Upon hearing the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate's words, there wasn't a trace of fear on the face of the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate.

If an ordinary Immortal encountered an Evil Immortal, they might become very frightened, because the Immortal Law cultivated by Evil Immortals can restrain the Immortal Law of Righteous Immortals. Thus, at the same Realm, without other means, the Righteous Immortal is often no match for the Evil Immortal.

But times have changed.

In the past, to besiege the Demon Emperor, various forces learned the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture that was disseminated by Lu Chen, which has a terrifying suppression over evil forces.

Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate naturally learned the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture as well, and he could vaguely feel his immortal power suppressing the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate, so he was not worried in the slightest.

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerate, seeing the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate remain unmoved, took the initiative to attack, "Blood Demon Claw!!!"

The thick blood aura in the air gathered together, forming a giant blood-red claw, which immediately struck towards the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate.

Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate snorted coldly, without any hesitation, he immediately used the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture.

In the next moment, countless red lamps appeared in the sky above the marsh, the light from these lamps constantly dispelling the blood aura in the air.

The instant the red lamps appeared, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate obviously felt his evil qi being suppressed, and the flow of immortal power within his body became extremely sluggish.

Blood Demon Immortal Venerate immediately recalled when they attacked the Mysterious Moon Palace, the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture used by Lu Chen.

After coming back to his senses, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate laughed out loud, "So you have a connection to him! Good! Very good!"

"I will surely peel off your skin, extract your bones, and devour your Divine Soul!!!"

The self-destruction of Lu Chen had left a significant shadow on him, he dreamed of seeking revenge on Lu Chen, but unfortunately, he did not know the location of Lu Chen's Main Body, and he felt Lu Chen's Identity was extraordinary, likely making it impossible to personally exact revenge.

Although he might not be able to kill Lu Chen personally, dealing with someone related to Lu Chen would at least be satisfying.

Upon hearing the first words from the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate, the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate found it rather inexplicable, "Connected with him?", who was the "him" mentioned by the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate?

Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate hadn't had time to think deeply, when the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate's second sentence directly enraged him, "To peel off his skin, extract his bones, and refine his Divine Soul?"

Such audacity for a mere Evil Immortal!

If he hadn't cultivated the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture, he might have worried about not being a match for this Evil Immortal, but now, not to mention an Evil Immortal, even a Heavenly Demon of Immortal Venerable Level he could suppress.

Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate then activated those lamps in the sky, the red glow emitted from the lamps directly crushed towards the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate.

Blood Demon Immortal Venerate stared calmly at the approaching lamps, and in the next moment, he mobilized all of his blood aura, coldly snorting, "Thousands of Demon Shadows!!!"

As his words fell, countless figures of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate suddenly appeared in the sky, each one radiating the same pressure as the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate.

Feeling that these Clones emitted an aura identical to the Main Body of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate, the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate couldn't help but be a little distracted.

Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate quickly calmed his emotions, these were just some illusory Clones, not worthy of fear, and after the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture was enacted, the surrounding area had already been sealed by the anomaly of the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture, those Clones would also be suppressed by the red light emitted by the lamps.

At this moment, when the light emitted by the lamps in the sky touched the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate's Clones, sure enough, it began to erode the evil qi contained in those Clones.

However, the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture used by the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate only had suppressive effects, and couldn't absorb the evil qi in the air, when the evil qi was plenty, the suppression effect of the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture seemed somewhat powerless.

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerate then realized that the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture used by the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate was entirely different from the one used by Lu Chen; when they attacked the Mysterious Moon Palace, the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture used by Lu Chen was able to absorb evil qi.

For the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate, the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture able to absorb evil qi was evidently more threatening, especially since Lu Chen could convert the evil qi into his own power, which was nearly indistinguishable from being an Evil Immortal.

Discovering that the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture used by the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate was just a fragmentary technique, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate decided not to waste time any longer.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh...

The myriad demon bodies of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate charged towards the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate, the evil qi from these demon bodies began to vaporize and emit white smoke upon contact with the light from the lamps, but the demon bodies of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate were completely fearless, enduring the anomaly of the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture.

Seeing the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate daring to rush towards him under the anomaly of the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture, the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate realized the limitation of the suppression of the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture against the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate.

Without any hesitation, the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate directly summoned the Law Manifestation, in an instant, a Golden Roc Dharma Aspect thousands of meters high appeared behind the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate.

Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate controlled the Law Manifestation, continuously flapping its wings, countless blades of light slashed towards the demon bodies of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate.

The blades mixed with purifying power touched the demon bodies of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate, and with just one strike, a demon body was obliterated.

Subsequently, countless demon bodies perished in the air, evil qi instantly enshrouded an area of hundreds of kilometers.

Seeing the demon bodies of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate being so easily obliterated by him, the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate once again relaxed his guard.

He initially thought these demon bodies could withstand the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture, possessing something special, but it appears that's not the case.

Just as the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate dismissed the demon bodies of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate as irrelevant, a voice from the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate suddenly echoed in the space shrouded by black evil qi.

"Netherworld Divine Thunder!!!"

In an instant, black lightning surged through the area covered by evil qi, numerous black electric dragons roared through the air.

Feeling the pressure emitted by those electric dragons, the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's complexion changed slightly, he quickly dodged, yet the speed of those electric dragons was extremely fast, before he could react, an electric dragon directly collided with him, the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate immediately coughed up a mouthful of blood.

The Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's pupils contracted, the Netherworld Divine Thunder of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate not only severely injured his Physical Body but also inflicted damage to his Divine Soul.

No, he couldn't continue to confront him head-on, even though the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture could suppress the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate, its suppression wasn't very effective, he needed to leave immediately.

The Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate activated the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture once more, with the red light from the lamps in the sky shining brightly, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate once again felt his immortal power within restrained, though this was only a momentary effect.

The Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate seized this moment, promptly retracting the Law Manifestation, without any hesitation, he fled towards the distant horizon.

Typically, battles between Immortals take a long time to determine the victor, although the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate wasn't in the dominant position, he could undoubtedly battle the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate for hundreds of rounds.

However, in the current era where the Tribulation of the Great Dao is descending, the greatest caution is being injured, not only because it is difficult to recover but also because it tends to hasten one's demise.

The Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate remained in the Southern Domain merely to search for the inheritance left by Great Powers from Outer Heaven, he certainly didn't intend to perish here.

Yet, just as the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate was about to escape, the surrounding space sealed instantly, a terrifying aura released from the vortex below.

In an instant, the entire sky turned dark red, the anomaly of the Divine Light Thousand Lamp Scripture instantaneously dissipated, and all the lamps transformed into wisps of smoke.

Feeling the terrifying aura emanating from the vortex on the ground, Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's face suddenly changed, clearly realizing that this aura was not that of an Immortal Venerate.

In an instant, Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate felt like his body was trapped in place, unable to move.

This feeling, he had only experienced in front of Immortal Emperor Youlan.

Immor... Immortal Emperor...

Could it be that there's actually an Immortal Emperor behind this Evil Immortal???

How is that possible!!!

The Evil Immortal in the Tianyan Immortal Domain has always been like a rat crossing the street, shouted at by everyone. How could there be an Immortal Emperor behind the Evil Immortal?

Has he just become an Immortal Emperor?

Why has he never heard of an Evil Immortal becoming an Emperor?

Generally, when Immortal Venerates breakthrough to become Immortal Emperors, there is a big commotion. Whether it's the Demon Emperor restoring his Immortal Emperor Cultivation or Xiyue Immortal Emperor breaking through to become an Emperor, the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain immediately senses it.

In the recent billions of years, aside from the Demon Emperor and Xiyue Immortal Emperor, there seems to be no third person who has become an Immortal Emperor, right?

Could it be that the other person is like Immortal Emperor Youlan, a Self-sealed Emperor?

If so, that could explain it.

However, now is not the time to worry about these things. He must escape from here immediately. Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate mobilized all his immortal power, attempting to directly tear the space and escape.

But to Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's surprise, at this moment, the immortal power in his body seemed to have solidified, unable to mobilize at all.

The next moment, a voice sounded in his mind, "Since you're here, you might as well become my blood feast!"

As the voice fell, Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate noticed that the place he was in suddenly darkened. He tried hard to look up, only to find a gigantic blood hand descending from the sky.

Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's face immediately showed an expression of terror. He quickly pleaded, "Forgiv..."

However, before Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate could finish speaking, the pair of enormous blood hands descended directly, smacking Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate onto the ground, and the surrounding mountains were all flattened by the rolling airwaves. Dust rose tens of thousands of feet, like an asteroid crashing into the earth.

Seeing the scene before him, Blood Demon Immortal Venerable couldn't help but swallow. He knew Blood Ancestor's strength was formidable, but seeing Blood Ancestor's first strike was still shocking to him.

In fact, this strike by Blood Ancestor looked similar to any Immortal Venerate's strike. Even a somewhat skilled Immortal Venerate could cause such destruction.

But the power contained in Blood Ancestor's strike was definitely stronger than any Immortal Venerate's full-force strike. The reason the destruction was comparable to an Immortal Venerate's was that all his power was concentrated and struck into Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's body.

Upon contact with Blood Ancestor's strike, Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's body was directly shattered.

As the dust settled, a golden divine soul appeared in the crater. Without hesitation, Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate instantly transformed into a golden light and fled into the distance.

Blood Ancestor certainly wouldn't let Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate escape. The next moment, a massive blood-red vortex appeared in the sky, and Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's divine soul was immediately caught by a terrifying suction force.

Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate quickly shouted, "Senior, spare me!!!"

Blood Ancestor paid no heed to Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's pleas. The blood-red vortex in the sky suddenly expanded, the suction force increased dramatically, and Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's divine soul could no longer hold on and was directly sucked into the blood-red vortex.

Soon, the blood-red vortex disappeared, and the sky returned to calm.

Blood Demon Immortal Venerable came to his senses and hurried back to the Small World inside Blood Eagle Hall.

Inside the Small World of Blood Eagle Hall, Blood Ancestor had already opened his eyes, and in this world, his eyes were like twin suns.

Blood Demon Immortal Venerable saluted Blood Ancestor and said, "Greetings, Blood Ancestor, welcome out of seclusion!"

The elders and disciples of Blood Eagle Hall were already prostrated on the ground, not daring to move. The pressure from Blood Ancestor was so terrifying that some weaker disciples were directly knocked unconscious.

Blood Ancestor glanced at the entire Small World of Blood Eagle Hall, then his gaze fell on Blood Demon Immortal Venerable.

He had just refined Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's divine soul and learned some things about Lu Chen, as well as some secrets about Mysterious Moon Palace.

The next moment, a voice as heavy as a tolling bell resounded in the sky, "Blood Demon, why has the task I gave you not been completed!"

Blood Demon Immortal Venerable was so frightened that he quickly prostrated himself on the ground and said, "Ancestor, I have already done my best. The main problem is that Lu Chen has too many clones, making it difficult to discern which is his main body, and his main body is likely in hiding."

Upon hearing Blood Demon Immortal Venerable's words, Blood Ancestor snorted coldly and said, "Useless!"

As he spoke, a mass of "divine blood" emerged from Blood Ancestor's forehead. This divine blood soon took on the appearance of Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate, exuding the aura of an Immortal Venerate.

Feeling the sudden appearance of an Immortal Venerate's aura in the Small World, Blood Demon Immortal Venerable couldn't help but slightly lift his head and found Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's body appearing in the sky, leaving Blood Demon Immortal Venerable stunned.

At this moment, "Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate" opened his mouth and said, "This is my clone. I will now head to Mysterious Moon Palace. When my clone returns, I expect Blood Eagle Hall to have control over the Southern Domain."

Upon hearing this, Blood Demon Immortal Venerable quickly replied, "I will obey Blood Ancestor's command."

Blood Ancestor exchanged no further words with Blood Demon Immortal Venerable. He closed his eyes again, and then controlled the "Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate" clone to leave Blood Eagle Hall.

After refining Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's divine soul, Blood Ancestor discovered that not only were Lu Chen's clones in Mysterious Moon Palace, but there was also a bigger secret within—there was a Self-sealed Emperor in the forbidden area of Mysterious Moon Palace.

If that Emperor's strength was already diminished, he might be able to devour the Emperor's origin, thereby restoring himself.

Mysterious Moon Palace, Heavenly Language Peak.

In front of Lu Chen, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable had completely let go, partly because the increase in her strength was irresistible, and partly because her previously suppressed desires had been fully unleashed.

Although she was still conscious and aware of what she was doing, she couldn't restrain her thirst for power.

Even though she felt humiliated, she still chose to cooperate with Lu Chen in cultivation.

At this moment, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's violet eyes were fixed on Lu Chen, with a spring of tears welling up in them, and a trace of unwillingness on her face.

Seeing the once-proud and aloof fairy in such a state, Lu Chen also found himself unable to control himself. Although Yun Yudie and Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable had some similarities in temperament, one had to admit that Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable had a unique charm of her own.

Lu Chen exhaled and with a smile, asked, "Now do you understand why Yudie agreed to be my partner?"

Upon hearing Lu Chen's question, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable immediately felt that Lu Chen was mocking her.

But even if it was a mockery, she could only endure it now.

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable coldly said, "Now... um... can you tell... the method of becoming an Emperor... to me?"

Lu Chen said, "The method to becoming an Emperor is very simple: engage in dual cultivation with me and comprehend all the great Daos. When you understand all the Daos, you will surely find your method of becoming an Emperor among them."

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable was momentarily stunned by Lu Chen's words.

Although dual cultivation with Lu Chen could allow her to perceive the Dao Lu Chen practiced, Lu Chen himself hadn't practiced that many Daos. How could dual cultivation allow her to perceive all Daos?

Wait...

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable vaguely sensed something amiss. She had long noticed that Lu Chen's cultivation involved more than one path.

From what Lu Chen was saying, had he comprehended all cultivation paths?

After regaining her composure, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable stared into Lu Chen's eyes and asked, "Have you comprehended all cultivation paths?"

Generally, an Immortal Emperor reaches the pinnacle of a single cultivation path before becoming an Immortal Emperor. Even then, they're at most able to comprehend a few cultivation paths.

If Lu Chen had truly comprehended all cultivation paths, his true power might be even more terrifying than that of an Immortal Emperor.

Lu Chen's lips curled slightly, but he did not respond. The next moment, the room was filled with various Dao Charm.

Seeing the multicolored Dao Charm within the room, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable was entirely stunned.

After a long while, she finally reacted, looking at Lu Chen with suspicion. "Who exactly are you?"

She was now seriously doubting whether Lu Chen was truly from the Tianyan Immortal Domain. She had never heard of any Immortal Emperor from Tianyan Immortal Domain mastering all cultivation paths.

At this moment, Lu Chen leaned down, his chest pressing against the soft body of the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable, and whispered gently in her ear, "I am your man."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's words, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable said speechlessly, "If you don't want to say, forget it."

With their bodies closely pressed together, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable suddenly experienced a strange sensation—a feeling she had never felt before. She suddenly felt reassured, and instinctively, her jade-like hand wanted to reach up and embrace Lu Chen's strong waist.

However, she controlled her inner impulse, and once again Lu Chen's voice echoed in her ear, "Darling, will you give me a child?"

The low voice of Lu Chen entered her ears, causing her delicate body to tremble slightly, her entire body tensing, and her body's temperature rising sharply.

Give this bastard a child?

He wishes!

Once she recovered, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable immediately said, "Wishful thinking!"

Lu Chen kept his deep voice, saying, "It's not up to you. Even the Xiyue Immortal Emperor initially refused to have my child, but isn't she now carrying my offspring?"

Hearing Lu Chen's words, her mind slightly froze. Was the Xiyue Immortal Emperor pregnant with Lu Chen's child?

Impossible! Absolutely impossible!

The Xiyue Immortal Emperor was already an Immortal Emperor; even though she was an Immortal Venerate before, it was already challenging for an Immortal Venerate to get pregnant. Furthermore, why would the Xiyue Immortal Emperor agree to this bastard?

Could it be that Lu Chen used a Beast Core from the Great Power of the Outer Heaven Demon Race as a trade?

Even then, the Xiyue Immortal Emperor was already an Immortal Emperor and had no need to abide by her agreement with Lu Chen. Even if pregnant, she could easily eliminate it.

For an Immortal Emperor wanting to erase life within their body, it would be nothing more than a thought.

Could this bastard be bluffing her? The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable felt that Lu Chen was deceiving her, for she could not believe that the Xiyue Immortal Emperor would bear Lu Chen's child.

With a cold voice, she said, "What you said to me has no meaning. I will never procreate for you."

While thinking, she knew although she had begun to indulge somewhat in matters of romance, she remained clear-headed. As long as she paid a bit of attention, she couldn't possibly conceive Lu Chen's child.

Moreover, for an Immortal Venerate to conceive a child is not easy, even if conceived, it can be eliminated.

Upon hearing the words of the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable, Lu Chen's urge for conquest surged once more. The more his woman didn't want to bear his offspring, the more he desired to see her pregnant.

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable clearly felt Lu Chen growing excited, her eyebrows slightly furrowed, and inexplicably, a sense of foreboding arose within her.

If what Lu Chen said was true, and he actually had the Xiyue Immortal Emperor pregnant with his child, then Lu Chen might indeed someday cause her to conceive as well.

