

CEO's Lovely Wife Has Escaped by Anuo

Chapter 23: Noah's Hug

Mia was exhausted. She waved her hand to indicate that there was no need to thank her. Then, she turned around and wanted to leave. The secretary beside her saw that Mia was in a bad state and was afraid that something would happen to her if she went back, so she went up and said, "Madam, I see that you are not in a good state. There is a place to rest in the private room. Why don't I bring you in to rest for a while?"

Mia didn't want to see Noah right now, and she didn't want to go in and see the foul-smelling wine table. She was about to reject the secretary's offer, but before she could say anything, she saw the door to the private room open.

Noah came out to take a breather and also wanted to see what was going on with his secretary. She did not bring the documents over even after a long time. Also, Jenny, who was the spokesperson, could not be present today because the filming was not completed. She only sent her manager over to apologize. Noah was and felt that Jenny was acting like a big shot.

However, after her manager apologized, she even walked to Noah's side and explained to him in a low voice. It turned out that Jenny was filming Noah's company's product ad.

Under the situation of changing the spokesperson at the last minute, all the original filming materials could not be used anymore. All of them needed to be changed to new ones. Noah, who had been the CEO for so many years, knew this.

Actually, the workload for reshooting increased, so many celebrities were unwilling to take on the job. Only Jenny still came out to save the day, so Noah had no reason to be angry. On the contrary, he should thank Jenny for saving the day.

However, he had already exchanged greetings in the current situation. There was really nothing much to say, so Noah could only find an excuse to come out and see the situation.

He didn't expect to see Mia as soon as he pushed the door open. They hadn't seen each other for a few days. They were both stunned when they suddenly met.

She did not expect to meet him here.

Noah noticed Mia's expression first. Feeling that Mia's complexion was very bad, he wanted to go up and show his concern.

When the secretary saw that the CEO had come out, she could not care about anything else and went up to him first. "CEO, I'm sorry."

The words "I'm sorry," pulled Noah's thoughts back and he looked at the secretary.

"CEO, I left the documents at home when I sent you home yesterday, so I asked Madam to send them over." The secretary looked at Noah nervously after saying that.

Realization dawned on Noah. When he first saw Mia, he thought that his wife had figured it out and came over to care for him and no longer hid from him. But in the end, she was actually here to deliver documents. Noah's mood instantly worsened.

Seeing Noah come out, Mia, who was already in a bad mood, felt even worse seeing Noah. She immediately thought of Jenny and what Noah had said a few days ago.

So Mia turned to leave.

Beside her, Noah saw that Mia was about to leave. His body moved faster than his consciousness and he grabbed Mia first.

Noah pulled Mia into his arms.

It had been a long time since he had hugged Mia. For a moment, Noah only felt a warm and soft sensation in his arms. He felt extremely comfortable in an instant. Mia's familiar sweet smell evoked the tender feelings in Noah's heart. He just wanted to hug Mia properly. What anger? What divorce? Noah threw those things to the back of his mind.

Noah was hugging her like this in public, so Mia's face blushed instantly. She wanted to struggle but Noah was hugging her too tightly and she really could not break free. The secretary at the side could not bear to watch anymore. She also did not dare to watch anymore. What if the CEO flipped out? Hence, she hurriedly turned around and entered the room with the documents for the business partners to see.

No one noticed that the door of the private room behind them had opened a little. Jenny's manager came with a mission, but she did not expect to see this scene the moment she opened the door.

Jenny said that Noah and his wife did not have a good relationship. She even said that she was about to succeed. However, the way Noah hugged his wife did not look like they were not on good terms.

But it didn't matter. Men always needed something exciting out there, Jenny's agent thought.

Mia couldn't quite catch her breath from Noah's hug. It was only then that Noah noticed Mia's discomfort. He quickly let go of Mia. Mia took a few breaths to recover.

Then, she heard Noah say, "Mia, come with me to the private room to rest for a while. We'll go home together after this."

Mia did not want to go at first. Thinking of her doctor friend's words, she did not want to get too emotional. Mia controlled herself slightly and did not want to argue with Noah. Hence, she did not reply and only nodded slightly.

Seeing that Mia had agreed, Noah was very happy. He pulled Mia towards the resting room in the private room.

They made their way through the dining room of the private room and he settled Mia on the couch before Noah was called out by his secretary. Mia was exhausted from the day and didn't want to worry about anything else. So once Noah was outside, Mia fell asleep.

When Mia woke up again, she was woken up by the noise outside the private room. She had a small blanket draped over her body and didn't know what was happening outside. She stood up in a daze and wanted to go out to take a look.

She put on a small blanket and pushed open the door to go out. She saw that there were still people drinking and chatting at the table outside. She didn't know who they were. After looking around carefully, she saw Noah. Mia was not feeling well and was a little scared. She wanted to call Noah over to send her home first, but after she called Noah a few times, he did not hear her. Hence, Mia wanted to look for Noah.

At some point, the blanket on her body slipped down to Mia's feet..
