Chapter 1081 Emperor Prosper!

King of Cities' fingertips were like five sharp blades directly aimed at Blake's abdomen.
King of Cities' fingertips were like five sharp blades directly aimed at Blake's abdomen.

The weakest spot is his abdomen!

He tried to gut Blake.

The parents of this little brat cannot die so easily. He wanted to let him watch his parents covered in blood with their intestines flowing out...

It would definitely hurt this little brat's heart!

He wanted to kill them and left a nightmare on this little brat.

In case she left a way out...

He made her remember that moment forever. She couldn't escape from failure.

A cruel smile appeared on the face of the King of Cities. He slashed it fiercely!

The King of Cities felt a shock in his wrist. His hand almost broke.

His face appeared unbelievably.

How could a mortal body be so assertive?

Blake looked at him without expression and said, "You're brave."

He released all his power learned from the ice pond. In an instant, The king of Cities was forced to retreat!

The immense pressure crushed the King of Cities. He was forced to kneel down!

Even his knees made the sound of bones breaking...

The king of Cities was stunned in shock. He couldn't even lift his head!

He crawled on the ground and said, "Emperor Prosper!"

It was impossible to see Emperor Prosper had such a strong power!

Didn't Emperor Prosper go beyond the Three Realms and Six Paths?

According to the rumors, Emperor Prosper had completely left and broken free from his shackles.

There were also rumors that Emperor Prosper tried to break through the Three Paths and was killed by the Ninth Paths.

Emperor Prosper had not appeared for thousand years.

Otherwise, why would the underworld be so turbulent and in turmoil? Everyone was aiming for the position of head of the Ten Hell Palace.

But he had to believe it.

The ninth Hell Palace Rulers held a competition for the position of head of the Ten Hell Palace. He wanted to be the new ruler.

The weakest female Ruler of Hell suddenly appeared and won the Ten Hell Palace's head position.

The other nine Ruler of Hell couldn't accept it. Where did this rarely-seen woman come from? As soon as she came, she took the top position.

Was she even qualified to be the head of the Ten Hell Palace?

At that moment, Emperor Prosper suddenly appeared.

Although he did not reveal his true form at that time, he said only one sentence that made the ten Ruler of Hell instantly keep quiet, "Do you dare to disobey me?"

The woman successfully secured the position of the head of the Ten Hell Palace because of this...

King of Cities would always remember the power of the Emperor Prosper. The power was the same as the Spirit Realm.

They never apologized based on their living culture for a few thousand years.

"Emperor Prosper, please let me go!" King of Cities said with fear.

Blake withdrew his mighty pressure.

In reality, all the spirit energy he learned from the ice pond had depleted.

Blake felt weak and almost fainted.

He couldn't hide anymore if the King of Cities begged any later.

Blake coldly ordered, "Get out."

King of Cities lowered his head shamefully and said, "Yes..."

He felt shocked and sensed disaster incoming.

He could never imagine that the person he tried to kill turned out to be the daughter of the Emperor Prosper!

No wonder Emperor Prosper suddenly appeared three thousand years ago.

No wonder Lilly could take away the ice pond under Spirit Cliff!

How could the world be so unfair!

King of Cities crawled up and was about to leave.

However at this moment, Lilly had already rested enough.

She immediately lifted the purple sledgehammer and shouted, "Hold on!"

King of Cities was stunned.

Lilly said. "Daddy, I haven't had enough fun yet!"

King of Cities fell silent. He cautiously raised his eyes to look at Blake's expression.

Blake gently looked at Lilly and said, "You will have extra five minutes."

Blake's words even more devastatingly affected the King of Cities' heart.

He wished it was fake because Blake was just a mortal!

But now he dared to say that Lilly could play for another five minutes...

King of Cities said with a stifled expression, "Little Hades, you've gone too far..."

King of Cities suddenly remembered his statement before leaving.

If anyone could save Lilly this time, he would kill himself...

Fortunately, there shouldn't be any other ghosts to hear it...

Chapter 1082 Poor King of Cities Accompanies to Practice

King of Cities was secretly glad that no other ghost had what he said.

King of Cities was secretly glad that no other ghost had what he said.

Suddenly, Lilly said, "Did you mention that you would kill yourself if someone saved me this time?"

King of Cities was shocked.

No way! How did she know it?

Lilly smiled and said, "Do you wonder how I know it? Unfortunately, I won't tell you."

Then, she shouted childishly, "Eighty!"

King of Cities was startled. Lilly wasn't joking this time.

The purple sledgehammer crashed down like a titan and aimed toward his head!

He instinctively reacted and tried to fight back.

However, he saw Blake's eyes slightly squinted...

He lifted his hand, which was originally peeling sweet potatoes.

King of Cities was speechless.

He forcibly took a hit and nearly spat out blood.

Lilly said with dissatisfaction, "No, you have to resist."

