Chapter 1521: The Overlord's Eyes and Ears

"No! No! No! Nooooo!" Lu Gang let out a shrill scream, but the Beast Kings were only obedient to Chen Xiaobei and they had no sympathy whatsoever for him.

Ziiing!

The Tyrant Dragon King swung an arm, having fingers like sharp steel shards stabbing into Lu Gang's chest. They started piercing flesh and blood, deep into his breastbone, and not leaving Lu Gang any chance to escape.

Crack! Crack!

At the same, the Python King and Ape King both swung their claws from each side, sinking their fingers into Lu Gang's left and right arm.

Blood was splattered everywhere. Lu Gang's face however, was drained of it, and he was shaking like a limp leaf. "Have mercy! Have mercy!"

Rrrriiiiiip!

The Beast Kings wore faces of stone, ignoring Lu Gang's desperate pleas, and together, tore into his whimpering body with all their might.

"AHHHHHHH!"

With a final blood-curdling scream, Lu Gang's body was ripped apart into three. Ripped flesh, snapped bones, and torn ligaments hung in strands from the beasts claws. His insides poured out in large blobs and painted the ground a dark red as they made contact with an unsavory plop.

"My god!"

The middle-aged man who was carrying Lan Mengcheng fell to ground gagging, shaking uncontrollably, and sweating profusely.

When they first came, the South Town's Star Temple group had thought that Chen Xiaobei would be an easy kill.

But it had only been a few minutes, and out of all of them, eight of the South Town Star Temple people were all dead, leaving only the weakest one alive.

"Master, shall we kill this piece of trash?" The Tyrant Dragon King looked at him in contempt. This remaining human was less than a lowly insect to them. Chen Xiaobei only had to give his hounds the signal and this apparent weakling would be dead in a matter of seconds.

The person drew in a deep breath when he heard this and pleaded profusely, "Don't... Don't kill me... I... I am the eyes and ears that the Overlord has planted in South Town Star Temple! We're on the same team! We're on the same team!"

Chen Xiaobei was intrigued. "Oh? What is your name?"

"M... My name is Wu Guangwen!" The person replied.

"Are you really the Overlord's informer?" Chen Xiaobei studied the man carefully from head to toe. "You say that we're on the same team but why didn't you offer me any help before this?"

"I..." Wu Guangwen could not answer him.

A nicer way to put it would be that he was incapable of offering Chen Xiaobei any help at all. In a less pleasant way to put it, there was a possibility that he too had hoped Chen Xiaobei would die.

"If you don't say anything, then I'll just take it that you're lying to me!" Chen Xiaobei said.

The Tyrant Dragon King immediately made a move towards Wu Guangwen.

Wu Guangwen inhaled sharply, and breathed rapidly, "I'll tell you! I'll tell you! I only watched from the side and didn't get involved because that was the Overlord's orders!"

Chen Xiaobei stared at the man. "What are you trying to do? If you want to use the Overlord to pressure me, at last give me a more reasonable excuse!"

"The Overlord wants to force you into a corner so that he could find out everything about you! He wants to see if you could handle managing South Town's Star Temple, and he also wants to know if he can have full control you!"

"I've already been cursed. Why is the Overlord still worried?" Chen Xiaobei asked.

"It's not you he's worried about. It's your 'friends' that worries the Overlord!" Wu Guangwen explained. "He's worried about the woman who destroyed Atlantis last time, and these three masters who are present today. They are all very unusually powerful! Unless the Overlord can figure these uncertainties out, he would not dare make use of you that easily."

"After this battle, do you think that the Overlord had figured out whatever it is he wanted to figure out?"

"I wouldn't dare hazard a guess of the Overlord's judgements." Wu Guangwen swallowed. "But I will report everything that has happened today as it is to him. No matter what I say, Mr. Chen has already finished the second task. If you could just explain the origin of these three masters, the Overlord would naturally have nothing to worry about!"

"Explain their origin?" Chen Xiaobei frowned as he shot a glance at the three Demonic Beast Kings.

"Why? Is there a problem, Mr. Chen?" Wu Guangwen asked.

Chen Xiaobei shrugged. "No, I've actually told the Overlord about where they came from. They are all from a high-ranking starfield, and they are my friends!"

"As long as Mr. Chen can explain it clearly to him!" Wu Guangwen nodded, as he reached into his pocket for an interstellar cell phone.

"What are you doing?" Chen Xiaobei asked.

"I'm have to report everything that has happened today! I've already told the Overlord about Lu Gang's operation today! Since the battle results are out, I have to report immediately or the Overlord might find me guilty. I cannot afford that!"

"Oh, if that's the case." Chen Xiaobei raised an eyebrow. "Stop him."

"Stop who?" Wu Guangwen looked puzzled. The reply he got was him feeling the Python King and the Ape Kings twisting his arms behind his back.

Both Demonic Beast Kings exerted their force on him, and pushed him to his knees.

"M... Mr Chen! What are you doing?!" Wu Guangwen began to panic.

Chen Xiaobei retrieved a Heavenly Dog Biscuit from his Infinite Space Ring. "Don't worry. I won't harm you. I just want to give you something delicious to eat!"

Clearly, Wu Guangwen had a very special role in this.

If Wu Guangwen is not killed, Chen Xiaobei would, forever, have a pair of eyes watching him.

If he killed him however, the Overlord would become suspicious and even if Chen Xiaobei managed to sweep it under the rug, the Overlord could always send a second spy. Men like Wu Guangwen were expandable cannon fodder.

That was why Chen Xiaobei had to give Wu Guangwen the biscuit in order to gain complete control of him.

"Don't come any closer! I will not eat that! I will never eat that thing!" Wu Guangwen protested.

"Don't worry. This thing tastes really good. If you don't believe me, you can ask the three of them!" Chen Xiaobei pointed his chin at the Beast Kings,

The Demonic Beast Kings nodded and smirked. If one were to forget the Heavenly Dog's Biscuit's Special Ability, it really did taste quite good.

"I won't eat it! I will not eat that!" Wu Guangwen struggled, and screamed. "Hey Chen! You better think about what you're doing! I am the Overlord's most trusted interstellar spy! If you kill me, the Overlord will pursue this matter to the end!"

"What? This is not to kill.. don't you worry. I don't plan to kill you! On top of that, the Overlord trusts you so much that it would be a waste to simply kill you!" Chen Xiaobei shrugged while tossing the biscuit to the Tyrant Dragon King.

The Tyrant Dragon King pried open Wu Guangwen's mouth and shoved the biscuit into his throat, so that he could not spit it out!

The biscuit took effect very quickly. Wu Guangwen acknowledged his master and became another addition to Chen Xiaobei's loyal hound collection which was growing by the day.

"Now you can report to the Northern Wilderness Overlord!" Chen Xiaobei grinned. "Oh, by the way, find out what his final task for me is."

Chapter 1522: Ancient Demonic Fox

At Northern Wilderness Starfield, in the Overlord's temple.

The military advisor, Sima Liang had his forehead frowned while pacing around uncomfortably in the grand hall. Seemingly, he was waiting for something anxiously. On the throne, the Overlord had his cellphone in his hand. He was having a conversation with Wu Guangwen. The longer they talked, the more uneasy the Overlord felt. Clearly, he was surprised by what he heard and he was somewhat worried about it as well.

After a while, the Overlord hung up the call.

"My Lord, what did Wu Guangwen say about it? Judging by your looks, it seems something big has just happened at Atlantis!" asked Sima Liang.

"I have never thought that something like that would actually happen! I don't think you'd expect it as well!"

"What... What is going on?"