Could it be that Lu Chen possessed some technique to ensure an Immortal Venerate's pregnancy?

If that truly were the case, she needed to be even more cautious and constantly wary of this bastard.

As time passed day by day, after Lu Chen and the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable began dual cultivation, the two continued in dual cultivation.

The Immortal Venerable Yun Meng was sometimes curious about the situation between the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable and Lu Chen, occasionally using Divine Thought to probe the Heavenly Language Peak, only to discover the two were continually engaging in dual cultivation.

Within Tianyan Immortal Domain, though dual cultivation can boost one's cultivation state, its effects are limited, and no one indulges solely in dual cultivation continuously.

Observing the constant dual cultivation between the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable and Lu Chen, this increasingly led the Immortal Venerable Yun Meng to suspect whether these two were truly dual cultivating or perhaps overly engrossed in romantic pursuits.

The Immortal Venerable Yun Meng recalled how, long ago, when Lu Chen sought out Xu Jingshu, they engaged in dual cultivation upon meeting, spiraling into an uncontrollable state, ultimately forcing her to eject Lu Chen from Xu Jingshu's Small World.

In the blink of an eye, a year had passed.

A year's time is not long for an Immortal. Some immortals may meditate for decades in mere moments during cultivation.

Yet, a year spent in meditation poses no issue, but a year spent in dual cultivation seems odd no matter how seen.

Within Yun Meng Hall, the Immortal Venerable Yun Meng used Divine Thought to witness occurrences on Heavenly Language Peak.

Watching the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable appearing wholly engrossed, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng wondered whether Lu Chen employed some technique against her.

She had allowed the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable to become Lu Chen's couple as a condition proposed by Lu Chen while hoping that the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable could allure Lu Chen, making him fall for her, willingly serving the Mysterious Moon Palace.

But now, whether Lu Chen genuinely harbored love for her remained unknown. Yet, if the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable continued, she might genuinely become completely tamed by Lu Chen.

The Immortal Venerable Yun Meng ceased her observation and directly transmitted to the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable, "Junior sister, a year is enough."

Upon hearing Yun Meng's transmission, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's mind shook and abruptly cleared, her dazed gaze immediately turning lucid.

Fully aware that their affairs would be sensed by Immortal Venerable Yun Meng, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable knew she, being the Palace Master, had her Qi Fortune bound with that of the Mysterious Moon Palace, keeping every occurring detail in her grasp.

Yet, hearing Yun Meng's reminder made the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable feel a depth of shame thinking over the past year's varied insults, sinking into indulgence, fully watched by Yun Meng.

At this point, she attempted channeling Life Force, her insight into Life Dao was deep due to extensive cultivation.

Once she prompted Life Force, she sensed strangeness—the faint awareness of reproduction-related rules mingling amid the Heavenly Dao restrictions within Life Dao.

Capítulo 2004: Chapter 1694: I've Noticed You All Really Like Saying That

The higher an Immortal's cultivation state, the harder it is to reproduce offspring—this is the restriction of the Heavenly Dao.

However, after cultivating the Life Dao and mastering the Life Force, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable discovered that a sliver of the Heavenly Dao's rules was concealed within the Life Dao, and as long as one embarked on the Life Dao, this rule could be ignored.

She could clearly feel that her body underwent major changes under the nourishment of the Life Force, and now her body was no longer restricted by the rules.

This means that in the future, if she wants to have offspring, it will become very easy.

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable was stunned. No wonder Lu Chen said that even the Xiyue Immortal Emperor was pregnant with his child.

If the Xiyue Immortal Emperor also engaged in dual cultivation with Lu Chen and, with Lu Chen's help, comprehended the Life Dao and mastered the Life Force, her body would also no longer be restricted by the Heavenly Dao's rules, making it easier for her to conceive Lu Chen's child than mortals bearing offspring.

Thinking about it this way, if she wasn't careful, wouldn't it mean she could get pregnant with this bastard's child at any time?

At this thought, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's body trembled slightly involuntarily.

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable then turned her head, her purple eyes glaring straight at Lu Chen behind her.

It was really too dangerous; if it weren't for the Immortal Venerable Yun Meng suddenly transmitting her voice to her, allowing her to regain her clarity, she would have continued to indulge herself, and something would have gone wrong eventually.

Seeing the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable suddenly turn her head and glare at him, Lu Chen leaned down, his chest pressing against her smooth, white jade-like back, and whispered in her ear, "Lady, what's wrong?"

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable couldn't help clenching her jade fist and then said coldly, "No wonder you helped me comprehend the Life Dao. Did you really think I didn't know your little schemes?"

Hearing this, Lu Chen chuckled lightly. The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable and Yun Yudie, this pair of master and disciple, not only shared the same aura but even their reactions were quite similar.

Back then, Yun Yudie also suggested the purpose of the Life Dao after realizing its effect.

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable continued, "I advise you to give up."

Lu Chen said, "I find you all like to say this line."

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable said this, which Lu Chen had heard many people say before.

At this point, Lu Chen hugged the waist of the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable tightly and whispered in her ear, "The last person who said this to me already has my child. Lady Tianyu, do you think you can resist for long."

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's brows furrowed tightly immediately. She realized that if she continued dual cultivating with Lu Chen, she would inevitably become addicted to the power elevation and thus overlook that matter.

Perhaps one day, she would be caught off guard.

No, she couldn't engage in dual cultivation with Lu Chen anymore!

This bastard is really too frightening!

However, just as the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable thought this way, Lu Chen seemed to have seen through her thoughts and reminded, "If you want to become an Emperor, dual cultivation with me is your only choice."

"Besides integrating myriad Daos this path, it's really hard to find another way to become an Emperor, and even if you don't wish to become an Emperor, you want to enhance your power, right?"

"The disasters in the Tianyan Immortal Domain are becoming more frequent, and in the future, there might be even greater disasters. Whether it's for self-preservation or for the Mysterious Moon Palace, you need to elevate your power."

“Before breaking through to become an Immortal Emperor, apart from relying on external means to enhance power, dual cultivating with me is your best choice.”

After listening to Lu Chen’s words, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable fell into silence, and the fierceness in her eyes gradually faded away.

Even though dual cultivation with Lu Chen carried the risk of pregnancy, for the sake of power enhancement, this bit of risk was worth it.

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable comforted herself mentally; she didn’t need to think much about it, just regard Lu Chen as a tool to enhance her cultivation state or as a male pet.

As long as she didn’t conceive Lu Chen’s child, she wouldn’t consider it a loss, and as for being intimate with Lu Chen, she also enjoyed it herself.

The Mysterious Moon Palace has quite a few powerful fairies who have male pets, but she has reached the Immortal Venerate Realm and hasn’t had any man.

Previously, she was worried that male charm would affect her cultivation, but Lu Chen didn’t hinder her cultivation; on the contrary, he could help her enhance her power.

The key is that this guy is quite formidable; let alone her, if Immortal Venerable Yun Meng knew about Lu Chen's special traits, she might be willing to dual cultivate with Lu Chen as well.

She believed that once having experienced dual cultivation with Lu Chen, no fairy could resist Lu Chen's temptation.

Seeing the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable not speaking, Lu Chen proceeded to take action once more, and the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable instantly came back to her senses, glaring fiercely at Lu Chen, then turned away, no longer looking at him.

Then she transmitted her thoughts to Immortal Venerable Yun Meng, "Palace Master, Lu Chen won't let me go."

Upon hearing the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's transmission, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng was somewhat speechless. What did it mean that Lu Chen wouldn't let her go? Lu Chen's clone was only at the Immortal Monarch Realm, and the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable, an Immortal Venerate; if she wanted to forcefully stop Lu Chen's misconduct, it'd be really easy.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng felt that the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable had already started to indulge in romance.

Honestly, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng didn't oppose romance; there were countless fairies and fairies with male and female pets in the Mysterious Moon Palace. However, she was against indulging in romance to the detriment of cultivation.

Of course, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable had reached the Immortal Venerate Realm, and even if she didn't indulge in romance, it would be very difficult for her cultivation state to advance.

Despite this, she still didn't want to see the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable obsessed with such things, especially not with Lu Chen.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng was now genuinely worried that when the time came, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable wouldn't have captured Lu Chen's heart, but instead, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable might fall in love with Lu Chen.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng promptly reminded, "Don't forget, you cultivate the Unfeeling Tao."

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable transmitted her thoughts, "I...uh huh... got it."

Hearing the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's hesitantly transmitted thoughts, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's expression slightly darkened; evidently, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable had really become engrossed in it.

However, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable was different from Xu Jingshu; back when Lu Chen engaged in dual cultivation with Xu Jingshu, she could forcefully make Lu Chen leave.

The Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable and Lu Chen's dual cultivation couldn't be forcefully interrupted. After all, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable was still a Peak Master of the Mysterious Moon Palace, and if it was spread around that a Palace Master forcibly separated others during dual cultivation, people wouldn't know what to think.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng thought to herself, she had already reminded the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable; no matter what, as an Immortal Venerate, the Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable should exercise some discretion.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng then turned her attention away from the Heavenly Language Peak, and at that moment, she suddenly sensed a drastic drop in the Qi Fortune of the Mysterious Moon Palace.

Immediately afterward, her mind was in a daze, her heart throbbed intensely, feeling very uncomfortable, as if some great terror had invaded the Mysterious Moon Palace.

After regaining her composure, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng quickly released her divine thought to probe the entire Mysterious Moon Palace, wanting to see what the problem was.

The sudden drastic drop in Qi Fortune, coupled with her sudden sense of crisis, indicated that it was likely that a formidable enemy had infiltrated the Mysterious Moon Palace.

Capítulo 2005: Chapter 1695: Begging the Chen King to Save the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty!

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng used her Divine Thought to investigate the entire Mysterious Moon Palace, wanting to know exactly who had entered the palace.

However, her Divine Thought searched back and forth in the Mysterious Moon Palace but failed to find any unusual person.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng couldn't help but wonder if her spying on Lu Chen and Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's affairs had aroused Lu Chen's displeasure, causing resentment towards the Mysterious Moon Palace and thus leading to a decline in its Qi Fortune.

Lu Chen is destined to stand at the pinnacle of the Tianyan Immortal Domain in the future, and his thoughts could indeed impact the Qi Fortune of the Mysterious Moon Palace.

However, she merely sent a message to Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable and didn't forcibly separate them.

Lu Chen shouldn't hold a grudge against the Mysterious Moon Palace just because she used Divine Thought to spy on their affairs.

Last time, when she forcibly separated Lu Chen and Xu Jingshu, Lu Chen didn't hold a grudge against the Mysterious Moon Palace.

More importantly, she suddenly felt a strong sense of crisis earlier, and this crisis didn't persist; if it were Lu Chen himself causing the decline in Qi Fortune of the Mysterious Moon Palace, the crisis should still be present while Lu Chen is around.

She felt the crisis only for a moment, which is more likely due to a powerful presence suddenly descending upon the Mysterious Moon Palace, actively shielding the Heavenly Mechanism to avoid being detected by her.

The sudden decline in the Qi Fortune of the Mysterious Moon Palace is significant, and if the root of the problem isn't found quickly, the Mysterious Moon Palace might face a great calamity.

This matter must be reported to their ancestors.

However, their ancestor is currently in seclusion, and trying to contact her now might not awaken her, and what if she's at a critical stage in her cultivation and gets disturbed?

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng thought for a long time without coming up with a good solution. In the end, she decided to secretly investigate first and see if she could find the culprit behind the decline in Qi Fortune of the Mysterious Moon Palace.

...

The Blood Ancestor arrived at Sky Eagle Peak following Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's memory.

As soon as he arrived at the Mysterious Moon Palace, his Divine Soul couldn't help but tremble, as if there were some great terror in the palace.

This made the Blood Ancestor feel very uneasy, being from the Outer Heaven. The only things that could terrify him were Lu Chen or a mysterious Great Power.

The Blood Ancestor sat on the Immortal Throne and couldn't help but speculate that perhaps the Mysterious Moon Palace housed a mysterious Great Power.

If that were the case, he should avoid provoking the Mysterious Moon Palace.

No, that can't be right...

If there really were a mysterious Great Power, then when he, as an outsider, entered the Mysterious Moon Palace, they would've detected his presence and made a move against him.

To a mysterious Great Power, a being from the Spirit Realm like him would be highly nourishing. In a place like the Tianyan Immortal Domain, native beings from the Spirit Realm are already very rare, and a mysterious Great Power wouldn't be able to suppress the desire to consume.

If it isn't a mysterious Great Power, then it means that what subconsciously terrified him was Lu Chen!

At the thought of Lu Chen, the Blood Ancestor's hand couldn't help but clench tightly.

He worked hard to suppress his inner emotions. According to Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's memory, Lu Chen originally had a clone in the Mysterious Moon Palace.

Even though that clone had left the palace, it was still possible that another clone of Lu Chen had returned to the palace.

Perhaps his Divine Soul trembled because he subconsciously sensed Lu Chen's presence?

It seems he needs to be cautious and not reveal his identity until he's found Lu Chen's main body.

He was still unsure about how much of his power Lu Chen's main body had recovered. If he exposed himself prematurely, it could well disturb the snake by stirring the grass.

His most important task now was to ascertain the state of Immortal Emperor Youlan. If she was in poor condition, he could directly strike and devour her, rapidly restoring his strength. By then, even if Lu Chen's main body had regained some strength, he wouldn't be his match.

However, Immortal Emperor Youlan was in the forbidden area deep within the Mysterious Moon Palace, which only Palace Master Immortal Venerable Yun Meng could enter, making it difficult for him to gain access.

Forcing his way in wasn't feasible either, as the Mysterious Moon Palace was filled with numerous formations, and there were many Immortal Venerates within. His current clone's power wasn't enough to confront so many Immortal Venerates. He needed to devise a strategy.

Southern Domain, White Rainbow Immortal City.

Lu Mansion.

To prevent bizarre entities from breaking through the sealing of Sunset Mountain Range, Lu Chen had left a clone here, which remained in seclusion most of the time.

Only when the Immortal Venerates monitoring Sunset Mountain Range sensed a weakening in the sealing would Lu Chen leave the Lu Mansion.

In the evening, the afterglow of the setting sun spilled into the tranquil courtyard, and the dim courtyard was utterly silent.

However, at that moment, an Immortal Ship in the sky suddenly hurtled towards the Lu Mansion at high speed.

As the Immortal Ship drew closer and closer to the Lu Mansion, a beam of white light flew in from the horizon, and in the next moment, a figure intercepted the Immortal Ship, “Who goes there!”

The newcomer was the City Lord of White Rainbow Immortal City. He understood Lu Chen’s importance, so when strangers wanted to meet Lu Chen, they usually had to go through him first.

Seeing someone blocking their path, those on the Immortal Ship quickly disembarked and put away the ship. An old man with white hair approached the White Rainbow Immortal King and said, “We are from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, and we’re here for Prince Chen.”

Hearing this, the White Rainbow Immortal King glanced at the people present, then said, “Wait here for a moment.”

With that, the White Rainbow Immortal King flew to the entrance of the Lu Mansion and respectfully announced, “Lu, someone from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty has come to visit. Do you wish to see them?”

The White Rainbow Immortal King knew Lu Chen was once a prince of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty and, since people from the dynasty had come, it wasn't proper for him to turn them away. It was up to Lu Chen.

Inside the cultivation chamber of Lu Mansion, Lu Chen opened his eyes. Hearing that people from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty were looking for him left him quite perplexed. What did they want from him?

Since leaving the Southern Domain, he had severed all ties with the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

Furthermore, given his current special identity, if the people from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty had any sense, they wouldn't dare to seek him out.

Out of curiosity, Lu Chen left the cultivation chamber. Once he stepped outside, the Immortals in the sky descended at once.

Lu Chen glanced at the crowd; he was somewhat familiar with the people present, particularly knowing Xuanjian Immortal King well.

Lu Chen directly addressed Xuanjian Immortal King, “Xuanjian Immortal King, why are you looking for me?”

Without a word, Xuanjian Immortal King led the others from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to kneel and said, “We beg Prince Chen to save the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty!”

This...

Seeing this, Lu Chen was taken aback.

They wanted him to save the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty?

What happened to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty?

Once Lu Chen regained his composure, he couldn't help but chuckle, “You surely remember the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's siege on the Mysterious Moon Palace from before.”

At that moment, an Immortal Monarch said, "Prince Chen, that was the decision of Lu Jing alone and has nothing to do with the trillions of people in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty. We implore you, for the sake of being a prince of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, to save its people!"

Hearing this, Lu Chen's expression darkened, as he despised moral coercion the most.

However, he was also quite curious about what could have possibly transpired to compel people from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to seek his help.

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Lu Chen glanced once more at Xuanjian Immortal King and the others; these individuals had initially leaned towards supporting him, although they dared not openly take his side due to the presence of Heavenly Splendor Hall.

However, their loyalty to him was above seventy or eighty percent.

Lu Chen then said, "Let's hear it, what's going on?"

If they weren't driven to desperation, they wouldn't have come looking for me, indicating that the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty was on the brink of destruction.

Lu Chen had some awareness of recent happenings in the Southern Domain.

