

Emperor 5051

Chapter 5051: Divine Bestowment

As the voice and laughter infiltrated their mind, they felt as if they were losing control of their body to him. Fear overwhelmed them immediately.

Nightwalker and the other commanding gods didn't expect this development. This was a founder god - a being above them.

Moreover, they heard certain rumors and legends about him. This was especially true for Vine God who had more knowledge than anyone else.

"The old geezers wanted to seal me but I am finally free, haha! I shall destroy their deity branches and afterward, there shall be only one and I will be the only god." He declared.

Listeners immediately understood that he was sealed by the other founder gods. Nightwalker and the others already knew about this.

It was due to the evil god's insatiable appetite, always consuming the other beasts and demons of the Ten Great Mountains.

Because of this, the other founder gods had no choice but to seal him. Alas, he was freed now due to Bloodfly God and Li Qiye.

"Golden Mosquito, the other gods will seal you again, you shall never see the light of day soon." Vine God responded.

“Haha, they won’t have the chance, I will destroy their branches and prevent them from leaving the divine nest. They shall be next once I rule over the world.” Golden Mosquito declared.

“Go!” Vine God didn’t want to waste time and summoned his divine tablet.

“Activate!” Nightwalker, Lunar Rabbit, Dream Monarch, and even the near-death Peacock Monarch did the same.

Their tablets exuded a holy light along with deafening howls. This had a deterring effect on all creatures from Demon, causing them to drop to the ground and tremble.

Their individual runes lit up - a golden serpent, a great tree, and a peng blotting out the sun...

“Boom!” A divine power gushed out from their tablets and summoned the actual thing after loud explosions.

“Look!” The demons and beasts bowed before the real tablet.

As the real tablet emerged, its supreme power engulfed the entire region.

“Seal!” Golden Mosquito also made his move, aiming his numerous legs at the various tablets belonging to the commanding gods.

The impact clanks were metallic as if swords were hitting rocks. His frontal legs struck the actual tablet, wanting to seal it.

“They’re trying to summon the founder gods.” Li Qiye commented.

“Will they actually come?” Ming Shi became emotional.

No one here had seen the founder gods before with the exception of Golden Mosquito. Thus, this kept everyone on their feet.

“Descend!” Vine God’s roar echoed; his allies did the same.

“Boom!” The true tablet became blindingly bright. The sun itself paled in comparison.

“Rumble!” Majestic figures appeared and could be seen looming above the three continents.

A golden serpent was above all and took the form of a peerless emperor whose hands could grasp the three continents.

A peng had wings large enough to cover the nine heavens and ten earths. It seemed capable of swallowing the stars.

A divine monkey also showed up and leaped up higher than the firmaments. Its spirituality and energy were comparable to three thousand worlds and all of their inhabitants.

Their divine powers pushed down against Golden Mosquito, causing creaking noises. This evil god was immensely powerful but still had a hard time dealing with this oppressive force.

“Surrender!” Vine God shouted, still taking charge of the situation despite not being present.

If conquerors were here, they would be shocked because just this summoning had enough power to suppress a divine god.

“It’s too late!” Golden Mosquito roared and pierced through the dimensions with his stingers: “Show yourself now!”

“Ahh!” Vine God bellowed in agony. Mountains suddenly crumbled and trees were flipped over. Massive vines and branches were forced out of the ground.

“That’s him!” Spectators shouted.

Vine God’s true form was finally seen - a frame large enough to cover all of the Ten Great Mountains.

Chapter 5052: The Tides Have Turned

Golden Mosquito must have struck a weak spot because Vine God’s personal tablet dimmed down.

“Friends, I cannot delay the disaster any longer!” Vine God shouted.

"Damn it!" The other commanding gods' expression soured.

His green leaves started withering while a massive flower bud formed.

"His disaster is here, it's another cycle!" Goldcrest shouted.

"Pop!" The flower blossomed and released pollen everywhere. A golden mist seemed to be taking over, leaving no place to hide.

Regular animals and demons were instantly affected - becoming paralyzed. The stronger demon monarchs and human cultivators sat down on the ground and relied on their cultivation to stop the paralysis.

"I have done all I can, take care now." Dream Monarch who was attached to Vine King fell into a deep slumber.

He snored loud enough for everyone to hear. Those who were still awake were occupied with stopping the paralysis. Alas, physical forces couldn't stop Dream Monarch's hypnosis.

They fell to the ground, fully overwhelmed by both the pollen and the hypnotic effect.

