Chapter 4251: The purple Qi!

Hongjun was indeed the confidant of the way of heaven. He was very cautious and decisive.

He had realized that Chen Xiaobei was up to something, so he decided to act and kill the danger before it could happen.

As long as he could destroy Chen Xiaobei and old Feng's cultivation, Hongjun would be able to rest easy.

It wouldn't be too late to slowly ask him then.

"Shit! Hanxi! Quickly hide behind daddy!"

Chen Xiaobei could not wait any longer. His first plan had clearly failed, so he had to resort to the second plan.

That was to take out the Saint devouring Dao axe and cast the power of the heaven marrow drop at the risk of the magic treasure shattering.

This was the only way he could ensure his and his daughter's safety.

But!

Chen Xiaobei had not told little Chen Xi about the heavenly marrow drop plan.

So, from little Chen Xi's point of view, getting mad to imitate her was the only way to resolve the danger.

At this moment of life and death, Chen Xi's four-year-old mind didn't think much.

At this moment, she only wanted to protect her father.

"Whoosh ..."

Little Chen Xi ignored Chen Xiaobei's warning and used the one word Saint destroyer incantation in the wrong way.

"Hanxi!" Chen Xiaobei's face contorted in shock.

However, it was all too late.

A black "Wu" word appeared beside little Chen Xi.

She had already used the wrong method to activate the one word Saint destroyer curse.

"Whoosh ..."

At the same time, old crazy finally understood. He circulated his Saint Qi and mimicked little Chen Xi, using the wrong method to circulate the one word Saint destroyer incantation.

A black 'Wu' word appeared.

“Hanxi! Hold on!”

Chen Xiaobei’s heart was burning with anxiety, but he was still extremely calm.

Chen Xiaobei then brought little Chen Xi into the heaven and earth fetal membrane.

“Boom boom boom ...”

Hongjun arrived and his power hit the embryo membrane of heaven and earth, but he was still half a step too late.

uh ... Uh ah!!!

At the same time, old Feng let out a painful howl. His entire face was twisted, and the veins on his body bulged like earthworms, rolling under his skin.

His skin turned dark purple, and his eyes were as red as blood.

“Qi ... Qi deviation?”

Hongjun was stunned and looked at old crazy in disbelief.

“Ah!”

Old Mad was like a crazy beast. He pounced on Hongjun and entangled him.

At this moment, crazy old man’s body was under an unimaginably huge pressure.

Hongjun, who was the only one present, naturally became the target of old crazy’s anger.

“Release me! Let me go!”

Hongjun was anxious. He immediately activated the evil technique and raised his pseudo realm to the peak of one star Saint Emperor.

This almost exhausted all of Hongjun’s life. Moreover, he could only stay in this pseudo realm for a short ten seconds.

If old crazy was in his normal state, he would have been killed by Hongjun in ten seconds.

However, old Feng had already lost his mind and entered the state that Chen Xiaobei had planned.

This state was body explosion!

BOOM! BOOM!

Then, a terrifying explosion occurred.

Old crazy’s body exploded like the Big Bang of the universe. The power was terrifying to the extreme, even exceeding the power of old crazy’s cultivation.

Back then, even a peak one-star Saint Emperor weapon was destroyed by this explosion.

At this moment, Hongjun was just a peak one-star Saint Emperor in the pseudo realm.

His body couldn't reach this level of strength at all, so he was only relying on his protective Saint Qi to support it.

“Uh ...”

As the power of the explosion crushed down, Hongjun's protective Saint Qi cracked like the Holy Cross armor.

The power of the explosion penetrated through the cracks and instantly turned Hongjun's body into ashes.

“Whoosh ...”

However, Hongjun was also a ruthless man.

Under such circumstances, he could still make the right decision, which was to gather all his Saint Qi to protect his Yuan Shen.

This Saint Origin Energy could last for ten seconds, which was enough to last until the explosion ended.

The Saint Origin Energy was still being crushed by the pressure of the explosion, and cracks were forming.

However, Hongjun had concentrated all his Saint origin power on a small point, like a huge ball of Saint origin power, which protected his primordial spirit in the center.

Therefore, the cracks in the Saint Origin Energy continued to form layers of barriers and protection.

Ten seconds later, although Hongjun's primordial spirit was severely injured, he managed to keep it and was not destroyed.

“Damn it ... Damn it! Chen Xiaobei! This Lord will not share the same sky as you!”

Hongjun's primordial spirit was extremely weak. He had used up all his energy to curse Chen Xiaobei.

Without a doubt, Chen Xiaobei's plan had cost Hongjun everything!

His body was destroyed, his lifespan was exhausted, and even his primordial spirit was on the verge of destruction.

He, Hongjun, was not a real Saint Emperor. Without his Saint Soul, he could not reincarnate his body and soul and recover completely.

This was the final outcome of Hongjun.

It would be difficult for Hongjun to recover to his peak state even after another trillion years.

This made Hongjun hate Chen Xiaobei.

However, Hongjun also knew that it was useless to curse. He had to reduce the loss as much as possible.

my storage space ... I must get my storage space back!

Hongjun dragged his severely injured primordial spirit and began to search the surroundings carefully.

Due to the terrible explosion just now, Hongjun's storage space had disappeared. It might have even been sucked into a space crack.

He had to get Hongjun back. Otherwise, his life would be over.

.....

Within the embryo membrane of heaven and earth.

"Hanxi! Wei Xi, what's wrong with you?"

Chen Xiaobei's heart was on fire, and he was on the verge of breaking down.

He had just reunited with his daughter, and he absolutely couldn't accept his daughter's Qi deviation.

"Dad, I'm fine!"

Little Chen Xi smiled slightly, looking very optimistic. However, in reality, her little face was already pale, and her skin was starting to turn dark purple, with veins bulging like earthworms.

That's right!

This was the prelude to a body explosion!

Little Chen Xi was not crazy. Once she exploded, she would be destroyed. Even if Chen Xiaobei had some heaven-defying means, he would not be able to save her!

"Hanxi! You can't ... You can't ... Nothing can happen to you!"

Chen Xiaobei's face contorted.

At this moment, his mental state was suffering from immense pain and torture, even to the point of completely collapsing.

He wished he could exchange his life for his daughter's.

"Daddy ..."

Xiaobei! little Chen Xi called out to Chen Xiaobei one last time before she slowly closed her eyes.

don't!!!

Chen Xiaobei's eyes were bloodshot and he was about to explode.

"Whoosh ..."

However, at this moment, a wisp of purple gas suddenly came out of little Chen Xi's body and slowly revolved around her body.

A miracle happened!

The state of little Chen Xi's Qi deviation was suppressed.

She didn't explode!

Then, something even more amazing happened.

Chapter 4252: Good things come in pairs!

4252 Good things come in pairs!

“Whoosh ...”

Surrounded by the purple Qi, another ray of light emerged from little Chen Xi’s body and covered her.

Immediately after, the black wordless that little Chen Xi had condensed at the end gradually shrank and then completely disappeared.

At the same time, her state of Qi deviation completely disappeared.

His skin color returned to normal, and his complexion had completely recovered.

It was as if nothing had happened.

this ... This is!?

Chen Xiaobei gasped, “This is Lingshi’s Natal purple Qi and the candle Dragon’s Time rule!”

That’s right!

On the day of Chen Xiaobei and Luo puti’s wedding, Chen Xiaobei’s good friends had given him many gifts.

Emperor river’s space law, candle jiuyn’s time law, Yan Lingshi’s Natal purple Qi, Luo Yi’s immortal-killing sword Qi, and so on ...

These gifts were then transferred into little Chen Xi’s body through Chen Xiaobei’s bloodline.

Therefore, little Chen Zhao was born with the corresponding ability.

In fact, little Chen Xi also had the witch Dragon bloodline.

Among these gifts, the most miraculous one was Yan Lingshi’s Natal purple Qi.

Back then, in order to protect Chen Xiaobei, Yan Lingshi did not hesitate to sacrifice her reputation.

It was Yan Lingshi’s Primal Chaos purple Qi that had allowed her to be reborn.

Even though she did not give Chen Xiaobei her true form, the primordial violet Qi, it was a wisp of her life-bound violet Qi.

This kind of Natal purple Qi was mostly used for concealment by Chen Xiaobei.

So, Chen Xiaobei did not know that when his reputation was in danger, this purple gas could also save his life.

And just now, little Chen Zhao’s life was hanging by a thread.