King of Cities instantly turned angry. Who did she think she was?

But he saw Blake's gaze.

King of Cities couldn't help but pick up his sword and said resentfully, "Alright..."

Lilly instantly swung the purple sledgehammer toward King of Cities!

The King of Cities resisted but didn't dare to resist fully.

The sound of the purple sledgehammer hitting with the long sword keeps coming around. Lilly was energized and cherished this training opportunity.

Pablo was watching from the side anxiously.

Weakling spirit felt the same. They all felt that something was wrong with Mr. Blake...

This feeling was weird.

Lilly's pet pack was on the side. The tortoise was chewing something slowly in his mouth while watching what happened.

Suddenly, the King of Cities stumbled, and his sword flew and hit the pet pack.

Polly woke up in a daze. He couldn't accept the environment here and fell asleep after entering the underworld.

Now it was awakened by the atmosphere and saw Lilly chasing the King of Cities with her sledgehammer.

Harem spirit and unlucky ghost chilled on the side and watched what happened. When the sledgehammer hit King of Cities, they shouted, "Good!"

"Teach him a lesson!"

"Don't stop!"

Polly was instantly confused.

Who am I? Where I am doesn't matter!

What mattered was that its family member was in a battle against the King of Cities.

King of Cities' face was swollen from the beating.

Finally, Lilly got tired. She shouted, "Alright, you can go now!"

Blake handed the sweet potato to Lilly and asked, "Not more games?"

Lilly replied, "Not today. We'll play next time."

King of Cities was speechless.

He humbly suppressed the resentment in his heart and said, "Then I will leave now...."

Blake didn't even lift his eyes. King of Cities felt even more upset and left.

Outside the courtyard.

Many shadow ghosts were waiting for reincarnation while Madame Maya continued preparing Madame Maya's soup and seemed to don't know anything happened.

King of Cities was embarrassed and gave Madame Maya a gloomy look before leaving.

Madame Maya felt baffling.

What happened? Was she blamed for being beaten?

King of Cities was mad and smashed everything in his palace except for the pool...

The Icemount Fish leisurely swam in the pool.

It swam closer to King of Cities and asked, "Hey, do you want some poop?"

King of Cities was even madder after seeing this fish. However, he couldn't bear to kill it.

Suddenly, the King of Reincarnation's voice passed outside the door saying, "King of Cities, don't be so angry. Blake was not necessarily an emperor..."

The King of Cities frowned and asked, "What do you mean?"

The King of Reincarnation's eyes flickered slightly. He followed the King of Cities when he was mad and went out.

Emperor Prosper's pressure and power truly shocked him either.

However, there was a doubt from the bottom of his heart, which must be verified by the King of Cities.

The King of Reincarnation said, "I saw Emperor Prosper couldn't stand well just now..."

King of Cities also felt something weird. However, just a moment ago, he was crushed by Emperor Prosper and broke his knee!"

He didn't dare to be arrogant.

Now, things didn't seem right when thinking back...

However...

King of Cities sneered unhappily and said, "King of Reincarnation, you seemed to know something was not wrong. Why didn't you help me?"

King of Reincarnation sighed and said, "It would have become a real fight if I had intervened. All the spirits outside who are waiting to be reincarnated would be affected!"

"They are poor. I don't want to see them suffer again."

King of Cities turned speechless.

How did he not know that the King of Reincarnation was so hypocritical?

King of Reincarnation had another thought in his mind.

He doubted Blake's identity, but he would never verify it alone.

He would wait King of Cities went to verify it. If Blake were turned to be Emperor Prosper, he would immediately fawn and help the King of Hell's ascension. It would make him become the biggest contributor.

Who wouldn't want to please the daughter of the Great Emperor?

But if he wasn't...

Then, he would help to kill the King of Hell in the trials of the tribulation.

Chapter 1083 Elsa Is Dead

In Madame Maya's Courtyard.

In Madame Maya's Courtyard.

Lilly asked, "Daddy, why didn't we lock the King of Cities in the Hell Ruler Palace?"

Blake shook his head and said, "You'll never know how he will fight back."

If they had really locked the King of Cities up, he would have done anything to fight back.

Blake already used all his power only to stop the King of Cities...

He felt like bursting out from spirit energy since he hadn't used the elixir field.

But now, he felt exhausted.

He had to find a way to upgrade a second time in a quick manner.

King of Cities was not ordinary too.

Blake said, "Let's leave today."

Lilly was confused.

Jean was dazed and instinctively asked, "Shall I leave too?"

Pablo shook his head and said, You had registered in the Book of Reincarnation. You cannot return."

Pablo couldn't figure out what was happening even though he was the judge in charge of Jean's reincarnation.

Jean had been here for a while and even treated Madame Maya's soup as plain water.

If it were in the past, Jean would not be able to leave.

But now, Blake stood up and said, "You're leaving together."

Blake said directly when Pablo tried to debate, "I will take care of the responsibility."

