Capítulo 1951: Chapter 1641: Let Her Stay Temporarily in the Barbaric Land

The news of an Immortal Emperor's fall in the Southern Domain quickly spread throughout the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

The vast majority of the Immortals believed this news to be true. After all, the revival of Immortal Aura in the Tianyan Immortal Domain had indeed occurred, and when a Great Power falls, their immortal power turns back into Immortal Aura, returning to the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

The most crucial indication was that the Nine Heavens Institute had already dispatched many individuals to the Chaotic Zone in the Southern Domain.

Since even the Nine Heavens Institute had taken action, this matter was likely true. Otherwise, why would the Nine Heavens Institute go to a place like the Chaotic Zone in the Southern Domain, where there's no Immortal Aura?

Soon, various forces dispatched people to the Chaotic Zone in the Southern Domain, attempting to explore the Small World left behind by the Immortal Emperor and seek opportunities.

Mysterious Moon Palace.

In Yun Meng Hall, the Immortal Venerates were engaged in an intense discussion.

Some supported sending people to the Southern Domain to seek opportunities, while others believed that this was the critical moment for their ancestral master to live out a second life. At this time, they should focus on ensuring the safety of the Mysterious Moon Palace, avoiding trouble from the Demon Emperor.

Besides, who could be certain if this news was true or if the Nine Heavens Institute had any conspiracies or schemes?

After two hours, Immortal Venerable Tianyu stood up and addressed Immortal Venerable Yun Meng, saying, "I wonder what the Palace Master's thoughts are?"

Their arguments here were pointless, as the final decision lay with the Palace Master. So Immortal Venerable Tianyu simply asked Immortal Venerable Yun Meng to see what her plans were.

Upon hearing Immortal Venerable Tianyu's voice, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng came back to her senses. She glanced at the Immortal Venerates present and then asked, "How many of you wish to go to the Southern Domain to seek opportunities?"

Upon hearing this question, the Immortal Venerates looked at each other. At this time, Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle stood up and said, "Palace Master, I wish to go to the Southern Domain."

Seeing Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle stand up, Hidden Dragon Immortal Venerable also stood up and said, "Palace Master, I wish to go as well."

Subsequently, three other Immortal Venerates stood up, expressing their desire to go to the Southern Domain to seek opportunities.

They were well aware that the Tianyan Immortal Domain already had an Immortal Emperor. Before the fall of the Demon Emperor, their chances of breaking through to become an Immortal Emperor were almost impossible. However, they could prepare for the future.

Perhaps one day, if the Demon Emperor fell, and they possessed an opportunity to become an Emperor, they could become an Immortal Emperor before all the Immortal Venerates.

Seeing so many Immortal Venerates wishing to go, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng said with an indifferent expression, “The ancestral master is already in seclusion, and the upcoming days are of utmost importance; no mistakes can be made.”

On hearing this, the Immortal Venerates who wanted to go to the Southern Domain felt disheartened, thinking that Immortal Venerable Yun Meng’s words meant she did not want them to go to the Southern Domain.

However, just then, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng continued, saying, “At most, the Mysterious Moon Palace can only send one Immortal Venerate, but if disciples from other peaks wish to go for training, I will not stop them.”

Hearing this, Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle hurriedly stepped forward and said, “Palace Master, I am willing to lead the disciples to the Southern Domain for training!”

As soon as Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle finished speaking, Hidden Dragon Immortal Venerable immediately said, “Palace Master, it would be better for me to go. The Sky Eagle Peak Master’s strength is insufficient, and if any danger arises, his strength may not be enough to protect our palace’s disciples.”

Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle frowned and coldly retorted, “Hidden Dragon Peak Master, what do you mean? Surely you don’t think you’re stronger than me?”

“It seems I haven’t taken action in too long, making you think you’re stronger than me.”

Hidden Dragon Immortal Venerable calmly said, “Illusion? I think you’re the one who’s simply mistaken.”

“In the entire Mysterious Moon Palace, other than the promising Heavenly Language Peak Master, which other Peak Master do you think you’re stronger than?”

Immortal Venerable Tianyu’s brows slightly furrowed. These two were arguing, and it involved her, even though she had no plans to go to the Southern Domain.

Just as Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle and Hidden Dragon Immortal Venerable were about to continue their quarrel, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng suddenly said, “Enough, Sky Eagle Peak Master will lead the disciples to the Southern Domain this time. His speed is faster than anyone else’s, and if they encounter danger in the Small World, in a space lockdown situation, he will be able to lead the disciples out of danger more quickly.”