The appearance of the Natal purple Qi greatly eased the progress of her Qi deviation.

Immediately after, the Natal purple gas also helped little Chen Xi activate the candle Dragon's Time rule.

This state meant that he was completely healthy and would not affect his life at all.

In other words, not only did Yan Lingshi's Natal purple gas save little Chen Xi, but it also restored her to her best condition, without even the slightest injury.

Of course, this result was also partly to Chen Xiaobei's credit.

If he had not returned to the beixuan great world, the candle Dragon would not have been able to use his time laws!

After all, the time law in the heavenly Saint realm was completely different from that in the beixuan great world.

With little Chen Xi's cultivation, it was impossible for her to use the time law in the heavenly Saint realm.

Fortunately, Chen Xiaobei had brought little Chen Xi back to the beixuan great world, so that the time law could reverse the situation.

"Mm ..."

Soon, little Chen Xi opened her big watery eyes again. "Dad, where are we?"

Because time had been turned back, little Chen Xi had even forgotten a small part of her memory. This was even better, and she didn't have to worry.

"This is the beixuan great world. You've been here before, haven't you?" he said. Chen Xiaobei smiled, finally relieved.

After the baptism of pain and pressure, Chen Xiaobei's state of mind had once again been strengthened.

"Where's old Feng? Why is he not here?" Little Chen Xi asked.

"Oh, he's outside. Let's go find him now!" Chen Xiaobei raised his brows and immediately looked at the heaven Earth membrane that little Chen Xi had left.

.....

In the independent space.

"I found it ... I finally found it ..."

Hongjun's primordial spirit was extremely weak.

Fortunately, he managed to find his storage space after some effort.

For Hongjun, this was a blessing in a misfortune.

As long as he still had energy and resources, he would have a chance to rise again.

"I have to leave as soon as possible!"

Hongjun's primordial spirit took the storage space and flew toward the space gate.

Old Feng's body was almost completely recovered.

Hongjun didn't want to stay and face a terrifying expert who had lost his mind.

After all, Hongjun had lost his combat power. A sneeze from old crazy could kill him countless times.

"Old man Hongjun, where do you want to go?"

Suddenly, Chen Xiaobei's voice was heard.

Hongjun's body trembled, as if he had heard the voice of the Grim Reaper.

"Spare me ... Spare me ..."

Hongjun knew that he would not dare to challenge Chen Xiaobei in this situation.

"Don't worry, I won't kill you, but you have to become my dog!" Chen Xiaobei took out a White Lightning divine talisman.

I ... I ... Hongjun was in a dilemma, but he chose to compromise in the end, "I promise you ... As long as you let me live ..."

There was no doubt that Hongjun was very afraid of death.

He was willing to accept anything as long as he could survive.

"Whoosh ..."

Chen Xiaobei activated the White Lightning God-slaying talisman and controlled Hongjun's primordial spirit.

Then, he seized Hongjun's storage space and sent him into the Meru space.

At this moment, Hongjun's storage space not only contained his own things, but also situ yanglong's storage space and a small piece of situ yanglong's Saint Soul.

Originally, Chen Xiaobei had only planned to take away everything situ yanglong had!

He didn't expect that he would also gain everything from Hongjun!

What a pleasant surprise, good things come in pairs!

"Dad, quickly get old crazy some clothes to wear!"

On the other side, after old Feng's body recovered, he should have already forgotten about little Chen Xi.

However, the first person he saw was still little Chen Xi.

His original form was a brilliant ROC, similar to chicks and ducks. The first person he saw after birth was his mother.

Therefore, he was still submissive to little Chen Xi.

With the addition of little Chen Xi's candy attack, old Feng was once again subdued.

“Here!”

Chen Xiaobei took out a Daoist robe from Hongjun’s inventory and gave it to old Feng.

This Daoist robe was also a magic treasure, but its level was not high.

After all, Hongjun could easily step into the fake Saint Emperor realm, and the magic weapon was almost an external object.

“Let’s leave this place first!”

Chen Xiaobei brought little Chen Xi out of the isolated space.

Then, he returned to the beixuan great world in an isolated place.

Chen Xiaobei asked little Chen Xi to go play with Futian Xin ‘er and Xiao’ er.

As for Chen Xiaobei, he was about to start doing something big.

His first priority was to save Luo puti.

“Whoosh ...”

Chen Xiaobei released su mi and ao lengqiu from the Meru space.

Ao lengqiu glared at Chen Xiaobei.

However, Chen Xiaobei did not have the time to care about her. He went straight to the point, “Su mi, I have a question to ask you!”

“Speak, why be so polite?” Su mi said indifferently.

“I want to ask you how to use the heavenly marrow drop!” Chen Xiaobei then took out the Saint devouring axe.

“Heavenly marrow drop? Why do you have a heavenly marrow drop?” Su mi asked in confusion.

I managed to obtain 30 drops through some fortuitous encounters. After I fused them into the Saint devouring Dao axe, I became like this ... Chen Xiaobei showed su mi the Saint devouring Dao axe.

“This battle-axe’s body is too terrifying! It can actually withstand the pressure of 30 drops of heavenly marrow!” Su mi was extremely shocked and gasped in amazement.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4253: destiny descends!

“My master taught me how to use the heavenly marrow drop. I can teach you, but the problem is that I can only use three drops with my cultivation! Even if you learn it, you won’t be able to use a single drop ...”

Su mi pursed her lips and looked a little regretful.

“This ...”

Chen Xiaobei frowned and smiled wryly. It seems like I've made a huge mistake this time ... I can't use the heaven marrow drop after fusing with the Saint devouring Dao axe. I don't even dare to use it anymore ...

"Don't you worry!"

Su mi said, "next, we will head to the primordial chaos Heaven's Heart!" You probably don't know that the primordial chaos Heaven's Heart is the ancestral Holy Land of the Saint pan race, and the heaven Drop marrow comes from there! When we get there, your problem might be solved!"

you know where the primordial chaos Sacred Heart is!? Chen Xiaobei was excited.

"Of course I know!"

Su mi smiled. my mission is to assist Pangu's reincarnator. If I don't even know the location of the primordial chaos Heaven's Heart, how am I supposed to assist him? "

"Bring me there! I want to go now!" Chen Xiaobei said impatiently.

you ... su MI's brows furrowed and she said, " looking at you, you seem to have other motives!

"I need to have the ability to stop the sage Emperor! Only in this way can we make situ yang long tell us the truth!" Chen Xiaobei said.

It was obvious that situ yang long could reincarnate his body through the Saint Soul world and recover to his peak.

Of course, the process of rebirth and recovery was still relatively long.

Chen Xiaobei had to have a trump card to fight against the divine Emperor before situ yanglong recovered. Only then would he be able to force situ yanglong to tell the truth.

Only then could Luo puti 'an be saved safely.

"Who is situ yanglong? A Saint Emperor?" Su mi was a little surprised.

"Don't ask, it's not good for you to know too much!" let's go! Chen Xiaobei said. let's go to the heart of Hongmeng now!

"I have to send my daughter back first." Su mi said.

"No need to send me off! Staying in the beixuan great world is a hundred times safer than the Holy Dragon City. Besides, you can see her at any time!" Chen Xiaobei said.

"I don't want to stay in your territory!" Ao lengqiu protested in a spoiled manner.

"Qiu 'er! There's no room for discussion. We have to listen to bro bei!" Su MI's expression became serious and unquestionable.

mother ... ao lengqiu stomped his feet in anger.

Her own family was doing well. As a mother, she was helping outsiders. She had not been able to live well.

Objection Overruled.

Ao lengqiu was forced to stay behind.

Chen Xiaobei and su mi left the beixuan great world.

When they returned to the real world, su mi broke through the void and brought Chen Xiaobei straight to the heart of Hongmeng.

“Whoosh ...”

Soon, the two of them arrived at a place filled with ruins.

No one knew how long it had been abandoned, but the corners of the ruins had been flattened by the wind and sand, and the earth was covered with new plants.

There was no saint Origin Energy here, so no one would come here. Even animals would not stay here.

Over the years, only green grass and trees were left.

The sun shone down, and it was warm and harmonious. It was quiet and pleasant, and it gave off a different feeling of a paradise.

“Whoosh ...”

In an unremarkable corner.

Su mi used a secret technique of the Saint pan race to open a space gate.

no wonder no one knew about the primordial chaos Heaven’s Heart. It had always been hidden in such an unremarkable place.

