

Chapter 81 | Don't Know How Long I Can Be With You

With resentment in her heart, Stacy cursed viciously: “So you are an illegal illegitimate child, a lowly and dirty illegal illegitimate child! Even if you are the little princess of the Murray family, so what? Isn't the blood that bleeds from your bones filthy and filthy?!”

Stacy harbors a grudge, speaks viciously and bluntly, and has no scruples.

Mitch frowned, snapped his fingers, and sealed Stacy's mouth!

“This mouth is really dirty and smelly.” Mitch said in disgust.

Stacy couldn't swear anymore, only the sound she could make.

“Susie, go take a shower and sleep, I'll take care of her,” Mitch said.

The black energy of Stacy, the vile ghost, has been absorbed by the gourd, filling the gourd.

Although it won't harm others if you don't accept it, it's better to destroy it directly to prevent future troubles forever.

Of course Susie couldn't be allowed to do this kind of thing.

Susie wanted to ask something, but in the end she didn't speak, and nodded obediently: “Okay.”

After speaking, he ran into the room with his little rabbit in his arms, took a set of pajamas, and went to the bathroom.

Mitch looked at Stacy: “I'm curious, how did you die?”

“Just now you said you killed Andrew, how did Andrew die?”

He stroked his chin with interest, eyeing Stacy.

Stacy turned her head away.

Mitch raised an eyebrow. With a movement of his fingers, he killed half of Stacy's soul directly.

Stacy let out a groan of pain.

Mitch: “I'm just curious, and I don't have to listen. If you don't tell me. I'll make you disappear.”

Stacy wanted to say it. He had to allow her to talk too!

Mitch suddenly realized: “Oh. forget that you can’t talk yet.”

After that. Stacy didn’t have the strength to rage, and lay on the ground. like a dead fish, looking back sadly

“I was kicked to death by Andrew.”

On the day of Susie’s birthday party, they tried their best to come to the Murray family from the countryside.

But Martin slapped him mercilessly in the face and sent him directly to the police car

In the police car. Andrew cursed her for killing him, and kicked her on the head in a fit of rage.

“The police car is a prison car specially designed to catch and escort prisoners. There are seats on both sides of the car, surrounded by iron railings, and the iron railings at the door are locked with a lock. You know that?”

Andrew’s kick was so hard that her head hit the iron railing hard, and it hit the lock again.

The lock directly pierced her skull and broke her intracranial artery, and she was kicked to death just like that.

“If I don’t die, I will be locked up for a few days at most for spreading rumors. When I come out, I can still have plastic surgery.”

Murray family actor Jonathan is her male god.

When she comes out of plastic surgery and changes her identity, with her beautiful appearance, she can make her debut, and then approach

Jonathan.

No matter how bad she is, she can apply for the Murray family’s nanny, and she can do anything, as long as she can get close to Susie.

Based on what she knew about Susie, wouldn’t it be easy for her to win Susie?
Children are best coaxed.

Take Susie down, break into the room, and find a way to climb into Jonathan’s bed.
So she can become his wife?

But she died like this.

Mitch sneered and asked. "Then how did Andrew die?"

Stacy sneered: "How else can I die. As a vile ghost, it's really scary"

Andrew had a hard time in prison.

The Murray family spent money to be 'taken care of. He was bullied horribly He could only drink water from the toilet, and he could only eat what was left over from other people's food and spit on.

In a trance, she appeared several times, scaring Andrew into incontinence.

In the end, he took a brick board and smashed himself to death.

Mitch nodded, seeing that Susie was about to come out, he said. "It's over? You don't need to keep anything "

t you let

Stacy shouted unwillingly "Wait. I've said everything, why don't y me go?"

Mitch raised his eyebrows, "Did I say I would let you go?"

Before Stacy could say anything, Mitch snapped his fingers, and she disappeared instantly, and there would never be Stacy again.

The ghost baby on the ground was scrambling around in a daze. After taking a bath, Susie wore a white pajamas with a cherry pattern on it, and asked. "Where's Auntie?"

Mitch said. "Let's go."

Susie was taken aback "Don't you need to grab it?"

Mitch. "It's impossible for her to harm anyone anymore. Even if you don't catch her, she will disappear in a few days. Don't worry about her "

Instead, these ghost babies should be taken away and put in the gourd for the time being. Let's go down when there is a chance to be reborn!

Susie nodded. "Okay."

The door was knocked, and Alana came in, nagging 'why you're still awake'. 'grandma will tell you a story' and so on.

Susie climbed into bed obediently, covered herself with a quilt, listened to Alana's story quietly, and finally closed her eyes and fell asleep

Alana touched Susie's head kindly, wanting to kiss her forehead, but found that she couldn't even do such a simple thing.

She couldn't stand up and Susie was sleeping in the middle of the bed

"Oh, I'm old and useless." Alana looked at Susie reluctantly: "I don't know how long I can stay with you."

Mitch leaned quietly, looking down at Susie who was sleeping soundly.

She just wanted to ask who her father is, right?

To be called an illegal child in such a bad way, even a child who is not familiar with the world, will be hurt in the bottom of his heart.

"Look for Dad." Mitch took out his brochure: "It's easy. I can find it for you in just ten seconds"

He concentrated his energy, and he could only open half of the booklet on weekdays, and opened the second half.

The veins on Mitch's forehead popped slightly, and he finally turned the page that belonged to Susie.

"Damn. Unless it opens automatically, it takes most of my energy to open it every time."

However, after struggling to open the booklet, I saw that the column of Susie's biological father and biological mother read

【Mother Clara】

Birth father Unknown. 】

Mitch was speechless.

He closed the booklet, touched his tall nose, coughed lightly and said, "Forget it, what father are you looking for? We don't need it."

Susie was in a deep sleep.

In the dream, she was in a white mist. There seemed to be a forest in the distance.

"Susie, come here " A deep voice sounded.

"Father" Susie subconsciously blurted out, walking towards the forest without stopping

But she can't go anywhere.

Susie was so tired that she sat down on the ground, and laughter suddenly sounded in her ears.

She was startled, and when she turned around, she saw an old lady in green squatting in front of her, staring at her, grinning.

"Are you looking for your father? I know, I'll tell you."

The old lady held out her hand.

Susie woke up suddenly, and opened her eyes suddenly.

Chapter 82 1 was next day
the next day.

It's the happiest weekend yet

Hamza and Wade are relatively self-disciplined and still get up at seven o'clock.

Zion is different from Lulu, he never turns over until he wakes up hungry.

Wade is in the book bar on the first floor, sitting upright, with a serious expression on his small face.

"Magnetic induction. $B=F/IL$."

"Magnetic flux. Φ is magnetic flux, and B is magnetic induction."

"Assuming that the magnetic flux that can be damned is determined at a certain value, to achieve the value of P , B and F are set."

Hamza, who was reading Shakespeare on the opposite side, raised his face full of doubts.

Hamza said. "Are you waiting for Susie again?"

Usually Wade likes to be in his room by himself, because his room has a huge desk that fills it up when he does the math.

Without looking up. Wade blurted out, "Nonsense."

Hamza sneered, took out his phone and tapped.

"You walked around there yesterday and said you weren't looking for Susie, but I saw you walking by."

Wade's ears warmed up, and he said without changing his face: "Which eye of yours saw it? I didn't look for Susie, I just passed by the door of her room?"