Nightwalker, Lunar Rabbit, and Chillglare Hawk were weakened as well, albeit still maintaining consciousness. The divine tablets behind them also waned in brightness.

Unfortunately, this left them vulnerable to Golden Mosquito's multi-pronged attacks.

"Boom! Boom! Boom!" Their tablets dispersed, unable to hold on any longer.

"Capture them." Golden Mosquito then turned all of his focus and legs on the actual divine tablet, wanting to stop the summoning process.

"Buzz." His allies were engulfed in a crimson glow - a divine blessing from Golden Mosquito.

There was no doubt that the outsiders have conspired with Bloodfly God long ago. The divine blessing granted them protection from the dual maladies.

The commanding gods on the other side didn't have the same luck. Thus, they had to rely on their own power but this wouldn't last forever.

"It is time to give up, gentlemen." Radiant Monarch sent his holy judgment down upon Nightwalker.

"It is settled already!" Skystomper God laughed and thought that his halo was unstoppable.

"Sword Rise!" Nightwalker roared and unleashed a devastating slash against the four dragon lords.

"Give up already." On the other side, Pagoda Guardian and his three giants also used their treasures. The immortal pagodas turned into a devouring dao, wanting to take down Lunar Rabbit.

The latter spewed out a chilling wind capable of freezing the celestials in response, successfully stopping the pagodas.

“Monarch, let me send you onto your next journey.” Bloodfly God’s target was none other than Peacock Monarch.

“Hmph.” Chillglare Hawk used his wings like two blades.

Alas, he and his allies were severely hindered by the pollen and hypnotic snores. This left them far weaker compared to their peak state.

“Boom!” Chillglare fell to the ground, Nightwalker was grievously injured, and Lunar Rabbit got sent flying.

The tides have turned completely as a result. Many demon monarchs wanted to help but they were utterly paralyzed.

“Demon will unite after this.” One dragon lord murmured after seeing this.

“Perhaps the six branches will be gone, only one shall be left.” Another spectator said.

“A true disaster for the ten mountains Golden Cicada King watched helplessly.

Golden Mosquito was on the verge of becoming the only true god in Demon. The next plan was to attack the divine nest and become unbeatable.

“Ugh Nightwalker vomited blood, unable to break through the entrapment. The same situation occurred for his two allies.

“It is not too late to surrender, Commanding Gods.” Radiant Monarch said.

“In your dream.” Nightwalker uttered coldly.

“You’ll change your tune soon enough, Commanding God.” Skystomper sneered.

“Give up now.” Guardian Pagoda also demanded.

Lunar Rabbit didn’t bother responding.

“Kill them if they won’t yield.” Golden Mosquito ordered while still dealing with the divine tablet.

“Peacock Monarch, looks like you won’t be so lonely after all, so many commanding gods are coming with you.” Bloodfly said.

“Despicable traitor.” Peacock Monarch insulted.

“Kill them all.” Bloodfly told his allies.

“Wait a second now, let me join the party too.” A leisurely voice suddenly interrupted the tense atmosphere.

Radiant Monarch became frozen after hearing this voice, and the same for the others. They turned around and were aghast to see who it was.

He sat on top of a tree branch, swinging his legs back and forth casually while watching the crucial battle.

“Li Qiye!” Radiant Monarch staggered backward. He has never been afraid of anyone but Li Qiye was an exception.

Chapter 5053: Run Away!

“Li Qiye!” Both the combatants and crowd members were shocked to see Li Qiye.

No one had more fame than Li Qiye at the moment. Only Conceal Conqueror or perhaps this founder god had a chance against him in a one-on-one scenario.

After all, Radiant Monarch ran for his life while the rest of his allies were obliterated by Li Qiye. The monarch thought about that day once more - barely escaping death.

He didn’t expect Li Qiye to still be in Demon and worst of all, interfering in this matter.

“Does Li Qiye want to fight?” The beasts and demons prayed for this possibility.

On the other hand, Bloodfly’s worst-case scenario occurred. In order to fulfill his plan, he gathered powerful allies.

In a different scenario, destroying the other branches might incite criticism from the outside world. However, his allies consisted of authoritative figures from the great lineages.

In the case of success, Golden Mosquito would become the only god in Demon. Bloodfly and he believed that this would be enough to strengthen Demon and start a greater conquest.

Alas, Bloodfly has been worrying about Li Qiye. He knew that the guy was strong and devilish.

“Fellow Daoist Li, please don’t interfere with our business. When we are finished here, we will rebuild Demon and you shall be our most honorable guest.” Bloodfly said respectfully.

