Chapter 741 - Top of the Beast Spirit Ranking (1)

Top of the Beast Spirit Ranking (1)

There were two rankings in the Strange Beast Gate. One was the Myriad Spirit Ranking, and the other was the Beast Spirit Ranking. These two rankings were very important to every race and cultivator. Among them, the Myriad Spirit Ranking concerned the foundation and future of the race, and the Beast Spirit Ranking could allow Beast Spirit geniuses to obtain more resources and increase.

Shen Ping had obtained the green bracelet himself and had a trace of authority over the Realm Sea Peak. He was not as eager for the rankings as before, but Yin Ting was different. As a cultivator of the Winged Race, the higher the rankings, the higher her status in the race, and the more resources she would obtain.

Although most of the important resources had come from Shen Ping over the years, the Winged Race had also invested a lot of resources, especially the cultivation resources that accelerated time. They far exceeded other resources.

“Husband, if I can enter the top 100 of the Beast Spirit Ranking this time, Ting’er might have more time to be with you.” Yin Ting raised her gentle eyes and said gently.

Shen Ping was stunned. “Ting’er, are you saying that your Winged Race can let you come to the Abyss of Supreme Darkness?”

Yin Ting nodded. “I’ve probed Master previously. I think Master has contacted the upper echelons of the Winged Race. As long as I can reach the level of a top prodigy, I will have a chance to go to the Abyss of Supreme Darkness. Over the years, as your reputation spread, the reputation of the human race has increased day by day, and it has gradually recovered its former prosperity. Therefore, my Winged Race might also want to use our relationship to build a relationship with the human race.”

There was really such a possibility. Ever since the decline of the human race, although the Winged Race did not suppress the human race like the Spirit Race, the Devil Clan, and the Demon Race, they did not help the human race much either. Even if they were neutral, they would stand on the side of the Spirit Race most of the time. Now that they saw the human race's reputation increase, the Winged Race would naturally think of repairing their relationship.

Not to mention, their relationship had never been hidden. The prodigies of the various races basically knew. Therefore, Shen Ping felt that this matter should not be a big problem. He could not help but say excitedly, "Ting'er, then you have to work hard for the Beast Spirit Ranking this time."

Although they could meet often in the Strange Beast Gate, it was better to stay by his side. And in terms of resources, his were much stronger than what the Winged Race could give Yin Ting. It was only slightly inferior in terms of time acceleration cultivation.

"Don't worry, husband. Ting'er will definitely do her best."

He looked at Yin Ting's determined gaze. Shen Ping smiled and his broad palm became dishonest again. "Ting'er's feathers have recovered, right? Let me check you again."

On the day of the opening of the Beast Spirit Ranking, a large number of Beast Spirit geniuses gathered in the underground palace of the Strange Beast Gate.

Compared to thousands of years ago when Shen Ping first entered this place, the number of Beast Spirit geniuses in the Heavenly Palace soared again. Even the second level of the Heavenly Palace had increased by hundreds of thousands. A portion of these geniuses had obtained the Beast Pattern Golden Fruit, and a large portion of them had naturally born with the bloodline of strange beasts.

He looked around at the new faces.

Shen Ping's eyes narrowed slightly. These new Beast Spirit geniuses had all been added within nearly 200 years. Even the human race had increased by hundreds over the years. In the past, it would have been almost impossible because the bloodline of strange beasts contained in the human body was too thin. Even if they were very close to strange beasts, it would be difficult to be affected. But now, they had suddenly appeared.

Clearly, there was some change to the Strange Beast Gate. He guessed that it was very likely related to him obtaining the green bracelet.

On the White Jade Square, with the appearance of the rankings, the divine runes of the Immortal Seal slowly appeared. Not long after, all the Beast Spirit geniuses were sucked in. Regardless of the previous rankings, every Beast Spirit genius had to start from the first stone house.

However, this was very easy for Shen Ping. Facing those bovine-like creatures, he killed them as easily as cutting melons and vegetables. He passed through stone houses, grasslands, wooden houses, and so on. In less than a day, he rushed to the first place on the rankings.

Even the strongest prodigy of the Realm Clan was left behind by him.

He had comprehended 50% of the seven types of Heaven and Earth Great Dao, including metal, wood, water, fire, and earth. The complete scales and single horn of the strange beast were no longer as obscure and difficult to understand as before. They were like a little girl who had taken off layers of clothes, with no more secrets to speak of.

Shen Ping stepped onto the first stone step again. After experiencing eight Beast Spirit Ranking battles, he had been defeated on the first step every time. The creature on this step was a complete scaled creature with a height of 30 feet. It could be said that if one did not have a basic understanding of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao, it was impossible to pass.

The moment the fire creature appeared, scale keratin condensed all over his body, and he was covered in it.

After absorbing the origin blood, the strange beast bloodline in his body had reached perfection. The horn was almost no different from the strange beast horn. Even if he stood still, it would be difficult for this fire creature to defeat Shen Ping.

Roar.

The fire creature roared and instantly rushed towards Shen Ping.

It was still the same claw that gathered the truth of the world. In the past, it was difficult for Shen Ping to dodge, but this time, he dodged easily. All the movements of the invincible fire creature in front of him were extremely slow in his eyes.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Regardless of the fire creature's attack, he dodged every time by a small distance, as if he was playing with the other party.

In the end, after figuring out all the attacks and movements of the fire creature, Shen Ping brazenly attacked with his spear. The tip of the Primordial Chaos Spear emitted the power of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth and directly pierced through the fire creature. In the next moment, the fire creature turned into dust and dissipated.

The blurry second step became solid..

Chapter 742 - Top of the Beast Spirit Ranking (2)

Top of the Beast Spirit Ranking (2)

The creature on this step was also a fire creature, but its size had reached 50 feet, and the pressure it gave Shen Ping was several times stronger.

Boom.

The man and the fire beast quickly fought.

Compared to the fire creature on the first step, the strength of the second step had increased too much. Through the exchange of blows in these five minutes, the power of the strange beast that the fire creature erupted with was equivalent to 20% of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. Moreover, because of the sharpness and strength of its attacks, its overall strength was about the same as the Star Platform experts in the giant hall world who had 30% of the power of Heaven and Earth.

However, he was still not Shen Ping's match.

Then, it was the third step. This was an ice crystal creature. A strange beast horn vaguely grew out of its head. Although the power of heaven and earth that erupted was about 30%, just one claw made Shen Ping lose his combat strength and he was directly eliminated.

He stood at the white jade square again.

Shen Ping was still in a daze. He originally thought that he could reach the fourth step this time, but he was defeated on the third stone step. Moreover, he lost so quickly.

“That claw is really terrifying!”¹¹

It was the same claw attack, yet the pressure brought by the fire creature was on a completely different level from the ice crystal creature. He had a feeling that if they were really fighting outside, the ice crystal creature's claw would definitely be able to easily tear space apart.

When he came back to his senses, he subconsciously thought of Jiang You in the giant hall world. The other party was very adept in the use of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao. The reason why he lost to him was completely because of the origin blood. Although the ice crystal creature's claw only had 30% of the power of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao, it erupted with more than 30%.

It was as if it was natural.