As the military advisor of the Northern Wilderness Starfield, Sima Liang could always predict what would happen next before anyone else would. This time, he had absolutely no idea what was going on.

"Chen Xiaobei has arrived at Atlantis this morning!"

"What?! How is that even possible?! Even with the fastest spaceship, one needs to travel at least half a month before arriving at Atlantis! How is possible that Chen Xiaobei could arrive in such a short period of time?!"

"I haven't finished my words! Not only has he arrived in Atlantis this morning, but he's also managed to kill seven demigods including Lu Gang just a few minutes ago!"

"Huh??? Did he finally use his trump card?! What is he hiding from us? What kind of powerful Spiritual Instruments are he using?!"

"None! Chen Xiaobei did not hide his strength or Spiritual Instruments from us... this time he's brought three extremely powerful demigods with him! According to Wu Guangwen, these three demigods came from a higher tier Starfield!"

"What that being said, Chen Xiaobei has no intention in hiding anything from us! Earlier, he did mention that he did indeed have friends at a higher-tier starfield!"

"With the curse that I inflicted on him, I don't think he would dare to hide anything from me! There's just one more thing I can't quite figure out! If he has made such powerful friends, why didn't he travel to the higher-tier starfield to make a name for himself? Why would he choose to become the master of South Town's Star Temple? I'm pretty sure that he has some sort of evil plan brewing within him!"

"Well, Chen Xiaobei did mention that the reason he choose to become the master of South Town Star Temple was because of his family and friends! He wants to bring them over here! I can totally understand that!"

“Oh? Does that mean I can fully trust that kid now?”

“No. Don’t put all your trust in him. At the same time, it is in my professional opinion that you don’t need to worry about him as well! The moment his friends and family arrive here, they are the ones who would become his weakness! We can always destroy his friends and family if he dares plot something against us!”

“Okay! I feel relieved after hearing that opinion of yours! So, should I give him what I promised him right now?”

“No! Of course not! There are supposed to be three tests! Don’t make it easy for him!”

“Of course, there’s a point! We have no idea who his powerful friends are! They are after all, from a higher-tier starfield. It would be inappropriate for us to so casually ask about their identity! So, we can try to figure out who they are using the upcoming tests!”

“I can totally understand your intention, but Chen Xiaobei might not be able to complete the second test in the first place! The portal at Atlantis is extremely huge and the Spatial Spiritual Crystal within it has been destroyed! I don’t even think the combined force of an entire starfield could fix it within a month, let alone Chen Xiaobei!”

“You are right! I thought Chen Xiaobei would fail this test as well! It’s good for him to have a taste of failing a test though! By that time, he will have to come and beg for your mercy, the perfect time for us to help with toning him down a little bit! All in all, this could help us to wholly control him better in the future!”

“Good idea! In the end, we will benefit from it no matter what!”

At Atlantis.

Chen Xiaobei moved to pick up Bai Linsu to check on the damaged portal.

“Sister Bai, I’m left with only 20 days! Are you confident enough that you can fix this portal?”

“Mr. Chen, it seems like you are still having a hard time trusting my abilities! I can promise you that I can fix this portal in 10 days!”

“That’s great! It’s my pleasure that I got the chance become your friend! If it wasn’t for you, I don’t think I can solve this test alone!”

“Mr. Chen, you are most welcome! It’s Shuang’er pleasure and mine to make your acquaintance as well! If it wasn’t for you, I think the both of us would have died in Zi Suyi’s house.”

“Alright! Alright! Alright! We are being too polite now! Oh right, I have been wanting to ask you about the existence of Ancient Demonic Foxes at Green Hill Starfield. Do they really exist?”

“Ancient Demonic Foxes? Why are you asking about it?”

“I’m from earth and I have heard a lot about Fox Deity, that’s why I’m really curious about it!”

“I see now. Look... I’m just going to tell you the truth now alright? The ancestor of Green Hill’s ruler is an Ancient Demonic Fox! They start as an ordinary fox, and once they enter the Earth God’s realm, they would be able to transform into a human! A half human half fox being is born when they copulate with human beings.

“In the book called, Strange Stories from a Chinese Studio, it talks about the love story between a human and a Fox Deity. It seems like that’s a real story after all!”

“Are you trying to drop me a hint?”

Bai Linsu’s face was red hot and appeared to be blushing.

“No! Sister Bai! Please don’t misunderstand my intention! I can promise you that I didn’t have bad thoughts about you!”

“Am I not attractive enough for you?”

“Of course not... I mean... yes of course! Sister Bai, you are extremely attractive in fact!”

“Then, why didn’t you have dirty thoughts about me?”

While talking, Bai Linsu slowly approached Chen Xiaobei with eyes squinting.

Chapter 1523: I’m The CEO

“I know what are you trying to tell me here. You wished that I had dirty thoughts about you!”

“Don’t... Don’t talk nonsense please! I... How could I wish for something like that... let’s not talk about this please! Just now, you told me that you wanted to know more about the Ancient Demonic Fox, right?”

“Yes! I really want to know more about this! Are there anymore Demonic Foxes living at Green Hill Starfield now?”

“Yes! The Master Holy Fox is a 1,000 year-old Demonic Fox that is living in Green Hill’s Holy Mountain! Right now, he has achieved the pinnacle of phase of demigod! One more step before he is to become an Earth God and gain the ability to transform into a human!”

“Master Holy Fox? Would that be a male or female?”

“Eh?”

With a frown on her face, Bai Linsu was clearly uncomfortable with the manner of question that Chen Xiaobei had just posted her.

“Uhm... I didn’t mean to offend you. I’m just curious! Pure curiosity!”

“Master Holy Fox is a male Nine Tails Crimson Fox!”

“A male huh...”

Chen Xiaobei felt slightly disappointed by the answer.

“Actually, there are female Ancient Demonic Foxes but they are all living in the Earth God’s Realm right now. They don’t really return to Green Hill anymore!”

“So, there are female Demonic Foxes in the Earth God’s Realm?!”

Chen Xiaobei was lit with the fire of hope once again. Clearly, he still had Little Fox wandering around in his heart. He now had decided that he would travel to Green Hill to look for her first and only if he failed to locate her at Green Hill, would he travel to the Earth God’s Realm to look for her.

“I would like to start repairing the portal right now if you do not have other questions. During this time, I wish for no interruptions!”

“Alright! Please go ahead! I need to return to Earth to settle some matters as well! I will return here in 10 days time!”

“Okay! By that time, the portal will be fixed!”

Bai Linsu nodded her head and walked towards all that was left of the portal located at the ruins. All the materials that Chen Xiaobei had just spent three million Spiritual Stones on were passed to Bai Linsu. Keeping her promise in his mind, Chen Xiaobei would not need to worry about this matter anymore. After that, he kept the three Demonic Beast Kings back to his Verdant Emperor’s Divine Gourd and left Atlantis.

As for Wu Guangwen, Chen Xiaobei had decided to leave him at Atlantis to report to the Overlord about the progress of the portal’s repairs. In his report, he would mention that Chen Xiaobei was repairing the portal with his friends. As instructed by Chen Xiaobei, he would never mention about Bai Linsu as he had already eaten the Heavenly Dog Biscuit.

....

Right after he stepped on the Somersault Cloud, Chen Xiaobei released Lan Mengcheng.

“Xiaobei!”

With a heart filled with joy, Lan Mengcheng rushed to Chen Xiaobei and gave him an intimate tight hug.

“Everything is fine now! I’m back. No one can hurt you anymore!” said Chen Xiaobei while caressing Lan Mengcheng’s back in a gentle manner.

“What... What is going on?”

