Chapter 1641: Chapter 1331: Min Guanghua Is Teleported to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty

All of them, including Gao Hongbo, are Immortal-level beings who have lived for billions of years. Naturally, they have seen various Transmission Arrays.

They have also encountered Transmission Arrays that consume such a terrifying amount of Immortal Aura, but generally, those with such terrifying consumption are for ultra-long-distance teleportation.

Although Tianxia Immortal Dynasty is far from the Land of Chaos, it is not considered ultra-long-distance, so logically, it should not consume so much Immortal Aura.

At this moment, Min Guanghua suddenly thought of an event that happened billions of years ago. Although he was not in the Land of Chaos at that time, the event spread throughout the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain, and he had heard about it.

Rumor has it that Chen King of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, under siege from various Super Forces, chose to come to the Land of Chaos, and finally, with nowhere to go, headed to the Chaotic Sea.

This Transmission Array was probably used by those top forces back then to teleport soldiers. Transmission Arrays require a large amount of Immortal Aura not only for ultra-long distances but also with many people or things being transmitted.

Moreover, when using some High Tier Transmission Arrays, even if the number of people and items being transported is small, the high tier means using it once still requires consuming a large amount of Immortal Aura.

Clearly, this Transmission Array is of a high tier, which is why it consumes so much Immortal Aura.

Thinking of the events billions of years ago, Min Guanghua suddenly had a jolt in his mind. He remembered that Chen King seemed to be from Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, right?

Could it be that the people of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty have come to the Land of Chaos again because of Chen King?

But Chen King has already entered the Land of Chaos for so many years, probably not even bones remain. Why would the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty still send people to such a place to find him?

Maybe he was overthinking it.

Min Guanghua then said to Gao Hongbo and others, “City Lord Zhan will probably not return in a while, so I’ll head back to Anda City first. Take care, everyone.”

With these words, Min Guanghua flew towards his Anda City. After seeing Min Guanghua leave, the others followed suit and left.

During the few months after Min Guanghua returned to Anda City, he kept an eye on White Feather City, fearing their affairs would be exposed.

Fortunately, White Feather City showed no unusual movements during this period.

However, since Min Guanghua returned, he couldn’t shake off a feeling of unease, as if a great catastrophe was impending.

Anda City.

Inside the secret chamber.

Min Guanghai sat cross-legged in the center of the chamber's Spirit Gathering Array with eyes tightly closed. Suddenly, he opened his eyes, as if struck by an idea, then stood up and walked towards the depths of the secret chamber.

Beneath Anda City, there exists an underground palace almost as vast as the entire Anda City. This underground palace has a long history; it was already in place when he came to Anda City.

Min Guanghai entered the underground palace through a secret passage and arrived at the largest hall.

In this hall, there were many coffins, each containing the remains of Immortals. However, due to the passage of time, even the Immortal bones were close to turning to dust.

These Immortal corpses held no value for Min Guanghai, which is why he never cleared them out and just let them remain in the hall.

At this moment, Min Guanghai's gaze fell upon the patterns on the hall's pillars, which were identical to the patterns on the Transmission Array columns used by Zhan Mo.

He mentioned feeling a sense of familiarity when he first saw those pillars. Min Guanghua then wondered if this hall was also a Transmission Array.

Min Guanghua hesitated whether to attempt activating this Transmission Array.

If one day their assistance to Zhan Mo in leaving the Land of Chaos was discovered, this Transmission Array would allow him to leave directly.

Considering the terrifying consumption of this Transmission Array, Min Guanghua hesitated.

After standing in deep thought in the hall for a while, Min Guanghua eventually decided to activate the Transmission Array to see. In the next moment, he channeled Immortal Aura into one of the stone pillars in the hall.

As soon as his Immortal Aura touched the stone pillar, an alarming suction force emerged, voraciously consuming his Immortal Aura, causing Min Guanghua's face to drastically change.

What's going on?

He immediately tried to withdraw his Immortal Aura, only to find he couldn't, and his entire body seemed rooted in place.

Feeling the Immortal Aura within his body rapidly depleting at a frightening rate, Min Guanghua couldn't help but feel a sense of despair, "It's over..."

Fortunately, the suction didn't last long. Just as his Immortal Aura was about to run out, a formation's light emanated from under his feet, and as it grew brighter, Min Guanghua sensed the wave of Space Power.

Min Guanghua was greatly shocked in his heart.

Oh no!

Before Min Guanghua could leave the Transmission Array's range, his body disappeared from the spot, and his vision went dark.

When Min Guanghua reopened his eyes, he found himself standing on a vast teleportation plaza.

In the next instant, soldiers on the teleportation plaza surrounded Min Guanghua, "Who are you!"

Min Guanghua's face instantly turned pale. He could clearly feel the Golden Immortal-level pressure from the leading Immortal on the plaza.

Min Guanghua quickly pleaded, "Have mercy, my lord! I come from the Land of Chaos!"

Upon hearing Min Guanghua's words, the commander of the teleportation array was momentarily stunned.

From the Land of Chaos?

When did they have an Earth-level Teleportation Array set up there?

This must be a spy from somewhere.

With this thought, Xin Rui said to the soldiers behind him, "Capture and interrogate him!"

Min Guanghua panicked; he didn't expect to be unknowingly teleported to an unfamiliar place and face arrest.

He would surely be thought of as a spy from some force, and once they confirmed this, he would be doomed.

Min Guanghua hurriedly said, “Spare me, my lord! I accidentally triggered the Transmission Array that brought me here!”

Xin Rui immediately released the pressure from his body, pressing down heavily, making Min Guanghua unable to move as he was pinned to the ground.

“Hmph, whether it was an accident or not, we’ll find out after interrogation.”

The Earth-level Teleportation Array they constructed could only be used by important figures, and its fixed location meant only a handful of places were linked. Now, suddenly, someone from the Land of Chaos used this array to arrive here; he wouldn’t believe it wasn’t a spy.

Soon, Min Guanghua was captured and thrown into Heaven Prison, but Xin Rui did not rashly deal with him.

After all, Min Guanghua was transported using an Earth-level Teleportation Array, which was the private teleportation of King Anyuan. Involving King Anyuan required reporting the matter.

Without hesitation, Xin Rui went directly to the Royal Palace of Lu Jing, King Anyuan.

In the grand hall.

Lu Jing looked at the newly obtained intelligence in his hand, frowning, his expression very grave.

At this moment, a subordinate at the door said, “Your Highness, Commander Xin seeks an audience.”

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Upon hearing the guard’s words at the door, Lu Jing put down the intelligence in his hand, looked towards the door, and thought with doubt in his heart, why is he here?

Xin Rui's main duty is to guard his Earth-level Teleportation Array, preventing the array from being damaged. This duty is significant and insignificant at the same time.

If one day Lu Jing encounters a formidable enemy, the role of the Earth-level Teleportation Array will become apparent. However, as of now, there are no enemies strong enough to threaten his life on his fiefdom, so this Earth-level Teleportation Array remains idle most of the time.

Lu Jing said, "Come in!"

As Lu Jing's words fell, Xin Rui entered the main hall.

"Greetings, my King!"

Lu Jing said casually, "No need for formalities, what brings you here?"

Xin Rui replied, "My King, today someone used the Earth-level Teleportation Array to teleport to the Royal Palace."

Hearing this, Lu Jing was taken aback.

His Earth-level Teleportation Array was a private array, and the teleport locations were fixed and guarded by his people. Without his command, no one was allowed to use this teleportation array.

Lu Jing then asked, "Who is this person? Where did they come from?"

Xin Rui answered, "The person claimed to be from the Land of Chaos."

"Hmm?"

Upon hearing Xin Rui's answer, Lu Jing was momentarily stunned.

Land of Chaos?

Ten years ago, he had sent Xiao Yunze to check on the Land of Chaos, and years had passed without a word from Xiao Yunze.

Now, unexpectedly, someone had teleported from the Land of Chaos.

Hearing it was the Land of Chaos, Lu Jing immediately understood the situation. Most likely, that person discovered the Earth-level Array he had left there billions of years ago and used it to teleport to the Royal Palace.

Back then, after Lu Chen entered the Chaotic Sea, he found the return journey too far, so he created a teleportation array in the Land of Chaos and used it to teleport back to his fiefdom.

After his departure, no one dismantled the teleportation array, and it remained there.

But then again, billions of years have passed, and the teleportation array, without maintenance, could still be activated.

Not sure whether to attribute it to the good fortune of that person.

Lu Jing continued to inquire, "What is this person's Realm?"

Xin Rui answered, "Heavenly Immortal."

