body. Raise up and let me check!"

"No...I'm fine. They were only some small bruises. They can be heal by some unguent. You just go take care your works." I said instantly.

That was no way at all. I would be die due to blush if all my body was checked carefully by Wayne.

But the truth was, Wayne grabbed my arm and dragged me up to stand.

Foams were sticking on my face, the secret parts of mine were exposed and looming in the air. I took a cold breath and covered my chest in a hurry.

He checked how much I hurt from my head to my toes seriously and said with a dark face," How could you say that you are fine after you were beaten like this! Is that an issue only when you are beaten to a cripple? Hurry up, use the unguent after the bath. I will stay late in the study to deal with some works. You may go to sleep first."

Wayne left the bathroom after he finished the words.

I endured the pain and used the unguent after the bath. Then I put myself under the comfortable quilt.

The call from Merlin came in when I just picked up my phone.

I had a chat with her for a while then she changed the topic about Wayne suddenly.

"Lydia, how do you get in relationship with Wayne?"

I was mute for a while. I was hesitating in my since I did not know how to explain.

"It is just like what it is. The man and the woman takes what they need from each other."

Merlin was shocked obviously," Did Katherine know about you and Wayne are in the relationship?"

I put my phone on the end desk and turned it to hands free. Then I turned on TV and changed channels.

" She did not know for now. Don't tell her. The relationship between me and Wayne will not be long. It is better to let less people to know to avoid troubles."

On the other side of the phone, Merlin was in silence for a moment then she suddenly said," Lydia, do not fall in love with Wayne. My experience is a lesson for you. He is a kind of people without heart. You can seek for his wealth or honor but you cannot fall in love with him or you can't live by yourself after he doesn't want you anymore someday!"

My hand holding the controller was frozen in the air. The words of Merlin were like a hammer smashed on my head. Even though I wanted to refute her that Wayne was different from Richard, I could not find any reason. Even the words I tried to refute her were weak and unreliable!

He said it clear that he was just playing with me from the beginning. He was interested on me and just wanted to fuck me...

He occasionally showed his kindness to me these days. That made me a swelled head and I was a little falling into it.

"I knew, Merlin, I don't need your remind since I'm soberer than you. He is..." Merlin interrupted me when I had not finished, "Lydia, I'm a kind of person who experienced the situation. I fell in love to Richard since I was infatuated with his kindness and the feeling that he protected me in his arms. I was even blind since that love I thought. I called him when I got out from the police station. He did not dare to pick up my calls and dragged me into blacklist directly. Hmm... How interesting. A man, when he would like to fuck you, he would speak sugared words. When he would like to discard you, he would not even give you a reason."

I did not reply. I turned off the TV and picked up the phone staring at the screen blankly.

Merlin turned her voice higher, "Lydia, I don't understand why you climb on to the bed of Wayne. Were you irritated by the return of Geoffrey so you are thinking that sleep with Katherine' second brother, just like what written in the novel, to revenge on Geoffrey and Katherine by climbing on the bed of Wayne?"

When Merlin was talking, a light sound of steps could be heard coming from the door. The slightly opened door was pushed a little then stopped.

Chapter 29: Would You Fall in Love with Wayne

I did not notice the sound from the door. I turned off the hands free and said, "Merlin, It is the best way to revenge on Simona and Geoffrey by sleeping with Wayne. Geoffrey have to call me sister in law if I'm married with Wayne. The method can absolutely make me feeling relieved."

Outside the door, the slightly opened door was closed again quietly. I heard the indistinct sound of steps this time!

I got off from the bed with doubt. I opened the door and had a glance at outside. There was nobody in the corridor.

On the other side of the phone, Merlin said "Hello" for several times since I suddenly stopped talking. I continued to say, "However, Geoffrey the bastard doesn't deserve me to do that for him. There is nothing to do with Geoffrey that I get in relationship with Wayne. I have my own reasons. I understand what you said, but how could it help even if I understand. I can't control my heart. I may really fell in love with Wayne but just stopped there. I have nothing to hope about the future with him so I would not be disappointed..."

