Chapter 1731: Chapter 1421: So-Called Righteous Sects Are Nothing Special

Although Lu Chen had just come out from the Chaotic Sea not long ago, Ling Yin Immortal King believed that Lu Chen still had trump cards. After all, Lu Chen managed to kill Lu Jingfu last time and retreat unscathed among a group of Immortal Kings. Although she didn't know how Lu Chen did it, she believed in her heart that Lu Chen must have some special means to temporarily deal with Immortal Kings.

Of course, if Lu Chen had no other means, she could only stay in the Mysterious Moon Palace and not support Weixue Immortal Monarch and the others. Weixue Immortal Monarch and his group had life-saving treasures, and even if they encountered an Immortal King they couldn't defeat, they could still escape.

Ling Yin Immortal King came to ask Lu Chen just to try her luck.

Upon hearing Ling Yin Immortal King's question, Lu Chen thought for a moment. He checked the usage times for the Immortal King's Remain Curse. Now, the usage had accumulated to two times, so he could make a move twice.

So he said, “If a Jade Dragon Sect really appears as an Immortal King, then you should go in person. By the way, let me impart an Immortal Law to you. This Immortal Law can suppress Evil Immortals.”

Hearing this, Ling Yin Immortal King was slightly stunned. Suppressing Evil Immortals? If it really can do that, once this Immortal Law spreads in the Mysterious Moon Palace, their advantage in this war would be even greater.

At this point, Lu Chen condensed the Immortal Law into an Inheritance Memory Pearl, which then flew into Ling Yin Immortal King’s forehead.

Realizing this was a Heavenly Rank Immortal Law, Ling Yin Immortal King was momentarily stunned, but she quickly reacted. It was not surprising for Lu Chen to possess such an Immortal Law, having visited various secret realms and small worlds left by Immortal Emperors billions of years ago. Ling Yin Immortal King did not think much of it.

After obtaining the Immortal Law, Ling Yin Immortal King said, “Then I’ll go cultivate it first?”

Lu Chen replied, “Yes, alright.”

Ling Yin Immortal King then turned and left Lu Chen's courtyard. After Ling Yin Immortal King left, the two women beside Lu Chen gave him strange looks.

Seeing their odd gazes, Lu Chen chuckled, "What's with those looks?"

Xiao Xueying suspiciously asked, "Junior Brother, are you staying in the Mysterious Moon Palace without leaving because you're thinking about the Hall Master?"

Throughout the entire Mysterious Moon Palace, excluding the Outer Sect disciples, only five had almost no ties with men. The rest had more or less rumors about being coupled. These five were Xiao Xueying, Cao Shiyun, Ye Chuyao, Yun Yudie, and Ling Yin Immortal King.

Now, four of these five had become Lu Chen's women, and Xiao Xueying and Cao Shiyun were quite suspicious that Lu Chen's next target might be their Hall Master.

Lu Chen just smiled and did not answer Xiao Xueying's question. Seeing the smile on Lu Chen's face, the two women immediately understood Lu Chen's intentions.

Alright, he really is thinking about their Hall Master, no wonder he once said he had a grudge against their Hall Master and yet was unwilling to leave. It turns out he wanted to make her one of his women as well.

However, this does align with his style. In the past, didn't the Saintess of the Mysterious Moon Palace also fight to the death with him, only to eventually join him in the Chaotic Sea after he was defeated?

For Immortals, there's no such saying as being inseparable. When Lu Chen was defeated, that Saintess of the Mysterious Moon Palace could have left him entirely, but she didn't, proving she had fallen in love with Lu Chen.

There were many such examples. Besides that Saintess, many of Lu Chen's women initially had conflicts with him. Truly, they were unknown until they clashed.

The two women thought to themselves, this man's most magical trait was precisely here, making those who once hated him fall in love with him, which also proved how outstanding he was.

Lu Chen then said, "Right, let me also impart a few Immortal Laws to you."

Even though he always kept a clone by their side to protect them, who knows when some unexpected situation might occur, leaving them without his clone. If they later encountered Evil Immortals, having the Immortal Laws he imparted would still give them some power for self-preservation.

With those words, Lu Chen condensed the content of the few Immortal Laws into Inheritance Memory Pearls, which he sent to Xiao Xueying and Cao Shiyun's foreheads.

After the Inheritance Memory Pearls fused, both women's faces showed joy. Ever since becoming Lu Chen's women, they had been somewhat worried, mainly because Lu Chen's previous women were too outstanding. If not princesses of some Immortal Dynasty, then they were Saintesses of major forces. The two feared they couldn't match Lu Chen and would hold him back.

After marrying Lu Chen, besides the time spent with him, they had been diligently cultivating. However, the Immortal Laws they cultivated weren't very good, and compared to the talents of Tianyan Immortal Domain's top forces, their own aptitudes were relatively mediocre, hence their inner anxiety.

Now Lu Chen gave them all Heavenly Rank Immortal Laws, and if they continued to cultivate these, their strength would greatly increase.

After fusing with the Inheritance Memory Pearls, Xiao Xueying and Cao Shiyun immediately stood up, Xiao Xueying said, "Junior Brother, I'll go cultivate first."

Cao Shiyun showed a slight smile and also said, "Junior Brother, I'll go cultivate too."

Lu Chen replied, "Alright, go ahead."

The two women then returned to their respective rooms to start closed-door cultivation.

A month later.

Jade Dragon Sect, inside the Meeting Hall.

Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch was silent, staring at the projected image before him, his face gloomy.

To weaken the strength of the Mysterious Moon Palace, the Jade Dragon Sect had set up many formation traps. However, those formations were all destroyed by the affiliated sect forces of the Mysterious Moon Palace, and the Mysterious Moon Palace's disciples had yet to attack.

If things continued like this, the carefully arranged traps by the Jade Dragon Sect could soon be completely uncovered by those affiliated forces.

Seeing the image before him, Broken Soul Immortal Monarch sneered, "Using those diminished affiliated sect forces as cannon fodder, these so-called righteous sects are just like that."

The formations set by the Jade Dragon Sect were mostly powerful kill formations. Any affiliated sect disciple who touched them was almost certainly dead. In just one month, countless disciples from the Mysterious Moon Palace's affiliated sects had already died, yet the main palace's disciples had suffered almost no casualties.

Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch remarked, "No matter, didn't we anticipate this happening from the start? The disciples from those affiliated forces only triggered some simple passive kill formations, while there are still formations requiring a large amount of immortal power that haven't been activated. Those formations are reserved for the Mysterious Moon Palace's disciples."

"Furthermore, the massive death of disciples from the Mysterious Moon Palace's affiliated sects is actually a good thing for us."

On the one hand, they were Evil Immortals, and cultivating as an Evil Immortal required blood energy. The massive death of those affiliated sect disciples filled the vicinity of the Jade Dragon Sect with blood energy, making it very comfortable for the Evil Immortals who had already arrived at the Jade Dragon Sect, similar to when they were at the Blood Eagle Hall.

With such a thick blood energy environment, the Evil Immortals' strength would also receive a significant boost.

Chapter 1732 - 1422: With Just These Few Immortal Monarchs, There's No Need for Our Hall Masters to Act

The large number of deaths of disciples from the affiliated forces of the Mysterious Moon Palace not only increases the concentration of blood aura nearby but also weakens the strength of the Mysterious Moon Palace to a certain extent.

These sects were originally affiliated forces of the Mysterious Moon Palace, and although most sect forces can be swayed, most of them will choose to follow the Mysterious Moon Palace unless it shows signs of defeat. After all, Blood Eagle Hall is a path of evil, and few righteous forces are willing to ally with such an evil force. Blood Eagle Hall, as a truly evil force, might be eradicated by those super forces one day.

Now, with the disciples of these affiliated forces dying en masse, their strength is greatly weakened, which equates to the weakening of the Mysterious Moon Palace's strength.

Another crucial point is that the Mysterious Moon Palace lets these affiliated sects bear the brunt while hiding behind them, and this will eventually lead to dissatisfaction among those affiliated sects. Even if the leaders of those sects do not voice it, the disciples will harbor resentment.

In this way, it increases the possibility of these affiliated forces betraying the Mysterious Moon Palace.

At this moment, the Broken Soul Immortal Monarch said, "The Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch is right; this is indeed good for us. The blood aura near the Jade Dragon Sect is now so thick that it feels like we're in Blood Eagle Hall. Such dense blood aura is more favorable for our disciples of Blood Eagle Hall to enhance their cultivation state."

The Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch then took out a jade scroll, stating, "This is intelligence I obtained earlier."

As he finished speaking, the jade scroll emitted a beam of light, and the intelligence within projected into the air.

Upon seeing the words before them, the Broken Soul Immortal Monarch smiled and said, "I said the Immortal King of the Mysterious Moon Palace wouldn't come. If she doesn't come, then their four Immortal Monarchs of the Mysterious Moon Palace are likely to fall here. The Mysterious Moon Palace will lose four Immortal Monarchs at once, which will certainly severely damage the qi fortune of the Immortal Sect."