“The ones that kidnapped you are my enemies! They are all dead now!”

“No! I’m not talking about them! I want to ask about the ruins at the bottom of the sea! Also, why are we flying in the sky?! Am I... dreaming?!”

“No! You are not dreaming! Listen to my explanation...”

With a smile on his face, Chen Xiaobei started to explain everything to Lan Mengcheng. From the Northern Wilderness Starfield to the Spiritual Instrument, Chen Xiaobei patiently explained everything thoroughly to her. Left in bewilderment, Lan Mengcheng would have not believed the things Chen Xiaobei had just told her if she had not experienced it by herself.

“So how about that eh? Are you willing to move to the Northern Wilderness Starfield with me after I’ve told you everything about myself?”

“I... of course I’m willing to do so... but...”

“Are you worried about your family? I can bring them here to live in the Northern Wilderness Starfield too as long as they say yes to it!”

“No. I’m not worried about my family. With your help, Lan Family has managed to replace Yap Family completely making us now one of the three most powerful families of Dragon City! They will live a good life even if they decide to stay on earth! I don’t think they can adapt to the lifestyle here anyway.”

“What are you worried about then if it’s not your family?”

“I’m having a hard time to giving up on our Beicheng Cosmetics!”

“Beicheng Cosmetics? Are you talking about our cosmetic company?!”

“Yes! This is the cosmetic brand that we had both setup together! It’s like our child! From the day it was born until it became an international brand, I have nurtured it and watched it grow! I don’t think I can just give it up like that!”

“Oh, my little pumpkin! You can still continue to manage the company even if you move to the Northern Wilderness Starfield and with the help of Uncle Lan, I’m pretty sure the company will continue to grow!”

“You are right. I can go back sometimes to look at the company. Hmm, okay... sounds good to me!”

Ring...

Suddenly, Lan Mengcheng’s cellphone rang.

“Hello? Secretary Wang? What’s going on?”

“Boss Lan! You finally picked up my call! Where are you? The flight is going to leave soon! Our trip to the US will have to be cancelled if you can’t make it back in time!”

“US... Shit! I don’t know where I am right now... I don’t think I can make it back in time...”

“What should we do? If Beicheng Cosmetics wants to make its presence in US, we will need the help of Brandon Organization! We have gone through a lot of trouble to get an appointment with them! We’ll have to wait for a long time to talk to them again if we miss this golden opportunity!”

“Secretary Wang, right? Bring all the documents with you! I will send Boss Lan to US on time!”

“You? Who are you?”

“Me? I’m the CEO of Beicheng Cosmetics!”

Chapter 1524: Tyler’s Son

In America.

Chen Xiaobei had arrived with Lan Mengcheng. Clearly, the Somersault Cloud's speed was a hell lot faster than Secretary Wang's old airplane. As there was some time left, the two of them went searching for some fine-dining while waiting for Secretary Wang.

A bottle of wine and some candles had managed to loosen things up undoubtedly creating an extremely romantic atmosphere. Slowly but surely, the fires of passion in their hearts were lit. Without saying much, Chen Xiaobei brought Lan Mengcheng to a five-star hotel after the glorious dinner. He then booked a presidential suite for the both of them.

"Mengcheng... Are you ready?" asked Chen Xiaobei in a passionate manner.

"Yes... I have always wanted to surrender myself to you! But... You must treat me gently... Can you do that?" asked Lan Mengcheng in a soft voice with her head nodded.

"Don't worry! I can promise you I'll be gentler than I've ever been. Before that, can you please check your cellphone and make sure that it's turned off? I don't want any interruptions... not when it comes to you!" asked Chen Xiaobei with a smile.

"Mmhhh... my cellphone is off!"

"Let me turn off mine as well! Today, I don't want anyone to interrupt me... the only thing to be turned on right now... This..."

Chen Xiaobei was taken aback as he picked up his cellphone.

Ring...

Chen Xiaobei's cellphone rang and the person calling in was Gordon! He was asked to stay in America to help Chen Xiaobei investigate the secret about the prince-tier Dark Neutron. Usually, Gordon would contact Jiang Ziya instead of Chen Xiaobei if there was no urgent matters. Seemingly, Gordon had encountered something that Jiang Ziya could not solve.

Rendered with no other options, Chen Xiaobei had to pick up the call.

"Are you the one who controls Gordon?"

An unfamiliar cold voice was on the other side of the phone.

"Who might you be?"

"I'm Teddy Bryan! The Grand Leader of Blood Descendents of the West Coast of America! Tyler Bryan is my father!"

"Tyler? Prince Tyler?"

Earlier, America had sent Paladin Leo, Grand Mage Deeker, and Blood Descendant Prince Tyler to kill Chen Xiaobei. He had never expected that Prince Tyler had a son who was called Teddy. If Chen Xiaobei's guess was right, Gordon was captured by Teddy because the Dark Neutron had been traced back to Bryan Family.

“Where is Gordon? What did you do to him? Heh! I knew it! You are the one who controls Gordon! He is with me now! Bring my father’s Dark Neutron back to me if you want him to live!”

“What Dark Neutron? I have no idea what the hell are you talking about!”

“Hmph! Bastard! Do you really think you can fool me? Why would you send Gordon to investigate us if you don’t have the Dark Neutron with you?! Of course, you can continue to act the fool while I slice off Gordon’s flesh piece by piece and feed them to the dogs!”

“Hold on! Tell me where you are! I’ll come to you right now!”

“Hehe... Attaboy! I will send the address to your cellphone! You have exactly two hours to deliver the Dark Neutron to me! Fail to do so and I will present you with a neatly sliced Gordon, perhaps, in 18 pieces!”

“Fine! I will go to you ASAP!”

Chen Xiaobei nodded his head and he did not look good at all.

“There is something urgent that I have to deal with! I don’t think I can have fun with you today!”

“I’m yours anyway! Just go and deal with his urgent matter first!”

“Alright! Wait for me here. I have stationed two bodyguards to watch the common area. They are very trustworthy! If you need anything, just ask them to do it for you!”

“Okay!”

Right after Chen Xiaobei left the bedroom, he released the Ape King and Python King to protect Lan Mengcheng. Considering that the Shapeshifting Pull could last for 24 hours, Chen Xiaobei knew that they would only return to their original forms in the morning and therefore, had nothing to worry about. Knowing that the demigods on earth were weaker than Lu Gang, there was no way that they could defeat these two Demonic Beast Kings! In the betterment of things, the Tyrant Dragon King was still inside his gourd. That would mean Chen Xiaobei could do whatever he wanted to in America. This was why he was not afraid of meeting the Blood Descendant later.

After leaving the hotel, Chen Xiaobei went to the designated location given by Teddy. He was asked to travel to a forest far away from the city. Judging from the lush and overgrown foliage, Chen Xiaobei could see that no one had set foot in this place for a very long time. By following the given GPS location, Chen Xiaobei had arrived deep inside the forest before he caught a glimpse of the apparent Teddy.

He looked like a man in his thirties but his actual age stretched hundreds of years old. And there were 12 Blood Descendant Guardians around him. They looked very much like Silver Wings Myrmidon but they seemed to be a lot more powerful than the ordinary ones. After looking around for a bit, Chen Xiaobei did not see Gordon around.

“When I talked to you on the phone just now, I figured out that you are just a young man. I totally didn’t expect you to be a lot younger than you sounded! I think you are just in your twenties, right? I’m really curious. How did you manage to control Gordon? He’s willing to throw away his life to help you!”

Ding!

[Cultivation: Pinnacle phase of Celestial Cultivation. Lifespan: *. Health: 130,000. Combat power: 130,000!]

