Chapter 101: Searching Searching

Rudy flew even higher to cover more area and searched thoroughly for Angelica. However, she was nowhere to be seen.

"I could use my see-through ability to look past everything, but it doesn't work on Angelica as she doesn't have a physical body. I would look through her and wouldn't realize I looked through her."

Rudy facepalmed himself and nearly pulled off his skin in frustration.

'Did I ignore her for too long?!'

Rudy spent the entire night nailing Reina like crazy, but he didn't purposely ignore Angelica. And besides, Angelica herself had said that she would return after a while, so Rudy assumed she would come back once she felt bored or lonely, but she didn't.

Rudy flew around in the area at both high and low levels to search for Angelica. But even after spending the entire five minutes looking for her, Rudy couldn't find her.

With the help of Rudy's superpowers, those five minutes were equivalent to one hour.

"She couldn't have gone far away from me, since she knew she would get... lost." Rudy raised his brows and wondered, "Did she get lost?"

Rudy could call her out by yelling her name, but it was early morning and silence had covered the city.

If Rudy truly yelled at the top of his lungs to call out Angelica, his voice would be heard in not only the entire city but also the neighboring town.

Suddenly, a thought crossed Rudy's mind that gave him a clue of Angelica's location.

"There is no way she would go there.... Right?" Rudy asked himself.

Regardless, Rudy flew to where once there was an abandoned tunnel, but now only the destruction remained. And sure enough, Rudy saw Angelica on the same spot he had seen her for the first time.

Rudy immediately landed beside Angelica, causing the debris to quake on impact.

"Oh, you are done? I was about to return to the waterpark since it's morning already," Angelica uttered without looking at Rudy.

"What are you doing here?! Why are you back here in the first place?!" Rudy asked with an anxious and concerned look on his face.

"I was bored, and... Reina's moans were making me horny. So I thought I should stroll around the waterpark. But when I reached the highest spot of the waterpark, my gaze automatically fell to this place, and I decided to come here," Angelica replied in a calm voice.

"Still! You should have let me know! You have no idea how worried I was!"

"I can hear your loud heartbeats, and that's enough proof that you were truly worried about me..." Angelica turned around and finally looked at Rudy. Then, she hugged him and uttered, "Would you have let me come here if I had asked for your permission?"

"Of course, not! I would never allow you to come back to this place! No criminal wants to go back to prison again!" Rudy remarked.

"But demons always want to go back to hell, you know?" Angelica scoffed.

"Shut up! I just don't want you to come here to this place!"

"Aren't you overreacting a little bit? That shadow demon is gone. You killed it. You completely wiped it out of existence, just like the tunnel that once existed here." Angelica looked into Rudy's eyes and said, "You saved me that day and freed me."

"..." Rudy sighed and hugged Angelica again. "I have no idea what I would do without you."

After the hug, Angelica grinned at Rudy and asked, "Aren't you forgetting something?"

"Right..." Rudy kissed Angelica on the lips and said, "Here."

"That's... not what I was talking about..." Angelica uttered with a dumbfounded face.

"Then...?" Rudy wondered with a confused look on his face. "If you want to have sex, then let's go home first. We are not doing it in the open."

Angelica squinted her eyes and uttered, "Isn't there someone waiting for you at home?"

"Oh!" Rudy suddenly exclaimed loudly after realizing what Angelica was trying to say. "Right. Mom!"

Rudy took out his phone from the pocket and muttered, "She must have called me hundreds of times already."

Rudy checked his missed call list, but much to his surprise, he had received only one call, and that too was from Eric. His phone was in Reina's office, and it was set on silent, so Rudy couldn't hear it.

"Weird. Mom hasn't called me, not even once..." Rudy was left in disbelief. He couldn't comprehend why Rebecca didn't call him, not even once.

"Normally, she would call me every hour if I don't keep her updated..."

Rudy grabbed Angelica and jumped in the air across the sky over the clouds.

"I will go inside your body so that you can use your powers more freely," Angelica uttered and went inside Rudy's body.

'You have been away from home since yesterday's morning, and currently, it's the morning of the next day. I am also wondering why your mom didn't call you.'

"Let's hope everything is alright. Otherwise..." Rudy clenched his fist and frowned his face.

'Such anger... it's enough to make anyone cower before him...' Angelica thought to herself.

"I should first check-up at her workplace. She should be getting off work at this time."

Rudy landed on the building opposite the convenience store where Rebecca worked. Then, he activated his see-through ability and scanned the entire shop.

However, Rebecca wasn't there.

"...!"

The glass of the building Rudy was standing on, shattered as his fury rose.

'Calm down, Rudy. You yourself said that she should be getting off work. Maybe she is already on her way home?' Angelica wondered.

"Yeah, you are right." Rudy flew over the street from where Rebecca always walked, and sure enough, Rebecca was on her way home.

SIGH!

Rudy sighed in relief and muttered, "Thank fuck! She is alright."

Rudy followed Rebecca, but while flying.

After a few minutes, Rebecca reached home and unlocked the door.

At the same time, Rudy teleported to his room, or he wanted to. But for some reason, he was unable to teleport.

"....!"

Rudy had no time to waste since he knew that the first thing Rebecca would check after reaching home was his room.

Rudy flew to his house and decided to enter his room through the window.

However, Rebecca was standing right in front of the window, and she looked at him with a cold glare in her eyes.

Chapter 102: Interrogation

"...!"

Rudy's face immediately turned pale the moment he saw Rebecca standing in front of the window of his room.

However, the cold glare in her eyes was what made Rudy shiver in fear.

'I am dead.' That's the only thing Rudy could think of at that time.

The window was open so the eye contact between Rudy and Rebecca was direct without any interruptions.

'Calm down. You can still handle this situation,' Angelia reassured Rudy.

'No, no. I am dead. Look at that glare in her eyes. It looks like she is about to shoot a laser beam and penetrate my soul.'

"What are you doing here, mom?" Rudy asked with an awkward smile on his face.

"I think I should be the one asking that to you." Rebeca frowned her face and asked, "What are 'you' doing there outside the window?"

"I was..."

"First, come inside." Rebecca grabbed Rudy from the collar and pulled him into the room. Then, she pointed her finger at the bed and said, "Sit."

Rudy sat on the bed just like an obedient and well-trained dog.

Rebeca raised her brow and asked again: "So?"

"I... didn't have the key. I forgot it was in my bag, and as you know, I was out for the entire day. Then, I remember I had left the window of my room open, so I tried to enter the house. But fortunately, you arrived at the right time," Rudy responded awkwardly.

"Fortunately?" Rebecca raised two fingers of her both hands and quoted 'fortunately'.