Ever since Star River Immortal Venerate announced his closed-door meditation to death, the entire Southern Domain descended into chaos. Some forces nearly as powerful as Heavenly Splendor Hall began making moves, as there wasn't any super force that didn't aspire to become an overlord-level influence of a realm.

If a force could become an overlord-level influence of a realm, then most of the realm's Qi Fortune would converge on the overlord-level influence.

The chaos in the Southern Domain led many weaker forces to be annexed or destroyed.

Though Tianxia Immortal Dynasty was indeed an immortal dynasty, under Lu Jing's rule, who wasn't even an Immortal King, it was just a piece of succulent meat.

These forces aiming to expand would undoubtedly prioritize attacking Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

Lu Chen roughly guessed the situation.

Xuanjian Immortal King then said, "Ever since the Hall Master of Heavenly Splendor Hall announced his closed-door meditation to death, conditions in the Southern Domain grew increasingly chaotic, and the situation for Tianxia Immortal Dynasty worsened. The number of Evil Immortals within Tianxia Immortal Dynasty skyrocketed."

"A short while ago, Blood Eagle Hall emerged, and its armies decimated Chiyan Sect in less than a month. Following that, Blood Eagle Hall began expanding into Tianxia Immortal Dynasty."

"Where Blood Eagle Hall's Evil Immortals tread, rivers of blood flow, and no Righteous Immortal occupying a city taken by them manages to survive."

"Much of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's territory is now under Blood Eagle Hall's control, and if this persists, Tianxia Immortal Dynasty will surely fall."

"Please, Chen King, save Tianxia Immortal Dynasty."

Upon hearing this, Lu Chen calmly said, "The Qi Fortune of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty has long been in decline; its demise was just a matter of time. Besides,

I've already established another immortal dynasty; the fate of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty no longer concerns me."

Xuanjian Immortal King was momentarily stupefied—Lu Chen had established another immortal dynasty?

This meant Lu Chen's fortune was now bound to his newly established dynasty, and Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's downfall likely wouldn't affect Lu Chen, making it even more unlikely for him to rescue Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

After coming to his senses, Xuanjian Immortal King hastily said, "Even if Your Majesty chooses not to save Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, I implore you to save its people."

"Blood Eagle Hall delights in slaughter; if Tianxia Immortal Dynasty completely falls, it will become a hell on earth, and countless billions of its people will turn into corpses."

Xuanjian Immortal King and his companions initially hoped Lu Chen would return to become the Immortal Emperor of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty. However, since Lu Chen was already an Immortal Emperor of another dynasty, their aspirations couldn't be realized.

Given that Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's end was inevitable, they didn't persist, but the dynasty could perish—its people couldn't be butchered.

Of course, this wasn't only for the people of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, but also for the cultivation families within it.

Representing cultivation families, Xuanjian Immortal King and company viewed mortal lives as insignificant—mortals didn't count as people.

Lu Chen said indifferently, "Currently, I'm only at the Immortal Monarch realm; you seek my help, but you've perhaps chosen the wrong person."

Xuanjian Immortal King promptly said, "Your Majesty, oh no, Your Majesty is now renowned throughout Tianyan Immortal Domain; if you speak, surely Immortal Venerates would be willing to assist."

"Blood Eagle Hall only has one Immortal Venerate; if Your Majesty can persuade one or two Immortal Venerates to intervene, they can likely intimidate Blood Eagle Hall, preventing rash actions."

Lu Chen asked, "Blood Eagle Hall has an Immortal Venerate?"

Xuanjian Immortal King replied, "Indeed, Your Majesty might recall that Immortal Venerate; he is the Hall Master of Blood Eagle Hall. After his battle with you at the Mysterious Moon Palace, he returned to Blood Eagle Hall to meditate, and somehow, he suddenly broke through to the Immortal Venerate realm."

Lu Chen was somewhat surprised; the potency of his self-detonation back then was considerable. Not only did Blood Demon Immortal Venerate escape, but he also broke through to become an Immortal Venerate, likely due to some fortuitous encounter.

This didn't particularly concern Lu Chen, as he said, "Blood Eagle Hall is an Evil Immortal force; with a newly arisen Immortal Venerate, the Southern Domain's super forces won't sit idle. You should directly petition Heavenly Splendor Hall or the Southern Domain's super forces."

Hearing this, a bitter expression appeared on Xuanjian Immortal King's face, "Your Majesty, we've already dispatched people to seek aid from those powerful forces, but they have no time to spare for Tianxia Immortal Dynasty."

Southern Domain's various forces are contending for the overlord position, making them unable to deal with Blood Eagle Hall.

On the other hand, some super forces view Blood Eagle Hall as a blade to weaken other forces; as Blood Eagle Hall expands, they anticipate clashes with Blood Eagle Hall, hoping Blood Eagle Hall will diminish others' Qi Fortune and strength.

Especially Heavenly Splendor Hall, now controlling the Southern Domain. The emergence of an Evil Immortal Sect with an Immortal Venerate necessitates a response from Heavenly Splendor Hall.

Knowing the ambitions of Southern Domain's super forces, Heavenly Splendor Hall bides its time, intending to leverage Blood Eagle Hall to weaken others, as Blood Eagle Hall, with a lone Immortal Venerate, poses no real threat to Heavenly Splendor Hall's status.

This appeasement is why, despite the imminent downfall of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, no super force is willing to intervene.

This forced Xuanjian Immortal King and company to seek Lu Chen, who wasn't even an Immortal King; they valued Lu Chen's network among Immortal Venerates.

Currently, over a dozen Immortal Venerates from various influences are present in Sunset Mountain Range; should Lu Chen convince them to act, Blood Eagle Hall wouldn't pose much of a threat.

Lu Chen pondered this; he has grievances with Blood Eagle Hall, but given their relentless pursuit, persuading Immortal Venerates from various forces to help against an Evil Immortal Venerate might prove challenging.

Especially since the Tribulation of the Great Dao is ongoing, rendering most unwilling to engage in combat; should they suffer severe wounds, their doom might be upon them, especially facing an Evil Immortal Venerate.

Evil Immortals far surpass Righteous Immortal peers in the same realm.

After some thought, Lu Chen considered the usefulness of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's people; Great Qin Immortal Dynasty needs population.

Larger populations can enhance Qi Fortune.

Seeing Lu Chen silent, Xuanjian Immortal King and company grew more anxious; they understood Lu Chen was unlikely to agree, yet with Tianxia Immortal Dynasty hanging by a thread, he remained their last hope.

If Lu Chen refused to aid them, Tianxia Immortal Dynasty would genuinely become an earthly inferno.

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Lu Chen glanced once more at Xuanjian Immortal King and the others, then said, "The Tribulation of the Great Dao has not yet passed. No Immortal Venerate is willing to be injured at this time. Even if I step in, it wouldn't necessarily mean an Immortal Venerate would help the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty."

"To those Immortal Venerates, Tianxia Immortal Dynasty is merely an insignificant existence. Do you think any Immortal Venerate would risk their lives against an Evil Immortal for such a trivial entity?"

Hearing Lu Chen's words, Xuanjian Immortal King and the others fell into silence.

Indeed, most Immortal Venerates now are cautious, fearing that their end may come earlier. Not to mention matters unrelated to those Immortal Venerates; even when their own Immortal Sects face danger, they might not act immediately, let alone help a weaker force.

The last bit of hope in the hearts of Xuanjian Immortal King and the others gradually faded, but at this moment, Lu Chen continued, "It's only a matter of time before the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty is exterminated. When you return, you can prepare for a collective evacuation from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty."

Upon hearing this, Xuanjian Immortal King sighed. They had considered leaving the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, but where could they go? Moreover, there are assets accumulated over countless generations in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty. While some can be taken, others can't.

Lu Chen continued, "If you have no place to go, you could also move to the Wilderness. The Immortal Dynasty I established is in the Wilderness, and now that the Immortal Aura is revitalized, the Immortal Aura in the Wilderness is also very rich."

"I will try to find a few Immortal Venerates and have them go to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to intimidate the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable. You can take this opportunity to leave the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty."

He possesses the Spirit Realm Crossing Array, which can instantly teleport people from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to the Daqin Immortal Dynasty.

The Wilderness is never lacking land, and now the Daqin Immortal Dynasty has a very small population. If the people of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty could join the Daqin Immortal Dynasty, its Qi Fortune would inevitably surge.

Moreover, he could take this opportunity to absorb the individual Qi Fortune of the people from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty. He might even have the chance to absorb the entire Qi Fortune of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

As for inviting Immortal Venerates to intimidate the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable, this shouldn't be an issue. Although most Immortal Venerates are unwilling to fight other Immortal Venerates at this time, if more Immortal Venerates go to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable would naturally not dare to act recklessly upon sensing the presence of so many Immortal Venerates.

Lu Chen believes these Immortal Venerates should agree to his request. Currently, forces from all sides desire one of his clones, so he has some influence indeed.

Xuanjian Immortal King and the others immediately understood Lu Chen's intention, and Xuanjian Immortal King then said, "Thank you, Your Majesty. I'll return and relay this message to others."

At this moment, Lu Chen curiously asked, "By the way, how is Lu Jing now?"

Although Lu Chen wanted to deal with Lu Jing personally, he also realized that Lu Jing's fate might not be too favorable.

Lu Jing, an Immortal Emperor without even the cultivation state of an Immortal King, would not be able to suppress the Aristocratic Families of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

Initially, Blood Eagle Hall had some dealings with Lu Jing, and Blood Eagle Hall's burning, killing, and plundering within the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty must have infuriated the Aristocratic Families of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty. Those families would surely target Lu Jing.

Lu Jing is probably already dead at the hands of those families.

Hearing Lu Chen's question, Xuanjian Immortal King hesitated for a moment, but ultimately said, "After Blood Eagle Hall invaded the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, he was put under house arrest by the families. Initially, those families planned to use him to negotiate with Blood Eagle Hall, but Blood Eagle Hall had no intention of accepting the families' surrender, and Lu Jing lost his value. In a fit of anger, someone from the families killed him..."

Saying this, Xuanjian Immortal King paused and looked at Lu Chen, trying to see his reaction.

After all, Lu Jing was an Immortal Emperor. He could die at the hands of enemies or by suicide, but should not die at the hands of his own people. Although Xuanjian Immortal King knew Lu Chen had a grudge against Lu Jing, Lu Chen was once a member of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's royal family, so he had reason to uphold the dignity of the royal family by removing the families that acted against Lu Jing.

At this moment, Lu Chen's expression was very calm. He wasn't surprised at all. Lu Jing, lacking even the cultivation state of an Immortal King, faced the Aristocratic Families who possessed Immortal Venerates within their sects, and it was inevitable they would betray the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's royal family for their survival.

But speaking of this, Immortal Emperor or not, those families would not get away with killing an Immortal Emperor. If there's a first time, there'll be a second. If they aren't dealt with, these families would not know their place when arriving in the Daqin Immortal Dynasty.

Thinking of this, Lu Chen said to Xuanjian Immortal King, "When you go back, make a list of those families and give it to me."

Xuanjian Immortal King replied, "Yes, Your Majesty."

Lu Chen continued, "Alright, you may return. I will soon head to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty."

Upon hearing this, Xuanjian Immortal King and the others were still worried. They actually wanted to go back to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty together with Lu Chen.

The situation in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty is dire. If Lu Chen doesn't find Immortal Venerates quickly to help, the entire Tianxia Immortal Dynasty might soon be gone.

However, after thinking it over, they didn't say much more. Since Lu Chen had already agreed, he will probably soon go to those Immortal Venerates, and they should return quickly to make sure the Immortals in the Immortal Cities of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty evacuate, preparing to move to the Daqin Immortal Dynasty.

Immediately, Xuanjian Immortal King and the others returned to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

After Xuanjian Immortal King left, Lu Chen glanced at the White Rainbow Immortal King who had been watching the whole time, and then asked, "Which Immortal Venerates are currently in the White Rainbow Immortal City?"

White Rainbow Immortal King had listened to Lu Chen and Xuanjian Immortal King's conversation, so he knew what Lu Chen planned to do next and thus said, "Wait a moment, Lu. I'll transmit a message to them."

Soon, White Rainbow Immortal King's transmission reached the ears of those Immortal Venerates.

In no time, five Immortal Venerates appeared in the sky, with one of them asking, "I wonder what matter Lu seeks us for?"

Lu Chen simply said, "An Evil Immortal Venerable has emerged in the Southern Domain, and his force is currently attacking the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty. You all know I was born in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, which is essentially my homeland. I can't bear to see it drenched in blood, so I wish to ask you all for some assistance."

Upon hearing this, the faces of the five Immortal Venerates became incredibly serious.

Evil Immortal Venerable?

Lu Chen wants them to deal with the Evil Immortal Venerable?

This won't do!

While they wish to forge relations with Lu Chen and hope he might station a clone at their own forces in the future, the risk of confronting the Evil Immortal Venerable is simply too great; they can't risk their lives even for a relationship with Lu Chen.

Understanding what they were thinking, Lu Chen continued, "Of course, I'm not asking you to slay the Evil Immortal Venerable, but rather to go to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to intimidate him for a while."

"If you are willing to sit in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, that Evil Immortal Venerable presumably wouldn't dare continue attacking it, and I will use the time you are stationed there to evacuate everyone from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's explanation, the five Immortal Venerates realized he only wished them to sit in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, and had initially worried Lu Chen wanted them to fight to the death with the Evil Immortal Venerable.

The Immortals present thought to themselves that if it was just to oversee the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty for a while, there would be no problem. They wouldn't have to do anything, and Lu Chen would owe them a favor—such a good deal is rare.

Immediately, an Immortal Venerate agreed: "An Evil Immortal must be eradicated by everyone, this is not only Lu's matter but ours as well, of course, we will agree."

"However, it's just a mere Evil Immortal Venerable, which is not much of a threat. The most dangerous thing in the Tianyan Immortal Domain right now is still the weird creatures."

"Recently, the Southern Domain has become increasingly chaotic, and no one knows if there is the shadow of weird creatures behind it. I hope Lu can send a clone to our Tianhan Sect. If there are weird creatures causing trouble in our sect, with Lu there, we can seal the troublesome weird creatures immediately. What does Lu think?"

The Immortal Venerates present did not intend to let Lu Chen owe them a favor. On one hand, they needed to guard against the weird creatures that might emerge, and on the other hand, Lu Chen could be used as a trump card. After all, the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array could do more than just sealing weird creatures.

Upon hearing the Immortal Venerate's words, Lu Chen directly said: "Indeed, we must guard against weird creatures. How about this? After the affairs of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty are concluded, I will send several clones to each of your forces."

Hearing Lu Chen's words, the five Immortal Venerates all smiled, and one of them said: "That would be excellent, we should depart for the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty immediately."

Subsequently, the Immortal Venerates took Lu Chen and prepared to head to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

Lu Chen initially wanted to use the Spirit Realm Crossing Array directly, but after thinking about it, using the Spirit Realm Crossing Array in front of these Immortal Venerates might not be a wise move.

It's known that after activating the Spirit Realm Crossing Array, it can lead anywhere. If the array is discovered by others, surely someone would covet it.

The Spirit Realm Crossing Array would be of great use to him in the future, so it's best not to expose it.

Anyway, there was a Transmission Array in the Immortal City that could directly reach the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, there was no need to use the Spirit Realm Crossing Array.

Following this, they used a Heaven Rank Transmission Array from a certain Immortal City in the Heavenly Splendor Hall to directly teleport to the Imperial City of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

As Lu Chen and the five Immortal Venerates arrived at the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, they immediately released their Immortal Venerate aura, using it to warn the Blood Eagle Hall and the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable.

At the same time.

In a certain Immortal City, Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

In the high sky, the Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate was absorbing the resentment of the entire city, with corpses lying all over the place below, and ruins everywhere.

Just then, he suddenly sensed five powerful auras.

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable suddenly opened his eyes and looked towards the direction of the Imperial City of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

He was somewhat puzzled, wondering why there were suddenly five Immortal Venerates in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty and where these Immortal Venerates came from, as he had never heard of any Immortal Venerates in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

If there were Immortal Venerates in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, it wouldn't have developed to this state.

Could they just be passing by?

If they were passing by, there was no need for them to release their aura, and moreover, all five Immortal Venerates released their aura at once, clearly coming for him.

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable's expression looked very serious. If it were one or two Immortal Venerates, it would be fine, but facing five Immortal Venerates simultaneously, he had almost no chance of winning unless the Blood Ancestor took action.

However, the Blood Ancestor's energy should all be focused on his clone, and it's unlikely he would take action in the short term.

This made the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable feel unwilling. Just as he was about to engulf the entire Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, turning all its Immortals into nutrients for his cultivation, five Immortal Venerates suddenly appeared.

However, looking back, these five Immortal Venerates did not seem to have the intention to take action against him. If they really wanted to fight, they would have already charged over instead of just releasing their aura.

It looks like they are warning him.

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable immediately realized that with the chaos in the Southern Domain and the Tribulation of the Great Dao not yet over, the mysterious force's erosion of the Dao was growing more severe, so no Immortal Venerate would want to get injured at such a time.

The five Immortal Venerates probably didn't want to get injured, so they released their aura, forcing him to leave the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable thought for a moment, the fact that five Immortal Venerates released their aura at the same time to warn him, could it be that the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty had something special?

How come he didn't find it?