After checking out his cultivation with Netherspirit Battlescouter, Chen Xiaobei felt less worried now. Prince Tyler possessed 280,000 combat power but his son, Tyler possessed only 130,000 combat power. With such huge gap in power, Chen Xiaobei was confident enough that he could deal with the whole thing without the help of Tyrant Dragon King.

“Where is Gordon?”

“You have not answered my question! You have no right to ask me any questions!”

“I order you to release Gordon within 10 seconds since you don’t want to answer my questions!”

“What? You... are you ordering me around?! I’m an elite at the pinnacle phase of Celestial cultivation! I can kill you with one finger! I know that you are more powerful than Gordon but you should know that you can’t do much here! Ordering me around is equivalent to signing your death warrant!”

“It seems like I don’t need to wait for 10 seconds!”

Filled with a raging murderous intent, Chen Xiaobei fiercely strode towards Teddy.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 1525: Chaos Blood Sword’s Killing

“Huh? How dare you attack me first!” Teddy’s face darkened. “Attack him! Kill this stupid son of a bitch! Show him how powerful the Blood Descendants are!”

“Yes, sir!” All twelve bodyguards answered in unison, immediately forming a semi-circle, charging towards Chen Xiaobei.

Chen Xiaobei did not even bat an eyelid. He continued to hurtle forward, ignoring the twelve people running at him.

Both sides differed sharply. It was like watching twelve violent, hungry wolves hunting for a meek strayed lamb, whereby a bloody kill would ensue, resulting in the pathetic, ghastly death of the lamb.

The Blood Descendent Guardian at the front bellowed, “You shithead! Were you so scared you lost your mind? How dare you keep coming at us! Do me a favour and just die will you!”

He raised both arms revealing claws as sharp as daggers which were aimed squarely at Chen Xiaobei’s Dantian.

These twelve Blood Descendants’ cultivation were much higher than the Silver Winged Myrmidons. Be it strength or speed, they were at least a level higher.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei was no longer the same Chen Xiaobei back then!

Ziing!

Chen Xiaobei lifted a finger, and a frosty red brilliance shot out from the tip of it.

The light was wispy, like a long string of hair but as if left Chen Xiaobei's finger, it grew and expanded in a flash into a longsword.

The sword was of a blood-red color, and made out of top-tier Blood Jade. The shadows of two dragons circled the sword's body, fierce and limitless.

In the next instant, the blood-red radiance ballooned even more and washed the entire place in its crimson light.

"My god! What a scary Sword Force!" exclaimed the Blood Descendants who were charging towards Chen Xiaobei. Their hearts were now drumming wildly in their chests and their pupils were contracted. Terror, along with the blood-red light, shrouded them.

It felt as if two ancient giant dragons were coming at them, and the power they displayed was as if they could just smite them into dust with the snap of a finger!

True enough, what they feared turned into reality!

Zing!

The pair of dragons appeared in a flash, and advanced toward the Blood Descendant who was at the front, striking and slicing his head clean off the neck. Blood poured out. It was a frightening sight to behold.

All Blood Essence and spirit of the Blood Descendant were then absorbed into the blood sword.

More accurately, the red dragon had absorbed the Blood Essence, and the black dragon had absorbed their spirit. Through their Special Abilities, they were stored inside the blood sword as energy.

That's right! This was the Chaos Blood Sword!

The red dragon was the sword's original Special Ability, and the black dragon was the Soul Consuming Enigmatic Jade's Special Ability.

With the two combined, the sword could maximize the use of the enemies' Blood Essence and Souls after an enemy was killed!

The only flaw with this sword however, was that souls that have been absorbed were not allowed to enter the underworld realm, and no merit points would be rewarded too.

Chen Xiaobei wasn't worried as he had plenty of merit points. It was more worthwhile to exchange the souls for energy.

"My god... That's... That's really scary!" The remaining 11 Blood Descendant Guardians were too stunned to move forward. They just stood there, mouths gaping and eyes wide open in sheer shock.

But Chen Xiaobei was not going to wait for them get over their shock.

Zing! Zing! Zing!

The Blood Chaos sword swung midair; its razor-sharp blade sliced about, sending lifeless heads falling to the ground.

Inflicted with such a powerful force, the 11 Blood Descendants were killed just like that. Their Blood Essences and souls were absorbed, and they ceased to exist from the three realms.

In a matter of seconds, the whole place grew calm again.

The Chaos Blood Sword made its way back to Chen Xiaobei, hovering above his head as the red light lit up its surrounding areas.

“I’ll say this one last time! Hand Gordon over now, or I’ll make you pay!

Chen Xiaobei’s gaze was frosty. Under the blood red light, he looked like a Demon Overlord that came from purgatory, an absolutely terrifying prospect.

Teddy inhaled sharply. His state of mind was deeply affected but he had someone powerful behind him, so he would not give in so easily.

“You really are not easy!” Teddy straightened himself up. “That Blood Sword’s speed and strength is about 130,000 combat power! If it’s a little bit stronger, I might be afraid. But because we share the same combat power, we the Blood Descendants are superior to you!”

Roar!

With a sudden roar, a transformation began to happen.

Teddy’s brown hair turned into a golden blonde, and a pair of golden wings emerged from his back. His irises were of the same red color but his pupils were now in gold!

This was the original form of the Blood Descendant’s grand leader. The transformed Teddy was way more powerful than his previous form. Clearly, he was at the pinnacle phase of his current cultivation.

His combat power was still 130,000 but after his transfiguration, he was able to make use of the Blood Descendant’s talents boosting his speed, strength, and defense.

Blood Descendants would always win against a similar ranked human.

That was why, even though his guardians had been eradicated, Teddy was still confident about winning this battle.

Chen Xiaobei nodded. “You’re right. Because we have the same combat power, you have the upper hand!”

Soon after he said that, Chen Xiaobei put away his Chaos Blood Sword.

Back in Atlantis, Chen Xiaobei cultivated for seven minutes, and he was able to reach the peak of Celestial Cultivation with 130,000 combat power.

Earlier on, Chen Xiaobei relied on his True Qi to move the Chaos Blood Sword. He did not actually use the Special Ability stored in the sword.

That was why the sword was only able to move at the speed and strength of 130,000 combat power.

That allowed him to wipe out all the Blood Descendant Guardians, but against the transfigured Teddy, it did not present any threat at all.

Of course, there was now quite a good amount of energy stored inside the sword. Having absorbed 12 Blood Descendant Guardians' Blood Essences and souls, it could produce a strike of 140,000 combat power.

This was enough to beat Teddy.

But this energy could only be used once. Chen Xiaobei wanted to collect more than that, and he did not want to waste it all here.

That was why he put the Chaos Blood Sword away.

Teddy did not know any of this, so he laughed mockingly. "Hey dipshit! Why did you put your weapon away? Are you scared now? Hahaha!"

"Who said putting aside my weapon means I'm scared?" Chen Xiaobei retorted.

"Hmph! Even if you did have a weapon, you won't be able to beat me! If putting it away doesn't mean you surrender, what does it mean then? You better hand over my father's Dark Neutron or I will make you regret that you were even born at all!"

"If you can still stand after three seconds, I will return it to you!" Chen Xiaobei shouted as he charged towards the Blood Descendent.

Chapter 1526: Bryan Castle

"Motherf*cker! You little piece of shit! Still putting on an act in the face of death huh! You want to take me down in three seconds?! That's a f*cking daydream you prick!"

Obviously, Teddy did not for the slightest bit believe Chen Xiaobei's ability to kill.