Lu Jing said, "A Heavenly Immortal initiating an Earth-level Teleportation Array, surely almost all of his Immortal Aura must have been drained."

"Bring him here, I have some questions for him."

Xiao Yunze has been gone for over a decade without any news, most likely something happened. Since someone from the Land of Chaos has come to the Royal Palace, it's a perfect opportunity to inquire about the current situation of the Land of Chaos from him.

Upon hearing Lu Jing's order, Xin Rui immediately said, "Yes, my King."

After the words fell, Xin Rui turned and left the hall, soon arriving at the Heaven Prison.

At this moment, in the Heaven Prison, Min Guanghua, whose Immortal Aura was sealed, looked utterly despondent. He didn't expect to be so unlucky; he merely wanted to test whether the teleportation array could still be activated, but didn't expect it to forcibly start.

Perhaps due to its age, the Array Pattern of the teleportation array had some issues, which caused it to forcibly start the moment it was activated.

But even if he guessed the reason for the forced activation of the teleportation array, it wouldn't matter. He was in prison, possibly soon to be executed as a spy, as those people might not necessarily believe his words.

Thinking of his fate, Min Guanghua sighed deeply. As a Heavenly Immortal, he had escaped to the Land of Chaos, a place detached from worldly affairs, yet still found himself in such a predicament.

Just as Min Guanghua sighed, a voice came from outside the cell, "Come with me, the King wants to see you!"

The next moment, the cell door was opened.

Min Guanghua was taken aback, the King?

Which King?

Curious, Min Guanghua asked, "Sir, may I know which King you are referring to?"

Xin Rui replied with no expression, "Don't tell me you have no idea where you've been teleported to?"

Min Guanghua said miserably, "Sir, it was purely accidental that I triggered that teleportation array, I truly don't know where this place is."

Xin Rui snorted coldly, "Enough with the nonsense, come with me!"

Before interrogating or performing a Soul Search on this person, Xin Rui still suspected him of being a spy.

With no choice, Min Guanghua could only remain silent.

Following Xin Rui, they quickly arrived at a grand and opulent main hall.

Feeling the dense Immortal Aura in the hall, Min Guanghua immediately realized that he had probably teleported to an Immortal Dynasty.

But which Immortal Dynasty was this?

After bringing Min Guanghua into the hall, Xin Rui bowed and said, "My King, I have brought the person who appeared at the teleportation array."

Feeling the terrifying pressure from Lu Jing, Min Guanghua immediately knelt on the ground, regardless of whether he recognized him or not, "Greetings, my King!"

"Mercy, my King, I had no idea that teleportation array belonged to you, it was purely accidental that I activated it."

Seeing Min Guanghua trembling fearfully on the ground, Lu Jing asked indifferently, "I heard you come from the Land of Chaos?"

Min Guanghua quickly responded, "Yes, my King."

Lu Jing continued, "Then you should be quite familiar with what happens in the Land of Chaos."

A Heavenly Immortal residing in the Immortal Aura-less Land of Chaos must have some identity and status there, which means this person must be aware of the events in the Land of Chaos.

Upon hearing Lu Jing's words, Min Guanghua was stunned. He indeed knew of events in the Land of Chaos, but for someone to inquire about it so directly took him by surprise.

As Min Guanghua was lost in thought, Lu Jing continued, "Ten years ago, I sent a True Immortal to the Land of Chaos, yet he disappeared without a trace. Do you know of this person?"

The appearance of a True Immortal in a place like the Land of Chaos would undoubtedly attract some attention, and Lu Jing believed Min Guanghua should have heard of him.

Upon hearing Lu Jing's words, Min Guanghua was once again taken aback.

So, the True Immortal from ten years ago was sent by this man?

According to Zhan Mo's words, doesn't that mean this man is King Anyuan?

Unexpectedly, he had inadvertently been transported into King Anyuan's palace. What about Zhan Mo? He must have arrived before me.

Logically, Zhan Mo should have informed King Anyuan of the Land of Chaos's situation. Why is King Anyuan questioning me?

Could it be that King Anyuan does not believe what Zhan Mo said and seeks verification from me?

Seeing Min Guanghua lost in thought after his words, Lu Jing knew Min Guanghua must have knowledge of Xiao Yunze.

After coming to his senses, Min Guanghua immediately said, "My King, I indeed have heard of this person."

With those words, Min Guanghua proactively extracted a Memory Pearl from his fusion of memories.

Seeing the Memory Pearl floating before him, Lu Jing didn't hesitate, lifting his hand to grasp it. The Memory Pearl flew into Lu Jing's hand, and shortly after, Lu Jing learned of the memory of Min Guanghua and others uniting with Xiao Yunze to defeat Purple Moon City.

Chapter 1643: Chapter 1333: Min Guanghua Becomes an Envoy

Lu Chen's face instantly darkened upon learning from the Memory Pearl that Xiao Yunze had actually disobeyed his orders and had gone to attack Chen King's old subordinates on his own accord.

The orders he gave to Xiao Yunze were merely to watch over White Feather City, and if there was any news about Chen King, to immediately report it to him.

As a result, Xiao Yunze actually took action against White Feather City on his own initiative.

Lu Chen immediately understood what was going on; Xiao Yunze was probably trying to find Chen King's whereabouts and then use this information to pledge allegiance to King Guangren.

Thinking of this, Lu Chen couldn't help but let out a cold snort.

Seeing Lu Chen's reaction, Min Guanghua thought he had angered Lu Chen. He quickly bowed his head even lower; he had already extracted his own memories for Lu Chen to see, so why did Lu Chen seem so angry?

Could it be that he was infuriated by the person behind White Feather City?

Thinking of this, Min Guanghua immediately said, “Your Majesty, spare my life. I was just forced to pretend to surrender to the person behind White Feather City!”

Lu Chen ignored Min Guanghua’s words and instead muttered to himself, “It seems he’s probably already discovered that I know about his return.”

“Since he knows, there’s no need to hide it anymore.”

Lu Chen’s gaze swept over Min Guanghua and then said, “I can give you a chance to pledge allegiance to me.”

Hearing this, Min Guanghua was stunned. To be honest, he actually wanted to refuse. After all, he had fled to a place like the Land of Chaos, proving that he himself was a person who disliked conflict.

Moreover, he was very aware of his limited potential, and in the future, he would likely never be able to break through to a higher Realm. He only wanted to enjoy his life in peace.

If he chose to pledge allegiance to a king of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, he would inevitably get involved in the struggle for succession, and as a Heavenly Immortal, he would most likely become nothing more than cannon fodder in the succession struggle of the Immortal Dynasty.

Originally, he could still live for several billion years, but if he pledged allegiance to King Anyuan, he might not even live for a thousand years.

Yet, even if he was unwilling, under the current circumstances, he could only be forced to agree.

If he didn't pledge allegiance to King Anyuan, he might die now.

Thinking of this, Min Guanghua, without hesitation, said to Lu Chen, "I am willing to pledge allegiance to Your Majesty and will not hesitate to go through fire and water for you."

Lu Chen said expressionlessly, "There's no need for you to go through fire and water; you just need to become the special envoy I send to the Land of Chaos."

Lu Chen thought to himself, since Lu Chen already knows that I know about his return, I might as well temporarily cooperate with him.

After Lu Chen's return, if he wants revenge, he must quickly restore his strength and expand his forces.

Now that Lu Jingfu has not yet become the Immortal Dynasty Master of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, it would be relatively easier for Lu Chen to seek revenge on Lu Jingfu.

If Lu Jingfu becomes the Immortal Dynasty Master of Tianxia and controls the entire Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, it won't be easy for Lu Chen to get revenge.

Hearing Lu Chen's words, Min Guanghua was stunned.

Special envoy?

Thinking of Xiao Yunze's end, Min Guanghua couldn't help but worry; if he became King Anyuan's special envoy, wouldn't his end be the same as Xiao Yunze's?

However, under the current circumstances, it seemed he had no choice but to agree. Min Guanghua then said, "I won't let Your Majesty down."

Lu Chen said, "Very well, now return to the Land of Chaos and deliver a message on my behalf to the person behind White Feather City."

After speaking, Lu Chen took out a Memory Pearl and said to it, "Chen King, long time no see. I heard of your return and originally wanted to visit the Land of Chaos in person for a chat, but unfortunately, the current situation in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty is complicated, so I haven't had the chance."

"I was planning to send someone to discuss matters concerning the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty with you, but that lackey acted without permission and attacked your people. I apologize for this incident."

"I needn't say much about past events; I'm sure you understand what happened. Back then, King Guangren colluded with those Super Forces to force you into the Chaotic Sea. Although I knew you were wronged, I was powerless and weak, unable to help you."

