Capítulo 1981: Chapter 1671: Habit Is the Most Frightening

Yun Yudie now has to admit that Lu Chen does indeed have some skill.

Especially in deceiving women.

She has gradually come to her senses now, realizing she's fallen into Lu Chen's trap.

She never thought she'd consider dual cultivation with Lu Chen as something completely ordinary.

In the past, if a man touched her body, she would likely freeze him into an ice sculpture with a reverse hand.

But now, when engaging in such acts with Lu Chen, she no longer needs him to take the initiative; instead, she feels it benefits her.

If we talk about who lost out, it seems neither lost out; after all, she gained advantages, and Lu Chen gained pleasure.

However, her dignity as an Immortal Venerate is entirely gone, at least in front of Lu Chen, where she has no dignity at all.

What's most important is that she used to hate such base desires, yet now she doesn't mind them at all, thinking relying on this form of cultivation to enhance her power is quite normal.

If this continues, she'll get accustomed to improving her strength through pleasure, and will she be able to engage in normal cultivation?

Even if she cultivates normally in the future, it might be hard to quiet her mind, as thoughts of dual cultivation with Lu Chen dominate her mind.

After all, the higher the realm, the harder it is to increase strength; relying solely on cultivation, it's unlikely she'd experience that sudden rise of power.

Whereas when dual cultivating with Lu Chen, every time she comprehends a new Law, she experiences that power surge, a feeling she can't get enough of.

Most importantly, she has developed a habit.

Habit is the most frightening.

So now she feels she's been deceived by Lu Chen.

Thinking about it makes Yun Yudie feel furious inside, her sister must have fallen for this guy's ploy and couldn't leave this scoundrel even after realizing.

If this keeps on, she feels she might end up bearing this guy's child someday.

But, even though she realizes she's on a road of no return, it's impossible for her to stop now.

Having experienced the feeling of power enhancement, stopping now is nearly unthinkable.

The only thing she can do now is to stick to her bottom line and absolutely avoid bearing Lu Chen's child.

If she has Lu Chen's child, the trouble would indeed be big; this is different from the mortal world, where if a woman has a man's child and things don't work out, a divorce settles matters.

But in the world of Immortals, once a child is born between a man and a woman, a deep karmic connection forms between them.

The higher the cultivation state, the deeper the karma.

Yun Yudie then reminded expressionlessly: "She is the leader of an Overlord-level Influence, not someone easily deceived; be careful when she retaliates after realizing it."

Lu Chen smiled and asked: "Are you jealous?"

As he spoke, Lu Chen suddenly let out a few heavy breaths, "Hoo! Hoo! Hoo!"

Seeing Lu Chen like this, Yun Yudie naturally guessed what step this guy and Xiyue Immortal Venerable had reached.

Yun Yudie didn't bother saying more, she then stopped cultivating, stood up directly, having competed against Xiyue Immortal Venerable for so long, she needed a rest.

She definitely didn't want to benefit Lu Chen any further.

Meanwhile.

In Daqin Immortal Dynasty.

After Yun Yudie stopped competing with Xiyue Immortal Venerable, Lu Chen was able to use part of his consciousness to control other bodies.

When Lu Chen split a part of his consciousness to the body in Daqin Immortal Dynasty, he sensed Evil Shadow Immortal King waiting outside his cultivation room.

Clearly, Evil Shadow Immortal King had some business with him.

Lu Chen then stood up, the next moment his body appeared outside the cultivation room.

Seeing Lu Chen finally emerge, Evil Shadow Immortal King immediately said: “Your Majesty, Blood Demon Immortal Venerable contacted me recently.”

Lu Chen asked: “What did he want from you?”

Evil Shadow Immortal King replied: “He asked me to cause chaos in Daqin Immortal Dynasty, disrupt Daqin’s Qi Fortune, and force your Main Body to reveal itself.”

Hearing this, Lu Chen thought it over; it seemed the Blood Ancestor was prompting Blood Demon Immortal Venerable.

But speaking of it, since the Blood Ancestor was so eager to find him, why not come himself? The Blood Ancestor’s power is surely stronger than a typical Immortal Venerate, it should be easy to come to the Barbaric.

Could it be...

The Blood Ancestor is unable to leave the Small World where Blood Eagle Hall is for certain reasons? So he can only send others to find his Main Body?

This reminded Lu Chen of Fen Xiao; he suspected the Blood Ancestor's situation was similar, being unable to move freely due to certain prohibitions, reduced to supporting the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain as nourishment, thus sending others on his behalf.

While Lu Chen was slightly distracted, Xiyue Immortal Venerable on the other side suddenly became incredibly frenzied, making it difficult for Lu Chen to focus on other thoughts.

Lu Chen hurriedly told Evil Shadow Immortal King: "Alright, I'm aware of the matter; proceed with your own tasks."

Evil Shadow Immortal King said: "Yes, I will take my leave."

Once Evil Shadow Immortal King finished speaking, he left.

Lu Chen immediately controlled that body to return inside the cultivation room, whereupon his attention was once again fully on Xiyue Immortal Venerable.

...

Time passed by one day at a time.

Twenty years later.

At Heavenly Splendor Hall and Star River Hall.

Star River Immortal Venerate stood in the hall, staring blankly at the projection screen before him, which showed an Immortal City in the Southern Domain.

At that moment, an Immortal Venerate dressed in a brown robe entered the hall.

“Hall Master, what do you need from me?” Taihua Immortal Venerable asked proactively.

Star River Immortal Venerate waved his hand, shutting off the projection screen before turning to Taihua Immortal Venerable and saying: “I sense my end is near, so I intend to seal myself and wait for the Tribulation of the Great Dao to pass.”

Hearing this, Taihua Immortal Venerable was taken aback.

Seal himself?

Star River Immortal Venerate is the Hall Master of Heavenly Splendor Hall; if he seals himself, who will lead Heavenly Splendor Hall in the future?

Just as Taihua Immortal Venerable zoned out, Star River Immortal Venerate continued, saying: “Taihua, you’re the one I trust the most; I plan to pass the position of Hall Master to you. From now on, you are the Hall Master of Heavenly Splendor Hall.”

This...

Coming back to his senses, Taihua Immortal Venerable quickly said: “Hall Master, this mustn’t happen; I am weak in power, how could I hold the position of Hall Master of Heavenly Splendor Hall?”

In moments like these, even if he felt joy inside, Taihua Immortal Venerable couldn’t show it; after all, no one knew if Star River Immortal Venerate was testing him.

Star River Immortal Venerate walked to Taihua Immortal Venerable, patting his shoulder and saying: “We founded Heavenly Splendor Hall together back then, without you as Hall Master, should we let outsiders lead it?”

“My time is short; soon I will gather all the Elders to announce this matter.”

Seeing that Star River Immortal Venerate seemed sincerely planning to seal himself, not testing, Taihua Immortal Venerable then said: “Hall Master, the Tribulation of the Great Dao is a Law-level calamity; sealing oneself may still be affected.”

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Even if it's known that the self-sealing of Star River Immortal Venerate might be true, Taihua Immortal Venerate cannot possibly show a delighted expression, after all, Star River Immortal Venerate still holds the title of Hall Master.

Star River Immortal Venerate said, "Naturally, I know that self-sealing will also lead to the loss of Life Force, but at least it can slow the loss. This way, I can live a few more days."

In fact, his ultimate fate has yet to arrive, but as the Life Dao continues to be eroded by that mysterious force, his ultimate fate will soon come.

If he truly waits for the ultimate fate to arrive, he won't be able to reincarnate.

Immortal Venerate must reincarnate before their ultimate fate comes, Immortals cannot reincarnate just because they wish to, if the ultimate fate is imminent, they can't reincarnate, and then they can only wait for death.

He definitely doesn't want to wait for death.

After all, this era can no longer give rise to a second Immortal Emperor, rather than that, it would be better to reincarnate and cultivate anew.

It just so happens that the Immortal Aura is rejuvenating now. After reincarnating and cultivating anew, his Cultivation State will surely improve rapidly in a short time.

Of course, reincarnating and cultivating anew bears significant risks, as the Cultivation Path is now eroded by mysterious forces and with his Cultivation State continually improving, it will surely be harder to cultivate later on. But as long as strategic planning is done in advance, there shouldn't be major surprises.

Moreover, he does not intend to reincarnate just once, with the power of his Immortal Venerate Divine Soul, he can reincarnate many times. Through multiple reincarnations, as long as no accidents occur, he will live longer than he does now.

Star River Immortal Venerate sighed and heavily patted Taihua Immortal Venerate's shoulder again, "Taihua, from now on, Heavenly Splendor Hall is entrusted to you."

Taihua Immortal Venerate said, "Please rest assured, Hall Master, I will definitely oversee Heavenly Splendor Hall well, waiting for the day you return from sealing."

Star River Immortal Venerate said, "I'm afraid after this self-sealing, we will never meet again."

"Enough, let us stop this talk, I will now gather the elders of Heavenly Splendor Hall."

With the fall of his words, Star River Immortal Venerate's voice echoed throughout the sky above Heavenly Splendor Hall.

"All Inner Hall Elders, come to Star River Hall; I have important matters to announce!"

Soon, the elders of Heavenly Splendor Hall's Inner Hall gathered in Star River Hall.