This...

Hearing this, Hidden Dragon Immortal Venerable wanted to say something but, considering that his speed indeed paled in comparison to Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle, he held his tongue.

Seeing that Immortal Venerable Yun Meng chose him, Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle's face showed a hint of a smile. This Small World left by a Great Emperor might have opportunities to become an Emperor. Should he attain an Emperor opportunity, once the Demon Emperor falls, he might become the next Immortal Emperor.

Thinking of this, Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle felt delighted, and he slightly bowed and said, "Thank you, Palace Master, for making this possible. I will surely lead the Mysterious Moon Palace's disciples back safely."

Hidden Dragon Immortal Venerable, standing aside, sourly remarked, "Hmph, if danger arises, don't abandon the disciples and flee alone."

Immortal Venerate Sky Eagle wanted to retort, but Immortal Venerable Yun Meng immediately interrupted, saying, "This is decided. If there's nothing else, today ends here. Return immediately, select the disciples for training, and set off for the Chaotic Zone in the Southern Domain in three days."

All Immortal Venerates spoke in unison, "Yes, Palace Master!"

After the Immortal Venerates all left, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng saw that Immortal Venerable Tianyu hadn't left and asked, "Junior Sister Tianyu, do you have anything else to say?"

Immortal Venerable Tianyu directly asked, "When does the Palace Master plan to bring Yudie back from the Barbaric?"

Upon hearing this question, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng sighed softly, "Many things have happened recently. Since we know she is in the Barbaric and has her own force, she likely won't go elsewhere. Let's allow her to remain there for now."

Immortal Venerable Tianyu said, "I understand."

Day by day passed by.

Soon, forces from all over the Tianyan Immortal Domain gathered at the Chaotic Zone in the Southern Domain.

Luxurious Immortal Ships floated above the Chaotic Zone, and Lu Chen stood on the deck of an Immortal Ship, gazing into the far reaches of the boundless Chaotic Sea.

At this moment, he felt a sense of nostalgia, never expecting to return to the Chaotic Zone again. It was also his starting point for rising again.

The present Chaotic Zone was vastly different from before. Previously, it had little Immortal Aura, but now the air was filled with rich Immortal Aura, so concentrated that it appeared in Liquid form.

Forces from various regions were similar to the Mysterious Moon Palace, generally sending one Immortal Venerate to lead, appearing as though they were taking disciples for training.

People remained doubtful, thinking this might be a conspiracy by the Nine Heavens Institute, so no force had sent too many people.

The most crucial aspect was that the Nine Heavens Institute had already set its eyes on this place. Now that the Demon Emperor backed the Nine Heavens Institute, they dared not compete with it for opportunities. If the Nine Heavens

Institute disapproved of them entering the Small World, sending more people would be futile.

Before the Nine Heavens Institute gave their consent, nobody dared to recklessly enter the Immortal Emperor's Small World. So sending some people to scout the situation was the best choice.

If this were indeed a Small World left by an Immortal Emperor, it couldn't be thoroughly explored in a short time, and they would have time in the future to send more people for exploration.

In a nameless wasteland within the chaotic zone, a massive black vortex was wildly devouring the surrounding yellow sand, and it continued to expand.

At this moment, countless immortal ships hovered above the black vortex, with those in the front all belonging to the Nine Heavens Institute.

The people from the Nine Heavens Institute did not make a move, so naturally, people from other forces could only stay obediently on their own immortal ships.

After an unknown amount of time, an Immortal King covered in wounds burst out from the black vortex. The Immortal King looked utterly miserable, drenched in blood, with half of his scalp torn off, only one leg remaining, and both arms broken.

If it weren't for the fact that the life origin of an Immortal is the Divine Soul, this Immortal King would likely be dead by now.

However, the Immortal King's Divine Soul wasn't doing well either; his Divine Soul was extremely weak, and the aura of his Divine Soul looked as if it might dissipate at any moment.

Seeing the Immortal King emerge, Qinglian Immortal Venerable immediately flew to his front and infused life force into the Immortal King's body.

Below the Immortal King's body, a vision of lotus flowers appeared, and as the green lotuses emitted a radiant green glow, his body swiftly began to recover.

After stabilizing the Immortal King's life, Qinglian Immortal Venerable quickly escorted him back to one of the Nine Heavens Institute's immortal ships.

Upon entering the immortal ship, Qinglian Immortal Venerable asked, "What is the situation inside now, why did only you come out?"