"You've just returned and must need cultivation resources to quickly enhance your strength. If there's anything you need, feel free to tell my special envoy, and I will certainly help you."

Hearing Lu Chen's words, Min Guanghua was trembling in fear.

Chen King...

The person behind White Feather City is actually Chen King, who was famous throughout the Tianyan Immortal Domain tens of billions of years ago!

He's still alive!

Min Guanghai instantly felt he was caught in a massive whirlpool.

Back then, those Super Forces in the Tianyan Immortal Domain even dispatched Immortal Venerable Level beings to eradicate Chen King.

If the news of Chen King's return were to be leaked, those Super Forces might send experts to the Land of Chaos once more to deal with Chen King.

As King Anyuan's special envoy, he was now linked to Chen King, meaning he might be easily eliminated by the Super Forces' experts.

Thinking of this, Min Guanghai broke out in a cold sweat.

After Lu Chen finished speaking, he used Immortal Aura to control the Memory Pearl to fly in front of Min Guanghai and said, "Alright, take this Memory Pearl and return to the Land of Chaos."

Min Guanghai staggered to his feet and said, "Yes, Your Majesty."

Min Guanghua took the Memory Pearl and was about to turn and leave, but just then, Lu Chen remembered something, “Wait, you’ll need to make a Blood Oath about today’s events.”

Min Guanghua didn’t hesitate and immediately swore, “I, Min Guanghua, swear today not to reveal anything I heard today. Otherwise, I will die, my path will cease, and my Divine Soul will be destroyed.”

Once Min Guanghua finished making the Blood Oath, Lu Chen said, “Alright, that’s enough.”

Min Guanghua said, “I... take my leave.”

Then Min Guanghua used Lu Chen’s Earth-level Teleportation Array to send himself back to Anda City.

Immediately upon returning to Anda City, Min Guanghua hurried to White Feather City.

At this moment, Lu Chen’s clone in White Feather City was meditating and cultivating in a secret chamber.

The Land of Chaos isn't suitable for cultivation, but there are no owners in the No Man's Land, and his clone had nothing to do anyway.

Lu Chen sensed a Heavenly Immortal's aura swiftly approaching White Feather City, but he paid no mind. Ever since White Feather City dominated the Land of Chaos, Heavenly Immortals would occasionally visit it.

However, at this time, Lu Zhengze's voice entered Lu Chen's mind, "Your Majesty, Min Guanghua requests an audience. He claims to have very important matters to report to you."

Hearing this, Lu Chen was curious, very important matters?

What important matters could there be in the Land of Chaos?

Subsequently, Lu Chen's clone left the secret chamber and arrived at the Meeting Hall of the City Lord's Mansion.

Seeing Lu Chen, Min Guanghua unhesitatingly knelt and said, "Greetings, Your Majesty!"

Hearing Min Guanghua's form of address, Lu Chen's expression became serious.

Your Majesty?

Min Guanghua was addressing him as 'Your Majesty'?

How did he know he was a king?

Lu Chen then asked, "What do you want from me?"

Min Guanghua took out the Memory Pearl, "This is from King Anyuan of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty for you."

Upon hearing this, Lu Chen realized why Min Guanghua would address him as 'Your Majesty'. It seemed Min Guanghua already knew his identity.

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Chapter 1644: Chapter 1334: A Hidden Immortal King in the Land of Chaos?

Lu Chen directly took the Memory Pearl from Min Guanghai's hand and then opened it.

The next moment, the scene inside the Memory Pearl appeared in the hall.

After listening to Lu Jing's words, Lu Chen chuckled. Lu Jing was truly resorting to any means necessary to deal with Lu Jingfu.

He was someone even the Super Forces wanted to kill. If those Super Forces learned that Lu Jing was harboring him, Lu Jing would inevitably be targeted.

At this moment, Min Guanghai was trembling on the side, fearing that Lu Chen might kill him to silence him.

After destroying the Memory Pearl, Lu Chen glanced at Min Guanghai and then said, "Regarding how you connected with King Anyuan, I won't pursue it. Since you are now under King Anyuan's banner, stay honestly in the Land of Chaos. If I find out you have other intentions, no matter who you turn to, I will find a way to take care of you."

Min Guanghua quickly said, “Rest assured, My Lord. I will remain honestly in Anda City.”

Lu Chen then said, “Alright, if there’s nothing else, return to your Anda City.”

Min Guanghua bowed to Lu Chen again, “I take my leave, My Lord.”

As those words fell, Min Guanghua turned and left White Feather City. After Min Guanghua left, Lu Zhengze approached Lu Chen, “My Lord, what should we do now?”

There were more and more people aware of Lu Chen’s identity. If this news leaked, there might be Super Forces sending experts to the Land of Chaos.

Lu Chen said, “Since King Anyuan has already decided to use a borrowed blade to kill, we cannot let King Anyuan down.”

“However, if King Anyuan wants to use a borrowed blade, we need to sharpen this blade well. Go and tally up what cultivation resources we’re lacking and make a list, then send someone to give the list to Min Guanghua.”

King Anyuan wants to use a borrowed blade, so making him the laborer shouldn’t come without a price.

Moreover, King Anyuan clearly said in the Memory Pearl that if there were any cultivation resources needed, feel free to ask him. Since King Anyuan said so, wouldn't it be wasting a brotherly gesture if we didn't request some cultivation resources?

Lu Zhengze immediately understood Lu Chen's meaning and said, "Yes, My Lord, I will handle it right away."

On his way back to Anda City, Min Guanghua kept pondering a question: logically, Zhan Mo should have been transmitted to King Anyuan's palace before him, so why did King Anyuan appoint him as the envoy instead of Zhan Mo?

Could it be that the Transmission Array malfunctioned and sent Zhan Mo elsewhere?

Were it not for the Blood Oath, Min Guanghua would have wanted to ask King Anyuan if he had seen Zhan Mo. If Zhan Mo indeed got sent elsewhere and leaked the news about the Land of Chaos, it could raise suspicions among certain people.

Though Zhan Mo might not know Lu Chen's identity, someone might piece together some clues.

After all, the Land of Chaos is a place with little Immortal Aura, and someone from there attracting King Anyuan's attention with a True Immortal being specifically sent, why?

Min Guanghua sighed, hoping Zhan Mo wouldn't speak about matters of the Land of Chaos before seeing King Anyuan, or else it would be troublesome.

At this moment.

The Royal City of King Guangren, Heaven Prison.

An Immortal, covered in blood, was sealed within a Formation, barely alive, evidently having undergone severe interrogation.

At this time, a man dressed in black scale armor arrived at the southern gate. Looking at the barely breathing Zhan Mo, he said, "Speak, what were you looking for King Anyuan for?"

Zhan Mo weakly said, "Sir, let me see King Anyuan first, and then we'll talk."

Since being transmitted to King Guangren's Palace, Zhan Mo had been captured and severely beaten. Especially when the soldiers heard he was looking for King Anyuan, they used even more cruel interrogation methods to torment him, which were unbearable even for a Heavenly Immortal like him.

At this point, Zhan Mo still didn't realize he was in the wrong place. He thought they had mistaken him for a spy from somewhere else, which was why they captured and interrogated him.

Seeing Zhan Mo unwilling to speak, the man said, "Fine, since you want to see the king, I'll let you see the king. I want to see if an Immortal from the Land of Chaos has anything important to say."

Saying this, Wang Chixuan instructed the soldiers at the cell door, "Drag him out and take him to see the king."

With those words, Wang Chixuan headed to the palace of King Guangren, Lu Jingfu.

At this moment, in the Meeting Hall of the palace, Lu Jingfu listened to the report from the Heaven Prison soldiers, feeling puzzled.

Searching for King Anyuan?

Came to his palace looking for his nemesis?

What was this person thinking?

Such a brainless person surely couldn't be a spy.

As Lu Jingfu contemplated this, Wang Chixuan entered the hall, "My Lord, I have brought the person."

The next moment, two soldiers dragged Zhan Mo into the hall.

When Zhan Mo saw Lu Jingfu on the throne, he became excited, finally seeing King Anyuan.

He knelt on the ground without hesitation, "Are you King Anyuan? Your servant pays respects, My Lord!"

Hearing these words, Lu Jingfu looked at Wang Chixuan with a confused gaze. Wang Chixuan said, "My Lord, he insisted on seeing you."

Lu Jingfu immediately understood Wang Chixuan's meaning and then said, "Speak, what brings you to my presence?"

Zhan Mo, without any hesitation, extracted past memories in the form of a Memory Pearl, sending it toward Lu Jingfu as he said, "My Lord, the envoy you sent to the Land of Chaos ten years ago was killed."