"Or do you mean, unfortunately?"

"..."

"Where were you for the entire day anyway?" Rebecca asked impatiently. "You went on a date with Alice, I get that. You were late to come back because... Well, you are a teenager and... you know what I am talking about. But spending an entire night with a girl...?"

Rebecca shook her head and continued, "That's a no-no. I wanted to call you, but I didn't want to be an 'annoying' mom in your eyes than I already am."

"That's not true! Never in my life have I ever thought of you as annoying. You worry about me, and that's what all the moms do. There is nothing wrong with that," Rudy retorted. "And I wasn't with Alice."

"You weren't?" Rebecca asked with a surprised look on her face. But her face was hiding a happy smile behind her expression.

"Yes, our date was postponed to today. So I will be leaving again in a few hours," Rudy informed in a calm voice.

"Wait, so where were you all this time?" Rebecca asked with a curious yet anxious look on her face.

"I was... uhhh... at Eric's place?"

"Oh?" Rebecca squinted her eyes with an amused look on her face and said, "How strange. Because Eric called me last night and asked me to send you to his house."

'So that's why he called me! He must have called mom because I didn't answer his call.'

'I take it back, Rudy. You are dead,' Angelica said to Rudy after realizing he had run out of all the options.

"Rudy, are you hiding something from me?" Rebecca asked with a concerned look on her face.

"Well..." Rudy averted his gaze to avoid eye contact with Rebecca and thought, 'I have been telling lies over and over to cover up a single lie. I can't keep this up. I will just have to tell mom everything.'

'I know this is not the right time because Lucy and Joe haven't moved here yet. But I have no other choice. I just hope that she doesn't freak out or get a stroke or something.'

Rudy took a deep breath and gathered the courage to prepare himself to tell the truth to Rebecca. He was ready to accept his fate.

"Mom..." Rudy gulped down and opened his mouth to say, "Actually, the truth is that I—"

"You know, what. Don't tell me," Rebecca interrupted Rudy and said, "I can clearly see you are not ready to tell me. So whatever it is, tell me when you are confident enough."

"..."

"I am ready to tell you right now."

"No, it's alright." Rebecca turned around and left the room after saying, "You must be tired, right? Get some sleep. I will come to wake you up when breakfast is ready."

"..."

After going downstairs, Rebecca let out a relieved sigh and muttered, "I almost made him confess about these powers."

"That would have created a paradox, right? Since the diary said I should wait for him to tell me everything." Rebecca smiled and uttered, "But I am happy knowing that he was ready to tell me everything."

Rebecca hugged herself and squirmed: "Argh! This wait is killing me! I have waited for him for years. Just a few days would make no difference!"

Meanwhile, Angelica came out of Rudy's body and said, "Is this what they call plot armor?"

"I don't think so..." Rudy shrugged and said, "This is real life, and everything happens fairly."

Angelica hugged Rudy and said, "Are you tired?"

"I am, but I am not going to sleep. I also have to know the reason why my teleportation wasn't working earlier." Rudy got up from his bed and used telekinesis to confirm his powers were working properly.

"So... can you fuck me?"

"It's dangerous to do it here since the lock is broken. So let's go to the bathroom."

As soon as Rudy uttered that, he teleported to the bathroom. But, he was alone as she wasn't touching Angelica.

"..."

Rudy immediately teleported back to his room and took Angelica with him.

"Now it's working just fine..." Rudy muttered in confusion. "Why do I think that the reason I wasn't able to teleport before was just so the world can fuck me up?"

Rudy left his room and went to the bathroom in a normal way because he didn't want Rebecca to get suspicious again.

Then, they fucked until Rebecca yelled at him for spending too much time in the bathroom.

Chapter 103: Unexpected Ending

Rudy and Rebecca were eating breakfast in the kitchen. Rebecca was shooting glances at Rudy, but Rudy was focused on his phone.

He was chatting with Alice, so naturally, he was smiling while looking at his phone.

[Are you ready?] Rudy sent a text.

A few seconds later, Alice replied with, [My hairs are messy?! What should I do?!]

[Take a bath?] Rudy suggested as he scoffed softly.

Of course, he was simply trying to tease her.

[I already did!]

[Just kidding. Don't worry about it. Your hair has always been like that. And to be honest, it doesn't matter much since we are going to swim, so they are going to get messy in the end, anyway.]

After a few seconds of typing, Alice replied: [You are not a girl, so you won't understand!]

"Yeah... right..."

'Do all girls say the same thing? Elise said the same thing once.'

Seeing Rudy smiling like that while looking at his phone and eating breakfast, Rebecca's face twitched; that was something that every parent hated seeing.

Rebecca frowned her face and cleared her throat before saying, "Excuse me, mister. You should know that phones aren't allowed on my table."

Rudy raised his head to look up at Rebecca to see her glaring at him with a furious look on her face.

[I will come to pick you up after 15 minutes.] Rudy sent it to Alice and placed his phone on the table.

"Happy?"

"I only said it because you shouldn't use your phone while eating. You can play some videos or movies if you want to, but using a phone such as scrolling through or typing while eating is bad," Rebecca stated.

"Yeah."

"Do you know, I read an article which said that the phone's screen has more bacteria than a dirty toilet seat."

"Eww! Mom! Come on~!" Rudy placed his spoon to the side and said, "You had to mention this while eating?"

"What do you mean? I get it that it's gross, but you should be more grossed out by the fact I told you!" Rebecca retorted. "Using your phone while eating is just like eating in the toilet seat."

"..." Rudy squinted his eyes at Rebecca and uttered, "You did not just say that."

"I did. What will you do?"

"..."

"Huh? I am your mother and don't you dare raise your voice against me," Rebecca said in a haughty tone. "This also reminded me that I have been giving you too much freedom lately."

"..."

"From today onwards, you have to come back before 7 in the evening. And I want you in your room before 8 PM," Rebecca announced. "Also, no more visiting Eric on weekends. You are only allowed to go there once every two weeks, got it?"

"What will you do if I don't obey your rules? Will you beat me? Or kick me out or something?" Rudy asked with an annoyed look on his face.

Rebecca raised her brows and said, "I will do something that would make you hate me."

"And how is that bad?" Rudy asked with a scoff.

"Please tell me you did not just say that."

"I totally did, and I can say it again if you want me to."

Rebecca glared into Rudy's eyes for a few seconds before pouting her face.

"..."

"So be it, then! I won't talk to you unless you regret what you just said," Rebecca got up from the table and walked away.

"..."

She entered her room and closed the door before locking it from the inside.

"..."