The Immortal King did not speak; he immediately condensed his memories from the small world into a Memory Pearl and presented it to Qinglian Immortal Venerable.

Qinglian Immortal Venerable raised his hand and infused immortal power into the Memory Pearl, activating it to read the memories within.

After viewing the Immortal King's memories, Qinglian Immortal Venerable's expression instantly turned extremely grave. Meanwhile, several more Immortal Venerates from the Nine Heavens Institute entered the meeting hall of the immortal ship.

One Immortal Venerate was about to inquire about what had happened in the small world, but Qinglian Immortal Venerable gestured to them, "First, take a look at his memory."

The Immortal Venerates' gaze fell upon the floating Memory Pearl, and they proceeded to activate it and read the memories within.

After reading the memories, the Immortal Venerates present fell into silence as they realized the small world was even more dangerous than they had anticipated.

They had already sent several groups in to investigate the situation; initially, those who returned had faced some dangers but had at least managed to survive. Most of them chose to return due to encountering some unbreakable array barriers.

However, the situation was different with the last batch; as they ventured deeper into the small world, its true dangers were gradually exposed.

Leaving aside the array mechanisms, the small world also housed terrifying vicious beasts, more formidable in power than expected, and in tremendous numbers.

Even Immortal Kings fled at the sight of these vicious beasts, which is why only one Immortal King returned this time.

Had it not been for the Immortal King's speed, he would have surely fallen prey to the beasts.

Qinglian Immortal Venerable said, "I didn't expect it to be so perilous inside; it seems spreading the news was the right decision."

Their dissemination of information regarding the Immortal Emperor's small world aimed to attract other forces to explore it and activate the dangerous formations within.

After Qinglian Immortal Venerable finished speaking, an adjacent Immortal Venerate remarked, "If only this small world had no bans, allowing Immortal Venerates to enter."

When they heard Xuan Qingyun say that the small world was left by Great Powers, all the Immortal Venerates excitedly rushed here, only to realize it was restricted to allow entry only for those below Immortal Venerates.

If they, the Immortal Venerates, could enter the small world, many of its dangers would've been trivial for them; however, they simply couldn't enter.

Attempts had been made to jointly destroy the entrance restriction, but it remained unmoved. Given that the restriction was left by an Immortal Emperor-level figure, it was unsurprising that they couldn't affect it.

Qinglian Immortal Venerable stated, "Since it's so dangerous inside, let's first allow those people to go in; once they clear out most of the dangers, we'll send our own."

With that, Qinglian Immortal Venerable's figure vanished; in the next moment, he appeared above the immortal ship and used immortal power to transmit his voice to the Immortals from various forces afar, saying: "This small world possesses a restriction allowing entry only to Immortals below Immortal Venerate. If any wish to explore, send your people over, but each force is restricted to fifty people, register now."

Following Qinglian Immortal Venerable's words, he raised his hand, and a table and chair appeared on the deck of the immortal ship, where he designated an Immortal King to occupy it for registration.

Upon hearing Qinglian Immortal Venerable's words, the Immortal Venerates present were stunned; they had traveled so far to enter the small world to seek fortune, only to be told now that only Immortals below Immortal Venerate could enter.

Immediately, suspicions arose among some Immortal Venerates, wondering if the Nine Heavens Institute feared competition from other forces upon gaining entry into the small world, thus deceiving them.

Some Immortal Venerates chose to trust Qinglian Immortal Venerable's words; within the Tianyan Immortal Domain, many secret realms existed with realm restrictions, so it was unsurprising for the Immortal Emperor's small world to have restrictions.

At this time, Lu Chen said to Xiyue Immortal Venerable beside him, "Looks like your opportunity is gone."

Upon hearing this, Xiyue Immortal Venerable responded stoically, "Not necessarily."

Lu Chen curiously remarked, "Only Immortals below Immortal Venerate can enter. You can only send an Immortal King from the Beast Alliance; should they find any fortune, they might not hand it over to you."

Moments later, a figure identical to Xiyue Immortal Venerable appeared before them.

Xiyue Immortal Venerable turned to Lu Chen and calmly stated, "This way, the true self can enter as well."

Lu Chen admitted, "Alright, you're impressive. However, come to think of it, your clone is quite unique; its Divine Soul seems complete."

Lu Chen noticed that Xiyue Immortal Venerable's clone bore a strong resemblance to his puppet physical body, with its Divine Soul aura appearing intact.