The still-conscious demons stared at Li Qiye, wanting to know if he would accept the favorable conditions.

“Once I become the true god of Demon, you may pick any treasure from the divine nest.” Golden Mosquito who was preoccupied with the divine tablet spoke up.

Nightwalker, Lunar Rabbit, and Chillglare Hawk became emotional after hearing this. Though they wanted to ask Li Qiye for help, they couldn’t offer a similar deal since they didn’t have access to the divine nest. The same couldn’t be said about Golden Mosquito who had most likely been there before.

“Sounds like a good deal.” Li Qiye said with a relaxed tone.

Radiant Monarch’s group heaved a sigh of relief. With Li Qiye on their side, they would have no problem benefitting from this transaction. After all, they were also offered handsome rewards for this.

Li Qiye smiled and continued: “But, I enjoy defending the weak against injustice. Plus, many of you didn’t like me before, seems like I would be doing myself a disservice by not participating.”

“If you dare to ruin this for me, I will hunt you down no matter how far you run, I will annihilate your clans and let you suffer a fate worse than death.” Golden Mosquito became furious.

“Since you say that, I suppose I’m having roasted mosquito today.” Li Qiye smiled and jumped off the branch.

“Kill him!” Golden Mosquito ordered.

Li Qiye walked forward and smiled at the enemies: “Let’s get started, I’m sure you all want to kill me as soon as possible. However, I won’t be giving you time to show off your moves today.”

Radiant Monarch and the others became nervous. The eight of them could take on any conqueror but Li Qiye didn’t view them seriously.

This wasn’t the time to become angry either because Li Qiye could actually defeat them in a few moves.

Thus, the eight dragon lords exchanged glances, wondering about the right course.

During this moment of hesitation, Radiant Monarch suddenly leaped into the air and soared for the horizon.

This stunned the crowd since no one expected him to flee in a hurry. He was the number one of the young generation and had six sacred fruits. Moreover, he came from Godchaser Palace and served as its pillar.

Running away meant throwing away his reputation along with Godchaser's. The crowd truly believed that he would prefer death to running.

Of course, he himself didn't care about any of this. He was pierced with his own spear in the previous battle and knew how frightening death was. Instinct told him to run despite being fully aware of the consequences.

"Coward." Bloodfly God was livid on top of being afraid.

Unfortunately, Radiant Monarch was still stopped by Li Qiye despite being ten million miles away.

"You've already gotten away once, I have a reputation to uphold, you know?" Li Qiye smiled and said.

"Die!" Radiant Monarch had no choice but to channel all of his power.

“Boom!” The six sacred fruits released the purest light affinity. An explosion came for Li Qiye and reduced everything beneath to nothingness.

Time and space came to a halt before this devastating storm.

Chapter 5054: Executed By One’s Own Weapon

The power of light couldn’t reach Li Qiye and suddenly stagnated around him, forming a bright domain.

This was initially Radiant Monarch’s power but now, it became Li Qiye’s domain to trap his target. The former felt as if there were billions of mountains pushing down on him.

Though he exerted his speed to the limit, he ended up moving at a snail’s pace.

“Buzz.” Li Qiye casually drew a spear on the domain yet it emitted dreadful crackles of tribulation.

He raised the spear and horrified Radiant Monarch who could tell that death was calling again. Alas, he couldn’t run because he was stuck inside the domain.

“Boom!” A halo wielding enough power to bury the heaven descended and created a dark hole at the impact point.

“Skystomper Halo!” A still-awake spectator shouted.

Skystomper God and his two junior brothers poured all of their power into this special wheel. One junior brother had the heaven part while the other was the burying affinity.

The two of them gave Skystomper all of their power. He turned into a god whose shouts could break the stars.

His empowered halo then created the image of a conqueror. Not to mention Demon, even the other regions in the lower continents could feel this halo's power.

Other dragon lords took note of this and couldn't believe it.

"Skystomper Halo, who the hell is he facing to warrant going all out?" One of them shouted.

"Boom!" The halo descended and crushed all the dao laws along the way.

These three ancient ancestors had never resorted to a sneak attack before. Alas, they immediately used their best techniques to ambush Li Qiye from behind, wanting to obliterate him instantly.

They mustered every ounce of strength with this attack. The halo struck Li Qiye but was stopped by a holy glow around the target.

Skystomper Halo was a supreme treasure left behind by Heaven Burial Conqueror yet it failed to injure Li Qiye.