Hamza didn't give his brother any face at all, he turned on the video on his phone and held it in front of him.

But he snorted quickly: "Yes, I'm looking for her, what's the matter?"

Susie is so powerful, is it embarrassing to go to her? not at all.

On the contrary, if his brother finds out that Susie is so powerful in the future, wouldn't he want to rob him? The sister is his!

Wade looked at Hamza warily, picked up his arithmetic book and went to the sofa on the other side.

Hamza was speechless.

What does his younger brother's defensive look mean? It made him look like he was going to grab Susie from him. Is that possible?

Hamza let out a snort, and if he hadn't rolled his eyes so gracefully, he would have given Wade a hard one.

At this moment, Susie hugged the little rabbit, rubbed her eyes and went downstairs.

Wade was taken aback, and immediately put down the arithmetic book in his hand.

"Why are you up?"

Hamza, who was reading at the side, didn't look up, feeling contemptuous in his heart.

Susie yawned, and her eyes were a little out of focus. A completely unresponsive look.

Wade frowned: "Why don't you sleep longer?"

Susie looked at Wade, her mouth was flattened, and she said aggrievedly, "Wade, I woke up from a dream about a ghost."

He couldn't help but think of Susie's tough look when she was catching ghosts last night.

Can she still be woken up by ghosts?

Wade was about to comfort him carefully, but he saw Hamza looking at him out of the corner of his eye, and he could imagine his half-smile.

He held back abruptly, patted Susie on the shoulder and said, “Don’t be afraid, ghosts are nothing to be afraid of.”

He originally wanted to say that there are no ghosts in the world. Fortunately, he responded in time.

Alana came over from the kitchen with something, saw Susie surprised and asked, “Susie, why did you get up so early?”

Susie finally focused her gaze, touched her stomach and said, “Grandma, I’m hungry!”

Alana cheered, “It turns out that Susie woke up from hunger, come, grandma just made the meal!”

Susie immediately ran upstairs: “I’m going to brush my teeth!”

Wade covered his arithmetic book and went to the table to help Alana set the table.

Hamza just doesn’t understand, Wade is obsessed with counting, as long as it’s something he wants to count and learn, he won’t move when lightning strikes him.

Now because of Susie, go to help grandma set the table and chopsticks?

Hamza closed the book too, and went over to help.

These things at home are usually made by servants. As the young master of the Murray family, I really don’t have the habit of arranging dishes.

The previous Murray family did not have such a living atmosphere. Auntie made breakfast and set a table full. The Murray family sat down. calmly and then went about their business after eating. Hamza is used to

Looking at Susie who came downstairs, Hamza found that after this sister came, the family changed so much invisibly. It seems that my sister is not so annoying

Just thinking about it, Susie suddenly stepped on the ground and fell to the ground.

The parrot following her didn’t stop and stepped on Susie’s head.

Hamza was speechless.

Wade was speechless.

Hamza sneered, “Stupid.”

Susie held her head and said, “Alex. you stepped on me!”

The parrot shrugged its wings and circled in front of Susie, shouting as it circled:
“Sorry! Sorry! Do it again!”

Susie stared.

Wade hurried forward to pull Susie up, and asked, “Does it hurt?”

Susie shook her head: “It doesn’t hurt, I’m fine!”

Wade couldn’t help but laugh.

When Alana came back with a bowl of noodles, Hamza stepped forward to pick it up, and said in a calm voice, “Grandma, let auntie do these.”

Alana smiled and said. “It’s okay. I can do my own activities.”

After a while, the aunt brought all the breakfast over.

Recently, Alana cooks by herself. and a special area was urgently opened up in the kitchen for Alana, who has inconvenient legs and feet.

“Susie, eat some noodles.” Alana felt a great sense of satisfaction watching Susie eat!

Susie is not picky eater, she can eat whatever is offered, and after a acknowledgment, she picks up the noodles and starts to eat.

Hamza didn’t look sideways, secretly. is there such a delicious food?

He behaved elegantly, holding the small bowl very gentlemanly. Suddenly he stopped. For some reason, he thought it was really delicious, as if it tasted different from everything he had eaten before.

After eating. Susie picked up her small backpack and went out.

Today Susie changed into a pet backpack, and still grabbed Grandpa Turtle and put it in.

Alex didn’t wait for her to move, he jumped in by himself.

Alana asked, “Susie, where are you going?”

After the meeting, Martin was eating breakfast quickly, put down the bowls and chopsticks, and said, “Go to the Tucker family”

Seeing her grandmother's puzzled look, Susie explained, "It's the Holy Grail Entertainment, the Tucker family, that uncle took me to the opening ceremony some time ago."

Susie confused Holy Grail Entertainment with Tucker family, but it didn't prevent Alana from understanding, she gave Martin a white look.

"Forget about working by yourself, and take Susie with you! Do you want to take Susie with you when the child is ignorant to play? What if Susie gets bored while you're talking about work?"

Martin was speechless. Why is he scolded again?

The car arrived at another place where rich people gathered.

Tiago had been waiting at the door early in the morning, and finally looked forward to Susie, smiling all over his face.

"Miss Susie, please come inside!"

Susie was about to enter the door when she suddenly turned her head as if feeling something.

I saw an old lady in green floating on the balcony on the second floor of the opposite villa.

Seeing Susie's look, she grinned.

Chapter 83 The Riley family

Wade didn't go to the hobby class today, but followed Susie here like a little follower

He looked up and followed Susie's line of sight to the second floor opposite, and asked, "What's wrong?"

Susie, who was about to enter the door, turned her head and walked towards the opposite villa

Martin paused and followed immediately: "Susie?"

Tiago was worried, it's broken, what made Susie unhappy?

Just before she entered the door, she turned her head and glanced at the tree on the right

Don't you like that tree"

"Two people, move this tree to the backyard!"

After Tiago finished speaking, he quickly chased after him, and said,

Miss Susie. what's the matter?"

Susie stood in front of the villa across the door. with her little hands on her hips, and said to the upstairs "Hello, grandma upstairs' No, grandma upstairs, listen up. I've tolerated you for a long time!"

The old lady in the clothes stared straight at Susie with a weird smile on her face

Martin and the others looked towards the second floor, puzzled.

On the second floor, there is no one

Tiago felt inexplicably weird and his scalp was numb

"Miss Susie, the old lady of this family passed away last year."

Susie probably saw the old lady across the door

Tiago felt his legs go weak.

Susie turned around and suddenly asked. "Is this your house too?"

She looked at Tiago's face, then at the old grandma staring at her on the second floor.

These two faces are really similar.

Tiago was taken aback, "No, this one belongs to the Riley family. Speaking of which, this one is quite pitiful."

When he said this, he couldn't help but pause.

Seeing Susie looking towards the second floor from time to time, he felt as if someone was staring at him on the second floor.

Martin asked, "What's wrong with this place?"

Tiago sighed: "More than ten years ago, this family had a daughter who was brutally killed by her very close friend."

"I heard that the method was cruel. The flesh was peeled off. The police officers only found the flesh but not the bones. The Riley family only had one daughter. Mrs. Riley couldn't bear the blow and went crazy on the spot."

When Tiago said this, he glanced left and right, and said in a low voice: “Before the girl was arrested, the police officer found her tragic death in the printing factory. I heard that Mr. Riley found someone to kill her.”

“It could be that the matter was kept secret, or maybe the police couldn’t bear it. In short, the case was closed because no evidence could be found, so Mr. Riley is fine.”