At this time, the Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch curiously asked, "Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch, where did you get this intelligence? Is it accurate?"

The Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch replied indifferently, "It was provided by the Baiman Immortal Monarch, who has already decided to surrender to Blood Eagle Hall."

Upon hearing this, the Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch quickly understood; it explains why the Baiman Sect has been working but not exerting effort—the area where Baiman Sect is located has not been touched by even one formation.

The Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch continued, "The Mysterious Moon Palace is worried that this is our strategy to lure them away from their territory, unaware that our true purpose is merely to weaken their strength."

This war between the Immortal Sect is not something that can be concluded in a day or two. Besides, the Mysterious Moon Palace is protected by formations; how could they be ambushed? Especially when the Mysterious Moon Palace's qi fortune is so abundant.

Even though Yun Yudie is in seclusion, attacking her now could lead her to fall into a demonic state. But if their Immortal King doesn't strike successfully during the ambush and their attack merely hits the formation, Yun Yudie's current strength could instead severely injure the Blood Eagle Hall's Immortal King.

The Mysterious Moon Palace's current Immortal Sect qi fortune is so plentiful that it's terrifying. The three Hall Masters of Blood Eagle Hall could never take such a risk; they are evil, but not foolish.

Even knowing that the Ling Yin Immortal King will not come, the Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch still shows a little concern. The Blood Eagle Hall has too many affiliated forces; if they continue fighting like this, the Mysterious Moon Palace might not even need to intervene before they attack the Jade Dragon Sect.

Indeed, they have arranged some powerful formations needing manual activation, but if the affiliated forces of the Mysterious Moon Palace attack the Jade Dragon Sect and the Mysterious Moon Palace still doesn't intervene, then the Jade Dragon Sect will need to activate these formations. By then, wouldn't these formations be exposed?

Thinking of this, the Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch asked, "If the Jade Dragon Sect really cannot hold on, would there be a Hall Master coming to the Jade Dragon Sect?"

The Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch chuckled and then said, "Just these few Immortal Monarchs, where would we need our Hall Masters to act? The Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch can rest assured; once other Immortal Monarchs of Blood Eagle Hall are transported here, it would only take a few days to destroy the cultivators of the Mysterious Moon Palace."

Upon hearing this, the Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch sighed in relief, knowing other Immortal Monarchs would arrive at the Jade Dragon Sect soon.

The powers of the Evil Immortals inherently suppress the Righteous Immortal. If two or three more Immortal Monarchs come, then the outcome of this war would have little suspense.

Meanwhile.

Atop Wind Control Hall.

Weixue Immortal Monarch again gathered the Elders of the Mysterious Moon Palace to discuss a battle meeting, realizing the formations of the Jade Dragon Sect seemed to have been nearly consumed. It was time for the main force of the Mysterious Moon Palace to enter the fray.

After everyone had arrived, Weixue Immortal Monarch spoke, "Now that the formations around the Jade Dragon Sect have been broken, it is time for the disciples of the Mysterious Moon Palace to attack. If we delay further, it might cause dissatisfaction among the affiliated sects."

Weixue Immortal Monarch is naturally aware that letting affiliated sects lead can evoke resentment, but in this world where the weak are prey, the weak naturally serve as expendable. However, even as expendable resources, there must be a limit; if they are continually being used as expendables alone, it will eventually drive those affiliated forces to side with the enemy.

After hearing Weixue Immortal Monarch's words, another Immortal Monarch said, "I always feel that everything has been too smooth."

Ye Chuyao also spoke at this time, "Indeed, too smooth. Although many formations have been dismantled by those affiliated sects, the grades of those formations are not very high, and we have yet to see a few Evil Immortals until now."

Another Elder said, "Perhaps this is the strategy to lure us away from our territory; seeing that the Mysterious Moon Palace didn't take the bait and the Ling Yin Hall Master didn't leave the Mysterious Moon Palace for a long time, they gave up on the Jade Dragon Sect."

Lu Chen said, "Blood Eagle Hall hasn't even dispatched Immortal Monarch level strongmen, how could they draw out the Ling Yin Hall Master? If it were truly a strategy to lure us away, they wouldn't send just Immortal Monarchs; deploying an Immortal King wouldn't be impossible either."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's words, Weixue Immortal Monarch slightly furrowed her brows, contemplating. What Lu Chen said was quite right; if Blood Eagle Hall intended to lure us away, it wouldn't send not even one Immortal Monarch.

Blood Eagle Hall did not display high-end combat power at the Jade Dragon Sect; how could it possibly lead their Immortal King from the Mysterious Moon Palace?

Hence, if this really is Blood Eagle Hall's strategy to lure away, then this war might just be beginning. The formations near the Jade Dragon Sect may merely be appetizers.

But even if they knew the Jade Dragon Sect and Blood Eagle Hall are taking precautions, they must launch an attack. In the past month, the number of casualties among the affiliated sects has been exceptionally high. So, if the Mysterious Moon Palace, as the Upper Sect, does not take action, it will incite dissatisfaction among those affiliated sects. By then, those affiliated sects could fleet to join Blood Eagle Hall, making things more troublesome.

With this in mind, Weixue Immortal Monarch said, "Whether or not it's a strategy to lure us away, we can no longer afford to delay. In ten days, we attack the Jade Dragon Sect with full force."

Chapter 1733: Chapter 1423: How Did You Know He Was a Traitor?

Upon receiving the news that Mysterious Moon Palace was going to launch a full-scale attack on Jade Dragon Sect, those affiliated sects finally breathed a sigh of relief. Although they knew their role was merely cannon fodder, they would surely feel discontent if the main sect did nothing.

Meanwhile, at Jade Dragon Sect.

Inside the grand hall, when the three members of Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch learned of the news that Mysterious Moon Palace would attack Jade Dragon Sect in ten days, they couldn't help but smile, especially Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch.

This was his first war since joining Blood Eagle Hall; if he could severely damage Mysterious Moon Palace, it would be a major accomplishment for him, even though their disciples of Jade Dragon Sect had hardly gone to the front lines, most formations were arranged by Jade Dragon Sect.

Even though Blood Eagle Hall provided some formations, the materials and Immortal Crystals needed for the formations were supplied by Jade Dragon Sect, and the entire reason Mysterious Moon Palace was attacking Jade Dragon Sect was because Jade Dragon Sect was the bait.

Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch said at this time: "I didn't expect them to be unable to hold back so soon. I thought they would drag on for a few more months."

Generally speaking, for an Immortal Sect, encircling such a small sect doesn't take much time; Mysterious Moon Palace didn't attack for a month mostly because they feared Blood Eagle Hall had arranged some terrifying Great Array, so they sent affiliated forces to trigger those formations first.

Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch and others understood what Mysterious Moon Palace was thinking, and from the start, they didn't think they could stall for long, but stalling for a few months was still possible.

Broken Soul Immortal Monarch laughed and said: “The affiliated sects of Mysterious Moon Palace have lost so many people, if they drag on any longer, those affiliated sects might rebel.”

Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch said: “Since they took the initiative to attack, it’s our turn to make a move next.”

As he spoke, Heavenly Slaughter Immortal Monarch took out ten Array Flags, each flag representing a formation. These were ten formations, each one of Earth Grade or above.

As long as the disciples of Mysterious Moon Palace dare to step into the formation, he would let them know what hell is.

At this time, beneath Wind Control Hall.

Lu Chen left Wind Control Hall, preparing to patrol the nearby camps. With the attack on Jade Dragon Sect imminent, as the direct disciple of the hall master, it’s natural for him to appear more often to boost morale.

At this time, Lu Chen arrived at the camp responsible for the Artifact Refining Pavilion's garrison. As he arrived at the camp, he coincidentally met Baiman Immortal Monarch.

Baiman Immortal Monarch saw Lu Chen and greeted him with a smile, saying: "Greetings, Master Lu."

Lu Chen merely responded with an "Hmm," without saying much, and then he prepared to see what the senior sisters of the Artifact Refining Pavilion were doing.

Just then, Lu Chen suddenly thought of something and asked: "Is Sect Master Baiman here to collect Immortal Artifacts?"

In this war, the Immortal Artifacts used by affiliated sects were mostly refined by Mysterious Moon Palace's artifact refiners. Every few days, those affiliated sects would dispatch someone to collect Immortal Artifacts or send damaged ones for repair.

Despite Mysterious Moon Palace being a female sect, the number of artifact refiners there was considerable, and the quality of Immortal Artifacts manufactured by these artifact refiners was far superior to those of affiliated sects' artifact refiners.

Upon hearing Lu Chen's question, Baiman Immortal Monarch didn't think much and replied immediately: "Yes."

The next moment, Lu Chen used the system to identify Baiman Immortal Monarch's identity.