He was focused on something else - throwing the spear of light toward Radiant Monarch.

“No!!!” The genius screamed but still summoned a massive wall of light.

“Bam!” The spear pierced through the wall and struck his six sacred fruits, destroying them despite their toughness.

“Ahh!” It ended up flying through his chest again as he screamed during a freefall to the ground, eventually leaving a large pit.

This was the end of a peerless genius, dying to his own cultivation affinity.

Meanwhile, the ambushers saw their attack not working in the slightest and turned to flee. Alas, Li Qiye reached and grabbed the halo before smashing it toward the trio.

“Nooo!” They screamed as well and used other halos in an attempt to stop it.

Their dao-infused halos couldn’t stop the ultimate treasure. Their dao and sacred fruits crumbled before they were reduced to nothing but blood.

Skystomper God’s eyes were wide open. This halo had helped him dominate for many generations now. It protected him against stronger opponents so he thought that he was utterly invincible. Today, this was proven false.

"You're next." Li Qiye told Pagoda Guardian and the three giants who were trying to run away from Demon as well but Li Qiye pulled time and space back with his newly-acquired halo.

"Go!" They had no choice but to work together. Twenty-one sacred fruits erupted at the same time and created an immortal pagoda.

It poured down chaos true energy and laws as large as mountain ranges, capable of crushing any living being into dust. Unfortunately, they were facing Li Qiye.

"Boom!" He swung the halo again and destroyed the immortal pagoda without facing any resistance. The four got smashed into blood pools while screaming.

Eight dragon lords went down just like that. Seven didn't leave corpses behind; Radiant Monarch was lucky in this regard.

"Not bad at all." Li Qiye smilingly stared at the halo before tossing it over to Jian Yunyun who instinctively caught it.

She stood there in a daze because she was holding an heirloom weapon of Heaven Burial. That sect would go crazy after finding out.

Of course, there was nothing they could do because they had no one left capable of fighting Li Qiye.

Chapter 5055: My Turn Now?

It didn't take long before only two true masters were left on the other side - Bloodfly and Golden Mosquito.

"Kill him!" Golden Mosquito ordered since he was occupied with the divine tablet.

Bloodfly naturally wanted to kill Li Qiye. The problem was - how? Slamming his head into the guy?

He was certainly stronger than the other dragon lords but his opponent easily killed them. He had zero confidence and thought that this was suicidal.

He thought about running but this wasn't possible either. First, he couldn't get out of Demon and second, his founder god would be the first to kill him.

"Take him down!" Nightwalker, Lunar Rabbit, and Chillglare Hawk took advantage of this and lunged for Golden Mosquito.

"Clank!" Nightwalker activated his supreme sword dao, manifesting it into a great Buddha raising a blade. The myriad dao fused into this blade along with the blessing of sacred monks. Buddha was furious today and the slash was ready to devour gods and devils.

Lunar Rabbit let out a deafening roar despite her tiny frame, sending out countless ice needles capable of freezing the stars above. Chillglare Hawk chose to use his inconceivably sharp claws.

"Boom!" Runes appeared all over Golden Mosquito's body. The power of worship engulfed him and added a layer of golden armor. The attacks failed to deliver the smallest injury.

The trio took a deep breath after seeing this. The demons and cultivators who were still awake couldn't believe it because the attack came from three commanding gods.

Of course, this was partly due to them being weakened by Dream Monarch and Vine God's negative effects. Furthermore, they could only borrow the power of the deity branches, not actually wield it.

Nonetheless, they didn't give up and continued their assault.

On the other side, Bloodfly staggered backward instead of following orders.

"You want to run too?" Li Qiye said with a smile.

This was obvious to everyone but Bloodfly didn't have this freedom. Not to mention being unable to leave Demon, Li Qiye didn't spare anyone who tried to run.

"Screw it!" Bloodfly shouted and revealed his true form - a gigantic, grotesque fly.

Unlike a regular fly, he had the shade of blood. His body bloated as if it was filled with the blood of his countless victims.

A sticky liquid of the same color dripped from his body and burned large holes in the ground.

He opened his mouth and spewed out a rain of this liquid, wanting to drown Li Qiye. It melted the peaks nearby into corrosive acid as well to the horror of the spectators. This was all he needed to destroy a sect - just utilizing this corrosive force.

Some wondered if Li Qiye could actually survive but they got their answer once the liquid flowed down into the craters in the ground - Li Qiye being perfectly fine.

He patted his shoulder and said: "My turn now?"