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Lu Chen was slightly surprised, he couldn't help but suspect, could it be that Xiyue Immortal Venerable also practiced the Creation Dao and could create physical bodies out of thin air?

After coming back to his senses, Lu Chen tentatively asked, "How can you also use the Body Puppet Technique I use?"

Xiyue Immortal Venerable replied indifferently, "This is not some Puppet Technique, this is my Divine Skill."

Lu Chen realized, so it's an Innate Divine Ability, well that's reasonable.

Some Immortals in the Tianyan Immortal Domain have a certain probability of awakening some strange Divine Skills during Cultivation, especially the Demon Race. Most of the nobly bloodlined Demon Race do not need Cultivation, they awaken their Innate Divine Abilities naturally at birth.

Lu Chen came to the clone of the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable, leaned closer, and carefully scrutinized this clone. This clone seemed somewhat smaller than Xiyue Immortal Venerable's main body, in both the chest and other aspects.

Seeing Lu Chen's stare directly examining her clone, Xiyue Immortal Venerable slightly frowned, asking coldly, "What are you doing?"

Lu Chen curiously asked, "Could it be that you can also remotely control this clone of yours?"

Xiyue Immortal Venerable said expressionlessly, "Naturally."

Lu Chen didn't speak further; he stared at the clone of Xiyue Immortal Venerable in front of him, lost in thought, not sure what he was thinking.

Being stared at so unwaveringly by Lu Chen, Xiyue Immortal Venerable felt quite strange, a sensation akin to being visually violated.

Xiyue Immortal Venerable then said, "We should disguise ourselves."

Their identities were somewhat special, one being the Alliance Hierarchy of the Beast Alliance, the other a prominent figure in the Tianyan Immortal Domain. If they entered that Small World, they would easily be recognized, thus unnecessary trouble would ensue, so it's better to conceal themselves.

Especially Lu Chen, who could inscribe array patterns of a Holy Rank Sealing Array. When he enters that Small World, if encountered by other Immortal Kings, they would practically be invincible. If the Nine Heavens Institute discovered this, they might not allow him entry.

At this moment, Xiyue Immortal Venerable suddenly felt a bit fortunate, having summoned Lu Chen with a kiss. With Lu Chen, who could inscribe a Holy Rank Sealing Array, if they encountered others vying for opportunities inside, they could easily suppress them.

Although Lu Chen had been a bit disgusting, in the end, this transaction was not a loss.

At this time, Xiyue Immortal Venerable raised a hand, and her clone immediately transformed into another appearance. Seeing the change in Xiyue Immortal Venerable's appearance, Lu Chen felt a twinge of regret.

Seeing Lu Chen's seemingly disappointed expression, Xiyue Immortal Venerable was puzzled, why did this guy look unhappy after seeing her disguised appearance?

Xiyue Immortal Venerable then reminded, "You should quickly change your appearance too; I'm going to register now."

Lu Chen said, "With so many Immortal Venerates from the Nine Heavens Institute present, aren't you afraid they might see through our Disguise Skills?"

Xiyue Immortal Venerable calmly said, "This clone of mine has no fixed form; it can transform into anyone's appearance."

"But you..."

At this, Xiyue Immortal Venerable glanced at Lu Chen, also somewhat worried that later, before entering the Small World, Lu Chen might be directly recognized by the Nine Heavens Institute's Immortal Venerates.

Lu Chen didn't say much; then he directly used Creation Power and created a new Mortal Immortal body on the spot. This body's appearance was completely different from the original body.

After creating the new body, Lu Chen said, "Alright, let's go now."

Seeing Lu Chen's new body, Xiyue Immortal Venerable showed a thoughtful expression. No matter how many times one sees Lu Chen's method of creating clones, it's always astonishing.

She could quickly produce clones due to her Innate Divine Ability; each of her tails could transform into a clone she could fully control.

Whereas when Lu Chen created a new clone, it seemed he didn't use any Innate Divine Ability, purely relying on his own power.

The power Lu Chen used made her feel a bit restless, making her quite curious about what kind of power Lu Chen used to create clones.

Though very curious inside, now was not the time to investigate these things, so Xiyue Immortal Venerable quickly recovered her senses and then led the Beast Alliance's group to the registration point.

After completing registration, the people of the Nine Heavens Institute told them to return to the Immortal Ship to continue waiting. After roughly half a month, the Nine Heavens Institute had registered more than half of the forces wanting to enter the Small World.