“Comprehension and usage... The power of different Heaven and Earth Great Dao is different, and the usage method is also the key. My comprehension of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao is not low now, and it's even comparable to some Immortal Venerables, but the usage is too crude.”

Shen Ping already knew where he had lost. To be honest, his use of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao was only at the superficial level. He had not even learned some secret techniques, so it was naturally impossible for him to erupt with the true power of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao.

Moreover, up until now, he had not chosen what Great Dao he wanted to walk.

Simply put, be it metal, wood, water, fire, earth, or the comprehension of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, he was only at the theoretical foundation level.

“It's the strongest prodigy of the human race, Shen Ping. Why is he out so quickly?”

“Who knows? However, he's still first. I wonder if the Realm Clan and the Stone Clan can surpass him.”

” I don' t think so. The strongest prodigy of the Realm Race has always been ranked first. Although Shen Ping rushed up very quickly this time, he will still be surpassed in the end.”

The Beast Spirit geniuses who had been eliminated from the plaza discussed in low voices. Shen Ping turned a deaf ear and casually found a place to sit cross-legged. It would take at least half a month for the Beast Spirit Ranking to end.

In the human Immortal Dao territory.

Misty Peak.

Venerable Sovereign Dojo.

Immortal Venerables Nanji, Qi, Yu, and Yao were all gathered here. These were all their avatars. Under normal circumstances, Immortal Venerables, including Venerable Sovereigns, would leave their avatars here. It was mainly to prevent any unexpected situations, especially when Immortal Venerables went to the Realm Sea. Avatars were very important. Not only could they exchange intelligence in time, the other Immortal Venerables, including Venerable Sovereigns, could also quickly save them in times of danger.

Most of the time, Immortal Venerables would go to the Realm Sea. After all, it was very difficult for them to have any opportunities to improve themselves in the Immortal Dao territory. Even if they were in seclusion to cultivate, they could just use their avatars.

“It seems that Shen Ping has gained a lot in the giant hall world. He can actually rush to the top of the rankings so quickly.”

” I heard from Venerable Sovereign that Shen Ping has already comprehended the basics of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao. Moreover, he has comprehended more than one. It shouldn’t be a problem to stabilize the top of the rankings.” “Those above the scale level of the strange beast are all comprehensions of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao. Even if the Realm Clan and the Stone Clan have any gains, they will at most be at the entry level. They should be 90% confident of obtaining first place this time.”

Immortal Venerable Qi and the others said one after another. They felt honored that a prodigy of the human race could ascend to the top of the rankings.

At this moment, Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong smiled and said, “Everyone, this disciple of mine is not bad, right?”

The other Immortal Venerables immediately praised. Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong continued, “Shen Ping does have some talent in the Heaven and Earth Great Dao. There are also opportunities in the giant hall world. I’ve decided to bestow the Chaos Hole Heart I obtained in the Realm Sea to him.”

The dojo suddenly fell silent.

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong was not surprised at all. The Chaos Hole Heart was incomparably precious. From a certain perspective, it was even more precious than a Great Dao treasure. It would only be born in the Realm Sea every few million years. Yet for some reason, very few people would use the Chaos Hole Heart.

Immortal Venerable Qi was the first to break the atmosphere. “Venerable Sovereign, please think twice. The Chaos Hole Heart is an indispensable treasure to walk the Chaos Hole Great Dao. Once Shen Ping uses it, he will have to walk the Chaos Hole Great Dao. So far, no one in the myriad races has comprehended the complete Great Dao and reached the Venerable Sovereign realm.”

The meaning behind his words was to give the Chaos Hole Heart to Shen Ping.

Immortal Venerable Yu immediately said, “Although Shen Ping is talented and can be said to be peerless in the Great Dao and opportunities, the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole is extremely difficult. It’s really not a good choice.”

Immortal Venerable Yao said, “Fellow Daoists, you’re right. Although the Chaos Hole Great Dao is considered a top Great Dao among the many Heaven and Earth Great Daos, it’s extremely powerful. Many geniuses have once walked this path, but none of them succeeded. Now is an important moment for our human race to reproduce and prosper. Shen Ping is the key. Venerable Sovereign, please be careful.”

The other Immortal Venerables also advised. The Great Dao had the same destination, but there were differences in the process of walking towards the end of the Great Dao. The threshold of the Chaos Hole Great Dao was extremely high, and even though the upper limit of achievement was also high, no one felt that walking this Great Dao was a suitable choice.

In the past, countless geniuses had finally turned to dust. It had long been proven that this path was a complete waste of time. Therefore, although the Chaos Hole Heart was precious, no one dared to use it.

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong looked around. He had actually thought about this carefully. If Shen Ping had not comprehended many Heaven and Earth Great Dao, he would definitely not have raised this matter. However, the other party had such an opportunity in the giant hall world and happened to obtain the Chaos Hole Heart in the Realm Sea. He felt that this was an opportunity.

“Everyone, don’t worry. Although I have this intention, I will also explain the pros and cons to my disciple. In the end, he has to choose himself.”

The other Immortal Venerables heaved a sigh of relief.

Half a month passed in a flash. Shen Ping, who was at the top of the rankings, still did not fall. This disappointed the prodigies of the foreign races, and for the first time, the strongest prodigies of the Realm Race and the Stone Race tasted the feeling of being surpassed.

“Congratulations, husband, on rising to the top of the Beast Spirit Ranking!” Yin Ting congratulated him happily.

Shen Ping also smiled and said, “Ting’er, compared to me ascending to the top of the rankings, it’s much more joyful that you can enter the top too. In the future, we can always be together.”

He couldn’t help but hug Yin Ting. Yin Ting felt extremely shy to do such an intimate action in front of so many prodigies. On the other hand, the geniuses of the other races were envious and jealous.

“The rise of the human race is a foregone conclusion!”

“I have to quickly befriend the humans.”

“The human race was once prosperous. If they rise again, they will definitely settle the old score. We have to repair the relationship between our race and the human race as soon as possible.”

Many of the foreign races had made up their minds to take action after the Beast Spirit Ranking ended. They could not continue to watch.

The powerful races like the Devil Clan, the Spirit Race, and the Demon Race were worried. If the human race rose again, the fertile resources of the entire territory would be snatched by the human race. This was not what they wanted to see.

“It’s all Shen Ping’s fault!”

“Damn it, I can’t do anything to him in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness!”

“Even Golden Immortals have died in his hands. We can only wait for him to ascend!”

“As long as he ascends, unless he stays in the Venerable Sovereign Dojo of the human race, we will find a chance to deal with him!”

There were restrictions in the lower realm. Golden Immortals were the limit. However, the Immortal Dao territory was different. Venerable Sovereigns could attack with all their might. No matter how monstrous Shen Ping was, he still needed time to grow.

Chapter 743 - Difficulty of the Chaos Hole Great Dao (1)

Difficulty of the Chaos Hole Great Dao (1)

Not long after the Beast Spirit Ranking ended, Yin Ting could not wait to come to the Heavenly Immortal City in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness through the interface passageway. Half a year later, she saw her husband in Gray Stone City.

City Lord Manor.

At the pavilion by the lake, Wang Yun, Yu Yan, Pei Huoyu, and the other Dao companions sized up Yin Ting with smiles. They had long been curious about their husband’s foreign Dao companion. Now that they saw her today, they immediately revealed an expression that they had expected.