As far as he was concerned, Chen Xiaobei was at the peak of Celestial Cultivation like him, though after his own transfiguration which greatly empowered him, he could definitely finish Chen Xiaobei off.

In fact, his judgement was not wrong at all. If the result was based solely on strength alone, Chen Xiaobei was definitely the weaker one. Surely, all these were only on the surface.

However, Chen Xiaobei's actual strength was not a mere 130,000!

Smack!

Chen Xiaobei slapped Teddy hard on the face. He was so fast that Teddy did not even see him coming.

"Oww!" Teddy cried out. His entire body swiftly spun round and round like a spinning top, and was rapidly sent flying to a giant rock about 10 meters away. The rock crumbled upon impact.

"Argh... Hack... Hack..." Teddy laid in the rubble, where blood and broken teeth came spilling from his open mouth. His pale, scraggy face swelled like a balloon that was about to explode.

"H... How is this possible? How could you suddenly breakthrough the peak of Celestial Cultivation but still remain below the early phase of Ethereal Cultivation? It doesn't make sense at all."

Teddy cradled his face with his palms, watching Chen Xiaobei through it's cracks with bewilderment.

130,000 combat power meant being at the peak of Celestial Cultivation. It was only when a person broke through to Ethereal Cultivation, would his or her combat power exceed the 130,000 point limit.

Chen Xiaobei's slap however, was in-between those two values, one that was very strange and unorthodox.

There had never been anything like that in recorded history.

Chen Xiaobei was able to do it because he had the one and only Primordial Witch King's Combat Enhancement Training Manual that the Prime of Tongtian gifted him!

Under normal circumstances, Chen Xiaobei's cultivation was only 130,000 but with the Primordial Witch King's Combat Enhancement Training Manual, he was able to boost himself to 169,000 combat power. Stopped only by the limits of his health, actual combat power hovered around 165,800.

Of course, even with the limit in place, it was still sufficient to crush Teddy.

"Sure... my strength doesn't make sense but you don't need to know about that don't you? All you need to do is to just answer me: are you going to give Gordon back to me?!" Chen Xiaobei walked over to him with brazen strides.

Teddy drew in a breath of cold air. Three seconds ago, he thought that he was going to win this fight for sure, but that slap alone had taken out most of his front teeth.

While a Blood Descendant would win a fight against a similarly ranked human, the energy that Chen Xiaobei exerted was clearly of a rank higher than Teddy's.

Teddy did not have a chance to fight back, much less defeat Chen Xiaobei. He did not even have the courage to stand up and fight again.

Teddy was subdued!

"I will! I will..." Teddy stammered. "But I didn't bring Gordon here. He's locked up in our family's castle."

"So, you were just messing with me all along huh?" Chen Xiaobei raised a ready hand.

"Okay! Okay! Have mercy! I will not do it again!" Teddy covered his head defensively while trembling violently, not wanting to be struck by Chen Xiaobei again.

Never in his wildest dreams would he have thought about losing to Chen Xiaobei. Initially, as he was very sure that he could beat him, he did not even bother bringing Gordon along.

He never expected to be totally subdued by a simple slap from Chen Xiaobei.

If he knew that this would happen, Teddy would have brought Gordon with him, and would have used him as hostage against Chen Xiaobei.

Chen Xiaobei could see that Teddy was not lying. "Good, then bring me to your family now. If Gordon is fine, I will spare your life but if anything happens to him, rest assured I will do the same to you."

"Alright! I will bring you now!" Teddy scrambled for his phone and contacted his family, while frantically repeating over and over again not to punish Gordon.

Chen Xiaobei did not hide his Somersault Cloud, but dragged Teddy like a dead dog onto the cloud and flew straight to the Bryan Castle.

Although the Somersault Cloud was Chen Xiaobei's secret, the Overlord's spy had already become Chen Xiaobei's loyal hound and thus, this secret would not be known beyond the boundaries of earth.

The other forces on earth were no threat to Chen Xiaobei anymore, so he did not need to worry anymore about anyone knowing about his secrets.

The Somersault Cloud was a very rapid beast and they arrived at Bryan Castle in a matter of minutes.

Because Teddy had called to inform earlier, preparations had been made to welcome their enemy.

10 flamboyantly dressed Blood Descendants stood at the door of the castle. They were all the core members of the Bryan family.

Surrounding them were hundreds of common Blood Descendants clad in armor and equipped with sharp weapons. They were the Bryans' blood slaves, all willing to sacrifice their lives for the Bryans.

"Uncles! Save me! Save me!"

Teddy shouted as soon as he stepped off the cloud.

Bam!

Chen Xiaobei kicked Teddy in the butt, sending him falling face flat on the ground.

As Chen Xiaobei stepped off the cloud, he steadily planted a foot on Teddy's back making sure he could not stand up.

The faces of the Blood Descendants were hot with rage when they saw this.

A silver haired man stood out and said, "My friend! Do you know that the person you are stepping on is our family's newly appointed master?!"

Chen Xiaobei snorted, "Taylor's dies and Teddy becomes the master of the house. You Bryans really are becoming worse and worse with each generation. You guys should just go your separate ways!"

That comment was like pouring gasoline onto a raging fire. All the Blood Descendants had their hands curled into balled fists, ready to attack Chen Xiaobei. They now intended to tear him apart until nothing was left of him.

"My friend, you shouldn't be so arrogant!" The silver haired man's face was glacial. "These are our grounds! For the past hundreds of years, many arrogant people like you have passed through here, and none of them survived!"

"Am I being arrogant? How come I didn't know that?" Chen Xiaobei spat. "I am not pointing fingers here but none of these rotten eggs here can touch a hair on me!"

"You..." The Silver haired man's face had turned a shade of purple.

The other Blood Descendants were gnashing their teeth. They could not wait to strip every bit of flesh off the recalcitrant Chen Xiaobei's bones!

“Enough of all this nonsense! Bring Gordon out now, and then tell me everything about the secrets of the Dark Neutron!” Chen Xiaobei ordered, “Or, I wouldn’t mind flattening your castle into a meadow!”

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 1527: Demolish It

“Bastard! You are way too arrogant for your own good! This is the castle that the Bryan Family had lived in for 800 years! Where did you find the guts to say something like that? Clearly, you do have a death wish on you right now don’t you!” sneered the silver-haired man.

All the other hundreds of Blood Descendants around him glared grimly at Chen Xiaobei as well. Seemingly, he had hit at the very heart of the Bryans and they were on the verge of jumping at Chen Xiaobei and attacking him at any moment now. One should know that there were only four Blood Descendant Princes in America. Judging from their wealth and strength, the Bryan Family was not the most powerful family around but they were still considered as one of the top-tiered Blood Descendant factions. The moment Chen Xiaobei threatened to destroy the entire castle, he knew that they were of no threat to him.

BAM!

Chen Xiaobei lifted his leg and stomped on Teddy’s back. Immediately, he coughed out a mouthful of fresh blood.

“Help... Uncles, please help me... I’m the family head of Bryan Family! I’m the only who knows the secret of Dark Neutron! Cough... Cough... The secret will die with me if none of you tries to save me! You guys know that without the Dark Power, the family will die off sooner or later! Save me! Save me now!” croaked a severely injured Teddy in a desperate attempt to salvage the situation.

“Hang on first!”

The silver-haired guy frowned. The reason why the Blood Descendants would flock together to form a family was all because of Dark Power. Without the Dark Power, the Blood Descendant Family would be dismissed or would risk being absorbed by other families. Usually, the secret of the Dark Neutron would be passed down from generation to generation only to the family’s successor. No one else knew about it. In other words, the secret would be buried permanently with Teddy if he died.