Chen Xiaobei sighed and entered the space gate with su mi.

“Whoosh ...”

After the spatial teleportation, the two of them appeared in a dream-like scene.

A legendary divine spring was floating in the sky.

The spring water glowed with nine colors of spiritual light, which was brilliant and beautiful.

At the bottom of the spring.

A drop of green liquid hung on it. It looked like it was going to fall, but it didn’t fall for a long time.

That’s right!

This was the divine spring that Fuxi had mentioned!

Every drop of heavenly marrow would require 6.48 billion years!

Right now, this drop seemed to be on the verge of falling. In fact, it would take another two to three billion years before it would fall!

He looked down at the drops of heavenly marrow.

One could see a round plate that was emitting this purple light.

This round disc was located right below the heaven Drop marrow.

In other words, every drop of heavenly marrow that fell would land on this round plate.

This was quite terrifying!

One had to know that every drop of heavenly marrow could erupt with a power that could penetrate the heavens and earth.

If Fuxi took all the heavenly essence drops, that would be 30 drops.

In other words, this round plate that was emitting a purple light could perfectly withstand the pressure of 30 drops of heavenly marrow.

Moreover, 30 drops was definitely not the upper limit.

It could even be assumed that no matter how many drops of heavenly marrow fell on it, this purple disc would not break.

“If I can fuse this purple disc into the Saint devouring Dao axe, I should be able to resolve the danger of my magic treasure shattering.”

Chen Xiaobei was quick-witted and immediately made the connection.

However, Chen Xiaobei did not take action immediately.

“Su mi, what should I do next?” Chen Xiaobei asked.

“I’m not sure. My master only told me that if a reincarnator of Pangu comes here, he will be able to obtain the opportunities left behind by the ancestor. Su mi said, “why don’t you try condensing the true body of Pangu?” Prove that you are a reincarnator of Pangu!”

“Alright!” Chen Xiaobei nodded and immediately formed his Pangu true form.

Whoosh ... Whoosh ...

Indeed, it was just as su mi had guessed. After the true body of Pangu was formed, the entire space started to experience a huge change.

The divine spring in the sky and the glowing purple disc flew up and headed toward Chen Xiaobei.

“Whoosh ...”

At the same time, the chaos mark in Chen Xiaobei’s body also flew out.

“Shua shua ... Shua shua ...”

Then, from the round plate, a total of 33 primordial violet vapor shot out!

The primordial violet vapor had completely fused into the chaos seal.

whoosh ... Whoosh ... Whoosh ...

Then, the grade-twelve Green Lotus of reincarnation bloomed, and the immortal mark appeared! The grade-twelve Golden Lotus of merit bloomed, and the Buddhist mark emerged! The grade-twelve red karmic fire Lotus bloomed, and the netherworld Dao seal appeared! The grade-twelve Black Lotus of destructions bloomed, and the demonic mark appeared!

“Chi ...”

In the end, the heaven punishing Purple Lotus rose by three grades and bloomed to the twelfth grade. The human path imprint appeared!

“Whoosh ...”

Then, the five grade-twelve divine lotuses and the five marks merged together.

It formed a complete chaos seal of Saint pan!

Under the light of the mark, Chen Xiaobei suddenly felt a very comfortable feeling.

“Whoosh!”

All of a sudden, the Saint Qi in Chen Xiaobei’s body began to fluctuate and rise rapidly. Then, it stabilized at a height that far exceeded its previous height!

That’s right!

Chen Xiaobei had broken through a small realm!

However, this was only a small beginning!

The opportunity was still continuing!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4254: crazy leveling!

“Whoosh ...”

Under the light of the chaos mark, Chen Xiaobei’s Saint vitality was still rising.

Soon, he broke through another minor realm.

[ding Yingying’s cultivation: pinnacle of five-star true sage. Lifespan: 1990 billion trillion years!
Primordial spirit attack-peak true sage level!

However, Chen Xiaobei’s Saint Qi soon calmed down.

There seemed to be no other changes in the surroundings.

Chen Xiaobei was a little confused.

He was even a little disappointed.

He had spent a lot of effort, going through the six major Alliance clans, and finally retrieved the primordial violet vapor from the ancestors of the six clans.

At this moment, he had finally arrived at the primordial chaos Heaven's Heart.

Could it be that the great opportunity that the Saint pan clan had left for the reincarnator of Pangu was only the advancement of two minor realms?

"No! It won't end here!"

you're right! at that moment, su mi immediately said, " in the past trillion years, you're the only Pangu reincarnator who has reached the primordial chaos Heaven's Heart!

"It can be said that you are the only hope of the Saint pan clan! Therefore, the inheritance here will be the best the Saint pan clan can give you!"

"Use all your energy! The more the better! Don't hold back!"

As su mi spoke, she took the initiative to retreat.

It was very obvious that her master had roughly told her about the opportunities of the primordial chaos heavenheart.

"Take out all my energy? What can I get?"

Chen Xiaobei frowned.

After all, Chen Xiaobei had a peak one-star Holy Emperor-level Holy Meridian in his hands!

With this energy, Chen Xiaobei could use all the magical treasures and formations below this level at will. He could even merge the territory of the heavenly Saint realm into the beixuan realm!

Chen Xiaobei would not use up such a huge amount of energy.

If he did not get enough in return, Chen Xiaobei would rather not have this opportunity.

"You've obtained an unimaginable Saint Emperor level inheritance! Of course, what you can achieve in the end will depend on how much energy you can contribute and the level of your talent!"

Su mi said,"I've seen your talent and it can be said to be the most outstanding talent I've seen in the Beyond heaven Saint realm!" So, as long as you can provide enough energy, the result of the inheritance will definitely make you feel that it is worth it!"

"Saint Emperor level inheritance?" alright! Chen Xiaobei said, " I'll give it a try!

Chen Xiaobei could not help but think of the LAN family's heritage.

After LAN Mengcheng had obtained the inheritance, she had consumed a lot of energy to attain her current cultivation level of three stars Saint King.

So, Chen Xiaobei decided to give it a try.

"Whoosh ..."

Chen Xiaobei released the five star Saint King level energy that he had obtained earlier.

“Swish!”

The light of the Pangu chaos seal shone down again.

“Boom boom boom ...”

Then, the Saint Qi in Chen Xiaobei’s body began to surge like a volcano.

A major realm breakthrough! Six-star true sage!

Six-star true sage, early stage ... Middle stage ... Late stage ... Peak ...

A breakthrough to Seven Star true sage!

Seven Star true sage ... Intermediate ... Advanced ... Peak ...

He had broken through to the eight-star true sage realm!

Eight-star true sage ... Intermediate ... Advanced ... Peak ...

He had broken through to the nine-star true sage realm!

Nine-star true sage ... Intermediate ... Advanced ... Peak ...

[ding Yingying’s cultivation: pinnacle of nine-star true sage. Lifespan: 100 trillion years! Primordial spirit attack-peak true sage level!

boom boom boom ... Boom boom boom ...

At the same time, the Saint Qi in Chen Xiaobei’s body was still vibrating.

It was as if he was eager to break through the bottleneck and step into the Saint King realm.

However, this bottleneck seemed to have blocked the power of the inheritance.

“Bro bei! Pangu’s chaos mark was not high enough! Let it absorb some energy first!” Su mi continued to remind him.

“Alright!”

Chen Xiaobei controlled the Pangu chaos seal and began to absorb the energy around him.

The Pangu chaos mark was also at the peak true sage level.

Only by upgrading the Pangu chaos mark could Chen Xiaobei continue to break through to the next realm.

Hua ... Hua ... Hua ... Hua ... Hua ... Hua ...

The five Saint lotuses started to absorb the energy around them.

These five grade-twelve divine lotuses were all at the peak of the true Saint realm, which meant that they had used up five times the energy.

Of course, this expenditure was definitely not a waste.

If Chen Xiaobei were to cultivate on his own, he would be stuck at the bottleneck of every major realm, wasting a lot of time and energy.

However, as long as the level of the Pangu chaos mark increased ...

There was no bottleneck for Chen Xiaobei to break through to the next realm.

Therefore, paying five times the energy was in exchange for Chen Xiaobei's time and energy.

In exchange for a breakthrough that ignored bottlenecks.

It was definitely worth it!

“BOOM!”

He saw that each of the five Saint lotuses had reached the 36th grade.

The energy fluctuations of the Pangu chaos seal also underwent a qualitative leap, reaching the level of a one-star Saint King.