Star River Immortal Venerate sat on the Immortal Throne made of Xianjin above Star River Hall, glanced at the elders present, and directly said, "I plan to self-seal and transfer the position of Hall Master to Taihua Immortal Venerate; from today onward, Taihua Immortal Venerate will be the new Hall Master of Heavenly Splendor Hall."

Upon hearing this, the elders of Heavenly Splendor Hall suddenly fell into an uproar.

On one hand, people were shocked that Star River Immortal Venerate was planning to self-seal; on the other, many present have a Cultivation State stronger than Taihua Immortal Venerate. Quite a few Immortal Venerates actually coveted the position of Hall Master, yet Star River Immortal Venerate bestowed the title to Taihua Immortal Venerate.

Star River Immortal Venerate naturally knew what these people were thinking, so he continued, "My ultimate fate is approaching, leaving me no choice but to self-seal and wait for the Tribulation of the Great Dao to pass."

"I hope that after my self-sealing, you will assist Taihua Immortal Venerate in jointly managing the whole Heavenly Splendor Hall."

"It is my wish not to have to deal with Heavenly Splendor Hall matters after my self-sealing."

Upon hearing Star River Immortal Venerate's last words, those Immortal Venerates with ulterior motives immediately became much more reserved; Star River Immortal Venerate's warning was very clear: if anyone causes trouble after his self-sealing, he may unseal himself to address the matter.

Star River Immortal Venerate said, "Alright, Taihua Immortal Venerate, come up."

Hearing these words, Taihua Immortal Venerate, overwhelmed with excitement, stepped up to the Immortal Throne symbolizing the highest position in Heavenly Splendor Hall.

Once he arrived beside Star River Immortal Venerate, Star River Immortal Venerate rose and said, "I hope you will not disappoint my expectations!"

Taihua Immortal Venerate immediately bent in salute and said, "Please rest assured, Hall Master, I will protect Heavenly Splendor Hall thoroughly until you unseal and return from isolation!"

After Taihua Immortal Venerate's words fell, the elders in the hall spoke in unison, "Salute to Taihua Hall Master!"

Although some Immortal Venerates were unwilling in their hearts, this was the designated person by Star River Immortal Venerate, and they had no choice.

However, some Immortal Venerates were already thinking, after all, Star River Immortal Venerate's ultimate fate is arriving, and even if self-sealed, likely won't be much longer.

Once Star River Immortal Venerate is deceased, there won't be anyone backing Taihua Immortal Venerate anymore. If they want to seize power, they can wait a bit more with no harm, as their ultimate fate has not yet arrived, and they can afford to wait.

At this time, Star River Immortal Venerate continued, "That's it then. I won't be attending Taihua Hall Master's inauguration ceremony."

"I hope that when I return, I'll see a flourishing and mighty Heavenly Splendor Hall!"

With the fall of his words, Star River Immortal Venerate's body disappeared on the spot.

Immediately, Taihua Immortal Venerate led the salute towards the position where Star River Immortal Venerate had stood, "Farewell to Star River Hall Master! May Star River Hall Master live a second life and continue the myth!"

Immortal Venerate self-sealing is generally to live a second life; this sentiment is a form of blessing towards Star River Immortal Venerate.

At this moment, Star River Immortal Venerate had already risen to the sky above Heavenly Splendor Hall, sweeping his Divine Sense once more across the whole Heavenly Splendor Hall, deeply sighing.

If not for the Tribulation of the Great Dao, if not for the emergence of an Immortal Emperor, he would not wish to reincarnate.

Even though he is fully prepared, reincarnation inherently carries numerous uncertainties.

Ordinary individuals lack his resolve; however, most Immortal Venerates who succeed in reincarnation and cultivate anew often can go much further, and he believes that he can endure until the end of the Tribulation of the Great Dao, until the fall of the Demon Emperor by the method of reincarnation.

Subsequently, Star River Immortal Venerate retracted his Divine Sense, returned to his cave dwelling, activated the pre-arranged Sealing Array to avoid detection.

Immediately, he began dispersing his power, initiating the reincarnation method.

...

The news of Star River Immortal Venerate's self-sealing spread rapidly throughout the Southern Domain.

After all, Heavenly Splendor Hall is an Overlord-level Influence; the leader of an Overlord-level Influence self-sealing means his ultimate fate is near.

This brought hope to many forces in the Southern Domain, everyone covets the position of an Overlord-level Influence, some have long wanted to replace them, however, due to the formidable strength of Heavenly Splendor Hall, most forces chose to endure.

In Tianyan Immortal Domain, Overlord-level Influences are continuously changing; none can persist as the Overlord-level Influence of any Realm, even the Nine Heavens Institute, which once ruled over the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain, has been overthrown, let alone Heavenly Splendor Hall, which is merely the Overlord-level Influence of the Southern Domain.

For a moment, the entire Southern Domain was rife with intrigue.

Blood Eagle Hall.

Within the grand hall, Blood Demon Immortal Venerable was examining intelligence concerning Heavenly Splendor Hall and suddenly burst into laughter.

"The time for Blood Eagle Hall's rise has finally come!"

Blood Demon Immortal Venerable had long intended to expand but was always concerned that Heavenly Splendor Hall might target them; now, with Heavenly Splendor Hall's Hall Master self-sealed and ultimate fate approaching, other major forces in the Southern Domain will undoubtedly be eager, and Heavenly Splendor Hall, in such circumstances with self-concerns, surely won't have the time to deal with them.

Blood Eagle Hall can finally leave this Small World!

Capítulo 1983: Chapter 1673: Xiyue Immortal Venerable's Breakthrough

Beast Alliance.

Heavenly Fox Valley.

In the bedchamber of Xiyue Immortal Venerable, Lu Chen was tightly clutching two fox tails, exhaling a deep breath as he looked upward.

At this moment, a system notification sounded in his ear.

“Congratulations to the host for helping the wife and concubines conceive offspring, rewarding sword technique Sky Shaking Soul Slash.”

Hearing the system notification, Lu Chen gradually returned to sense and immediately opened the system.

At that moment, there was another reward notification on the system interface. When he obtained Xiyue Immortal Venerable, he also received a reward called Heavenly Heart Powder.

Lu Chen first checked the system introduction of Heavenly Heart Powder, scanning it briefly.

[Heavenly Heart Powder: After consumption, a Heavenly Heart will gradually form inside the body, significantly increasing the host’s cultivation speed.]

Heavenly Heart? What is that?

Lu Chen asked in confusion: “System, what is the Heavenly Heart?”

The system replied: “After the Qi Fortune declined in Tianyan Immortal Domain, the Heavenly Dao Laws changed, and only the Immortal with a Heavenly Heart, the Immortal recognized by the Heavenly Dao, can break through to the Immortal Emperor Realm.”

Upon hearing the system’s introduction, Lu Chen understood, it’s similar to the Son of Destiny.

After reading about Heavenly Heart, Lu Chen then accepted the sword technique inheritance of the Holy Tier sword technique Sky Shaking Soul Slash. Instantly, the content of the sword technique surfaced in his mind.

To perform Sky Shaking Soul Slash requires consuming at least half of the immortal power within an Immortal King’s body, but its power is immensely tremendous. If used properly, slaying an Immortal Venerate with one slash is effortless.

However, a Holy Tier sword technique requires specific meridians to circulate immortal power when used, a process that requires long-term practice.

Lu Chen felt very satisfied, both rewards are quite excellent.

Of course, the most crucial is that he finally managed to make Xiyue Immortal Venerable pregnant.

Thinking of having impregnated an Immortal Venerate, moreover the leader of an Overlord-level Influence, filled Lu Chen's heart with immense joy, a strange sense of accomplishment welled up within.

At this moment, the last trace of Demon Qi within the Beast Core inside Xiyue Immortal Venerable was entirely refined, with the last trace of Demon Qi transforming into demonic power inside Xiyue Immortal Venerable, her aura surged abruptly.

In an instant, the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain trembled, and thick black clouds appeared above the Eastern Domain, as if the sky of the Eastern Domain was about to collapse.

Countless black tribulation thunders rumbled continuously in the sky, seeing this, the first reaction of various factions was that disaster was imminent.

Unexpectedly, the black tribulation thunders did not fall.

Simultaneously, Xiyue Immortal Venerable's aura surged, a terrifying pressure exuded from her body, soon enveloping the entire Eastern Domain.

Soon, Xiyue Immortal Venerable's pressure covered Tianyan Immortal Domain.

Qingyun Academy.

In a pavilion on a mountain peak, when Immortal Venerable Wan Jie sensed this pressure, his eyebrows immediately tightened.

This pressure carried a trace of demonic nature, having dealt with the Beast Alliance for a long time, he was very familiar with Xiyue Immortal Venerable's pressure.

Immortal Venerable Wan Jie murmured, "She actually broke through, how is this possible..."

The Beast Alliance and Qingyun Academy had been competing for control over the Eastern Domain for ages, now that the Alliance Hierarch Xiyue Immortal Venerable has broken through to become an Immortal Emperor, there's no doubt who will control the Eastern Domain.

This is troublesome.

With Beast Alliance controlling the Eastern Domain, they would either make Qingyun Academy submit, or expel them from the Eastern Domain.

If Xiyue Immortal Emperor's ambition is the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain, it's very likely she will choose to annex Qingyun Academy and then challenge the Demon Emperor.