BAM!

“Tell me the secret and I might just let you live!”

Again, Chen Xiaobei stomped on Teddy’s back.

“Ow... Ughh”

Left in unbearable pain and dilemma, Teddy helplessly let out a frail wail once again. The truth was, Teddy would never tell Chen Xiaobei the secret come what may but whether he liked it or not, his life was now in Chen Xiaobei’s palms.

“Teddy! Don’t you tell him about it! This is our family’s best kept heirloom, our top-secret! Outsiders are forbidden to ever know about it!” shouted the silver-haired man.

“But he will kill me if I don’t tell him, uncle!”

“Don’t worry! That kid wants to know our family’s secret! He will not kill you as long as you insist on keeping your mouth shut! Hang in there! We will come and save you right now!”

“That actually made sense! The secret is within me! I’m pretty sure that he won’t kill me as long as I don’t spill a word about it!”

“Everyone! Charge! Kill that bastard! Save our family head!”

The silver-haired man let out a battle cry to boost the morale of the Blood Descendants around him. Having being rallied up, every single one of the Blood Descendants charged at Chen Xiaobei with a renewed intention to kill him. With their focus and might, one should never underestimate the Bryan Family. The silver-haired man led the pack, and the dozens of Blood Descendants that followed right behind him were elites with middle phase of Celestial cultivation. The hundreds who made up the rest of the Blood Descendants were at least at an early phase of Celestial cultivation.

It was as if an entire top-tier ancient faction had declared war on Chen Xiaobei at the same time. As usual, Chen Xiaobei was still unusually calm at the face of such a large group of powerful adversaries. To him, they were no different from a nest of harmless ants.

“Son of a bitch! How dare you look down upon us?! You are so dead this time!”

Chen Xiaobei’s arrogance and pride had managed to anger the silver-haired man and all the other Blood Descendants around him.

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

Everyone including the silver-haired man transformed themselves into the Blood Descendant’s true form. Their anger had managed to motivate them in coming up with all their strength to tear Chen Xiaobei apart. Such indomitable and overpowering combined force was powerful enough to destroy an entire ancient faction within a short period of time.

“It seems like we have to show you our true colors! Today, you will shall witness the color of your blood!”

With a calm look on him, Chen Xiaobei took out the Verdant Emperor’s Divine Gourd and released the Tyrant Dragon King. Everyone could see a ray of bright light bursting out of the gourd and a human-like being slowly materialized in front of them.

Roar!!!

The Tyrant Dragon King let out a loud roar as he made his presence known to everyone. Though he was now in human form, his roar was ejected with a primitive dominating aura. His pride as the Demonic Beast King had not been weakened at all.

“Gosh... Wait... Where... Where did this powerful elite come from?”

Immediately, the hundreds of Blood Descendants present took in a deep breath. It was as if an entire mountain had just landed on their hearts. An immense amount of fear quickly invaded their bodies.

“Master?”

Instead of acting on its own, the Tyrant Dragon King stopped and asked for further instructions from Chen Xiaobei.

“Don’t kill those who kneel on the ground!”

“Yes master!”

The Tyrant Dragon King then nodded his head and started to move towards his enemies.

“Motherf*cker! How dare you underestimate us?! Do you really think you can kill us members of the Bryan Family so easily?!” shouted the silver-haired man in a hysteric manner.

BAM!!!

Without warning, the Tyrant Dragon King landed a hard punch on the silver-haired man’s chest. With a loud thump echoing in the air, the silver-haired man’s body exploded. What was once a silver-haired man was now a pile of gooey flesh and bones on the ground.

“Oh my god... This elite... is too damn powerful!”

Hundreds of Blood Descendants let out a loud scream. All their battle intent was gone as the fear and realization of the situation kicked in.

Swish!

The Tyrant Dragon King had no intention to stop the killing anytime soon. He then fashioned a kick at the air and powerful Qi Force was sent flying at the enemies in front of him.

Phissh!

Phissh!

Phissh!

Dozens of Blood Descendants were cut into half! Most of their blood and organs were scattered all over, painting the floor in an ominous bright red.

“Kneel... Everyone kneel down right now... Mr. Chen mentioned that he would not kill those that kneel on the ground!”

Before the Tyrant Dragon King, none of them were powerful enough to defeat him. The bloody scene that was presented in front of them had also sobered them up, shaking off whatever battling rage that had once blinded them. One followed after another, until everyone started to kneel on the ground and kowtowed at Chen Xiaobei.

“This is disappointing!”

Clearly, the Tyrant Dragon King wanted to kill more of them.

“Destroy the castle behind them!” said Chen Xiaobei.

Chapter 1528: Astral Projection

“Mr. Chen, have mercy... Have mercy... Mr. Chen... This castle has been our family’s emblem for 800 years... Please be lenient, don’t tear down our castle...”

The Blood Descendents all around began to cry out, banging their heads on the ground repeatedly.

“I’ve already given you a chance but you did not appreciate it. In fact, you all tried to kill me!” Chen Xiaobei said. “Also, I’ve already told you that I will turn your castle into a flatland. If I don’t do it, I will lose face, right?”

“Don’t... Please don’t...” Cries of agony arose, but no one dared resist.

Before the Tyrant Dragon King showed up, these Blood Descendants looked down on Chen Xiaobei, thinking that when Chen Xiaobei was just blowing his own horn when he said that he was going to bulldoze the castle. They did not know that Chen Xiaobei was actually serious about it!

Boom! Boom!

The Tyrant Dragon King was already standing in front of the castle. With both his palms wide open, he then slammed down hard, smashing his hard as steel Ethereal Force down into the ground.

Rumble... Rumble...

Then, at the Tyrant Dragon King’s will, the two Ethereal Forces ruptured the ground like a pair of dragons wreaking havoc underground, which tore a giant trench into the ground.

The castle that stood on the grounds began to crack, and in the violent jolting and quaking of the ground, the castle crumbled like burnt pastry in 10 seconds, leaving only fragments and debris in its wake!

“Ruined... It’s completely ruined...”

All around, the members of the Bryan family looked ashen.

Like they said, the castle was their family emblem, their family’s pride.

If news of the Bryan castle being bulldozed to the ground were to be spread around, the whole family would lose their reputation and prestige.

From this day onwards, not only would nobody respect the Bryans, even street urchins would be laughing at them!

This was not solely a matter of just losing a little face. This was like having the Bryans’ face thrown to the ground, and stomped on until nothing was left of it.

“Master!” Tyrant Dragon King had completed his task, and was now returning to Chen Xiaobei.

“Find someone to take you to Gordon!” Chen Xiaobei ordered.

“Yes, master!” The Tyrant Dragon King nodded, turned around and grabbed a Bryan core family member and proceeded to the rubble to rescue Gordon.

Chen Xiaobei settled his feet on Teddy’s back and asked, “So? Have you thought about it? Are you going to tell me the secret about your family’s Dark Neutron?”

“I... I won’t!” Teddy snarled. “I am the only one who holds this secret! You wouldn’t dare kill me!”

“You’re right. Before I find out what the secret is, I won’t kill you. I can torture you though!” Chen Xiaobei moved his foot to Teddy’s waist. “This part here. I just need to kick you once, hard, and your lumbar spine will shatter. The lower half of your body would be completely useless! You’ll turn into a very useless vegetable.”

“No... No...” Teddy screamed. “I’ll tell! I’ll tell you... alright?”

The Dark Neutron was a very valuable item to each family, and it’s secrets were classified in the strictest confidence.

The Bryans were willing to start a fight because they did not wish for this secret to leak.