Rudy watched everything with a dumbfounded expression on his face as though he was having a hard time believing what happened at the last minute.

Angelica came out of Rudy's body and said, "That was very teenager-like. Congratulations."

"You are rubbing salt on my wound, Angelica..." Rudy muttered.

"But you are the one who wounded yourself and gave me the salt. So of course, I would run it, and not only on your wounds but all over your body," Angelica remarked.

Rudy facepalmed himself and uttered, "Don't change the phrase like that."

SIGH!

Angelica sighed and uttered, "I still don't understand why you acted like that. I am not saying it was out of your character, but it kind of was. I hardly see you talk back to your mother."

"I don't think I talked back to her. It was more like I said something that I didn't like." Rudy looked at Angelica and uttered in a low voice: "Surely, you don't think that mentioning toilets and such while eating is appropriate, right?"

"Well, she said she was stating a fact, and I think she was telling the truth."

Rudy squinted his eyes and nodded as he uttered, "I see. I see. So you are taking her side."

"I am not taking anyone's side here! I was just saying how you are not acting like an adult," Angelica remarked. "You keep saying 'I am mentally an adult', but you rarely act like one. I mean, it's cool because most adults are boring. But—"

"By that logic, mom is older than me, and she didn't act according to her age either," Rudy shrugged.

"..."

Rudy continued eating breakfast while staring at Angelica. Seemingly, waiting for her to react to his comments.

"Like mother, like son..." Angelica muttered.

A few minutes later, when Rudy finished eating his breakfast, he washed the dishes and wiped the floor using telekinesis.

Then, he walked and stood in front of Rebecca's room.

KNOCK~ KNOCK!

"Mom?"

"It's open," Rebecca replied from the other side of the door.

Rudy opened the door and entered Rebecca's room, immediately getting greeted by Rebecca's scent.

Rebecca was sitting on the bed, and she was glaring at Rudy with puffed cheeks.

"I... am sorry. I didn't mean anything that I said..." Rudy uttered in a low and calm voice.

Rebecca spread her arms and said, "Give me a hug."

"...!"

Rudy got on the bed and hugged Rebecca, but not too tightly.

However, Rebecca hugged Rudy tightly and pressed her body against Rudy.

"...!" Rudy could feel something soft pressing against his chest, but he had disabled all the thoughts from his mind.

"I love you..."

"..."

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 104: Date Day

"..."

"...!"

A few seconds passed, but Rebecca didn't let go of Rudy.

"Mom...?"

"She has fallen asleep," Angelica informed.

Rudy gently pushed Rebecca and made some distance between them. Then, he carefully placed her on the bed and her head on the pillow.

"..."

Rudy was still surprised by what just happened. It was too sudden and strange for him.

"I can hear your heartbeats even though I am standing in the doorway," Angelica commented.

"I don't know why..." Rudy muttered and let out a deep sigh.

'I think I know why...' Angelica uttered inwardly and stared at Rudy for a few seconds before saying, "Maybe because she said 'I love you' to you?"

Angelica had finally gathered the courage and confidence to mention anything related to Rebecca.

"Huh? What's strange about it?" Rudy wondered with a confused look on his face. "Every mother says 'I love you' to their child. It's totally a normal thing."

'Or so you think. How long are you going to fool yourself into thinking that? Sooner or later, you will have to realize...' Angelica uttered inwardly but couldn't dare to say it out loud.

'I think some progression will happen once Lucy and Joe move in here. After that, Rudy would have to work hard to get Rebecca's attention, and he will naturally feel jealous. I can't wait to see that!'

Angelica was a little too excited for her own good, but it wasn't as though it was a bad thing. She liked seeing Rudy in trouble and in the struggle.

Rudy grabbed Angelica's hand and walked out of the room. Then, he used telekinesis to bring his phone to him.

"It's already time. Let's go!"

Rudy expected Angelica to leap onto him to go together with him, but she didn't.

"What's wrong?" Rudy asked after noticing Angelica was moving from her spot.

"You should go," she said with a smile on her face.

"Uhh... are you angry or something?" Rudy asked awkwardly.

Angelica shook her head and said, "It's your date with Alice, and I don't want to be a third wheel. So go and enjoy your time with Alice."

"Never have I ever thought that about you. You are like a part of me, so have to be with me."

"I am tired anyway, so I will be sleeping. So it shouldn't matter if I sleep inside your body or in your room. And to be honest, I have been longing to sleep on the bed."

Rudy didn't want to force Angelica to come with him, and he had no way of knowing that Angelica truly didn't want to come. He could use his powers to know that, but he didn't want to use his powers on his loved ones.

That's why, Rudy asked, "Are you telling the truth?"

Angelica furrowed her brows in annoyance and said, "Do you really think I would want to stay away from you for no reason? No! So just go and enjoy."

"But how would I know if you want me or something? You can't phone call me, and telepathy won't work that far."

"I will just possess someone and use their body to phone call you. I believe most people use phones now, right?"

"Don't do that. Possessing is bad. But if there is really an emergency, then you can do that." Rudy pondered for a while and muttered, "I will have to practice my telepathy and make it usable for more purposes."

"Such as?" Angelica asked curiously.

"You must have noticed that now not only can I hear people's thoughts directed towards me, but I can also send them my thoughts without opening my mouth. So there have to be many other ways to evolve this ability," Rudy wondered in amusement.

"Well, your telekinesis did evolve because you have been using it the most. You have also learned to fly more freely, and your teleportation has become accurate. Your see-through ability has also gone sharper, and now you can easily activate it and deactivate it on will, right?"

Rudy shook his head and said, "Everything you said is true, but I still can't deactivate or reset my see-through ability on will once it's activated. But I think I am getting there."

RING~ RING!

Rudy's phone rang.

"..."

Rudy knew it was Alice without even looking at the phone because he was five minutes late than the promised time.

"Late on the first date. Wow," Rudy uttered in a neutral tone.

"Don't blame me for being late. I have been telling you to go, but you are not listening to me," Angelica commented.

Rudy rushed to Angelica and hugged her tightly. Then, he kissed her on the lips a couple of times and said, "I will be back before night."

Angelica moved her face close to Rudy's ears and whispered, "Are you going to have sex with Alice too?"

"...!"

"I... don't know. But I am going to tell her everything about me, and the harem. So wish me luck," Rudy chuckled. "Because Alice is the only girl I am afraid of. There are chances that she might not agree on the harem. So... pray for me."

After kissing Angelica for a few more seconds, Rudy teleported near Alice's house.

BARK~ BARK!

"...!"

GROWL!

However, there was a stray dog near Alice's house that started barking and growling at Rudy. It was natural since the dog saw Rudy appear out of nowhere.