“However, the old couple are also pitiful. They guarded the villa that had the breath of their daughter when they were alive, and searched for their daughter’s body, but they couldn’t find it. Then Mrs. Riley could n’t bear it a year ago and went first.”

So now there is only Mr. Riley in this villa.

When Tiago thought of these things, he felt even more creepy, and in broad daylight, his back was even more sinister.

Martin asked. “Didn’t he press for the whereabouts of the bones?”

Tiago shook his head: “It must have been forced to ask, but I don’t know why I didn’t ask.”

Leaning in the shadow of the villa wall, Mitch raised his eyebrows and said. “If I’m not mistaken, this should be the home of that vain ghost’s good friend.”

What a coincidence. Coincidentally, I always feel that there is something in it

Mitch looked up.

Susie tiptoed and said anxiously: “Uncle, I want to go in. Can you knock on the door?”

Martin told the assistant to go up and ring the doorbell, while picking up Susie.

Tiago let out an urg, and said cautiously: “Does Miss Susie know this family?”

To be honest, he didn’t want to go in.

He wanted to sell his villa before, but the fortune teller said that his house is not bad, as long as he lives in it, he will continue to make a fortune smoothly. That’s why I didn’t move away

But it is impossible to go in. He has lived for so long, and the psychological shadow is really great!

But Susie said, “Uncle, your mother is up there!”

Tiago was taken aback: “What?”

Susie gestured: “The old grandma’s face looks very similar to yours.”

Tiago was sure almost immediately that what Susie saw was really his mother!

“Come on, let’s go in!” He said immediately.

Susie glanced at him, Tiago had already gone up to call for someone.

“Raif, it’s me! Open the door.”

Cielo rang the doorbell for a long time, but no one answered, so Tiago had to go up and call.

He said at the same time: “Raif doesn’t like being disturbed by others, especially after Mrs. Riley passed away, he almost never left the hospital.”

After shouting for a long time, a weak voice came from the video call doorbell:

“What’s the matter?”

Tiago said: “We... ”

He looked at Susie, and suddenly realized that he didn’t know the reason for his visit.

You can’t say ‘my mother is upstairs in your house!!

Susie said to the doorbell, “Grandpa, I know where my sister’s bones are.”

Suddenly there was a dead silence in the video doorbell, and after a while, the door slammed softly and opened by itself.

“Come in.” Raif’s voice was still weak, but he could hear a hint of excitement when he listened carefully.

A group of people stepped into the courtyard gate of the villa.

Wade swallowed quietly, and finally raised his hand, pinching a bit of Martin’s trousers.

Almost through the door, Susie looked up at the second floor again.

Above the entrance door is the balcony on the second floor. At this moment, the old lady in green clothes is hanging on the railing, looking down.

Wade, who keeps an eye on Susie, has already guessed what Susie is looking at.

Looking up and seeing the empty balcony on the second floor, Wade just felt that not seeing was more terrifying than seeing.

The little hand couldn't help but clenched a little. Feeling his trouser legs being grabbed, Martin glanced down at Wade: "What are you afraid of?"

His tone was cold, and when facing his son, his voice didn't seem very gentle.

Wade turned his head: "I'm not afraid!"

Having said that, the grip on Martin's trousers tightened.

Martin was speechless, reaching out to hold him.

A group of people finally entered the house, and a smell of corruption suddenly hit their faces.

What is caught in it is the unique smell of medicine and indescribable smell of the old me.

A voice came from the video: "Come up. I'm on the second floor."

Wade was taken aback.

Susie had already gone up first, holding his hand at the same time: "Wade, hurry up!"

The master bedroom on the second floor, the room was dark after the door was opened, and the curtains were drawn to block the sunlight from outside.

The old lady in green clothes stood silently at the corner, still staring at Susie, silent.

Susie ignored her, and tentatively asked after entering the door: "Raif, can you open the window a little bit? Just a little bit."

There was a person lying on the bed, looking down on his face, only felt that the whole room was full of lifeless breath.

Chapter 84 Crazy nch

A group of people entered the room, but the people lying on the bed did not move at all.

Tiago felt even more nervous, if he hadn't just heard Rail's voice in the video, he would have doubted it.

If Raif is really dead, wouldn't it be more terrifying to hear his voice in the video?

Tiago trembled: “Raif?”

The person on the bed finally coughed, and said angrily. “Let’s go!”

Cielo hurried in, opened the curtains a bit, and opened the window by the way.

Fresh air poured in, and everyone felt better.

He also saw clearly the old man lying on the bed.

His face was sunken, and his cloudy eyes glanced around and fell on Susie.

“You said it. Found Nancy’s bones?”

His voice was weak, as if it was squeezed out of his throat with the last of his strength, his whole body was lifeless, only his two eyeballs rolled from time to time.

Wade had a sullen face, and Tiago was also a little uneasy, why did he feel so scary even though he was alive!

In the next moment, Susie walked up and grabbed the old man’s wrist like a dead tree.

“Grandpa, don’t worry, I know where my sister’s bones are.” Susie. comforted.

The red string on her wrist emits a faint light, which transitions into the old man’s body indistinguishably.

The old man’s eyes opened slightly, and the dull life seemed to be dispelled, and everyone seemed to come back to life for some reason.

Raif propped up his body tremblingly trying to get up.

Tiago hurried over to help him up without waiting for anyone’s reaction.

“Raif, why are you at home alone? I’m afraid your current body can’t take care of yourself.”

Surprisingly. Raif was wearing clean pajamas. and there was no peculiar smell on his body except the smell of medicine.

Looking around the room, although it was dark. it was still clean and tidy. This is a very decent old man.

Raif exhaled and said in a low voice. “What kind of care do you need, dying man.”

Susie looked at the old man in front of her with sad eyes.

There was a light on the old man's head

Micky said that when the light goes out. you die.

Susie said without waiting for him to ask. "Grandpa, my sister's bones are under the school's football field."

"My sister's name is Nancy, and my sister's best friend is Remi. Right?"

"Susie knows about my sister My sister is a kind sister She gave many beautiful clothes she didn't want to her good friend, but her good friend. killed her."

Raif was taken aback for a moment, tears were streaming down his face, and he remembered tremblingly "Help me there. I'm going to pick up Nancy."

For more than ten years, he had waited for more than ten years, thinking that he would never find his daughter's bones in his life.

I didn't expect to hear the news before leaving!

Martin glanced at Cielo, and Cielo regained his composure, and hurried out to call the police.

Tiago said. "Raif, don't worry, it's useless for you to go there, and the police officer won't let anyone get close."

Susie also said: "Don't worry, Grandpa. Susie is there!"

Raif stared down at her, then suddenly withdrew his gaze and leaned against the head of the bed.

"I have never done anything against my conscience in my life in doing things and running a business When an employee's parents are sick. I not only provide subsidies, pay for medical expenses, and even help contact foreign experts"

"I have done good all my life, and the only evil I have done is to kill that little girl."

Tiago was secretly surprised, it was rumored that the little girl was killed by Raif, is it true"

Susie nodded at what Mitch said, and asked, "Grandpa, why didn't you ask where my sister's bones are? How did my sister die?"

Raif let out a long breath, as if he had exhausted all the air in his chest. and his face, which had just recovered, looked haggard again.