Envoy?

Lu Jingfu thought to himself, when did he send an envoy to the Land of Chaos?

Wait, this person mistook him for King Anyuan, which means King Anyuan sent an envoy to the Land of Chaos ten years ago?

Thinking of the Land of Chaos, Lu Jingfu frowned slightly.

Why would King Anyuan send an envoy to the Land of Chaos, a barren place?

At this moment, the Memory Pearl extracted by Zhan Mo flew to Lu Jingfu. Without hesitation, Lu Jingfu read the memories within the Memory Pearl.

When he saw an Earth Immortal kill a True Immortal, his frown deepened.

Such a powerful being in a place like the Land of Chaos?

Wait, the final strength displayed by that Earth Immortal was clearly not typical for an Earth Immortal, but rather possessed by an Immortal King?

The Land of Chaos harbors an Immortal King?

What is an Immortal King doing in a place without Immortal Aura?

Could King Anyuan have sent an envoy to the Land of Chaos to recruit this Immortal King?

Lu Jingfu momentarily did not connect this Immortal King with Lu Chen. Although he thought of Lu Chen when he heard about the Land of Chaos, Lu Chen had reportedly entered the Chaotic Sea over a billion years ago. Lu Jingfu assumed Lu Chen's bones had long vanished.

Lu Jingfu revealed a slight smile, "Interesting, I didn't expect such a place as the Land of Chaos to harbor a suspected Immortal King."

The envoy sent by King Anyuan ran into trouble with that Immortal King and was killed by the Immortal King. In this case, King Anyuan and that Immortal King have fallen out.

Can he seize this opportunity to recruit that Immortal King?

After all, the enemy of my enemy is my friend.

If he can recruit that Immortal King, it would enhance his chances of ascending to that position.

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Lu Jingfu looked at Zhan Mo and said with a smile, "You've done quite well."

"However, in your next life, before using someone else's transmission array, it's best to find out who left it."

Hearing these words, Zhan Mo was suddenly stunned.

What does this mean?

Next life?

What next life?

He had brought this news here with great difficulty. Wasn't this a great merit? Why would King Anyuan say such things?

Before Zhan Mo could react, Lu Jingfu suddenly raised his hand, and with a chop of his hand, a wave of blade qi instantly slit Zhan Mo's throat.

Even before his death, Zhan Mo couldn't understand why King Anyuan wanted to kill him.

At this moment, Lu Jingfu looked at Wang Chixuan in front of him and said, "Commander Wang, in a few days, take the gifts I've prepared and personally make a trip to the Land of Chaos to find that Immortal King."

Although he didn't know why that Immortal King wanted to stay in the Land of Chaos, Lu Jingfu believed that the other party wouldn't remain there forever.

If that Immortal King had nowhere to go for the time being, he could recruit him to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

Wang Chixuan understood Lu Jingfu's intention in an instant, and then said, "Yes, my lord!"

...

Frost City.

These days, Lu Chen, along with Cao Shiyun and Xiao Xueying, were both diligently cultivating. After sending one clone to the Land of Chaos, he created another clone in the Mortal Immortal Realm.

Over these ten years, they had been painstakingly working, but unfortunately, for Immortals trying to conceive offspring, it wasn't something that could be achieved in a short time.

A decade might seem long, but that's only to mortals; for Immortals, it was just a blink of an eye.

Lu Chen didn't get discouraged; he continued to work hard persistently.

Early in the morning.

From inside Cao Shiyun's room came the sound of her humming and moaning,

At this time, Xiao Xueying sat in the courtyard, enjoying this rare moment of leisure.

In these ten years, Lu Chen and the two of them had almost been cultivating daily. Although cultivating with Lu Chen was quite enjoyable, over time, it was beginning to be too much for them.

Extreme pleasure would lead their souls to a tendency to fall, similar to a cultivation deviation, which in this case was a deep subconscious deviation, difficult to heal.

To prevent them from falling, Lu Chen would give the two girls some time off periodically; today was Xiao Xueying's day off.

Hearing Cao Shiyun's voice, a gentle smile appeared on Xiao Xueying's jade cheeks; after all these years, Lu Chen still never got tired of such things.

Just then, outside the residence came He Shuwen's voice, "I wonder if the envoy from the Upper Sect is available, for I have important matters to report."

As an Immortal, even though He Shuwen was speaking outside the residence, Lu Chen inside could still hear it, yet his main body didn't pay attention. He lay behind Cao Shiyun, wrapping her slender waist, continuing with his own affairs.

At that moment, Lu Chen's clone came to the door, "What is it?"

Xiao Xueying also came to the entrance of the residence; He Shuwen hadn't disturbed them for many years, understanding their preference for cultivation, so he wouldn't come without important matters.

Since he had come, it must mean he had important matters to report.

He Shuwen wasted no time and directly took out a jade scroll, from which a voice then emerged, "The Demon Emperor has revived. From now on, all forces in the Tianyan Immortal Domain must unite to fight against the Demon Emperor and hunt down the remnant of the Nine Heavens Institute!"

He Shuwen then said, "Envoy, this is an Immortal Order from the Heavenly Splendor Hall."

Hearing this, Lu Chen fell into deep thought.

The Demon Emperor?

Could it be referring to that woman, Xuan Qingyun?

Xuan Qingyun could turn people into Heavenly Demons. Moreover, her powers were quite strange, which indeed warranted the title of Demon Emperor.

Once Lu Chen snapped out of it, he said, "What does the Heavenly Splendor Hall have to do with our Mysterious Moon Palace."

This...

He Shuwen was momentarily speechless; he hadn't expected Lu Chen to say this. Although Mysterious Moon Palace indeed had no relation to Heavenly Splendor Hall, the Heavenly Splendor Hall was the largest super force in the Tianyan Immortal Domain, with several Immortal Venerates.

No super force in the Southern Domain had ever dared to disobey the Heavenly Splendor Hall's words.

The reason Lu Chen didn't take the Heavenly Splendor Hall's words to heart was because, over a billion years ago, the Heavenly Splendor Hall had sent Immortal Venerates to hunt him down; therefore, Lu Chen had no fondness for them, nor would he take their so-called Immortal Orders seriously.

Moreover, even if Xuan Qingyun was the Demon Emperor, she would likely become one of his women in the future. If these people united all forces in the Tianyan Immortal Domain against Xuan Qingyun, it would mean opposing him.

This situation felt quite familiar to Lu Chen, reminding him of the time when he, too, was hunted by those super forces on fabricated charges.

What had happened to him back then was now happening to Xuan Qingyun.

Speaking of which, although Xuan Qingyun was an Immortal Emperor, having just returned, she likely had not yet regained her Immortal Emperor cultivation. If the super forces of the Tianyan Immortal Domain united against her, she probably wouldn't stand a chance.

Thinking of this, a slight smile appeared on Lu Chen's lips.

A skinny camel is still bigger than a horse. Even if Xuan Qingyun had her realm fall, her bizarre methods, like the Heavenly Demon Power she controlled, still posed a strong threat to Immortals.

With Xuan Qingyun as a target, the attention of those super forces in the Tianyan Immortal Domain would remain on her, allowing him to develop in peace and continuously strengthen and expand his powers.

Thinking of this, Lu Chen said to He Shuwen, "Ignore the order from the Heavenly Splendor Hall. Address any concerns when the Mysterious Moon Palace sends an envoy."

The actions of the Heavenly Splendor Hall were indeed quite overbearing. The Mysterious Moon Palace wasn't a subsidiary force of the Heavenly Splendor Hall. Not only Frost City but likely the entire Southern Domain received the Heavenly Splendor Hall's Immortal Order.

And the forces from other realms in the Tianyan Immortal Domain probably received similar orders from their respective dominant forces.

He Shuwen said, "Understood, envoy, I've got it."

Lu Chen asked, "Is there anything else?"

He Shuwen said, "No, there isn't."

"I take my leave!"

With that, He Shuwen turned and left Lu Chen's residence.

After He Shuwen left, Xiao Xueying came beside Lu Chen and said, "Over a billion years ago, the Heavenly Splendor Hall did the same to you. I wonder who they'll target this time."

"Such a despicable and shameless bunch, unable to become an Immortal Emperor themselves, they suppress those with potential to become one."

Seeing Xiao Xueying's indignant appearance, Lu Chen smiled and said, "This time, they might not be wrong."

Hearing this, Xiao Xueying was taken aback for a moment.

Not wrong?

What did that mean?

Is there truly a Demon Emperor?