This Small World attracted a lot of people, and only a portion had registered. Moreover, as the news of the Immortal Emperor's demise spread, more and more forces became aware of the event, and quite a few forces from the Tianyan Immortal Domain had just set out for here.

To promptly clear out the dangers inside the Small World, the Immortal Venerates of the Nine Heavens Institute planned to let some people enter first.

One morning, the voice of Qinglian Immortal Venerable echoed across the chaotic zone.

"All registered forces, line up in order and prepare to enter the Small World."

Seeing the sky filled with rows of Immortals, Qinglian Immortal Venerable showed a slight smile. With so many Immortals, they would likely eliminate quite a bit of danger.

Once the attendees were almost all gathered, Qinglian Immortal Venerable continued, "Before entering the Small World, I must remind you all, upon entering, if you encounter people from the Nine Heavens Institute, you must regard them as superior. If I find out you've disrespected them inside, you shouldn't even think of leaving the Southern Domain."

"Additionally, the people from the Nine Heavens Institute bear the Life and Death Seal of our Heavenly Maiden. If they die, the seal will appear on the murderer."

The words of Qinglian Immortal Venerable were straightforward, a reminder for those present that encountering people from the Nine Heavens Institute inside shouldn't result in killing for treasures.

Despite feeling uncomfortable with Qinglian Immortal Venerable's words, no one dared to argue.

After all, backing the Nine Heavens Institute was an Immortal Emperor, and if they spoke up now, there was no chance of entering the Small World before them.

After reminding those present, Qinglian Immortal Venerable then said, "Alright, head in."

With these words, the Nine Heavens Institute opened a path, and the Immortals from various forces swiftly rushed towards the large black vortex in the earth.

Lu Chen, upon entering the Small World, scanned his surroundings. He found himself in a dense forest, with not a soul in sight, an ambiance so quiet that he could hear only his own breathing.

Lu Chen mused to himself, thinking it was unexpected that the Small World had a random transmission. Reuniting with Xiyue Immortal Venerable would likely prove difficult now.

This body of his was only at a Mortal Immortal Cultivation State, and clearly, the Small World was quite dangerous, or else the Nine Heavens Institute wouldn't have sent them in to scout.

With his Mortal Immortal Cultivation, tackling encountered dangers could be a bit challenging; he couldn't resort to using the Immortal King's Remain Curse within this Small World, could he?

Capítulo 1954: Chapter 1644: I Am Here Training with My Immortal Sect Elders

Lu Chen did not act immediately. He stood in place, pondering for a moment, then released his Divine Sense to explore the state of the forest.

The trees in this forest reached over a hundred meters in height, and their branches and leaves were extremely dense, allowing only a little sunlight to pass through and reach the ground, making the entire forest very dark.

After releasing his Divine Sense, Lu Chen discovered that he couldn't sense anything present. He immediately realized that this forest could block the Divine Sense probing of Immortals.

This meant he needed to be extra cautious, as places that could block Immortals' Divine Sense probing were generally very dangerous.

Lu Chen then retracted his Divine Sense, planning to leave the forest first. However, he hadn't walked far when a voice came from a distance.

“Who's there?”

Hearing this voice, Lu Chen immediately stopped and turned back to look.

Deeper in the forest, a man covered in blood gradually appeared. As the man got closer, Lu Chen could see his face clearly.

Seeing the newcomer, Lu Chen was slightly surprised.

The newcomer was from the Nine Heavens Institute, named Chu Zhengyu, whom he had seen inside the body of a Chaos Beast.

Anyone who could follow Xuan Qingyun into the Chaotic Sea and return safely to the Tianyan Immortal Domain should be considered a core member of the Nine Heavens Institute.

Lu Chen used a system to identify Chu Zhengyu's cultivation state and found he was currently only at the Immortal King Realm.

As Chu Zhengyu approached, he saw it was just a Mortal Immortal and his face immediately darkened.

He was severely injured, his life force continuously dwindling. If he didn't get treatment soon, his body would fail.

Though Immortals won't die as long as their Divine Soul remains intact, their bodies are the most solid barrier for the Divine Soul. Once the body perishes, without physical protection, the Divine Soul becomes quite vulnerable.

In this perilous small world, if he were left with only his Divine Soul and encountered that group of fierce beasts again, he'd likely fall here.

Chu Zhengyu had sensed Immortal Aura here earlier, expecting this person to be at least an Immortal Monarch, possibly with rare healing medicines, but upon closer inspection, it was just a Mortal Immortal.