If the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty truly had something special, he should have discovered it long ago, as the infiltration of the Blood Eagle Hall into the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty had been ongoing for quite some time.

In the end, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable chose to leave the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty temporarily, as he wanted to see what was special about the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty. Since the five Immortal Venerates had come to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, if the place truly had some opportunities, the Immortal Venerates would definitely take action next.

He only needed to have the spies within the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty keep an eye on what the five Immortal Venerates would do next.

With this in mind, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable immediately got up, transformed into a streak of blood light, and left the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

At the same time.

When the Immortal Venerates sensed that the unpleasant aura was gradually disappearing, they finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Although they knew that the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable was highly unlikely to actually take action, he was still an Evil Immortal, and if he turned out to be mad, he might attack them unexpectedly.

An Immortal Venerate said to Lu Chen: "The Evil Immortal Venerable has probably left. Whatever you plan to do, do it quickly. After ten years, it will be our turn to patrol."

Patrolling the Sunset Mountain Range was something they decided at the beginning. Every so often, the Immortal Venerates would take turns—they couldn't guard the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty forever.

Lu Chen said: "Alright, then I will trouble you all."

As he finished speaking, Lu Chen directly summoned all the ministers of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, as well as the Aristocratic Families.

When the ministers of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty and those noble families learned that Lu Chen had brought five Immortal Venerates to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, they each felt a mix of fear and joy.

They feared because the Royal Family of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty had almost no members left, and those ministers and noble families had supported a puppet Emperor. They were afraid that upon Lu Chen's return to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, he would settle accounts with them.

They were pleased because Lu Chen had returned with five Immortal Venerates. With these five Immortal Venerates overseeing, the Evil Immortals of the Blood Eagle Hall would surely not dare invade the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty again.

The worries of those ministers and noble families were valid. Although Lu Chen didn't have much affection for the Royal Family of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, he was still a member of it and couldn't do nothing.

With the existence of five Immortal Venerates, the noble families of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty couldn't stir any trouble. It took Lu Chen less than a month to settle all those who betrayed the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

After cleaning up the traitors of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, Lu Chen began to attempt inheriting the Qi Fortune of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty. Although the dynasty's Qi Fortune had declined, as an Immortal Dynasty, it was still far denser compared to regular Immortal Sects.

While absorbing the Qi Fortune, Lu Chen also started organizing a great migration, moving the citizens of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty into some Immortal Cities.

In the next ten years, Lu Chen continuously used the Spirit Realm Crossing Array to transport the citizens of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to the Daqin Immortal Dynasty.

Lu Chen's actions were naturally known to the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate, but with five Immortal Venerates stationed at the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, he dared not step foot into it again, and could only send some Evil Immortals to cause disturbances.

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerate was aware that those five Immortal Venerates likely wouldn't stay for long in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty; otherwise, Lu Chen could not have returned to let the common folk of the dynasty gather together and then teleport them away.

Lu Chen's method made the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate quite displeased. If these people fled, leaving only an empty shell, then the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty would be useless.

Their expansion was partly to increase territory, but also to use people from other forces as cultivation resources.

Now that Lu Chen has transferred everyone, leaving only the territory of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, even occupying it would be of little use; most importantly, with the people gone, the Qi Fortune of the dynasty would naturally be gone as well.

Even if Blood Eagle Hall occupied the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, it likely wouldn't increase their Immortal Sect's Qi Fortune much.

Despite the Blood Demon Immortal Venerate's annoyance, he dared not make a move to stop Lu Chen due to the presence of five Immortal Venerates.

Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, Shiyang Immortal City.

Under the blazing sun, the Immortal City was teeming with people; aside from the Imperial City, Shiyang Immortal City was the last teleportation point.

At this time, Shiyang Immortal City had gathered over a hundred million Immortals and billions of Mortals; to teleport all the people from Shiyang Immortal City would consume a lot of immortal power.

Fortunately, Lu Chen had copied quite a few aristocratic families; now, what he lacked least was Immortal Crystals, and with five Immortal Venerates around, teleporting billions of people wasn't too much of a problem.

At this moment, Lu Chen and the five Immortal Venerates arrived above Shiyang Immortal City; just as Lu was about to engrave the Spirit Realm Crossing Array, one Immortal Venerate curiously asked, "Lu, where are you teleporting these people to?"

These five Immortal Venerates had noticed the peculiarities of Lu Chen's transmission array, a transmission array that could simultaneously teleport billions of people; even a Heavenly Rank transmission array would struggle to achieve such a feat.

They were greatly interested in this transmission array.

Lu Chen certainly wouldn't tell them the truth, he replied, "I'm merely sending them out of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty; as for where they are teleported to, it's all decided by fate."

An Immortal Venerate asked, "Does that mean this transmission array doesn't have a definite exit?"

Lu Chen said, "Yes."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's answer, the Immortal Venerates instantly lost interest in the transmission array; although it could teleport many people, if the exit was uncertain, it might directly send them to the enemy's face, or even to some perilous place.

Then, Lu Chen began to engrave the array pattern of the Spirit Realm Crossing Array; in a short while, an array pattern flew to the sky above Shiyang Immortal City.

Immediately after, Lu Chen poured out a heap of Immortal Crystals from the Space Ring, and the Spirit Realm Crossing Array frantically absorbed the immortal aura from the crystals; within moments, the towering pile of Immortal Crystals dissipated completely.

The next moment, a massive vortex appeared below Shiyang Immortal City, and then Shiyang Immortal City vanished into the vortex, leaving only a gigantic crater.

Seeing Shiyang Immortal City disappear entirely, the Immortal Venerates present still felt greatly shocked – their Heavenly Rank transmission arrays couldn't directly transmit an entire Immortal City.

But upon considering it's a random teleportation, considering Shiyang Immortal City might be teleported to an unknown location, the Immortal Venerates lost interest in the Spirit Realm Crossing Array.

After Shiyang Immortal City was teleported away, Lu Chen consumed a large amount of Immortal Crystals to teleport the entire Imperial City of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to the Barbaric.

Just after the Imperial City of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty was teleported to the Daqin Immortal Dynasty, Lu Chen felt a surge of immense Qi Fortune pouring into his body, and in an instant, his cultivation broke through the bottleneck, directly becoming an Immortal King.

At this moment, inside the Daqin Immortal Dynasty's imperial palace.

In the cultivation chamber, Lu Chen opened his eyes, feeling the boundless immortal power within him; he felt utterly invigorated – his cultivation had finally returned!

Henceforth, he wouldn't need to use the Immortal King's Remain Curse.

The restoration of his cultivation represented his ability to confront most formidable foes; as long as the opponent wasn't an Immortal Emperor, he would be able to put up a fight.

He could create many Immortal Kings; with these Immortal King clones, whenever he encountered an enemy he couldn't defeat, he would choose self-destruction.

The self-destruction of an Immortal King could even heavily wound an Immortal Venerate, and his Immortal King clones could be continuously produced and exhausted.

Additionally, the Qi Fortune of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty was extremely rich, and his Immortal King's strength was much more powerful than ordinary Immortal Kings, nearly approaching the strength of an Immortal Venerate; he believed no Immortal Venerate could match him in strength.

Meanwhile, at the Mysterious Moon Palace.

Within the Ice Palace.

Yun Yudie was sitting on top of Lu Chen, cultivating, when she suddenly felt the Qi Fortune of the Mysterious Moon Palace soaring rapidly; the surge in Qi Fortune also seemed to loosen her cultivation bottleneck, bringing her close to a breakthrough.

Feeling the rise in Qi Fortune and strength, Yun Yudie looked down, staring intently at Lu Chen; she wasn't foolish, the sudden surge in the Mysterious Moon Palace's Qi Fortune must be due to the increase in the Daqin Immortal Dynasty's Qi Fortune.

Now, with the Mysterious Moon Palace's Qi Fortune bound to the Daqin Immortal Dynasty, any increase in the Daqin Immortal Dynasty's Qi Fortune would increase the Mysterious Moon Palace's Qi Fortune.

Yun Yudie asked with a face full of astonishment, "What did you do? Why did the Mysterious Moon Palace's Qi Fortune increase so much?"

She was extremely curious about what Lu Chen had done to cause such a huge surge in the Daqin Immortal Dynasty's Qi Fortune, so much so that the Mysterious Moon Palace's Qi Fortune was nearing that of some super forces.

Lu Chen replied, "Nothing much, I merely sent all the citizens of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to the Daqin Immortal Dynasty."

This...

Yun Yudie thought for a moment, if Lu Chen absorbed all the Qi Fortune of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, leading to the rise of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty's Qi Fortune, which in turn boosted the Mysterious Moon Palace's Qi Fortune, that seemed plausible.

But absorbing the Qi Fortune of a single Immortal Dynasty and causing such a significant increase in the Daqin Immortal Dynasty's Qi Fortune seemed a bit exaggerated, didn't it?

It couldn't be as simple as absorbing the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty's Qi Fortune; there must be other reasons involved. Yun Yudie continued, "The Tianxia Immortal Dynasty is a low-level Immortal Dynasty, how much Qi Fortune can it have? Aren't you feeling that the Qi Fortune is too potent?"

Lu Chen continued, "Perhaps because my cultivation recovered to the Immortal King Realm, the Heavenly Dao rewarded me with more Qi Fortune."

Yun Yudie fell into contemplation; indeed, an Immortal's realm advancement could significantly enhance personal and factional Qi Fortune.

But for Lu Chen to recover to the Immortal King cultivation and enhance the Qi Fortune this much — would it mean once Lu Chen advances to the Immortal Venerate cultivation, the Qi Fortune of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty and the Mysterious Moon Palace might reach the level of an Overlord-level Influence?

This fellow Lu Chen's identity is evidently not simple.

For some reason, Yun Yudie suddenly felt a sensation, she felt it was an absolute necessity for her and Lu Chen's child prophecy to be fulfilled.

Given Lu Chen's immense Qi Fortune, becoming Emperor Cheng was inevitable, and potentially he would go further – his cultivation perhaps wouldn't stop at being an Immortal Emperor.

If one day Lu Chen becomes extremely strong, she wouldn't even have a choice but to have his child.

Thinking of this made Yun Yudie's delicate body tremble slightly.

But soon, Yun Yudie calmed her inner turmoil; as long as she continued cultivating diligently, staying stronger than Lu Chen, this fellow wouldn't have the chance to make her pregnant.

She must seize the time to cultivate, with this thought, Yun Yudie began to vigorously operate the Spirit Charm Harmony Scripture.

After Lu Chen transported the Imperial City of Tianxia Immortal Dynasty away, he immediately sent out several clones to the realms of the five Immortal Venerates.

Now, what remains of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty is nothing but one crater after another, these gradually turning into lakes. From above, the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty is dotted with large lakes.

In the sky, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable looked down with a sullen face at the shimmering lakes below.

Never mind, it's just an Immortal Dynasty, after all. The Southern Domain is vast and not just dominated by the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

However, the desire to annex other realms might prove difficult, especially those ruled by Immortal Venerates.

Just as the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable was about to leave the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, suddenly the ground began to split apart. Moments later, a bottomless abyss appeared where the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty had been.

Thick Immortal Aura surged out from the abyss, and seeing the change below, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable was momentarily stunned in the air.

What is happening?

Before the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable could react, black Chaos Qi erupted from the enormous abyss, clearly linking it to the Chaotic Sea, which poured through the abyss.

The Tianyan Immortal Domain was originally surrounded by the Chaotic Sea, and when penetrated, the Chaos Qi would inevitably flow in from another direction.

Back when all forces united to besiege the Demon Emperor, the Northern Domain's land shattered, and Chaos Qi flowed into the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

Typically, Chaos Qi does not enter the Tianyan Immortal Domain because the surrounding Immortal Aura blocks it.

Moreover, the Heavenly Dao of the Tianyan Immortal Domain has a restorative function, quickly repairing any localized issues and expelling the Chaos Qi.

But now a sudden abyss appeared, with Chaos Qi continuously spewing forth, and the Heavenly Dao seemed uninterested in repairing it.

Seeing this scene, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable felt uneasy; even as an Evil Immortal, he worried for the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

After all, residing in the Tianyan Immortal Domain means if something catastrophic happens, escape would be impossible.

Feeling the pressure of the Chaos Qi, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable quickly retreated from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.

The anomaly at the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty drew the attention of various forces in the Southern Domain, who dispatched individuals to investigate the sudden appearance of the abyss in the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

News of the abyss spread rapidly throughout the Tianyan Immortal Domain, prompting Lu Chen to send his Southern Domain clone to the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty upon hearing the news.

In the sky, Lu Chen looked down at the massive abyss not far away, seeing the continuous surging of Chaos Qi, he frowned deeply.

He suspected that moving the Immortal Cities from the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty might have caused the area to transform into an abyss.

Fortunately, the Chaos Qi only raged around the abyss, not invading the Tianyan Immortal Domain, as its Immortal Aura suppressed it.

Perplexed by the large abyss, Lu Chen noticed the Heavenly Dao of the Tianyan Immortal Domain showed no signs of repair, allowing it to persist.

When the Northern Domain's continent was shattered by several Immortal Venerates, the Heavenly Dao swiftly restored it.

Could the Heavenly Dao have issues? Or is it that even the Heavenly Dao cannot repair the abyss?

Lu Chen rubbed his forehead, acknowledging his current state as merely an Immortal King, and focused on increasing his strength.

...

Northern Domain, Nine Heavens Institute.

In the sky, Xuan Qingyun suddenly opened her eyes, sensing her Qi Fortune rapidly diminishing while a force from the Tianyan Immortal Domain tried to expel her.

Xuan Qingyun coldly said to the air, "Thinking of expelling Cheng Di from the Tianyan Immortal Domain is delusional!"

She realized it was the Heavenly Dao of the Tianyan Immortal Domain attempting to expel her as the Immortal Emperor, clearly unable to support two Immortal Emperors simultaneously.

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable channeled immortal power to stabilize herself, resisting the Power of the Heavenly Path.

At this moment, an Immortal Venerate appeared before Xuan Qingyun, and she asked, "What is it?"

The Immortal Venerate conjured a Memory Pearl, "Heavenly Girl, this is recent news from the Southern Domain."

Xuan Qingyun raised her jade hand, releasing immortal power to activate the Memory Pearl. After viewing its content, she fell into contemplation.

The Heavenly Dao is indeed strained, leaving such a vast abyss without repair, instead focusing on expelling her from the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

With the Heavenly Dao opposing her, refining it would be even more challenging.

What a hassle!

Xuan Qingyun then utilized the Power of Heavenly Mechanism, deducing the Heavenly Mechanism to see if she could refine the Heavenly Dao eventually.

Soon, a mass of Immortal Aura appeared before her, forming a mirror, but it showed nothing.

This was within Xuan Qingyun's expectations, knowing her Deduction Technique wasn't all-powerful, unable to foresee everything.

Yet she didn't stop there, next deducing Xiyue Immortal Emperor, quickly revealing a scene within the mirror showing Xiyue Immortal Emperor holding a child, gazing skyward, devoid of any Heavenly Dao aura.

This suggests that the future Xiyue Immortal Emperor also never refines the Heavenly Dao.

After some thought, Xuan Qingyun decided to deduce Lu Chen, suspecting he might be the greatest obstacle to her refining the Heavenly Dao.

Just then, a silhouette appeared in the mirror, high in the sky, a man with his back to the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain, holding a Longsword against a vast mass of strange beings.

Seeing Lu Chen's foretold future unsettled Xuan Qingyun, having failed to deduce his location not long ago.

Clearly, Lu Chen's future is shielded, yet today, she glimpsed it entirely.

She realized a trace of the Power of the Heavenly Path appeared in her mirror, understanding what was happening.

Her aura surged, Emperor's Mighty enveloping the Tianyan Immortal Domain, and Xuan Qingyun coldly said, "So you chose him!"

Xuan Qingyun understood the scene was bestowed by the Heavenly Dao of the Tianyan Immortal Domain, revealing it chose Lu Chen as the savior.

This explained why the Heavenly Dao sought to expel her from the Tianyan Immortal Domain.

The Emperor's Mighty released by Xuan Qingyun was felt by all within the Tianyan Immortal Domain, leaving them perplexed at who had angered her so greatly.

Eastern Domain, Tianxi Palace.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor released her nine tails, lazily reclining on the soft couch. Perhaps it was due to her pregnancy, she found herself increasingly lacking in energy, just wanting to lie down all the time.

At this moment, an Emperor's Mighty suddenly descended, causing Xiyue Immortal Emperor to furrow her eyebrows slightly, looking toward the Northern Domain, then muttering to herself, "What craziness is that female devil up to now."

As both Immortal Emperors, Xiyue Immortal Emperor could clearly sense the anger within Xuan Qingyun's released Emperor's Mighty.

This made Xiyue Immortal Emperor somewhat curious about who had the guts to anger Xuan Qingyun, for she was the Demon Emperor, not someone anyone would dare to mess with, not even she as an Immortal Emperor.

Thinking about the fearless, a figure suddenly emerged in Xiyue Immortal Emperor's mind.

Whenever she thought of that man, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's delicate brows would furrow slightly.

For some reason, she always felt he was a beast.

Probably, only that fearless beast would dare to provoke Xuan Qingyun.