Merlin did not talk. I waited her in silence to digest my words I said just now. After a long while, she asked me, " Are you going to fall in love with Wayne?"

I told her unhesitatingly, " No!"

I found out after all that it was really hurt slapping my own face.

"However, I admire you, Lydia that you can hook up with the kind of man like Wayne. Your braveness surely should be awarded. As I know, this second Uncle of Katherine is kind of noble in the business domestic. The women who wants to climb on his bed may even form a company. A 31 years old eligible bachelor who is poor that only left money with him. The most important is that do not have to be afraid of concubines! Even though you may be discarded by him in the future, according to the thing happened today, Wayne likes you very much. He even fought for you..."

My heart trembled again since I remembered what happened this afternoon.

He fought for me. Those scenes were replaying quickly in my mind. I felt fears in my heart even when I thought about them now!

Especially, he arrived when I was in danger. His vigour was strong when he was surrounded by crowd. He was handsome and full of mind-blowing charm of a man.

"Yes. I had never expected him to rescue me, either."

"Hmm! It should thanks to Wayne about this issue, or Nelly bitch would absolutely kill us. She may never get out from the jail!"

I hung up the phone after chatting with Merlin about something unimportant for a while.

Covered by the quilt, I had a long sleep that I did not know how long it was, but there was no sound at all around the bed. I opened my sleepy eyes and read the time.

It was about 2 o'clock. Was Wayne still working in the study?

I turned on the light, wore the slippers and walked to the Wayne's study.

It was quiet in the villa. I pushed the door of the study gently but there was no one in there.

I squinted and robbed my eyes. Then I checked the room carefully again and I was sure that Wayne was not in the study.

It was so late. Where would he been?

I turned around. A man dragged behind me suddenly when I was just taking one step. I was dragged to fall on the sofa in the study when I did not realize what was happening.

Under the gloomy light, I saw the face of Wayne.

He stared at me with a cold sight. It seemed his dark eyes were rimed. There was no soft kindness in his eyes but indifferent and angry.

"Lydia, I really had not understood you clearly..." He pinched my chin and said with a cold-hearted tone.

He was strong and had no mercy on pinching me. I stopped breathing at a moment.

"Wayne, you drunk?" I smelled a fragrance of vodka from his body. It was even stronger in his mouth.

I did not know how much he drank, but it could be told that he drank a lot from his drunk appearance.

"Lydia, I broke my principles for you again and again, but I realized, I was in your traps and played by you from the beginning to the end. Good job..."

He lowered his head and bit my lips after he said that.

We kissed for many times. Some like a gently touch to water by a dragonfly and some were deep emotional long kiss, but we did not have any kiss like today. It was a punitive kiss that suffocated my lips. I could taste a smell of blood in my mouth after the entanglement.

I felt the pain and grabbed his back hardly. My tears even came out.

He did not pay any attention to it. He tore my pajamas insanely after he kissed me.

"Wayne, are you mad, let go me."

I was stripped by him with a few motions. He wanted to make love with me no matter what. He did not stop until he reached the pad on my underwear.

He raised up, stared me with a cold sight then turned around and left.

I went back to my room with a stunned face and sat on the bed for a long while.

There was always a feeling of sleepwalking till I felt the pain from my mouth.

Then I was sure, what happened just now was real!

I waited for long but he did not back to the room. Then I fell asleep somehow...

Next day,

When I got up, Wayne had already sat downstairs for breakfast. After I said good morning, I went to the kitchen to heat a glass of milk.

During the whole breakfast, I could not eat anything. I wanted to talk with Wayne but he went to the study when I had not got the chance to say anything. He ignored me.

I could not figure out how I offended him that made him feeling suffocated and gave me his cold shoulder.

When I was thinking long and hard, the doorbell rang!

Chapter 30: Break Up

I opened the door and about 7 or 8 men in police uniforms got in one after another. One of them, a fat corpulent middle aged man smiled with his eyes squinted and looked at me, " You must be Miss. Toland. I'm the chief of the Liang city police department, William James. Nice to meet you!"