“BOOM!”

Immediately after, a terrifying fluctuation, as if Mars had hit earth, appeared.

Chen Xiaobei had broken through the bottleneck.

He had broken through to the Saint King realm!

[ding Yingying's cultivation base: early stage one star Saint King. Lifespan: 100 trillion years! Primordial spirit attack-peak true sage level!

“This feels so good! With enough energy, the Pangu chaos seal and I will be able to upgrade together! There's no bottleneck, so there's no need to wait. As long as there's energy, I can continue to improve!”

Chen Xiaobei released all the energy that he had been saving up.

“Whoosh!”

That's right! This energy was the one-star Peak divine Emperor level Holy Meridian that situ yanglong had just given to Chen Xiaobei!

With this Holy Meridian, Chen Xiaobei and the Pangu chaos Mark's level would continue to rise!

One star Saint King ... Intermediate ... Advanced ... Peak ...

A two star Saint King breaking through ...

A three stars Saint King breaking through ...

A four star Saint King breaking through ...

A five star Saint King breaking through ...

[ding Yingying's cultivation base: early-stage five stars Saint King. Lifespan: A million trillion years!

At the same time, the Pangu chaos seal had also reached the level of an early-stage five star Saint King!

"Phew ..."

Finally, Chen Xiaobei let out a long sigh of relief after a wave of crazy upgrades.

All the energy in the surroundings had been completely consumed.

Chen Xiaobei was very satisfied with the result. "This is too good! I still have Hongjun and situ yanglong's storage space. There should still be energy in it, so I can continue to upgrade!"

In the past, Chen Xiaobei did not dare to accept other inheritances because he was worried that it would conflict with the inheritance of the Saint pan clan.

Therefore, the speed of cultivation was very slow.

Today, Chen Xiaobei finally got to experience the feeling of leveling up like crazy!

It felt so good!

However, at that moment, su mi suggested, "Let's slow down! Don't waste any more energy!"

"Why?" Chen Xiaobei was confused.

"Look up there!" Su mi raised her hand and pointed at the divine spring that was floating above the space.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4255: Saint Emperor's relic!

4255 Saint Emperor's relic!

"What's wrong?"

Chen Xiaobei looked up.

He saw that the area of the divine spring had shrunk a lot, and its light had dimmed.

"This holy spring is the core of the Hong Meng Sacred Heart, and it contains the inheritance power of the Saint pan clan! However, the power of the inheritance is too terrifying, and it has almost reached the limit of the Holy spring's capacity!"

Su mi explained, "this is like a balance scale. Originally, you used up some of your inheritance power to reduce the pressure on the Holy spring! However, this will also cause the balance to shake!"

"The divine spring has reached its limit! If the 'shaking' is too intense, the Holy spring might collapse!"

once the divine spring collapses, the entire space of the primordial chaos heaven heart will collapse as well. You will also lose the remaining power of the inheritance!

“I see!” that’s enough! Chen Xiaobei nodded and said, “ I’ve improved enough today. It’s enough for me to sweep the southern region martial arts competition! I’ll continue to upgrade after the divine spring calms down! Anyway, I can shatter the void with my steps and come back at any time!”

Now, Chen Xiaobei was a Holy King! It could shatter the void by itself!

As long as he had the energy, he could come back at any time and continue to upgrade.

Therefore, there was no need to rush.

There was also another important problem. Now that Chen Xiaobei’s cultivation had increased, he still needed some energy to cultivate the one word Holy extermination curse!

This cultivation technique could be said to be quite heaven-defying.

To a certain extent, cultivating the one word Saint destroyer curse was even more important than improving one’s cultivation.

Therefore, Chen Xiaobei accepted su Mi’s suggestion to reserve the remaining energy in his hand and not use it all up.

“Oh right! Just now, the round plate formed by the 33 primordial violet vapor was supposed to catch the heaven Drop marrow! Now that I’ve absorbed the primordial violet vapor and the round plate has disappeared, there shouldn’t be any effect, right?”

Chen Xiaobei asked.

“I won’t!”

“There are still a few hundred million years before the next drop of heaven marrow falls!” Su mi said indifferently.

“What is this heavenly marrow?” Chen Xiaobei asked. Why is it dripping from the divine spring?”

actually, the heaven Drop marrow is the essence of the Saint pan clan’s inheritance power! Su mi said,“from an invisible energy to a tangible energy form, this is the essence of energy and also the form of energy!”

“Conjuring form?” Chen Xiaobei was very smart and immediately made the connection, “ “Ordinary power is invisible and formless! The power that was further sublimated would reveal a Dharma! And a more powerful force will blast out a physical object!”

“That’s right!”

Su mi said,“at the later stages of the Saint Emperor realm, one’s power sublimates to become real! If you have a mountain in your heart, a punch can create a real mountain range! At the peak of Saint Emperor, you can create an independent world with the snap of a finger!”

it’s so powerful ... Chen Xiaobei could not help but sigh.”According to what you’re saying, the divine spring has probably absorbed the power of a late Saint Emperor. As long as I have enough energy, I won’t encounter any bottlenecks before I reach that level!”

“That’s right!” Su mi nodded her head and reminded, “ “However, this might consume a huge amount of energy! After all, before you can upgrade, you need to spend five times the energy to upgrade the chaos mark first!”

“That’s not a problem!” it’s really easy! Chen Xiaobei raised his eyebrows. collecting energy is much easier than breaking through the bottleneck!

Before this, Chen Xiaobei had been cultivating step by step, so he knew the effects of a cultivation bottleneck.

A bottleneck could hold Chen Xiaobei back for a very long time, knowing that it would still bring him danger and trouble.

Now that he had the heart of Hongmeng, Chen Xiaobei did not have to worry about the bottleneck until he reached the later stages of the Holy Emperor level.

With energy, he could soar.

“Now, let me see how much energy I have left!”

Chen Xiaobei then took out Hongjun’s inventory.

“No way, just this little bit?”

After checking it, Chen Xiaobei could not help but frown in disgust.

Hongjun’s storage space only had 100 million Saint origin Mystic crystals. It was not even enough for Chen Xiaobei to crack his teeth.

It was simply too shabby.

However, on second thought, this was not strange.

Because Hongjun had enough life, he could reach the pseudo realm of peak one star Saint Emperor.

In other words, all the magic weapons or Trump cards under this level were meaningless to Hongjun.

In that case, he did not need to carry too much energy.

Or rather, the ‘energy’ he carried was his lifespan.

There were not many other things in Hongjun’s storage space except for the Saint origin Mystic Crystal.

There were a total of five items, and two of them were not even his.

The first was situ yang Long’s storage space, and the second was the Saint Soul that situ yang long had left.

In addition to these two items, there were only three items in Hongjun’s storage space that belonged to him.

The first item was a golden skull.

It had no spirituality, no special abilities, and its surface was smooth and slender. It looked like a simple piece of art.

“What is this?”

Chen Xiaobei was confused and took out the skull.

“Bang!”

Chen Xiaobei was unable to hold onto the skull, and it fell to the ground.

It actually cracked the ground.

Oh no!

This was the primordial chaos Heaven’s Heart, and the ground wasn’t the real ground. It was the spatial wall of the independent space!

In other words, this golden skull was so heavy that even Chen Xiaobei, a five star Holy King, could not hold it steadily. It was able to break the wall of the Sacred Heart of Kong Hongmeng just by landing on the ground.

Terrifying.

It was incomparably terrifying.

Chen Xiaobei and su mi were both stunned.

“This ... This might be the skull of a Saint Emperor!” Su mi made a bold guess.

“The skull of a Saint Emperor? Why did Hongjun bring this thing with him?” Chen Xiaobei was confused.

“The heavenly sanctuary has the habit of refining the corpses of divine emperors!” Su mi said, “refining a Saint Emperor’s corpse will allow you to obtain a Saint Emperor Mystic resin of the corresponding level. It’s the same as the Qilin’s corpse, it’s a huge help to cultivation!”

“So, what you mean is that this skull bone has not been refined yet?” Chen Xiaobei said.

“No! It’s not that I didn’t have time to refine it, but I couldn’t!”

Su mi said, “usually, after a Saint Emperor’s corpse is refined, there would be some Saint Emperor relics left behind!” For example, the bones of the fingers, the teeth, and so on! These Saint Emperor relics are extremely hard and usually can not be refined!”

“Extremely hard? Can’t be refined?” Oh? ” Chen Xiaobei raised his eyebrows. this is what I need the most!