Thinking about Lu Chen, the beast, Xiyue Immortal Emperor couldn't help but have some emotions, her mind recalling the scene of when she was aroused. Xiyue Immortal Emperor tried to calm her emotions.

Then she released her Divine Thought to check on Lu Chen's location. At the moment, Lu Chen's clone was meditating in a room within Tianxi Palace.

Retracting her Divine Thought, Xiyue Immortal Emperor didn't plan to do anything, she just suddenly thought of Lu Chen, so she subconsciously used Divine Thought to check on his clone.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor then slightly lowered her head, looking at her abdomen. The growth of her child was rather slow, even after all these years, it still hadn't formed completely.

Thinking that this child was Lu Chen's, Xiyue Immortal Emperor couldn't help but feel a surge of anger. As soon as Xiyue Immortal Emperor got angry, she immediately realized that she seemed to be thinking about Lu Chen more frequently lately, and every time she thought of him, she would get angry.

Could it be because of her pregnancy?

A pregnant woman is prone to emotional instability, whether mortal or Immortal.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor tried hard to control her emotions, reminding herself not to get angry, as getting angry could affect the child in her abdomen.

As an Immortal Emperor, if she got angry, the immortal power within her would become very turbulent. If the agitated immortal power accidentally harmed the child, it wouldn't withstand the disturbance as it's not fully formed yet.

Just as Xiyue Immortal Emperor was thinking this, her mind suddenly froze: how come she, a dignified Immortal Emperor, was carrying the child of Lu Chen, the beast, and now she had to constantly think about the child, even refraining from getting angry in fear of harming it, while Lu Chen, the beast, just left after having slept with her.

Thinking about how carefree Lu Chen was, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's emotions surged again.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor muttered to herself, "No, I can't let that guy get away so easily!"

The next moment, Xiyue Immortal Emperor rose from the soft couch and with an Instant Teleportation, her body appeared in Lu Chen's room.

Lu Chen's clone was in a standby state, but it still had a trace of consciousness connected. Upon sensing a sudden fragrant aroma in the room, he immediately opened his eyes.

As soon as he opened his eyes, he saw Xiyue Immortal Emperor's eyes fixed on him, and Lu Chen smiled, asking, "To what do I owe the honor of your visit, Xiyue Immortal Emperor?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor didn't reply verbally. Instead, she waved her hand, and the next moment, the two disappeared from the spot and arrived at Xiyue Immortal Emperor's resting palace.

After bringing Lu Chen's clone to her resting palace, Xiyue Immortal Emperor once again reclined on the soft couch, lying on her side as she looked at Lu Chen and said, "You're quite at leisure, aren't you?"

For some reason, Lu Chen felt that there's a touch of resentment in Xiyue Immortal Emperor's words.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor thought to herself that Lu Chen's attention wasn't on her, and maybe his other clones were spending time with different women every day.

Thinking of herself carrying his child, unable to even express emotions for fear of harming it, while this beast was out having a good time, she felt quite upset.

Deep inside, Xiyue Immortal Emperor also understood why she felt this way, as evidenced by her inherited memories: a Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox has only one companion in their lifetime and becomes particularly dependent on their companion during pregnancy.

When the companion is not around, the Nine-tailed Heavenly Fox becomes anxious and restless.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor now spoke cynically, "You're probably busy with other women now, aren't you?"

Upon hearing this, Lu Chen couldn't help but smile and ask, "Are you jealous, my lady?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor's jade face immediately turned cold, glaring at Lu Chen as she said, "Jealous? Ridiculous, I am merely disapproving of your actions!"

"From today onwards, you will be by my side and serve me!"

This...

Seeing Lu Chen stunned, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's body suddenly emitted Emperor's Might, then asked, "What, are you unwilling?"

Lu Chen snapped back and replied with a smile, "How could I be unwilling? Serving my lady is my greatest wish."

Xiyue Immortal Emperor then said, "Alright, come over and give me a shoulder rub."

Lu Chen tentatively asked, "Are you sure?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor glared at Lu Chen without a word.

Lu Chen grinned awkwardly and said no more.

Considering that Xiyue Immortal Emperor was pregnant, Lu Chen didn't intend to provoke her any further. He then moved over to the edge of the soft couch.

At this time, Xiyue Immortal Emperor turned her body, back toward Lu Chen.

Lu Chen lifted his hand gently and placed it on Xiyue Immortal Emperor's fragrant shoulder, slowly applying pressure to massage it, while simultaneously channeling the Life Force.

Life Force is excellent for relieving physical fatigue, and Xiyue Immortal Emperor immediately felt her shoulder very comfortable, relaxing significantly, and her previously restless emotions also temporarily disappeared.

Lu Chen's hand began to apply more force, and for a moment, Xiyue Immortal Emperor couldn't help but let out a "mm-hmm" sound from her throat.

Lu Chen's large hand continued downward, gradually moving to her jade-like back. Just as Lu Chen was about to misbehave, Xuan Qingyun suddenly spoke, "You must have also sensed the Demon Emperor's Emperor's Mighty, right?"

Lu Chen replied, "Naturally."

Xiyue Immortal Emperor continued to ask, "Was it you who provoked her?"

Lu Chen said, "What does it have to do with me?"

"Why would you think I provoked her?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor said, "Besides you, I can hardly think of anyone in Tianyan Immortal Domain who would dare to provoke the Demon Emperor."

Lu Chen chuckled, "Why would I provoke her for no reason?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor said, "I've heard the Demon Emperor is very beautiful."

Lu Chen was slightly taken aback, his hand stopping, "You really are jealous, aren't you?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor coldly said, "Continue!"

Lu Chen resumed his effort to massage Xiyue Immortal Emperor, and she warned him at this time saying, "Put away your little thoughts. I have no fondness for you. You're merely a male pet I keep."

Lu Chen couldn't help but chuckle; these words were familiar to him, and he didn't really mind them.

Just then, Lu Chen's hand suddenly applied force, and Xiyue Immortal Emperor immediately felt a comfortable sensation on her back, causing her to let out an "ah" sound from her throat. The next moment, her tails and ears suddenly appeared.

Seeing the nine fluffy white tails behind Xiyue Immortal Emperor, Lu Chen couldn't resist wanting to reach out and stroke them.

At this moment, Xiyue Immortal Emperor said, "I didn't expect you to have such skills."

It must be said, Lu Chen, this male consort, indeed has some skills; his massage technique is quite good. As soon as he started massaging her, her entire body relaxed, and the immortal power within her completely stabilized.

"By the way, you have a clone in the Southern Domain, so you should know there's an abyss there, right?"

Lu Chen replied, "I know, I've personally gone to see it."

Xiyue Immortal Emperor continued to ask, "I heard that the abyss appeared in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, which is the Immortal Dynasty you were once part of. I'm curious, does the appearance of that abyss have anything to do with you?"

Lu Chen asked with a smile, "Why do you think everything is related to me?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor lazily said, "The abyss happened to appear where you were born; I can't believe it has nothing to do with you."

Lu Chen said, "I don't have that kind of capability. The abyss runs through the entire Tianyan Immortal Domain, and I'm only at the Immortal King Realm now, how could I cause such massive destruction."

In fact, Lu Chen also suspects whether the abyss was caused by him. He feels that he moved away those Immortal Cities, disrupting some formation or restriction, which changed the place where the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty originally was into an abyss.

Of course, all this is mere speculation.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor remained silent as Lu Chen's hand gradually increased its pressure; she felt immensely comfortable.

As Lu Chen kneaded Xiyue Immortal Emperor's smooth jade-like back, thoughts in his mind gradually took shape, his hand started to venture towards the waist. Xiyue Immortal Emperor seemed immersed in the massage and hadn't immediately noticed Lu Chen's sly movements.

A moment later, Lu Chen's hand inadvertently grasped one of Xiyue Immortal Emperor's tails, she suddenly felt as if her body had been electrified, her delicate frame couldn't help but tremble lightly.

She whipped her head around sharply, glaring at Lu Chen viciously, emitting an Immortal Emperor's aura, her tail's white fur bristled.

"What are you doing!"

Lu Chen didn't immediately let go; Xiyue Immortal Emperor's fluffy tail felt very good to touch, just too comfortable.

Lu Chen said with a smile, "I'm helping you comb the fur on your tails."

Xiyue Immortal Emperor said coldly, "No need! Let go of me now!"

As Xiyue Immortal Emperor finished speaking, Lu Chen not only didn't release his grip, but gently began to knead, a strange feeling surged in his heart.

Generally, animals don't go into heat once they're pregnant, but some from the Demon Race are different, even if they've conceived, it's still possible for them to enter heat.

Nine-tailed Heavenly Foxes are just like that, because their periods of heat aren't solely for breeding, but also to nurture bonds with their destined ones.

At this moment, Xiyue Immortal Emperor felt her entire body beginning to heat up, she was unbearably tempted to push Lu Chen over directly, she clenched her teeth, and coldly said, "Do you really think I wouldn't dare do anything to you!"

She realized Lu Chen seemed to assume she wouldn't dare to retaliate against him, hence his audacity.

If she didn't set rules for him, in the future, wouldn't he just attack her with impunity while by her side, then what becomes of her?

Lu Chen, with a smile, said, "Don't be tense, listen to me for a moment."

Xiyue Immortal Emperor said fiercely, "Listen to what? I shall see what nonsense can come out of your mouth."

Lu Chen said, "For you, the matter between men and women is nothing at all, right?"

Upon hearing Lu Chen's question, Xiyue Immortal Emperor paused for a moment, and after regaining her composure, she coldly asked, "What are you trying to say?"

Indeed, the matter between men and women was nothing significant to her; now she's already an Immortal Emperor, it's extremely difficult to advance further in cultivation, and previous methods of cultivation can no longer be relied on, so the affairs of men and women won't affect her cultivation.

Lu Chen went on, "Since you consider me a male consort, allowing me to serve you, then making you relaxed and happy is also my duty, so..."

Before Lu Chen could finish his sentence, he was promptly interrupted by Xiyue Immortal Emperor, "Shut up!"

She heard Lu Chen's little scheme clearly.

How is making her relaxed and happy his duty?

This guy purely wants to mount her!

After being interrupted, Lu Chen didn't immediately shut up, instead, he continued, "You don't have to resist this notion so much, think about it, now that you're already an Immortal Emperor, it's very hard to make further progress in cultivation."

"If you want to continue advancing, breaking through this world's restrictions of the Heavenly Dao, you can only rely on other methods."

"Dual Cultivation is indeed a good option, besides, since I'm only your male consort, Dual Cultivating with me not only brings joy, but it might also enhance your cultivation, you won't lose out, so why not do it."

Upon hearing this, Xiyue Immortal Emperor suddenly recalled some things from her inherited memories. It seemed she truly needed to rely on her destined one to improve her cultivation in the future, but nowhere in her inherited memories did it mention how to use her destined one to improve cultivation, perhaps Dual Cultivation is indeed necessary.

However...

Thinking about being toyed with in all sorts of ways by this dog of a person made her extremely annoyed.

No matter what, she's an Immortal Emperor; how could she allow this despicable person to oppress her?

Seeing Xiyue Immortal Emperor silent, seemingly pondering something, Lu Chen instantly sensed an opportunity, thus he continued to entice her further by saying, "If you find me too forward, you could take the initiative, this way you won't feel I'm taking advantage of you."

"Immortal Emperors have endless lifespans, and your cultivation won't increase anymore, you likely won't cultivate frequently in the future, this long life, don't you plan to find some enjoyment for yourself? Otherwise, how will you endure the future years?"

To ordinary Immortals, billions of years aren't considered long, because Immortals typically go into secluded cultivation; once they enter the cultivation state, they tend to forget the passage of time, so tens of thousands of years, billions of years could pass like the blink of an eye.

It's similar to mortals waking from a night's sleep.

But Xiyue Immortal Emperor is an Immortal Emperor now, and in the future, she virtually wouldn't enter long-term secluded cultivation anymore, since cultivation rarely increases her power further.

In this situation, a long lifespan would instead make her feel quite bored.

Listening to Lu Chen's words, Xiyue Immortal Emperor felt it made some sense.

To be frank, she had been lying on the couch lately, already feeling immensely bored.

She had just broken through not too many years ago, and already felt bored; given the lifespan of an Immortal Emperor, reaching fifty billion years seems rather feasible, wouldn't she feel even more bored in the future then?

At this thought, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's red eyes swept towards Lu Chen, seeing his eager face, her delicate nose subtly wrinkled; it was evident this guy had ulterior motives in telling her such things.

Simply put, this dog of a person just wants to sleep with her.

This despicable person, just fixated on her body, willingly being a male consort for it, truly shameless!

Having children earns benefit, start competing for dominance in the world by marrying a wife

Even though she despised Lu Chen in her heart, cursing him as a bastard, Xiyue Immortal Emperor had reluctantly accepted the words Lu Chen said.

She thought to herself that as long as she took the lead, she wouldn't suffer any losses. She and Lu Chen had practiced Dual Cultivation for years, so she knew the feeling.

She was bored these days, unable to muster any spirit, so passing the time with Dual Cultivation wasn't out of the question.

Thinking of this, the aura around Xiyue Immortal Emperor suddenly surged, shaking off Lu Chen's pig hoof gripping her tail.

At that moment, Xiyue Immortal Emperor suddenly thought of something interesting.

Four of her tails instantly extended, wrapping around Lu Chen's body and lifting him into the air.

Lu Chen was dumbfounded, thinking she was completely enraged and would throw him out.

But Xiyue Immortal Emperor did not throw him away. Her tails wrapped around his arms, lifting him into the air, followed by two more tails spreading his legs, posing him in a "big" shape mid-air.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor reclined on a soft couch, raised her jade hand, and a thread of immortal power emanated from her fingertips, causing Lu Chen's clothes to dissolve into light spots and disappear.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor's tail directly contacted Lu Chen's body, the fluffy tail gently sliding on his skin, making Lu Chen feel utterly comfortable.

Lu Chen was puzzled by Xiyue Immortal Emperor's actions and asked, "What are you doing?"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor lifted the hem of her fur skirt, raised her slender jade leg slightly, and asked seductively, "Do you want it?"

Seeing her slender jade legs, her delicate feet, and skin like congealed fat, Lu Chen's desire surged instantly.

Seeing Lu Chen heated by her teasing, Xiyue Immortal Emperor continued to seduce, "Call me Master, perhaps I can fulfill your nasty desires."

Lu Chen snapped back to reality.

He had always been the one to be called Master, never calling others Master; Xiyue Immortal Emperor truly flipped norms.

Lu Chen pursed his lips, face flushed red, refusing to speak.

Seeing Lu Chen remained silent, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's brows furrowed slightly, her eyes scanned Lu Chen, then they lit up, as if she saw something amusing.

In the next instant, another of her tails lengthened, came before Lu Chen, and started to tease him.

Seeing Xiyue Immortal Emperor's tail misbehaving, Lu Chen was stunned. The next moment, the fluffy tail stirred his inner desires to grow uncontrollably.

...

Mysterious Moon Palace.

Heavenly Language Peak.

Noticing Lu Chen suddenly becoming aggressive, with veins bulging on his face, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable immediately sensed something amiss.

However, she wasn't too concerned as she had completely submitted now. Just then, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's voice transmission arrived suddenly, "Come to Yun Meng Hall to discuss matters immediately."

Upon hearing Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's transmission, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable paused, and just then, Lu Chen supported her body, as if intending for her to change position. Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable immediately extended her jade hand to guard Lu Chen's chest.

Lu Chen puzzled, asked, "What's wrong?"

Previously, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable allowed him to handle her freely, seldom stopping him. Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable said, "Palace Master calls us together."

Upon hearing this, Lu Chen understood and did not make things difficult for Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable.

Lu Chen then parted from Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable. She leapt up, spun in the air, and the next moment, a purple immortal robe wrapped her body, her disheveled hair elegantly draping over her waist.

After landing, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable glanced complexly at Lu Chen, feeling an inexplicable emptiness inside her at the moment.

She couldn't help but slightly clench her jade fist; this wretched thing was such a troublemaker, it practically disrupted her Dao Heart.

In the next moment, she directly used Space Teleportation to Yun Meng Hall.

She worried if she stayed with Lu Chen longer, she wouldn't be able to control herself.

When Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable arrived at Yun Meng Hall, the Peak Masters from other peaks in Mysterious Moon Palace had essentially gathered.

At this time, a curious Immortal Venerate asked, "Palace Master, why call for us now? Is there anything of importance?"

"Is it due to the abyss in Southern Domain?"

None present, except Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable, were oblivious to the abyss in Southern Domain; Mysterious Moon Palace specifically dispatched people for investigation.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng didn't speak, raised a hand, formed a triple-layer Isolation Array in Yun Meng Hall, and then spoke sternly, "It's not about the Southern Domain. This assembly is because a formidable enemy has infiltrated Mysterious Moon Palace."

Upon hearing Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's words, the Immortal Venerates exchanged glances.

A formidable enemy infiltrated Mysterious Moon Palace?

An enemy called formidable by Immortal Venerable Yun Meng shouldn't be an ordinary Immortal Venerate. If an Immortal Venerate breached Mysterious Moon Palace, the palace's Formation would heavily damage them without needing their intervention.

If it's not an Immortal Venerate, it's an Immortal Emperor, but Tianyan Immortal Domain currently only has two Immortal Emperors. If they wanted to attack Mysterious Moon Palace, they wouldn't need to infiltrate.