Bloodfly let out a strange song before summoning a thorny cudgel. It had lightning flashes, only red instead of white.

The power of worship empowered him and made him even larger. He smashed the thorny cudgel downward and actually struck Li Qiye.

"Bam!" The latter took it without any problem and then broke Bloodfly's legs that were holding the weapon.

The evil god bellowed in pain as blood gushed out. His face twisted in agony as he finally made the decision to run. His wing flaps created devastating gales as he run for his life.

At the same time, Golden Mosquito finally managed to suppress the divine tablet and make it disappear. He released his divine power and sent the trio flying, injured.

"Buzz." His speed exceeded reality. Even his opponents had no idea where he went.

"Ahhh!" Next came a heartwrenching scream.

People finally saw Golden Mosquito again who was now drilling his needle into Bloodfly's body.

Chapter 5056: I Am The Only God

Bloodfly God survived by sucking blood and flesh. Now, he finally had a taste of what his victim felt at the hands of his own superior.

Once the needle penetrated his shell, he couldn't struggle in the slightest. His bloated frame became smaller and smaller at a rapid rate. It didn't take long before there wasn't a single drop of blood inside.

This was the difference between a commanding and founder god but most importantly, he was subservient to Golden Mosquito since they were from the same branch.

"Bam!" The dried corpse fell to the ground with eyes still open.

Remember, Golden Mosquito was freed due to his effort but this didn't matter at all. If he had suspected this cold-blooded betrayal, he would not have chosen the same path.

A few demons shuddered while sympathizing with him. They worshipped their deity branch and grew with it, ready to die for their founder god. Alas, the reward for a lifetime of service was a horrific death?

"Not bad." Golden Mosquito burped, still seemingly unsatisfied.

"Cooperate with me, this is a godsend opportunity for you." Golden Mosquito said.

“How so?” Li Qiye smiled.

“We shall team up, the Ten Great Mountains belong to me, the rest of the world, yours. Moreover, we shall will take down the divine nest and you may pick anything from there.” Golden Mosquito said with a smile.

Listeners took a deep breath after hearing his ambitious plan.

“You think you can unite the world?” Li Qiye chuckled.

“It will be the two of us. Even if masters from the two upper continents descend, they will only be our prey. Nothing will stop us from using this land as nourishment then.” Golden Mosquito said confidently.

Golden Mosquito clearly wanted more than just reign over the continents. Demons and cultivators imagined this dreadful future and started praying for Li Qiye to kill Golden Mosquito. This included some members of Bug as well since they didn’t want to share the same fate as Bloodfly.

“Reality differs from your ambition.” Li Qiye said: “I don’t need the help of a mosquito like you to unite the world, the same for the divine nest if I desire it in the least bit. You think too highly of yourself.”

“You wish to oppose me then?” Golden Mosquito didn’t appreciate the verbal slap and became aggressive.

“You are not even qualified to be an opponent, just an insect for me to swat.” Li Qiye smiled.

“Hahaha, no one dared to talk to me like this outside of the geezers in the divine nest. Don’t blame me for being merciless then!” Golden Mosquito had enough.

A gust of wind could be heard followed by a bang. This happened too fast for people to see clearly but Golden Mosquito started attacking right after speaking, aiming his golden needle at Li Qiye’s forehead.

It was actually inches away before the gust and the bang. This despicable method was unbecoming of a founder god - a being worshipped by numerous animals and demons.

He was essentially a god who should behave in a just and honorable manner. Alas, this particular one was rather unconventional and shameless.

He himself had no problem with this as long as he could kill Li Qiye. Any means would be acceptable for the sake of victory.

“Boom!” The golden needle struck the target but couldn’t pierce through it.

The toughness of Li Qiye’s body shocked him so he wanted to retreat. Alas, his needle has been firmly grasped.

Before he could calm down, his gigantic body has been lifted up in the air.

“Rumble!” Li Qiye smashed him repeatedly to the ground, crushing one peak after another.

Li Qiye became a wild dragon playing with his prey. The relentless smashing eventually left cracks in the mosquito's golden shell.

"Crack!" The needle finally broke from the repeated stress.

"Ahh!" Golden Mosquito's scream echoed across Demon. He vomited blood and couldn't handle the pain.

Not to mention regular cultivators, the commanding gods became slack-jawed. Earlier, they went all-out and couldn't break the golden carapace blessed with the power of worship.

Now, Li Qiye easily overwhelmed this founder god as if he was an actual mosquito. The latter couldn't even put up an ounce of resistance.