“Sister Ting’er is peerless. No wonder my husband often misses her.”

“If it were me, I would definitely bow down to Sister Ting’er’s skirt.”

“Sister Ting’er, take a seat. We’ll be good sisters from now on.”

Listening to the passionate words in her ears, Yin Ting blushed and bowed,
“Sisters, please take care of me in the future.”

They introduced themselves. Wang Yun held Yin Ting’s fair hand and whispered, while Shen Ping was ignored by his wife, concubine, and Dao companions. He did not care and drank his tea.

“Disciple, come to the five continents and four seas quickly.”

At this moment, Lian Xuejin’s voice sounded from the dazzling crystal. When Shen Ping heard this, he guessed that Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong was looking for him. Otherwise, Lian Xuejin would not be so anxious. He immediately said apologetically, “Yun’er, Yan’er, I’m going to the five continents and four seas. Take good care of Ting’er first. When I return, I’ll interact with you properly.”

After Shen Ping left, Bai Yuying smiled and said, “Sister Ting’er is new. Husband will definitely take this opportunity to torture us.”

The others could not help but blush when they heard the meaning behind his words.

Yin Ting was a little confused until Bai Yuying whispered in her ear. Her beautiful face turned red. She thought that the various actions with her husband were already ridiculous, but she did not expect there to be something even more ridiculous.

In the core space of the Nine Continents Tower, Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong’s projection slowly appeared.

Shen Ping hurriedly bowed respectfully. “Greetings, Master.”

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong smiled and nodded. "Disciple, you're at the top of the Beast Spirit Ranking this time. You've increased the prestige of our human race and made me proud."

"This is my duty." Shen Ping said humbly.

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong laughed, "Not everyone can do such a thing. I looked for you this time because I have an important matter regarding the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth."

Shen Ping's expression immediately became serious.

"After the green palace world, disciple, you can comprehend many Heaven and Earth Great Dao. It's really an opportunity that can't be sought. This means that there should be other palace worlds in the Realm Sea Peak that can increase the Heaven and Earth Great Dao."

Shen Ping nodded repeatedly. "Master is right. The Great Dao of Heaven and Earth is difficult to comprehend, but it's relatively easy in the palace world. If we humans want to increase the number of Venerable Sovereigns, we have to increase the number of Beast Spirit geniuses as soon as possible. Only then can we obtain more gains in the next palace world."

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong smiled, "I'm indeed thinking for the sake of the human race. However, that's not what I want to say today. Last time, I briefly explained the various levels and categories of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao to you. Have you chosen which Great Dao you want to walk?"

Shen Ping shook his head. "Master, it's really difficult for me to choose. My understanding of the various Great Dao of Heaven and Earth is too shallow, and I don't know the pros and cons. However, I still want to walk the best Great Dao."

Hearing Shen Ping's words, Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong was not surprised at all. Even prodigies had pride, let alone the strongest prodigy who stood at the top of the Beast Spirit Ranking like Shen Ping.

"In that case, I'll give you a suggestion, the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole."

Shen Ping blinked. He knew that the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole was a top-notch Great Dao of Heaven and Earth and was extremely powerful. “Master, I’ve actually considered the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole before. However, didn’t Master say that no one has successfully walked this Great Dao of Heaven and Earth since ancient times?”

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong nodded. “That’s right. Up until now, no one has reached the end of this Great Dao and become a Venerable Sovereign. If it was in the past, I definitely wouldn’t have suggested such a Great Dao to you. However, the situation is different now. I’ve obtained a Chaos Hole Heart in the Realm Sea. This item can allow you to get started on this Great Dao as quickly as possible, saving you a lot of time. Moreover, it will be easier for you to comprehend it in the future. Next is the Dao Platform.”

He sighed softly, “The appearance of the Dao Platform not only made me realize the difference between my strength and that ancient mighty figure of Realm Sea Peak, but I also understood how long the path of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao is. If I was in the same era as you, I would also choose the top Heaven and Earth Great Dao.

“In the past, it was extremely difficult to comprehend the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole, and it was impossible for you to succeed. However, with the guardian of the Dao Platform, you can continuously understand your shortcomings through sparring and improve from there. This is undoubtedly a shortcut.

“Lastly, there’s Realm Sea Peak.”

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong looked at Shen Ping and said solemnly, “Although the Great Dao is the same, different Great Daos have different starting points. Their future achievements will also be far different. Be it the Chaos Hole Heart, the Dao Platform, or the Realm Sea Peak, these are all things that those prodigies in the past could not have.

“That’s why I gave you this suggestion. However, disciple, the Chaos Hole Great Dao is too difficult. You might never reach the end of this path. Although I suggested it, I still think that taking a relatively simple path is easier to become a Venerable Sovereign..”

Chapter 744 - Difficulty of the Chaos Hole Great Dao (2)

Difficulty of the Chaos Hole Great Dao (2)

Shen Ping understood what Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong meant. He was not in a hurry to answer. He fell into deep thought.

Although he didn't know what the Chaos Hole Heart was, it was incomparably precious. Moreover, he had many opportunities and various strange beast talents. Coupled with the virtual interface, it would be a waste if he still didn't dare to walk the top Great Dao.

Even if he really failed in the future, he believed that he could reach a certain height and rely on the virtual interface and other talents to be carefree.

“Master, I've decided to walk the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole!”

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong was silent for a moment before staring at Shen Ping. “Have you really decided?”

“Yeah.”

“Alright, since you've made a decision, you have to firm your heart.” As he spoke, he flipped his palm and a silver-purple ring appeared. “Inside is the Chaos Hole Heart and the cultivation secret techniques of the Chaos Hole Great Dao. In addition, I've also prepared the handwritten experiences left behind by some powerhouses who have walked this Great Dao. On this path, this is all I can do. The rest can only depend on you.”

Shen Ping hurriedly said, “Thank you, Master.”

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong sighed and said, “I'm actually very conflicted I don't want you to take this path, but I understand that only by taking the top Great Dao of Heaven and Earth will your future achievements be higher and even surpass me. Disciple, as the strongest prodigy of our human race, I don't want to waste your talent."

Shen Ping bowed. "I understand."

He knew that Venerable Tian Hong did not harm him because of his sense of responsibility. Moreover, the other party stood at the level of a Venerable Sovereign and naturally knew more things. This suggestion must have been carefully considered.

Then, Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong gave a few more instructions. Before he left, he said, "Disciple, you've ascended to the top of the Beast Spirit Ranking. When you ascend, the Venerable Sovereigns of the Devil Clan, Spirit Race, and other races might take the opportunity to attack. Even if I protect you at that time, it's inevitable that accidents will happen. In order to be safe, don't be in a hurry to ascend. Cultivate well in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness and strive to comprehend the Chaos Great Dao before you ascend.

"The Chaos Hole Great Dao is a top-notch Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. As long as you comprehend it, with the Great Dao treasure you obtained, you will definitely be able to protect your own safety."

Although Venerable Heavenly Hong was very strong, he was not ridiculously strong. If one or two Venerable Sovereigns of the Spirit Race and Devil Clan attacked, he could still protect them. However, with the help of the Demon Race's Venerable Sovereign, he might not be able to completely protect Shen Ping. He reminded him purely because he didn't want any accidents to happen. Shen Ping nodded heavily. "Yes, Master."

