Aurora's POV:

"You are going to tell me what happened the other week right? Like I haven't really asked about it because I wasn't sure whether it was my place to ask or not." sighed Elle.

"I know that I have been a bit quite lately but schools just been really hard and about last week it was really nothing I mean I just got into an argument with my dad, it just pushed me over the edge a little. But honestly there is nothing to worry about, I'm fine." I said leaving some of the truth out.

"I'm glad your okay." she whispered before giving me a chaste kiss.

"Anyway, enough of the deep conversations, I don't want to miss the sunset."

***

As we made our way to the field, the sun started to set but not before we found a perfect spot to watch it from.

"I really love sunsets, you know." Elle said before turning to face me.

"As much as me?" I teased.

"I can't love anything or anyone more than you." she said before pulling me in for a kiss. "But honestly they are really beautiful."

"I know." I said gazing o into the distance.

Elle rested her head on my shoulder, intertwining our fingers together on the blanket.

Peace.

I hadn't felt that in a long time but now I'm with her, I find it hard to not feel.

The sun soon fell asleep, shielded behind the dark figures of the trees. I had never seen it before but there was this flash of orange light right before the sunset in the distance. It was beautiful, almost as beautiful as her.

"You knowwww..." she started.

"Know what?" I asked curiously.

"I have always wanted to do itin the woods..." she said raising her eyebrow.

"Do what-" then I realised, "oh do you now?" I smirked.

"Yep." she stated, popping the p.

~~~~~

Elle's POV:

Next to the field we were sat in were the woods and even though it was dark I really wanted to go in them, I mean it looks pretty cool, it would also be a nice way to finish o the date.

A er Aurora packed away the picnic, I mean did she really think I was gonna help, we walked towards the woods. In all honesty, we did need to walk through them anyway to get home but who doesn't love a little detour.

About halfway through the woods Aurora grabbed my hand and practically dragged me with her, she made sure to not stray too far away from the path so that we wouldn't get lost.

"I like where this is going." I accidentally said out loud.

"Well it was you idea, so li up that mini skirt," she husked into my ear, "slut."

HOLY SHIT. SOMETHING LGBT JUST HAPPENED TO ME. UGH SHE'S SO FUCKING SEXY.

"Slut? that's new." I stated, trying to push her buttons.

"Get used to it because your going to be a good little whore for me baby." she whispered into my ear as she rode my skirt up my arse.

Just hearing those words, I couldn't help myself but to let out a low moan.

I felt a sharp pain on my right ass cheek as I jolted forward, before it was quickly soothed over by her so hand. Suddenly, my cheek was met with another slap, causing Aurora to let out a low moan. Her right arm snaked around my waist to my front, teasing me through the fabric, once her nimble fingers found their destination. Her skilled fingers pulled down my thong as I leant forward to place my hands on a tree, to steady myself.

"Yes-ugh...right there." I moaned as her thumb circled my clit.

Aurora's fingers teased my entrance, sliding her fingers through my wet folds, I wanted more. No, needed more. Trying to gain more of her, I thrust my hips back, causing her to stop her movements.

"I need you to stay still whilst I fuck your little cunt." she husked.

Her other hand moved to my waist to hold me in place whilst she vigorously worked her way in and out of me. Her thumb was now circling my swollen clit, adding more and more pressure as she pumped in and out of me.

I could feel my legs start to give way beneath me as my climax crept up on me. Aurora used her hand that was hold my still to support me.

"Shit...I'm close...Aurora...fuck." I moaned.

"That's it cum for me baby," she panted, "your so hot when you moan my name."

Barely coming down from my high, Aurora picks up her speed again.

"Fuck Aurora." I moaned.

If you want to skip to the end go from here xx

She slowed down a little and laughed. "Baby, we are in the woods and nobody can hear your screams, I want you to scream as loud as you can for me... are you up for a per say little blood" she paused for a second, "Elle?"

Not thinking I answered, "yes."

Without stopping her actions she released her grip around my waist and pulled a pocket knife out her pocket. Confused, I turned my head to look at what she had planned. She made a small incision on her hand and proceeded to slap my arse repeatedly.

"How was that?" she asked.

"I umm, it was hot." I moaned, seeing her eyes filled with lust.

My eyes flickered down to her hand which was currently bleeding, following my eye line she noticed too. Without saying a word she snaked her bloody hand around my neck, pulling me back into her, smearing her blood all the way down my neck. Her bloody hand manoeuvred itself under my top kneading my breast, all whilst pounding in and out of my hole.

It wasn't soon before I felt my second climax hit me. This time Aurora let me ride out my high, slowly.

"That was..." I started.

"...wow." she said smiling at me whilst she sorted out her clothes.
