Chapter 110

"It's been a long time, my gorgeous Marina. Have you been well?"

A mix of emotions filled him at the moment. He felt both nervous and excited to speak with her again after so long. She turned to him again after she fixed her messy black hair and gave a wonderful smile to him.

"Fufu! I am well lord, did you have a good time in the north? How was that tournament? Did you enjoy their women?"

Marina asked questions with her mature and husky voice. She then moved around the room as if to look for something to cover her naked body. He enjoyed the shake and wobble of her various body parts.

"Hmmm, well, I have loved the city so far! I met a nice centaur, a cute orc and a weird mantis girl! The tournament was a little boring, I only got to fight one pretty girl! So let's pass on them next time. I always enjoy women, but prefer my women to theirs. Haha!"

She nodded at his words and gave up on finding her clothes. Marina could not see Alice dragged several of her clothes away with her sticky white webbing that threw them out of the window like a naughty child that then snickered.

"How are things going, Marina? Is the group doing well? Can I help with anything?"

Lucifer asked her as he stroked the white hair of the girl that skittered around his back. Sometimes her head was to his right, or under his arms. She seemed quite active and restless.

Marina came closer as she wiped her sweat with her normal arms. Her body gave off a delightful scent that Lucifer felt pleasant. He wondered if she would feel different from Alice while his face maintained a light smile.

"The group is doing well. We get around 2-3 small missions a week. There was a human client who wanted us to aid them in the attack on an Elven city. But we declined the mission. Then they insulted us, called me a disgusting spider freak and Mara would wipe us from Eruvia soon. So the girls captured them all and flayed the bastards to death."

'This naughty little girl! Just because she got laid!'

Marina felt a deep shame as he saw her most private crevice before she had the chance to maintain them to be neat. She saw the little white spider imitate her actions. Unlike normal spiders, Arachne could not use hydraulic pressure to propel their legs forward. They needed to improve their muscles, too.

"Huff...! Huff...!"

Alice gave small pants as she mocked her sister with press-ups on his back. She was unaware Marina skittered towards her at high speed.

Marina raise her arms to swat the bad girl on her head as she swung towards her. Lucifer knew they were not really mad at each other, but wanted to avoid their fight right now. He caught her arm as the slap of their skin sounded and pulled her into his embrace before she could react.

"Aah~ N-no!"

Lucifer kissed her neck with a powerful and rough smooch. His soft lips that pressed against her neck caused her to quiver and the rage vanished, replaced with delight and bliss. She lowered her head and rested her cheek on his soft hair, and rubbed against him in a lustful trance.

"Mmmn~ My lord! Not here, Alice can see..." Marina said with a cute voice that was higher pitched than normal.

Her spider legs twitched with a slight quiver as her ass wiggled from the delight as he drank her blood. She found the sound his mouth made as he drank was very sexy and rubbed her forward most legs against his exposed chest.

'Ahn~ husband! You are so bad... Before you were never this confident or sexy. How did you become so devilish? My lower body is in a crisis of flash floods!'

"Hehe, stupid sister! I can smell your nasty sex smell from here!"

Alice mocked her sister as she skittered around his back and checked underneath her sister with a giggle. She made a mistake as her spider body came close to a deadly predator range as he struck with a switch and calculated the attack.

"Uau!"

Her body floundered with intense spasms as she clasped tightly to his back. His fingers slid into her sticky hot entrance as copious amounts of her nectar drizzled out of the tight crevices. She covered her mouth with both her human hands and several spider legs.

She felt a pleasure that compared to when he stabbed deeply inside her. The human hole was nothing compared to this one. She felt the difference was over 10 times more sensitive, which caused her body squirmed frantically. Her love juice squirted in torrents after a few seconds of his fingers exploring her hot, nectar filled insides.

Her face filled with a pink hue as she let out a moan of delight and clung to his back. The mark on her breasts shone a dark purple hue, as if it also filled the mark with delight.

'Ah! How envious. Why is it only Alice?'

Lucifer released his mouth from Marina as blood dripped down his lips and cheek and he looked towards her with a gentle look.

Marina thought as she wished to get the same amount of love. Her spider ass raised near his free arm almost as she displayed her hot, sticky crevice that drooled with sweet honey to his face. She shook her body as the mature and pure act seemed to shatter when her lust shattered her normal persona.

"You have a cute little slit Marina, why is it so small despite your beautiful large ass?"

Lucifer gave her a gentle smile as his free hand slid along her soft, black body. His finger teased close to her forbidden garden that caused her body to shudder and move herself against his hand to nudge him close to her hole.

"Hmph! Husband, you know, you know and ask! Don't tease this pitiful woman anymore!"

"Haha! I cannot say that I don't. You have been on my mind since the moment we met."

"Tell me, what do you desire?"

Marina looked up into his eyes. Since they parted, he became taller and was now shorter than him by a little. Her heart palpitated, as she never thought he would be this flirtatious when they met again. She presumed he would give all his love and affection to Alice as his princess, and stopped her heart from growing to love him further.

'Why? You broke my decision! Are you planning to devour both princesses of the Arachne clan? What a wonderful master! Fufu! Such a naughty boy. Let this elder sister accept all your pent up lust and desire.'

"Mmmn~ Don't tease me husband..."

His delicate finger slid along the bite mark on her neck. Her body became filled with euphoric pleasure and convulsed from her light climax. She could feel the area where he bit her burned with a hot sensation as her body desired him even more.

'Am I a naughty slut? Why can I think of nothing but copulation and his naked body?'
