

101 CHAPTER 101

Colton excused himself to go take a shower and when he was done, he joined his family in the home theater room. They all cuddled on the very comfy chair with a blanket over them. Mia and Colt were at the edge and the twins were in the middle as they watched some cartoons.? 1

The two precious jewels fell asleep in about an hour. After watching them sleep for a couple of minutes, both parents carried them to bed. Colton carried Chloe while Mia carried Claire. They tucked them in and placed kisses on their foreheads.??

Though Chloe and Claire shared the same room, they had their own beds which were on the opposite sides of the room.?

Colton approached Mia where She stood and circled his arms possessively around her from behind.?

"Even after four years of watching them grow. I still can't get over the fact that we gave birth to two adorable daughters." He placed a soft kiss on her shoulder.?

Mia smiled. "Same here. I had no idea I was capable of loving two tiny humans this much. They are growing up so fast."

Colt let out a light chuckle. "I know right! They've always been smarter than their age. Thank you for blessing me with them." He whispered, then gently turned Mia around so she could face him.?

"You purposely didn't mention anything about them wanting a baby brother." He said softly, looking into her beautiful eyes.?

She sighed. "I had an accident while pregnant with the twins and I almost lost Chloe at birth. I don't think I have the strength to go through the trauma of almost losing a child again."??

Even as she spoke, Colt could see the fear in her eyes. He leaned closer to her and placed a long kiss on her forehead. "It's alright babe, I understand if you don't want us to have any more kids. I'm satisfied with Chloe and Claire."?

"Still, I want you to know that the fact we went through rough times then doesn't mean we would go through rough times again. We are parents to two adorable girls, we are experienced in parenting and we now know better."?

"Have you found time to discuss with Almira?" He couldn't help but ask.?

Mia nodded slowly, folding her arms. "We ran some tests. Turns out I'm fit and proper to carry another baby. She also assured me everything will be fine but I can't help but worry. I want them to have a younger sibling. I really do" She whispered, taking a glance at her beautiful daughters who were fast asleep.?

Colton cupped her face in his hands. "You have me, Our darling daughters, the best gynecologist, family, and friends to support you."

"I had quite a temper while being pregnant with our girls. I had terrible mood swings which made me almost lose you." Mia whispered.?

"Do you trust me?" He said to her,?

She nodded.?

"I think it's normal for you to be this concerned but I have a strong feeling that everything will go smoothly this time around. You have nothing to be scared of because I'm never going to let you go. Never!?"

Mia smiled, "You know what to say to me to make me feel better."

"Of course I do. That's why I'm your better half. So, baby number 3?" He asked, looking at her intently, silently pleading for her to say Yes.?

She teased Colt by trying to appear unsure but she eventually replied with a nod.?

Before Mia knew it, Colton lifted her in a bridal style.?

"Babe!" She chuckled, trying to keep it low so as not to wake the girls up.?

"We have a baby to make!" He placed a kiss on her lips before carrying her out of the children's room.?

The master bedroom was just a couple of steps away from the Girls' room so the two lovebirds were in their room in no time.?

Colton placed Mia on her feet, then undressed her.?

"God, Mia!" He said in awe the moment he came face to face with her sexy naked body.?

Mia blushed upon seeing the desire in her husband's eyes. They've been together for so long and yet, every time he looks at her, it was always as if that was his first time seeing her.?

"Will you continue staring? If that's the case, I might as well put my clothes back on." She teased, slightly biting her lower lip.

Colton discarded his clothing in less than a minute, and then closed the gap between himself and Mia.?

"You never fail to leave me breathless every time! You're so fucking gorgeous, my love" He said with a husky voice as he softly grabbed Mia's left butt cheek and roughly but gently pushed her against the wall.?

"Of course I have to leave you breathless every time. Isn't that one of my duties as your wife?" She smiled, before connecting her lips to his.?

Mia experienced a lot of insecurities with her body after birthing the twins. Most especially her stomach. But she had a husband who was her cheerleader. Never for once did he make her feel bad about her body. The weight gain, stretch marks, and all of that.?

While Mia did all she could to get rid of those marks, Colton grew to love them. Most especially the ones on her buttocks. They ended up blending with her skin in a beautiful way that turns Colton on.?

Mia has now come to embrace the new changes in her body. She was now curvier, her boobs increased in size after the birth of her babies, her stomach was flat but not as flat as it used to but she was still proud of it. Thanks to having a cheerleader like Colton who at one point in her life was also her personal trainer.??

"Fuckkk!!!!!!" Mia moaned the moment she felt her husband's cock stretch out her walls.?

One of the things Mia used to be scared of was the fact that Colton was going to get tired of her but as time went on, the insecurity became a thing of the past. Every lovemaking was better than the last. They always couldn't get enough of each other.?

"Yeah, baby, you like that?" Colton whispered as he kept on thrusting in and out of her. Hard and fast, just as she loved it.?

"Yes, love. Please don't stop!" She moaned in pleasure, circling her arms gently around his neck in fear that her legs were going to give up soon.?

The moment Colton felt the orgasm building up in Mia's lower abdomen, he pulled out and carried her to the bed to continue where they left off.?

Mia came first and then Colton had his release. He made sure he emptied all of his seeds in her, before rolling off her and cuddling her against him.?

Colton placed a soft kiss in the middle of Mia's head. Then softly caressed her cheek with the tip of his fingers.?

They both stayed quiet for about a minute, trying to catch their breath until Mia broke the silence.?

She looked up with a smile on her face and placed a kiss on Colton's lips. "That was amazing."?

"Yes, it was. My love." He whispered against her lips. Pulling away, he kissed the top of Mia's left boob, making her giggle.?

Colton turned to his side so he could look her in the eye. "I was with Caleb this evening. He's planning to propose to Hailey this weekend. He's really terrified about it."

"All my life, I've known Caleb to be a confident person. I've never seen him so nervous like the way I saw him earlier."

"Do you think Hailey's going to say YES! I mean she should, right?! They've been together officially for two years now."?

Apparently, Hailey got back with Enoch three weeks after their fight but things were no longer the same between them so they officially parted ways. But they are still friends.?

Caleb, on the other hand, didn't give up on Hailey. She agreed to be his girlfriend two years ago, and now, he wanted to make them official.

A small smile crept to Mia's lips. "Those two have come a long way and the only thing I will say is, Whatever will be will be."?

Colton nodded. "I'm really rooting for both of them. Hailey's presence did a lot of good to my younger brother."

Mia smiled. "We are all rooting for them. Even the twins are. They love Hailey and Caleb so much."?

Colton took Mia's hand and placed a kiss on it. "You've been nothing but a light to the Royal family. Thank you for filling the void in my life. I never thought there would be a time in my life where I would be so happy and fulfilled. You complete me, Mia Royal and I love you so much."

Mia couldn't help but smile. She brought her hand to Colton's cheek and slowly caressed it with the tip of her fingers. He didn't age a bit and even as at the end of last year, he still topped the list as the sexiest man alive.

"I've always been a terrible decision maker but choosing you and agreeing to be with you has been my best blessing. You and our children mean the world to me, babe. I love you all with all of my heart." She said, climbing on top of him.?

Colton chuckled, knowing it was going to be a long night.

Thank Goodness tomorrow was Saturday. Chloe and Claire's baby brother will definitely be conceived tonight.?

The End!