I nodded and led them to the lobby. Then I ran to the upstairs to call Wayne to go downstairs.

After about half an hour, we already drunk several glasses of water. We were antsy and looked at each other in silence. When the atmosphere was more and more dignified, Wayne walked down stairs from the upstairs unhurriedly.

Chief James put down his cup instantly and walked to Wayne with big steps. He reached out his hand with his face full of smile, " Mr. Gilbert, long time no see." I signed dolefully. It was a truth that the treatment to a normal citizen and a big shot was like the difference between the ground and the sky. The chief of a police department had to be polite and gentle to Wayne.

I made some cups of coffee in the kitchen and brought to them.

In the lobby, Wayne had his legs crossed, his sitting posture was sedate and elegant. He was knocking the table by his finger making a sound of rub-a-dub!

"Mr. Gilbert, my apology to bother you . About what happened yesterday, it was my subordinates faults to listen the calumny said by Jerry Smith and nearly caused a big mistake. I brought these men to offer an apology here. As for Nelly and Jerry, I asked to caught them already. How about prosecute them with the charge of libel and false accusation?"

Chief James looked at Wayne with a overcautious face and the men followed him were chiming in with him with smiles. Lighted the cigarette and poured water for him reverently.

"Do what you have to do about it."

"Mr. Gilbert, as a policeman, making a false accusation violates the law as he knowing the law. Our department will be severe in treatment and make it clear for you. Is Miss. Toland's injury any better?"

I passed the coffee in my hand to Chief James instantly, " I'm fine, just slapped in face for several times by them. It will be ok after some days. And...Right, I hope Chief James can keep the secret about this issue. My friend is doing entertainment business now. If this kind of issue is caught by the reporters, you understand the consequence."

Chief James replied with smile, "Of course, I will ask my subordinates to close their mouths. Miss. Toland, it was our faults this time. This is my number, please feel free to call me to contact me if you need any help. I will help you as possible as I can by your call."

Chief James gave me his phone number and I wrote it down instantly.

The only reason I stayed with Wayne was getting the relationships in the police department to investigate the abduction case, to find my sister!

Even though I got some grievances this time in the police station, I got good out of misfortune, too. Of course, Chief James was polite and gentle to me since the influence to Wayne.

After that, Chief James said some altisonant words and Wayne replied perfunctorily. Not long, Chief James raised up and took leave of us.

The atmosphere was cold again when Chief James left. I looked at the strange enigmatic appearance and finally said, "Wayne, you..."

He interrupted me when I had not finished yet, "What the relationship between Geoffrey and you?"

I reacted after a long while when I heard the name of Geoffrey from his mouth first time. I raised my head and looked at him alarmedly.

"What do you mean by your words?"

"Lydia, let's break up! I don't want a woman with a impure mind aside me. Climb on my bed, revenge on Geoffrey and Katherine isn't it?" He sneered, the sight on me was freezing cold.

I suddenly returned to my sense. Wayne would not mention this without any reason. Did he heard the call between me and Merlin?

Then the sound of steps I heard was not an illusion at all. He really was there at the door and heard the words I said.

"Wayne, you don't trust me? You think that I approach you and badger with you to only revenge on Geoffrey?"

"Isn't it?"

I sneered, "Wayne, I thought you had a high intelligence, but now, since this, your brain does not work very well, too. Does a bastard deserve me to revenge on and sacrifice my whole life's happiness to badger with you?"

"Lydia, I heard the conversation between you and Merlin last night without leaving a single word behind by my own ears. You want to marry me and let Geoffrey calling you sister in law!" He stared at me and his eyes were burning red.

"Although I get in relationship with to revenge on Geoffrey, where you get the rights to blame me? Are you far more better? You can't give me promise and even a little sense of security. Maybe one day I will be kicked away. We are together to take what we want from each other, aren't we?"

I said those words with one breath, then I looked at his eyes like that with a emulative flame of anger raising in my eyes.