“We taught Nancy to be kind and take good care of her since she was a child. She gave Remi her favorite things, limited edition skirts, which she was reluctant to wear a few times, but gave them to Remi. She was afraid of hurting Remi’s self-esteem, and deliberately Remove the tags from the newly bought things, saying that I don’t want them.”

“We have always supported her kindness, and even let Remi come in and out of the house at will. Who knew that gentle, lovely, kind and innocent little girl could be such a hypocritical devil!”

Mitch folded his arms and listened silently.

Rail said again: “Never be too nice to a person.”

It’s a pity that he understood this truth too late.

Under Rail’s narration, the tragic scene of more than ten years was slowly revealed

It turned out that after Remi resigned from the printing factory, she found a “decent” job without telling everyone, but she couldn’t make ends meet. and gradually owed more and more usury loans.

However, she seems to be more and more immersed in this hypocritical life, and even has the idea of replacing Nancy, becoming more and more crazy

“One day, she called to say that she was cheated by someone in a certain hospital, saying that she originally wanted to buy medicine for her parents, but her personal freedom was restricted. She wanted 10 million, and someone had to redeem it herself. During the phone call She cried so much that Nancy hurried away.”

Raif regretted that he took good care of his daughter, was too kind and innocent, and did not expect to die because of it.

Raif closed his eyes in pain, and said: “Remi is not detained by any hospital, she is in a chain of plastic surgery hospitals. This kind of plastic surgery hospital is best at fooling ignorant girls into plastic surgery, saying that it is a thousand cuts. Double eyelids, but in the end signed a loan of tens of thousands, and even people are deeply trapped and cannot escape”

Remi gave 10 million and asked the plastic surgery hospital to use real skin to transform herself into another person.

“They really dare to accept it. Do you dare to imagine that there will be such a human skin business.”

Not only the skin, but even every organ in the body has been reserved.

When Raif and the others learned that the news had arrived, Nancy had already disappeared.

No one was there, only Remi covered her face with blood, crying and saying that Nancy was taken away by bad guys in order to save her

“We were looking for people everywhere During this period, Remi lived in our house, all kinds of favors.”

Raif smiled wryly. “If I can’t see this person’s face clearly again, then I’m really stupid”

As if unwilling to remember. Raif’s face became more and more painful, and muddy tears flowed silently.

When Nancy was found, there were only scraps of skin and flesh tissue left

The hard-to-handle skeleton has nowhere to be found and can never be found again

“It wasn’t Remi who handled this matter. She was at most an accomplice who tricked Naney into her past. If she cried bitterly and repented, the court may not be able to sentence her for many years. But we have made up our minds to let her die!!”

A look of cruelty flashed in Raif’s eyes, and he stretched out his hands to cover his face.

“Just tried everything, and Remi couldn’t say anything. After all, she was not the last person to ‘handle’ Nancy, so how could she know where Naney’s skeleton is.

He just didn’t let her go, even if he did it again, Raif felt that he would still do it.

“I regret it half my life. The regret is not that I killed Remi, but that we didn’t teach our daughter well.”

Having said that. Raif couldn’t help crying anymore.

Chapter 85 Subze’s father is from the Morton Family

After hearing Raif’s words, everyone’s face was heavy and they felt breathless.

Martin couldn't help looking at Susie, seeing Susie listening quietly.

Susie was neither afraid nor disgusted, and kept holding Raif's hand.

Martin didn't know how much she understood about this kind of horrific thing. Normally, children shouldn't hear this kind of thing. But inexplicably. Martin felt that Susie was not an ordinary child.

Mitch said: "In other words. Remi only found out where Nancy's bones were buried after she became an evil ghost."

So what are the other reasons for the other seventeen corpses under the playground?

Susie said softly to Raif, "Raif, you don't need to be too sad."

Susie leaned closer, talking about something.

Raif's expression changed from shock and surprise to gradually returning to calm.

"Okay!" He said viciously. "It deserves it."

Susie took a look at the light on his head and couldn't hold it anymore.

"Raif, is there anything else you can do for me?" Susie asked.

Raif felt very tired and shook his head mutteringly: "No more. No more. I can tell my wife when I go down. Before my wife died, she still reminded me to find my daughter."

His eyelids were heavy, and he was about to close them slowly, and opened them a little harder.

"By the way, if possible, can Susie find someone for Grandpa?"

Susie nodded. "I can try

But Raif didn't speak any more, and fell into a deep sleep forever.

His face was serene, with a hint of a smile on his lips.

There was a dead silence in the room

Tiago's eyes were complicated, there was no one in the Riley family, and when Mrs. Riley passed away, it was Raif's funeral.

Tiago curled his lips, but in the end he still quietly sent a message on his mobile phone, asking people to prepare for the funeral.

“Let’s go!” Martin took Susie’s hand.

Susie suddenly said. “Wait a minute.”

A dead soul emerged from Raif’s body, slowly floated up, and looked around blankly

“This is me.”

Susie said: “Raif, you haven’t finished talking just now!”

Raif reacted quickly, and after getting used to it, he felt light all over, unprecedentedly relaxed

He said: “When I was looking for Nancy more than ten years ago, I went everywhere and met an old police officer. He was a shadow.”

The so-called shadow is an undercover agent who stands in the dark and burns himself to light the way forward for his partners.

“He suffered revenge, his parents disappeared, his son and daughter-in-law died, leaving only one grandson. Before he died, he asked me to take care of his grandson, but I couldn’t find the child.”

Raif thought for a while and said, “Ten years ago, the old police officer said that his grandson was seven years old, and now he is about 25 or 6 years old. His surname is Morton and he is from San Diego. Oh, by the way, his name is Sean.”

As for the name of his grandson, he didn’t have time to say.

While talking. Raif looked at Susie again, and felt that this Susie was inexplicably kind, as if he had met him a long time ago.

Susie secretly wrote down: surname Morton, from San Diego. Called Sean Morton

Susie nodded: “Okay.”

Cielo walked in from the outside and said, “Mr. Murray, the police officer has passed by and started digging the playground of the elementary school.”

Susie heard Cielo’s voice, then looked back, and saw the old lady in green clothes standing by the door looking at her.

Seeing her look over, he grinned again.

Raif said: “I should go. While there is still time, I will go and see Nancy.”

As if there was some kind of traction, he walked out easily, knowing the route by himself

Passing by the door, he said to the old lady in green in surprise. "Elder Mrs. Tucker? You look so perverted, don't scare my child."

The old lady in green was speechless.

Susie took Martin's hand and said, "Uncle, let's go! Raif is gone."

Walking to the door, the old lady in green clothes let out a hey hey, followed Susie and chattered: "Susie. Susie."

"I know your father."

Susie stopped abruptly and asked. "Who is my father?"

The old lady in the clothes said: "The last name is Morton, the last name is Morton."

"What's the name?" Susie asked.

The old lady in the clothes shook her head, and only repeated: "My last name is Morton, my last name is Morton."

Susie frowned, not knowing what she was thinking.

After a long time, she suddenly asked, "Micky, why do they always talk twice?"

When Stacy appeared, she muttered 'I died a terrible death, a terrible. death'

When the vanity ghost yelled in anger, he also yelled. T'm not reconciled! I am unwilling!'

Now this grandma is also repeating her own words 'surnamed Morton. Surname Morton.'

Mitch was flipping through his booklet again without raising his head: "When IQ is not enough, I will repeat a sentence over and over again. After all, people can't take their brains with them after death, so there will be dull eyes and drooling." The ones that appear mechanically at the scene of death."