Xiao Xueying said, "Where's this Demon Emperor from? Isn't this a pretext from the Heavenly Splendor Hall to harm some prodigy?"

Lu Chen said, "The person targeted by the Heavenly Splendor Hall this time might really be the Demon Emperor."

This...

Xiao Xueying was slightly stunned.

Lu Chen raised his hand, wrapping it around Xiao Xueying's slender waist, pulling her soft body into his embrace, and said, "If I'm not mistaken, the person the Heavenly Splendor Hall wants to deal with is an old acquaintance of mine."

Chapter 1646: Chapter 1336: Cao Shiyun Is Pregnant

Upon hearing Lu Chen's words, Xiao Xueying's curiosity was instantly piqued.

Lu Chen's old acquaintance is the Demon Emperor?

How come she never knew that Lu Chen had such a former acquaintance?

At this moment, Lu Chen embraced Xiao Xueying and returned directly to the bedroom. He then placed her onto the soft couch and gently pressed down.

Xiao Xueying's cheeks flushed slightly as she softly said, "Junior brother, I'm on holiday today."

Lu Chen caressed Xiao Xueying's smooth skin and laughed, "The situation in the Tianyan Immortal Domain is complicated nowadays. We need to quickly enhance our strength, so holidays will be halved from now on."

Xiao Xueying glanced at Lu Chen gloomily without speaking. Who made her Lu Chen's woman? If he wants to be naughty, let him be.

In just a moment, the two embraced each other openly. Lu Chen leaned down, settling into his place, and continued whispering into Xiao Xueying's ear, "That so-called Demon Emperor is most likely the Immortal Emperor I met in the Chaotic Sea."

Upon hearing this, Xiao Xueying was shocked, even the strange sensation in her body was shifted.

Immortal Emperor?

Over the years, Lu Chen had shared a lot about his experiences in the Chaotic Sea with her but seldom mentioned that he knew any Immortal Emperor.

Xiao Xueying then asked, “How did that Immortal Emperor become the Demon Emperor?”

“Moreover, that person is already an Immortal Emperor, yet the Heavenly Splendor Hall dares to join forces with other powers to deal with them?”

While moving, Lu Chen replied, “The power she wields is rather eerie, capable of turning individuals into Heavenly Demons. Furthermore, the Heavenly Demon’s power has a strong restraint over cultivators.”

“Most importantly, the Heavenly Demons she transforms feed on cultivators, making her resemble a demon in this aspect.”

“So, the Heavenly Splendor Hall calling her the Demon Emperor is not unfounded.”

“The reason the Heavenly Splendor Hall dares to unite with other forces against her is because she has spent countless years in the Chaotic Sea, leading to a decline in her strength and cultivation state. Those people no longer fear her.”

Listening to Lu Chen’s account, Xiao Xueying occasionally let out soft murmurs.

At this moment, a thought suddenly crossed Xiao Xueying’s mind, and she asked, “Is she a woman?”

Lu Chen chuckled and counter-questioned, “Why do you ask that?”

“Indeed, she is a woman.”

Xiao Xueying gazed meaningfully at Lu Chen.

Though she suspected that there might be some ambiguous relationship between Lu Chen and this woman, Xiao Xueying didn't overly concern herself. She only thought that Lu Chen was exceptionally outstanding, even compelling an Immortal Emperor to notice him; truly the man she has her eye on.

Despite him being somewhat amorous...

Seeing Xiao Xueying's skeptical look, Lu Chen suddenly became intense, “Phew... Senior sister, what's with that look.”

Xiao Xueying hurriedly said, “Uh uh... Mmm... Junior brother, senior sister has no other... Ugh~! meaning...”

Meanwhile, inside Cao Shiyun's room.

Upon hearing the sounds from next door, Cao Shiyun, who was kneeling on the soft couch, turned to look at Lu Chen and curiously asked, “Junior... Brother... Isn’t Junior Sister Xiao... Mmm mmm... on holiday today?”

Lu Chen laughed and said, “She said she’s rested enough and wants to continue enhancing her strength.”

Absent-mindedly, Cao Shiyun replied, “Oh, Junior Sister Xiao... really diligent.”

As her words fell, Cao Shiyun continued asking, “Just now... did He Shuwen... come to you for something?”

Lu Chen said, “The Heavenly Splendor Hall issued an Immortal Order, asking all powers in the Southern Domain to unite in suppressing the Demon Emperor.”

Upon hearing “Demon Emperor,” Cao Shiyun froze momentarily.

She then said, “Heavenly Splendor Hall... phew... the Demon Emperor they’re talking about isn’t... junior brother is it?”

Cao Shiyun still remembered when the Heavenly Splendor Hall sought to eliminate Lu Chen, who was most likely to become an Immortal Emperor, by concocting excuses that he would bring calamity to Tianyan Immortal Domain, then uniting other Tianyan Immortal Domain forces to besiege Lu Chen, even dispatching Immortal Venerable level entities.

Presently, the Heavenly Splendor Hall says they want to suppress the Demon Emperor, making her instantly think whether Lu Chen's identity has been exposed, and the Heavenly Splendor Hall intends to repeat its old trick against Lu Chen.

Lu Chen said, "This time it's not me. That person is far more difficult to handle."

Upon reaching this point, Lu Chen paused, closed his eyes, and exhaled deeply.

He then pulled away, flipped Cao Shiyun over, and pressed down again, looking down at Cao Shiyun's cold and glamorous jade-like face, gently stroking her fair skin as he continued, "Even though they're not targeting me, that person is somewhat related to me."

Cao Shiyun was instantly stunned, initially believing that since those people were not after her, she could be assured to be with Lu Chen, only to find Lu Chen caught up in it too. If that person is related to Lu Chen, it's likely Lu Chen's identity will eventually be exposed, and then those top forces might again, like billions of years ago, aim to suppress Lu Chen.

Thinking about this, Cao Shiyun couldn't help but feel some worry within.

Lu Chen also sensed Cao Shiyun's concern for him and subsequently stroked her jade-like cheeks, saying, "Senior sister, no need to worry too much. Those super powers have picked on the wrong person, and it's hard to say who will lose or win in the end."

Although Xuan Qingyun's strength and cultivation had plummeted, that was within the Chaotic Sea where there's no Immortal Aura, no Spiritual Energy, and the body undergoes the erosion of Chaos Qi, so naturally, the strength declines.

Now that Xuan Qingyun has returned to Tianyan Immortal Domain, it's probable that her power and cultivation state will be restored soon; when her realm returns to the peak of her Immortal Emperor phase, combined with the Heavenly Demon Power she holds, all the Immortal Venerable entities in Tianyan Immortal Domain combined might not stand a chance against her.

Listening to Lu Chen, Cao Shiyun gently parted her lips, softly exhaling a breath, "Junior brother... are... mmm mmm... you standing on the side of that Demon Emperor?"

Lu Chen thought for a moment and replied, "Not necessarily..."

Even though Xuan Qingyun is the woman supposed to deal with system conditions, traditionally, whenever it involves a woman against system conditions, there's likely some relation to oneself.

However, Xuan Qingyun's strength is too formidable, and she is also an Immortal Emperor level entity, conquering Xuan Qingyun certainly wouldn't be easy.

Hence, before conquering Xuan Qingyun, there may likely be a battle between him and Xuan Qingyun.

Upon Lu Chen uttering "not necessarily," Cao Shiyun felt a touch of concern rise within her heart.

Considering, that the so-called Demon Emperor is compelling the Heavenly Splendor Hall in the Tianyan Immortal Domain to issue an Immortal Order against them, her prowess must be immensely frightening. Moreover, Lu Chen just mentioned that the outcome is not certain, which further informs how terrifying her cultivation and strength must be.

If Lu Chen isn't allied with the Demon Emperor, then he is likely opposed to her; if the super powers in the Heavenly Splendor Hall can't contend against the Demon Emperor, then how could Lu Chen be her opponent?

While Cao Shiyun was lost in thought, Lu Chen forced again, and Cao Shiyun was temporarily disoriented, not continuing to ponder over the Demon Emperor issue.

After an unknown period, Lu Chen stopped his actions, intending to say something when suddenly, a system female voice echoed in his mind.

“Congratulations to the host for helping a wife conceive offspring, rewarding with Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill Elixir Recipe.”

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Upon hearing the system reward, Lu Chen doubted whether he was hallucinating.

After all, he had been in the Tianyan Immortal Domain for so many years, working tirelessly day and night, yet without any result.

He was already prepared for not having any offspring for a thousand years, as Immortals took millennia to nurture a child.

Unexpectedly, Cao Shiyun gave him a great first surprise.