Before their ancestors lived a second life, Mysterious Moon Palace couldn't rival an Immortal Emperor. If an Immortal Emperor intended anything against Mysterious Moon Palace, there's no need for stealth.

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable asked, "Palace Master, do you know who the enemy is? Is it Demon Emperor or Xiyue Immortal Emperor?"

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable knew Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's dream foresight could predict the future. Since she mentioned a formidable enemy had infiltrated Mysterious Moon Palace, it probably indicated a Great Power had entered stealthily.

Now it's about identifying the enemy. If it's Demon Emperor, all their combined forces might be inadequate; the past Northern Domain's numerous Immortal Venerates failed to defeat Demon Emperor.

Back then, Demon Emperor hadn't recovered his Cultivation State yet. Now he's recovered, destroying Mysterious Moon Palace would be effortless.

If Xiyue Immortal Emperor came to Mysterious Moon Palace, maybe Lu Chen's presence might deter her from causing trouble; yet Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable recalled Lu Chen's conversations with her.

Upon hearing Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's inquiry, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng gravely responded, "Neither Demon Emperor nor Xiyue Immortal Emperor."

This...

Upon hearing Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's reply, those present froze. Neither Demon Emperor nor Xiyue Immortal Emperor, yet adjudged formidable by her - implying a fourth Immortal Emperor exists in this world?

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng continued, "During this period, you should've felt Mysterious Moon Palace's Qi Fortune decline sharply. I've been releasing investigations about this. After my probe, the sharp decline coincided precisely with Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's return."

Upon hearing her words, they then realized Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate was absent, indicating Immortal Venerable Yun Meng didn't inform Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng proceeded, "Sensing the decline likely linked to him, I tested him, asked questions, and although outwardly flawless, his response betrayed him, chiefly, his blood aura was extraordinarily dense."

"He thought he camouflaged well, but I perceived his Divine Soul incomplete."

Capítulo 2014: Chapter 1704: They're Really Going to Make a Move Against Him!

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's perception of the Divine Soul is extremely keen; hiding one's identity before her is not an easy task.

Moreover, she is very familiar with the character of Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate, who is known for being quite flamboyant, yet upon his return, it seemed as though he had become a completely different person.

Especially when speaking with her, she could clearly feel Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate being exceedingly cautious.

Additionally, on the day Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate returned, the Qi Fortune of Mysterious Moon Palace plummeted sharply, leading Immortal Venerable Yun Meng to basically confirm that this returned Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate was not the real one.

It's likely that the real Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate has already perished.

She originally planned to check if the Soul Lamp of Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate was still lit, only to be informed by the soul lamp guardian that Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate took his Soul Lamp with him when heading to the Southern Domain.

For someone to deliberately take away their Soul Lamp often indicates that they are planning something secretive, fearing their location might be deduced through the Soul Lamp.

Everyone has their own secrets; Immortal Venerable Yun Meng didn't mind someone taking away their own Soul Lamp, but doing so left her without the means to determine if Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate had already perished.

No matter whether Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate is still alive, the current Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate in Mysterious Moon Palace is a fake.

Considering how the intruder's presence drastically diminished Mysterious Moon Palace's fortune, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng judged that his power might far exceed that of any Immortal Venerate, nearing an Immortal Emperor Realm, or perhaps he himself is one of those Immortal Emperors who had once sealed themselves.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng is not a fool; their ancestor, Immortal Emperor Youlan, enhanced longevity through self-sealing, and other Immortal Emperors can similarly extend their lifespans.

Since the emergence of Tianyan Immortal Domain, countless Immortal Emperors have been born, especially during its inception when Tianyan Immortal Domain had extremely abundant Qi Fortune, Immortal Emperors abundantly present, among whom some were definitely afraid of death.

At this time, an Immortal Venerate spoke, “Palace Master, since you have confirmed that this Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate is fake, then let’s make our move.”

“If his power is genuinely strong, it’s impossible for him to disguise as Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate without undertaking a blatant intrusion into Mysterious Moon Palace.”

“Moreover, for him to have returned for so long without making any moves indicates that he still fears Mysterious Moon Palace.”

Upon hearing this Immortal Venerate’s analysis, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng fell into silence; initially, she had thought the same, but when considering the abrupt plunge in Mysterious Moon Palace’s Qi Fortune, she dared not underestimate Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate.

What if the opponent is indeed very powerful?

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate then spoke, “He hasn’t acted yet, possibly because he’s aware of an Immortal Emperor in Mysterious Moon Palace and is unsure about our ancestor’s current state, hence dares not act impulsively.”

Upon hearing Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate’s speculation, the Immortal Venerates found it plausible; if so, then they instead must remain cautious.

If the opponent fears their ancestor while they recklessly initiate, and if their ancestor doesn’t intervene, then the opponent would likely deduce their ancestor’s ill condition, whereupon the opponent would surely strike full force.

Momentarily, the hall fell into a hush.

Should they consistently ignore this infiltrator’s presence?

If the infiltrator aims for their ancestor, and left unchecked, he will eventually ascertain their ancestor’s condition, potentially sabotaging their ancestor’s plan to live a second life.

After a long time, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng finally spoke, “We cannot let this be.”

“The ancestor is at a critical moment now; if disrupted, it would ruin the ancestor’s plan, and Mysterious Moon Palace would be finished.”

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng ultimately decided to make a move; though confronting the intruder might lead him to suspect Immortal Emperor Youlan’s situation being unfavorable.

Nonetheless, given the opponent’s disguise as Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate and infiltration of Mysterious Moon Palace, it likely signifies that the opponent conducted a Soul Search on Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate, having grasped some details about Mysterious Moon Palace.

After conducting a Soul Search on Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate, the opponent still chose infiltration rather than overt force, thus indicating his power may not be as formidable as she initially thought.

Perhaps the opponent is merely a Clone sent to scout, so the power is inherently weak; hence, the Clone must not be allowed extended presence, risking further exposure to Immortal Emperor Youlan’s condition.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng scanned the Peak Masters present, her gaze landing on Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate, “Let’s make a move now, Heavenly Language Peak Master, go seek Lu Chen’s help.”

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng believed that after Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate and Lu Chen's warm encounters over the years, Lu Chen would not refuse Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate's small request.

With Lu Chen's Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array, even if they're no match for the opponent, they could attempt using this Formation to seal the adversary.

Upon hearing Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's words, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate uttered "Fine" and promptly vanished on the spot.

At the same time.

Sky Eagle Peak.

Blood Ancestor sat on the Immortal Throne, his Divine Sense constantly monitoring Yun Meng Hall.

Seeing numerous Peak Masters heading to Yun Meng Hall indicated Immortal Venerable Yun Meng definitely sought them, and seeing she excluded him and queried him about Southern Domain recently confirmed Immortal Venerable Yun Meng suspected he wasn't truly Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate.

Despite guessing upcoming actions by Mysterious Moon Palace against him, Blood Ancestor remained unfazed, wishing to seize the opportunity to see whether Immortal Emperor Youlan would intervene.

If danger arises within Mysterious Moon Palace while Immortal Emperor Youlan abstains from action, then Immortal Emperor Youlan might truly be failing.

Just at this juncture, numerous silhouettes ascended into the skies of Sky Eagle Peak, at which moment, Peak Masters collectively acted, enclosing entire Sky Eagle Peak within a colossal golden Barrier.

Sensing the aura of the Immortal Venerates, Blood Ancestor's lips curled subtly.

Indeed, they intended to strike!

Meanwhile, at Heavenly Language Peak.

Lu Chen still lay upon his bed, awaiting Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate's return, clothes discarded, envisioning what would continue upon her return.

He assumed no significant happenings were in store for Mysterious Moon Palace recently.

Just then, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate instantly teleported into the room, as Lu Chen intended to inquire about her trip to Yun Meng Hall, suddenly Mysterious Moon Palace began to quake dramatically.

Immediately following, powerful presences recklessly rampaged across Mysterious Moon Palace.

Lu Chen paused briefly, preparing words, when Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate succinctly prompted, "Get dressed, follow me!"

Regardless of Lu Chen's willingness, having benefited from intimate years, he must contribute somewhat.

Realizing something significant had transpired within Mysterious Moon Palace, Lu Chen refrained from delay, rising directly, gesturing a hand, summoning gold-edged white raiment upon himself.

Next moment, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerate accompanied Lu Chen into the skies above Mysterious Moon Palace.

Lu Chen had just been brought to the high skies of the Mysterious Moon Palace by Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable when he saw various magic techniques and treasures flying all over the nearby skies.

Seeing Immortal Venerable Yun Meng leading the Immortal Venerates of Mysterious Moon Palace to besiege Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate, Lu Chen was a bit confused. He puzzledly asked Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable beside him, "What are you doing? If I'm not mistaken, that Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate is a Peak Master of your Mysterious Moon Palace, isn't he?"

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable said, "He is not the real Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate."

Lu Chen snapped back to reality and immediately used the system to identify Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's identity.

[Name: Blood Ancestor (Clone)]

[Strength: Immortal Emperor (Pseudo)]

[Loyalty: $-\infty$]

Seeing the information on Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate, Lu Chen's lips twitched slightly.

He didn't expect Blood Ancestor to run out from Blood Eagle Hall and even come to Mysterious Moon Palace.

What surprised Lu Chen the most.

Was the immense resentment Blood Ancestor held against him.

$-\infty$ Loyalty meant that the opponent hated him to the core, probably dreaming of killing him.

Fortunately, his clone hadn't reached the real Immortal Emperor Realm, only a pseudo Immortal Emperor.

But speaking of that, even his clone had already reached the pseudo Immortal Emperor Realm, which meant his main body in Blood Eagle Hall had probably achieved Immortal Emperor strength.

And this Blood Ancestor hated him to the bone; sooner or later, they would clash, which was quite a headache.

Lu Chen suddenly felt immense pressure.

He was only at the Immortal King cultivation state now, while the Blood Ancestor's clone had already close to Immortal Emperor cultivation state. If Blood Ancestor's main body went to the Daqin Immortal Dynasty, Daqin Immortal Dynasty might be wiped out with a single palm strike.

While Lu Chen was lost in thought, blood aura surged around Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate's body, and the next moment, the sky of Mysterious Moon Palace turned red.

Immortal Venerable Yun Meng didn't intend to fight Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate one-on-one; she flew to the high skies, her body radiating colorful light.

Then, a crisp, clear voice echoed in the high skies, "Life is like a dream!!!"

As Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's voice fell, Blood Ancestor was dazed in the air, eyes dim, as if his divine soul had dissipated.

Life is like a dream can forcibly drag people into a dream, thus achieving control over them.

In fact, Life is like a dream can also be used to kill. As long as Immortal Venerable Yun Meng's divine soul is strong enough, she can kill Blood Ancestor in the dream realm.

Of course, her divine soul was evidently not stronger than Blood Ancestor, so Immortal Venerable Yun Meng did not follow Blood Ancestor into the realm of dreams.

The other Immortal Venerates of the Mysterious Moon Palace saw Blood Ancestor temporarily controlled and immediately surrounded him, following Immortal Venerable Yun Meng to activate the Mysterious Moon Palace's Killing Array.

In an instant, countless giant swords appeared above the Mysterious Moon Palace. After locking onto Blood Ancestor, they all stabbed towards him.

After the swords pierced Blood Ancestor's body, Blood Ancestor hadn't yet awakened, but the swords didn't seem to inflict much damage.

The swords passed through Blood Ancestor's body without even leaving a wound, witnessing this, all the Immortal Venerates had expressions that turned extremely solemn.

This person actually withstands the Mysterious Moon Palace's Killing Array?

If it were any ordinary Immortal Venerate, even if not dead, they would likely be severely injured, but he didn't seem to be affected at all.

Know that the Mysterious Moon Palace's Killing Array is also a Holy Tier Array.

At this moment, Blood Ancestor's eyes regained clarity, he glanced at the Immortal Venerates present, and finally, his gaze settled on Immortal Venerable Yun Meng. He sneered, "You have some skill to drag me into the realm of dreams, but you cannot kill me."

As he finished speaking, Blood Ancestor no longer hid his form. In an instant, countless blood aura surged from his body, followed by his appearance changing into someone else's.

As the blood aura gradually dissipated, a middle-aged man with blood-red hair appeared in the high skies.

At this moment, Blood Ancestor seemed to sense something. He suddenly turned his head and looked in Lu Chen's direction.

Lu Chen and Blood Ancestor's gazes met.

Seeing Lu Chen, Blood Ancestor couldn't help but clench his fist, the blood aura around him surged.

In the next moment, Blood Ancestor shouted, "Netherworld Heart Devouring Skill!!!"

As he finished speaking, a red light flew from Blood Ancestor's fingertip, rushing straight towards Lu Chen.

Having seen Lu Chen, whether this was Lu Chen's main body or clone, it needed to be dealt with.

If it were Lu Chen, his power hadn't yet recovered, it was just the right time to eliminate Lu Chen. If this was just Lu Chen's clone, he could still use the Netherworld Heart Devouring Skill to attack Lu Chen's divine soul. Even if it couldn't kill Lu Chen, it could severely injure him.

Seeing the red evil light about to rush to Lu Chen, Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable quickly blocked in front of Lu Chen, swinging a sword, the fierce sword qi swept towards the evil light, but her sword failed to destroy it.

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable swiftly took Lu Chen for space teleportation, instantly moving elsewhere, but as Lu Chen's body appeared again, the evil light seemed to lock onto Lu Chen, changing direction and rushing towards Lu Chen again.

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable had to continually take Lu Chen for space teleportation.

Seeing Lu Chen dodging, Blood Ancestor snorted coldly and, in the next moment, released profound pressure from his body. Then people saw numerous golden chains appearing in the sky.

When Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable attempted another space teleportation, she realized the space was locked and her speed restricted.

Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable hurriedly transmitted to Immortal Venerable Yun Meng, "Palace Master, we must prevent him from harming Lu Chen; if something were to happen to Lu Chen, we would truly have no way to deal with him."

Not even the Mysterious Moon Palace's Killing Array could kill this person, and the opponent's released pressure is already extremely close to that of an Immortal Emperor. If something happened to Lu Chen, without anyone constructing the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array, they would likely have no means to handle this person.

Upon hearing Heavenly Language Immortal Venerable's transmission, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng immediately had the other Immortal Venerates go to Lu Chen's side to protect him, helping Lu Chen withstand the Netherworld Heart Devouring Skill, preventing Lu Chen from being harmed. At the same time, Immortal Venerable Yun Meng once again used Life is like a dream on Blood Ancestor to hold him off.

Maybe because she had hit him with this once before, the second time Immortal Venerable Yun Meng used Life is like a dream, it didn't pull Blood Ancestor into the dream realm for long, only a brief moment before he regained consciousness.

After waking, Blood Ancestor sneered, "This magic is somewhat interesting. I'm afraid the complete version of this magic also comes from the Spirit Realm, but the caster's power is too weak."

Blood Ancestor himself comes from the Spirit Realm, and his divine soul is extremely powerful. A magic that can influence his divine soul and pull his consciousness into a dream realm is definitely not ordinary.

Blood Ancestor now suspected that there was another person from Outer Heaven behind the Mysterious Moon Palace, or the Mysterious Moon Palace might have been established by someone from Outer Heaven.

But it wasn't the time to be concerned about this now. He only wished to quickly eliminate that distant Lu Chen; Lu Chen's existence made him uneasy.

Even though the Cloud Dream Immortal's "Life is Like a Dream" had minimal influence on the Blood Ancestor, he still experienced a moment of distraction, creating an opportunity for other Immortals to approach Lu Chen.

At this moment, several Peak Masters from the Mysterious Moon Palace stood before Lu Chen, and all the Immortals simultaneously released their Law Manifestations, jointly assisting Lu Chen in repelling the evil light pursuing him.

With several Immortals working together, the evil light could no longer withstand their magical bombardments, exploding in an instant. Ripples of light emanated from the explosion, and the red waves sweeping over people caused immediate pain to their souls.

The aftermath of the blasted evil light could already injure the souls of the Immortals; if this evil light had directly struck Lu Chen, the consequences would have been unimaginable. Lu Chen's divine soul might have instantly been annihilated.

Seeing that the Immortals from the Mysterious Moon Palace dared to shield Lu Chen from his magic, the Blood Ancestor coldly snorted, "A group of ants dares to hinder me!"

Immediately, the Blood Ancestor released an even more terrifying aura, causing the space above the Mysterious Moon Palace to twist under its influence.

Soon, the entire blood-red sky grew increasingly dark and gloomy, and a dark red cloud cluster appeared, emitting a piercing sound.

The Blood Ancestor cast a cold glance at the Immortals present and then said in a frosty tone, "Ten Thousand Souls Purgatory!!!"

In the next moment, countless Yin Souls flew from the dark red clouds, each possessing power nearly equivalent to that of the Immortals.

Yet the true horror was not these Yin Souls; at that moment, the Immortals present felt their divine souls seemingly affected, their perception dulled, and their control over their bodies weakened as if a force was siphoning their divine souls.

The Cloud Dream Immortal realized instantly—this was the enemy's domain. He quickly transmitted to Lu Chen, "Lu Chen, quickly engrave the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array!"

Now their only hope rested on Lu Chen's Holy Rank Sealing Array.