Pablo fell into silence. Fine, just don't affect Lilly anyway! How could What Emperor Blake did have affected Little Hades? Obviously, it wouldn't.

Polly chewed Show Lotus and shook its head. Yellow millet was more tasty. Why didn't Mommy Jean plant some yellow millet?

Jean felt upset when having to leave this place, he said, "Madame Maya, I will miss you!"

Madame Maya replied, "Thank you, and please go!"

Jean turned silent. Why did Madame Maya dislike her so much? She hadn't complained about her soup yet!

But Lilly was careless about it. This was the first she was so happy! Daddy and Mommy were here.

She held their hands and felt cheerful.

She wanted to stay like this forever and stop having midnight thoughts about Mommy.

Even though she didn't know where they were going now, it was never wrong to follow Daddy.

The Underworld was Daddy's territory!

Unlucky ghost asked instinctively, "Where are we going?"

Lilly replied, "We're going to do whatever we want in the Underworld and go home!"

The ghosts fell silent.

When they were about to leave, Lilly suddenly exclaimed.

Countless ghosts were lining up in front of Madame Maya. There was a familiar female ghost approaching...

Weakling spirit looked follow Lilly's view and said, "Isn't it Elsa?"

Lilly was confused and asked, "Who's Elsa?"

Harem spirit said excitedly, "She's the one who dragged his groom during their wedding to buy a luxury car."

The ghost bride added, "Then the groom left and married someone else on the spot!"

So, it was her!

She became even more curious and said, "Why was she dead?"

When Elsa saw Lilly, she immediately became quiet and tried to hide herself.

She was still discovered.

She weakly said, "It's nothing to die..."

The next moment, Lilly ran over to Madame Maya and said, "Granny Madame, let me help you!"

Madame Maya turned speechless.

They were just odd...

However, she was Little Hades. How could Madame Maya dare to reject her?

Madame Maya said, "Alright, I'll rest for a moment."

Lilly immediately said, "Thank you, Granny Madame!"

Then, she turned her head and looked at Elsa.

Polly said aggressively, "Hey, do you want to reincarnate? Just tell us your story! Then, you can go straight to your next mother's home!"

Elsa fell silent.

She had no choice and said, "I became a joke after Simon and Chole married."

"I thought I could find another simp easily, but in the end, only Simon loved me..."

Lilly was in the Underworld and had no idea what would happen next. Initially, she also thought that Drake would settle down the simp.

But she never expected that Elsa would die.

She was curious.

How did this gold digger end up here?

Chapter 1084 Meddling Mom and Daughter

The ghosts were gathered around Madame Maya's stall.

The first group were the gossip enthusiasts, such as the harem spirit, ghost bride, and others.

The second group was the ghost behind who were preparing to reincarnate.

Everyone was interested in the story.

Jean was curious as she heard the story.

A gold digger forced her groom to buy a luxury car during the wedding, and the groom left and married another woman.

What an interesting story!

She sat on the chair, holding Lilly, and picked up the bowl of Madame Maya's soup to drink.

Lilly tried to drink it too. However, she ended up with her mouth stuck with spiritual spring from her daddy.

Lilly asked, "How did you die?"

She had the aura of Ruler of Hell while sitting in this realm of the Underworld.

Elsa replied, "I was killed by a slap..."

A slap to death?

What a way to die!

Jean always thought about this when she read novels. Today she finally saw a real-life example.

Elsa was mad and said, "I went back to the villa that Simon and I bought together and found out Chloe had occupied it. I was trying to get it back..."

In the end, she got nothing and was even thrown out by the security guards.

"I got even angrier about it when I thought about it. Simon and I bought that villa. How did Chloe dare to steal it!"

"My mom said that must be a hidden reason behind it. The Preston family wouldn't give her the villa just because she saved him that day!"

Elsa thought it made sense. How could the Preston family will so kind and gave everything to Chloe?

So, she immediately started investigating and secretly followed Chloe.

"As expected, I found Chloe went to the hospital for a maternity check!"

Elsa's teeth gritted as she said this.

"I knew it! Everything is planned. She got pregnant with Simon for only such a short time together! She is not an ordinary person!"

No wonder the Preston family is being so kind. It was just because Chloe was pregnant.

"If Chloe can do it, I can do it too!"

It was just a child!

She would return to the old position if she were pregnant with Simon.

"So, I tried everything to find Simon"

After that day, Simon was kicked out and broke. He was even wearing pajamas.

He had nothing, almost starved to death on the streets.

“At that time, I thought that the Preston family would just give Simon a lesson and wouldn’t let him die even though he was in such an abjection state”

“But I’m different. Simon will fall in love with me if I appear now.”

So, Elsa helped him, even paying for his hotel stay.

Simon was grateful and promised he would repay her in the future.

“But that’s not what I want. All I want is to be pregnant.”

Elsa’s face turned gloomy as she spoke.