[Name: Baiman Immortal Monarch]

[Identity: Sect Master of Baiman Sect, Blood Eagle Hall's secret agent]

[Strength: Immortal Monarch Realm]

[Loyalty: o]

Seeing this scene, Lu Chen thought to himself, as expected.

He had suddenly stopped Baiman Immortal Monarch earlier because this month he noticed that Baiman Sect's casualties were very few.

That alone was suspicious enough; the low casualties of Baiman Sect clearly indicated they hadn't engaged in any direct confrontations with the disciples of Jade Dragon Sect, yet Baiman Immortal Monarch was so proactive in collecting Immortal Artifacts.

A typical case of shirking work while seeking benefits; there surely is some problem.

Of course, there was also a chance that Baiman Immortal Monarch was being unscrupulous, but at this crucial time, Lu Chen decided to be cautious.

Anyway, using the system to identify his identity wouldn't consume much time, and the result of this identification showed that Baiman Immortal Monarch had indeed betrayed Mysterious Moon Palace and joined Blood Eagle Hall.

Lu Chen didn't immediately expose Baiman Immortal Monarch; with a smile on his face, he said: "This period has been arduous for your Baiman Sect; if not for your several sects, Mysterious Moon Palace would have lost more excellent disciples."

Baiman Immortal Monarch feigned courtesy and said: "This is what we should do."

Baiman Immortal Monarch asked: "Master Lu, is there anything else? If not, I'll return to the garrison."

Lu Chen replied: “Alright, I won’t delay Sect Master Baiman’s time.”

“I shall take my leave,” as he spoke, Baiman Immortal Monarch turned into a stream of light and disappeared from the garrison of the Artifact Refining Pavilion.

After Baiman Immortal Monarch left, Lu Chen heard several senior sisters of the Artifact Refining Pavilion grumbling: “Baiman Sect hasn’t killed many enemies on the battlefield, yet they’re so eager when it comes to collecting Immortal Artifacts; they’re always the first to come!”

Upon hearing this, Lu Chen chuckled; not exerting effort yet obtaining so many high-quality Immortal Artifacts, of course, they’re eager.

Lu Chen didn’t linger here; now that he knew Baiman Immortal Monarch was a traitor, he had to hastily inform Weixue Immortal Monarch to prevent Baiman Sect from stabbing Mysterious Moon Palace in the back during the attack.

Soon, Lu Chen returned to Wind Control Hall in the sky, where Weixue Immortal Monarch and several other Immortal Monarchs were looking at the projection map before them. They were also assessing the terrain to see where Blood Eagle Hall might have set up formations.

Though the affiliated sects suffered heavy casualties, their advance was indeed rather swift—they were almost at the gates of Jade Dragon Sect, yet hadn't encountered a significant number of Evil Immortals, not even Blood Eagle Hall's Immortal Monarch-level experts had appeared.

Seeing Lu Chen arrive in the hall, one Immortal Monarch asked: "Chen Lu, do you have something to report?"

Lu Chen said without hesitation: "I just discovered that Baiman Immortal Monarch has already betrayed Mysterious Moon Palace and defected to Blood Eagle Hall."

Upon hearing this, everyone present was stunned.

Weixue Immortal Monarch furrowed her brows slightly, looking seriously at Lu Chen and asked: "Chen Lu, this matter is of grave importance, how did you ascertain he is a traitor?"

Lu Chen replied: "Honored Master bestowed me with a special Magic Treasure, allowing me to discern whether someone harbors disloyal thoughts. Back in Sky Wolf City, I used that Magic Treasure to discover those noble families had already betrayed Mysterious Moon Palace."

This...

Upon hearing this, the few Immortal Monarch Elders were stunned again. How come they hadn't heard their hall master possessed such a Magic Treasure?

But speaking of which, Chen Lu was the hall master's direct disciple; he shouldn't be spouting nonsense, right?

Weixue Immortal Monarch said at this moment: "I have been observing Baiman Sect closely lately, and indeed, Baiman Sect has been shirking work while sustaining very few casualties."

"However, given that they are an affiliated sect of Mysterious Moon Palace, we cannot simply label them as traitors without concrete evidence."

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Chapter 1734: Chapter 1424: Rumors Between Camps

Currently, it's a critical period. If we deal hastily with a sect without any evidence, it will surely cause concern among the other affiliated sects.

By then, these sects will definitely think that they risked their lives for the Mysterious Moon Palace, only for the palace to destroy them on a whim without any evidence.

Such actions will surely be hard to convince the masses.

Hearing Weixue Immortal Monarch's words, Lu Chen pondered for a moment. He naturally understood what Weixue Immortal Monarch was worried about.

Lu Chen then suggested, "How about I go to his encampment and test him? As I am the direct disciple of the Xuan Yue, capturing me would be a great achievement for him."

Weixue Immortal Monarch immediately replied, "No!"

"Since you know you're the direct disciple of the Hall Master, your safety is even more important. Don't get involved in this matter; I will find a way."

Weixue Immortal Monarch didn't doubt Lu Chen's words too much. She had already sensed something was off with the Baiman Sect, but Lu Chen merely pointed out that Baiman Sect was the traitor.

What is most crucial now is finding evidence of Baiman Sect betraying the Mysterious Moon Palace. The palace plans to launch a full-scale attack on the Jade Dragon Sect in a few days. If the traitor is not dealt with, they might stab us in the back, and the palace could find itself besieged on all sides.

Seeing Weixue Immortal Monarch say this, Lu Chen didn't say more. After all, he had already reminded Weixue Immortal Monarch, and he believed she would know what to do.

Ling Yin Immortal King would not have tasked Weixue Immortal Monarch with overseeing this campaign if she wasn't capable; Lu Chen trusted Ling Yin Immortal King's choice.

A day later.

A burly man with fiery red hair arrived at the encampment of the Artifact Refining Pavilion to collect Immortal Artifacts. While the disciples of the Artifact Refining Pavilion were checking the artifacts, he waited by the side, overhearing the disciples' discussions.

"Didn't expect the Baiman Sect to be this formidable!"

"Indeed, it's said that only three people from Baiman Sect died in this war, and I heard those three died because they accidentally triggered formations."

“Compared to Baiman Sect, other sects have suffered far more casualties.”

“Baiman Sect is truly strong.”

“Next time I find a couple, I must choose someone from Baiman Sect!”

“Baiman Sect people are always the most eager to collect Immortal Artifacts, so of course we’re giving priority to them. How can they not be strong?”

Upon hearing these discussions, the red-haired man’s brows furrowed deeply.

The people behind might not know, but as someone on the front lines, how could he not be aware of Baiman Sect’s situation? Since the start of this war, Baiman Sect has been making half-hearted efforts; he hasn’t seen them disrupt even a few of the formations of the Jade Dragon Sect.

Now people from the Mysterious Moon Palace actually say Baiman Sect is the strongest among their affiliated sects. Of course, the most unbearable part is that the Mysterious Moon Palace prioritized providing Immortal Artifacts to Baiman Sect, and they only lost three people?

The Xuan Fox Sect has lost nearly ten thousand disciples, and Baiman Sect only lost three people?

This stark contrast left the Xuan Fox Sect Master deeply displeased. He didn't even bother to collect the Immortal Artifacts and directly flew towards the Wind Control Hall in the sky.

Upon arriving at the grand hall, the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch sent a voice transmission, "Weixue Immortal Monarch, I have something to ask you."

The next moment, Weixue Immortal Monarch's voice came, "Come in."

Immediately after, the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch entered the grand hall, where Weixue Immortal Monarch, with a puzzled expression, asked, "What happened?"

The Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch gave a cold snort and then said, "I heard that the Mysterious Moon Palace's Immortal Artifacts are prioritized for the Baiman Sect people?"

Weixue Immortal Monarch was momentarily stunned and then replied, “Prioritized for them? Who said that? Aren’t those Immortal Artifacts distributed to whoever comes to claim them first? Moreover, each sect receives a fixed quota of Immortal Artifacts.”

The Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch displeasedly said, “This is even more unfair. Why does a sect like Baiman Sect, which does not put in effort, get so many Immortal Artifacts?”

“I just heard from a disciple of the Artifact Refining Pavilion that Baiman Sect has only lost three people so far. You must know our Xuan Fox Sect lost over a thousand people just triggering a formation. If Baiman Sect really put in effort, how could they only lose this few?”

Seeing the aggrieved look on the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch’s face, Weixue Immortal Monarch furrowed her brows slightly and said seriously, “Xuan Fox, though you are my couple, you mustn’t speak carelessly without evidence, especially during such a critical time. How do you know they haven’t put in effort?”

Upon hearing this, the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch calmed down a bit and said, “I am right at the front line. Of course, I know whether Baiman Sect put in effort or not. Even if they exerted a little more effort, they couldn’t have lost so few. You must know, our Xuan Fox Sect lost over ten thousand disciples and several Outer Sect Elders.”