Chu Zhengyu grimly said, "What is a Mortal Immortal like you doing in this small world?"

"Any one of the fierce beasts here could swallow you in one bite."

Lu Chen said, “Senior, I’m here to train under the guidance of Immortal Sect elders.”

Hearing this, Chu Zhengyu paused.

Training under Immortal Sect elders?

Chu Zhengyu was among the third group to explore here, so he wasn’t aware of external affairs. He was puzzled as to why the Nine Heavens Institute would allow such a Mortal Immortal in for training.

Chu Zhengyu regained his composure and asked, “Training? Which batch did you come in with?”

Lu Chen said, “I don’t know, senior.”

Chu Zhengyu continued to ask, “How many people came in with you?”

Lu Chen replied, “Probably hundreds of thousands.”

“Hundreds... hundreds of thousands???” Chu Zhengyu was stunned again.

The previous groups exploring never had more than five hundred people each, yet now tens of thousands came in?

How could the Nine Heavens Institute send so many people in?

Chu Zhengyu quickly realized what was happening, looked at Lu Chen, and asked, “So you’re not a disciple of the Nine Heavens Institute?”

Lu Chen said, “I’m from the Beast Alliance.”

Lu Chen’s words confirmed Chu Zhengyu’s suspicion. He thought perhaps outsiders, knowing the dangers here, planned to let other Immortal Sects clear the risks first.

Then he said, “Show me your memories from this time.”

Without hesitation, Lu Chen condensed a Memory Pearl, integrating events outside the small world into it.

The Memory Pearl slowly floated to Chu Zhengyu, who struggled to raise his hand and infused immortal power into the Memory Pearl to read its contents.

After reading the memory, Chu Zhengyu breathed a heavy sigh of relief.

Now that tens of thousands had entered, as long as he encountered an Immortal King Level existence, he'd still have hope.

Chu Zhengyu then said to Lu Chen, "You must immediately find an Immortal King here."

Right after speaking, Chu Zhengyu leaned against a tree trunk, his entire body's aura very weak, weakening not only his body but his Divine Soul's aura as well.

Clearly, he had burned his Divine Soul Power while exploring this small world; otherwise, he wouldn't be so frail.

On hearing Chu Zhengyu's words, Lu Chen didn't hurry to leave. He wanted to gather some intelligence about this small world from Chu Zhengyu.

Chu Zhengyu felt his life force rapidly waning; if he didn't get treated quickly, he'd soon perish.

Lu Chen then said, "Senior, I know some Healing Techniques. Let me treat you first."

Hearing Lu Chen's words, Chu Zhengyu glanced at Lu Chen.

This person truly only had the aura of a Mortal Immortal and appeared unremarkable, making Chu Zhengyu doubt whether he had any means to treat him.

However, now he couldn't care any longer. Even if this person were to leave and find another Immortal King, with his Mortal Immortal cultivation, he might become prey before exiting the forest.

Moreover, even if he really found another Immortal King, who knows if he'd still be alive when they arrived.

Since this person could perform some kind of Healing Technique, it was worth a try.

Thinking of this, Chu Zhengyu said, "Alright, come treat me."

Lu Chen then approached Chu Zhengyu. Arriving before him, Lu Chen squatted down, raised his hand, and infused Life Force into Chu Zhengyu.

As the Life Force entered Chu Zhengyu's body, his life force rapidly recovered. Feeling his life force quickly restoring, Chu Zhengyu was somewhat stunned.

It was more effective than taking a Healing Pill. He instantly recognized Lu Chen's healing method and asked, "Are you cultivating the Life Dao?"

Lu Chen replied, "Yes."

Hearing Lu Chen's reply, Chu Zhengyu was overjoyed, realizing his fate had not ended; he'd encountered someone cultivating the Life Dao at such a critical moment.

With this person's Life Force, his life force wouldn't completely deplete for now.

Chu Zhengyu then said to Lu Chen, “If I survive, there will be great rewards.”

Lu Chen said, “It’s what I should do, senior.”

While speaking, Lu Chen continued to supply Chu Zhengyu with Life Force, but his pace was very slow. Though Chu Zhengyu’s body was somewhat restored, he remained on the ground, unable to get up.

Chu Zhengyu thought Lu Chen, as a Mortal Immortal, had a shallow grasp of the Life Dao and could only control a small amount of Power of Dao, so he didn’t dwell on it.

At this point, Lu Chen asked, “Senior, what is your realm?”