But right now, with the Tyrant Dragon King present, even if the Bryans had the heart of a valiant soldier, none of them would dare make a second attempt at starting a battle.

If they wished to live, they would have to reveal the secret of the Dark Neutron.

Teddy took in a deep breath and said, “Our family’s Dark Neutron’s Special Ability is an Astral Projection!”

“Astral Projection?!” Chen Xiaobei gasped. “Isn’t that a little too insignificant? Is there any other hidden Special Ability?”

If it was just the normal out-of-body experience, the practical usage of it was next to nothing. The Bryans would not have been able to reach the heights they were at today.

It was obvious that this Out-of-body Experience Special Ability was unlike the average thing!

“Er... Mr. Chen, you’re really smart...” Teddy knew he could not hide the truth from Chen Xiaobei so he answered honestly, “With our family’s dark powers, you will be able to sense the presence of all Spiritual Items after your spirit is separated from your body!”

“Sense the presence of all Spiritual Items?” Chen Xiaobei’s eyes lit up. Now that was something special.

“Yes!” Teddy nodded. “Our family has, more than once, found treasures buried deep underground with this Special Ability. We were even able to find the tombs of ancient kings. As long as they are Spiritual Items that cannot be seen with the naked eyes or discovered by technology, they can be found using our Special Ability!”

“That’s incredible!” Chen Xiaobei’s eyes were practically glowing.

To find the 10,000 year-old Ambergris, Focker had to search the entire Indian Ocean! To find the Overgrown Forest hidden treasures, the Tyrant Dragon King waited for 500 years!

If they both had the Bryan's Dark Special Ability, they would have been able to find the things they were looking for without even breaking a sweat!

What the Bryans had become today had largely depended on this Special Ability to discover all sorts of resources.

"I've told you everything... Can you let me go now?" Teddy asked in a soft voice.

"Go!" Chen Xiaobei was in a sudden good mood, and could not be bothered to kill anyone anymore.

"Master!" The Tyrant Dragon King had returned with Gordon.

"Master! I was not able to complete my task successfully, and had to trouble you to come over to rescue me! I am really sorry!" Gordon said apologetically.

"Don't worry about that. Just get back into the Verdant Emperor's Divine Gourd first. We'll walk and talk!" Chen Xiaobei took out the gourd and coaxed in Gordon and the Tyrant Dragon King.

After that, he stepped onto the Somersault Cloud and left the scene.

While he was in the clouds, Chen Xiaobei held the gourd in his hands, and began to tap his consciousness into it.

"Gordon, tell me what you've found!"

"Yes! Before I got to the Bryans', I went to the Blood Descendants' library. I was able to confirm that the Blood Descendants' dark powers are evil powers derived from the devil – Satan himself, the Blood Ancestor Lilith, and the fallen angel Lucifer!"

"There's an evil curse in these powers – a person's body cannot contain two types of Dark Power or the person will explode! In the Blood Descendants' history, only the Blood Emperor can have control of nine Dark Powers! After endless research, I was able to find out why – the Blood King has the oldest Blood Ancestor's bloodline!"

Chen Xiaobei was flabbergasted. "Blood Ancestor? You mean Lilith?" Chen Xiaobei asked.

"Yes, Lilith. But it's not just limited to her!" Gordon answered. "In the ancient times, there were many Blood Ancestors! There are still Blood Ancestors around today but they are all in the Earth God's Realm!"

"Then, how am I going to get the blood of a Blood Ancestor?" Chen Xiaobei asked.

Chapter 1529: Blood King, Sequinn

"There are two methods to acquire the bloodline from the First Blood Descendant! The first method is by being the offspring of the First Blood Descendant! Just like the Blood Kings, their bodies flow with the blood of the First Blood Descendant since they are born!"

"There should be a Blood King on earth, right? If the blood of the First Blood Descendant is flowing within him, I'm pretty sure that he has met him before, right?"

“You are right! The most powerful Blood Descendant on earth right now is the Blood King!”

“Since I’m no offspring of the First Blood Descendant, I don’t think the first method would work on me! What’s the second method?”

“The second method is to absorb the Blood Essence of the First Blood Descendant! You will be able to take possession of his bloodline after you’ve finished digesting it!”

“Drain the First Blood Descendant’s blood? I don’t think that’s an easy task!”

“Of course! The Blood King’s cultivation is at a demigod’s level! You can surely imagine that the First Blood Descendant is way more powerful than the Blood King! Right now, I think it’s impossible for you to put the second method into action too!”

“You are right! Beating a demigod-level elite is impossible right now!”

Though Chen Xiaobei knew the secret of the Bryan Family’s Dark Neutron, he realized that he was already in possession of a Dark Ability. Without the bloodline from the First Blood Descendant, there was no way that he could acquire the Dark Ability of Bryan Family.

As he thought about that, Chen Xiaobei was left in deep frustration.

He knew that Bryan Family’s Dark Neutron could come in pretty handy but he did not get to use it right now when he needed it the most. It was no difference from placing a beautiful woman right in front of you but she was locked in chastity belts.

“Master! You are the winner of this war! Why not just kill that Blood King and make yourself the new Blood King? In doing so, you will be able to get the bloodline, right?” quipped the Tyrant Dragon King.

“It’s not as easy as you think it is! I’m not a Blood Descendant by nature! I will not be able to become the new Blood King even if I kill the current one! Not only that! I will make myself public enemy number one of the Blood Descendants if I kill him right now!”

“Master! The thing that Tyrant Dragon King has just said might just work!” said Gordon.

“Is that right?”

“Of course! In the world of Blood Descendants, the strong would always prey on the weak. That’s why they have family feuds all the time! You can rule a family if you manage to kill their Blood King!”

“That sounds right to me! But still, I’m no Blood Descendant to be eligible for that!”

“A human can actually choose to become a Blood Descendant! All you need to do is ask a Blood Descendant to absorb your blood and transfer it to you! That way, you would automatically be able to become a Blood Descendant!”

“That sounds so much simpler eh! Come drain my blood right now make me a Blood Descendant! With that, I will be qualified to become a Blood King! If the whole thing goes smoothly, I would be able to acquire the bloodline of the First Blood Descendant and I will be in control of the nine Dark Abilities, right?!”

“Yes! Master! You are right!” said Gordon.

“So what are we waiting for?! Let’s look for a place with nobody present settle this matter ASAP! We can go kill the Blood King if I can turn into a Blood Descendant today! I also know that my strength would improve greatly once I transform myself into a pure Blood Descendant! This is what I call by killing two birds with one stone!”

“Alright! Let’s follow your wishes then! It’s going to be so damn awesome if we can go kill the Blood King later!”

At the castle where the Blood King resides..

The Blood King, Sequinn was sitting on the throne in the dark hall. There were three Blood Descendant elders with fancy outfits sitting right beside him. They were the three remaining princes. Considering that Teddy Bryan had just died, these four Blood Descendants had become the most powerful Blood Descendants on earth!

Judging by the serious looks on them, an important discussion was taking place. Usually, no one was allowed to interrupt them in times like this. Suddenly, an old butler came rushing out to inform them of something seemingly important.

“My Lords! My King! Something awful has happened!”

“What’s wrong?”

Though Sequinn was not pleased that the meeting was rudely interrupted, he knew that something really bad must have taken place as the butler broke the rules to come and talk to him.

“The Bryan Family just called to inform us that Chen Xiaobei had destroyed their castle! They also said that Prince Tyler’s Dark Neutron is with Chen Xiaobei right now!”

“Chen Xiaobei!”

Sequinn and three other princes were delighted when they heard his name.

“This is great! Even God is helping us now!”