He left the core space of the Nine Continents Tower. He was not in a hurry to return to Gray Stone City. Instead, he came to the headquarters of the True Treasure Pavilion and wanted to see Lian Xuejin. Unexpectedly, Lian Xuejin rejected the meeting on the grounds that she wanted to comprehend the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth and the strange beast. This made Shen Ping unable to help but feel a trace of suspicion.

One had to know that his master had never rejected him. In the past, even if she was in seclusion, she would immediately come out when she heard that he wanted to meet her. Recalling the abnormality of Lian Xuejin's voice last time, Shen Ping could not help but mutter, "Could it be that Master has guessed that the person in the giant hall world with her is me?"

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that it was possible. After all, his master was still very familiar with him. Even if she could not sense the true ' spirit aura in her memories, she could vaguely perceive it.

He sighed.

Shen Ping felt rather helpless. If his guess was true, it would inevitably be awkward between him and his master in the future. However, he had no choice. He really did not expect the impact of the virtual interface to be so great that it could even affect the True Spirit memories sealed by the senior of Realm Sea Peak.

"I'll have to face it sooner or later."

He shook his head, and left the five continents and four seas.

The moment Shen Ping left, Lian Xuejin sighed faintly. She really did not know how to face her disciple, especially when she thought of the shameful scene of that memory. She could not control herself.

He returned to the City Lord Manor.

Shen Ping did not go out for a few months and let Yin Ting familiarize herself with the bodies of Wang Yun, Yu Yan, and the Dao companions to increase their relationship. However, the time to enjoy happiness was always short. Not long after, his wife, concubines, and Dao-companions entered the World Pearl again and began to cultivate in seclusion.

Within the World Pearl, Shen Ping took out the ring that the Venerable Sovereign had given him. His consciousness seeped into it and saw the Chaos Hole Heart inside. It looked like a heart made of stone that was beating slightly. Every beat seemed to be able to drive his heart.

“Heart of the Chaos Hole: A strange object nurtured by the world. After living beings fuse into the body, they will form a strange space in the body. Once this space is formed, it must be nurtured by the Great Dao of the world. Otherwise it will suffer a backlash. The more the Great Dao of the world is comprehended, ’ the faster the Chaotic Hole Space will grow. When it undergoes its first transformation, it will truly understand the true meaning of the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole.

“The Great Dao of the Chaos Hole is a top-notch Great Dao of Heaven and Earth that surpasses time and space. After comprehending the basics, one can casually unleash a small world. The stronger the comprehension, the greater the power of the small world. Similarly, it will be more perfect. After completely comprehending the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole, one can create a true small world.

How to use the Chaos Hole Heart, how to nurture the Chaos Hole Heart...” The things left behind by Venerable Sovereign in the ring were indeed very detailed, allowing Shen Ping to have a clearer understanding of the Chaos Hole Great Dao. He did not expect that this Heaven and Earth Great Dao could actually create a world on its own. No wonder it was a top Heaven and Earth Great Dao.

Even a Venerable Sovereign who had comprehended a complete Heaven and Earth Great Dao would find it difficult to create a world.

On the other hand, if one were to fight and unleash a small world to attack the enemy, the power would simply be unimaginable. However, it was incomparably difficult to reach the entry level. The Chaos Hole Heart only made this process a little easier. Or rather, it provided a convenient direction for cultivators who wanted to comprehend this Dao. The strange space it formed was simply the embryonic form of a small world. When nurtured by the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, one would naturally comprehend the true meaning within.

Therefore, more Heaven and Earth Great Dao was needed to nurture it. It said that at least five types of Heaven and Earth Great Dao were needed to have a chance of success.

Shen Ping had comprehended the seven types of metal, wood, water, fire, earth, wind, and lightning. He had the conditions to successfully nurture them. It was precisely because of this that Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong gave him a suggestion.

“As long as I comprehend the basics, with the Dao Platform, I can better adjust my improvement. However, the nurturing of the Chaos Hole Heart is very important. The more I comprehend the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, the more perfect the transformation of the strange space.

“I have the talent to devour. As long as there’s a suitable opportunity, I can quickly comprehend the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. From the looks of it, the Chaos Hole Heart is indeed very suitable for me!”

He had never thought of relying on his talent to comprehend the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. This was because even an existence of origin blood needed a long time to comprehend a basic path. What he lacked was time.

After entering Realm Sea Peak, Shen Ping quickly contacted the black-robed artifact spirit through the green bracelet.

“Senior, I wonder if I can go to those palace worlds with the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth?”

The black-robed Artifact Spirit smiled and said, “Of course you can. However, even if you have a trace of authority, you have to seal the True Spirit’s memories to enter these worlds. In addition, you can only enter the palace world where the other bracelets are can with other Beast Spirits. In addition, the palace world you enter must be the palace world that will open next time.” Shen Ping looked happy. As long as he could enter, it was fine. “Senior, can I bring the others in with me?”

The black-robed Artifact Spirit shook its head, "Only Beast Spirits with authority can enter in advance. The next palace world with the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth will open after three Beast Spirit Rankings."

The Beast Spirit Ranking would be opened once every 500 years. Three times meant 1,500 years. This bit of time was nothing to Shen Ping. Unfortunately, he could not bring his wife, concubine, and Dao companions in. Otherwise, with his advantage, he would definitely be able to quickly increase their strength. Shen Ping, when you obtain the other bracelet of the Realm Sea Peak, your authority will increase greatly. At that time, you can bring the other Beast Spirits into the palace world, and you can also sense the approximate location of the remaining three bracelets." The black-robed artifact spirit reminded him.

Shen Ping hurriedly said, "Thankyou for telling me, Senior."

After leaving Realm Sea Peak, he returned to the World Pearl to cultivate in seclusion.

Chapter 745 - Desolate Mountain Ancient Temple (1)

Desolate Mountain Ancient Temple (1)

Immortal Swan Pavilion.

Zi Mei'er sighed faintly. "A thousand years have passed, but City Lord Shen has not come to admire the dance. It seems that Mei'er's appearance is difficult to enter City Lord Shen's eyes. Forget it. Mei'er has decided to set off tomorrow to return to the Heavenly Mystic World."

The shopkeeper wanted to persuade her to stay, but he swallowed his words. "Fellow Daoist Zi is an outstanding beauty. However, City Lord Shen is a prodigy of our human race. Most of his energy is focused on cultivation and he doesn't care much about the mortal world. Otherwise, he would definitely understand Fellow Daoist Zi's heart."

“And there are many outstanding people in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness, other than City Lord Shen. Fellow Daoist Zi, you might be able to settle for the next best thing. It might be a form of cultivation.”

Over the years, there were countless young elites who had feelings for Zi Mei'er. Among them, there were even juniors of the Shen family. Unfortunately, Zi Mei'er did not fancy any of them and focused on Shen Ping.

Unfortunately, all were unrequited.

Zi Mei'er shook her head. “I've made up my mind. Senior Chen, perhaps we'll meet again in the future.” With that, she turned around and left.