Seeing Lu Chen pause, Cao Shiyun blushed and softly asked, "Junior Brother, do you need to rest for a bit?"

Hearing Cao Shiyun's voice, Lu Chen snapped back from his surprise and smiled, saying to Cao Shiyun, "Senior Sister, I have good news for you."

Cao Shiyun asked puzzled, "What good news?"

Lu Chen then leaned down and whispered in her ear, "We are going to have a child soon."

Hearing this, Cao Shiyun was stunned.

She immediately used her Immortal Aura to examine her body, finding indeed a small ball wrapped in Immortal Aura existing inside her.

Cao Shiyun was briefly lost and a bit bewildered.

Although she didn't mind bearing Lu Chen's child, she felt frightened when it actually happened.

The situation in the Tianyan Immortal Domain was becoming increasingly complex, Lu Chen had many enemies, and the child following them might lead to hard times.

Seeing the dazed expression on Cao Shiyun's face, Lu Chen asked, "Senior Sister, are you unhappy?"

"Do you not want this child?"

"If that's the case, I won't force you."

Cao Shiyun came back to her sense, "No... it's not that."

"I... I just..."

Cao Shiyun hesitated for a moment but expressed her concerns.

"I'm worried that after the child is born, it will suffer with us, and now with Senior Sister Ye closely watching you, if she finds out I have your child, she might become suspicious."

Ye Chuyao initially sent her to monitor Lu Chen, to see if he misbehaves during his mortal realm training, but she ended up entwined with Lu Chen instead, and now there is a child. Ye Chuyao would inevitably discover she's been feeding her false information all these years.

Ye Chuyao always had doubts about Lu Chen, and now he's entangled with the female disciple of the Mysterious Moon Palace, maybe her suspicion would deepen.

After all, Lu Chen used to be such a lecherous person.

Lu Chen smiled and said, "Let her suspect if she will. You and Senior Sister Xiao safeguard my safety day and night. I still don't have a couple, and you both are so beautiful, and neither of you has a couple, isn't it quite logical that feelings developed over time?"

"Even so... but..." Cao Shiyun hesitated to speak further.

Lu Chen gently stroked Cao Shiyun's jade-like cheek, "Senior Sister, don't worry. Even if Senior Sister Ye suspects my identity, this alone won't confirm who I am."

"What man doesn't have a lustful nature? With a fairy as coldly elegant as you, if I didn't like you, that would be unusual."

Hearing Lu Chen's words made Cao Shiyun's cheeks blush with slight warmth, and she replied, "Junior Brother, you're such a liar. If you truly liked me, when you took away the Saintess of the Mysterious Moon Palace, you should have taken me with you too."

"I'm starting to wonder if you're worried I'll report to Senior Sister Ye about you and Junior Sister Xiao, so you pulled me into this mess instead."

Feeling the subtle emotion in the beauty's tone, Lu Chen laughed, "Senior Sister, you're joking. Have you ever seen a man who doesn't like a woman yet spends day and night with her?"

"Because... because..." Cao Shiyun was at a loss for words. What Lu Chen said seemed to make sense.

Though Lu Chen's actions were because of lust, it also proved he genuinely liked her, even if it was her body he favored, it was still a kind of affection.

Lu Chen then embraced Cao Shiyun's waist, rolled over letting her lie on his chest, gently patting her jade-like shoulder, he said, "Senior Sister, just relax. I will take responsibility for you."

Hearing this promised assurance from Lu Chen, Cao Shiyun's turbulent emotions due to the pregnancy calmed a bit.

Lu Chen continued to hold Cao Shiyun quietly, no longer making advances. Since Cao Shiyun was already pregnant, it was time to give her a long break.

Cao Shiyun simply lying quietly on Lu Chen's broad chest felt very reassuring.

Afterward, neither spoke again, maintaining this intimate state.

Suddenly a thought occurred to Lu Chen, and he mentally inquired the system, "System, what is the effect of the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill?"

Now that the system was more intelligent, Lu Chen didn't bother to open the system interface; he simply inquired in his mind, and the system would answer.

The system responded, "The Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill is a Heavenly Grade Elixir. After consumption, it greatly increases the probability of Immortals breaking through, and even if the breakthrough fails, the medicine's efficacy protects the Immortal, preventing backlash from failure. It is usable for anyone below Immortal Venerate."

Hearing the system's explanation, Lu Chen froze for a moment. Recently, he was pondering where to find an elixir recipe for a Heavenly Grade Breaking Realm Pill.

While the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill wasn't a Breaking Realm Pill, from the system's description, it sounded more useful than the Heavenly Grade Breaking Realm Pill.

Plus, since he himself was a Heavenly Grade Alchemist, as long as he found the materials to refine the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill, he could make it himself.

With the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill, his influence would undoubtedly grow rapidly.

While resting in Lu Chen's embrace, Cao Shiyun suddenly felt him grow vigorous, curiously asking, "Junior Brother, what are you thinking?"

Lu Chen smiled and said, "Just thinking about having Senior Sister bear my child makes me happy. This is my first child since returning to the Tianyan Immortal Domain."

Hearing this, Cao Shiyun pouted without saying anything, just twisting her body slightly with her jade-like arm hugging Lu Chen's strong waist tighter.

Not long after,

Land of Chaos, White Feather City.

Lu Chen was gazing absent-mindedly at the map in front of him, pondering which direction to expand, now with the so-called "Demon Emperor" attracting attention, those Super Forces in the Tianyan Immortal Domain would likely be too preoccupied to bother him. Even if they knew of his return, they probably wouldn't bother sending anyone to deal with him.

As Lu Chen was lost in thought, Lu Zhengze entered the hall, excitedly saying to Lu Chen, "My Lord, the materials you've requested have been sent by King Anyuan."

After obtaining the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill elixir recipe, Lu Chen had Lu Zhengze immediately list the materials for the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill as required cultivation resources, then had Min Guanghua send the list to Lu Jing.

Lu Jing, upon seeing the list, dispatched personnel without hesitation through the Transmission Array to send the cultivation resources listed on it to the Land of Chaos, including the materials needed for refining the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill.

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Lu Zhengze was not very interested in the other cultivation resources sent by Lu Jing; what intrigued him the most were those herbs. Lu Chen had mentioned to him not long ago that these herbs were to be used for refining a pill that could help people break through realms.

With those herbs, their king would be able to refine a pill similar to the Heavenly Grade Breaking Realm Pill, and both he and his wife might be able to ascend to a higher realm.

Thinking about this filled Lu Zhengze with great joy.

Seeing Lu Zhengze so excited, Lu Chen spoke: "Hand those herbs to me; I will refine the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pills."

Lu Zhengze excitedly responded, "Yes, my king!"

He then handed the space ring containing the herbs to Lu Chen.

After taking the space ring from Lu Zhengze, Lu Chen glanced at the herbs inside. There weren't many, falling short of the number on his list, but Lu Jing had sent some other herbs along with them.

Clearly, the herbs needed to refine the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill were quite rare, and given Lu Jing's identity, it wasn't possible to acquire such a large quantity.

However, the herbs in the space ring were enough to refine a hundred Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pills without much issue.

Lu Chen then told Lu Zhengze, "Don't disturb me when I'm refining pills, unless there's something very important."

Lu Zhengze respectfully replied, "Yes, my king."

"If there's nothing else you require, I shall take my leave."

Lu Chen replied with a nod, and Lu Zhengze soon left the grand hall.

Lu Chen went to his chamber, took an alchemy furnace out of the space ring, and then retrieved several herbs needed for the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pills.

As it was his first time refining a Heavenly Grade Elixir, even with the inherited memory of refining them, he decided to proceed with caution and refine a few trial pills first. If there were no major issues, he would then begin the formal refinement.

Lu Chen then manipulated the herbs into the alchemy furnace, covered it, and began refining using the Qionghua Biluo Flame.

The process of alchemy was slow, and Lu Chen could clearly sense some active ingredients in the herbs gradually separating out. These active ingredients began to slowly merge after being heated by the Qionghua Biluo Flame, undergoing a series of reactions and eventually coalescing into pills.

With his earthly knowledge, Lu Chen felt that alchemy was akin to purifying certain chemical substances, then merging them together and using fire to heat them, inducing reactions to form new chemical substances.

With this understanding, Lu Chen refined pills more skillfully, encountering almost no difficulty. The only challenge was purifying certain substances, which tested one's abilities.

However, with his Heavenly Grade Alchemist's pill-refining skill, these were minor issues. Before long, the pills had formed within the alchemy furnace.

Sensing the pills' formation, Lu Chen used Immortal Aura to open the lid of the alchemy furnace, and four Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pills flew out.

The Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pills emitted a green glow, rich with life force. Lu Chen mused, no wonder these pills could save lives; they were indeed saturated with life force.

With this life force, even if a breakthrough failed, it could still help immortals recover.

The trial refinement was very successful; Lu Chen then formally began alchemy but, to be cautious, divided the process into several rounds.

After refining all the herbs into Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pills, Lu Chen communicated to Lu Zhengze, "General Lu, come to me for a moment."

Hearing Lu Chen's voice, Lu Zhengze was momentarily stunned. He had intended to go to Purple Moon City to share the good news with his wife, but before he could reach her, their king summoned him.

He was puzzled, as the king had said he would be refining pills. How could he have finished so quickly?

Generally, when a Heavenly Grade Alchemist refines a Heavenly Grade Elixir, it consumes a great deal of time, especially with some of the more special herbs.

Although Lu Zhengze had never heard of the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill, he understood from Lu Chen's description of its effects that it must be quite extraordinary and thus difficult to refine. It shouldn't be done in a short time.

Lu Zhengze quickly arrived at Lu Chen's chamber. Entering the grand hall, he saw the alchemy furnace placed in the middle.

Lu Chen stood beside the alchemy furnace, holding a pill emitting a green glow. Upon seeing the pill, Lu Zhengze was slightly surprised and thought, could this be the Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pill?

However, he immediately dismissed the notion. How could it be refined so quickly? It must not be it.

Lu Zhengze then asked, "My king, is there anything else you'd like to instruct?"

Lu Chen handed two Myriad Phenomena Life Spirit Pills to Lu Zhengze using Immortal Aura, "The pills are ready. You and Xiaoshuang can each take one to try for a breakthrough."

Upon hearing this, Lu Zhengze was momentarily stunned.

So soon?

Is their king really just a Heavenly Grade Alchemist?

Lu Zhengze couldn't help but doubt whether these pills were directly made by Lu Chen.

Composed again, Lu Zhengze knelt in gratitude, "Thank you, my king, for the gift!"

If one could choose life over death, surely they would; these two pills were life-altering. Naturally, Lu Zhengze felt extremely excited.

Lu Chen said, "Alright, go give a pill to Xiaoshuang. You two have served loyally beside me for billions of years in White Feather City. This pill is my reward to you both."

"I hope you both can break through."

Lu Zhengze declared, "I will not fail your expectations, my king!"

Lu Chen continued, "You should first settle matters in the Land of Chaos. From now on, I'll temporarily manage it; you and Xiaoshuang can leave for a suitable place to cultivate in seclusion, aiming for the True Immortal Realm."

The Land of Chaos lacked Immortal Aura, making it the worst place for breakthrough attempts. Lu Zhengze and Liao Xiaoshuang would usually leave the Land of Chaos to find places rich in Immortal Aura when they needed to advance and only return to White Feather City after succeeding.

Now, aiming for the Heavenly Immortal Realm, they needed to absorb immense Immortal Aura, something unattainable in the Land of Chaos.

Lu Zhengze declared, "Yes, my king, I will make the arrangements immediately."

With that said, Lu Zhengze turned and left Lu Chen's chamber.

Lu Zhengze hadn't gone far before quickly returning, wearing a look of anxiety on his face.

Lu Chen asked curiously, "Why did you come back so soon?"

Lu Zhengze hurriedly explained, "My king, the... the Ren Prince sent an envoy!!!"

Chapter 1649: 1339: You're Going to War with Two Great Immortal Sects at Once? Are You Crazy?

Chapter 1649: Chapter 1339: You're Going to War with Two Great Immortal Sects at Once? Are You Crazy?

Wang Chixuan didn't stay long in the Land of Chaos; he quickly returned to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty through the Transmission Array used by Zhan Mo.

At this time, Lu Jingfu was in a pavilion on a tall mountain, playing Go with a man dressed in a Blood Robe.

At that moment, the man in the Blood Robe said, “Soon, our Blood Eagle Hall will go to war with the Mysterious Moon Palace and the Chiyan Sect. We hope King Guangren can provide us with some assistance.”

Although the Blood Eagle Hall has three Immortal Kings and is now considered a medium power in the Southern Domain, compared to an Immortal Dynasty like the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, which has existed for countless ages, its foundation is not deep.

For Blood Eagle Hall to simultaneously go to war with two Immortal Sects, it needs a vast amount of resources.

Upon hearing Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch’s words, Lu Jingfu’s hand, which was about to place a piece on the board, paused. He looked up at Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch and said, “Waging war on two great Immortal Sects at once? Are you mad?”

In the past, when Blood Eagle Hall attacked Immortal Sects, they always attacked one at a time. Moreover, most of the Immortal Sects Blood Eagle Hall destroyed did not have an Immortal King. Even if some did, those Immortal Kings were close to their limit, entangled by Death Qi, unable to wield the power of an Immortal King.

But now, both Yun Yudie and Chiyan Immortal King are at their peak Immortal King strength. To attack these two Immortal Sects simultaneously now would come at a great cost.

Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch said calmly, “My lord, we have prepared for this day for over a hundred years. As long as we destroy the Mysterious Moon Palace and Chiyan Sect, and acquire their cultivation resources and lands, our Blood Eagle Hall might ascend to a top-tier power in the Southern Domain.”

Hearing this, Lu Jingfu laughed and said, “A top-tier power without an Immortal Venerate?”

Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch wasn’t angered by Lu Jingfu’s ridicule and said calmly, “Surely, my lord knows that the Immortal Law we cultivate is a bit unique. Perhaps after capturing these two Immortal Sects, our Hall Master might just breakthrough?”

Upon Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch’s words, Lu Jingfu realized that the evil technique cultivated by Blood Eagle Hall required many lives, and once Blood Eagle Hall waged war on the Mysterious Moon Palace and the Chiyan Sect, many would surely die, thus becoming an opportunity for Blood Eagle Hall’s three Immortal Kings to cultivate.

It’s possible that by then, one of the three of them might break through to the Immortal Venerable Realm with a surge of Blood Qi.

Thinking of this, Lu Jingfu’s face turned a bit grim.

If Blood Eagle Hall only had Immortal Kings, he might still barely intimidate them, after all, the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty doesn't just have one or two Immortal Kings. Not to mention their Royal Family has several Immortal King level ancestors, and the Royal Family's tributors are all at the Immortal King Realm.

But the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty has a significant weakness – it has no Immortal Venerate. Without an Immortal Venerate, no matter how deep the foundation, it's hard to contend with forces that do have an Immortal Venerable level existence.

Fortunately, the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty annually offers tribute to the Heavenly Splendor Hall, which is the largest force in the Southern Domain, and is under the protection of the Heavenly Splendor Hall. This has allowed the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to endure even without an Immortal Venerate.

But if Blood Eagle Hall truly produces an Immortal Venerate, given Blood Eagle Hall's conduct, they might very well covet the entire Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

In the past, the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty could rely on Heavenly Splendor Hall, but now Heavenly Splendor Hall's focus is on subduing the Demon Emperor; they have no time to protect the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

If Blood Eagle Hall attacks the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, how will the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty withstand it?

Blood Eagle Hall is too strong; it poses a massive threat to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

However...

Even knowing that Blood Eagle Hall is a threat to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, it seems he has no other choice now. Other royal capitals of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty have drawn in many top-tier forces, and if he wishes to contend for the position of Immortal Dynasty Master, he too needs the support of top-tier forces.

If Blood Eagle Hall indeed produces an Immortal Venerate, he might not even need to wait until his father passes to rise to the position of Immortal Dynasty Master.

After a moment of contemplation, Lu Jingfu said, "Let me reconsider this matter. Heavenly Splendor Hall has issued an Immortal Order; all forces in the Southern Domain should focus their resources on dealing with the Demon Emperor."

Upon hearing Lu Jingfu mention the Heavenly Splendor Hall, Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch immediately understood Lu Jingfu's concern, but he didn't say anything to dispel Lu Jingfu's worries.

All have lived for a billion years; they're no fools. If he tries to say something to dispel Lu Jingfu's concerns now, telling him that Blood Eagle Hall has no designs on the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, it might increase Lu Jingfu's worries instead.

Too much explanation might seem like they're hiding something, so he simply said nothing, letting Lu Jingfu make his own decision.

After all, there isn't just one King in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty — it's not just Lu Jingfu. Blood Eagle Hall can collaborate with anyone, and he believes he knows what Lu Jingfu will choose in the end.

Subsequently, Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch stood up and said, "I await your good news, my lord."