Chapter 5057: Palms Stained With Blood

Golden Mosquito, one of the six founder gods revered by countless worshippers, had survived for eras. Now, he was being dominated by Li Qiye.

His needle was not only his mouth but also his weapon. It was certainly tougher than dragon lord weapons and should be on the same level as dao lord weapons.

He climbed out of the mud, looking as pitiful as can be like a stray dog. Blood spilled from the cracks of his golden carapace.

No one questioned his strength either since he easily drained Bloodfly to death. Alas, if Li Qiye had kept on going, he might have been killed.

“D-do you know who I am?!” The wounded founder god was both furious and frightened.

He was once a supreme genius who managed to start his own deity branch. After escaping the seal, he had plans of eliminating the other branches in order to obtain all of Demon’s worshipping power.

He was ready to become the only god of Demon, garnering enough power to attack the divine nest and kill the old geezers. The outside world would also be within reach.

This was the first phase of his majestic plan. Everything was going to plan until Li Qiye came out of nowhere and ruined it all.

Years of waiting only to fail made him furious, wanting nothing more than to devour Li Qiye’s flesh and gnaw on his bones.

“Raa!” He roared and activated the power of worship in its entirety.

His personal tablet appeared and flashed red as if it had been stained with blood in a creepy manner.

The deity seal representing Bug became resplendent and exuded dao runes. They came together and formed actual divine characters. Waves poured out and engulfed all of Demon.

“Deliver your power to my deity branch, now!” He shouted.

The characters soared into the air and turned into a constantly revolving dao maelstrom.

All the animals and demons under Bug in Demon lost control and their powers soared toward the maelstrom. It served as an ocean capable of absorbing endless power. He became increasingly larger; just one foot was as large as a mountain range. The cracked golden shell healed again and was thicker than before.

“All mine, all mine!” He was far from satisfied with this much power and channeled his divine tablet.

When it illuminated the world with its red glow, screams could be heard from the members of Bug. Their blood broke out of their body and was sucked up by Golden Mosquito. Streams of blood came from all conceivable directions and scared the hell out of spectators.

“Why pick this incorrect path out of so many choices? How disgusting.” Li Qiye shook his head: “I’m ending this.”

He raised his hand and the sky suddenly turned dark due to a gigantic palm manifesting in the air.

When he pushed it down, everything beneath became nothing. Cultivators perceived as the best in the world were insignificant in comparison.

“Blood Exterminate!” Golden Mosquito roared and sent all of his gathered blood against the palm. They exploded and could destroy the galaxy above.

However, the blood explosions were useless and the palm kept on descending.

“Nooo!” The invincible founder god was nothing more than a mosquito before Li Qiye.

“Pop!” This was akin to a mortal killing a mosquito with clapping hands. When they pulled their palms apart, they could see a smudge of blood. This was the end of Golden Mosquito’s grand ambition.

It didn’t matter that he had the power of countless animals and demons. He never expected to die so early and especially not in this pathetic manner.

Chapter 5058: Sit Over Here

Spectators were silenced by Li Qiye’s invincibility, thinking that they had never seen such a height before. Masters in the past merely flattered themselves without knowing the extent of cultivation power.

The commanding gods felt insignificant at the moment and could only look up at him.

“Sigh, my hands are dirty now.” Li Qiye wiped his palms and complained.

He then casually flicked his finger and released a ray to hit Vine God. The gigantic tree seemingly deflated down back to a regular form - a green vine with a wonderful glow. Particles were released and cured those afflicted by his pollen.

Dream Monarch woke up as well and the hypnotic spell was broken. Thus, cultivators and animals gradually awoke in confusion, not knowing what was going on.

Only the ancestors and demon monarchs who managed to stay awake saw the shocking fight.

Dream Monarch and Vine God returned to their throne. The first looked like a fat young master while the other resembled an old man with lightning flashing in his eyes.

All five commanding gods got up to bow toward Li Qiye. If it wasn't for him, all of Demon would have suffered under the tyranny of Golden Mosquito.

"Haha, I can go in peace now." Peacock Monarch couldn't wait any longer and started laughing.

"Boom!" A five-colored radiance erupted and reached its limit. The monarch's body turned into a beam shooting into the air.

"Screech!" A peacock manifested into reality and flapped its wings. It looked down at Demon with love and unwillingness. Nonetheless, it was time to go so the great beast dispersed into particles. The light fell onto every inch of the land and all of its creation. Peacock Monarch has returned to whence he came.