Rudy looked into the dog's eyes and uttered, "Calm down."

The dog immediately stopped growling and casually walked away.

"I may have used my powers, but I only asked it to calm down."

Rudy has been scared of the dogs since his past life because he was bitten by a dog, not once, not twice, but five times a week.

He was afraid of the dogs so much that whenever he saw one on the street, he changed his way and took another route.

"Although, I don't think anything would happen to me if a dog tried to bite me now," Rudy scoffed.

RING~RING!

"Right!"

Rudy rushed through the gate and found her standing outside her house.

Chapter 105: Date Day (ii)

Rudy expected Alice to be angry at him because he was more than five minutes late, but for some reason, Alice was smiling at him.

'Well, it's not that strange, to be honest. I would be happy as hell too if I was waiting for my crush to arrive. And I am currently thrilled, and I still can't believe that I am going on a date with Alice— my childhood friend, who is also the school idol.'

'Everyone wants to go out with her, but here I am, going on a date with her. I can't wait to see the reactions of the schoolmates once Alice and I officially start dating.'

Rudy forgot that in that school, there was someone who would be most shocked of all, and that was his math teacher, Rize— who was there on her internship. But he soon realized that, and his happiness decreased by 0.69%.

'If everything goes alright today, and I manage to convince Alice to join my harem. I will make moves on Rize tomorrow,' Rudy decided inwardly.

Rudy stood in front of Alice and smiled awkwardly at her.

While he may look confident from the outside, he was still a little anxious from the inside.

Sure, this wasn't his first date with a girl since he had gone on many dates with his girlfriend and one more girl in his past life. But still, it was his first time going on a date in this life, and that too with Alice.

"Good... morning..." Alice greeted Rudy with an anxious smile on her face.

However, Alice was more anxious than Rudy.

"Sorry, I am late. There was this dog barking at me outside and..." Rudy stopped on his words after seeing how beautiful Alice looked.

"How do I look?" Alice asked as she spun around.

"I... don't know how to describe it in words. So..." Rudy closed his distance and moved his face close to Alice's face to kiss her after saying, "Can I show it with a kiss."

Rudy expected Alice to pucker her lips and wait for the kiss, but instead, she pushed him away.

"..."

Alice pointed her gaze at the car standing behind them and whispered, "Dad is in the car."

"Oh..."

Rudy cleared his throat and said, "Shall we go now?"

"About that..." Alice averted her gaze as she said that.

"Don't tell me you can't come today either..."

"No, that's not it." Alice sighed and said, "He is saying that he would drop us in his car."

"You don't want him to...?" Rudy wondered with a puzzled look on his face.

"I thought you wouldn't like it..." Alice uttered in a low voice.

"I think it's fine." Rudy nodded. "We will have to wait for the bus and..." Rudy looked at the time and said, "We just missed a bus. The next one is after 30 mins."

"Okay then."

Alice and Rudy walked to the car and stood in front of the front door.

Alice's father— George, rolled down the window and stared at Rudy for a few seconds before moving his gaze to Alice.

"I told you to wait in the car, yet you waited outside..."

"I wanted to greet him properly," Alice uttered in a low voice.

George turned on the car and said, "Hope in."

Alice opened the backdoor and sat on the backseat, and Rudy wanted to sit in the passenger's seat beside George, but Alice grabbed his hands and gestured to him to sit with her in the backseat.

Rudy sat in the backseat beside Alice and shot a glance at George, who was looking at them from the rearview mirror.

'Isn't he behaving strangely?' Rudy wondered. 'I mean, I am going on a date with his daughter, and that too to the waterpark. But it's still strange for him to act like this. He is normally a chill guy, at least from what I know and how I interacted with him in the past few days.'

'Besides, wasn't he the only one who kept making jokes about my and Alice's relationship?'

In the end, Rudy shrugged it off thinking it was simply a father being protective of his daughter.

George drove the car and turned on the radio for some music.

'Ah, yes. The old songs... bring back memories. I also have many of them on my phone, but the quality is shit, the internet is expensive, and the storage is full. Maybe I should buy a new phone?'

Rudy's current phone was given to him by Rebecca, but of course, it was a second-handed and damaged phone.

However, the only reason Rebecca bought him the phone was that she could call him whenever she wanted and keep in touch with him. At that time, Rudy was against getting a phone, and he wanted a feature phone as they were cheaper and easy to use.

But now that Rudy has traveled back in time, Rudy has seen advanced technology. Even after Rudy had got into an accident and was left crippled, he could still see the world evolve and move into the era of technology. The later years were revolutionary and humankind had achieved unbelievable feats. But unfortunately, everything ended when Rudy became blind after two years of experiment.

Halfway through their destination, the song changed and switched to the live broadcast.

[We just got two big pieces of news that could either blow your mind or leave you speechless. Either way, they both are the same thing, so don't worry about it.]

'Is this a comedy show?!'

[The first news is about a strange anomaly that happened in the 69th street of downtown. A house that belonged to a person named— just kidding! I can't disclose the name, or I would lose my job.]

'That's the landlord's address. I guess this was supposed to happen. But let's see what the investigation says about the incident. I didn't leave any clues behind, so I should be safe,' Rudy uttered inwardly.

[This incident happened the night before yesterday, but it was made public today a few minutes ago.]

'They must have investigated before making it public.. But let's see if they did a good job on that nor not.'

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 106: At The Park Again

[The entire mansion suddenly collapsed overnight without any sign of earthquake or natural phenomena nearby. But the investigation revealed that the house was forcibly demolished by something.]

[Of course, that's the only possibility, but it sounds so stupid. I don't understand why the police think that we citizens would believe that. If it was really demolished by someone, the neighbors would have seen it. While the neighbors claimed that the house collapsed within seconds, and no one, and I repeat, none can demolish a house in seconds. So do the police think we are stupid? Well, they probably do.]

[Putting all that aside— just kidding, I have been warned before this, and right now too, my boss is glaring at me. I think I might get fired after this session, and in case I do get fired, please follow me on social media. I will keep you all updated.]

[And you know what? I think I will leave this place before they fire me. I mean, self-respect is a thing, you know? Heh! They forget that this show is only alive because of me. Now, now. I know I sound like a narcissist, but it's true.]

[You all love my voice and commentary, don't you? You can listen to songs anywhere, but you can't listen to my voice. Well, anyway, let's go back to the topic.]

After a brief pause, the voice continued, [It seems that the owner of the house was in the house when this all happened. And his body was found completely squished under the debris. Poor fella.]

[But he must be sleeping when this all happened, so I don't think it would have hurt him much, or maybe he was still alive after all that, and he died, slowly slowly, as the death got near him, his body stopped moving and his vision faded.]