Weixue Immortal Monarch fell into contemplation, and the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch continued, “Weixue, this campaign against the Jade Dragon Sect is under your command. As your couple, I should indeed fully support you, but you cannot let such slackers mingle among us, take the benefits, and do no work.”

Weixue Immortal Monarch said, “I understand, I will investigate this. If other sect masters also report this matter to me, during the full-scale attack, I will assign Baiman Sect as the vanguard.”

Hearing Weixue Immortal Monarch’s words, the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch was secretly pleased and said, “I understand!”

“I’ll go collect the Immortal Artifacts now, so I won’t disturb you further.”

When the Mysterious Moon Palace initiated this war, the Xuan Fox Sect was the first to respond, especially because the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch is the couple of Weixue Immortal Monarch, and she wanted to perform well in front of him.

But now, seeing Baiman Sect’s small casualties, the palace disciples mistakenly thought Baiman Sect was so powerful, which made it unbearable for the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch.

Returning with the Immortal Artifacts, the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch vented his frustrations to other sects' Immortal Monarchs, and they also heard the rumors about Baiman Sect's minimal casualties.

Soon, the affiliated sects of the Mysterious Moon Palace all became very dissatisfied with Baiman Sect. In the same war, their sects had lost thousands, even tens of thousands of disciples, yet Baiman Sect only lost a few?

Soon after, the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch led a group of Immortal Monarchs to the Wind Control Hall, seeking justice from Weixue Immortal Monarch.

Inside the Wind Control Hall, the sect masters of the affiliated sects were all furious.

Seeing this scene, Weixue Immortal Monarch knew it was about time and said, "I've heard about the situation. I'll summon the Baiman Sect Master to the Wind Control Hall."

After saying this, Weixue Immortal Monarch sent a message to Baiman Immortal Monarch.

Upon receiving Weixue Immortal Monarch's message, Baiman Immortal Monarch sensed something was amiss. He didn't think he was exposed, but he had heard some of the rumors spreading between the camps recently.

While other sects lost so many, Baiman Sect only lost a few. Such rumors spreading would surely upset those sects.

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

The Baiman Immortal Monarch quickly arrived at the Wind Control Hall. As soon as he got there, he saw the Sect Masters from other sects staring at him angrily.

Cold sweat instantly appeared on the Baiman Immortal Monarch's forehead. He cursed in his heart, damn it, don't let me find out who's spreading rumors behind my back!

This news spreading in such a short time must be because a sect at the frontlines discovered his lack of effort and felt unbalanced, so they spread such rumors.

Although the Baiman Sect has already allied with the Blood Eagle Hall, it's impossible that only a few disciples died. He's no fool; anyone can see that there's a problem with just a few casualties, clearly the rumor spreader exaggerated on purpose.

Of course, compared to other sects, the Baiman Sect did lose fewer people, and those from the Baiman Sect who died were all ordinary disciples.

Quickly calming his anxiety, the Baiman Immortal Monarch smiled and asked, "Weixue Immortal Monarch, what is the reason for calling me here?"

Before the Weixue Immortal Monarch could respond, the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch spoke up, "Baiman Immortal Monarch, I've heard that the Baiman Sect is quite powerful. But with the war raging on, only a few from your sect have perished."

Upon hearing this, the Baiman Immortal Monarch immediately responded sternly, "Rumors, these are all rumors. Those are ruthless Evil Immortals; how could the Baiman Sect have lost only a few people? It must be someone spreading falsehoods to frame us."

At this moment, another sect's Sect Master said, "Rumors? I doubt that. My sect is closest to the Baiman Sect's camp, and every time I return, I hear our disciples say that your camp is lively with song and dance, certainly not looking like it's at war."

The cultivators of the Baiman Sect are mostly men, and almost all follow the path of Body Refinement. Their physiques are strong, their vitality is vigorous, and their energy is abundant. Typically, such people would vent energy through combat.

Of course, there's another way to vent energy, which is finding some female cultivators. For these immortals, just one word can turn countless female cultivators into their female slaves.

In theory, this war was the best opportunity for the Baiman Sect disciples to vent their energy. If they really participated in this war, they wouldn't need any woman's help.

Apparently, they've been staying in camp without engaging in any battles, leading to such repression, choosing instead to spend energy on those female cultivators.

After hearing the Sect Master's words, the Baiman Immortal Monarch darkened. He had already told the sect disciples to keep a low profile, but those fools not only failed to do so but even brought many female cultivators to the camp, spending their days indulging in revelry. Not being discovered would be bizarre.

Just as the Baiman Immortal Monarch wanted to continue arguing, the Weixue Immortal Monarch spoke, "Sect Master of Baiman, after discussing among the Sect Masters, we made a decision."

"When launching a full-scale attack, the Baiman Sect will be the vanguard."

The Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch then smiled at the Baiman Immortal Monarch and said, "Baiman Immortal Monarch, this is a great opportunity for meritorious achievement; your sect should cherish it."

Hearing their words, the Baiman Immortal Monarch's expression turned even gloomier. He had planned to ambush the Mysterious Moon Palace, but now they assigned him as the vanguard—how could he ambush them now?

If they were the vanguard, they might trigger some terrifying formations, and once the Mysterious Moon Palace learned that he had betrayed them, they'd eliminate them directly.

After all, they are the vanguard, right on the attack route of the Mysterious Moon Palace.

The Baiman Immortal Monarch wanted to say something, but upon seeing the Sect Masters staring directly at him, he knew he couldn't evade it, so he had no choice but to say, "Yes, obeying the orders of the Upper Sect."

Since the Weixue Immortal Monarch had spoken, it was meaningless to say more; military orders are unwavering, and the Sect Masters clearly wouldn't permit them to shirk.

The Weixue Immortal Monarch continued, "Okay, that's it for this matter. Do any of you have other concerns? If not, let's start discussing attacking the Jade Dragon Sect."

Afterward, the Weixue Immortal Monarch began arranging the preparations, and the Baiman Immortal Monarch listened carefully throughout, thinking to himself that he would never act as the vanguard.

After the strategy meeting, he would immediately tell the Jade Dragon Sect about the deployment of the Mysterious Moon Palace, then, on the day of the full-scale war, he would lead the Baiman Sect disciples to surrender to the Blood Eagle Hall.

Soon, the war meeting ended.

Upon learning about the Weixue Immortal Monarch's strategy, Lu Chen thought to himself that the Mysterious Moon Palace's women truly were extraordinary. Announcing the Baiman Sect as the vanguard under conditions of dissatisfaction from other sects—this way, the Baiman Immortal Monarch wouldn't realize he had already been exposed.

The Baiman Sect is a bunch of Body Refinement enthusiasts without much intellect. Even if they were tricked, they might not realize it. Next, the Baiman Sect would secretly prepare to head to the Jade Dragon Sect or start cooperating with the Evil Immortals of the Blood Eagle Hall, allowing the Mysterious Moon Palace to rightfully eliminate the Baiman Sect.

Meanwhile, in a room in the Wind Control Hall.

The Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch stood before the Weixue Immortal Monarch, puzzled, asking, "Weixue, did you summon me for something urgent?"

Even in the Immortal World, between couples, importance is recognized beyond romance. Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch knew Weixue called him at this time must be for something important.

The Weixue Immortal Monarch directly stated, "I suspect the Baiman Sect has defected."

Hearing this, the Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch was slightly taken aback.

After a while, he reacted, then chuckled, "I'm not surprised one bit; such a huge war, other sects have lost tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands of lives, yet their sect lost so few—I've long suspected something's up."

The Weixue Immortal Monarch continued, "This time, making the Baiman Sect the vanguard, once the Baiman Immortal Monarch returns, he will surely take action."

The Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch pondered briefly and then said, "I'll keep a close watch on them. Should they act, I'll eliminate them immediately."

Compared to the Baiman Sect, the Xuan Fox Sect is stronger. Despite losing nearly a hundred thousand in this war, their sect's foundation is profound enough to withstand such losses.

The Weixue Immortal Monarch said, "Thank you for your trouble then."

The Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch replied, "Between us, there's no need for politeness. Besides, the Xuan Fox Sect is an Affiliated Sect to the Mysterious Moon Palace; this is what we should do."

The Weixue Immortal Monarch gave a slight smile, saying nothing more.

Meanwhile.

After returning to the Baiman Sect's camp, the Baiman Immortal Monarch immediately gathered the elders to discuss what to do next.

Upon hearing that they were to be the vanguard, the elders of the Baiman Sect were all immensely furious.

Chapter 1736: Chapter 1426: I Believe Those Two Will Leave the Wind Control Hall

In the temporary conference hall of the Baiman Sect, Baiman Immortal Monarch glanced at the Elders present, who were visibly angry, with a slight curl of his lips. His goal was achieved; this was exactly the effect he wanted.