Upon receiving the transmission from the Cloud Dream Immortal, Lu Chen immediately raised his hand, and in a matter of moments, he completed the engraving of the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array.

Now that his divine soul had grown stronger, the engraving of the array patterns for the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array became quite easy, almost completed in the blink of an eye.

At the moment the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array was completed, people felt a terrifying power emanating from the array patterns.

The Cloud Dream Immortal then addressed the Immortals present, "Help Lu Chen with the Array Formation!!!"

As soon as the words left her mouth, the Immortals channeled their immortal power to Lu Chen, aiding him in stabilizing the newly formed Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array.

Sensing the power emitted by the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array, the Blood Ancestor's expression changed dramatically. He could sense that this formation posed a significant threat to him.

The Blood Ancestor accelerated the activation of the Ten Thousand Souls Purgatory, attempting to stop Lu Chen's array formation.

But the formation was already completed; Lu Chen accelerated the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array and locked onto the Blood Ancestor. In the next moment, the Blood Ancestor felt as if all his power was sealed, and the connection to his divine sense started becoming extremely unstable, weakening his control over this clone.

Lu Chen continued to activate the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array, intending to suppress the Blood Ancestor completely.

As the array patterns of the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array fell continuously, the spectral phenomena of the Ten Thousand Souls Purgatory began to dissipate, and the blood energy rapidly returned to the Blood Ancestor's body.

The Blood Ancestor wanted to make a fatal struggle; the Cloud Dream Immortal, noticing something amiss, quickly said to the Immortals present, "Use all your strength!!!"

Upon hearing this, the Immortals stopped holding back and frantically poured their immortal power into Lu Chen.

Lu Chen shouted loudly, "Array, rise!!!"

Seeing his powers relentlessly compressed by the array's pressure, the Blood Ancestor knew he couldn't withstand this Great Array and could only helplessly roar, "Lu Chen!!!"

The voice of the Blood Ancestor echoed in the sky above the Mysterious Moon Palace as the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array successfully suppressed the Blood Ancestor completely, swiftly compressing the array patterns into a point, forming a Sealing Crystal.

Feeling the complete disappearance of the Blood Ancestor's aura, the Immortals of the Mysterious Moon Palace relaxed.

At this time, the Cloud Dream Immortal turned with a complex expression to look at Lu Chen. Without Lu Chen's Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array, the Mysterious Moon Palace might have been severely damaged today.

Even if the Mysterious Moon Palace had emerged victorious over that person, they would have paid a heavy price.

However, thinking back, she felt that the individual himself seemed to be targeting Lu Chen. Upon seeing Lu Chen, he attacked without hesitation and even loudly called out Lu Chen's name before being sealed—everything pointed to him acting against Lu Chen.

Lu Chen seemed to sense the Cloud Dream Immortal's gaze; he also turned toward the Cloud Dream Immortal's direction, meeting her eyes. Lu Chen displayed a faint smile and then said, "Palace Master, you haven't lost anything in our exchange, right?"

The Cloud Dream Immortal coldly replied, "I feel like that person came for you, and our Mysterious Moon Palace simply suffered undeservingly."

Lu Chen said, "How could he have come for me? He merely knew me."

The Cloud Dream Immortal continued, "Then why did he attack you?"

Lu Chen said, "He knew I could engrave the array patterns for the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array. Fearing being sealed, he naturally attempted to kill me first."

The Cloud Dream Immortal fell into contemplation, considering that Lu Chen's words made sense.

Just then, Lu Chen reminded, "I'll give you a free piece of intel: the person just now was only a clone, and his main body currently resides in the Southern Domain."

This statement made the Immortals of the Mysterious Moon Palace freeze. A clone with Cultivation State close to the Immortal Emperor—wouldn't his main body be even stronger, potentially a real Immortal Emperor?

The Cloud Dream Immortal wasn't overly surprised by Lu Chen's words; she had sensed the incompleteness of the Blood Ancestor's divine soul, suspecting it might be a clone at the time.

The Cloud Dream Immortal asked, "Do you know who that person is?"

Lu Chen did not hide anything and directly replied, "He is the master behind the Blood Eagle Hall; the Evil Immortals of the Blood Eagle Hall call him Blood Ancestor."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's words, the Immortals present exchanged glances.

Blood Ancestor?

The history of the Tianyan Immortal Domain seems never to have recorded an Immortal Emperor named Blood Ancestor?

Lu Chen continued, "I only know his name; regarding other matters about him, like why he came to the Mysterious Moon Palace, I'm clueless."

"Perhaps there is some treasure in your Mysterious Moon Palace that attracted him."

The Cloud Dream Immortal suddenly thought of Immortal Emperor Youlan—could it be that this Blood Ancestor learned about the existence of Immortal Emperor Youlan after soul searching Sky Eagle Immortal Venerate, thus coming to the Mysterious Moon Palace to prevent Immortal Emperor Youlan from living a second life?

If that's the case, he failed this time; he might still come again next time, possibly with his main body involved.

Considering this possibility, the Cloud Dream Immortal felt an immense sense of crisis.

Capítulo 2017: Chapter 1707: What Were You Just Doing?

Eastern Domain, Tianxi Palace.

In the ancient and elegant bedchamber, Xiyue Immortal Emperor looked at her wet tail with disdain.

Then she said to Lu Chen with disgust: “Really can’t take a tease, such a disgusting dog!”

She originally wanted to tease Lu Chen, but unexpectedly, he couldn’t take it at all.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor quickly used her immortal power to cleanse her tail, and instantly it was radiant again, with the fur becoming fluffy.

Just when Xiyue Immortal Emperor was prepared to continue humiliating Lu Chen, she noticed he seemed motionless.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor raised an eyebrow; this won't do!

She knew Lu Chen could shift his focus, transferring his consciousness to his other bodies to resist her temptations.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor couldn't help but think, could this dog man be controlling another body to find another woman?

This she could not tolerate.

Though he was a dog, now that he had become her destined one, he could only be her dog.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor then coldly warned: "If you don't come back to your senses, I'll castrate you!"

Upon hearing Xiyue Immortal Emperor's voice, Lu Chen instantly snapped back to reality; he had been focusing on sealing a clone of the Blood Ancestor, thus his focus wasn't quite concentrated.

After all, it was one Divine Soul controlling all bodies, and no matter how strong, clones occasionally lost focus.

After coming to his senses, Lu Chen gazed at Xiyue Immortal Emperor; on that enchanting and charming face appeared a hint of anger and dissatisfaction, and Lu Chen smiled asking: “Why is my lady angry?”

Xiyue Immortal Emperor coldly said: “Stop being cheeky with me.”

“What were you doing just now?”

Xiyue Immortal Emperor’s tone was assertive, the pressure of an Immortal Emperor faintly released, and her tail tightly entwined Lu Chen, as if he’d face dire repercussions without honest answers.

Feeling the increasingly tight grip of Xiyue Immortal Emperor’s tail, Lu Chen inhaled sharply; the tail was simply fluffy and incredibly warm.

Without concealment, Lu Chen frankly replied: “I was just helping Mysterious Moon Palace seal a clone of an Outer Heaven entity.”

“Hmm?” Hearing this, Xiyue Immortal Emperor was slightly puzzled.

Outer Heaven entity?

Her anger instantly dispersed, replaced by curiosity, “Are there other Outer Heaven entities in this world?”

Lu Chen said: “There are, and I estimate not just one, but most should be in a sealed state.”

Xiyue Immortal Emperor fell into silence, concern shading her delicate face; she thought becoming an Immortal Emperor meant as long as she didn’t provoke the Demon Emperor, no one in the Tianyan Immortal Domain could threaten her.

Unexpectedly, there were Outer Heaven entities in Tianyan Immortal Domain, capable of easily breaking Heavenly Dao constraints, possessing cultivation state and strength exceeding Immortal Emperors.

This gave Xiyue Immortal Emperor a strong sense of crisis, and once again she intensely desired to elevate her cultivation state.

Evoking thoughts of enhancing her cultivation, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's beautiful eyes scanned Lu Chen; to progress further, she could only rely on her destined one.

Yet recalling what this dog did to her, a slight repulsion surfaced in her heart.

Seeing Xiyue Immortal Emperor silent, watching his body intently, Lu Chen laughed and asked: "What? Has my lady come up with a plan?"

Hearing this, Xiyue Immortal Emperor's expression instantly turned icy; though she indeed had plans, having them directly pointed out by Lu Chen left her feeling irked, firmly sensing she was completely figured out by Lu Chen.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor coldly stated: "As my servant, your thoughts should focus on me, not scattering flowers everywhere outside."

Saying this, Xiyue Immortal Emperor directly entangled Lu Chen with her tail to herself.

Though she had some emotions toward Lu Chen, she planned to try dual cultivation with him, to see if dual cultivation with her destined one could break Realm constraints.

In any case, she was already depleted by this dog and even carried his child, compromising once more wasn't unreasonable.

After twisting Lu Chen to her, Xiyue Immortal Emperor gently retracted her tail, slowly withdrawing the Emperor's mighty aura.

This dog desiring for her to initiate, impossible! He's the one to serve her, she initiating meant she was serving him.

Let an Immortal Emperor serve him? Bold thought!

As Xiyue Immortal Emperor released Lu Chen from her tail, just as she was about to speak, Lu Chen suddenly lunged forward, pressing her beneath him.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor hadn't yet reacted; at this moment, staring at Lu Chen who appeared crimson, with eyes filled with desire for her.

Xiyue Immortal Emperor was startled by Lu Chen's sudden move, yet quickly recovered, glaring viciously at Lu Chen: "How dare you! I haven't allowed you... Mmm!"

Xiyue Immortal Emperor instantly felt raging anger, this dog was audacious beyond measure, daring action before she consented.

Despite dissatisfaction, Xiyue Immortal Emperor didn't shake him off; with her Immortal Emperor cultivation, stopping Lu Chen was effortlessly done.

Previously toyed by Xiyue Immortal Emperor's fox tail, Lu Chen had long reached limit, soon both entered a groove.

Seeing Lu Chen's impatient, fierce demeanor, Xiyue Immortal Emperor suddenly felt a sense of accomplishment.

This dog couldn't resist her allure; perhaps under her sway, he might completely compliantly bow to her dress, becoming her exclusive pet.

Blood Eagle Hall.

In the Small World, Blood Ancestor's eyes suddenly snapped open.

In an instant, furious anger surged forth, a vast blood aura erupting from the Small World, overwhelming pressure felt across the Southern Domain.

“Lu Chen!!! Lu Chen!!! Someday I shall personally slay you!!!”

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable preparing for war felt puzzlement upon sensing Blood Ancestor’s raging pressure, wondering what stirred such wrath.

Blood Demon Immortal Venerable hastily returned to the Small World before Blood Ancestor, “Greetings Blood Ancestor, what does Blood Ancestor command?”

Blood Demon Immortal Venerable nervously anxious within, fearing his recent expansion went poorly and enraged him.

Blood Ancestor momentarily suppressed inner fury, sun-like eyes fixated upon Blood Demon Immortal Venerable, who seemed akin to a mouse before him.

Blood Ancestor then asked: “How progresses the task I entrusted?”

Upon hearing this, Blood Demon Immortal Venerable hesitated slightly, then answered: “Currently Southern Domain factions exhibit wariness towards Blood Eagle Hall...”

Blood Demon Immortal Venerable halted, not finishing.

Originally Blood Eagle Hall’s expansion was very smooth, but since Tianxia Immortal Dynasty’s men were taken by Lu Chen, a deep Abyss appeared in Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, blocking Blood Eagle Hall’s expansion path.

Most crucially, this Abyss shifted Southern Domain factions’ attention here, some linking its emergence to Blood Eagle Hall, prompting vigilance against Blood Eagle Hall and Evil Immortals, complicating expansions further.

Previously factions ignored Blood Eagle Hall, considering its potential to weaken others, especially diminishing Heavenly Splendor Hall’s strength.

Now the Blood Eagle Hall not only failed to weaken the power of the Heavenly Splendor Hall, but also created such a massive abyss.

If this abyss appeared elsewhere, it would certainly be a huge threat to those forces.

Of course, all forces understand that relying solely on the power of the Blood Eagle Hall, it's challenging to create such a massive abyss.

However, this matter is likely inseparable from the Blood Eagle Hall since before the abyss appeared in the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, the Blood Eagle Hall had already begun invading, capturing more than half of its territory, so no force dares to gamble.

To prevent the Evil Immortals of Blood Eagle Hall from causing trouble, various forces in the Southern Domain have begun consciously targeting the Evil Immortals and Blood Eagle Hall.

Upon hearing the words of Blood Demon Immortal Venerable, the Blood Ancestor let out a cold snort, "What a useless bunch!"

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable immediately knelt on the ground, trembling. Just then, he thought of something and said, "Blood Ancestor, if you were to come forth, I'm sure all the forces in the Southern Domain would immediately ally with Blood Eagle Hall, willing to become its subordinate forces."

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable contemplated that their Blood Eagle Hall didn't need to struggle so hard to expand its power.

He recently heard that the Barbaric lands have also unified into a single force, reportedly led by someone with the strength of an Immortal Emperor. That person merely issued an announcement, and all forces in the Barbaric lands chose to submit.

Their Blood Ancestor should also have the cultivation state of an Immortal Emperor. If the Blood Ancestor personally steps forward to inform the forces in the Southern Domain they possess an Immortal Emperor, surely they would choose to become subordinate forces of Blood Eagle Hall,

Hearing this, the Blood Ancestor said coldly, "What use have I for so many subordinate forces?"

"I only wish to see rivers of blood in the Southern Domain!"

His true intention in expanding the Blood Eagle Hall is not to broaden power, but to bring total chaos to the Southern Domain, turning it into rivers of blood. Only with enough blood from immortals can he truly free himself from control.

Currently, his main body is still sealed. He desires to escape unless a significant change in the world occurs.

If a war erupts in the Southern Domain, plunging it into chaos, causing its Qi fortune to drastically decline, and with enough immortal blood spilled on the ground, the world would certainly change, allowing him to leverage this change to break through the seal.

Upon these words from the Blood Ancestor, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable quickly said, "What I mean is to first win over some forces and then incite them to attack others. In doing so, the Southern Domain could collapse into internal conflict."

The Blood Ancestor then said, "Since you know what to do, then go do it immediately. I want to see the Southern Domain littered with corpses, rivers of blood!"

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable hurriedly responded, "I wish to seek your aid, Blood Ancestor, to ensure success!"

If the Blood Ancestor does not intervene, the various forces in the Southern Domain certainly wouldn't submit to Blood Eagle Hall. However, the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable also understands that the Blood Ancestor seems to fear something, which is why he's been holding back.

But to complete the task given by the Blood Ancestor, he's willing to take the risk, depending on the Blood Ancestor's willingness.

Upon hearing the request of the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable, a hint of displeasure flashed on the giant visage of the Blood Ancestor. It wasn't that he didn't want to intervene.

If his main body acted, it might be subjected to suppression by the Heavenly Dao. When his clone acted at the Mysterious Moon Palace, he clearly felt the Heavenly Dao's constraints tighten on him.

Should he continue to act, there's no telling if the restrictions of the Heavenly Dao would increase to the point he might directly fall into slumber.

However, the Blood Ancestor reconsidered; if he could truly incite chaos in the Southern Domain, weakening its Qi fortune, the constraints of the Heavenly Dao on him would surely lessen significantly, making the risk worthwhile.

Thinking thus, the Blood Ancestor cast aside his hesitations and released the full pressure of his power.

When the forces throughout the Southern Domain felt the pressure from the Blood Ancestor, their faces turned pale instantly, especially the Immortal Venerates of each force. They sensed a turbulent aura within the pressure, indicating that the one releasing it might not be a benevolent being.

At this moment, a robust voice echoed throughout the Southern Domain, "From this day forth, the Southern Domain belongs to the Blood Eagle Hall! Those who defy shall perish!"

Upon hearing this, the faces of the elders and patriarchs of all forces changed dramatically.

The Blood Eagle Hall?

Isn't that the Immortal Sect established by Evil Immortals?

An Evil Immortal Sect produced an Immortal Emperor?

The Southern Domain is on the brink of a major upheaval!

The cultivation method of Evil Immortals assures that the Southern Domain is bound to witness torrents of blood.

In an instant, an atmosphere of panic spread throughout the Southern Domain.

Meanwhile, within the small world of the Blood Eagle Hall, just after the Blood Ancestor released his aura, golden chains suddenly appeared from thin air, directly binding his body, making him feel as if it was about to burst from the pressure of the golden chains.

Besides the Blood Ancestor, no one could see these chains. Enduring the pain, the Blood Ancestor said to the Blood Demon Immortal Venerable, "That's it for now. The rest is up to you; I need to sleep for a while!"

He had attracted the attention of the Heavenly Dao by recklessly releasing his pressure. The Heavenly Dao once again suppressed him.

If he continued acting recklessly, he might be erased outright by the Heavenly Dao of the Tianyan Immortal Domain. Although he didn't believe that the current Heavenly Dao of the Tianyan Immortal Domain could kill him, seriously injuring him was certainly not impossible.

The Blood Demon Immortal Venerable wished to speak further but fell silent upon seeing the Blood Ancestor close his eyes.

Having already experienced the pressure released by the Blood Ancestor, the forces throughout the Southern Domain now knew what to do.

Heavenly Splendor Hall.