The moment these words fell, Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch turned and left. Seeing Illusion Demon Immortal Monarch not even saying anything to dispel his concerns, Lu Jingfu increasingly felt that Blood Eagle Hall had other plans concerning the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

However, if he doesn't cooperate with Blood Eagle Hall, Blood Eagle Hall might find other brothers of his to collaborate with. If those brothers collaborate with Blood Eagle Hall, he might stand no chance of becoming the Immortal Dynasty Master.

For a moment, Lu Jingfu was filled with inner conflict.

Indeed, he desires the position of Immortal Dynasty Master, but he wants to last there long after he sits down, not to be kicked off just after becoming the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's Master.

If he gets kicked off just a few days after taking the position, what's the point in vying for it?

Just as Lu Jingfu was pondering what choice to make, a guard came to the pavilion's outside, "My lord, Commander Wang has returned."

Lu Jingfu came back to his senses, "Let him come to the mountaintop."

In a short while, Wang Chixuan arrived outside the mountaintop pavilion, and Wang Chixuan joyfully said, "My lord, good news!"

Lu Jingfu asked, "What did that Immortal King say?"

Wang Chixuan replied, "That Immortal King accepted the gift we sent and even said if there's anything we need help with, we can ask him for assistance."

Lu Jingfu said, “It seems those herbs are indeed of some use to him.”

“Perhaps he’s either nearing his lifespan’s end or being hunted by enemies, so he’s hiding in the Land of Chaos.”

When sending the gift, Lu Jingfu deliberately chose some herbs capable of restoring cultivation. He initially suspected that the Immortal King hiding in the Land of Chaos might be injured, thus hiding from a powerful enemy there; otherwise, why would an Immortal King hide in such a place?

Lu Jingfu sighed; even drawing in that Immortal King doesn’t seem to help much with the current situation.

Since Blood Eagle Hall says they’re going to war with Mysterious Moon Palace and Chiyan Sect, then it’s likely a war will happen. If he refuses Blood Eagle Hall now, when Blood Eagle Hall truly produces an Immortal Venerate, the first to suffer will probably be himself.

Thinking of this, Lu Jingfu finally decided to assist Blood Eagle Hall in attacking the Mysterious Moon Palace and Chiyan Sect.

Chapter 1650: Chapter 1339: Thank King Guangren for Me

Upon hearing Lu Zhengze's words, Lu Chen furrowed his brow.

King Guangren?

Lu Jingfu?

Why would he send someone to the Land of Chaos? Could it be that he also knows about my return?

This is troublesome. I haven't fully matured yet, and my strength hasn't fully recovered. If Lu Jingfu comes to attack the Land of Chaos at this point, I'll probably have to leave.

But then again, the Land of Chaos, a place devoid of even Immortal Aura, isn't too big a loss to abandon.

However, I currently have no other places to develop my power. Leaving the Land of Chaos and finding another secluded place like it won't be easy.

Returning to his senses, Lu Chen asked, "Did the person say anything?"

Lu Zhengze replied, "He just said he wanted to meet the one behind White Feather City."

Hearing this, Lu Chen fell into thought. Such a place like the Land of Chaos shouldn't attract Lu Jingfu's attention. Could it be he already knows that the one behind White Feather City is me?

If he truly knew, based on Lu Jingfu's character, he should immediately send someone strong to eliminate me. Why just send an envoy?

Could it be that the envoy is the strong one sent by Lu Jingfu to get rid of me?

Seeing Lu Chen not speaking, Lu Zhengze asked, "My lord, what should we do now?"

Lu Chen said calmly, "I'll first go and see what the envoy is here for."

Since Lu Jingfu sent an envoy first and didn't immediately act against me, there's something more here that I don't know.

"Bring the person to the Meeting Hall."

With those words, Lu Chen instantly teleported to the Meeting Hall.

A moment later, Lu Zhengze brought Wang Chixuan to the Meeting Hall.

Lu Chen now used his Disguise Skills, changing his face completely.

When Wang Chixuan saw Lu Chen, he didn't recognize him. He was a bit confused; the aura of the person before him seemed weaker than his own, appearing to have only the cultivation state of an Earth Immortal and not resembling an Immortal King at all.

Is he hiding his cultivation state?

But he seems to have no need to hide it, right? What's there to hide, unless he has some formidable enemy?

As Wang Chixuan entered the hall, he paid respects to the person seated above, "Greetings, venerable senior!"

Upon hearing this, Lu Chen was slightly startled.

Senior?

Lu Chen then asked, "Who are you?"

Wang Chixuan replied, "Young one's name is Wang Chixuan, from Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, under King Guangren. King Guangren heard that a mighty Immortal King is resting in the Land of Chaos, so he sent me to present some gifts."

Hearing this, Lu Chen paused again. From Wang Chixuan's words, it seemed Lu Jingfu wanted to win him over?

Could it be Lu Jingfu didn't know his true identity, only knowing there's a powerful Immortal in the Land of Chaos?

Returning to his senses, Lu Chen asked, "What gifts?"

"Gifts" can be of two kinds. Some are genuine gifts, while others are intimidation tactics.

Before seeing the "gifts" Wang Chixuan spoke of, Lu Chen couldn't determine whether they were genuine.

Without seeing the gifts, Lu Chen couldn't gauge Lu Jingfu's attitude towards him.

If the gifts Wang Chixuan brought were indeed genuine, then it's clear Lu Jingfu didn't know his identity and was trying to win him over.

But if the "gifts" relate to his past, then it shows Lu Jingfu already recognized him and was intimidating him.

Upon Lu Chen's words, Wang Chixuan didn't hesitate to take out the Space Ring containing the gifts.

Lu Chen used his Immortal Aura to draw the Space Ring into his hand, then checked the contents inside.

Inside the Space Ring were over a dozen precious herbs, and even a leaf containing the Power of Laws.

Lu Chen thought internally, it really was to deliver gifts. It seems Lu Jingfu truly didn't know his identity and was trying to win him over.

Storing away the Space Ring, Lu Chen asked, "I'm a bit curious, how did your lord know of me?"

Wang Chixuan answered truthfully, "Not long ago, someone used a Transmission Array left by our lord to teleport to our king's Royal Palace. From them, we learned that King Anyuan had sent someone strong to trouble you."

Lu Chen said, "I see."

It appears Lu Jingfu discovered Lu Jing also sent people to the Land of Chaos, and those people even clashed with him. So, he deduced there's enmity between them. Moreover, when he killed Xiao Yunze, Lu Chen displayed strength resembling that of an Immortal King. Observing this through the memory of that person, Lu Jingfu decided to win him over.

Lu Chen couldn't help but feel amused.

Since Lu Jingfu willingly gave him Cultivation Resources, he couldn't waste his gesture.

With this in mind, Lu Chen said to Wang Chixuan, "When you return, thank King Guangren on my behalf. These herbs are exactly what I need."

Upon Lu Chen's words, Wang Chixuan was delighted internally, though he refrained from immediately asking Lu Chen to assist Lu Jingfu. After all, as an Immortal King, even an injured one, would still be prideful. Simply giving some herbs and asking him to join Tianxia Immortal Dynasty seemed too insulting and could provoke anger.

Wang Chixuan then said, "Venerable senior, our king mentioned that if you ever require assistance, you can send someone to inform him. As long as it's within his capacity, he will help you."

Smiling, Lu Chen replied, "Then I thank King Guangren in advance. If King Guangren ever needs my assistance, I'll do my utmost to help."

Hearing this, Wang Chixuan was even happier, not expecting their king to win over an Immortal King so easily.

Lu Chen then said, "Alright, I have to cultivate now. You may leave at your convenience."

Wang Chixuan replied, "Yes, senior. I won't disturb you anymore."

Then Wang Chixuan voluntarily left the City Lord's Mansion.

After Wang Chixuan left, Lu Zhengze stood watching the direction of the door with a strange expression.

After a while, Lu Zhengze finally spoke, "My lord, King Guangren probably doesn't know it's you."

Lu Chen, with a smile, said, "He wishes to borrow a knife to kill someone."

"He knows that after I killed those sent by Lu Jing, he assumes I have a grudge with Lu Jing. Thus, he's trying to ally with me against Lu Jing."

Lu Zhengze said, "If King Anyuan learns of our contact with King Guangren, might he suspect we've allied with him?"

Lu Chen said, “No, it was Lu Jingfu who caused my downfall. There’s no way I’d reconcile with Lu Jingfu. Lu Jing would never think I’m so magnanimous.”

“However, when Lu Jing learns of this, he’ll likely send someone to inquire.”

“Alright, you and Xiaoshuang go prepare. Once matters here are handed over, leave the Land of Chaos and find a place to break through.”

“Yes, my lord!”