As he looked at her back, the shopkeeper shook his head helplessly and thought to himself that Zi Mei'er was too arrogant. Ever since the True Treasure Pavilion's reputation rose and City Lord Shen's reputation spread far and wide, countless beauties wanted to obtain the City Lord's favor so that they could go straight to the sky. However, no one succeeded in the end.

He had long heard that the sisters of the An family had followed City Lord Shen when he was young. Only then could they become his Dao companions. Clearly, the other party valued affection and not looks.

“She was born at the wrong time!”

He felt that it was a pity. Zi Mei'er was really patient. If she had known the City Lord when he was weak like the An sisters, she might have already moved into the City Lord Manor today.

The next day, the beast carriage stepped on the bluestone road, creating waves of coolness. There was another sad person who was far away from the huge city gate of Gray Stone City. However, among the cultivators coming and going, there were also female cultivators who entered the city gate with anticipation, thinking that they could get to know the famous City Lord Shen of the myriad races.

The white clouds were drifting.

Gray Stone City, which had experienced countless years, would bear another unknown story. This was the cultivation world.

Another five hundred years later, within the World Pearl, Shen Ping, who had his eyes and ears closed, slowly opened his eyes. He sensed that the special space created by the Chaos Hole Heart in his body was gradually evolving into the embryonic form of a world. A hint of unconcealable joy appeared in the corners of his eyes.

After using the seven types of Great Dao of Heaven and Earth to nurture it for more than a thousand years, his efforts finally paid off. If he was willing, he could completely develop the Chaos Hole Space into the embryonic form of a world now. However, such a world was not perfect. It was just a framework. Even if he comprehended the Chaos Hole Great Dao, the power of the small world he could activate in the future would be much weaker.

This was not what Shen Ping wanted to see. Since he had chosen the top Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, he planned to make it the strongest.

“Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, Earth, Wind, Lightning. The level of these Heaven and Earth Great Dao is too low. It’s the most basic Heaven and Earth Great Dao. If I want to perfect the Chaos Hole Space, I have to comprehend some higher-level Great Dao!”

Actually, this was one of the reasons why walking the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole was so difficult. After all, if he could comprehend a higher-level Great Dao, he naturally had a chance of breaking through to the Venerable Sovereign realm. Why would he spend so much effort to choose the Chaos Hole Great Dao?

“I hope there are good gains in the giant hall world.”

He got up and looked around. His wife, concubines, and Dao companions were not around. Shen Ping left the World Pearl with a thought and came to the pavilion by the lake. Indeed, Wang Yun, Yu Yan, and the others were sitting together and chatting.

Sensing the natural aura emitted by them, he smiled.

1,500 years of seclusion cultivation, coupled with the 4.5 times time acceleration of the World Pearl, it was equivalent to nearly 70,000 years of bitter cultivation. No matter how stupid his dao companions were, with sufficient resources, they broke through to the Mahayana Realm from the Body Integration Realm one after another.

Among them, Ying Yue, who was the most talented, was already at the late-stage Mahayana Realm and was not far from Tribulation Transcendence. Next, Yue Lingluo had also reached the mid-stage Mahayana Realm. The others were all at the early-stage Mahayana Realm.

However, compared to Yin Ting from the Strange Beast lineage, there was still a considerable difference in their strength. As soon as Shen Ping sat down, he became the center of his wives, concubines, and Dao companions. The women immediately surrounded him.

“What are you talking about?” He opened his mouth to eat the grape that Bai Yuying handed him and asked casually.

Yu Yan smiled and said, “We were just discussing if we should go out and travel to relax. We’ve been in seclusion for a long time and don’t know anything about the changes in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness. It’s a good opportunity to go out and understand.”

Bai Yuying giggled. “Husband, haven’t we broken through to the Mahayana Realm? We also want to find a few foreign races to practice and exercise.”

Shen Ping pinched Bai Yuying’s face. “This is what you think, right?”

“Alright, from the Mahayana Realm to the Tribulation Transcendence, it’s mainly the condensation of the soul. Your mental state is very important. It’s time for you to go out and travel. Have you thought about where to go?”

The girls looked at each other. In the end, Pei Huoyu said, “Other than the Abyss of Supreme Darkness, we plan to go to other cultivation worlds to take a look.”

Shen Ping was stunned. Now that many interface passageways that connected to the Abyss of Supreme Darkness had been opened, it was indeed very convenient to go to various cultivation worlds. However, he was a little worried.

Yue Lingluo said, "Husband, we have many immortal artifacts that you gave us. We also have powerful immortal talismans and strange beast talismans. We can protect ourselves even if we encounter a Heavenly Immortal or even a Golden Immortal in the lower realm. Moreover, Sister Ting'er will be with us this time.."

Chapter 746 - Desolate Mountain Ancient Temple (1)

Desolate Mountain Ancient Temple (1)

He looked at Yin Ting. Yin Ting nodded with a smile. Only then did Shen Ping relax. Yin Ting had stepped into the scaled level more than 500 years ago. Although she was at the Tribulation Transcendence realm, her overall combat strength was comparable to a Heavenly Immortal. With her around, she could deal with any situation.

They chatted for a while more, and Wang Yun talked about the situation of the descendants of the Shen family's bloodline in recent years. The eldest son, Shen An, had been staying in the eastern district of the Abyss of Supreme Darkness for the past few hundred years. He was in charge of the operation and management of the True Treasure Pavilion there. The eldest daughter, the second daughter, and the other first and second generation descendants had long gone to other cultivation worlds to develop the True Treasure Pavilion. However, 200 years ago, all the descendants of the bloodline came to Gray Stone City.

"An'er has already broken through to the Mahayana Realm. The others are also at the Body Integration realm. The first and second generation descendants of my Shen family's bloodline have finally grown up."

Shen Ping nodded. This cultivation speed was not bad. After all, with the enhancement of the cultivation time of the World Pearl, if it had not grown, it would really be a waste of so many resources. "Where are Tiantai and Qinglian?" He asked.

"Tiantai has already reached the Body Integration Realm, and Qinglian just broke through to the Void Refinement Realm last year. However, all these years, the potential of the juniors born in the clan is relatively ordinary. Even if they use resources, they can at most reach the Void Refinement Realm. Whether they can break through to the Body Integration Realm depends on their own luck." Wang Yun sighed.

Although the Shen family was the strongest in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness and had a huge force like the True Treasure Pavilion, they would not provide unlimited resources for the nurturing of the younger generation. Thousands of years ago, the Shen family had already formulated a nurturing plan. Only the talented or hard working younger generation would receive a large amount of resources.

Shen Ping fell silent. A family clan needed tens of thousands of years to produce geniuses, and the Shen family had developed for more than 4,000 years. Although their heritage could not compare to those Itinerant Immortal and Tribulation Transcendence families, they were considered a medium-sized family clan in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness. However, no true genius had been born. Shen Tiantai could only be considered half a genius.

"The children and grandchildren have their own blessings. The first and second generation have gradually grown up. In the future, other than resources like the World Pearl, Yun'er, Yan'er, you don't have to care about anything else. Let An'er and the others handle it. Your own cultivation is the most important." Wang Yun, Yu Yan, and the other women nodded. They knew that their husband had long reached the level where he could ascend. The reason why he did not ascend was because he was waiting for them to break through the Tribulation Transcendence and ascend together.