"Master." Lil' Freckle got on her knees and sobbed quietly. She raised her hands to accept the scattering five-colored particles.

"From dust to dust." Goldcrest sighed and said.

Everyone was sad to see him gone, especially the members of Feather. They bowed in the direction of the throne to show respect to the fallen commanding god.

This was drastically different from Bloodfly's end. One was highly celebrated while the other was reviled.

Li Qiye landed in front of Lil' Freckle and handed her the complete god source.

She accepted it while nodding her head. Though she was sad, this wasn't the time to cry.

Chillglare Hawk bowed before Li Qiye after seeing this. Everyone understood that Lil' Freckle was going to be the next commanding god.

She was the chosen successor with a complete god source but most importantly, she had Li Qiye's approval. No one could challenge her now.

"Come over here." Li Qiye gestured at Goldcrest who was confused as to why.

He grabbed the youth and threw him onto the throne that once belonged to Bloodfly God.

The crowd became startled because Goldcrest shouldn't have been able to get close. Nonetheless, Li Qiye still made it happen.

Goldcrest was completely lost - he was a member of Tiger and most importantly, he lacked the power to be a commanding god.

"Boom!" Li Qiye reached forward and pulled the actual divine beast tablet out of another dimension.

“What the hell The commanding gods’ jaw dropped to the ground.

The tablet was connected to the divine nest. They had to work together to summon it but Li Qiye could grab it whenever? Who else was as domineering as him?

“Buzz.” Li Qiye forcefully changed Bug because he wasn’t in the mood to come up with something new.

Legend has it that the founder god of Mist could only create a new deity branch, not change any existing ones. The latter had been imprinted for eras and became accepted by the divine nest.

Now, Li Qiye modified the branch by changing a few runes.

“Okay, call it Kun, that is more fitting for you.” Li Qiye told Goldcrest.

“I Goldcrest was speechless while sitting on the throne.

He never dreamed about becoming a commanding god before and now, he had a deity branch that was specifically crafted for him. Thus, he essentially became a founder god.

“I, I can’t do this.” He lacked confidence.

He didn’t want to let Demon and Li Qiye down. If he were to perform his duties inadequately, it would reflect negatively on Li Qiye.

After all, he knew his own power. He could wrestle other demon monarchs, not the commanding gods. For example, Chillglare Hawk could eat him whenever.

“Try your best, your followers are counting on you.” Li Qiye patted his shoulder.

Chapter 5059: Agreement?

Goldcrest became a new founder god and took in all the worshippers of Bug. The new name became Kun.

Demons, especially those who were still alive from Bug, prostrated before his throne. If it wasn't for Li Qiye, all of them would have become corpses.

The commanding gods also congratulated him while he stood there in a daze, thinking about how he was on the same level as mythical characters such as Vine God.

“Rooster, look at you now.” Ming Shi and Yunyun came over as well. Ming Shi couldn't help but tease him: “Don't forget about us now that you're a big shot, we've been through so much together already.”

“Your Highness, please don't make fun of me, I'm not even sure if I can carry out my duty.” Goldcrest smiled wryly.

“I'm sure that if you try your best, you won't be letting the young noble down.” Yunyun smiled.

What else could Goldcrest do at this point but follow the flow? The decision wasn't up to him.

Today, many changes occurred in Demon but mostly for the better. Someone as crazy as Golden Mosquito was always a threat.

Though they lost two commanding gods, they also gained two new ones. The mood became better afterward since the storm was over.

Alas, this was interrupted by a chilling aura. Each stand could pierce the soul and leave behind an indelible mark.

It headed east and could be sensed by everyone in Demon regardless of whether they were underground or up high in the sky.

“Rumble!” Many couldn’t handle this pressure and dropped to the ground.

“A conqueror Powerful demon monarchs knew the cultivation realm of this intruder instantly.

This was a special conqueror as well. Alas, despite the chilling aura, no one caught a glimpse of the conqueror.

It seemed that it only took one step for this being to traverse the massive territories of Demon.

Vine God and the other commanding gods stood up after sensing this.

“Conceal Conqueror.” They recognized her right away.

She stood on top of a branch and was virtually undetectable. Staring at her meant becoming frozen since time came to a halt.

It only took her one step to arrive at Demon. She still had a veil hiding her face but no one doubted her unmatched qualities.

She has been out of the public’s eyes ever since her fight with Eight-stallion Dao Lord. Thus, her appearance was a big deal. Everything became silent; even a leaf touching the ground could be heard.