But now with problems in the great Dao, coupled with frequent disasters in Tianyan Immortal Domain, even if Xiyue Immortal Emperor has ambition, she might not confront the Demon Emperor anytime soon, but annexing Qingyun Academy is quite likely.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor already ascended to the Immortal Emperor Realm, wanting to annex Qingyun Academy would be an easy feat; Immortal Venerates stand no chance against an Immortal Emperor.

Immortal Venerable Wan Jie sighed deeply, having struggled with the Beast Alliance in the Eastern Domain for countless eras, and yet Qingyun Academy ended up losing.

Who knows how Xiyue Immortal Emperor managed to breakthrough.

Logically, the Qi Fortune in Tianyan Immortal Domain should not be enough to sustain the existence of two Immortal Emperors.

At this moment.

Attempting to refine the Heavenly Dao of Tianyan Immortal Domain, Xuan Qingyun opened her eyes, looking towards the Eastern Domain in confusion.

In her prophecy, no new Immortal Emperor should emerge in the next hundred million years.

Yet how come not long has passed, and a new Immortal Emperor appeared?

Someone actually managed to defy her prophecy, how was this accomplished?

Judging from the pressure and aura, it seems that the Demon Immortal Alliance Leader from the Beast Alliance has broken through.

That said, although Xiyue Immortal Emperor broke through, she seems not to have gained the favor of the Heavenly Dao of Tianyan Immortal Domain.

At this point, Xuan Qingyun carefully sensed, the Heavenly Dao of Tianyan Immortal Domain still operated independently, not refined by anyone.

Moreover, Tianyan Immortal Domain's Qi Fortune didn't converge toward Xiyue Immortal Emperor, it appears she used an unconventional method to ascend to Emperor, not reliant on Tianyan Immortal Domain's Qi Fortune to sustain her existence.

No matter how she ascended, having become an Immortal Emperor, she possesses the ability to control the Heavenly Dao of Tianyan Immortal Domain. Xuan Qingyun now fears Xiyue Immortal Emperor might compete with her for control over the Heavenly Dao.

Although Xiyue Immortal Emperor just broke through to Immortal Emperor, her power may not yet match Xuan Qingyun's, but once she seeks to contend for control over the Heavenly Dao, it'll interrupt Xuan Qingyun's refining process, delaying her progress.

She perceives that Tianyan Immortal Domain is nearing a state of collapse, although immortal aura revived decades ago, Tianyan Immortal Domain's Qi Fortune didn't increase.

Instead of increasing, Qi Fortune shows signs of decline. If she can't soon control the Heavenly Dao and gain stronger power, she might lack the means to transcend the world's barrier upon Tianyan Immortal Domain's collapse.

Xuan Qingyun now closed her eyes, summoning the Power of Heavenly Mechanism to predict the likelihood of Xiyue Immortal Emperor competing with her for control over the Heavenly Dao.

In the next moment, a yin-yang pattern appeared before her, rotating ceaselessly under the Power of Heavenly Mechanism, soon, a mist emerged within the yin-yang pattern, forming a screen.

Opening her eyes, Xuan Qingyun glanced at the screen formed by the Power of Heavenly Mechanism, within she saw Lu Chen clutching Xiyue Immortal Emperor's fox tail, acting intimately with Xiyue Immortal Emperor.

Seeing this scene, Xuan Qingyun was momentarily stupefied.

She only intended to foresee Xiyue Immortal Emperor, completely unprepared to discover how deeply Xiyue Immortal Emperor's future was intertwined with Lu Chen, even Lu Chen appeared in the prediction.

Faced with the scenario in the image, Xuan Qingyun felt exasperated, how does this wretched being appear everywhere?

Wait a moment, could it be Xiyue Immortal Emperor's breakthrough was due to Lu Chen's assistance?

If so, the relationship between Xiyue Immortal Emperor and Lu Chen is likely quite extraordinary, which would make dealing with Lu Chen in the future all the more challenging.

She must constantly watch out for the Red Flower Sedan, and keep an eye on Xiyue Immortal Emperor.

This moment, she must hasten refining the Heavenly Dao, absolutely not allowing Lu Chen to mature!

Xuan Qingyun waved her hand, dispersing the prediction image, subsequently shutting her eyes again, focusing her thoughts back on refining the Heavenly Dao.

Capítulo 1984: Chapter 1674: Is Lu Chen This Damn Scoundrel Really Her Fated One?

After breaking through, Xiyue Immortal Emperor quickly calmed the surging demonic power within herself and withdrew the pressure emanating from her body.

At this moment, she suddenly turned her head, her scarlet pupils coldly staring at the dog holding onto her tail.

Over the years, her spiritual wisdom was suppressed by demonic power, and her entire being was controlled by desire, tormented in various ways by this dog, which was an extreme humiliation for her.

Seeing that Lu Chen still wouldn't let go, instead staring at her, Xiyue Immortal Emperor coldly asked, "Aren't you letting go yet?"

Before becoming an Immortal Emperor, she was apprehensive of Lu Chen possibly being a reincarnation of a Great Power, but now she was already an Immortal Emperor. So what if Lu Chen was an Immortal Emperor reincarnate? Her current strength certainly surpassed Lu Chen's.

Moreover, with her Immortal Emperor's Divine Soul Strength, she could carve the array patterns of the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array herself, so Lu Chen was no longer of use to her.

For a moment, she suddenly had the impulse to kill to silence.

If the matter of her being ridden by Lu Chen were to spread, where would her dignity as an Immortal Emperor go?

Just as Xiyue Immortal Emperor was about to teach Lu Chen a lesson, suddenly, a vast inheritance memory surged into her mind.

Each time the Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox undergoes a transformation, it gains some sealed inheritance memories.

After receiving the vast inheritance memories, a trace of confusion appeared in Xiyue Immortal Emperor's once murderous gaze.

According to the inheritance memories she just received, the Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox has a special talent regarding fate, and will not casually choose a partner. Only when meeting the destined person will the Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox enter a mating period, and the destined person greatly aids the Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox's growth. The Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox must not harm the destined person.

If the destined person of the Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox dies, the Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox's potential for advancement would be completely cut off and would forever remain in the Immortal Emperor Realm.

Lu Chen, this dog, is her destined person???

What is this nonsense!

This male human is actually the destined person of her, a member of the Demon Race?

And she can't harm him?

Xiyue Immortal Emperor now began to suspect whether her inheritance memories were fake.

Although the Immortal Emperor Realm is currently the highest realm in the Tianyan Immortal Domain, since her inheritance memories mention there being a destined person, it shows she still has potential for growth, proving she can become stronger.

As long as there is the possibility to become stronger, she cannot harm Lu Chen.

However, just thinking about the fact that she and Lu Chen performed such primal acts over decades, she felt a bit difficult to accept in her heart.

An Immortal Emperor, with a human, entirely following primal instincts to engage in such acts, while she was the one being suppressed, if this didn't cause inner turmoil, it would be strange.

Seeing Xiyue Immortal Emperor staring fixedly at him, Lu Chen smiled and said, "You don't think that becoming an Immortal Emperor makes me your blemish, and you want to kill to silence, do you?"

Hearing Lu Chen's words, Xiyue Immortal Emperor snapped back to reality and coldly said, "You're not entirely stupid."

She indeed felt that Lu Chen was her blemish, but with the inheritance memories present, even if he was a blemish, she had to acknowledge it. She could not completely cut off her path for advancement because of this one blemish.

She still wished to one day leave the Tianyan Immortal Domain, to see the world outside.

Lu Chen, with an unchanged expression, said, "Murdering one's husband is not allowed. If our child is born without a father, how pitiful would that be?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor snorted coldly and said, “Do you still think this Emperor will adhere to the Heavenly Dao Oath?”

“This Emperor is now an Immortal Emperor; even the Heavenly Dao cannot do anything to me.”

Xiyue Immortal Emperor assumed Lu Chen still intended to engage in such acts with her.

Lu Chen immediately realized that Xiyue Immortal Emperor had not yet noticed the changes in her body and reminded her, “Perhaps you should check your body first.”

Upon hearing this, Xiyue Immortal Emperor, puzzled, used her Divine Thought to scan her body, and upon doing so, she became completely dumbfounded.

Within her abdomen, there was already the presence of life.

She... she was actually pregnant with this dog’s child!!!

It made sense though, after dual cultivating with Lu Chen, she quickly comprehended the Reproduction Path. Her body also gradually broke through the Heavenly Dao's restrictions, making it easier for her to conceive compared to the average Immortal.

And being in that emotional phase, tormented by Lu Chen for so many years, it was only natural to fall for it.

What should she do now?

The karmic involvement of this child was far too significant.

If this child were born, she would probably be bound to this dog for life.

Having once, there would be a second, third, countless times...

Would she continue to be humiliated by this dog in the future?

After all, this guy was her destined person; as long as he touched her body or tail, or stayed by her side, she might enter a mating state.

Wait a minute...

Xiyue Immortal Emperor quickly realized that Lu Chen was already her destined person, and they were bound together. This karmic bond was probably greater than the one involving bearing a child.

Even if she didn't want the child, she still couldn't harm Lu Chen.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor hesitated, this child...