In the next few months, he accompanied his wife, concubine, and Dao companions well. It was not until Wang Yun, Pei Huoyu, and the others left the City Lord Manor and began to travel that he came to the quiet room and entered the Strange Beast Gate.

However, before going to the Realm Sea Peak palace, Shen Ping chatted with his master, Lian Xuejin, about cultivation through the dazzling crystal.

After more than a thousand years, Lian Xuejin was no longer as afraid to face her disciple as before. Although those memories had already seeped into her bones, the emotions they affected were not as strong as before.

On the palace complex of Realm Sea Peak that stretched endlessly, Shen Ping saw the black-robed artifact spirit.

The Great Dao of Heaven and Earth was extremely important. However, even with the blood of a perfect strange beast, comprehending one would require tens of thousands of years of accumulation. Therefore, if he wanted to quickly master it, entering the palace world was undoubtedly the fastest way.

Of course, he had another way. That was to have sex with the female cultivators who grasped the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth and increased it through the virtual interface. However, those who could comprehend the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth were basically in the Immortal King realm. Even if he was the strongest prodigy of the human race, it was impossible for him to obtain the body of an Immortal King.

“Shen Ping, because the palace world hasn’t appeared yet, and because you don’t have a bracelet, after you reincarnate, not only will your true spirit be sealed, you won’t have the memories inside when you leave in the future.

“Apart from that, the time flow in the palace world is ten to one compared to the outside world. In three hundred years, the palace world will appear. At that time, the other Beast Spirits will also reincarnate and enter. You have an advantage of 3,000 years compared to them. I hope you can gain something.” The black-robed artifact spirit smiled.

Shen Ping nodded and asked, "Senior, I wonder if reincarnation can descend as an adult?"

"You have the green bracelet, so of course you can. Before you enter, just chant the year bones of the reincarnated soul in your heart. However, I have to remind you that this kind of descent is very risky."

Shen Ping bowed and said, "Thank you for your reminder, Senior."

After saying that, he activated the green bracelet. His body appeared in the center of a huge palace. As he chanted reincarnation in his heart, a wisp of his True Spirit floated out of his body and entered the five-colored vortex in the palace in the blink of an eye.

His vision had just recovered a little when a bone chilling cold wind surged into his body from all directions. Shen Ping subconsciously curled up his body and opened his eyes to look around.

In the dilapidated ancient temple, half of the roof beams had collapsed, and the wooden pillars were smashed on the shoulders of the statue. The surroundings were chaotic and covered in spiderwebs. The ground was damp, and poisonous insects were running around. Cold wind blew in from the windows and the collapsed hole above.

And through the window, the rain was falling. He shook his head. The remnant memories of this body surged in like a tide, but his powerful true spirit instantly finished absorbing and digesting them.

Shen Yu was from Yao County in the Chen Kingdom's Leshan Prefecture. At the age of nineteen, he obtained a scholarly title. Yet two years later, he resolutely left his hometown and ran around the various famous mountains and rivers in the Chen Kingdom. He wanted to visit the immortal mountains and seek Dao and immortality. Unfortunately, he had walked through the mountains for five to six years and did not encounter an immortal encounter. Now, he was poor and starved to death in this ancient temple in a barren mountain.

The reason why he was so persistent was that in the year of the Elementary Scholar examination, he had encountered a fox demon and acted out the story of a scholar and a fox demon.

“Interesting. This world is actually a chaotic world where immortals, demons, and ghosts coexist. I wonder if its cultivation system is the same as outside?” He closed his eyes. After calming down, he used his powerful true spirit to carefully sense the world. Soon, he sensed the spiritual energy fluctuation in the air. However, when Shen Ping was about to circulate according to the cultivation technique he had previously cultivated, he could not absorb the spiritual energy of the world into his body no matter what.

“Looks like the system is different.”

He shook his head, and changed another method. His true spirit tried to sense the fluctuations of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, but there was no movement. It had to be known that although he was only the reincarnation of a wisp of true spirit, many comprehensions, experience, and memories of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth existed. Even if he could not comprehend and mobilize the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, he could rely on his true spirit to sense a trace of fluctuation.

Then, Shen Ping continued to try various methods, but none of them could be cultivated. Even the powerful talismans he relied on lost their effect. Even strange beasts were useless. This made him frown. Finally, he used the training method to strengthen his physique.

Gulp.

After training and absorbing the spiritual energy of heaven and earth for a while, his hungry stomach let out a disappointing cry. When he walked to the entrance of the ancient temple, he revealed a helpless expression. There were no villages or shops in front of this desolate mountain. Where could he get food? However, if he did not replenish some food, he could not maintain his body by relying on training methods.

“Forget it, let’s start a fire first. I can’t freeze to death again.”

He suppressed this thought. He walked out of the ancient temple and found some tree bark that had yet to be drenched in the nearby forest. There was also some cotton wool and other things. He returned to the ancient temple to start a fire.

As the flames jumped up, Shen Ping’s cold body gradually warmed up. Late at night, the rain outside stopped, but the darkness swallowed the ancient temple like a huge beast. Only the dancing flame brought some light.

Looking at the slightly ferocious statue, he clicked his tongue in wonder. The original host was also bold. He actually dared to seek the mountains alone and even stayed in such an ancient temple in a desolate mountain. Wasn’t he afraid of being found by demons and ghosts? Perhaps the original host was looking forward to such an encounter.

“Oh, there is an ancient temple here.”

Suddenly, a soft female voice sounded outside the ancient temple. Immediately after, two girls in raincoats appeared.

Seeing Shen Ping, who was dressed like a scholar, one of the ladies hurriedly bowed and said timidly, “Sorry to disturb you, Young Master. I brought my maid to this temple to avoid the war. I hope you don’t mind.”

Shen Ping casually glanced at the two girls. “This temple is an ownerless place. You two girls don’t have to be polite..”

Chapter 747 - I’m Afraid that Young Master Can’t Take It (1)

I’m Afraid that Young Master Can’t Take It (1)

They took off their raincoats. The two girls sat around the fire. The light from the fire reflected their delicate faces. One of them had fair and moist skin, and her eyebrows were as delicate as willow leaves. Her clear eyes were watery and beautiful, revealing gentleness like autumn water.

“Miss, it’s raining heavily during the day. Your clothes are soaked. If you don’t dry them, you’ll catch a cold at night. Why don’t you take them off and dry them while there’s a fire?”

The maid was 14 or 15 years old, and her voice still sounded young. The young lady in her mouth blushed and rebuked, “When you’re outside, you don’t have to be so particular. Besides, there are outsiders around. It’s not convenient.”

Shen Ping understood and said calmly, “Miss, if you trust me, you can take off your clothes and dry them. I’ll turn around and definitely not peek.”

The maidservant hurriedly said, “Miss, since the young master has already said so, you should agree. The weather is humid, and it’s not easy to treat a cold.”

The young lady, whose skin was moist and translucent, could only bite her red lips shyly and say, “Then, then I’ll have to trouble Young Master.”

Shen Ping nodded and turned around. Soon, rustling sounds could be heard. Although he could not see the front, he could see from the corner of his eye that the shadows elongated by the flames were taking off their clothes one by one, revealing her graceful and curvaceous figure.

Shen Ping was no longer a virgin and had no reaction at all.

“Miss, take off your undergarments too.”