Chen Xiaobei then took out the Saint devouring axe.

“What do you want to do?” Su mi was a little surprised.

“Use local materials to repair my super trump card!” Chen Xiaobei then activated the Saint devouring axe and swallowed the Golden skull.

Chapter 4256: Double fusion!

4256 Double fusion!

“Don’t worry! I’m only guessing and can’t be sure that this is a Saint Emperor relic! After all, I’ve never heard of an entire skull being a saint Emperor relic!”

Su mi panicked and quickly tried to stop Chen Xiaobei.

After all, most of the Saint Emperor relics were small objects like finger bones or teeth.

However, the entire skull was golden in color.

It might not even be a Saint Emperor relic.

“Who cares if it is! As long as it’s sturdy enough to repair the Saint devouring Dao axe, that’s enough!” Chen Xiaobei shrugged nonchalantly.

After all, the Saint devouring Dao axe wouldn’t give him a stomachache.

As long as it was something good, he would finish it. Who cared what it was?

“Whoosh ...”

Then, the Saint devouring Dao axe began to undergo a special change.

A golden illusionary skull appeared on the body of the axe as if it was spurting out sword energy. It was burning with golden flames and looked very cool.

Crack ... Crack ...

Then, the scene that Chen Xiaobei wanted to see the most appeared.

The cracks on the Axe’s surface were filled with golden lightning. Not only did it repair the axe, but it also made the axe look even more majestic!

“Swish!”

Chen Xiaobei raised the Saint devouring axe and said with a surprised look on his face, “This really does look like a Saint Emperor relic! This is because the Saint devouring Dao axe has a special ability!”

“Special ability? What is it?” Su Mi’s face was filled with joy as she immediately asked.

“Create space!” “I thought the divine Emperor could create the world of the divine soul? The Saint devouring Dao axe now has the ability to create space!”

“What’s the use of this ability?” what? ” su mi was very puzzled, ” opening up an independent space doesn’t seem to be of much use, right? ”

“If it’s just to open up an independent space, then it’s really useless! However, if you can add a seal, it’s a different story!” Chen Xiaobei smiled.

“Add a seal?” Su mi still didn’t understand.

“Woof! Whoosh!”

Chen Xiaobei then took out two items.

“Whoosh ...”

First, Chen Xiaobei used the Saint devouring axe to swallow the beixuan Saint-sealing painting.

This way, the space created by the Saint devouring Dao axe would be like the space within the beixuan Saint-sealing painting.

Beixuan’s Holy seal painting had once fused with the mountain river Map.

At this moment, the Saint devouring Dao axe possessed the fusion ability of the two, which allowed it to forcibly draw enemies into a space and seal them up.

Of course, the sealing power of the beixuan Saint-sealing painting wasn’t strong.

So, Chen Xiaobei began to engrave the rune of the Saint trapping formation on the Saint devouring axe.

With that, the level of the seal had reached the level of a peak one star Saint Emperor.

At that moment, the Saint devouring Dao axe was at the peak of the Saint King level.

As long as there was energy to activate the special ability, it could seal all enemies below Saint Emperor. Furthermore, the enemy would never be able to escape.

If a one-star divine Emperor entered the space created by the Saint devouring axe, he would not be able to escape and would become Chen Xiaobei’s prisoner.

“I’ll try it now!”

Chen Xiaobei then took out situ yanglong’s inventory.

Compared to Hongjun’s storage space, situ yanglong’s wealth was much more abundant.

First of all, one billion Saint origin Mystic crystals was probably only his pocket money.

Then, there were two more peak one star divine Emperor powers.

It was obvious that he had prepared this energy for the auction, but he had not used it yet.

“Whoosh ...”

Chen Xiaobei took out a peak one star divine Emperor energy and injected it into the Dao pan divine devouring Dao axe.

“Chi ...”

Then, the runes engraved on the surface of the Saint devouring Dao axe began to glow.

From this, it could be seen that the Saint imprisoning formation had been officially activated.

“Swish!”

Then, Chen Xiaobei swung the Saint devouring Dao axe.

The blade of the axe tore a crack in the void as if it had torn open a spatial Rift, and an extremely terrifying suction force erupted.

It was like a black hole storm, capable of forcefully sucking in all enemies below Saint Emperor.

“Swish!”

Then, Chen Xiaobei took out the Saint Soul of situ yang Dragon.

Hongjun had gnawed on the Saint Soul until only the last leg was left, but it also contained extremely terrifying energy and unparalleled mysteries.

Chen Xiaobei then sent the Saint Soul into the Saint pan space created by the Saint devouring axe.

“Let’s go in!”

Chen Xiaobei and su mi followed them in.

In an instant, the space in front of him became extremely strange.

The earth still looked like the map of mountains and rivers, with mountains, rivers, sun, moon, and stars.

However, the sky was covered by dense black chains. It was as if the land was completely covered by a ball made of chains. No matter how much they flew, they couldn’t get out.

what a terrifying pressure ... Is this ... Is this the Saint pan space? ”

Su MI’s pretty face turned pale and her body couldn’t help but tremble.

Even though she was a seven stars Saint King, she still felt extremely suppressed in this space. She couldn’t help but feel afraid and couldn’t calm down at all.

“Situ yang long, come out!”

Chen Xiaobei looked down at situ yanglong’s Saint Soul.

you ... Who exactly are you?!

Situ yang Long’s terrified voice came from the Saint Soul.

It was obvious that even situ yanglong was deeply shocked by the Saint trapping formation’s power. He was so afraid that he did not dare to offend Chen Xiaobei.

Moreover, situ yanglong was extremely weak and could not fight at all. Even without the Saint trapping formation, he would not dare to provoke Chen Xiaobei.

“I’m Luo puti’s man!”

Chen Xiaobei stood there proudly, his tone extremely domineering.

Luo ... Luo puti!?

Situ yang long was shocked and said in disbelief, ” “How can such a weakling be related to you?”

In situ yanglong's eyes, Chen Xiaobei was extremely terrifying.

However, Luo puti was only a weak true Saint. In situ yanglong's eyes, she was like an ant.

"Cut the crap! Hand Luo Huan over immediately, or you'll regret it!" shut up! Chen Xiaobei scolded.

Luo ... Luo puti is still in the heavenly sanctuary. I ... I can't hand her over to you ... yanglong situ said awkwardly, " "Why don't you let me contact Brother Sheng? I'll get bro Sheng to bring Luo puti over!"

"Brother Sheng? Who's there?" Chen Xiaobei asked.

brother Sheng, Dongfang Yunsheng, he's my ... situ yang was like a woman and wanted to say something, but he stopped.

Needless to say, this Dongfang Yunsheng was situ yanglong's man.

do you think bro bei is stupid? "

Su mi couldn't take it anymore and directly shouted, " "The Dongfang Yunsheng you're talking about, his cultivation should not be below yours! You're obviously trying to harm bro bei by asking him to come!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4257: -scheming till I cry!

It was obvious that su MI's worries were completely reasonable.

Dongfang Yunsheng's strength was probably even stronger than situ yanglong's.

Once the two of them got in touch with each other, they would never send Luo puti back.

As long as Dongfang Yunsheng was smart enough, he could even use Luo puti as a hostage to threaten Chen Xiaobei.

Therefore, situ yanglong definitely had ulterior motives when he mentioned contacting Dongfang Yunsheng.

"I don't dare! I don't dare to ..."

Situ yanglong wailed, "my life is in bro bei's hands now!" If I hurt bro bei! How can I still live?

Chen Xiaobei made a decision, " "Sure, I'll let you contact Dongfang Yunsheng! Tell him to bring the person here!"

"Bro bei! We can't trust the enemy so easily!" Su mi panicked on the spot.

Although yanglong situ said it nicely, he was 10000% sure that he would not be honest.

If he was really allowed to contact Dongfang Yunsheng, the changes in the situation would be extremely huge, and it might even be completely out of control.

"It doesn't matter!" Chen Xiaobei's eyes were like the stars in the night sky, as if he could see through everything.

"No relationship?" Su MI's expression froze for a moment before she shut her mouth.

Even though su mi and Chen Xiaobei did not spend a lot of time together, she still understood Chen Xiaobei very well.

In su MI's eyes, Chen Xiaobei was extremely talented and intelligent. As long as Chen Xiaobei said something, no matter how exaggerated it sounded, he would do it.