"..." Rudy felt anxious after hearing that. The description the voice gave about dying was the exact same as how Rudy felt when he was dying in his past life.

Of course, it was more painful, and Rudy was already blind. But the experiments made Rudy highly sensitive to pain, and even a little poke hurt him more than a thousand needles.

[However, it has also been claimed that the incident was the same as the incident that occurred with the abandoned tunnel in the neighboring town. While it may be true, they need to find the culprit first before claiming anything.]

'They got that true, but I am sure it was a wild guess. However, I think I should be more careful about all this.'

Rudy wasn't worried about getting recorded in a video as he knew that the current phone didn't have the resolution and power to catch something moving far away at high speed.

[Moving on, the second news is about the bank robbery, or should I say— bank heist that happened in the capital bank.]

'Oh? This never happened in my past life.'

[The heist was done the way it was done 6 months ago, but this time, they had advanced equipment which was never seen by someone. Even the scientists and the experts said that the technology was far too advanced for us.]

[However, the government did pull a nasty move against the robbers. They devalued the money stolen from the bank. By that, I mean that the money stolen from the bank was newly printed. And as with every other note, they had a serial number.]

[So, the government declared that the note bills with the serial number xx from xxxx will be devalued. Now that's a nasty payback to those—]

For some reason, George smashed the 'off' switch and turned off the radio.

"..."

However, Rudy was lost in another thought.

'The heist was done the way it was done 6 months ago, but this time, they had advanced equipment which was never seen by someone. Even the scientists and the experts said that the technology was far too advanced for us.'

After hearing that, Rudy couldn't help but think of the advanced technology the landlord had in his house that he used as security.

'The landlord had said that he got his hands on the advanced technology from someone he met in the underworld. And even though it is possible for the underworld to have mysterious and secret things, I highly doubt that they can prepare advanced technology without advanced mechanisms and equipment.'

'Unless something else is involved. Something... supernatural.' After a brief pause, Rudy thought, 'I think I will have to visit the underworld soon, and for that, I will have to pull my connections.'

'If I ask Maria, she would take me there, but that would mean exposing my plan and using Maria's help. I would be allowed to enter the underworld, but not without Maria. That's why, once the tournament starts, I will win as much money as I can and make my name. And after that, I would get entry to the underworld.'

Rudy's to-do list has been constantly increasing, and he had so many things he had to do. Not to forget to not repeat the same mistakes as his past life, and remember every major event that occurred in his past life to make them better.

There were too many things, and it wasn't easy. But with the help of his superpowers, Rudy was confident enough that he would do better than he had expected.

A few minutes later, the car stopped in the street opposite the waterpark.

George turned off the car and said, "We have reached."

Alice got out of the car and pulled Rudy with her.

"Thanks, dad."

"No problem." George shot a glance at Rudy and said, "Be careful."

"...?"

"The waterpark closes at around 7 PM, so I will come to pick you two up," George asserted. "Don't make me wait."

"There is no need to. Rudy and I will go to a café or restaurant afterward."

George drove off without saying anything.

Alice and Rudy glanced at each other and nodded in agreement as though they both were thinking of the same thing.

They both turned around with a smile on their faces. However, Alice jumped for a hug, while Rudy tried to kiss her.

"..."

They weren't thinking the same thing, after all.

Chapter 107: Reina Meets Alice

Alice and Rudy awkwardly crossed the street.

What happened a few seconds ago shocked both of them, and they were feeling awkward.

Alice jumped for a hug, which was something bold for her, while Rudy wanted to kiss her, which wasn't bold, but the right thing to do.

However, Rudy was left hanging while puckering his lips, waiting for a kiss when he got hugged.

When Alice realized that, she wanted to laugh and cry at the same time.

After entering the gate of the waterpark, Rudy glanced around to see if the guard was there or not, and sure enough, he wasn't. After making sure the ticket windows were closed, Rudy and Alice walked forward to enter the waterpark.

However, there was one thing Rudy wanted to do.

He pulled Alice, who was walking ahead of him and kissed her on the lips.

The start of the date was already awkward, and he didn't want to make the entire date awkward.

After the kiss, Alice glared into Rudy's eyes and said, "Don't do that in public!"

"But there is no one here, and weren't you the one who told me 'I will eat your lips' yesterday on the phone?" Rudy teased with a grin on his face.

Alice couldn't help but puff her cheeks because that's what she always did when she didn't have any other options for a comeback.

"Hmm~ Your mouth looks full of air. Maybe I should suck some?" Rudy kissed Alice again and said, "There you go."

Rudy wanted to kiss Alice one more time, but he noticed an angry woman glaring at them from the walkway.

It was Reina, and she didn't look happy after seeing Rudy and Alice kiss.

"Dear customer, you shouldn't do such things in public, and definitely not at the entrance," Reina commented.

"..."

"We are sorry!" Alice apologized.

Reina glanced at Alice and said, "Oh, no, miss. It's not your fault. You weren't the one who kissed him, it was he who kissed you!"

"..."

Reina then turned to Rudy and glared at him before saying, "Mister, it's prohibited to suck such acts here. This will be your first and the last warning."

'It's ironic coming from you. Did you forget how desperate you were last night to get railed? And did I mention your moans and how loud they were? Also, who was the one kissing my photo like a little pervert?'

Rudy said all that using telepathy and directed it towards Reina, who heard everything in her mind.

Her face immediately flushed and her glare turned soft.

'Don't worry. I won't tell anyone,' Rudy uttered with a grin on his face.

"Your tickets, please!" Reina diverted the topic and said, "You must change your clothes before diving into any of our pools."

"Uhh... I brought a brief from home. Would that not work?" Rudy asked with an amused look on his face, knowing well what Reina's answer would be.

"Unfortunately, no. Only the kids below 16 and the girls are allowed to bring swimsuits from home. Adult men must rent one from the office," Reina answered like a professional.

"Why is that? What did the men ever do to you? We want gender equality."

"..."

Alice gave Rudy a weird look after hearing that. He had never seen Rudy act like that, let alone talk with a stranger in that manner.

'Okay. Let's stop this now.'

Rudy handed the tickets to Reina and said, "Here are the tickets."

Reina turned to Alice and said, "The locker room is on the left from the office."

"Thank you."

Alice grabbed Rudy's hand and walked inside the waterpark.

Reina followed them and glared at their hands touching each other.

"Mister." Reina called out to Rudy and said, "You have to rent a pair from the office. Please follow me."

"Okay."

Alice went to the locker room, while Reina dragged Rudy into her office.