“Mm... You, don’t move. I’ll do it myself.”

After a while, only the crackling of the charcoal fire was left, but there was a faint moan mixed in the sound, and it was getting louder and louder. Shen Ping looked at the shadow and saw two figures stacked together.

“Chunxiang, come on, hurry up.”

“Miss, I’m so tired that I can’t move. Why don’t you call that young master over?”

The two of them seemed to have gradually relaxed their bodies and minds, and their movements and voices became more and more disregarding etiquette. In the end, the cries of the two little girls echoed in the ancient temple.

“Young Master, it’s already late at night. The fire is gradually extinguishing, and the cold air is freezing. Come and warm yourself with us.”

It was mixed with low moans and intermittent soft sounds.

Shen Ping seemed to have been tempted by something. He turned around and walked to the side of the two fair figures. The range of the shadows became stronger and stronger, and he could even smell a pungent smell.

Chunxiang pulled Shen Ping to their side and reached out to take off his clothes. “Young Master, my young lady is cold. You have to help her warm up. Use your hottest place to warm her, hehe...”

Shen Ping’s expression was blurry, but he was very calm in his heart. He had long seen that there was something wrong with these two girls. If they had really avoided the war and come to this ancient temple in the desolate mountain to avoid the rain, how could they still have the fragrance of rouge and powder on their bodies? Moreover, their shoes were not stained with mud. Even without sensing, he knew that these two girls were not human.

However, he had just reincarnated and his body was hungry and weak. He was at his weakest, so he could only pretend not to know and let them charm him.

“It should be a wild fox in the mountains stealing the blood essence of passersby.”

Sensing the fragrance spreading into his body and his blood surging, he could only brace himself to help the weak and delicate little girl in front of him warm up. As a wave of coldness enveloped him, not long after, his body seemed to have been emptied and he lay on the ground tiredly.

“Hmph, this scholar is really useless. He fainted after just one time.” The servant girl Chunxiang said disdainfully.

The young lady, who had absorbed the blood essence, smiled and said, "He has been in the ancient temple for two to three days. It's already good that he didn't starve to death. Tomorrow, I'll get him some wild animals to eat and nourish his body. Perhaps it can help me survive this crisis."

Chunxiang snorted and said, "It's too easy for him. Miss has fair skin and jade bones. You're as beautiful as a Heavenly Immortal. Although you cultivated the Yin Body, you're not someone ordinary people can come into contact with. If not for the fact that you need Yang qi to nourish your injuries this time, you definitely wouldn't have impaired your body for no reason."

The young lady sighed faintly. "Perhaps this is fate. Unfortunately, he's just a weak scholar. However, this is also a good thing for him. When I recover from my injuries, I'll let him leave. Chunxiang, pack up and get some hot water. I'll wash it."

"Yes, Miss."

Shen Ping was still unconscious, but he heaved a sigh of relief in his heart. Fortunately, he did not encounter a demonic ghost. He opened the virtual interface under his eyes. A new virtual frame appeared below.

[You dual cultivated with your Dao Companion once and obtained Dao Bone comprehension +2.]

[Dao Bone (Yin): Low-grade (2/1,000)]

[Special Constitution Bonus (Mystic Yin Jade Body): Yin and Yang Qi +2]

Boom.

The moment the virtual frame was formed, a special bone condensed out of thin air in the position of the spinal dragon in Shen Ping's body. After this bone appeared, he immediately sensed the spiritual energy of heaven and earth in the air slowly surging into his body. His skin felt cold, as if this spiritual energy contained the yin attribute.

“Is this a Dao bone? The kind that looks like a spiritual root in the palace world?”

As a Tribulation Transcendence expert, he understood with just a thought that only those with Dao bones could cultivate in this world. At that moment, he carefully sensed how the spiritual energy of heaven and earth was converted into the mana in his body through the Dao bones.

An hour passed. Shen Ping understood the principle behind it. His mind raced at high speed, and in a short while, he created a cultivation technique that could speed up his cultivation. He named it the Dao Wheel Formula. This cultivation technique combined with his Dao bone and the embryonic form of the Chaos Hole Great Dao that he had comprehended. His cultivation speed was extremely fast, like devouring talent.

However, he did not try. After all, there were two non-human little girls beside him.

Late at night, after taking a bath, the young lady sat cross-legged by the fire and cultivated. Waves of cold spiritual energy of heaven and earth quickly formed a thin fog around her. The maidservant called Chunxiang stood guard at the entrance of the temple.

Chapter 748 - I'm Afraid that Young Master Can't Take It (2)

I'm Afraid that Young Master Can't Take It (2)

“This girl shouldn't be a demon, but she doesn't look like a ghost. The fiery and cold contact just now was extremely condensed. Could it be that this girl is very strong?”

Thinking of the Mystic Yin Jade Body in the virtual frame, he seemed to have understood something.

The next morning, Shen Ping woke up from his 'fainting' and looked at his naked body. He pretended to be flustered and hurriedly put on his clothes. "Ladies, I... I can't remember what happened last night. W-Why is this happening?"

The maidservant, Chunxiang, said angrily, "Young Master, you did something naughty last night while my Miss was sleeping. You ruined her innocence. What a beast!"

"Ah?!"

The delicate young lady glared at the maidservant and said gently, "Young Master, I don't blame you for what happened last night. It's cold. You probably wanted to keep warm and couldn't control yourself for a while."

"Miss..."

"My name is Xi Lengyan."

Shen Ping hurriedly said, "Miss Xi, I-I will be responsible for you."

The servant girl, Chunxiang, snorted. "A toad wants to eat swan meat. Do you know who my young lady is? Can you be responsible?"

"No matter what, I will be responsible."

"That's what you said. If you let my young lady down, I'll tear you apart."

The corners of Shen Ping's mouth twitched. He thought to himself that these two girls' acting skills were too lousy. At this moment, Xi Lengyan handed him a wild mountain drumstick. "Eat it. My maid knows some martial arts. She went hunting in the forest early in the morning. Young Master, quickly nourish your body."

"Thankyou,MissXi."

After eating the wild pheasant, the hunger in his stomach disappeared, and his strength recovered a lot. Originally, he planned to leave the ancient temple and hurry on his way, but it started raining again at noon.

“Young Master, the mountain path is wet and slippery. Let’s wait here for a few days before rushing to Shanyang County.”

“As you say, Miss.”

After a while, the rain was getting heavier. The three of them sat around the fire. Shen Ping chatted with Xi Lengyan and asked about her identity. Unfortunately, Chunxiang rebutted him every time at the critical moment.

It was not evening yet when the sky was dark and gloomy, and the ancient temple was like night.

“If Young Master is cold, you can sit closer.” Xi Lengyan said shyly.

Shen Ping smelled a fragrance and pounced on her without any hesitation. Since the young lady had the intention, how could he reject her? Last night, his body was weak and he did not have the time to enjoy himself. This time, he could not let this young lady who seduced him take advantage of him for nothing.

Soon, Xi Lengyan had seen what a true warrior was. Fortunately, her cultivation was not low and her skills were high. Otherwise, she would not have been able to withstand it. “Y-Young Master, rest first. I’m afraid your body won’t be able to take it. We can do it again tomorrow.” She said breathlessly, her forehead and back were covered in sweat.