“She’s even stronger than before.” A dragon lord shuddered after seeing her.

He was there during the fight and took note of her murderous rampant intent. This sheer affinity alone made her unbeatable. However, it seemed far more subdued this time.

Most would actually think that she was weaker now due to a shift in her aura. Alas, the dragon lords and ancient ancestors could tell that she had gained heightened mastery over her murderous intent.

They also knew that she was wounded after that fight. However, she only became stronger afterward. She was a living legend in the lower continents and this was the case for a reason.

The commanding gods saw her and were preparing for a fight. Of course, they weren’t that confident in winning.

Why did she come? To avenge the fallen members of Deity and especially Radiant Monarch? This would be the logical answer.

“Conqueror, you have an existing agreement with Mist.” Nightwalker bowed slightly and reminded her.

This surprised everyone since they didn’t know about her relationship with Mist.

“I will not fight in Demon.” Her voice was pleasant yet authoritative.

Listeners speculated that part of the agreement included her not fighting in Demon.

“Didn’t she come here in the past and killed six dragon monarchs from Poison Dragon?” One dragon lord found this rather strange.

She had massacred an evil sect from Demon before when she was just sixteen. Numerous demons fell to her then so what was the reason for her holding back this time?

Chapter 5060: What Is This Thing?

What was the difference between then and now? Or did the agreement come afterward the massacre?

Everyone was curious but didn’t dare to ask lest they provoke her. Ten lives wouldn’t be enough then.

“I am not here to kill.” She said calmly before staring at Li Qiye.

Everyone watched with bated breath, only Li Qiye had an unaffected demeanor.

“You have something.” She said. Her aura was chilling to others but Li Qiye found it pleasant like a gust of wind on a sunny day.

“I have many things, you need to be specific.” Li Qiye smiled.

The crowd thought that he was the only one who would dare to talk to her like this with the exception of the late Eight-stallion Dao Lord.

“Eight-stallion Dao Lord’s.” Her tone remained neutral but this caused a ripple in everyone’s mind.

She had asked the dao lord for an item but he chose death instead. Was this the reason for their perpetual conflict?

Conceal Conqueror still didn’t give up and traveled to Demon for its sake. Many speculated about the nature and grade of the item.

“I know what you’re referring to now.” Li Qiye stretched and said: “And?”

His relaxed and casual style was acceptable to everyone now because he had the power to back it up.

“I will take it.” She left no room for negotiation.

"I'm afraid you don't have the ability since I want it." Li Qiye said.

Listeners recalled how he easily killed Golden Mosquito. What would be the result of a fight between Li Qiye and Conceal Conqueror?

"I am not the only one." Conceal stared at him for a bit before adding: "Even if I don't try, others will come for it and you won't be able to stop them."

This revealed ample information to the top experts. They knew that she had been blessed by Celestial Court before - something exceedingly rare in history.

Perhaps this blessing came with a cost - a mission of sorts. Did Celestial Court covet this item as well?

"Talking about Celestial Court?" Li Qiye chuckled and shared the same thought as everyone else.

"Not only." She coldly uttered.

The meticulous listeners couldn't believe it. This meant that there were other factions comparable to Celestial Court at play here.

Everyone immediately thought of Immortal Dao City and Imperial Field. All of them had incredible resources - the best of the best treasures and weapons. Items at the imperial level were common there, they even had access to "immortal" treasures.

The crowd thought of one possibility - an item pertaining to immortality.

"A few more enemies don't matter to me." Li Qiye shrugged: "Are you going to try or not?"

"I must." She said: "On the night of the full moon, Heaven Summit, until death, yes?"

The details of the challenge have been suggested. Now, would Li Qiye accept it? This would be a fight of an unprecedented level in the lower continents.

"Very well, I do want to see how much you have learned." Li Qiye smiled.

The crowd thought that he had the right to say this to Conceal Conqueror given his recent battle achievements.

"Next full moon, Heaven Summit, until death." She said before disappearing from sight.

In the next second, the chilling aura disappeared as well, meaning that she was no longer inside Demon.

"Incredible speed." The ancient ancestors couldn't follow her movements at all despite activating their heavenly gaze.

"Next full moon, Heaven Summit." The crowd murmured and became excited.

This news would spread across the lower continents in no time at all - a battle between Li Qiye and Conceal Conqueror.

This was just as exciting as her fight with Eight-stallion Dao Lord. This time, her opponent was a newcomer but this didn't mean that he was any less impressive than the dao lord.