Although the Baiman Sect had been in contact with the Blood Eagle Hall for a long time, there were still some Elders in Baiman Sect who opposed allying with Blood Eagle Hall. They held onto some fantasies about the Mysterious Moon Palace, believing that the Palace had such strong Qi Fortune that defeating Blood Eagle Hall shouldn't be a problem.

Now, the Mysterious Moon Palace wanted them, Baiman Sect, to take the lead, which touched the core interests of the Baiman Sect. If they really took the lead, who knows how many would die. Even those Elders who were previously unwilling to join Blood Eagle Hall had no words to say.

Since Mysterious Moon Palace was treating them as expendables, naturally, they wouldn't lean towards the Palace anymore. Baiman Immortal Monarch thought to himself, Mysterious Moon Palace rather helped him a great deal.

“Mysterious Moon Palace is truly bullying us too much!”

“Exactly, just because we moved a bit slower and saved a few lives, they’re making us take the lead!”

“Mysterious Moon Palace is ruthless, then they shouldn’t blame us for being unprincipled!”

“Sect Master, when do we implement that plan?”

Once the voices in the conference hall gradually quieted down, Baiman Immortal Monarch finally spoke: “It is impossible for us to take the lead. Once we charge ahead, if by any chance we trigger the Blood Eagle Hall’s killing formation prepared for the Mysterious Moon Palace, we don’t know how many would die then.”

Upon hearing Baiman Immortal Monarch’s words, everyone breathed a sigh of relief. As long as they weren’t taking the lead, they felt reassured.

At this moment, Baiman Immortal Monarch continued, “On my way back, I’ve already contacted the envoy. I believe the envoy will arrive soon. What to do next will be according to the envoy’s arrangement.”

Everyone present knew very well what kind of envoy Baiman Immortal Monarch was referring to.

Just as Baiman Immortal Monarch was speaking, a man dressed in pure white suddenly appeared in the hall. The man wore a gilded hair crown, held a folding fan, and exuded a gentle and refined aura.

Seeing the newcomer, Baiman Immortal Monarch immediately said, “Greetings, Envoy. What arrangements does the Upper Sect have?”

The man in white replied indifferently, “Broken Soul Immortal Monarch wants you to not break away from Mysterious Moon Palace just yet. Once Mysterious Moon Palace launches a full attack, you should then head to Jade Dragon Sect.”

Upon hearing this, Baiman Immortal Monarch and the others were stunned. What if they actually took the lead, and Blood Eagle Hall attacked them as well?

As Baiman Immortal Monarch was about to say something, the man in white continued, “Baiman Sect Master, please don’t worry. Outside Jade Dragon Sect, there are no other passively triggered formations anymore, only actively driven killing formations.”

“As long as you enter Jade Dragon Sect at the fastest speed, you will be safe.”

Upon hearing this, Baiman Immortal Monarch still felt uneasy, the man in white then said, “Broken Soul Immortal Monarch wants you to head to Jade Dragon Sect only when Mysterious Moon Palace attacks because if you ally with Jade Dragon Sect now, Mysterious Moon Palace will likely revise their battle plan, leading to redeployment, making your provided intelligence useless.”

“After defeating Mysterious Moon Palace, your Baiman Sect will have achieved a significant contribution. Do you want to abandon this credit, Baiman Immortal Monarch?”

This...

Hearing the words of the man in white, Baiman Immortal Monarch realized.

Indeed, if they betrayed Mysterious Moon Palace now, the Palace’s combat deployment would surely become obsolete as Baiman Sect would also reveal the Palace’s battle plans to Blood Eagle Hall.

After pondering briefly, Baiman Immortal Monarch said, “I understand. We’ll follow the arrangements of the Upper Sect.”

Seeing Baiman Immortal Monarch agree, the man in white said no more and prepared to leave.

At this time, Baiman Immortal Monarch suddenly thought of something and swiftly asked, “If we can capture Xuan Yue’s two direct disciples, wouldn’t that be considered a significant contribution too?”

Baiman Immortal Monarch thought to himself, since they’re going to betray Mysterious Moon Palace anyway, they should earn credit as much as possible before the betrayal, as once they join Blood Eagle Hall, such opportunities would be gone.

Upon hearing this, the white-clothed man paused and then said, “If you truly can capture the direct disciples of Xuan Yue, it wouldn’t be impossible for your Baiman Sect to directly reside in the small world of Blood Eagle Hall.”

“Such credit would even surpass the credit of providing the battle plan of Mysterious Moon Palace, but capturing Xuan Yue’s direct disciples is not an easy task.”

“As far as I’m aware, Chen Lu and Ye Chuyao have always been in Wind Control Hall’s Heaven Rank protective Immortal Artifact of Mysterious Moon Palace.”

Baiman Immortal Monarch said, “On the day the war breaks out, I believe those two will certainly leave Wind Control Hall.”

The man in white said, “Then I will wait for good news from Baiman Sect.”

As his words fell, the figure of the man in white vanished. Once he left, Baiman Immortal Monarch immediately started planning how to capture Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao then.

This would be the best offering for their allegiance to Blood Eagle Hall; if they could capture the two, he should gain certain stature in Blood Eagle Hall in the future.

Thinking of this, Baiman Immortal Monarch’s heart grew hot.

A few days quickly passed, yet there was no move from Baiman Sect during these days. In response, Weixue Immortal Monarch wasn’t surprised, knowing that if they were to betray Mysterious Moon Palace now, the battle plan they had leaked earlier would be ruined too.

However, it was clear that their initial battle plan had been fake from the start.

On the morning of the full-scale battle, Weixue Immortal Monarch brought Ye Chuyao and Lu Chen to the hall. Seeing that besides Weixue Immortal Monarch, only he and Ye Chuyao were present, Lu Chen asked, “I don’t know why Weixue Immortal Monarch summoned us?”

Weixue Immortal Monarch said, “You are the direct disciples of the Hall Master; you cannot afford any mishap, so I intend to have you guard the rear.”

Upon hearing this, Lu Chen was not surprised at all.

Ye Chuyao wanted to say something about them leading by example, but before she could speak, Weixue Immortal Monarch continued, “If anything happens to you, it would certainly impact the morale of the Moon Palace disciples, and now, when the Hall Master is at a crucial moment of closed cultivation, realizing you met trouble could noticeably affect her cultivation.”

“Your presence here has already set an example for the disciples; there’s no need to take more risks.”

Upon hearing Weixue Immortal Monarch’s words, Ye Chuyao and Lu Chen fell into silence. After a while, Ye Chuyao finally said, “I understand, my junior brother and I will wait at the rear for your return.”

Seeing Ye Chuyao agree, Weixue Immortal Monarch's gaze fell on Lu Chen. Lu Chen was about to say he was merely a clone, but recalling that nurturing a clone wasn't easy, having lost one not that long ago, now bringing another out seemed unreasonable, so he said, "Alright, I will stay behind as well."

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Chapter 1737: Chapter 1427: My Main Body Will Definitely Capture the Two of Them

Seeing that Ye Chuyao and Lu Chen both agreed, Weixue Immortal Monarch finally felt relieved. There were too many uncertainties in this war, and traps were certainly lying in wait for them ahead, so she didn't want Ye Chuyao and Lu Chen to get involved in the danger.

As for their leading role in boosting the morale of the disciples, their mere presence here was already fulfilling that function.

The identity and status of a direct disciple and an ordinary disciple are inherently different. A direct disciple's identity is much more precious, especially when they are the Hall Master's direct disciple. In such a survival-of-the-fittest world, there's no such thing as everyone being equal.

After reminding Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao to stay safe, Weixue Immortal Monarch turned back to the Meeting Hall. Soon, the Sect Masters of various sects also arrived at the Meeting Hall, and after a brief meeting, the Mysterious Moon Palace formally launched a full-scale attack on the Jade Dragon Sect.

At the same time, the disciples of the Baiman Sect, under the leadership of their Sect Master, truly took on the role of the vanguard.

Seeing that the Baiman Sect did not directly betray them but instead acted as the vanguard, made Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch somewhat puzzled. He was considering dealing with the traitorous Baiman Sect to impress Weixue Immortal Monarch, but these results showed no signs of betrayal at all?

Could it be that he misunderstood them, and their low casualties were just because they were being crafty?

Meanwhile.

At the Baiman Sect's base.

In a certain room, Baiman Immortal Monarch sat on a seat, leisurely sipping tea, and after a gentle sip, a grin almost split his face open.

“Just as I thought, Ye Chuyao and Chen Lu won’t go to the front line!”

“As soon as the battle begins, I will immediately take action against the two of them. If I can capture them, I will surely gain attention in the Blood Eagle Hall.”

To stay at the base and capture Ye Chuyao and Lu Chen, Baiman Immortal Monarch specially summoned his clone. During the meeting, it was his main body that attended, and as soon as the meeting ended, he immediately had the clone lead the army towards the Jade Dragon Sect. Due to his fast speed, he believed that for the time being, no one would discover that it was his clone leading the frontlines.