So, since Chen Xiaobei had made his decision, su mi did not say anything more and just waited quietly.

"Thank you, bro bei! Then let me go to the real space, I'll contact Brother Sheng!" Yanglong situ said in embarrassment.

"No, I didn't say that I'll let you out!" "Give me your communication rune. I'll contact him for you!" Chen Xiaobei said.

this ... situ yang long hesitated.

I've given you a chance. If you don't want it, then don't blame me. Chen Xiaobei said.

"Alright ... I'll listen to bro bei!" Situ yang long said without much hesitation.

After all, in such a situation, the only one who could save him was Dongfang Yunsheng. No matter what, he had to send the news out first.

"Whoosh ..."

"Chi ..."

Chen Xiaobei kept the communication rune in his palm.

Then, he brought su mi out of the Saint pan space.

Then, he left the primordial chaos Sacred Heart.

He immediately took out his communication rune.

Situ yanglong (Chen Xiaobei), bro Sheng, save me!

Dongfang Yunsheng thought, "brother Dragon!?" What happened to you?

Situ yanglong (Chen Xiaobei): "I've been ambushed! Hurry up and bring Luo puti here! The other party wants to exchange Luo puti for me!"

Dongfang Yunsheng thought, Luo puti? The Saint lady?

Situ yanglong (Chen Xiaobei): It was her! Brother Sheng! Hurry up and save me! The other party said that if you don't come in an hour, you will destroy my body and soul. If you don't come in an hour, you will destroy my Saint Soul!

Dongfang Yunsheng, "don't be in a hurry!" What was his cultivation level? If I come here rashly, will I also be caught by the other party? After all, my cultivation base is only one minor realm higher than yours!

Situ yanglong (Chen Xiaobei): "he has the same cultivation as me! He used a trick to plot Against Me! Brother Sheng, don't be afraid. You can definitely defeat them!"

Dongfang Yunsheng: I'm relieved! However, I still can't bear to part with the Holy Lady!

Situ yanglong (Chen Xiaobei):

Dongfang Yunsheng said, "because I've already found out some clues about Saint Duke's ancestor's fortune. If I let her go now, all my previous efforts will be in vain."

Situ yanglong (Chen Xiaobei): You're too obsessed with opportunities! This matter was very simple! You can exchange Luo puti for me first, then kill the other party and take Luo puti back.

Dongfang Yunsheng, "yeah!" What kind of brain do you think I have? He thought about the opportunity every day and couldn't make a turn!

Situ yanglong (Chen Xiaobei): It was urgent!

Dongfang Yunsheng, "send me your location and I'll come over immediately!"

Situ yanglong (Chen Xiaobei)! I'll send it to you now! When you arrive, you will see a spatial Rift! Remember, you must enter quietly and not alert the enemy. It's best if you can sneak an attack on the enemy!

Dongfang Yunsheng thought, "a spatial crack?" Good! I'll remember it!

"Done!"

Chen Xiaobei smiled and immediately sent his current location to Dongfang Yunsheng.

"Swish!"

Then, Chen Xiaobei swung the Saint devouring Dao axe and opened the black hole crack that led to Saint Pan's dimension.

"Su mi! Let's go!"

Chen Xiaobei did not waste a second. He held su MI's hand and entered the Saint pan space.

Swoosh ... Swoosh ... Swoosh ...

Very quickly, the void shattered on the spot, and an extremely terrifying spatial fragment appeared.

Then, a man in green stepped out.

That's right!

This person was Dongfang Yunsheng!

He had a good relationship with situ yang long. After receiving the location, he immediately broke the void and came over!

Luo puti was locked up in his storage space and was not with him.

After all, although Dongfang Yunsheng was obsessed with opportunities and made himself look like a bookworm, his IQ was still online.

Dongfang Yunsheng would not release Luo puti if he did not see situ yanglong.

Furthermore, Dongfang Yunsheng wanted to sneak in and attack the enemy, so he naturally would not bring Luo puti with him.

“It should be this spatial Rift!”

Dongfang Yunsheng thought he was very smart and smiled, “The enemy was really careless. The spatial crack didn’t close, so brother Dragon had the chance to contact me! I’ll catch you off guard!”

“Swish!”

With that, Dongfang Yunsheng retracted his aura and charged into the black hole.

However, even if Dongfang Yunsheng had a hundred more brains, he would never have thought that he had already fallen into the pit that Chen Xiaobei had dug.

“Shua shua ... Shua shua ...”

Dongfang Yunsheng had just entered the Saint pan space and did not even have time to see the surrounding environment clearly before he was stunned.

In an instant, countless black chains descended from the sky.

It carried the sealing power of a peak one star Saint Emperor and in the blink of an eye, it wrapped around Dongfang Yunsheng like a mummy.

“What’s going on ... What’s going on?”

Dongfang Yunsheng’s face was filled with shock.

He was only a one star divine Emperor middle stage. Even if he used all his strength, he wouldn’t be able to move at all.

Chen Xiaobei and su mi slowly walked over.

“Bro bei! I’m really convinced by you! I’m sincerely convinced!” Su Mi’s beautiful eyes widened and her small mouth opened slightly. She felt as though she was in a dream.

Just a moment ago, she was still worried that Chen Xiaobei would fall into Dongfang Yunsheng’s trap.

Dongfang Yunsheng was already crying from Chen Xiaobei’s scheme.

Chapter 4258: The nine Meridian yin-yang ruler!

4258 The nine Meridian yin-yang ruler!

“Whoosh ...”

Chen Xiaobei then took Dongfang Yunsheng’s storage space.

“Swish!”

Luo puti was released by Chen Xiaobei.

She was still as beautiful as ever. She was at the peak of her beauty and had an excellent figure. Coupled with the gentleness and gentleness that was unique to mothers, it was as if her whole body was shining. She was completely worthy of the title of saintess.

“Xiaobei! Is ... Is that you? I’m not dreaming right?”

Luo puti was stunned.

“Of course it’s me!”

Chen Xiaobei smiled and pulled her into his arms.

He hugged her very, very tightly.

Thousands of words were spoken without a word.

“.....”

When she saw the scene in front of her, su mi suddenly felt a little sour in her heart.

Was he jealous?

This was the first time she had experienced such a feeling.

However, when she saw Luo puti, she knew that this beautiful woman was deeply in love with Chen Xiaobei. She was definitely worthy of Chen Xiaobei.

The bitterness gradually disappeared and was replaced by sincere blessings.

After that, Chen Zhan brought Luo puti into the beixuan great world. Little Chen Xi was also there.

The family of three could finally be reunited.

Chen Xiaobei was not in a hurry to leave. After all, he had never fulfilled his duty as a father.

This time, Chen Xiaobei stayed with the mother and daughter for seven whole days in the beixuan realm.

He threw all his worries to the back of his head, stopped cultivating, stopped calculating, and completely relaxed, enjoying the joy of a family reunion.

If he could, Chen Xiaobei wished that he could continue to live a simple and ordinary life.

However, this was obviously not realistic.

Before the ultimate threat of the sky burial Yuan sacred clan was resolved, all happiness and peace would not last long.

Perhaps one day, the heavenly axiom would find a way to invade the beixuan realm. By then, too much peace would completely destroy everything that Chen Xiaobei had.

Therefore, he had to stop being comfortable and continue on his journey.

The day Chen Xiaobei defeated the sky-burier Yuan Saint clan would be the day the entire beixuan world and the Saint pan clan would regain their freedom.

At that time, he would be able to truly enjoy life.

Soon after.

Chen Xiaobei and su mi left the beixuan great world.

There were only seven days left until the martial arts competition of the southern region.

Chen Xiaobei had to return to the southern region.

Of course, before that, Chen Xiaobei still had some things to do.

That was to continue counting the gains from the previous battle.

Hongjun still had two special items.

Other than that, situ yang long and Dongfang Yunsheng still had a large amount of energy and resources in their storage space.

Chen Xiaobei checked the two men's inventory.

He found 21 Saint origin Mystic crystals in total.

The total energy was equivalent to three peak one-star Saint Emperor Saint veins.

As for the other resources, there were Saint Emperor level pills, materials, and cultivation techniques. There were not many of them, but each of them was worth a city. If they were sold at the auction, they could exchange for a large number of Saint Emperor level sacred meridians.

He also found two Saint Emperor weapons.

Situ yanglong's Saint Emperor weapon was a one star Saint Emperor early stage nine embroidery needles.