After all, this was her first child, and even if it were born, it wouldn't have too much influence on her. Although she didn't quite fancy this dog-man Lu Chen, the child was innocent, and she did indeed have a slight anticipation for offspring in her heart.

She was already an Immortal Emperor, standing at the pinnacle of this world, and it would be difficult to become stronger in the future.

Moreover, she possessed virtually endless lifespans; she wouldn't have much to do afterward, so why not nurture a child.

If in the future she couldn't break the restrictions of the Heavenly Dao and ascend to a higher realm, unable to leave the Tianyan Immortal Domain, she could place all her hopes on her child.

After all, Lu Chen himself might be a reincarnated Immortal Emperor, and she was the Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox. There's no way a child nurtured by the two of them would be ordinary.

In this sense, perhaps this destined person of Lu Chen somewhat made sense.

She was a Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox, royalty among the Demon Race. Her bloodline likely originated from Outer Heaven, and within the current Tianyan Immortal Domain, only someone like Lu Chen, suspected of being a reincarnated Great Power, could match her.

Seeing the disbelief on Xiyue Immortal Emperor's cold and enchanting face, Lu Chen released one hand and gently stroked Xiyue Immortal Emperor's snow-white nine tails, saying while caressing, "You wouldn't harm our child, would you?"

Lu Chen wasn't entirely sure of Xiyue Immortal Emperor's thoughts; after all, Xiyue Immortal Emperor was an Immortal Emperor now, and the Heavenly Dao Oath had no hold on her. As an Immortal Emperor, giving birth to someone else's child would certainly strip away her sense of dignity.

When Lu Chen's hand stroked Xiyue Immortal Emperor's tail, Xiyue Immortal Emperor suddenly felt a shock coursing through her body. She quickly regained her senses and looked fiercely at Lu Chen.

“Get out!”

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Forget about before, after all, Lu Chen helped her quickly refine the demonic power from the Beast Core.

But now Lu Chen is still stroking her tail, provoking her emotions, and that’s going a bit too far.

As an Immortal Emperor, she must take the initiative; she cannot continue to be oppressed by this dog of a man.

Lu Chen wasn’t intimidated by the aura released by Xiyue Immortal Emperor. Instead, he boldly grabbed Xiyue Immortal Emperor’s newly grown tail.

With Lu Chen’s grasp, Xiyue Immortal Emperor’s cold jade-like face instantly blushed with a charming hue, and her body couldn’t help but tremble slightly.

Seeing Lu Chen still teasing and provoking her, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's sharp teeth extended involuntarily, glaring fiercely at Lu Chen, "You're courting death!"

Even if Lu Chen is the destined one, it doesn't mean he can behave so recklessly towards her. She's not an animal without Spiritual Wisdom.

Seeing Xiyue Immortal Emperor a bit agitated, Lu Chen immediately stopped his actions, but his hand still held Xiyue Immortal Emperor's tail. Smiling, he asked again, "What do you plan to do with this child?"

Being interrogated by Lu Chen, Xiyue Immortal Emperor replied coldly, "I will never breed offspring for you!"

Hearing this, Lu Chen was slightly taken aback. Is his child doomed to be lost?

As he pondered how to persuade Xiyue Immortal Emperor to keep the child, she continued, "From now on, this child will have nothing to do with you, don't even think about him."

"Once he's born, he can only acknowledge this Emperor as his mother!"

Uh... this...

Lu Chen realized that Xiyue Immortal Emperor meant she intended to give birth to the child?

But wouldn't allow them to recognize each other?

Lu Chen said, "After all, I am his father, isn't it a bit inappropriate to do this?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor replied coldly, "With this Emperor, he doesn't need you as a father."

She definitely didn't want her child to be led astray by this dog of a man.

This guy always imagined carnal matters between men and women. If he teaches her child to be a philanderer, that would be troublesome, so she decided resolutely not to let the child recognize Lu Chen as his father.

Facing Xiyue Immortal Emperor's determined attitude, Lu Chen was at a loss for words, but looking at it positively, as long as she's willing to give birth to the child, that's quite good.

Anyway, as long as the child is born safely, he can earn another reward.

While Lu Chen was distracted, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's warning voice sounded again, "If you don't leave now, there's no need for your body to exist anymore!"

She had already broken through to become an Immortal Emperor for quite a while, yet this dog of a man was still in intimate contact with her, even stroking her tail, not giving any respect to her status as an Immortal Emperor.

Upon hearing Xiyue Immortal Emperor's threat, Lu Chen reluctantly let go of her tail, then separated from her.

After they parted, Xiyue Immortal Emperor suddenly felt a sense of relief. Although her Spiritual Wisdom had been suppressed by Demon Qi for decades, she was aware of her actions.

Being bullied by this dog of a man for decades left a trace of discomfort in her heart. As an Immortal Venerate, continuously engaging in animalistic deeds was a great humiliation for her.

Now that she became an Immortal Emperor, her Cultivation State should be higher than Lu Chen's, and her power was greater too. Even if Lu Chen was her destined one, she wouldn't have to worry about repeating the same mistake moving forward.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor flicked her tail and got up from the bed, then with a wave of her hand, all impurities on her vanished without a trace.

Her tail and fox ears disappeared, and a snow-white wide-sleeved gown appeared on her slightly plump body.

The gown's texture flowed like Yuehua, with wide sleeves fluttering, and the hem like cloud-draped.

The gown clung to her graceful body, accentuating her perfect figure.

She stood tall with intricate curves; the white gown highlighted her skin, fairer than snow, challenging frost and jade.

Now, beyond a cold abstinent and enchanting aura, she embodied the noble and dignified demeanor of a beautiful mistress.

Her appearance was stunning, cold as bright moonlight, though carrying a trace of anger, it added authority.

Her eyebrows were distant like mountains, red eyes deep as gemstones, a pointed nose, with tight-pressed scarlet lips.

Her long raven-black hair cascaded smoothly behind her, gently swaying with her movements.

Thinking about how Xiyue Immortal Emperor, this Immortal Emperor, was previously bullied by him holding her tail, Lu Chen's desire surged again.

Noticing Lu Chen lingering on her couch, Xiyue Immortal Emperor suddenly frowned, casting a cold glance at his body, seeing Lu Chen still maintaining his form and having thoughts, she coldly said:

"How long do you plan to stay with this Emperor?"

Lu Chen smiled calmly and said, "You are truly too heartless, after all, I helped you become an Immortal Emperor, how can you pretend not to know me after dressing?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor, with her red eyes focused on Lu Chen's deep ones, said, "This was merely a transaction, now the transaction is over."

"Do you intend to attack this Emperor?"

"I warn you, you'd better dismiss such notions because finding your main body with this Emperor's Divine Thought is an effortless task."

"If you anger this Emperor, I will surely capture your main body."

Lu Chen shamelessly asked, "What will you do after capturing my main body?"

Hearing Lu Chen's question, Xiyue Immortal Emperor frowned, that was a question she hadn't considered, as she didn't initially plan to make trouble for Lu Chen.

This made Xiyue Immortal Emperor quite displeased, having already given Lu Chen an out, yet he dared to press further.

At this time, unwilling to indulge Lu Chen further, she raised her hand, and a black vortex instantly appeared behind Lu Chen, immediately sucking his body in.

The next moment, Lu Chen appeared outside the valley.

Lu Chen paused for a moment, quickly dressed himself, fortunately, no one visited Xiyue Immortal Emperor's valley, otherwise, his presence here in the buff would've been social suicide.

After sending Lu Chen away, Xiyue Immortal Emperor again checked the small life within her abdomen, thinking about soon having a child, her originally stern face couldn't help but show a loving smile.

For an Immortal Venerable level to conceive life was already incredibly difficult, not to mention an Immortal Emperor.

She might be the first in the history of Tianyan Immortal Domain to give birth as an Immortal Emperor.

However, remembering the countless times Lu Chen pulled her tail and oppressed her over these decades, the loving smile on her face was once again replaced by sternness.

This child absolutely cannot recognize Lu Chen, that dog-man, as his father.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor decided not to think further, fearing that she might not resist taking action against that dog-man.

She then quieted her mind to stabilize her internal power, just having broken through to Immortal Emperor, her energy within was still a bit restless.

At this moment, Xiyue Immortal Emperor felt the power of reproduction within her, and her willow eyebrows furrowed. She then tried to mobilize that power.

As soon as she executed the power of reproduction, heat surged through her body, instantly entering a fervent state, with her mind filled with images of Lu Chen assaulting her.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor promptly ceased running this power, deeply exhaled, and couldn't help clenching her jade fists; she must never touch this power again.

Capítulo 1986: Chapter 1676: From Now On, This Emperor Rules the Entire Eastern Domain

Lu Chen had just left the valley not long ago when the Elders of the Beast Alliance gathered outside the valley. Fortunately, Lu Chen came out earlier; otherwise, he would have embarrassed himself in front of the Beast Alliance's people.

Earlier, when the pressure from Xiyue Immortal Emperor was released from the valley, the Elders of the Beast Alliance immediately realized that this might be their Alliance Hierarch's breakthrough, so they rushed to the valley to wait.

At this moment, the Immortal Venerates of the Beast Alliance were extremely excited. Now that their Alliance Hierarch has broken through to become an Immortal Emperor, from now on, not just the Eastern Domain, but even the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain could potentially belong to their Beast Alliance.

Their Demon Race could finally rise!