Very soon, the Baiman Sect’s army arrived outside the Jade Dragon Sect’s mountain gate, and at this moment, a formation directly enveloped the Baiman Sect.

Soon after, a blood mist spread around, and in just a moment, the entire expeditionary force was shrouded in this blood mist.

Moreover, this blood mist could suppress divine sense exploration.

Weixue Immortal Monarch instantly understood what was happening; this was the Blood Eagle Hall’s way of bringing the Baiman Sect over. Weixue Immortal

Monarch didn't panic at all; she immediately began to command, lining up the warships of the Mysterious Moon Palace and affiliated sects, then fired devastating beams towards the Jade Dragon Sect.

Weixue Immortal Monarch waved a hand, letting out a cold shout.

“Icebound Wasteland!!!”

In just a moment, the blood mist was frozen. Although she felt that this blood mist somewhat restrained her immortal power, this minor restraint didn't play a significant role.

In the next instant, the blood mist enveloping them was instantly frozen, and as the warship's destructive beams shot out, the frozen blood mist shattered like glass. Immediately, the battlefield was restored to clarity.

However, when their sight was restored, they found no trace of the Baiman Sect's people. Seeing this, Weixue Immortal Monarch wasn't surprised at all.

Yet Xuan Fox Immortal Monarch was extremely furious, “To think these traitors escaped; if I had known earlier, I should have acted directly!”

At this moment, Weixue Immortal Monarch transmitted a message to all the affiliated sects present, “The Baiman Sect has betrayed the Mysterious Moon Palace. Henceforth, all Baiman Sect members will be deemed evil immortals!”

Hearing these words, the people from the other sects were momentarily stunned, but they quickly understood. They were puzzled as to why the Baiman Sect’s casualties were so low; it turned out they had already joined the Blood Eagle Hall.

Thinking that their heavy losses might have been because the Baiman Sect leaked their battle plans to the evil immortals of the Blood Eagle Hall, the affiliated sects were extremely furious, wishing they could tear the traitorous Baiman Sect to pieces.

At the same time, some people started to worry. If the Baiman Sect had betrayed the Mysterious Moon Palace, wouldn’t today’s battle plans have been leaked by the Baiman Sect too? If they continued to attack as planned, wouldn’t they fall into the Blood Eagle Hall’s trap?

Just as people were thinking this, they suddenly noticed many blood-tinged warships sailing out from the Jade Dragon Sect.

All sects immediately went on high alert.

It’s the Blood Eagle Hall; the Blood Eagle Hall has revealed itself!

In the next instant, the Blood Eagle Hall's ships also fired blood-colored beams. Weixue Immortal Monarch immediately ordered everyone to activate the protective array on their ships.

Seeing the warships not far away, Weixue Immortal Monarch fell into contemplation; with just a few warships, it's obviously not the entirety of the Blood Eagle Hall's forces stationed at the Jade Dragon Sect. It seems like someone is hiding in the dark, or they are trying to lure them over.

Meanwhile, inside the Jade Dragon Sect.

In the Meeting Hall, seeing their side's warships exchanging fire with the Mysterious Moon Palace's warships, Broken Soul Immortal Monarch looked somewhat displeased.

His gaze then settled on the clone of Baiman Immortal Monarch, and then he asked, "Where is your main body? Why did you let a clone lead the Baiman Sect's people here?"

The original plan was to let the Baiman Sect lead the Mysterious Moon Palace's people into their formation. However, the Baiman Sect reached the Jade Dragon Sect's mountain gate, while the Mysterious Moon Palace and affiliated sects were still far away.

Those responsible for guiding the Baiman Sect, upon seeing that the Baiman Sect had arrived, hurriedly activated the blood mist great array. As a result, while the Baiman Sect entered the Jade Dragon Sect, the Mysterious Moon Palace's warships did not fall into the trap.

This made Broken Soul Immortal Monarch suspect whether Baiman Immortal Monarch let a clone lead the Baiman Sect's army, arousing Weixue Immortal Monarch's suspicion, hence deliberately keeping a distance between the army and the Baiman Sect.

Seeing Broken Soul Immortal Monarch seemed a bit angry, the Baiman Immortal Monarch's clone quickly said, "My main body is still at the Baiman Sect's base. I intend to capture Ye Chuyao and Chen Lu while the Mysterious Moon Palace attacks the Jade Dragon Sect."

Hearing this, Broken Soul Immortal Monarch's expression softened a bit, and he then said, "If you can capture the two of them, I won't hold this failed lure against you for now."

The Baiman Immortal Monarch's clone immediately said, "Please don't worry, my lord. My main body will definitely capture the two of them. Now that there are no Immortal Monarch level experts left behind the Mysterious Moon Palace, no one can stop my main body."

At this moment, Jade Dragon Immortal Monarch looked at the projection screen in the hall and then said, “What should we do next? If the Mysterious Moon Palace doesn’t enter the formation, our arranged formation will be useless.”

Broken Soul Immortal Monarch said calmly, “No rush. Since they intend to destroy the Jade Dragon Sect, they will have to approach it. We’ll let our men feign engagement with them and then retreat, and they will naturally pursue us.”

Upon hearing the rumbling noise outside the Jade Dragon Sect, the main body of the Baiman Immortal Monarch realized that the war had already begun. It was time for him to act, as the people of the Mysterious Moon Palace were all tied up.

With this thought, the Baiman Immortal Monarch immediately used his divine sense to scan the station of the Mysterious Moon Palace, quickly spotting the figure of Ye Chuyao on a mountain peak there.

At this moment, Ye Chuyao was focused on the situation of the war. Suddenly, she felt a powerful divine sense sweep over her body. Her brows furrowed instantly, sensing that the divine sense originated from nearby.

Logically speaking, apart from the disciples responsible for logistics, no one should remain at the station. Especially those above the Golden Immortal realm, they had all gone to the battlefield. How could there still be such a powerful divine sense scanning her at this time? Something was off.

Ye Chuyao immediately used her divine sense to send a voice message to Lu Chen, "Junior Brother, the station might be in danger. Be careful."

Ye Chuyao was also aware that their identity easily attracted Evil Immortals. She suspected that the divine sense belonged to an Evil Immortal who had infiltrated their station, looking for her and Lu Chen's whereabouts.

Just after Ye Chuyao warned Lu Chen, she suddenly felt a terrifying presence appear at the mountaintop, which made her instantly alert.

The next moment, the figure of the Baiman Immortal Monarch appeared in front of her. Seeing him, Ye Chuyao's brows tightened, and she coldly asked, "Why isn't the Baiman Immortal Monarch on the battlefield? Why did you come here?"

Ye Chuyao wasn't foolish. If the Baiman Immortal Monarch wasn't on the battlefield at this time, it meant that he had already joined the Blood Eagle Hall.

Seeing Ye Chuyao's cautious gaze, the Baiman Immortal Monarch laughed lightly and said, "The Hall Master of Blood Eagle Hall wishes to invite Miss Ye to be a guest. Please do not resist and accompany me on a trip."

With those words, the Baiman Immortal Monarch no longer hesitated and directly made his move. Although the war had already begun ahead, the Baiman Immortal Monarch was afraid that delaying might lead to problems. If an Immortal Monarch noticed the commotion at the rear or if the Mysterious Moon Palace sent a new Immortal Monarch for support, his plan could fall through. It had to be a quick battle.

At this point, Ye Chuyao felt the terrifying pressure emanating from the Baiman Immortal Monarch, making it impossible for her to stand upright. She immediately circulated the immortal aura within her body and thrust out her sword.

Ice Waterfall Turbulence!!!

The next moment, a frightful chill was emitted from the Sword Qi wielded by Ye Chuyao. In just a short while, the entire mountaintop was frozen over. However, the Baiman Immortal Monarch blasted through with a punch, shattering Ye Chuyao's magic with sheer physical strength, without using any Immortal Law.

Knowing that she, as a True Immortal, could not withstand the Baiman Immortal Monarch, Ye Chuyao promptly took out a Teleportation Talisman, vanishing instantly.

Yet, at that moment, the corners of the Baiman Immortal Monarch's mouth curled up slightly. Before making his move, he had already locked this space, making it so that even using a Teleportation Talisman would only allow transferring nearby.

When Ye Chuyao reappeared, she found herself merely having moved from the mountaintop to the foot of the mountain. Seeing this, Ye Chuyao instantly realized that the Baiman Immortal Monarch had locked the space.

Finally, a trace of panic appeared on Ye Chuyao's icy jade-like face. This was troublesome.

With her power, she probably couldn't break the spatial lock of an Immortal Monarch. With the spatial lock in place, her Teleportation Talisman couldn't transport her out of this area.

Ye Chuyao then communicated with Lu Chen using her divine sense, "Junior Brother, where are you now?"