Jean and Lilly were enjoying the story.

Lilly asked, “Did you succeed?”

Lilly looked at Elsa and found out that was an umbilical cord behind her...

It indicated that she had experienced a miscarriage and the baby ghost should have gone to be reincarnated.

It was odd because baby ghost would usually follow their mother since they do not have the chance to see the world...

Harem spirit whispered, “All men are bad!”

Based on Simon’s behavior, it would also be reasonable if something happened in the hotel. He was such a simp.

However, Elsa said, “That’s the problem!”

She said, “I don’t know what’s wrong with me. He used to love me a lot, but now I had stripped naked before him. He actually took a step back!”

Elsa would never forget Simon’s shocked expression. It was like seeing a monster.

That night, Simon ran away from the hotel even without changing out of his pajamas. He would rather sleep on the streets instead of sleeping with her!

Elsa was mad and tried everything she could for several days. However, Simon never gave her a chance.

Elsa gritted her teeth and said, “I couldn’t force him on the street. So I tried a different method. I said I won’t do anything to him, just wanted to accompany him...”

After a few days. Elsa finally got a chance. She gets him drunk and can talk with him on the street.

“What made me mad was when he was drunk, he said that Chloe had come to him like this before...”

“I managed to carry him back to the hotel, but he kept shouting about Chloe in his mouth...”

Chapter 1085 He Was Sent to Coal Digging

That night, she "succeeded," but not completely.

Simon was completely drunk and not able to do anything else.

As soon as the harem spirit heard this, she turned to tell the ghost bride, “Now you know, A drunk man can’t do anything! Those who talk about drunkenness leading to lust are excuses!”

The ghost bride covered her face and said, “What do you mean...”

The harem spirit was about to say something else but was punched by the weakling spirit.

She muttered and remained silent.

Elsa continued to say, “Simon was completely drunk. He couldn’t remember anything when he woke up the next day. He only remembers the scene which I set up.”

Two of them woke up naked in the bed. It was hard to explain what happened.

Simon appeared regretful and admitted he made a mistake.

These words made Elsa feel even more upset. She felt like staying with her was a mistake.

What made her even angrier was that nothing actually happened. So, Elsa had to figure out another way out with another person. After one week, she was finally pregnant.

“I found Simon and told him the news, and the baby was his, which conceived on that night...”

“Simon was stunned. His first reaction was to ask me to get rid of the baby! He even tells me to remain quiet, especially not letting Chloe know!”

Furthermore, Simon said he would collect trash for the abortion since he was broke.

Elsa was infuriated.

She had a lot of effort into this plan. The baby can’t be so easily to be discarded!

He didn't dare to tell the Preston family, but she dared!

"I endured for three months until the fetus was stable and had an ultrasound. Then I went directly to their house to find that elderly woman!"

"I told them I had Simon's baby..."

Elsa told them what happened in front of Chloe and even gave them the hotel surveillance footage.

She wished that Chloe would be so mad and lose her baby...

Unfortunately, Chole didn't.

Chloe was already five months pregnant at that time. Elsa looked through her belly and figured it was a baby boy.

She felt jealous and resentful. The Preston family would definitely dote on her if that child were born.

Then Chloe would have whatever she wanted.

So, Elsa must have also fought!

Elsa never expected that the elderly woman would sneer and say, "Is it really Simon's baby? Let the baby be born and do a DNA test!"

Elsa hated that woman so much, but she couldn't be scared away like this after planning for so long.

So she spread her pregnancy news everywhere and said the Preston family didn't care!

At the same time, she occasionally cried in front of Simon...

She cried that the baby was innocent and wanted to build a family with Simon...

Simon was soft-hearted and brought Elsa back to his house to beg for mercy...

Harem spirit exclaimed, "Damn, he really went for it? All men are trash!"

Ghost bride was also mad and said, "This man is really irritating. He can't make up his mind!"

Clearly, he liked Chloe. However, he still hesitated around his ex-girlfriend.

Is this something a soft-hearted person would do?

"His parents would be so upset to have a son like this." The weakling spirit shook his head and said.

Elsa said, "The Preston family is indeed angry. But I never expected that they send Simon over to Africa to mine for coal."

They literally sent Simon to Africa for coal mining!

They sent Simon overnight without preparing any money for him.

He was their own son. Elsa couldn't understand how they could do something like this until now.

Jean said, "So what if it's their own son? They have their own grandson!"

"Those who don't listen should be sent away. What a smart move!"

Blake was speechless.

Simon was sent away, and everything was up to her now.

Elsa was naturally unwilling. She was already pregnant while working at a nightclub.

She did not know who the biological father was, and those who came to the nightclub were unlikely to be responsible men.

She could not give up on the Preston family.

"So, I thought that the Preston family doesn't value me because Chloe is carrying Simon's baby..."

"What if Chloe's baby is gone?"