After entering the office, Reina closed the door and hugged Rudy tightly.

"Whoa~ Miss. What are you doing? Isn't this against the rules?" Rudy remarked.

"Shut up!" Reina pushed Rudy to the wall and started kissing him on the lips.

Rudy wanted to stop her, but he was enjoying the aggressive kiss from Reina.

After the kiss, Rudy tried to say something, but Reina kissed him again.

A few kisses later, Rudy stopped Reina because she wasn't stopping. He looked into her eyes and asked in a calm voice: "Are you okay?"

"I know you said about harem, but I felt a sting in my heart when I saw you kissing her."

"Is that why you came out of your office to stop me?"

"..."

Rudy raised his brow and asked, "You were watching from the monitor, am I right?"

Reina nodded and said, "You mentioned you were going to come today, so I have been waiting for you since you left."

"Wait, you didn't sleep?!" Rudy exclaimed.

Reina shrugged her shoulders and said, "After you left, I spent 10 minutes getting back from heaven. Then, I went to the bathroom and took a long bath. It literally took me 30 minutes to take out your... thick cum from inside me."

"Oh? It seems I released too much," Rudy chuckled.

"Then, I got ready, made some breakfast, and before I knew it, it was already time to open the waterpark."

"Umm... do you want to sleep? If you are feeling tired, then I can—"

Reina kissed Rudy on the lips to shut him up, and said, "Don't worry about me. Go and enjoy your date with that girl."

"Her name is Alice."

"That's a princess-like name. No wonder she is so beautiful." Reina furrowed her brows at Rudy and said, "And she is cuter than me!"

"As I said last night, you are cute and hot, while she is cute and beautiful. There is no comparison between you two."

"Is this how you made her fall for you?" Reina squinted her eyes and uttered, "You are so good at this that any girl would want your attention."

"It's my charm." Rudy kissed Reina and said, "If you see a beautiful flower, obviously you would praise its beauty, right? Similarly, I am handsome, so it's natural that the girls would want my attention."

"Get out of here.." Reina threw Rudy out of her office after saying, "My narcissist harem lord."

Chapter 108: Pool Problem

Rudy left Reina's office and waited for Alice to come out near the girl's locker room. He had already taken his shirt off, and he was wearing the brief he brought from home.

When Alice walked out of the locker room wearing her new swimming suit, Rudy forgot to breathe, quite literally.

Rudy had seen Alice in many types of clothes, but it was his first time seeing her in a swimsuit.

The swimsuit wasn't too revealing, and it covered half of her body.

Alice smiled innocently at Rudy and rushed to him after seeing him waiting for her.

"How do I look?" she asked with a grin on her face.

"My words can't describe it, so..." Rudy moved his face close to Alice to kiss her, But Alice placed her hand on his lips.

"Did you really just try to use the same line you used before?" Alice asked in disbelief. "And the manager has already warned us about not doing such things."

"But she is not here right now, you know?"

"If she or any of the staff catches us, you will get us thrown out of this place," Alice remarked. "That's why, no kissing today."

Rudy moved his hands to Alice's chest and squeezed her breasts as he asked, "What about touching?"

Alice shrugged Rudy's hand from her chest and said, "No touching, either."

Rudy pointed his finger at the couples hiding behind the trees, who were doing much worse stuff than kissing and touching.

"Do you see them? They are not afraid of anything."

"You should know it better than anyone that I also want to kiss you and let you touch me, but we can't just do things if we want to, you know? There are always rules and regulations everywhere, and we need to follow them."

Alice had always been like that. She would joke and fool around when she was in mood, but her mood would suddenly turn serious sometimes without any notice and that would make the situation awkward.

Rudy bumped his forehead on Alice's forehead and uttered, "For you, I would even change the concept of reality."

Rudy actually meant to utter it inwardly, but he ended up saying it out loud.

"I don't want you to do such an impossible thing, just abstain yourself until we are here," Alice remarked with a grin on her face.

'That's the difference, Alice. I can change reality without breaking a sweat, but I can't abstain.'

After seeing Alice in her swimsuit, Rudy's libido had gone wild. Of course, he was trying his best to control himself, and it wasn't worse, but he wanted to kiss Alice's juicy lips badly.

Alice's gaze fell on Rudy's brief. Confused, she asked, "I thought men weren't allowed to wear clothes from home?"

"It wasn't mandatory," Rudy replied.

"Oh! Yeah, they do that at many places to cash out as much money as possible from their customers," Alice sighed.

'Sorry Reina, but it seems you have left a bad first impression on Alice.'

Rudy grabbed Alice's hand and said, "Shall we go?"

"Uhh..." Alice shot a glance at their hands and tried to say something.

"Come on. Hand holding is fine, right? It's completely normal and not indecent in any way, at all," Rudy groaned with a sigh.

Alice couldn't retaliate to Rudy's comment, so she had no choice but to hold hands with Rudy.

In truth, Alice was simply embarrassed.

Unlike Rudy, it was her first time in a public place, and for Alice, holding hands was as embarrassing as kissing.

After reaching the pools, they saw that all the pools were occupied.

Sure, that was supposed to happen in the waterpark, but Alice wanted to go into the pool with fewer people in it.

Rudy glanced around all the eleven pools, but all were in the same condition.

"What do you want to do?" Rudy asked Alice in a calm voice.

"If there are many people, we will constantly get interrupted, while I only want to swim with you," Alice muttered in a disdainful tone.

Alice disliked public places and got unwanted attention. Even in school, her purpose came early to school and left late— although Rudy was with her most of the time.

"You know, I think a beach would have been better, but there are no beaches in the nearby three cities," Rudy stated.

"Yeah. And there is no waterpark either. This is the only one within the five cities."

'Oh? I didn't know that. I am pretty sure one existed in the neighboring city in my past life. But I don't remember the exam timeline. Maybe they made it after a few years?' Rudy wondered.

"Maybe... we should leave and go somewhere else? Maybe in a garden, aquarium, or shopping mall?" Alice suggested.

Rudy knew how excited Alice was for this waterpark date. She even bought a new swimming suit for him.

"There is another vacant pool on the other side. But it's only reserved for booking." Rudy caressed Alice's face and said, "Do you want me to talk to the manager?"

"Wouldn't it cost a lot of money to rent a pool?" Alice asked with a curious look on her face.

"But if it's not currently booked, then maybe they can give us?"

"I will go talk to her," Alice said. "She is already angry at you because she caught you kissing me. And now if you went to ask to rent the pool, she would think you want to do something indecent."

'That's my plan...'

"That's why, I will try to talk to her and see if she agrees."

"Okay."