She could only hope that her junior brother wasn't within the locked space, so he could go for assistance.

Unexpectedly, just as she sent the message to Lu Chen, he appeared right in front of her the next moment.

Upon seeing Lu Chen, Ye Chuyao was dumbfounded. This fool didn't know how to flee; instead, he came toward her. Didn't he know the opponent was targeting them?

Coming back to her senses, Ye Chuyao immediately reprimanded him, "What are you doing here! Get out of here! I'll find a way to hold them off!"

Seeing Lu Chen's sudden appearance, the Baiman Immortal Monarch burst into laughter, "What a pleasant surprise, Chen Lu, you actually delivered yourself to my doorstep."

Speaking, the Baiman Immortal Monarch threw another punch, attacking while saying, "Both of you, if you don't want to get hurt, don't resist. Come with me obediently, otherwise don't blame me for crippling you!"

As the Baiman Immortal Monarch's fist moved closer, Lu Chen directly drew the Immortal Slaying Sword, gathering all the immortal aura he had.

Green Fall Cyan Dragon Roar!!!

A blood-red giant dragon rushed toward the Baiman Immortal Monarch. Feeling the terrifying power carried by the dragon formed from the Sword Qi, the Baiman Immortal Monarch frowned slightly.

Then he shouted, "Hundred Refinement Golden Body Fist!!!"

The next moment, the Baiman Immortal Monarch's body turned golden, and a golden fist shadow appeared in front of his fist. When the golden fist shadow met the Blood Dragon, a violent explosion occurred instantly, flattening the mountain peak before them.

Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao immediately circulated the immortal aura within their bodies to resist the destruction caused by the explosion.

However, as the explosion ended, the Baiman Immortal Monarch swung a punch, dispersing the smoke and dust generated by the blast.

Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao reappeared before the Baiman Immortal Monarch.

At this moment, the Baiman Immortal Monarch's face turned grim, and he sneered, "Truly worthy of being the direct disciples of the Xuan Yue. To think you could take a punch from me!"

"Since you are unwilling to leave with me, I suppose I have to get serious!"

Although he hadn't used his full power in that punch, it carried fifty percent of his strength. Yet, a Heavenly Immortal had managed to take it.

Considering he was a Body Refinement Immortal, whose physical strength was already more formidable, and he was an Immortal Monarch, it was enough to prove how terrifying this Heavenly Immortal's strength was.

With Heavenly Immortal strength, he could clash head-on with an Immortal Monarch. Imagine how terrifying he would be once fully grown.

Now the Baiman Immortal Monarch only wanted to immediately cripple Chen Lu. Having already clashed with him, if the person grew in the future, they would certainly seek revenge.

In the next instant, the Baiman Immortal Monarch flashed to appear right in front of Lu Chen.

He then threw another punch.

Void Breaking Fist!!!

The pressure from the punch made it impossible for Ye Chuyao and Lu Chen to move. Ye Chuyao's face turned ashen, and she thought to herself, was she really going to die here today?

Yet, unexpectedly, in the next moment, Lu Chen suddenly shielded her.

Seeing this, Ye Chuyao was slightly dazed. She didn't expect that at such a critical moment, Chen Lu would shield her, and a myriad of complex emotions surged within her heart.

At this moment, a Tai Chi Diagram appeared above Lu Chen's head, which began to rotate continuously.

This time, as the Baiman Immortal Monarch's fist wind approached, it stopped a yard away from Lu Chen, unable to advance any further.

Chapter 1739: Chapter 1429: Truly Seeking Death!

Feeling a transparent barrier appearing in front of him, Baiman Immortal Monarch was momentarily stunned.

At this moment, Lu Chen spat out a mouthful of fresh blood. Although the Taichu Infinite Scripture had transformed a large amount of power, a portion still reached his body. Their realms were too far apart, and the Taichu Infinite Scripture couldn't transform all the attacks.

Seeing Lu Chen suddenly spit out blood, Baiman Immortal Monarch sneered, "I thought you had completely blocked it. It looks like after taking this punch, you're pretty much finished."

At this point, Baiman Immortal Monarch prepared to strike again. Just then, Lu Chen suddenly activated the Taichu Infinite Scripture, and in the next moment, a golden fist shadow flew out from the Tai Chi Diagram above his head, heading straight for Baiman Immortal Monarch.

Feeling the power contained within the golden fist shadow, Baiman Immortal Monarch's face darkened instantly. He clearly sensed that the power in the fist shadow was almost the same as the punch he had just delivered.

Moreover, the aura of this punch was similar to his own punch. Even if Baiman Immortal Monarch were foolish, he would have realized that this person could actually transform others' attacks into his own.

What kind of Immortal Law is this? How come I've never heard of it?

Baiman Immortal Monarch then launched another punch.

Void Breaking Fist!!!

Immediately, the collision of the two punches produced a violent explosion. Although Lu Chen hadn't transformed all the power from Baiman Immortal Monarch's previous punch, he had no problem resisting this one.

With this explosion, the swirling air waves directly pushed Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao hundreds of feet away. The explosion's disturbance caught the attention of Weixue Immortal Monarch.

In the next moment, Weixue Immortal Monarch's divine sense swept over the rear military camp. Sensing an Immortal Monarch at the camp, Weixue Immortal Monarch's eyebrows furrowed instantly, realizing someone was trying to harm Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao while they were away.

Weixue Immortal Monarch then immediately instructed an Immortal Monarch beside her to return to the camp to protect Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao.

Originally, she wanted to personally rescue Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao, but now the Evil Immortal from Blood Eagle Hall had emerged. If she left the front line now, it could lead to their side's defeat.

She was the commander of this battle and couldn't leave the front line regardless of what happened. She believed Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao had protective Dharma treasures left by the Hall Master on them. They should be able to protect against an Immortal Monarch for a while. As long as the Immortal Monarch she dispatched reached their side, the Immortal Monarch ambushing their camp wouldn't be able to take Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao away.

Meanwhile, as the shockwaves from the collision of Void Breaking Fist dissipated, Baiman Immortal Monarch's face became exceedingly grim. He originally thought it would be easy to capture these two, but unexpectedly, the other party could even transform his attacks.

The explosion caused such a disturbance, and there was a divine sense scanning him, indicating that the Immortal Monarch ahead was already aware of the situation at the camp. It wouldn't be long before an Immortal Monarch arrived.

Baiman Immortal Monarch clenched his fists. No, he couldn't give up like this. This was his pledge to Blood Eagle Hall. If he didn't lure Mysterious Moon Palace's army into the formation, he'd only gain merit by capturing these two.

Otherwise, joining Blood Eagle Hall without any achievements, he would likely not be valued, and might soon be treated as expendable by Blood Eagle Hall.

Thinking this, Baiman Immortal Monarch directly released the Law Manifestation. Suddenly, a Law Manifestation more than a hundred meters tall appeared before Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao.

Baiman Immortal Monarch coldly said, “I admit you have some tricks. I wonder if you can withstand this next punch.”

In the next moment, a terrifying oppressive force enveloped Lu Chen and Ye Chuyao, making them nearly unable to move. Subsequently, Baiman Immortal Monarch gathered all his strength and punched.

Thunderous Fist!!!

Countless golden lightning converged onto the fist shadow launched by Baiman Immortal Monarch, arcs of electricity rushing in all directions, covering the entire camp of Mysterious Moon Palace in golden arcs.

Originally, Baiman Immortal Monarch didn’t intend to go all out because, to him, the direct disciples of the Xuan Yue were his pledge. Moreover, the living were of greater value than the dead.

But now he had been discovered, and if he didn’t go all out, when Weixue Immortal Monarch sent someone over, capturing these two would be even less likely.

If he couldn't capture them alive, he would kill them. Killing them would also count as merit.

Seeing the gigantic golden fist shadow in the sky, Ye Chuyao's face turned pale in an instant. She quickly took out a jade scroll, intending to use it, but in the next moment, Lu Chen flew into the sky, and behind him appeared another Tai Chi Diagram.

Lu Chen intended to test the transformation limits of the Taichu Infinite Scripture, considering this was just his clone. He thought if it died, so be it.

Seeing Lu Chen voluntarily flying into the sky, Ye Chuyao's face changed drastically and she hurriedly said, "Junior Brother, what are you doing! Quickly use the jade scroll Honored Master left you!"

Lu Chen transmitted to Ye Chuyao, "Senior Sister, don't worry, I have a plan."

In the next moment, Lu Chen fully activated his Immortal Law, and the Tai Chi Diagram grew larger and larger. Baiman Immortal Monarch stared intently at Lu Chen coming up to meet him, snorted coldly and said, "Really reckless!"

He didn't believe Lu Chen could withstand his attack this time. He was an Immortal Monarch, while the opponent was merely a Heavenly Immortal, separated by several realms. If he could withstand it, Baiman Immortal Monarch might as well resign as an Immortal Monarch.