The good days for the Demon Race have arrived!

Half a month later, the voice of Xiyue Immortal Emperor came from within the valley.

"To the Heavenly Fox Hall!"

Hearing the voice of Xiyue Immortal Emperor, the Immortal Venerates did not hesitate and immediately headed for the Heavenly Fox Hall.

Once all the Immortal Venerable Elders of the Beast Alliance had gathered, a space rift appeared in front of the Immortal Throne at the Heavenly Fox Hall. Then, Xiyue Immortal Emperor, dressed in a long white gown, slowly walked out from the space rift.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor then waved her wide sleeves and sat on the Immortal Throne, glancing at the Immortal Venerates present.

The Immortal Venerates immediately saluted and said, “Congratulations to the Alliance Hierarch on the breakthrough. The Alliance Hierarch will surely unify the Immortal Domain!”

Upon hearing this, Xiyue Immortal Emperor said expressionlessly, “Unifying the Immortal Domain? The Demon Emperor won’t just stand by and watch this emperor control the Heavenly Dao.”

“However, the ownership of the Eastern Domain can be confirmed.”

“Send someone to Qingyun Academy immediately. From today onwards, there can only be one voice in the Eastern Domain.”

Hearing this, the Immortal Venerates were very excited. After so many years of fighting with Qingyun Academy, they finally became the only overlord-level influence in the Eastern Domain.

Other realms only have one overlord-level influence, but the Eastern Domain had two, which kept their Demon Race in a suppressed state.

Now that the Eastern Domain is under their Beast Alliance's control, the Beast Alliance can rapidly grow and expand. Although Xiyue Immortal Emperor said that the Immortal Domain wouldn't be unified, occupying half of the world shouldn't be an issue.

Currently, there are only two Immortal Emperors, so one Immortal Emperor controlling half of the Immortal Domain shouldn't be a problem.

At this moment, an Immortal King entered the hall and said, "Alliance Hierarchy, the dean of Qingyun Academy has brought a group of Immortal Venerates!"

Hearing this, the Immortal Venerates present were stunned. Their Alliance Hierarchy had just sent someone to Qingyun Academy, and the dean had already come by himself. Now, there's no need to send anyone to Qingyun Academy.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor said coldly, "Let them in."

Soon, Immortal Venerable Wan Jie led a group of Qingyun Academy's Immortal Venerates into the hall.

Despite the inner dissatisfaction of Qingyun Academy's Immortal Venerates, now that Xiyue Immortal Emperor had become an Immortal Emperor, an Immortal Venerate could do nothing but bow in the presence of an Immortal Emperor.

Immortal Venerable Wan Jie and Qingyun Academy's Immortal Venerates immediately saluted and said, "We pay respects to Xiyue Immortal Emperor! Congratulations on surpassing the great limit and becoming an Immortal Emperor!"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor said expressionlessly, "Your reaction is fast. I was about to send someone to Qingyun Academy, and you came by yourselves."

Hearing this, Immortal Venerable Wan Jie said, "Now that you have become an Immortal Emperor, the Eastern Domain should naturally fall under your control. We, Qingyun Academy, are willing to join the Beast Alliance and become a subsidiary force."

No sooner had Immortal Venerable Wan Jie spoken than a Demon Race Immortal Venerate immediately stood up and said, "Immortal Venerable Wan Jie, you're quite ambitious, thinking of continuing to let Qingyun Academy exist. Who knows if you'll detach from the Beast Alliance one day."

Saying this, the Immortal Venerate turned to Xiyue Immortal Emperor and said, “Alliance Hierarchy, Qingyun Academy must be dissolved. Otherwise, they will surely betray the Beast Alliance one day.”

The overall strength of Qingyun Academy and the Beast Alliance was almost equal. Their surrender was merely due to Xiyue Immortal Emperor’s breakthrough.

The Beast Alliance had only gained one more Immortal Emperor. If Qingyun Academy gave birth to an Immortal Emperor in the future, they would certainly detach from the Beast Alliance, and by then, they would have suffered no losses and would quickly have the capability to contend with the Beast Alliance once more.

Therefore, it would be best to disband Qingyun Academy now. That way, even if Qingyun Academy really had an Immortal Venerate breakthrough to Immortal Emperor, it would be difficult to quickly establish a force equal to the Beast Alliance.

Of course, the most important reason for disbanding Qingyun Academy is to deplete Qingyun Academy’s Qi Fortune.

Without the support of Qingyun Academy’s Qi Fortune, it would be nearly impossible for Qingyun Academy’s Immortal Venerates to breakthrough to Immortal Emperor.

Once Qingyun Academy is disbanded, those Human Race Immortal Venerates will have no chance of rising again.

At this point, more Demon Race Immortal Venerates stepped forward.

“Alliance Hierarchy, this Immortal Venerable Wan Jie harbors malicious intent!”

“Alliance Hierarchy, the Human Race is cunning. They must be planning to endure humiliation!”

“Alliance Hierarchy, you mustn’t fall for their schemes. What if Qingyun Academy produces an Immortal Emperor someday?”

...

Seeing the response of the Demon Race Immortal Venerates in the hall, the Immortal Venerates of Qingyun Academy broke into a cold sweat.

To be honest, they were indeed thinking of enduring humiliation, considering that even the Alliance Hierarchy of the Beast Alliance managed to break through to become an Immortal Emperor.

In the future, if they could break through themselves and Qingyun Academy gave birth to an Immortal Emperor, they could become independent once more.

If Qingyun Academy were disbanded at this time, and the Human Race Immortal Venerates lost Qingyun Academy's Qi Fortune, breaking through to Immortal Emperor would be nearly impossible.

At this moment, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's red gaze coldly swept over the Immortal Venerates of Qingyun Academy.

Feeling Xiyue Immortal Emperor's gaze, the Immortal Venerates of Qingyun Academy broke into a cold sweat on their backs.

Just as Immortal Venerable Wan Jie was about to speak, Xiyue Immortal Emperor interrupted, "There is indeed no reason for Qingyun Academy to exist."

Hearing Xiyue Immortal Emperor's final determination, Immortal Venerable Wan Jie's heart sank; it was over.

Now that Xiyue Immortal Emperor is an Immortal Emperor, they dare not defy her words.

At this moment, the Immortal Venerates of the Beast Alliance were immediately excited. Finally, Qingyun Academy, which had contended with them for countless years, had ceased to exist.

However, before the Beast Alliance's Immortal Venerates could celebrate for long, Xiyue Immortal Emperor spoke again, "From today, the Beast Alliance will be renamed Tianxi Palace, and after Qingyun Academy is disbanded, its members must all join Tianxi Palace."

Hearing this, the Immortal Venerates of the Beast Alliance were dumbfounded.

Renamed?

The original intention of naming it the Beast Alliance was to let everyone know it was a Demon Race force.

Moreover, the structure of the Beast Alliance was not dominated by one entity. Xiyue Immortal Emperor, the Alliance Hierarch, was elected and did not fully control the entire Beast Alliance at first.

Beast Alliance means a Beast Clan Alliance, including non-human Demon Race forces. If it becomes Tianxi Palace, wouldn't they lose their Beast Clan's independence?

When the Human Race joins in, would they be on equal footing with the Demon Race?

Just as some Demon Race Immortal Venerate was about to stand up against this, Xiyue Immortal Emperor instantly released the Emperor's Mighty, causing all Immortal Venerates at the scene to be unable to lift their heads.

The next moment, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's cold voice echoed in the hall, "I am the Immortal Emperor. From now on, I alone shall decide the fate of the entire Eastern Domain!"

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

The purpose behind Xiyue Immortal Emperor's name change is quite simple. The original Beast Alliance was merely an alliance, with her position as the Alliance Hierarch being elected. Although most of the Beast Alliance's Qi Fortune rested upon her, she had no control over the entirety of its Qi Fortune.

Now that she has become an Immortal Emperor, the Qi Fortune of the Beast Alliance should naturally be handed over to her for control, and the alliance should transform into a power under her command.

With the dissolution of Qingyun Academy, and once the immortals of Qingyun Academy have joined Tianxi Palace, the Qi Fortune of Tianxi Palace will undoubtedly rise significantly. She will have control over the entire Qi Fortune of Tianxi Palace, making it difficult for the Immortal Venerates of the Qingyun Academy to break through to become Immortal Emperors.

In this way, she has essentially gained control over the entire Eastern Domain.

Upon hearing Xiyue Immortal Emperor's words, the Demon Race Immortal Venerates present instantly understood her intentions. It was evident that Xiyue Immortal Emperor was preparing to "declare her reign."

Of course, she's not looking to establish an Immortal Dynasty, but rather to create a force of her own. Now that she is an Immortal Emperor, the former Beast Alliance should no longer exist.

As the Demon Race Immortal Venerates realized this, they uniformly bowed to Xiyue Immortal Emperor and said, "We greet Palace Master!!!"

Seeing the Demon Race Immortal Venerates kneeling, the Human Race Immortal Venerates of Qingyun Academy exchanged glances, ultimately deciding to bow to Xiyue Immortal Emperor and say, "We greet Palace Master!!!"

Henceforth, the Eastern Domain no longer has a Beast Alliance and Qingyun Academy.