Rudy would have gone with Alice, but he wanted to confirm something.

"I will be right back."

After saying that, Alice walked to Reina's office.

Rudy immediately rushed to the other side of the park to check the pool, and as he had expected it was empty, with not a single drop of water in it.

"Reina would mostly agree, so I am not worried about that."

Rudy glanced around to make sure no one was looking at him, and then, he used his hydrokinesis to create water and filled the pool.

Chapter 109: Renting A Personal Pool

Alice reached Reina's office and stopped in front of the door.

The door was open, but Reina seemed busy doing some paperwork.

Alice reluctantly knocked on the door and waited for Reina to respond.

KNOCK~ KNOCK!

Reina immediately moved her gaze to the door because she thought Rudy might have come to visit her, but she was a little upset after seeing Alice on her door.

'Why is she here?!' Reina panicked inwardly. 'Did Rudy tell her everything already?'

"Can I come in?" Alice asked in a neutral tone.

'Where is Rudy?! Did he send her alone?! I don't want to be with her alone in a room! What if she does something to me?!'

Reina's reason to panic was natural and logical. She was stealing Rudy from Alice, and that wasn't something acceptable in society.

Reina knew she was doing something immoral, and she felt guilty about it when Rudy first mentioned Alice in front of her. However, her guilt decreased when Rudy proposed the idea of the harem.

While it was true that harem wasn't also a thing acceptable by society, Rudy didn't care about that. As long as his girls were happy and satisfied, he couldn't care less about what the rest of the world thought about it.

Reina glanced around with a panicked look on her face, seemingly looking for Rudy.

"He is not here," Alice informed.

'He is not?! Oh, no! What should I do? Did she see me kissing Rudy earlier?!'

Reina couldn't stop panicking, because she was afraid, but not of Alice. She was afraid that Alice might reject the idea of the harem.

However, Reina was overthinking things.

"Is the pool in the next area booked?" Alice asked in a calm voice.

"Huh?" Reina stared at Alice with a puzzled look on her face.

It took her a while to realize what Alice was talking about.

"Uhh, no. Why?" Reina asked.

"So, can we borrow it?"

"..." Reina squinted her eyes with a confused look on her face because she couldn't understand why they wanted to borrow an empty pool.

"Don't worry! We don't plan to do anything indecent!" Alice added.

'Oh, I am sure Rudy would make some moves on you. Especially when you are alone with him,' Reina uttered inwardly.

"So... can we...?"

"Where is Ru— Where is the man who was with you?" Reina asked in a calm voice. "And what's your relationship with him?"

"Umm..." Alice's face flushed as she squirmed and answered, "He is... my... oh!"

Alice finally realized what Rudy had realized a long time ago.

There was no name for their current relationship.

Sure, they had confessed to each other and their feelings were mutual, they had even done things that crossed the limits of a normal friendship. However, neither Rudy nor Alice had asked each other out.

Alice was so happy about getting together with the love of her life, that she never considered other things. She was still over the cloud, and she had yet to come back to her senses, which wasn't going to happen anytime soon.

"Can we?" Alice asked again.

Reina could just say 'Sure', but she wasn't actually sure.

The pool was empty, and she discarded the possibilities of Rudy having the power to create water out of thin air.

So she chose to go with her.

"I will come with you."

When Reina and Alice reached the pool, it was already filled with clean water.

"...!"

'How? The motors are not working for this pool, and its tank is empty. I didn't want to waste water, so I kept it empty thinking I would have it filled when it got booked since the advanced booking must be done 2 days ago. But...'

Reina glanced at Rudy, who simply winked at her from the angle Alice couldn't see.

'It must be nice having superpowers...' Reina thought. 'If I had them, I would do all the work without needing anyone. And Rudy and I would spend the rest of the time together.'

"Hello, miss." Rudy greeted Reina with a smile on his face. He stood in front of her and said, "This pool is empty. Can we use it for a day?"

Reina wanted to comment something to tease Rudy as he was also teasing her, but she didn't do it because of Alice.

As a fellow girl, Reina sympathized with Alice's feelings and knew very well how it was to spend time with the man they love.

"You can use it, but make sure to drain the water before you leave," Reina said in a neutral tone to not reveal her emotions behind the words.

"Thank you, miss. Maybe your lover will also take you somewhere and make you happy," Rudy scoffed softly.

"Unfortunately, my boyfriend is too busy to make time for me. I doubt he even loves me," Reina squinted her eyes and uttered, "I am sure he is spending time with other girls."

'Wow. She is throwing shade at me even though I am standing right in front of her,' Rudy uttered inwardly.

"Umm... sorry for interrupting, but I think you shouldn't say that," Alice quipped. "Your boyfriend is working hard for both of you, and I am sure he feels the same way as you. He must also want to spend time with you, but here you are busy with your work, and so is he."

"..."

"I think you two should make some time and have a talk in person. Don't do it online or via text, as you can't show your emotions behind your words. Sometimes, it's better if you talk face to face," Alice asserted with a smile on her face.

"..." Reina was surprised to hear such words of wisdom from Alice's mouth.

That showed how mature Alice was in terms of relationships and how deeply she cared about feelings that are considered to be in a relationship.

Rudy couldn't help but admire Alice's maturity regarding that matter.

'She always amazes me at unexpected moments.'

"Thank you, miss. I hope everything works out in your relationship, too."

After saying that, Reina left for her office.

After Reina left, Rudy and Alice stared at each other with alluring gazes in their eyes.

Once again it seemed to be the moment where they both were thinking of the same thing, however, they could be wrong as the last time so neither of them took the initiative.

A few seconds passed like that, but nothing happened. Until suddenly, the lace from Alice's swimsuit got loosened.

"...!"

Of course, Alice realized it, and she stopped the top from falling, but the lace was still loosened.

Alice crouched down in embarrassment and looked at Rudy with teary eyes.

"It's okay. There is no one around to see that," Rudy said in a calm voice.

Alice calmed down a little, but it was still embarrassing for her.

"Do you... want me to...?"

Alice nodded in response and said, "Please."

Rudy walked to Alice and sat down beside her.

"You can let go of it now. I will take care of it," he said.

"But it will fall if I—"

"Is that a bad thing...?" Rudy asked with a grin on his face.

Alice's face flushed red as she heard that. She buried her face between her legs and muttered something, but Rudy was able to hear it thanks to his super hearing ability.

She said, 'It's still too early for that' under her breath.

Rudy moved behind Alice and grabbed the laces that had gotten loose. However, he found something strange.

There was a cut in the laces, but it wasn't a natural cut. It was perfectly messed with at the right part and made it look like an accident cut. Unlike the natural cut, it was sharp, that was enough reason for Rudy to conclude that Alice's swimsuit was messed with.