Crazy thoughts went through Elsa's mind.

Chapter 1086 What Goes Around Comes Around

Lilly couldn't understand and asked her father, "Why do people act so foolishly? The result is so obvious!"

Mrs. Pierce clearly did not believe that Elsa was having Simon's baby.

Lilly also felt that if Elsa was really having Simon's baby, Mrs. Pierce wouldn't treat her well either.

Why would Elsa still do something like this and even tried to harm Chloe's baby? Did she think that the Preston family would let her go freely?

It was such a simple answer if really thought about it...

Blake calmly said, "People are greedy, the cost also mattered."

The more a person invested in something, the more unwilling they were to give up.

They thought that they already made it so far, they better make it to the end.

Elsa continued to say, "I finally had an opportunity. I saw Chloe went to the hospital alone..."

How could she miss such a good opportunity? She couldn't bear it when she saw Chloe's smile and belly.

At that time, Elsa was five months pregnant while Chloe was already seven months pregnant. Chloe's belly was huge and inconvenient to move around.

Elsa was more flexible than Chloe.

When Chloe passed by the stairs, Elsa suddenly bumped into her from the dark!

Chloe staggered a few steps and almost fall about to roll down the stairs...

"That b*tch was really lucky. Someone was tired of waiting for the elevator and took the stairs, he immediately saved Chloe."

Elsa was mad and wanted to try again. She couldn't let such a good opportunity slip away.

It would be best if both of them perished.

"Chloe didn't want to fight with me and tried to retreat. She was protecting her baby, but how could I let this happen?"

"I grabbed her arm. But she slapped me hard in the chaos!"

That slap was strong.

Elsa felt that her ears were buzzing and took a few steps back...

"That's how I tumbled down the stairs. She killed me and my baby! She is a murderer!"

Elsa couldn't help but yell as her story ended.

Harem spirit sighed.

Suddenly, she felt relieved.

Elsa didn't expect the retribution to come in such a fast manner.

The child was pitiful with such a mother. It will definitely become a tool for Elsa in the future. However, what was more critical was...

The Preston family would indeed have conducted a DNA test. Elsa's plan would have failed. Would she have treated the child well then?

Lilly stared at the umbilical cord behind Elsa and asked, "You stayed in the Human Realm for a while after you died, right?"

Elsa instinctively asked, "How do you know..."

Lilly remained silent.

Since it was a double demise, the baby wasn't by her side anymore. The baby must have obediently followed the soul collector.

Meanwhile, Elsa abandoned the baby. She probably hid herself after what happened.

What a terrible mother.

Lilly said, "You can't reincarnate normally now, do you? Just now, you keep hiding in here and are afraid that others will see you. Did you find substitutes?"

Elsa suddenly panicked and shouted, "You're talking nonsense!"

Lilly replied, "My Master will know if it's nonsense or not with only a look!"

Pablo opened the booklet, and it flipped on its own and stopped at a page.

"Elsa, escaped from the soul collector and missed the time for reincarnation."

Pablo said without expression, "You also killed another person?"

Elsa kept insisting that she didn't do something like this.

However, Pablo's booklet wouldn't lie.

Elsa became anxious.

She had stayed in the Human Realm for some time after her death.

She gained nothing and lost her life in the end. It was all because of Chloe! She wouldn't let Chloe have an easy life even if she died!

Elsa had remained close to Chloe and was waiting for a chance to hurt her. She attempted to terrorize her into having an abortion.

However, Chloe couldn't see Elsa no matter how hard she tried. In the end, Elsa could only see Chloe giving birth to a pair of babies and was doted by the Preston family.

Chloe had even become the wife of Simon and had half of the Preston family's property.

As for Elsa, her soul became weaker. Even though she carried a monstrous hatred, she was just a typical woeful ghost. Becoming a resentful spirit was not an easy thing.

Her soul would have dissipated if she hadn't gone for reincarnation soon.

But she had missed the time for reincarnation...

She had to find a substitute. She finally found someone who was weak. She used all her strength to scare that person. He fell from the stairs and was dead. Then she took that's person place to reincarnate...

She managed to go through everything here. But she never expected to get blocked when drinking Madame Maya's soup!

"Can you let me pass, please," Elsa begged, "The story is finished. Please let me go..."

Lilly shook her head and said, "That's not possible. We have rules here."

Madame Maya said, "I can't handle your situation. You'll have to be returned to Hell Ruler Palace for any further decision!"

The Hell Ruler Palace, who let her pass through, really did a terrible job...

Elsa had remained calm. No matter how much she hated it in her heart. But most importantly, she had to pass through the Spirit Bridge now.

She begged, "Ruler of Hell set those rules, but he wasn't here now..."

"We're all ghosts. Let's help each other..."

"Let me pass. Ruler of Hell won't find it out..."

Chapter 1087 Return of the Little Hades

Elsa begged, "Let me pass please, as long as we all keep quiet, Ruler of Hell won't find it out..."