In a moment, the golden fist shadow with arcs of electricity came to rest above Lu Chen's head, but what shocked Baiman Immortal Monarch was that the golden fist shadow truly stopped about an arm's length away from Lu Chen's head, though it only paused briefly before pushing Lu Chen's body towards the ground.

In an instant, the earth was punched into a pit over a thousand meters wide, and once the dust and rubble scattered, Ye Chuyao's figure appeared in the pit.

Ye Chuyao still stood in her original place, but a green barrier surrounded her, protecting her.

Upon seeing this, Baiman Immortal Monarch's fists clenched with a cracking sound, realizing this should be the protective power left by Yun Yudie for Ye Chuyao.

Sensing an Immortal Monarch-level aura quickly approaching from afar, Baiman Immortal Monarch felt extremely unwilling. Did he have to leave empty-handed?

Wait... Although Ye Chuyao was unharmed, the Lu Chen earlier had taken his punch solidly. He surely couldn't be completely unscathed?

As long as he could kill Yun Yudie's direct disciple, he would still have merit. Then Baiman Immortal Monarch's divine sense quickly scanned the pit below, searching for Lu Chen's body.

However, he was disappointed. Although he quickly found Lu Chen, Lu Chen was not dead.

Lu Chen, covered in blood, stood in the middle of the pit, but the Tai Chi Diagram above his head was still present.

Chapter 1740: Chapter 1430: Junior Brother, Hold On—I'll Take You Back to the Mysterious Moon Palace

Seeing that Lu Chen was still alive, Baiman Immortal Monarch couldn't believe his eyes; he was an Immortal Monarch!

A full-powered strike from an Immortal Monarch couldn't kill a Heavenly Immortal???

What a joke!

Baiman Immortal Monarch said with a dark face, “How is this possible!”

Seeing Lu Chen in such a wretched state, Ye Chuyao’s heart wrenched as if pierced by a knife. She couldn’t understand why Lu Chen didn’t use the life-saving jade scroll left by their Honored Master and instead chose to take a punch from Baiman Immortal Monarch head-on.

At this moment, Lu Chen spat out a mouthful of fresh blood and dropped to one knee, but he still forced himself to stand. Then he looked up at Baiman Immortal Monarch in the sky, smiled, and said, “Baiman Immortal Monarch, is that all you’ve got!”

Hearing Lu Chen’s words, Baiman Immortal Monarch was completely enraged. How dare he, an Immortal Monarch, be ridiculed by a Heavenly Immortal!

This brat must die!

Moreover, seeing his condition, Baiman Immortal Monarch didn’t believe Lu Chen could withstand another punch.

Baiman Immortal Monarch shouted, “Since you’re seeking death, let me fulfill your wish!”

As he spoke, Baiman Immortal Monarch gathered all his strength again. However, at this moment, a crescent moon suddenly appeared in the distance, and countless blade qi flew toward Baiman Immortal Monarch.

Baiman Immortal Monarch hurriedly waved his fists to fend off the blade qi.

Bang bang bang...

With each punch from Baiman Immortal Monarch, the blade qi was scattered, but Baiman Immortal Monarch realized that he probably missed the chance to kill Lu Chen.

However...

He glanced down at the blood-soaked Lu Chen, thinking that even if this guy didn’t die, after taking a punch from him, he must be near death.

Baiman Immortal Monarch was about to leave when suddenly he felt a strong sense of crisis, as if he were locked onto by something.

Baiman Immortal Monarch immediately released his divine sense to determine the source of the threat. But just as his divine sense expanded, a giant golden fist shadow appeared below, also emitting arcs of electricity.

Seeing this, Baiman Immortal Monarch was stunned.

How is this possible!!!

His opponent could even convert his strongest strike!!!

Baiman Immortal Monarch quickly realized this explained why his previous punch was so weak—normally, an Immortal Monarch's strike could easily create a crater over ten thousand meters, yet his punch didn't even damage the Profound Moon Palace's premises.

It turned out that his attack was absorbed by Chen Lu.

Baiman Immortal Monarch's face turned extremely grim; he never thought there could be such a bizarre Immortal Law in the world.

A Heavenly Immortal Realm could withstand a full-powered strike from an Immortal Monarch. If Chen Lu reached the Immortal Monarch Realm in the future, wouldn't he even be unafraid of Immortal Venerates or Immortal Emperors?

Seeing the golden fist getting closer, Baiman Immortal Monarch prepared to dodge. But suddenly, a giant moon appeared behind him, and in the next moment, countless chains emerged from the moon, binding Baiman Immortal Monarch tightly in mid-air.

Baiman Immortal Monarch's sinister face showed a trace of panic at this moment, "Not good!"

He knew well how powerful his full-powered strike was. Though primarily focused on body refinement, this punch could severely injure him.

Just as Baiman Immortal Monarch thought of breaking free from the chains, the golden fist shadow arrived before him, and with a massive explosion, the chains binding Baiman Immortal Monarch were shattered instantly, and Baiman Immortal Monarch's Law Manifestation was also destroyed. Baiman Immortal Monarch spewed a mouthful of fresh blood.

Baiman Immortal Monarch glared hatefully at Lu Chen on the ground, "Fine... fine, the enmity of today shall be repaid in full another day!"

As Baiman Immortal Monarch finished speaking, a woman in silver armor appeared before everyone.

Seeing an Immortal Monarch appear, Baiman Immortal Monarch didn't hesitate; his body transformed into a golden stream of light and fled the scene directly.

Silver Moon Immortal Monarch didn't pursue. The priority now was to assess the condition of Chen Lu and Ye Chuyao. In a flash, Silver Moon Immortal Monarch arrived in front of Lu Chen.

As she landed, Lu Chen's body fell straight down, and Silver Moon Immortal Monarch quickly used immortal aura to steady Lu Chen's body.

Although Lu Chen used the Taichu Infinite Scripture to convert part of the power, most of the force impacted his body directly, breaking his meridians and shattering his dantian. Even if he survived, he was crippled.

Silver Moon Immortal Monarch assessed Lu Chen's physical condition with immortal aura and her face turned very grave immediately. Seeing this, Ye Chuyao from afar realized the severity of the issue; she closed the barrier without hesitation and rushed towards Lu Chen.

Seeing the blood-covered Lu Chen, Ye Chuyao felt as if her heart was pierced by a thousand arrows, “Junior... Junior Brother... hold on, I’ll take you back to the Profound Moon Palace now!”

Silver Moon Immortal Monarch then communicated telepathically to Ye Chuyao, “Chuyao, Chen Lu’s meridians are all severed, and his dantian is destroyed; he likely won’t recover in this life...”

An Immortal’s divine soul doesn’t die, which means they’re not truly dead. In Lu Chen’s case, he could reincarnate and be reborn, but no new body would be as good as this original one, and his special constitution would be gone, along with his future potential.

Hearing Silver Moon Immortal Monarch’s words, Ye Chuyao froze for a moment but quickly realized that as long as the divine soul remained, there was hope, unlike if Chen Lu’s divine soul was also shattered.

At this time, Lu Chen managed a faint smile, looking at Ye Chuyao, “Senior... Senior Sister, I’m fine, you don’t need to worry...”

“Cough cough...”

With those words, Lu Chen spat out another mouthful of blood, and Ye Chuyao quickly said, “Don’t speak now. I’ll take you back to the Profound Moon Palace and let Ling Yin Immortal King treat you.”

With those words, Ye Chuyao brought Lu Chen onto an Immortal Ship to return to the Profound Moon Palace. Silver Moon Immortal Monarch then said, “Chuyao, the war isn’t over, I can’t go back with you, be very careful.”

Ye Chuyao replied, “I understand, I’ll use the Transmission Array to return directly.”

With those words, Ye Chuyao maneuvered the Immortal Ship towards a city with a Transmission Array, and to prevent any ambushes, Silver Moon Immortal Monarch escorted Ye Chuyao for a distance. Only when she saw Ye Chuyao’s Immortal Ship disappear into the Transmission Array did Silver Moon Immortal Monarch return to the battlefield.

In the Wind Control Hall, Weixue Immortal Monarch who was commanding the battle, asked upon seeing Silver Moon Immortal Monarch return, “Silver Moon, how are things?”

Silver Moon Immortal Monarch sighed, “Chen Lu is probably crippled; his meridians are all severed, and his dantian is shattered, but fortunately, his divine soul is intact.”

Hearing this, Weixue Immortal Monarch’s face turned icy cold, and the entire hall was covered in frost. She had left Ye Chuyao and Lu Chen in the rear to avoid injuries or accidents.

Unexpectedly, something did happen in the end!

Once the Hall Master leaves seclusion, she will undoubtedly be held accountable, and at the thought of this, Weixue Immortal Monarch's resolve to kill those Evil Immortals intensified, and she immediately communicated with the other Immortal Monarchs of the Profound Moon Palace, "Implement our plan!"