The cut eventually widened when Alice wore a swimsuit and moved around, which broke the laces from the swimsuit.

'Unfortunately, I can't tell how much time has been since it was cut, and I can't ask Alice about it, or she would feel more insecure.'

"Is it done?" Alice asked in an anxious voice.

'I can't use my restoration ability, or it would just get back to the state where it was cut. And the same thing will happen again after a few minutes.'

Rudy decided to use pyrokinesis to burn the end of the lace and attach it back with the swimsuit while it was hot. But it didn't work.

'I have to use the right amount of heat to make it attach!'

After a few tries, Rudy successfully fixed Alice's swimsuit, but it left the black spot from where it was attached.

"Yeah, it's fixed. I was having a hard time knotting the laces," Rudy responded in a calm voice.

Alice sighed in relief and loosened up her stiffened body.

"Where did you buy this swimming suit?" Rudy asked with a curious yet calm look on his face.

He wanted to know who was behind this inhumane activity.

Alice told Rudy the address of the shop.

"Now then..." Rudy gave a little push to Alice and said, "Shall we dive into the pool?"

Alice quietly nodded and said, "You first."

In his past life, Rudy was awful at swimming, and he couldn't swim without a tube or a partner. Once, when he had gone to the beach with his girlfriend, he nearly drowned while trying to show his cool side to her.

However, in this life, Rudy didn't have to worry about anything. He could learn things by looking at them once.

Rudy stood at the edge of the pool and moved his hand towards Alice. He smiled at her and said, "Let's go together."

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 110: Reina Is Curious

It has been a few hours since Rudy and Alice rented themselves a personal pool, and that too, free of cost.

Reina was in her office, feeling sleepy and dozing off every couple of minutes.

Until a few hours ago, she wasn't feeling tired or sleepy because she was excited to see Rudy again. And in less than a day, her relationship with Rudy had changed too much.

Their relationship changed from being friends to lovers, and they also crossed all the limits a name of a relationship would have.

Either way, it didn't matter much to Rudy or Reina as both of them were adults and capable of making decisions.

Rudy also told Reina everything before advancing his relationship with her to the last level.

Reina looked at the time and noticed half-day had already passed.

"It's breaktime in 3 minutes..."

The water park had CCTV cameras, but not in every corner and definitely not near the pools. There was one camera covering 4 pools, and the other camera covering the rest 7 pools.

However, the pool on the other side had a camera in the middle that monitored the entrance and the entire pool.

Since it was a reserved pool, entry was restricted for anyone other than the staff. Of course, the camera was activated, and recording everything, but Reina didn't invade Rudy and Alice's privacy by checking up on them through the camera.

'How would they know even if I do that?'

That thought crossed her mind thousands of times, but Reina endured. She wanted to see what Rudy and Alice were doing, and as she knew Rudy was a hidden pervert, she was sure that they might be doing something indecent.

In the end, curiosity got the best of Reina, and she switched the screen to see what Rudy and Alice were doing.

Much to her surprise, they were swimming normally without any sign of something illicit.

Rudy was sitting on the ledge, while Alice was swimming towards Rudy. Both of them had bright smiles on their faces, and they looked genuinely happy.

"They look so good together. It's almost as though they are made for each other..." Reina muttered.

After looking at Alice, Reina recalled what Rudy had told her about Alice.

'She is the one who committed suicide after getting rejected by Rudy. Honestly, she looks so happy now that I can guess what type of girl she is. Even though I only exchanged a few conversations with her, she seemed to be a shy and awkward type of girl who wouldn't open up to anyone unless she trusts them deeply. She thinks about others before her, and that could raise her expectations only to be shattered afterward.'

"Rudy looked sad when he mentioned Alice, so I wonder if he blamed himself for her death." After a brief pause, she uttered, "But I am glad Rudy got a second chance to make up for everything. He can love all the girls, satisfy them, and give them a happy ending."

RING~RING!

The break started and everyone slowly left the pools.

They all either went to the canteen or decided to end the day and go home.

Of course, one would hardly spend the entire day in the pool, even if the tickets said so. They would feel tired in a few hours and get exhausted soon after.

Most people visit the waterpark to relax and enjoy their time with their loved ones. The next day, they would go back to their daily routine such as the office, school, university, or running a store.

That's why, they couldn't afford to get too exhausted since they had to resume their daily life tomorrow. Otherwise, they would remain tired and get drained over the weekdays.

But Rudy didn't have to worry about any of that since he had no worries about anything.

However, now, it was a good time for Reina as the canteen was filled with people, and it was one of the main income of the waterpark.

While everyone was busy eating and resting, Reina was watching Rudy and Alice through the monitor.

"There is no way that Rudy won't try to do something to her. I may not know him that well, but considering what happened yesterday, I highly doubt Rudy would stay calm. Furthermore, Rudy and my relationship were close to nothing, and we still ended up breaking all the barriers, so it would be safe for me to assume what he can do with a girl he wants to go out with."

Reina had an amused look on her face while watching them.

"He also has a super libido that makes him horny all the time..."

Rudy had given a practical demonstration to Reina by giving her orgasm denial at the right time.

"It must be hard for Rudy to abstain himself, especially when they are alone where no one can see him."

"Well, you are seeing us," a voice commented from behind Reina.

"...!" Reina immediately turned around to see Rudy looking at her in disbelief.

Then, she turned to the screen to see the pool was empty.

"How?! You were a second ago. And even if you can teleport, Alice can't! So how... wait..." Reina raised her brows with a curious look on her face and asked, "Did you jam the camera or something?"

"Yup! And Alice went to the canteen to buy food."

"Well..." Reina averted her gaze and muttered, "That's cheating."

"Oh? And may I ask what you were doing?" Rudy asked with a judging look on his face.

"I am the owner and the manager of this place, so it's my duty to make sure everything is alright," Reina stated her reason to invade Rudy and Alice's privacy.

"First of all, you are not the manager of this place; I am. And second, you are a liar."

"..."

Reina looked at Rudy with teary eyes without speaking a word.

"Don't look at me with those innocent puppy eyes. You had promised me yesterday that you will always be honest, and yet you have been lying to me," Rudy asserted.

Reina hugged Rudy and said, "I love you."

"If you think doing this would save you, then you are absolutely right," Rudy scoffed with a grin.

"I can feel your dick hitting me. How are you managing it so far?" Reina asked curiously.

"I think it's about to explode..." Rudy replied with a sigh.

Reina brought her face close to Rudy's ear and whispered in a seductive voice: "Do you want to fuck me?"