Lilly seemed to be serious.

“Well, what a coincidence.”

She tossed the Hell Ruler Palace outside, and it instantly became larger.

Elsa looked up and saw the board which wrote “Hell Ruler Palace” hanging above.

Lilly rushed inside and sat on the Ruler of Hell’s seat. She appeared severe and cold.

“I am the Ruler of Hell!”

Elsa instantly turned confused.

“Grim Reapers, Behemoth, and Leviathan come out!” Lilly shouted.

A gust of gloomy wind blew, and a green light flashed as four of them appeared.

Everyone was confused and had no idea what was going on. Everything happened suddenly!

Even Lilly herself was confused at this moment.

How did she end up in the Ruler of Hell’s seat?

Initially, she felt that Elsa was abominable, she couldn't just pass Spirit Bridge because the Ruler of Hell wasn't aware of it.

Generally speaking, a person’s soul will be relegated to different Hell Ruler Palace after death.

For example, those who committed murder would have been sent to Ninth Palace or King Libra. Those disrespecting their parents would have been sent to the Eighth Palace. Scammers would have been sent to the fourth palace and been judged by the King of Five Offices

And so on.

According to what Elsa did, she would probably be sent to the Tenth Palace and evaluated by the King of Reincarnation. The Tenth Palace was a bit special compared to other palaces. It was in charge of reincarnation based on the ghost’s level.

Elsa would be returned to the Tenth Palace first...

Lilly doesn't want Elsa to be returned to the King of Reincarnation. She felt she and her Daddy would be in danger if the King of Reincarnation was involved.

So she instinctively wanted to resolve it on the spot, and thus the Hell Ruler Palace appeared.

Elsa was still uncertain until she saw Grim Reapers, Behemoth, and Leviathan appear. She was stunned.

“Ruler of Hell, please have mercy and let me go!”

Elsa knelt. She wouldn’t dare to argue if the Ruler of Hell was sitting above.

But it was Lilly sitting above. She even saw her before in the Human Realm.

She was just a little child. How could she be compared to the Ruler of Hell?

Elsa’s courage grew, and said, “I’m also innocent!”

Lilly was speechless. She said, “How are you innocent? You killed someone to become your substitute!”

Elsa said, “That’s because I died unjustly! You should judge Chloe first. She’s a murderer who killed me!”

So what if she found a substitute?

“Chloe was supposed to be dead. I’m innocent!”

Lilly was stunned as she saw Elsa speak so confidently.

Lilly said, “Alright, Retreat! Elsa goes to hell. Grim Reapers will find the substitute and bring him back for reincarnation. That’s how things work!”

Elsa was stunned.

Wait, could it be judged like this?

It wasn’t fair!

But before Elsa could protest, several little ghosts appeared from somewhere and escorted her to hell!

Her screams could even be heard in the void.

The sudden comeback of the Ruler of Hell made Pablo shocked and unaware.

Lilly said in an innocent tune, “Am I doing the right thing, Master?”

Pablo replied, “Yes...”

The ghosts were still confused. Was everything finished?

They were excited and proud when Lilly became the Ruler of Hell.

But the judgment suddenly ended.

Everything happened suddenly, and they hadn't had the chance to support Lilly yet.

"Lilly, next time, let's us know in advance, okay?" Unlucky ghost said.

However, Lilly suddenly held Jean in one hand and Blake in another hand and ran away.

Madame Maya chased after them and said, "Hold on, Jean cannot leave!"

Lilly replied, "My mum can leave. My dad said so!"

Madame Maya shouted, "How can your dad's words be considered..."

No matter who said it, it wasn't allowed!

Pablo calmly said, "Her father is Emperor Prosper."

That was fine.

Madame Maya coughed and returned to cook the soup...

She needed some time alone...

Suddenly, Madame Maya exclaimed.

Chapter 1088 I Want to Stay With My Parents Forever

In the re-cooked pot of Madame Maya's soup, a sudden burst of fragrance filled the air.

Madame Maya stared at the soup confusingly. She had been cooking the soup for hundreds of years. The soup was tasteless and colorless, reflecting the various states of the ghosts who drank it.

But now, Madame Maya's soup smelled delicious.

Madame Maya suddenly saw the original appearance of humans from the faint mist.

The moment of transition between death and rebirth...

Madame Maya felt relieved, and the soup seemed to be changed.

Those who were deep in love were not afraid of life or death. All things in the world could not escape the influence of emotions.

A bowl of Madame Maya's soup allowed them to forget everything in the past life...

Madame Maya couldn't control herself and recook the soup a few times. However, the soup tasted the same as the first pot.

Madame Maya returned to her position and gave the ghost spirits a bowl of soup.

All the ghost spirits fell silent after drinking Madame Maya's soup, no matter how many thoughts and reluctance were in their mind.