“The faction leader of Kunlun Faction has predicted that Chen Xiaobei will return before the opening of Emperor Qin’s tomb and he is right about it! I was just thinking of how are we supposed to acquire the treasure of Emperor Qin without the help of Prince Tyler. Since Chen Xiaobei is here right now, I have the chance to rob Prince Tyler’s Dark Neutron off him! I will also be able to learn Astral Projection from it! By that time, I’ll be able to take full possession of Emperor Qin’s treasure!”

“Congratulations, my Lord! Many, many congratulations! The Blood Descendants would become the strongest force on earth once you’ve acquired all the treasures! Hahaha...”

With their laughter echoing in the hall, it seemed like no one cared about the fall of Bryan Family.

.....

On the ocean.

Chen Xiaobei managed to find an isolated island and landed on it. He then released Gordon and Tyrant Dragon King from the gourd.

“Let’s do it here! There’s no one around! Nobody will find out about us if something big goes down during the process!” said Chen Xiaobei.

“Don’t you worry master! I will make sure that you will not be interrupted even if there’s someone here!” said the Tyrant Dragon King.

With the protection from the Tyrant Dragon King, no one would be able to interrupt Chen Xiaobei unless something the likes of a nuclear explosion occurred beside him.

“Master! Shall we begin now? I’m going to drain all your blood right now and it’s not going to be pleasant! Please hang in there!” said Gordon.

“Don’t worry! I can endure the pain!” said Chen Xiaobei with his shoulders shrugged.

Chapter 1530: Super Powerful Blood Veins

Four sharp, slender fangs much like the ones on a wild beast, appeared in Gordon’s mouth!

Chen Xiaobei was ready, so Gordon made no delay and latched onto an artery on Chen Xiaobei’s neck.

This was an exchange of not only blood but also a life as well!

If Gordon had any devious thoughts at all, and chose not to replenish Chen Xiaobei’s body after sucking him dry, Chen Xiaobei could die from lack of Blood-qi.

That was why most people would not dare to even attempt this method.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei was not worried at all. Gordon was his loyal hound who had eaten the Heavenly Dog Biscuit after all. He would rather die than cause Chen Xiaobei any harm.

With the assurance of safety, there was nothing else to worry about.

But! Things were not as simple as it seemed!

“Huh?” Chen Xiaobei was ready to take the pain and had only felt a sting when something strange happened!

“Owww! Argghhh!” Gordon suddenly screamed, covering his mouth as he backed away from Chen Xiaobei, wearing a pained expression on his face.

“What is it? What happened?” Chen Xiaobei and the Tyrant Dragon King watched in bewilderment.

“Master... Your blood...” There was pain in Gordon’s voice. His face twisting in agony.

Gordon released his hands from his mouth that revealed a shocking situation.

His fangs had melted like steel that was passed through a furnace, leaving only its upper halves intact.

The cavity of his mouth also looked like it had suffered from burns, and bright red blood was seeping out.

Chen Xiaobei quickly retrieved a vial of special Spiritual Medicine from the Infinite Space Ring. "Quickly... hold this in your mouth. It can stop the bleeding and heal the burns."

Back in Overgrown Forest, Chen Xiaobei had gotten himself a lot of Spiritual Medicine. With his medical skills, they would be very useful.

"Phew." Gordon let out a long sigh of relief. After applying the Spiritual Medicine in his mouth for a little while, the bleeding stopped and the pain began ease a little.

The Tyrant Dragon King spoke first, "That's so strange! How did you get burned? You bit our master and not flames! This is really really strange!"

"Master's blood is unusual..." Gordon was still in shock and was still having difficulty talking. It was obvious that the burns were quite severe.

"Is something wrong with my blood?" Chen Xiaobei's rubbed his neck.

There were two small red spots on his skin, akin to mosquito bites.

That meant that Gordon's fangs had only just pierced Chen Xiaobei's skin, and they did not go very deep.

He had only made contact with a little bit of Chen Xiaobei's blood, but had already suffered a serious injury.

Apparently, Chen Xiaobei's blood was unusual!

"Tell us then! What is so special about master's blood!" The Tyrant Dragon King's curiosity was piqued. It could not wait to ask more questions.

Gordon's wounds were still hurting so he answered with great difficulty, "Master's blood is not human."

"What?! Not human? How is that possible?" The Tyrant Dragon King said doubtfully.

"I am very sure that master's blood is not human!" Gordon answered sternly. "If I'm not mistaken, the blood in master's body belongs to an extremely powerful entity! It's much higher tiered than a Blood Ancestor's! Also, it serves as a kryptonite to us Blood Descendants. That's why I suffered massive damage even though I only touched a small amount of it!"

"Are you kidding?" The Tyrant Dragon King was even more skeptical now. "The Blood Descendants are above everyone... even above demigods! You're saying that master's blood is way stronger than a Blood Descendant? Doesn't that make master a Daluo Golden Immortal?"

Gordon frowned. "I don't know exactly. I'm not very sure! But that's the truth right there! How can we not believe it?"

"I still don't believe it!" The Tyrant Dragon King said.

"Gordon is right! Way before this, back in Paradise Island, a Blood Descendant called Damien had already drained me of my blood!" Chen Xiaobei said. "Now, what's flowing in my veins is actually the blood of a Primordial Ancient Witch Dragon! My arteries are the Primordial Ancient Witch Dragon's blood veins!"

The last time he was on Paradise Island, Chen Xiaobei fell into Damien's trap, and his whole family was killed. Everyone on the island was subsequently murdered!

Luckily, the Prime of Tongtian was able to send a Red Envelope which contained a drop of Primordial Ancient Witch Dragon's Blood found in a void.

Chen Xiaobei's drained and shrivelled body was able to rejuvenate within seconds. With the help of the Sunlight Cache, he was able to finally resolve that frightening disaster!

That was why the blood in Chen Xiaobei's body was no longer human!

"Primordial Ancient Witch Dragon's blood!" Gordon and the Tyrant Dragon King exclaimed in surprise.

Chen Xiaobei nodded. "I heard Sifu mention that Primordial Ancient Witch Dragon was originally a Black Dragon. It joined the witch tribe and cultivated itself until it became the Ancient Witch God! Its blood can be considered a Nine-star Divine Item! It's totally understandable that it is more powerful than the blood of Blood Ancestor!"

The Tyrant Dragon King's eyes lit up. "If that's the case, master won't need to use some stupid Blood Ancestor's blood at all! He can even handle greater Dark Powers than a Blood Ancestor!"

"You're right!" Gordon smiled painfully. "Why didn't you tell us that you have such powerful blood running within you..."

"Err..." Chen Xiaobei wiped of the beads of sweat on his forehead. "Since I did not use my Witch Dragon Transformation Skill for a long time, I didn't know that it will cause you to suffer."

"No! Not at all!" Gordon shook his head. "Being able to help master would be my greatest honor!"

Chen Xiaobei nodded. "Well then... I'll just borrow Xiao'er's Special Ability and eat the Bryans' Dark Neutron. Then I can use the Astral Projection Special Ability!"

"That's right!" Gordon was excited. "With this Special Ability, master can find all sorts of undiscovered treasures in Emperor Qin's mausoleum, and fill up his pockets!"

"It's not going to be as simple as you think!" Chen Xiaobei shook his head. "Emperor Qin was the first Emperor ever. His tomb contains the world's largest treasures! I'm not the only person looking for it! There are many powerful forces searching for his tomb! On top of that, I have many enemies, and there are already six big forces forming an 'Anti-Bei Alliance'. If I open Emperor Qin's tomb, this alliance will expand! We still don't know who will have the last laugh!"