Having felt the Blood Ancestor's pressure, all Immortal Venerates of the Heavenly Splendor Hall gathered in the Meeting Hall.

The atmosphere in the Meeting Hall was now somber and oppressive, not a single Immortal Venerate spoke a word.

The Immortal Venerates collectively gazed at the Taihua Immortal Venerable seated on the Immortal Throne.

Taihua Immortal Venerable wore a solemn expression, with a tinge of concern visible between his brows, lost in thought as though pondering something.

It was unclear how much time had passed before Taihua Immortal Venerable snapped back to reality. Glancing at the gathered Immortal Venerates, he said, "Let us hear your thoughts, everyone."

Presently, Taihua Immortal Venerable somewhat regretted becoming the Hall Master of the Heavenly Splendor Hall. Not long after he assumed the role, an Evil Immortal Emperor emerged in the Southern Domain.

How could such calamity fall upon him?

After Taihua Immortal Venerable's words fell, the present Immortal Venerates turned their bodies, looking at each other, remaining silent.

Confronting an Immortal Emperor, they had no chance of victory; it seemed they might only offer up the dominant position of the Heavenly Splendor Hall proactively.

However, if they did nothing and simply relinquished their dominant position, the continued existence of the Heavenly Splendor Hall would be uncertain.

For Blood Eagle Hall, the Heavenly Splendor Hall represented a significant threat. Blood Eagle Hall might dissolve it entirely, possibly even eliminating the people of the Heavenly Splendor Hall.

At this moment, one of the Immortal Venerates spoke up, "I wonder if Lu Chen's Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array could seal an Immortal Emperor..."

Capítulo 2019: Chapter 1709: Heavenly Splendor Hall's Plan

Upon hearing the words of Immortal Venerable Tianfeng, all the Immortal Venerates in the Meeting Hall turned their heads in unison to look at him.

They suddenly felt that this method might be worth trying.

Seeing everyone looking at him, Immortal Venerable Tianfeng continued, “Lu Chen’s Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array could seal even such eerie creatures from Outer Heaven, so there’s no reason it couldn’t seal an Immortal Emperor.”

“In this current situation, even if our Heavenly Splendor Hall chooses to submit to Blood Eagle Hall, Blood Eagle Hall might still see us as a threat. The best outcome is that they might demand us to disband Heavenly Splendor Hall, and the worst result would be extermination, complete annihilation of Heavenly Splendor Hall.”

“Instead of sitting and waiting for death, it’s better to fight. If we can seal that Evil Immortal Emperor, Heavenly Splendor Hall will remain the Overlord of the Southern Domain.”

Upon hearing these words, the Immortal Venerates present fell into contemplation. They were naturally aware that Blood Eagle Hall might annihilate Heavenly Splendor Hall, but their biggest concern was whether Lu Chen’s Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array could seal an Immortal Emperor.

After all, they had never done such a thing before, and one more thing is that Lu Chen might not cooperate with them.

Heavenly Splendor Hall had targeted Lu Chen before, even expelling him from the Tianyan Immortal Domain, forcing him to wander in the Chaotic Sea for over ten billion years.

It's impossible to say that Lu Chen holds no grudge against Heavenly Splendor Hall. Although they seem reconciled now, no one is foolish; how could such hatred be easily resolved?

If Lu Chen is unwilling to cooperate with them, they have no way to use the Chaos Spirit Ruins Sealing Heaven Array.

There is also a possibility that Lu Chen might agree on the surface, but when it's time to act, he suddenly changes his mind. By then, they'll have no way back.

Seeing none of the Immortal Venerates speaking, Immortal Venerable Tianfeng continued: "The biggest problem now is how to convince Lu Chen to stand by our side. As long as Lu Chen is willing to help us, we have a great chance of winning."

At this moment, an Immortal Venerate came to his senses and spoke, "Immortal Venerable Tianfeng, have you considered what will happen if we fail?"

Upon hearing this, Immortal Venerable Tianfeng chuckled, “Whether you raise or lower your head, it’s the same blade. Do you really think that as long as we’re willing to submit to Blood Eagle Hall, they will spare Heavenly Splendor Hall?”

The other Immortal Venerate continued: “If we choose to become Blood Eagle Hall’s subordinate force, even if Blood Eagle Hall sees Heavenly Splendor Hall as a threat, they should not wipe us out. If Blood Eagle Hall truly does this, it will inevitably cause panic among other forces. How would Blood Eagle Hall rule the Southern Domain then?”

In this Immortal Venerate’s view, even if Heavenly Splendor Hall chooses to submit and Blood Eagle Hall still exterminates them, other forces would definitely worry about their future upon seeing Blood Eagle Hall’s brutality. Once such thoughts arise, Blood Eagle Hall’s rule might lead to resistance from various forces.

The Beast Alliance in the Eastern Domain and Qingyun Academy have fought for countless ages, but after Xiyue Immortal Emperor’s breakthrough, she did not exterminate Qingyun Academy’s people, she merely dismantled Qingyun Academy.

Listening to the words of Immortal Venerable Tianfeng and the other Immortal Venerate, Taihua Immortal Venerable glanced at the Immortal Venerates present, then asked, “How many of you support taking a gamble?”

Upon hearing this question, the Immortal Venerates looked at each other. Immortal Venerable Tianfeng was the first to stand and say, “I support.”

As soon as Immortal Venerable Tianfeng finished speaking, another Immortal Venerate stood up and said, “I also support.”

Then several more Immortal Venerates stood up, supporting the idea to take a gamble.

If the opponent were not an Evil Immortal Emperor and simply asked them to submit, they might have directly agreed. But the opponent is an Evil Immortal, leaving them feeling uneasy, always worried that the other side might wipe them out.

Rather than waiting for the opponent to act, it's better if they strike first.

Of course, the most important thing is that they don't want to surrender their Overlord-level status of Heavenly Splendor Hall. If Heavenly Splendor Hall loses this status, its Qi Fortune will inevitably decline significantly.

Furthermore, since its inception, Heavenly Splendor Hall has suppressed various forces in the Southern Domain. As Heavenly Splendor Hall's Qi Fortune declines, even if Blood Eagle Hall does not target Heavenly Splendor Hall, other forces in the Southern Domain would cause trouble for them.

So, Heavenly Splendor Hall must maintain its Overlord-level status.

Seeing so many Immortal Venerates planning to take a gamble, Taihua Immortal Venerable fell into contemplation once again.

He is now very conflicted, both worried that they are no match for the Immortal Emperor and fearing that after submitting to Blood Eagle Hall, Heavenly Splendor Hall would disappear.

He had just managed to become the Hall Master of Heavenly Splendor Hall, and having to give up the entire Hall was naturally something he didn't want.

Noting Taihua Immortal Venerable's hesitation, Immortal Venerable Tianfeng spoke: "If unable to seal that Evil Immortal Emperor, we can leave the Southern Domain. Both the Eastern Domain and Northern Domain have Immortal Emperors; I don't believe that Evil Immortal Emperor would dare follow us there."

Hearing this, Taihua Immortal Venerable finally made up his mind, "Since you all choose to take a gamble, I'll go talk to Lu Chen to see if we can have him stand by our side."

The critical aspect now lies in whether Lu Chen is willing to help them. If unwilling, Heavenly Splendor Hall would be powerless.

All they know is Lu Chen's clone; they don't know where his main body is, nor can they threaten him—they can only use an exchange of benefits.

It's just unclear what Lu Chen wants.

...

Barbaric.

Great Qin Immortal Dynasty.

Lu Chen was in the Imperial Study Room, reviewing some governance details of the Great Qin Immortal Dynasty.

At present, the Great Qin Immortal Dynasty has ten Immortal Cities and approximately five hundred thousand Mortal Cities.

Ordinary cultivators and Immortals can fast without eating or drinking, relying only on Spiritual Energy or Immortal Aura to survive.

Even so, the Great Qin Immortal Dynasty faces significant pressure because the mortal population has reached tens of billions. Cultivators and Immortals can forgo food and drink, but mortals cannot; they must eat to survive.

Although Immortal Aura has revived in the Barbaric now, most places remain deserts and sand, unsuitable for grain cultivation. Ever since Lu Chen transported the populace from Tianxia Immortal Dynasty to the Great Qin Immortal Dynasty, famine has erupted in the mortal world of the Great Qin.

If this problem isn't resolved, the Qi Fortune of the Great Qin Immortal Dynasty will inevitably decline sharply.

This issue is actually easy for Immortals to solve by improving the land and using Immortal Techniques to irrigate crops.

Spiritual Energy and Immortal Aura count as a form of energy, enabling Immortals to live without eating or drinking, and they can convert it into the nutrients crops need.

In general, mortals in the cultivation realm live harshly due to Immortals not treating them as humans, indifferent to their life or death—hence their torment.

For Immortals, having enough ordinary food is a simple task.

After reading the documents on the table, Lu Chen immediately summoned Lu Zhengze and Xuanjian Immortal King, instructing them to establish a Ministry of Agriculture in the Mortal World to ensure the survival and supply of food for mortals in Great Qin.

Having Immortals provide mortals with food marks the first in Tianyan Immortal Domain's history, but since it's Lu Chen's order, the two didn't argue.

After handling food affairs, Lu Chen intended to let this body auto-pilot awhile. That bitch Xiyue Immortal Emperor is too enticing—even with his formidable Divine Soul, he found it hard to resist, planning to focus momentarily on Xiyue Immortal Emperor.

Yet at this juncture, a voice resounded from high above.

“Where is Immortal Emperor Qin?”

Capítulo 2020: Chapter 1710: Are You Sure Heavenly Splendor Hall Will Agree to Any Condition?

Upon hearing the sounds outside the palace, Lu Chen's figure flashed, and the next moment he appeared in the sky.

Lu Chen glanced at the visitor, who was merely an Immortal Monarch, wearing the core disciple uniform of the Hidden Moon Sect.

Lu Chen asked, "I wonder what matter the Upper Sect seeks with me?"

Nowadays, the Barbaric region was considered under the rule of the Hidden Moon Sect, and all forces within it were deemed as subsidiary, including the Daqin Immortal Dynasty. Hence, the Hidden Moon Sect was regarded as the Upper Sect of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty, at least on the surface.

The disciple of the Hidden Moon Sect looked at Lu Chen without any small talk, directly saying, "Three months later, go to the Hidden Moon Sect to discuss significant matters."

The Barbaric region was immense, and without a Transmission Array, even an Immortal King or Immortal Venerate would need a lot of time to traverse it entirely.

Therefore, when the Hidden Moon Sect summoned leaders from all sides in the Barbaric region, they would typically allow ample time, and naturally, three months would be sufficient for Lu Chen to reach them.

However, Lu Chen was curious about the purpose of this assembly by the Hidden Moon Sect this time.

With a smile on his face, Lu Chen tried to elicit information, “I wonder if the envoy can reveal what’s the reason for this assembly by the Upper Sect?”

The disciple of the Hidden Moon Sect replied indifferently, “I don’t know either. Once the Immortal Emperor Qin arrives at the Hidden Moon Sect, he will naturally know the matter.”

“The message has been delivered, I’ll take my leave.”

As his words fell, the disciple of the Hidden Moon Sect turned and flew away.

Watching the back of the Hidden Moon Sect disciple, Lu Chen fell into deep thought.

He was curious about what the Hidden Moon Sect intended to do next, but after pondering for a long time, he couldn’t figure out their purpose. So, he stopped thinking about it further, knowing he would find out once he arrived at the Hidden Moon Sect.

...

Southern Domain, White Rainbow Immortal City.

Lu Chen's clone was in the cultivation chamber, in seclusion and standby, when several powerful auras appeared outside his residence.

This interrupted Lu Chen's fervor, as his Divine Soul was ready to fully engage with the Xiyue Immortal Emperor. Yet, here came another group to seek him.

Although somewhat annoyed, he realized that given the presence of several Immortal Venerates, there was likely a significant matter at hand. Perhaps some strange creatures had breached the sealing at the Sunset Mountain Range, so Lu Chen opened his eyes and exited the cultivation chamber.

Upon arriving in the courtyard, discovering it was Taihua Immortal Venerable and a group of Immortal Venerates from the Heavenly Splendor Hall, Lu Chen furrowed his brows slightly.

He initially thought it was Immortal Venerates tasked with patrolling the Sunset Mountain Range, but unexpectedly it was people from the Heavenly Splendor Hall. Given that so many Immortal Venerates from the Heavenly Splendor Hall came looking for him, it likely wasn't a promising situation.

Lu Chen took the initiative to speak, "Taihua Hall Master, you've mobilized in such numbers to seek me out, I wonder what important matter it is?"

Taihua Immortal Venerable replied with a smile, "I heard that Blood Eagle Hall initially assaulted the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty, ultimately forcing you, Lu, to transmit all the citizens of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty elsewhere?"

At Taihua Immortal Venerable's mention of Blood Eagle Hall, Lu Chen immediately guessed the intentions of the Heavenly Splendor Hall, having felt the pressure exerted by the Blood Ancestor and heard the sound of his voice.

Currently, the situation for the Heavenly Splendor Hall was quite tense, given its Overlord-level Influence in the Southern Domain, they wouldn't easily relinquish its position.

Moreover, after surrendering to Blood Eagle Hall, it's likely Blood Eagle Hall still posed a threat to them, leading the Heavenly Splendor Hall to risk a desperate struggle.

However, an Immortal Venerate's strength couldn't match that of an Immortal Emperor, as even all the Immortal Venerates of the Heavenly Splendor Hall combined might not be opponents for the Blood Ancestor.

Unable to win, leaves just one option—to seal the Blood Ancestor.

The Heavenly Splendor Hall, with so many Immortal Venerates, might dare to gamble on sealing the Blood Ancestor.

Taihua Immortal Venerable continued, “The citizens of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty probably haven't found a suitable place yet. Why not let our Heavenly Splendor Hall allocate an area to help Lu settle the citizens of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.”

Upon hearing Taihua Immortal Venerable's words, Lu Chen showed a faint smile and said, “Taihua Hall Master, please get straight to what you want me to do. It won't trouble you at the Heavenly Splendor Hall with the citizens of the Tianxia Immortal Dynasty.”

Seeing Lu Chen say this, Taihua Immortal Venerable spoke directly, “Blood Eagle Hall is an Evil Immortal force. If allowed to dominate the Southern Domain, it's bound to bring calamity to the beings here. Now that Blood Eagle Hall has birthed an Immortal Emperor, it's indeed a major disaster for the Southern Domain.”

“For the sake of the Southern Domain, we plan to resist Blood Eagle Hall. Yet relying solely on the strength of our Immortal Venerates isn’t enough against an Immortal Emperor, hence seeking aid from Lu.”

“If successfully sealing the Evil Immortal Emperor, from now on, Lu will be the benefactor of the Heavenly Splendor Hall and the savior of the Southern Domain.”

“As long as Lu lends a hand, we’re willing to agree to any conditions required.”

Upon hearing Taihua Immortal Venerable offering conditions, Lu Chen pondered rather than respond immediately.

He held no favorable regard for the Heavenly Splendor Hall, especially when there’s still unresolved matters between them.

However, he held grudges against Blood Eagle Hall too, particularly when the Blood Ancestor was keen on his demise. Comparatively, Blood Eagle Hall posed the greatest threat to him.

Since learning about the Blood Ancestor, a thought lingered in his mind, why hasn’t the Blood Ancestor’s Main Body emerged? Perhaps the Blood Ancestor’s body was bound by some constraint, preventing him from coming forth, or he’s suffered serious injuries and has yet to recover, hence his continued concealment.

For someone who possessed the strength of an Immortal Emperor to hide in a Small World inside Blood Eagle Hall—it seemed rather unusual.

If indeed the Blood Ancestor's strength hadn't restored, or his main body remained sealed, then allying with the Heavenly Splendor Hall to seal the Blood Ancestor was the best choice.

Seeing that Lu Chen remained silent, there's great apprehension among the Immortal Venerates of the Heavenly Splendor Hall. Should Lu refuse, their last hope to counter the Immortal Emperor would dissipate.

Furthermore, having opted to resist Blood Eagle Hall, the Evil Immortal Emperor of the Blood Eagle Hall likely knew of their decision.

There's no airtight secrecy, particularly against an Immortal Emperor, and coupled with internal factions within the Heavenly Splendor Hall, chances are someone leaked the intention of hard confrontation with Blood Eagle Hall.

Thus, there's no retreat left for the Heavenly Splendor Hall; if Lu Chen had no intention of assisting them, ultimately they might only choose to leave the Southern Domain.

With a smile, Lu Chen asked, "Are you sure the Heavenly Splendor Hall is willing to agree to any condition?"

Upon hearing Lu Chen's query, the Immortal Venerates of the Heavenly Splendor Hall felt slightly relieved—Lu Chen raising conditions suggested potential interest.

Taihua Immortal Venerable said, "As long as it's within our capability, the Heavenly Splendor Hall will try its best to meet Lu's requirements."

After a brief thought, presently there seemed little he required from the Heavenly Splendor Hall, being disinterested in their Immortal Law or treasures.

However, the development of the Daqin Immortal Dynasty required abundant Immortal Crystals; Lu Chen said, "Then after the deed is done, the Heavenly Splendor Hall shall provide me with five Immortal Crystal Mine Veins and a hundred billion Immortal Crystals."