They instantly became numb and jumped down the Cliff of Reincarnation without any expression.

Madame Maya whispered, "So, the previous batches of soup lacked quality control. Jean was right..."

No matter how strong her soup was, there was occasionally someone who drank seven or eight bowls of soup and couldn't forget their memories...

At that time, she sighed and lamented why life was so hard...

Some reports even said that some ghost spirits reincarnated with the memories from the past life and carried them forward until they were four or five years old and gradually erased.

Now, as she looked at the bowl of soup, the number of people reborn with memories should be directly decreased.

"I did it!" Madame Maya said happily. She could finally leave here.

She had been there for hundreds of years and lost the desire to stay longer.

At this moment, Grace was collecting the tear and felt something in the Human Realm. She looked at her palm.

Her palm seemed to turn black. She even heard someone murmuring in her ears.

Lilly's voice suddenly appeared in her mind, "Grace!"

Grace shook and continued forward without any expression.

She visited the Second Junior High School of Hallow Country to find the last tear.

She saw a tall boy walk out from the school gate.

The boy's expression did not match his age.

Grace stared at the boy. What she didn't know was the boy was actually Alban.

Lilly pulled her parents and ran around a park in the Underworld.

They left the Ghost Town.

The surrounding grass and trees were dead, and there was no wind or floral fragrance, but Lilly just felt happy.

This was the happiest day for her in the past few years.

"Daddy, Mommy, lift me high!" Lilly said.

Blake stopped to ponder and laughed.

He lifted Lilly into the air. They were having a good time.

Jean was scared due to their action.

They truly dared to say and do anything!

She anxiously said, "That's all, put her down..."

She tried to catch Lilly. She can easily fly as a ghost, but when she saw Lilly's happy face, she couldn't bear to...

Lilly hugged Jean in mid-air, so Blake caught both of them when they fell down.

Blake asked, "Was it fun?"

Jean replied, "Well, it's not bad."

It was quite fun...

Lilly asked, "Daddy, where are we going now?"

Lilly was so happy and seemed to forget she was the Ruler of Hell and needed to return...

She only wanted to follow her mum and dad and grew up happy and ordinary.

Blake gently said, "Let's go home."

Lilly replied, "Yes!"

She thought for a moment and realized something wasn't right.

Go home? Well, Granny must have been waiting for a long time.

However, Blake shook and said, "Back to our original home."

Lilly was stunned and couldn't understand Blake's words.

Which home did he really mean?

Then, she heard an annoying voice say, "Wait!"

It was the King of Cities!

Chapter 1089 At the Critical Moment of Life and Death

Blake's face turned gloomy.

All of them instantly became alert.

Pablo coldly asked, "King of Cities, what do you want?"

The King of Cities had been unhappy regarding his attitude

Pablo had been just a small judge and had dared to disrespect the King of Cities. The King of Cities really hated him and wanted to kill him first.

But now, there's Emperor Prosper beside him...

King of Cities remember what King of Reincarnation mentioned earlier. Emperor Prosper or whatever, it was not confirmed yet.

King of Cities said, "Did I say anything? I just sensed the return of the King of Hell. That's why I am here! I want to check on it."

"It's such an important matter to our Underworld about the return of the King of Hell. So, I am here to make sure everything is fine!"

Lilly suddenly exclaimed, "Wow..."

King of Cities was confused.

Lilly pointed at the King of Cities and said, "Mom, his skin is so well-maintained, not even a single beard hair grows."

Jean also exclaimed, "It's even whiter than my dead uncle's face. He would definitely be the skincare influencer if he were in the Human Realm!"

Blake and Pablo twitched their mouths simultaneously.

The King of Cities was mad. They were saying all the words a man hated to hear!

Calling him a skincare influencer had made him feel like he was gay.

The hidden meaning was, "You are acting like a woman and still catching up."

The King of Cities' face became even more gloomy.

Fine! What else could they do besides insulting people?

She hadn't even had broad-mindedness. How could she have even become the Ruler of Hell?

He would never allow such a thing to happen!

The King of Cities stared at Blake while ignoring Jean and Lilly. Those two women were useless.

The King of Cities lowered his head and said, "I offended Emperor earlier and left quickly. I didn't have time to..."

Blake interrupted him and said, "No need for pleasantries."

Damn it! He didn't even mean to be pleasantries!

Lilly said, "Did he just leave in a hurry?"

Her voice was sincere.

Jean waved her hand and said, "He's just trying to salvage it. Thousands of ghosts saw what had happened. Unfortunately, they won't remember the details after they went to reincarnate..."

The King of Cities was almost thrown out after listening to these words...

He had run out of patience.

He said with a cold gulp, "The Emperor had returned. As the host, let me humbly request tea time with you!”

His face showed cruelty, and he reached out his palm toward Blake!

This hit seemed harmless but hidden with a deadly threat.