Dongfang Yunsheng's Saint Emperor weapon was a Jade flute of a one star Saint Emperor middle stage.

Since these two Saint Emperor weapons corresponded to their cultivation, they could use their Saint Origin Energy without any extra energy.

As a result, the two Saint Emperor weapons were empty inside without any Saint Origin Energy.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei already had three peak one-star Holy Emperor-level energy. He could activate these two Holy Emperor weapons an infinite number of times.

However, Chen Xiaobei did not dare to use the two Holy Emperor weapons.

After all, there was a limited number of treasures like the Holy Emperor weapon. It was easy for people to recognize it.

Yanglong situ was one of the nine yang Saint emperors of the heavenly Saint region. He had eight brothers.

If Chen Xiaobei used situ yanglong's and Dongfang Yunsheng's treasures, he would be hunted down by eight even scarier divine emperors if they recognized him. Just thinking about it made his scalp tingle.

Therefore, even though Chen Xiaobei could use the two Holy Emperor weapons, he would not use them unless he had no other choice.

All in all, they were two hidden trump cards. They were very strong, but they could not be used casually.

In addition to the things mentioned above.

In Dongfang Yunsheng's storage space, there was an even greater harvest!

Those were the opportunities that he had collected over the years!

There were seven to Eight Treasure maps and some strange ancient tokens.

Chen Xiaobei counted the items. There were about 30 opportunities.

However, Chen Xiaobei did not ask Dongfang Yunsheng.

After all, these opportunities were fake and could not be confirmed.

More importantly, Dongfang Yunsheng might not tell the truth.

If he dragged Chen Xiaobei into the trap, he would be in great danger.

So, Chen Xiaobei decided to put these opportunities aside for now.

When he upgraded his heaven-peeking eyes, Chen Xiaobei would be able to look into Dongfang Yunsheng's memory. By then, he would be able to distinguish between the real and the fake.

Right now, the heaven peeking eye technique was still unable to pry into the sage Emperor's memories, so he could only wait a little longer.

Then, Chen Xiaobei looked at the last two items that Hongjun had.

First of all, it was a Jade ruler that looked like a continuous mountain range.

Upon closer inspection, the Jade ruler's black and grey color overlapped and stretched on for a long time. It had about nine mountain peaks.

nine mountain peaks?!

Chen Xiaobei was stunned.

Previously, Chen Xiaobei wanted to use the method of reincarnating Yin ghosts at the winter solstice festival to resurrect the billions of primordial spirits in Fengyan city back to their normal States.

However, sect leader Tongtian and the others only remembered the process of resurrection, but didn't know the specific method.

According to sect leader Tongtian, Hongjun had burned nine peak true Saint Holy meridians and used the nine mountains as sacrifices to the formation! After that, the yin ghosts entered the formation and quickly reincarnated into humans.

The Jade ruler that Chen Xiaobei had found might be related to the jiu tiao mountains.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei was too lazy to guess. He summoned Hongjun's primordial spirit.

At this moment, Hongjun's physical body was crippled and his primordial spirit was severely injured. Moreover, his life and death were controlled by the White Thunder God-killing talisman.

So, Chen Xiaobei was not worried that he would play any tricks.

"Tell me, What is this?" Chen Xiaobei presented the Jade ruler to Hongjun.

It's the nine meridians yin-yang ruler ... It's used to resurrect ghosts ... Hongjun answered honestly.

"Very good! I'm going to resurrect trillions of people right now!" Chen Xiaobei raised his eyebrows and said.

"Resurrect ... Resurrect trillions of people?" Hongjun was stunned. "Childe Chen," he said. "If you want to resurrect so many people, I'm afraid you'll have to consume a Saint Emperor's Holy Meridian ...

I owe them. It doesn't matter how much I consume! Chen Xiaobei's eyes were filled with determination.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4259: Returning to Fengyan city!

4259 Returning to Fengyan city!

Obviously, the yin ghosts that Hongjun had resurrected back then were only at the level of heaven Immortals. The strongest of them was only at the level of Sage-to-be. And there were far less than a trillion of them.

Therefore, Hongjun had only used nine peak true Saint Holy meridians.

But now, Chen Xiaobei was going to resurrect the people of Fengyan city. Not only were their cultivation levels high, but there were also many of them.

Therefore, he would need to consume at least one one star Saint Emperor level Saint vein.

In fact, it might not even be enough.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei did not care. After all, he now had three peak one-star divine Emperor energy.

Even if he had to pay one of them, Chen Xiaobei would not hesitate.

After all, it was because of Chen Xiaobei that the people of Fengyan city were massacred by Ning Tiansheng.

Chen Xiaobei was a man of honor.

Therefore, this matter had already been decided and was not to be doubted.

"Since young master Chen has decided, then I have nothing to say. When do we start?" Hongjun asked.

"Now!"

Chen Xiaobei brought Hongjun into the beixuan great world without hesitation.

During the winter solstice festival, the formation that Hongjun had set up was still at the 33rd level of the highest heaven.

Chen Xiaobei moved the formation to the northern profound world.

Then, the billions of primordial spirits in wind flame city gathered.

Chen Xiaobei threw the nine Meridian yin-yang ruler to Hongjun.

This magic weapon had no offensive power. It was just a celestial device for sacrifice and communication between yin and yang. It was no big deal to throw it to Hongjun.

Moreover, Hongjun's life was in Chen Xiaobei's hands. Even if he was given an attack-type magical treasure, he would not dare to have any evil thoughts.

“Whoosh ...”

Then, Hongjun started to activate the formation.

At the same time, Chen Xiaobei was supplying an endless stream of energy.

The nine Meridian yin-yang ruler underwent a huge change and gave birth to nine huge mountain ranges.

After that, the primordial spirits of the people from Fengyan city began to fly into the mountain range.

As the number of people increased, the energy consumption would also increase. Furthermore, the higher the cultivation level of the reincarnated people, the greater the energy consumption.

That was because, after reincarnation, although they could not retain their cultivation, they could retain their memories and talents.

It was their memory and talent that caused the energy consumption to skyrocket.

Of course, there was an advantage to this. After they reincarnated, they could rely on their memory and talent, as well as sufficient energy, to quickly raise their cultivation. It wouldn't take long for them to re-cultivate to the peak they once were.

Finally, all of them disappeared into the mountains.

After they reincarnated, they would appear in different corners of the beixuan great world.

By now, Chen Xiaobei had used up a third of the one-star pinnacle Holy Emperor energy. He then distributed the remaining two-thirds to the entire beixuan realm.

This energy could allow billions of people to cultivate quickly, and at the same time, it could greatly increase the concentration of Saint Origin Energy in the entire beixuan great world, allowing everyone to improve their cultivation quickly.

When Fengyan city was back to its peak state, Chen Xiaobei would no longer owe them anything. The knot in his heart could be untied.

When the cultivation of everyone in the beixuan realm was raised to a higher level, the amount of energy that Chen Xiaobei could get would also be increased.

In other words, Chen Xiaobei was returning the favor by sending the remaining two-thirds of his energy into the beixuan realm. It was also a long-term investment for his future.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei still owed him a bigger favor.

Even now, Chen Xiaobei was still unable to retrieve Jiuying's Holy Spirit!

This girl was also a part of the Fengyan city.

Furthermore, her body was destroyed by the enemy while she was trying to protect Chen Xiaobei.

And her identity was an extremely special Holy Spirit clan.

After her corporeal body was destroyed, she didn't have a primordial spirit.

According to the legends, her Sacred Spirit would enter the sacred Spirit world.

But!

If her Holy Spirit had entered the Holy Spirit world, why would there be a special fragrance that would alert Chen Xiaobei at critical moments?

No one had been able to answer this question.

That was why Chen Xiaobei had not given up on finding Jiuying's Holy Spirit.

Now that he had returned the favor to Fengyan city, Chen Xiaobei hoped that he could get Jiuying's Holy Spirit back, resurrect her, and return her to the life she once had.

Soon after.

Chen Xiaobei then left the beixuan great world with Hongjun.

Chen Xiaobei took out Hongjun's third item.

Chen Xiaobei had seen such an item before.

It was a Dragon-shaped oil lamp exactly the same as Ning Tiancheng!

Chen Xiaobei knew that the Dragon-shaped oil lamp was used to imprison the primordial spirit of others.

After reading through Ning Tiansheng's memories, Chen Xiaobei also knew that the heavenly Dao's evil technique of refining primordial spirit and converting lifespan was called "Yuan Sage's eternal curse".