Susie came to a sudden.

Mitch flipped through the booklet, frowning slightly. Susie's father's last name is Morton?

But there's no one named Morton in San Diego that's related to Susie.

Mitch looked through the brochure and found Sean, who had his own name and his son's name, but his grandson's name was unknown.

Mitch gave the old lady a strange look.

The Vanity Ghost – Clothes Old Lady – Raif

Raif is looking for a man named Morton.

The old lady said that Susie's father's last name was Morton.

So did she really know, or did she repeat it mechanically because she heard what Raif said?

Wade followed and asked in a low voice. "Susie, are they all gone?"

What Susie saw before entering the door, and Raif who just left.

Susie looked up: "No, there is another one beside you."

Martin led Susie out.

Tiago calls someone to deal with Raif's funeral, looking at Susie who is not far away secretly startled.

Who is Susie talking to?

Just as she was thinking about it. Susie suddenly turned her head around. with a rather strange expression on her face.

"Uncle, you will come over later, remember to hold an umbrella!"

Tiago was full of doubts. Why hold an umbrella?? However, Susie told. him to hold an umbrella, so let's hold an umbrella.

He asked someone to bring an umbrella over, held it up, and walked to his house opposite.

He didn't see it at all, there was a ghost quietly standing under his umbrella, with both feet off the ground. floating faintly.

Tiago also said: "Miss Susie, I'm really bothering you! My mother didn't know what happened, and she fell unconscious all the time."

"I've been rescued by ICU before, but I've done all the operations that should be done, but I can't wake up no matter what."

Mitch floated aside and looked at the contents of the brochure, and added: “Elder Mrs. Tucker should have passed away a long time ago. How could he still be holding his breath? It’s normal if he can’t wake up.”

While talking, Tiago has brought Susie into the door of the Tucker family.

This is a three-story villa with a large garden at the front and back. After entering the door, they went up to the second floor, and several people went straight to the house of the old lady of the Tucker family.

Pushing open the door, Martin and the others were stunned.

Chapter 86 House Decoration

The old lady’s house was full of spells.

In the center of the room was a large bed surrounded by machines.

Lying on the bed was an old lady in green clothes, her hair combed meticulously, but her body was full of tubes.

Mitch was dumbfounded. He finally knew why the Elder Mrs. Tucker had passed away long ago, but he was hung up again.

Wade’s first reaction was to stand where he was, feeling his hair stand on end.

The phone fell from Cielo’s hand with a clatter.

Martin looked calm, and asked. “This is?”

Tiago smiled sarcastically, but soon his face turned helpless: “I asked many people to show it to my mother, and they all said that only by doing this, my mother would come back to life.”

Mitch frowned: “Susie, ask him if he knows that the old lady is already dead?”

Susie looked up and asked, “Do you know your mother is dead?”

Tiago anxiously said: “How could it be? Isn’t this still breathing? Miss Susie, if you were able to save Ledger before, you must be able to save my mother too, right?”

He paused for a moment, then added: “My mother must have lost her way in a daze, and she can come back.”

Mitch was noncommittal, looking at the layout of the room very speechlessly.

“Let’s not talk about whether the old lady will come back or not. He must have been cheated.”

Susie nodded, her small face was serious: “Uncle, did you spend a lot of money?”

Tiago nodded and said the number of items.

Wade murmured: “10 million + 50 million + 60 million+ 100 million = 220 million.”

Cielo couldn’t help asking: “You believe this too?”

Tiago sighed: “It’s only a few hundred million, as long as my mother can be saved, a billion will be enough.”

Everyone didn’t expect Tiago to be quite filial.

Mitch was speechless, glanced at Elder Mrs. Tucker next to him, and said. “The things in the house are only topaz. So Elder Mrs. Tucker died, but was locked here.”

I don’t know how she found Susie.

Tiago asked: “Miss Susie, is there anything wrong?”

Susie listened to Micky’s words, and responded to him sentence by sentence, meaning that all kinds of things are useless.

Tiago collapsed: “Doesn’t that mean that none of my things are useless? Then my mother.”

He didn’t feel angry and annoyed that he was cheated at the first time, but worried about whether his mother could come back.

In the room, the old lady in green clothes stared at her body resentfully, her eyes were blank.

“I want to go. I want to go.” she murmured.

Susie said: “It’s not that it’s useless at all. this topaz is a bit useful.”

Tiago was overjoyed.

Susie: “Huang Yu wants to suppress her and kill her.”

Tiago was speechless.

With a cry of surprise, he hurried over to pick out the topaz from the old lady's mouth!

A phantom suddenly flew out of the old lady's body, and crashed into the body of Elder Mrs. Tucker floating beside her!

Tiago hurriedly asked: "Miss Susie, then, can my mother come back?"

Elder Mrs. Tucker put his hips on one side and cursed. "Where are you going back?"

Susie truthfully relayed: "Grandma Tucker said where?"

Susie put her hips on her hips and stared, learning in style.

Tiago was taken aback, "What?"

Susie pointed to Wade's side. "The grandma Tucker is right here!"

Wade exclaimed instantly. Why is it on his side again!

Elder Mrs. Tucker was heartbroken: "You have been cheated out of 200 million! Every day, money is easy to make money!"

Susie: "Grandma Tucker said—you have been cheated out of another 200 million yuan! Every day, money is easy to earn!"

Everyone looked at Susie who had learned so well.

Tiago wanted to laugh at first, but his eyes turned red

He sat weakly on the edge of the bed, held Elder Mrs. Tucker's hand, and said with a sob. "Then my mother will never come back, right? I want my mother to come back."

He just wants his mother back, is it that difficult?

His mother suffered all her life. He has been lucky for the past few years, and he just wanted to pick her up to enjoy life, but why did he end up like this not too long ago?

Chapter 87

Several people looked at Tiago who was crying bitterly, and didn't know what to say for a while.

When people are about to die, no one can stop them.

Rather than being full of tubes and being in pain until the last moment, let it go and let it go.

Susie comforted: “Okay, okay, stop crying, ”

At this time Tiago raised his head, only to see his face covered with snot.

Susie hurriedly took two steps back, unable to hold back a word of comfort.

Elder Mrs. Tucker, who was floating aside, said with disgust. “The snot is all in my mouth.”

A trace of helplessness flashed in her eyes, she looked at Susie and said, “Thank you, Susie.”

Susie shook her head: “You’re welcome grandma.”

She paused for a moment, then said ferociously: “One size counts for one size, you seared me before, I have endured it for a long time!”

Elder Mrs. Tucker burst out laughing, and apologized: “I’m sorry, I won’t be scary anymore!”

She really had no other choice but to find her.

Elder Mrs. Tucker sighed and said, “Can I have a word with my son?”

Susie was a little embarrassed, but Mitch raised an eyebrow

“Here comes Susie, and I’m going to teach you a great skill again! People talk ghostly, this can make ghosts open their mouths on others, so that people can talk nonsense.”

Susie was taken aback: “Is this what you mean by talking nonsense?”

Mitch: “You’re right when you say that.”

Susie nodded: “Understood.”

Cielo stared blankly at Susie who was talking to himself, and worried:

“Mr. Murray, has Susie always been like this?”

Martin said coldly: “She’s on the phone with someone else.”

Wade nodded: “She has an agent headset in her ear.”