The King of Cities thought that this hit wouldn't be harmful if Blake were truly Emperor Prosper. Then he would claim he was just trying to exchange his skill with Blake.

But if Blake couldn't withstand this hit...

Lilly shouted, “Daddy, be careful!”

At this moment, the King of Cities was still too mighty for them.

So Jean and Lilly tried to provoke the King of Cities. People usually lose their rationality when in the state of anger.

They might not be as strong as the King of Cities, but what if they worked as a team?

They could escape unharmed if they couldn't resist!

Everyone was shocked when they saw the King of Cities' action!

The King of Cities was happy to see what happened. It indicated at least Blake couldn't fight him now!

The King of Cities felt excited. He felt like he could kill Blake. He would be the underworld's new Emperor if Blake were Emperor Prosper!

After that, the position of King of Ruler meant nothing to him.

He had abandoned all hesitation and caution. Now, he would strike without any retention!

Blake and Pablo were both stunned!

The King of Cities wasn't considered arrogant. If he had killed Emperor Prosper, he would have dominated the Underworld! He could have even set new rules!

Ten Kings of Hell had been cultivating hard for thousands of years. If the new rules were unfair, they could instantly ascend to Emperor's level.

At this moment, everyone felt their life was threatened...

Chapter 1090 We Battled the King of Cities Again

The King of Cities' palm struck Blake.

Blake had already gathered all the spirit energy stored in his elixir field and converted it into power earlier.

Blake's only power that could compete with the King of Cities wasn't considered a true power.

The mighty pressure ruthlessly crashed toward the King of Cities!

The King of Cities instantly froze.

However, Blake knew this pressure could only block King of Cities for a while unless his body could continuously generate spirit energy.

"Lilly!" Blake shouted.

Lilly had already summoned her purple sledgehammer and shouted, "Coming!"

The purple sledgehammer struck like thunder and struck the King of Cities!

Pablo had also summoned his pen of justice and aimed for the King of Cities' forehead!

Jessie, Harem Spirit, Unlucky Ghost, and others all rushed toward the King of Cities...

The King of Cities felt shocked but quickly remained calm.

How could they possibly win? They had overestimated themselves!

The King of Cities yelled loudly and broke free from their attack.

As Lilly's purple sledgehammer hit him, the King of Cities immediately followed up with a fist smash. The purple sledgehammer flew away.

All of this happened instantly, and the King of Cities was invincible. He shouted, "So, that's all you got?"

He said with killing intent, "Today is the time for your whole family to die..."

Blake was most severely injured because he was the first to be hurt when the King of Cities broke free from the attack.

Now, he couldn't even move...

"Lilly!" Blake shouted in a low voice.

Lilly has flown away with her weapon just now. A trace of fresh blood flowed from her mouth.

"Lilly!" Jean shouted and hurriedly picked her up.

"Lilly, are you okay? Where does it hurt?"

Jean regretted being the weakest ghost here. Her skill of boiling Madame Maya's soup was useless here.

All she could do was hold Lilly and retreat to Blake's side.

Pablo and others also braced their bodies to protect Lilly.

Pablo said, "Leave now! I can still stop him for a moment."

Pablo was the least injured. However, he had some ability to contend but his strength was still weaker than the King of Cities.

Lilly shook her head and said, "Master, I can't leave."

Pablo could not even beat the King of Cities. There was no significant difference, even though he could drag it out for a while.

The King of Cities would kill him...

Lilly definitely wouldn't leave her Master behind.

Furthermore, even if they ran, how long could they escape? It was easier for the King of Cities to break them down individually.

Blake whispered, "That's right. The best option is to escape alone..."

But there were so many of them...

"Lilly, do you understand that knowing your enemies and exploiting their weaknesses is the best way to deal with the situation?" Blake suddenly asked.

Lilly nodded.

The King of Cities burst into laughter and sneered at them.

Today, he was going to eliminate all of them!

"Initially, I was afraid of Emperor Prosper and didn't dare to deal with you blatantly. But now..."

Now he wasn't afraid of anything!

The King of Cities didn't want to waste time anymore.

So he attacked again. This time, he summoned his broadsword again and slashed toward them!

"I'll go first!" Pablo shouted! He held his pen of justice and blocked the King of Cities' broadsword directly!

Jessie attacked the King of Cities at the same time.

The King of Cities appeared fierce and split Jessie's head in half. The unlucky ghost was next.

The unlucky ghost had initially planned to bite the King of Cities' other arm but pounced into his embrace. It bit down on something on the left side.

The King of Cities and the unlucky ghost were both stunned momentarily.

The ghost bride yelled behind, "Unlucky, why did you bite there? Although he has breasts, he's not a woman!"

The harem spirit extended her sharp nails and said, "That's right, even this guy acts like a woman. It's not like he's a woman!"

The unlucky ghost just felt unlucky and kept spitting.

The King of Cities' face turned gloomy. However, he felt a strong sense of crisis...