This Dragon-shaped oil lamp was a magic weapon that could cast the 'Yuan Sage eternal curse'.

It wasn't strange at all that this thing appeared in Hongjun's hands.

What Chen Xiaobei wanted to know was, what would happen if I used this magical item to destroy the Holy Spirit's body?

"The Holy Spirit clan?"

Hongjun was stunned for a moment. I'm not sure, " he said awkwardly. I rarely have contact with the Holy Spirit tribe, so I didn't have the chance to try it ... But ... This celestial device only accepts the primordial spirit, not the Holy Spirit ...

"You won't accept any Holy Spirits?" if I don't take the Holy Spirit in, the Holy Spirit that has lost its body will probably ascend to the Holy Spirit realm! Chen Xiaobei said. Just like the ghosts that entered the underworld?"

yes, in theory ... Hongjun thought for a while and said, " "However, I've heard that the divine Spirit clan's abilities are extremely mysterious. Some of them can be resurrected! Some of the Holy Spirit race can retain their Holy Spirits and possess other living beings!"

"Rebirth? Possessed?" Chen Xiaobei started to plan, " I don't think so. After all, I've smelled the fragrance more than once ... It should be possession. Jiuying must have possessed a body somewhere!

"Who is Jiu Ying?" Hongjun was curious.

Chen Xiaobei ignored him and continued to plan, " "What kind of thing can emit such a special fragrance? Furthermore, it can be transported to different places?"

It was obvious that Chen Xiaobei had smelled the same fragrance in different places.

If the thing that jiuying had possessed had been following Chen Xiaobei around, he would have been able to see it.

Chen Xiaobei had not seen that thing.

In other words, the thing that jiuying had possessed might be related to the law of space. It could penetrate through different spaces and give Chen Xiaobei a hint at a critical moment.

Chen Xiaobei had an idea of what to do.

"Go! Return to the southern region immediately!"

Chen Xiaobei stepped into the void and returned to the southern region.

Fengyan city.

At this moment, this place was already in ruins.

Whether he could find jiuying or not, he would know today.

Chapter 4260: all-knowing divine Emperor!

He slowly walked through the ruins.

Chen Xiaobei carefully observed his surroundings.

However, it was clear that there were no traces of Jiu Ying left at the scene.

This was all within Chen Xiaobei's expectations. If it was easy to find jiuying, she would have shown up a long time ago instead of hiding.

According to his previous speculations, Jiuying's Holy Spirit should have possessed something related to the laws of space.

"Space?"

Chen Xiaobei's expression froze for a moment before he recalled, " back then, when Jiu Ying saved me, she pushed me into the space gate ... Her disappearance might be related to that space gate.

Chen Xiaobei immediately rushed to where the portal was.

Back then, Chen Xiaobei had gone down to Fengyan city's Holy vein to absorb the Saint Qi.

The array protecting the Holy Meridian of wind flame city had enveloped the Holy Meridian, so one could only enter and exit through the space gate.

At that time, Jiuying had pushed Chen Xiaobei into the portal and closed the door from the outside. She had also activated the protective circle.

But then, the formation couldn't bear ning Tiancheng's crushing and completely collapsed.

Correspondingly, the space gate should have also collapsed.

In the process of this collapse, it might have created a spatial crack or spatial turbulence.

Jiuying's Holy Spirit was swept into the chaotic space at this time. Then, in the chaotic space, it possessed something related to the laws of space.

"But, How can I find that spatial crack?"

Chen Xiaobei froze on the spot.

Although they had reached the space gate, the gate no longer existed. The space crack had closed, and they could not find it.

Moreover, even if he could find her, the chaotic space was like a maelstrom, and it was impossible to determine where Jiuying had been blown to.

But there was one thing that Chen Xiaobei was sure of!

Jiuying could see Chen Xiaobei at certain times, and that was why she could remind him.

"Where is she? You can see me? And it can send me a prompt across space?"

"Childe Chen, you're talking about the all-knowing divine Emperor's ability ..."

At this moment, Hongjun said embarrassedly.

"Omniscient divine Emperor? Who is that?" Chen Xiaobei asked.

he's the legendary omnipotent peak Saint Emperor who topped the heavenly Saint region Supreme ranking!

Hongjun said, 'a trillion years ago, the omniscient Saint Emperor was invincible! He knows the past and the future and can see all secrets. Although he's a peak divine Emperor, even some ordinary divine ancestors don't dare to mess with him!'

"Holy ancestor? Is he the legendary Supreme Chaos?" Chen Xiaobei asked.

"Yes! The sacred Emperor is the primal Chaos heavenly Lord, and above the sacred Emperor is the sacred ancestor, commonly known as the primal Chaos Supreme!" Hongjun said.

this omniscient divine Emperor is indeed powerful. Even some divine ancestors don't dare to provoke him! but ... Chen Xiaobei furrowed his brows. you just said that the all-knowing divine Emperor has a special ability. What's that about? "

Hongjun explained. the Saint Soul of the omniscient Saint Emperor mainly focuses on the space mark. He can cross the space and see everything he wants to see. He can also easily send his will to any space!

this ... Chen Xiaobei was shocked.

As expected, the ability of the omniscient divine Emperor was almost exactly the same as the nine infants.

There was a high chance that the nine neonate's Holy Spirit had possessed the omniscient Holy Emperor.

"Wait! That's not right!"

However, Chen Xiaobei quickly denied his own guess, " "The omniscient divine Emperor is so powerful. How could he be possessed by a mere Holy Spirit? This doesn't make sense!"

"No! It's possible!"

Hongjun said, " the omniscient Saint Emperor was powerful. However, he had discovered a secret that he shouldn't have. He provoked an extremely terrifying Saint ancestor. The Saint ancestor shattered the vacuum and killed him with one palm!

"Dead?" Chen Xiaobei could not believe it.

"He's dead! He's dead!" Hongjun said, " the power of the Holy ancestor is unimaginably strong. With one palm, the omniscient Saint Emperor died. Even his Saint Soul was completely destroyed. Nothing was left!

Oh? " Chen Xiaobei was confused. if that's the case, then the omniscient divine Emperor is no longer around. Why do you still say that Jiu Ying could have possessed his body? "

"I didn't say I possessed the omniscient divine Emperor! Instead, it might possess some of the relics of the omniscient Holy Emperor!" the omniscient Holy Emperor, " Hongjun said. he knows the past and the future. He must know when he's going to die!

you mean ... Chen Xiaobei said, " "Before he was killed, the omniscient Sacred Emperor had already made arrangements for his death?"

"That's right!"

Hongjun said, " there's a legend in the heavenly sanctuary. The omniscient divine Emperor hid everything he had in a special space, waiting for the right person to open it and pass on his legacy!"

"That's the inheritance of the omniscient divine Emperor?" Chen Xiaobei was shocked.

Peak divine Emperor! The top of the Supreme ranking list in the heavenly sanctuary.

Just thinking about the inheritance of such a super expert was enough to make one's scalp go numb and unable to calm down.

"Right! It's the inheritance of the omniscient divine Emperor!"

Hongjun said, " although this inheritance only exists in legends, it has attracted countless people. Even the way of heaven wants to get it!

Chen Xiaobei sighed and said, " everyone in the heavenly sanctuary wants it, but no one has been able to find it so far ... How can it be easy for me to find it? "

"It's indeed very difficult, but there's still a sliver of a chance!" Hongjun said, "didn't young master Chen say that miss jiuying can use a kind of fragrance to guide you?" If she could point us in a general direction, we might be able to find her!"

"How?" Chen Xiaobei quickly asked.

"Use the Holy battle armor!" Hongjun said, " as long as we follow miss jiuying's lead and build a space bridge, we can cross the space turbulence and find her exact location! .

Chen Xiaobei thought for a moment and said, " "This might be a good idea, but I can't get her to guide me unless she can hear what we're talking about and guide me ..."

this ... Hongjun was stunned and speechless.

Although his method was feasible, in the end, it still depended on Jiu Ying's guidance.

If jiuying did not guide them, the Holy Cross armor would not have a direction to build the bridge. In that case, all of his assumptions were just empty talk.

huh?!

But just as Chen Xiaobei was at his wits 'end, his expression changed drastically.

"Fragrance! It was this fragrance! It's nine Sakura who heard our conversation! She's looking at us! She's really looking at us!"

Chen Xiaobei was so excited that he took out the Saint devouring axe and the Holy armor.