Both father and son remained expressionless.

Cielo is speechless, is that so?

After Mitch taught Susie, he couldn’t help laughing. Susie is so much fun!

Susie stared: “You’re lying again!”

Mitch coughed: “No lie, it’s just full of nonsense. This skill needs someone who has a relationship with the dead. There is no suitable candidate here. So Mitch will teach you another one.”

Susie said worriedly: “Mitch, if you lie to others again, you will be a big stinky fart.”

Martin couldn’t help but curl his lips. Although he didn’t know what Susie said to her master, Susie’s fierce look was cute.

Even Wade felt relieved, as if it wasn’t so scary.

Just thinking about it, Elder Mrs. Tucker who was lying on the bed let out a cry and sat up straight!

Wade shuddered and hugged Martin’s thigh.

The whole group went out.

Leave Elder Mrs. Tucker and Tiago alone in the room talking.

In the room, Elder Mrs. Tucker hung his head, and his hands drooped to the side weakly.

“Son.” She said slowly.

This sound, combined with the surrounding environment, seemed very terrifying

Tiago asked nervously, “Mom?”

Elder Mrs. Tucker still didn’t look up—couldn’t.

So the voice was a bit muffled: “I’m leaving, don’t keep me anymore. Life and death are fate, I am very satisfied.”

Tiago’s eyes were red: “Mom.”

Elder Mrs. Tucker said: “Remember, there is one thing you must check in the future. Check the little boy surnamed Morton who lived in our house when he was a child!”

Elder Mrs. Tucker is dead, and the scenes of his life are clearest at this moment.

In memory, the little boy who was rescued by them and lived in their house for a while. It’s somewhat similar to Susie today.

“Maybe that is Susie’s father. He was 7 years old more than ten years ago, and he is about 25 years old now. You are going to help the Murray family find out.”

“Take a chance to talk to the Murray family.”

Tiago nodded intently: “I see.”

Susie stood outside the door with the little rabbit in her arms, looking at the opposite villa.

Some people came from the opposite villa, and a big black and white flower was hung in front of the door.

The funeral home’s car drove up, and a police car was parked beside it.

Raif should have seen his sister’s bones, right?

It’s a pity that the age is too long, and my sister is long gone.

Susie pursed her lips, her big eyes were slightly hollow, and no one knew what she was thinking when she was quiet.

Mitch was dressed in a white robe, leaning lazily on one side, holding a booklet in his hand, but his eyes kept falling on Susie.

Compared with finding Susie’s biological father, he is more concerned about whether Susie can survive.

On the booklet in his hand, under Susie’s name, there was another line of words: [everything in life]. So is she practicing now?

Just thinking about it, Susie suddenly heard Susie muttering to the parrot: “Alex, is two to five or six years old?”

Susie doesn’t seem to be very good at math. She is four years old and didn’t even go to kindergarten.

Alex’s little head rubbed against Susie’s hand: “Monster, monster!”

Susie scowled. She doesn’t want a monster father!

I didn’t catch a ghost this time, but I learned that my father was a monster

Susie’s face was tangled, and she went through a fierce battle in her heart:

“Forget it, children can’t dislike their father.” Susie said to Alex.

“Alex can’t be disgusted either.”

Alex: “Dad! Daddy!”

Susie giggled.

Tiago also came out at this time, and said something to Martin in a low voice, after a while Martin came out and said, “Susie, let’s go.”

The Tucker family soon hung up the white cloth.

Susie sat in the car. looked at the Tucker family getting farther and farther away, leaned on the window and said, “Uncle Tucker will make a fortune.”

Martin hums.

At night, the wind blows in the Riley family’s villa, and the white cloth is blown up.

In Raif’s room, a black figure suddenly appeared.

He was dressed in black, about 1.9 meters tall, pulled a chair and sat down.

He crossed his legs against the back of the chair, clasped his fingers, and stared at Raif’s bed.

“Come a little later.” He whispered, his voice low.

Chapter 88 Going to the Morton family

In the room where the lights were not turned on, with the help of the moonlight, a stern light could be seen from the eyes of the man in black.

At this time, his phone rang, and he picked it up. In the empty room, he heard a voice from the other side of the phone:

“Mr. Riley passed away at 3:50 this afternoon, and was discovered by neighbor Tiago ”

“To the Riley family are Martin and Wade from the Murray family, and Martin’s niece Susie and assistant Ciclo.”

“The bones under the football field of Wisdom Elementary School. The police records show that Mr. Riley confirmed that there were bones buried under the playground of the International Elementary School before leaving.”

The man in black sneered,

Did Raif solve the case before his death?

He doesn't believe it.

"Why did the Murray family come here?"

The phone said, "The Murray family was going to the Tucker family"

After the other side finished speaking, the man in black said coldly: "Look up everyone who came to Riley family today, and send me their profile pictures."

After he finished speaking, he hung up the phone and stuffed the phone in his pocket casually

His name is Kellen Morton, named after his grandfather. And his grandfather died eighteen years ago.

Before the sacrifice, the grandfather entrusted the businessman Raif who happened to meet, please Raif must find him.

After tossing and turning, he found out about it, but it was a pity that he came back too late. He has important things to ask Raif, but now he will never ask

Kellen stood up and quickly disappeared into the night.

Susie slept soundly that night.

She dreamed of a man who was taller than the door frame and said it was her father, but when he entered the door. he hit his head on the door frame.

Susie giggled.

When Mitch came back from the outside, he saw Susie who was sleeping soundly and didn't know what was dreaming, revealing two sweet pear nests.

Mitch was dressed in a white robe, and with a rare gentle smile on his slightly pale and coquettish face, he stroked Susie's hair.

"Little fool."

the next day.

Susie fell asleep until nine o'clock, and Alana quietly opened the door and came in, seeming worried to make sure that Susie was still there.

But Susie had already brushed her teeth, washed her face, changed her clothes, and was putting on her shoes.

“Grandma, good morning!” Susie gave a big smile.

Alana’s mood suddenly seemed to be illuminated by the sun, and crow’s feet appeared on the corners of her eyes when she smiled: “Why did you wake up so early?”

Susie said. “Alex woke me up!”

Alex lay on the mosquito net outside the balcony, shaking his head and singing at the top of his voice.

Alana’s mouth twitched.

When Martin said that the room next door would be a tropical rainforest view room through a balcony, she disagreed because she thought the bird was too noisy.

Susie is still growing up, she needs to sleep well, what if Susie wakes her up in the middle of the night?

Alana nags and complains that Martin is not sensible.

Susie couldn’t help laughing, took Alana’s hand, and followed her wheelchair out.

“Grandma, Alex won’t be noisy when he sleeps at night.”

Like humans, parrots cannot see at night without lights.

They sleep at night and are quiet all night unless someone pokes them or is in danger downstairs.

Father and son Martin, Hamza and Wade sat at the dining table and had breakfast

One is looking at the tablet and doing business.

One holds a newspaper and reads the news.

One is holding an arithmetic book, thinking while eating.

They all do their own thing and have nothing to do with each other.

Craig put the teacup aside and said with a stern face, “Eat as soon as you eat, what are you guys doing?”

Craig is a rigid and serious person. He hardly talks at ordinary times, and everyone has to restrain himself when he speaks.

Martin put down the tablet, and Hamza and Wade put down their notebooks and newspapers. Wade thought it was Susie, and immediately turned around, only to see Lulu running down with his slippers on.