With the integration of the Beast Alliance and Qingyun Academy, Xiyue Immortal Emperor, sitting on the Immortal Throne, clearly felt a surge of immense Qi Fortune flowing into her body, and the overall Qi Fortune of the Eastern Domain increased significantly.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor felt very satisfied internally. Although with her current strength, she may not be able to compete with the Demon Emperor for control over the Heavenly Dao, as long as she holds the Eastern Domain and leverages the power of the destined person, one day she might become stronger than the Demon Emperor.

Her Cultivation State and strength still have room for growth, while the Demon Emperor is at most at the Immortal Emperor Realm.

However, when she thought about the destined person, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's good mood was instantly gone.

According to her inherited memories, she needs to cultivate affection with the destined person. Only when their bond reaches a certain level, will the destined person be beneficial to her cultivation improvement.

The only way to cultivate affection with that damn man might be to let him sleep with her, and thinking about this made Xiyue Immortal Emperor feel angry inside.

Why does the Heavenly Fox Clan have such a bloodline talent?

If they happen to meet the wrong person, what then?

She is currently indeed in a situation where she met the wrong person. This damn man is constantly fixated on her body, and he is even a lustful person; what affection can he have for her?

Growing more and more infuriated, Xiyue Immortal Emperor raised her jade hand, rubbed her forehead, and then said to the Immortal Venerates in the hall, "Let's conclude for today, Immortal Venerable Wan Jie, once you return, immediately dissolve Qingyun Academy."

Immortal Venerable Wan Jie sighed deeply and said, "Yes, Palace Master."

...

The news of Xiyue Immortal Emperor becoming emperor, Qingyun Academy's dissolution, and the Beast Alliance being renamed Tianxi Palace quickly spread throughout the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

After this news spread, the Immortal Venerates of the Mysterious Moon Palace were the most distressed.

Previously, they thought it was not easy for the Tianyan Immortal Domain to give birth to an Immortal Emperor. Once their ancestor lived a second life, their Mysterious Moon Palace could immediately control the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain.

But now, not only has the Demon Emperor restored his cultivation, but an Immortal Emperor has also been born in the Eastern Domain. If their ancestor doesn't live a second life soon, regardless of the Demon Emperor marching south or Xiyue Immortal Emperor advancing west, the Mysterious Moon Palace could be destroyed.

Mysterious Moon Palace, Yun Meng Hall.

The atmosphere in the hall was gloomy and oppressive. None of the Immortal Venerates present spoke, their eyes focused on the floating text intelligence in the center of the hall.

After a long time, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng finally spoke, "What is your view on this matter?"

An Immortal Venerate asked, "Palace Master, when will the ancestor be able to exit seclusion?"

Upon hearing this question, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng sighed slightly and responded, "I do not know either."

An Immortal Venerate secludes for thousands of years at a time, and their ancestor, being an Immortal Emperor, even a self-sealed Immortal Emperor, could easily remain in seclusion for tens of thousands of years.

However, the current situation in the Tianyan Immortal Domain is complex, and the Central Domain is a tempting piece for other Immortal Emperors; the Mysterious Moon Palace doesn't have much time left.

Either the Demon Emperor or Xiyue Immortal Emperor could annihilate the Mysterious Moon Palace. If their ancestor doesn't exit seclusion soon, destruction may be all that awaits.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng then said, "To prevent invasion of the Central Domain by the Northern and Eastern Domains, I will send people to keep an eye on these two domains, always monitoring their movements."

That's all she can do now. Immortal Venerable Yun Meng only hopes that the invasion of the Central Domain by these two domains will happen later, giving their ancestor some time.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng then said, "That's it for today, Heavenly Language Peak Master, you stay."

Holding meetings doesn't seem to bring out any useful strategies; gathering only amplifies their anxiety.

Quickly, the Immortal Venerates left the hall, and after everyone departed, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable finally asked, "Palace Master, what are your plans next?"

Since Immortal Venerable Yun Meng chose to let her stay, it likely means assigning her a task. Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable thought perhaps she'd be sent to guard the north or east.

But contrary to Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's expectations, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng did not send her to the north or east. Immortal Venerable Yun Meng said, "You will go once more to the Barbaric region."

Upon hearing this, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable was stunned for a moment, "Go to the Barbaric region?"

"Is the Palace Master planning for me to forcibly bring Yudie back?"

"If it's just me alone, I probably can't bring her back."

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng said, "No, this time I am sending you not for Yun Yudie, but for Lu Chen."

This...

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable was even more puzzled inside, for Lu Chen?

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable asked, "Is the Palace Master planning for me to capture Lu Chen and bring him back?"

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng directly said, "Lu Chen currently has a clone in the Eastern Domain, and he seems to have some connection with the Demon Emperor. He surely knows about the movements of Xiyue Immortal Emperor and the Demon Emperor."

"Inform him that if he's willing to leave a clone at the Mysterious Moon Palace, no matter the conditions, our palace will agree."

On one hand, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng wants to know the movements of the Demon Emperor and Xiyue Immortal Emperor through Lu Chen. On the other hand, Lu Chen can depict the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array. If push comes to shove, they might have no choice but to attempt deploying the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array against the Immortal Emperor.

Of course, this is only when there is no other choice.

Even though the Mysterious Moon Palace has an Immortal Emperor and some heritage, facing a fully recovered Immortal Emperor, their odds are slim. Therefore, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng is trying to enhance the Mysterious Moon Palace's power, securing enough time for Immortal Emperor Youlan.

Lu Chen's Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array is a Holy Tier Array, which can have some effect against Immortal Emperors, and if used well, it might yield extraordinary results.

Upon hearing Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's words, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable felt a mixture of emotions inside, not expecting that they would one day have to seek help from Lu Chen.

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable said, "Fine, I will head to the Barbaric region now."

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Barbaric.

The forbidden area of the Great Qin Imperial Palace of the Immortal Dynasty.

Lu Chen sat cross-legged on a meditation cushion, staring at the small bottle in his hand.

The bottle contained some colorful powder; this was the Heavenly Heart Powder awarded by the system.

Lu Chen then picked up the bottle and directly poured all the Heavenly Heart Powder into his mouth.

The next moment, a severe pain spread throughout his body, penetrating deeply into his divine soul, and soon his consciousness became blurred from the pain.

After an unknown amount of time, when Lu Chen regained consciousness, he found that a heart-like existence seemed to have appeared deep within his divine soul.

With each beat of that heart, he could feel a slight increase in his power, and the Qi Fortune on his body also increased slightly.

Lu Chen murmured to himself, "Is this the Heavenly Heart?"

"It can actively enhance my strength!"

Lu Chen was somewhat surprised; the Heavenly Heart not only increased his strength but also enhanced his Qi Fortune. This Heavenly Heart Powder was truly extraordinary.

Moreover, he vaguely felt that he seemed to have established a faint connection with the Heavenly Dao, and his consciousness became even clearer.

In an instant, his consciousness connected with all his bodies. Previously, when his consciousness controlled other bodies, it always led to divided attention, making it impossible for other bodies to perform high-difficulty tasks. For instance, when he was influenced by the Xiyue Immortal Emperor, his focus was entirely on her, leaving the other bodies in a standby state.

Now he discovered that his consciousness could easily control all his bodies, indicating that his divine soul had likely become much stronger.

Then Lu Chen operated the Creation Power to begin creating more bodies, eager to test where his limit lay and to see how many bodies he could simultaneously control.

Soon, ten bodies at the Immortal Monarch Realm appeared in the cultivation room. In just a moment, his consciousness took over these bodies, manipulating them with ease.

Lu Chen then used these clones to create more clones, and in just a moment, the cultivation room became crowded with over a hundred bodies, all at the Immortal Monarch Realm.

Lu Chen once again controlled these Immortal Monarch clones, and this time he clearly felt the strain.

Lu Chen thought to himself, it seems his current limit is a hundred Immortal Monarch clones.

However, as his strength improves, the number of bodies he can control, equal to his main body's realm, will certainly increase.

The thought of being able to simultaneously control a hundred Immortal Venerates and Immortal Emperors once he reaches those levels filled Lu Chen with excitement that lingered for a long time.

At that moment, Lu Chen suddenly sensed the aura of an Immortal Venerate appearing in the Great Qin Immortal Dynasty.

Lu Chen then snapped back to reality and controlled a body to leave the cultivation room directly, heading to where that Immortal Venerate was.

High in the sky, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable watched over the Great Qin Immortal Dynasty below, feeling slightly uncomfortable at having to request something from Lu Chen.

She held no goodwill towards Lu Chen, seeing him only as a lecherous scoundrel.

Soon, Lu Chen's figure appeared before her. Seeing Heaven's Language Immortal Venerable, Lu Chen smiled and asked, "What brings Honored Master to seek out a disciple today?"

At this moment, Lu Chen thought that Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable had come to take Yun Yudie away. However, he seemed only to sense the aura of one Immortal Venerate, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable. Wouldn't a single Immortal Venerate be insufficient to take Yudie away?

While Lu Chen was puzzled, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable spoke up, "Palace Master said you have some connection with the Demon Emperor?"

Upon hearing this question, Lu Chen recalled the lie he had told to Immortal Venerable Yun Meng, claiming that the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture was taught to him by Xuan Qingyun.

Did Immortal Venerable Yun Meng actually believe it?

Lu Chen replied, "Indeed, there's some connection."