She looked around and asked. “Where’s Susie?”

Lulu was secretly sulking, and she didn’t catch up?

It’s fine if I didn’t see anyone yesterday, but I went out early in the morning today!

Wade sneered: “It’s quite early today!”

Lulu snorted angrily, and turned to go back to the room, not wanting to eat breakfast at all

Craig frowned: “Can’t say hello? Go to bed after dinner!”

Martin said lightly, “Dad. don’t be so strict.”

Craig sneered: “I’m so strict with everyone!”

Lulu came over lazily dragging her slippers. She didn’t want to eat breakfast, not at all, so she didn’t have the habit of eating breakfast.

Then Susie and Alana came out.

Lulu’s eyes lit up, but he quickly pretended to be nonchalant and took a bite of the bread.

Susie said crisply: “Good morning!”

Craig nodded mildly

Hamza and Wade looked at Craig immediately, and Martin looked up. Is this tough on everyone?

Craig coughed. looked at his watch and said. “Susie, it’s nine o’clock, get up earlier! Do you know?”

Alana controlled the wheelchair and came over. While preparing food for Susie, she glared at Craig: “What are you doing so early in the morning? You think you are still the leader of the group!”

Craig pursed his lips.

Susie said with a smile: “I know, grandpa, I will get up very early in the future.”

Craig “There’s no need to be so early”

Martin, Hamza and Wade looked at him again.

After breakfast, Martin will take Susie to the Morton family.

Yesterday Raif said that Susie’s father’s surname was Morton, and the Murray family decided to visit after discussion.

Assuming that Susie really has the blood of the Morton family, their Murray family has no reason to hide Susie’s existence and make decisions for Susie selfishly

One person from the Morton family happened to be about 25 years old. It was said that he was a member of a small branch of the Morton family, which was basically consistent with what Raif described.

Where the Morton family is, near the Stevenson family compound.

The car drove slowly across the street, Susie leaned against the window, and suddenly let out a gasp.

Outside the street, a woman in red is waiting for a traffic light.

Chapter 89 M Dad is Like This, I Dont Wante

Susie noticed the woman in the red dress because there was a ghost lying on her back

Mitch sees the woman in the red dress. ‘Huh?’ said with a loud voice: “Another evil ghost?”

From the crybaby who ran away at the beginning, to the vain ghost on Mia, and then to the one in front of me.

“Tsk. is evil ghost so easy to find now?” Mitch glanced at Susie and couldn’t help but mutter to himself

Others go through untold hardships to find ghosts to collect ghosts, but she is lucky, ghosts are automatically delivered to the door.

“That coward, let me mark it for you,” Mitch said.

Once marked, there is no chance of running away like a crybaby

Susie didn’t speak.

She was looking at the man standing not far from the woman in red.

The man was tall and tall, dressed in black, with slightly curly black hair hanging down in front of his eyes, looking cool and handsome.

Looking at him, Susie felt a strange feeling, and involuntarily stuck her head out of the car window.

“Susie, don’t poke your head out, it’s dangerous.” Martin carried her back and closed the car window.

Kellen was keenly aware that there was a line of sight looking at him, but when he looked up, he saw a black Maybach driving past, and a small figure passed by.

Morton family, in the resplendent dining room. Elder Mrs. Morton. Hallie, are eating elegantly. there are several sons, daughters, and daughter-in-law sitting at the dining table.

Among them, the daughter-in-law was standing, serving Hallie to eat, and wiping her hands and mouth with wet towels and the like.

The rest of the people turned a blind eye and got used to it.

At this time, the butler came in and said, “People from the Murray family are visiting outside, bringing a little girl with them.”

Elder Mr. Morton. Cain. He chewed something in small bites, and after swallowing it slowly, he asked, “What’s the matter with them?”

The housekeeper said: “I asked about this, and the Murray family said that there might be Susie’s father here.”

Hallie rolled her eyes: “Are you here to meet relatives again? Tell them they’re missing! Tell them to go back!”

She knew that kid in the Murray family. It is said that it was born by the sick child Clara, but I don’t know which man he messed with to get it out.

Children born under such a background are also embarrassed to come to them to recognize their relatives?

Even if it really belonged to the Morton family, it was impossible for her to let such a child into the Morton family.

At the dining table, a young man hesitated and said, “Let’s meet, after all, it’s from the Murray family.”

Cain said disdainfully: “What’s wrong with the Murray family? Isn’t it just rich?”

No matter how rich the Murray family is, that's what it is, but their Morton family is different. Not to mention, their Morton family is also rich.

The butler nodded and went out and replied very arrogantly that Martin was not available.

After finishing speaking, before they could say anything, they turned around and went in, closing the door.

Martin sat in the car without much expression on his face.

The Morton family didn't want to recognize Susie. Coincidentally, they are also unwilling to 'share' Susie with others.

Susie saw that Martin was a little upset, so she asked, "Uncle, why are we here?"

Martin's expression softened, and he said. "Susie said she wanted to find her father, so uncle brought you over to have a look."

Yesterday Raif asked Susie to find Sean's descendants. Raif was so focused on finding his daughter's bones that he might not have paid attention to the newly promoted Morton family.

Five years ago, there was no Morton family among the big families in Los Angeles, and the Morton family was still doing business in the coastal areas at that time.

After the world-shocking group was eradicated. Sean was among the shadows of the sacrifices, and Sean was still a first-class meritorious service.

Since Sean has no descendants or immediate family members, the honor of this feat falls to his cousin Cain.

Cain came directly to Los Angeles to gain a foothold due to favorable policies

Martin came here this time because Susie accidentally mentioned to him when she came back yesterday that her father's surname was Morton.

There was a trace of expectation hidden in her eyes when she said it, how could Martin have the heart to let her down.

Even if he knew that the Morton family looked down on people, he was still willing to come here for Susie.

But Susie shook her head: “Uncle, let’s go back!”

If Dad is like this, then she would rather not.

All she needs is uncles, grandparents, brothers and sisters!

Martin was slightly startled: “Susie doesn’t want to look for her father anymore?”

Susie shook her head: “Don’t be such a father.”

Martin hooked his lips.

Well, he is indeed a child of his Murray family!

As for Raif’s request to find Sean, Martin doesn’t even care.

As long as Susie is good, why does he care so much about others?

Martin pursed his lips, in a very good mood, and stroked Susie’s head with his big palm: “Susie, do you want me to take you to the playground?”

Susie’s eyes lit up: “Go!”

I couldn’t wait to finish speaking, and raised my hand and said, “Call my brothers and sisters to go with me!”

He added: “Alex and Grandpa Turtle also want it!”

In Susie’s eyes, going to an amusement park is a ‘good thing.

Good things should be shared with friends.

Morton family

After eating, they wiped their mouths gracefully and asked the housekeeper. “The Murray family’s is still outside?”

If they are still waiting, she doesn’t mind seeing them for the sake of their sincerity

The butler said. “They’re going back.”

Hallie snorted: “I don’t even have the patience to recognize my relatives.”

Fortunately. I didn’t see them. It’s best for them to take that little disaster star far away and never bother them.

Cain was talking to his son: “Have you contacted the person the big leader mentioned? My surname is Morton too. I am the God of War who came back from the border war zone. Hurry up and find a way to make connections.”