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable continued, "The Palace Master wants you to send a clone to the Mysterious Moon Palace and constantly monitor the movements in the Northern and Eastern Domains. If Xiyue Immortal Emperor and the Demon Emperor make any moves, inform us immediately."

Hearing this, Lu Chen was slightly taken aback; so, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable did come to seek him after all.

Upon realizing this, Lu Chen smiled and asked, "Does Mysterious Moon Palace intend for me to act as an undercover agent?"

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable, hearing Lu Chen's words, knew he was planning to negotiate terms, and calmly said, "Don't forget, Xu Jingshu is still in the Mysterious Moon Palace. You are, even now, considered a disciple of the Mysterious Moon Palace."

She didn't believe Lu Chen had no regard for Xu Jingshu whatsoever. Even if Xu Jingshu didn't matter, surely he must care about the child in her womb.

Hearing Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable, Lu Chen chuckled, then said, "Alright, I'll go with you to the Mysterious Moon Palace."

Seeing that Lu Chen hadn't proposed any other conditions, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable smirked inwardly. He indeed cared about Xu Jingshu; with her there, the Mysterious Moon Palace could make Lu Chen obedient in the future.

Originally, they thought their ancestor wouldn't need to use the Saintess as a reincarnation body, rendering Xu Jingshu worthless. However, Xu Jingshu and the child in her womb still held great value now.

Lu Chen's origins were mysterious and not ordinary; as long as the Mysterious Moon Palace held Xu Jingshu, they essentially held sway over Lu Chen.

In fact, through Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's personal profile card, Lu Chen knew he could propose conditions, but he hadn't planned to do so immediately.

Any condition proposed would wait until they reached the Mysterious Moon Palace, where he could present it to Immortal Venerable Yun Meng, as she was ultimately the Palace Master.

A slight smile tugged at Lu Chen's lips; it seemed his time for dual cultivation with Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable wasn't far off.

At this moment, Lu Chen glanced at Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable. With her white hair cascading down to her waist, her light purple pupils as clear as gems, and the hem of her simple white gown embroidered with faint magnolias, the skirt fluttered with the wind.

Suspended in mid-air, her expression carried a distant coolness, her figure poised, accentuating the elegant silhouette of her simple attire, with a belt cinching her waist, exuding a noble and dignified aura.

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's demeanor was very similar to Yun Yudie and Xiyue Immortal Emperor. Upon reaching the Immortal Venerate level, temperaments molded by time emitted a somewhat similar aura.

Though their emitted aura was remarkably similar, Lu Chen found himself attracted to this type. He favored this sort of noble, aloof, and celibate fairy.

As Lu Chen's eyes stared intently at her, filled with raw lust, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable slightly raised her eyebrows.

Being gazed at by Lu Chen's invasive stare made her feel completely uncomfortable.

This scoundrel, could he be thinking about her body?

Conceiving this possibility made Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's heart skip a beat, prompting her to quickly say, "Then let's go."

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable subsequently took out an Immortal Ship, bringing Lu Chen aboard and steering it swiftly towards the Mysterious Moon Palace.

Meanwhile, in the Mysterious Moon Palace.

Yun Yudie stood vigil beside one of Lu Chen's bodies, her expression severe, "Who drained you dry?"

This body of Lu Chen's had shown no signs of activity for quite some time, lying motionless upon her soft couch. If it weren't for sensing the Qi Fortune of the Great Qin Immortal Dynasty continuing to rise, she might have believed something had happened to Lu Chen.

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Lu Chen lay on the soft couch, his eyes sweeping over the cold and exquisitely beautiful jade-like face of Yun Yudie, asking with confusion, "Why are you asking this?"

Hearing Lu Chen's retort, Yun Yudie immediately realized that Lu Chen probably didn't know how long his body had been inactive and reminded him, "This body of yours has been lying here for a few months."

Hearing Yun Yudie's reminder, Lu Chen's mind was momentarily numbed.

After taking the Heavenly Heart Powder, his Divine Soul was in so much pain that his consciousness became blurred, so he couldn't feel the passage of time.

Unexpectedly, several months had already passed.

But speaking of which, to have condensed the Heavenly Heart in these few months, that pain was worth it.

Yun Yudie continued, "Is Xiyue Immortal Emperor's breakthrough related to you?"

What Yun Yudie cared most about now was this matter.

Twenty years ago, Xiyue Immortal Emperor had used all sorts of methods to compete with her for Lu Chen's consciousness, and coincidentally, during this time, Xiyue Immortal Emperor broke through to become an Immortal Emperor, making her have to suspect whether Lu Chen helped Xiyue Immortal Emperor.

If Lu Chen could help Xiyue Immortal Emperor become an Immortal Emperor, then he could also help her break through to become an Immortal Emperor.

Thinking of this, the look in Yun Yudie's eyes towards Lu Chen changed, a hint of fervor appearing in her cold gaze, an expression like she wanted to devour Lu Chen completely.

Seeing Yun Yudie's fervent gaze, Lu Chen suddenly felt like he was being eyed by a predator.

Lu Chen then said, "It is indeed related to me."

At this point, Lu Chen had already guessed what Yun Yudie was thinking, nothing more than imagining that if Xiyue Immortal Emperor could break through to become an Immortal Emperor with his help, then she could as well.

Lu Chen said directly, "She was able to break through to become an Immortal Emperor because she used an alternative method of achieving Emperorhood, and this is somewhat related to her bloodline. She only needed to complete a transformation to break through and become an Immortal Emperor."

"If you also want to break through to become an Immortal Emperor, you will have to find other methods."

Now, the Qi fortune of the Tianyan Immortal Domain is already controlled by Xuan Qingyun, and together with the fact that the Qi fortune of the Tianyan Immortal Domain itself has already weakened, unable to sustain the existence of three Immortal Emperors, ordinary methods of achieving Emperorhood no longer work.

Yun Yudie gazed into Lu Chen's eyes and asked, "The method she used to achieve Emperorhood, I cannot use?"

Lu Chen said, "No, she was able to breakthrough mainly because she borrowed the beast core left behind by a deceased Great Power from Outer Heaven, refining the demonic power within it and completed her transformation. Although I helped her, my role was merely to assist her in refining the beast core."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's response, Yun Yudie's expectations turned into disappointment in an instant. She thought she could also use Xiyue Immortal Emperor's method of achieving Emperorhood.

Seeing the disappointment on Yun Yudie's face, Lu Chen smiled and said, "Everyone's method of achieving Emperorhood is different, maybe one day when you are engaged in Dual Cultivation with me, you will find the method of achieving Emperorhood that suits you."

Upon hearing this comforting remark from Lu Chen, Yun Yudie gave Lu Chen an icy glare.

She had engaged in Dual Cultivation with Lu Chen for so many years, but besides gaining some understanding of the Great Dao, she hadn't found any method of achieving Emperorhood. Could it be that she really needed to comprehend all the Great Dao before she'd find her own path to Emperorhood?

When would that be?

And continuing this way, she didn't know how many more years she would have to engage in Dual Cultivation with this wretched man.

What she feared most now was that one day, if she let her guard down, this guy might take advantage and make her pregnant with his child, and that would be troublesome.

She found it increasingly difficult to control herself during Dual Cultivation with Lu Chen, especially after mastering the Dual Cultivation Skill, Spirit Charm Harmony Scripture.

Ever since she began cultivating the Spirit Charm Harmony Scripture, she could also enjoy the pleasures of the intimacy between men and women, making it easy for her to get lost in it unknowingly.

If one day she succumbed to desire and became careless, with her physique altered by Life Force, she might very easily become pregnant with Lu Chen's child.

Yun Yudie stopped herself from continuing down that train of thought and asked her previous question: "What have you been doing these past months? Why has the Qi fortune of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty increased so much?"

Since the Daqin Immortal Dynasty is now tied to the Mysterious Moon Palace, Yun Yudie could feel it when the Qi fortune of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty increased.

Yun Yudie suspected that maybe Lu Chen's association with Xiyue Immortal Emperor boosted his personal Qi fortune, and as a result, the Qi fortune of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty also rose.

Lu Chen said, "I've been in seclusion cultivating these past days, maybe because my Cultivation State has improved, so the Qi fortune of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty has also risen."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's response, Yun Yudie found it hard to believe, could this perpetually lustful guy actually enter seclusion for cultivation?

Yun Yudie calmly said, "Well, do cultivate well."

Having said this, Yun Yudie prepared to leave the bedchamber.

However, at this moment, the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain suddenly trembled, and in the next moment, thick Immortal Aura emerged from underground in the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

Originally some places with sparse Immortal Aura now had it become extremely dense, such as the Barbaric Lands.

Feeling the Immortal Aura density exponentially increase at the Mysterious Moon Palace, Yun Yudie was slightly stunned, could it be that the Immortal Aura has revived again?

How long has it been since the last Immortal Aura revival, could it be that the prosperity of the Tianyan Immortal Domain is finally approaching?

At this moment, Lu Chen, when feeling the increased concentration of Immortal Aura in the air, fell into deep thought, considering that perhaps another Great Power from Outer Heaven had fallen?

Lu Chen's thought process differed from Yun Yudie's; Yun Yudie didn't know what lay beneath the surface, seeing two instances of Immortal Aura revival in the Tianyan Immortal Domain, she assumed that an era of prosperity was arriving.

Lu Chen, knowing the hidden truths behind Immortal Aura revival, saw these anomalies occurring frequently in the Tianyan Immortal Domain, coupled with the consecutive falls of Great Powers from Outer Heaven, realizing that a true calamity might be looming upon the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

And at this moment, a terrifying aura emanated from deep within the Barbaric Lands.

Feeling this aura, Yun Yudie's brows furrowed, this is...

Yun Yudie immediately released her Divine Sense, attempting to probe the depths of the Barbaric Lands, only for a strong oppressive force to emanate from within the Barbaric Lands the next moment.

This...

This is the oppression of an Immortal Emperor?

Is there an Immortal Emperor in the depths of the Barbaric Lands?

For a moment, Yun Yudie was stupefied, and Lu Chen's expression became extremely serious, as he hadn't heard of an Immortal Emperor residing in the depths of the Barbaric Lands.

Could it be that the sealed individual from Outer Heaven has broken free?

At this very moment, a deep voice echoed over the Barbaric Lands.

"From this day forth, let the Hidden Moon Sect reign supreme over the Barbaric Lands, and any who dare to defy shall perish!"

Hearing these words, Yun Yudie and Lu Chen were once again taken aback.

Hidden Moon Sect?

They had long been searching for traces of the Hidden Moon Sect, but the Hidden Moon Sect hid too deeply, and they could only unearth some legends about it.

Now, the Hidden Moon Sect had voluntarily emerged?

Could it be that the forces of the Northern Domain had occupied too much territory in the Barbaric Lands, forcing the Hidden Moon Sect to reveal itself?

The Hidden Moon Sect had been secretly controlling the Barbaric Lands, and with the forces of the Northern Domain entering, conflict with the Hidden Moon Sect was inevitable.

Coming back to her senses, Yun Yudie said, "I never expected there to be a hidden Immortal Emperor in the Barbaric Lands."

The pressure just now was clearly at the Immortal Emperor Level, implying that the Hidden Moon Sect has an Immortal Emperor.

Upon hearing Yun Yudie's words, Lu Chen said, "It might not be an Immortal Emperor."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's words, Yun Yudie asked perplexed, "A strong presence that can emit such pressure, isn't it an Immortal Emperor?"

Lu Chen replied, "That previous aura was somewhat reminiscent of the aura from extraterrestrial beings."

Lu Chen had refined the residual soul of Fen Xiao, an extraterrestrial being, and had accessed some of Fen Xiao's memories, hence his familiarity with their aura.

The aura contained the power of extraterrestrial beings, so it's likely that it's the pressure from them.

The thought of the other party being extraterrestrial, and possibly seeing them as a foe, made Lu Chen's expression turn exceptionally solemn.

If it truly is an extraterrestrial being that has escaped, then he might be in trouble. He increasingly feels that he's the one who sealed them and created the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

Although he hasn't recovered his memories from his previous life, considering his access to a system and the series of events, he must have connections with the creator of the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

Even Fen Xiao had mentioned his divine soul came from beyond, and the suspected extraterrestrial being, the Blood Ancestor, is searching for him. Coupled with his earthly memories and the fact he's gathered the Heavenly Heart now, he indeed resembles the creator of the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

If he truly is the creator, with his strength yet to be restored, being recognized by those extraterrestrial beings would certainly lead to their revenge.

Currently, Lu Chen harbors a significant doubt if he's truly the creator of the Tianyan Immortal Domain, why would he choose reincarnation?

Those extraterrestrial beings have survived until now; a creator of the Tianyan Immortal Domain should be far stronger, with a longer lifespan, having no need for reincarnation.

Reincarnation holds too many uncertainties; if discovered by enemies, it could lead to a chase and elimination.

Noticing Lu Chen's grave expression and apparent knowledge of the Tianyan Immortal Domain's secrets, Yun Yudie asked, "Extraterrestrial beings? How do you know?"

Lu Chen snapped back to reality, rubbed his brow and realized worrying now serves no purpose; he needs to keep a low profile from here onward to avoid detection by extraterrestrial beings.

If he truly is the creator of the Tianyan Immortal Domain, with more sealed extraterrestrial beings breaking free, his situation will only become increasingly perilous.

Lu Chen then answered, "During my exploration of the Southern Domain's small world, I encountered some information about extraterrestrial beings."

"That presence earlier strongly resembles the aura of those extraterrestrial beings I encountered in that small world."

Yun Yudie fell into contemplation; if it is extraterrestrial beings, how should they confront it?

Should they follow the Hidden Moon Sect's orders, or unite with other forces to resist?

After some thought, Yun Yudie turned her gaze towards Lu Chen, "What's your plan?"

She had little opinion on addressing extraterrestrial beings, unsure of the best approach.

As Mysterious Moon Palace is currently bound by Great Qin Dynasty's fortune, Lu Chen's decisions will affect the palace. Besides, since Lu Chen seemed to possess more knowledge, she decided to follow his lead.

Lu Chen stated, "For now, follow the Hidden Moon Sect; they possess Immortal Emperor-level entities, and we're no match. Let's see what the sect intends to do upon their emergence."

Though extraterrestrial beings loom, they're not bizarre creatures, so no need for excessive fear.

Meanwhile.

Deep in the wilderness, within the small world occupied by the Hidden Moon Sect.

A giant several thousand feet tall stood at the world's center, while an old man dressed in a black robe stood upon its shoulder, overlooking everything within.

The Hidden Moon Sect Leader was brimming with enthusiasm, despite not breaking through to become an Immortal Emperor, by refining this Divine Corpse he attained equal strength.

Currently in the Tianyan Immortal Domain: there's a Demon Emperor in the Northern Domain, Xiyue Immortal Emperor in the Eastern Domain, and chaos in the Southern Domain. The Hidden Moon Sect believes their time for emergence has finally arrived.

His plan is straightforward: first control the wilderness, gradually infiltrate the Southern Domain, control it, then divide the world with the Demon Emperor and Xiyue Immortal Emperor.

As for the Central Domain, he hasn't planned to interfere; since he's not an Immortal Emperor, the area is left for the Demon Emperor and Xiyue Immortal Emperor to contest, perhaps allowing the Hidden Moon Sect to profit from their mutual defeat.

The Hidden Moon Sect Leader then conveyed to the Immortal Venerate members, "Gather at the Hidden Moon Hall for a meeting."

Although he'd earlier transmitted through the Divine Corpse to all in the wilderness, not all forces might choose to surrender to the Hidden Moon Sect, especially those forces migrated from the Northern Domain.

If those forces won't join, the Hidden Moon Sect will resort to force.

Azure Dragon Hall.

Dragon Soaring Immortal Venerable sat on the Immortal Throne, gloomily surveying the Immortal Venerates below; none spoke, casting a heavy atmosphere over the hall.

When Azure Dragon Hall moved to the wilderness, they were aware of the Hidden Moon Sect's existence. To unify the wilderness and become its overlord-level influence, they sought to defeat the hidden sect.

Yet unexpectedly the Hidden Moon Sect surfaced themselves, though Azure Dragon Hall took no joy from it.

The sect possesses Immortal Emperor-level presence; with such great power, Azure Dragon Hall not only fails to dominate the wilderness, but faces potential absorption.

After a long silence, Dragon Soaring Immortal Venerable finally spoke, "Any thoughts are welcome."

At these words, the Immortal Venerates glanced at one another, still mute.

Given the situation, apart from surrendering, Azure Dragon Hall sees no other path. The pressure felt earlier indicates the Hidden Moon Sect certainly possesses Immortal Emperor-level prowess.

Standing against an Immortal Emperor is impossible; it's better to submit sooner.

That's the prevailing thought among the Immortal Venerates.

At this moment, an Immortal Venerate stepped forward, "Hall Master, this might be a beneficial thing for us."

Dragon Soaring Immortal Venerable squinted, "Beneficial?"

The Immortal Venerate explained, "If we ally with the Hidden Moon Sect, with their backing, the Demon Emperor daren't target Azure Dragon Hall."

These words snapped the Immortal Venerates to realization; indeed, the Hidden Moon Sect boasts Immortal Emperor-level might.

By joining them, even if the Demon Emperor wished to seek retribution, he'd have to consider the sect's great power's consent.

Currently, Azure Dragon Hall's Immortals lived in constant fear of the Demon Emperor's sudden vengeance. Embracing the Hidden Moon Sect offers relief from this anxiety.

Of course, every gain bears a cost; doing so means losing autonomy, with future decisions dictated by the sect.

Yet survival outweighs Demon Emperor's vengeance, the cost isn't significant.

Dragon Soaring Immortal Venerable contemplated in silence, as a leader of an overlord-level force, unwilling to become a subordinate.

Previously, he commanded others; now, he'd serve someone else. A difficult adjustment.

However, preserving Azure Dragon Hall takes precedence now; joining the Hidden Moon Sect is undoubtedly wise.

The Immortal Venerate who spoke initially fell silent, returning to waiting, when Dragon Soaring Immortal Venerable sighed deeply.

The situation surpasses personal desires; reluctance bears no weight.

First preserve Azure Dragon Hall.

With this resolution, Dragon Soaring Immortal Venerable declared, "Spread the word, we'll pledge allegiance to the Hidden Moon Sect, becoming their subordinate force."