The eldest son of the Morton family wondered: “Dad, that person is hard to see! I don’t know why, but that person seems to have a lot of opinions. on our Morton family”

Cain frowned: “I haven’t seen it before, why do you have any opinions? Is there some misunderstanding? Both of them have the surname Morton, just find a chance to meet and have a meal to clear up the misunderstanding!”

He said again: “Dad, this is really hard to find. Not only is he the God of War who came back from the border war zone, but I’m also the head of the hidden family.”

Cain stared: “What kind of hidden family patriarch, you have read too many novels! Every time you are asked to do something, you are reluctant, making so many excuses? I don’t think you even asked!”

The Morton family had a quarrel because of an upcoming big man, all kinds of tension, all kinds of preparations for finding a relationship.

I don’t know what I missed today.

Chapter 90 Theken! Happy

Dream Happy Valley is the largest amusement park.

This is a paradise for children, and staff in doll costumes can be seen everywhere

The long slide is as high as four or five floors, and it is so exciting to slid down from the top.

Mitch frowned A place with a lot of people, especially a lot of children, is not very comfortable for ghosts

“I’m going to find a place to sleep ” Mitch glanced at Martin and Hamza, the father and son were like bodyguards, and they didn’t have anything to do with him

Just as Susie was about to say ‘OK’, Lulu excitedly held Susie’s hand and ran fast.

“Go, over there! Let’s slide down the top slide!”

Wade chased after him: “Wait for me!”

Hamza likes to be quiet by nature. at this moment he looked at the three running up with a speechless face.

Martin was dressed in a suit, with a tall and straight figure, and he looked very outstanding among the parents in the amusement park.

It’s a pity that he is too cold, and no one dares to strike up a conversation.

Seeing him with four children, a girl said bitterly “Such a handsome man has four children. The key is that he is so handsome with four children. Why am I not the child’s mother?!”

Her companion rolled her eyes and said. “Daydream you!”

The tall and cold male god can only watch from a distance, and I don’t know how many people secretly took pictures.

Martin followed, when a call came in, he looked at the number, and said, “Take care of your sister.”

Hamza was expressionless: “Understood.”

Susie and the others came to the giant slide. There were too many people and they had to line up to go up.

Lulu is at the front, Susie is in the middle and Wade is at the back.

Susie looked at the long slide and said regretfully: “It would be great if Alex and Grandpa Turtle could come too!”

Pets are not allowed in Happy Valley, otherwise Alex and Grandpa Turtle must be very happy.

Seeing that Susie and the others were about to be in line, suddenly a little. girl ran over and squeezed in front of Susie!

Wade frowned and said, “Why are you doing this? Don’t jump in line!”

The girl looked arrogant and said loudly: “No! I’m going to stand here!”

An aunt followed her and said, “It’s okay, it’s fun anyway, and it’s fun when everyone is together.”

Susie said seriously: “But it’s wrong to jump in line!”

The girl didn't listen, and the aunt also pretended to play on her mobile. phone, as if she didn't hear anything.

There are so many children in Happy Valley, if you want to wait in line. slowly, when will you have to wait?

Anyway, there are so many people jumping in line every day, and they are not the only ones. They all played like this just now.

Seeing her grandma like this, the girl who jumped in line winked, and made a very provocative face at Susie: "You hit me!"

Susie was upset, she followed Mitch's example and squinted her eyes.

But Susie hadn't had time to show off

Hamza stopped in front of her, and said coldly. "Go to the back and line up."

Wade also stood in front of her with a stern face.

The aunt still pretended to look at her mobile phone and ignored it.

The girl was even more proud, twisting her buttocks: "No, no, I won't!"

Lulu couldn't bear it anymore! She grabbed the girl by the hair and pushed her out!

"Go away!" She glared angrily.

She suddenly discovered that the child who said 'no, no' is so annoying!

The girl fell to the ground hard, and burst into tears!

Seeing her child being beaten, the aunt quit immediately!

She opened her throat angrily, and said loudly: "Hey! Which parent's child are you? It's unreasonable to hit someone!"

Lulu poked his neck: "You are the one who hit you! Who told you not to line up!"

The aunt was very annoyed: "Then you can hit someone? If you are not happy, you can say it! How can you do it?"

She used her aunt's nirvana and yelled loudly.

When Martin heard the movement, he immediately hung up the phone and strode over

At the same time, a woman in red also hurried over

"What's going on?" Martin said coldly.

He was condescending, staring at the aunt coldly, and the sharp and cold aura on his body made the aunt stutter immediately.

“Your children beat people!”

Susie immediately said. “Uncle, she was the one who jumped in the line first, and she refused to listen when she was told to line up.”

The aunt retorted: “We didn’t hear it.”

Martin’s face was cold: “I didn’t hear that, so we should let you go? Do you want to be beaten too?”

At this time, the woman in the red dress also ran over and apologized again and again: “I’m sorry, I’m sorry, I apologize for them.”

Susic questioned.

Is it the aunt in the red dress? Susie looked over her shoulder, and there was a ghost lying powerlessly on it.

Martin said coldly, “Is this your child?”

The woman in red was a little embarrassed and said, “This is my niece.”

Auntie held a sulky breath and said unhappily: “Let’s go. Don’t play anymore! What a bad luck!”

She picked up the crying girl, knocked away the woman in red and left straight away.

Still complaining: “I thought your amusement park in Los Angeles was so high-end! Did you buy a VIP ticket!”

The woman in red apologized repeatedly and followed behind, her tone a little helpless: “I said it all. there are no VIP tickets in Happy Valley”

The aunt’s unhappy voice came from afar: “You have earned so much money, why can’t you take us to a place with higher quality?! It’s hard for us to come here.”

The woman in red was silent, silently following behind.

Susic and Wade looked at each other.

“This man is so rude!” Susie said with a wink

Lulu pulled Susie up and said, “Hurry up, it’s our time!”

The giant slide is connected to the climbing net, and you have to climb up from the climbing net and then slide down the tall stairs.

The four to five-story climbing net folds twists and turns, so you are not afraid of falling and getting hurt. It is both challenging and interesting for children.

Watching the two little girls climb up first. Martin looked at Hamza.

Feeling very bored. Hamza followed the two girls with a straight face. watching Wade with nervous eyes and his hands always ready to support Susie, he just wanted to roll his eyes.

How did his good brother become like this?

Lulu asked: “Susie, can you do it?”

Look at her, with thin arms and legs, she might not even be able to climb

Susie was carrying the little rabbit on her back, and said crisply: “Look, I’m super powerful!”

Lulu and Wade didn’t believe it at all.

In the next second, they saw Susie clutching the climbing net and climbing up very sensitively

Lulu and Wade opened their mouths, and even Hamza was secretly surprised.

Their sister is so powerful?

The three quickly caught up

As a result, the three were out of breath, and Susie acted like a normal person, and everyone came to the top of the slide together.

“Hurry up!” Susie urged excitedly. “I’ll be the first!”

Lulu immediately said, “I’m second!”

Wade: “I’m third.”

Hamza was speechless.

The four siblings lined up and slid down the long slide!

Although the four-story slide is very long, it has several turns and is steeper than ordinary slides.

It's more exciting than a pirate ship.

Slipping all the way to the end, the brothers and sisters piled up together, and Susie's laughter infected everyone around them so much that they couldn't help laughing.

Susie flushed with excitement, and turned her head to see Hamza.

"Is it fun?" Susie asked.

Hamza turned his face away, and said stiffly, "It's so-so."