Shen Ping indeed felt that his legs were a little weak, mainly because this body was really too weak and malnourished. After replenishing some food, he could already rely on his own ability to do more than ten consecutive times.

“Chunxiang, go to the forest and get some food to nourish Young Master.”

Chunxiang’s face was already covered in spring powder. She swallowed her saliva repeatedly. When she heard this, she could only leave the ancient temple reluctantly.

For the next five to six days, the weather was not good, and the rain kept falling. The three of them had nothing to do in the ancient temple and could only do some meaningful things. As Shen Ping increased his stamina, he secretly cultivated the Dao Wheel Formula. His limbs and bones were constantly nourished and washed by the spiritual energy of heaven and earth.

Seven days passed. He could already do it more than 20 times, making the maid Chun Xiang dumbfounded. That night, the wind whistled outside the temple.

In front of the statue in the temple, seeing Shen Ping's breathing had become steady, the maidservant, Chunxiang, said, "Miss, this scholar is too strong in that aspect. He's simply more powerful than some demons. If not for the fact that Miss needs Yang qi, I would want to try it."

Xi Lengyan chided, "You little hussy, you only know how to think about this. Why don't you cultivate properly?"

Chunxiang said innocently, "Miss, you can't fault me. I can't stand watching Miss and the scholar do things every day."

"You're so talkative. Alright, let's get down to business. Young Master Shen is indeed different from ordinary people. I originally thought that it would take at least two months. Now, according to this situation, I will be able to recover 60% of my strength in another seven to eight days. I'm just afraid that those detestable fellows will catch up."

When Chunxiang heard this, she said, "Miss, don't worry. We've done a lot along the way. We can definitely delay for more than a month. However, this barren mountain has been a little strange recently. When I was hunting in the forest, I sensed several demonic auras. It's very likely that Miss leaked some aura when you recovered."

Xi Lengyan frowned slightly. "The spiritual energy in this barren mountain is not very rich. Even if it nurtures demons, its strength will not be strong. I'm just afraid of alarming the Mountain God."

While the two of them were talking, the sound of the wind was suddenly mixed with wolf howls. The two women immediately stood up. When the wolf howls got closer, Chunxiang's brows relaxed. "Miss, it's just a few wolf demons with less than a hundred years of cultivation. I'll go deal with them now. I can get some meat to nourish Miss." After saying that, her body disappeared.

A moment later, the surroundings instantly became incomparably quiet. The sound of the wind, the howls of wolves, and the cries of various insects disappeared. The spiritual energy of heaven and earth in the air froze.

Xi Lengyan looked wary. The next moment, she turned around and stared at the statue with her limpid eyes. She said coldly, "Since the Mountain God is here, why are you sneaking around and not daring to show yourself?"

"Hahaha." Laughter came from the statue. Then, the entire statue seemed to come to life and opened its stone eyes. "I didn't expect the famous Ghost Concubine to come to my desolate mountain to seduce mortal scholars. If word gets out, I'm afraid the entire Demon Realm will become a joke."

Xi Lengyan did not say a word, but the clothes on her body formed a refined white cloth, and it jumped out like lightning and wrapped the statue into a mummy.

However, balls of flames quickly surged out of the white cloth and spread over in an instant. At the same time, the collapsed wooden pillars of the ancient temple smashed towards Xi Lengyan.

Seeing this, she flung her long sleeve and wrapped it around Shen Ping, who was lying on the ground. In the blink of an eye, she flew out of the ancient temple. The ancient temple chased after them on the ground like a living creature. The vegetation in the forest grew crazily, and vines attacked continuously like an inescapable net.

Xi Lengyan brought Shen Ping and flew for dozens of breaths before arriving beside Chunxiang. The bell on her waist rang, instantly killing all the wolf demons surrounding Chunxiang. "Let's go!"

The two women's escape technique was extremely fast. Even with Shen Ping, they were not affected at all. In a short while, they fled to a low hill near the desolate mountain.

"This is no longer the territory of the mountain range. It's temporarily safe." Xi Lengyan said softly.

Chunxiang could not help but say, "Miss, this desolate mountain only stretches for dozens of miles. The Mountain God's cultivation level will not be high. With Miss's cultivation, you should be able to kill him."

Xi Lengyan shook her head. "The fact that this mountain can condense a deity position means that there's probably a background behind it. If I kill it, it will cause trouble. My cultivation hasn't recovered yet, so I can't easily make enemies. Let's go to Shanyang County first. Although the crowded place is disadvantageous to me, other demons won't dare to barge in casually."

Chunxiang understood what her miss meant. This time, the news of their encounter with the Mountain God would definitely be exposed. The forces chasing after her would definitely rush here as quickly as possible. If they went to the mountains again, it would be very dangerous.

Several hours later, the three of them arrived at the entrance of Shanyang County. They found an inn and stayed there.

"Miss Xi, why are we in Shanyang County?"

"Last night, a caravan happened to pass by the ancient temple. Chunxiang and I brought you along with the caravan to the county at night. The deserted temple is not a place to stay for a long time. It's better to come to the county as soon as possible."

Xi Lengyan casually made up a lie. "I've already instructed the waiter to prepare delicious food and send it to the room later. Young Master, rest first. I'll go to the city to buy some things."

After she left with the maidservant, Shen Ping stretched his back. He knew everything that happened last night. He did not expect the young lady he met in the ancient temple in the barren mountain to be so famous. It was just a little troublesome.

“Ghost Concubine, could it really be a ghost? There’s also the Mountain God. If a desolate mountain can have a Mountain God, could there be a Heavenly Court in this world?”

Chapter 749 - Changling Daoist Temple (1)

Changling Daoist Temple (1)

City God Temple.

The streets were bustling with activity. Ghost Concubine Xi Lengyan frowned. She did not like such a place that was filled with people. The maidservant beside her felt even worse. Even if she was holding an umbrella, she could feel her body being burned by the aura from all directions.

“Miss, can the incense and talismans in the temple really hide our auras?” Chunxiang asked.

Xi Lengyan replied casually, “In such a City God Temple, incense and talismans carry the power of incense. Coupled with the divine power of the City God’s Netherworld, they can naturally easily hide the cold ghost aura on our bodies. However, we can’t do it for too long, or it will corrode us. If I was at my peak, such things wouldn’t affect me. But it’s different now. Alright, control a few mortals to buy incense and talismans.”

Chunxiang nodded. “Yes, Miss.”

After a while, two women handed over the incense and talisman they had bought.

Xi Lengyan tapped her finger and performed some tricks. Then, she placed the talismans on her and the maidservant. "Let's go back to the inn. At noon, you can rent a courtyard and light incense in the courtyard. Our aura will disappear."

While they were doing their work, Shen Ping sat cross-legged on the bed and circulated the self-created cultivation technique, Dao Wheel Technique. Previously, in the ancient temple, he did not dare to cultivate too much for fear of attracting attention. Now that he was circulating it with all his might, waves of cold spiritual energy from the surrounding heaven and earth surged into his body from all directions. Soon, it was transformed into his magic power by the Dao bone of the dragon in his spine.

This kind of magic power was different from the magic power transformed by the spiritual root. There seemed to be a restriction in the magic power. It was difficult to use magic power to execute the divine powers in the true spirit's memories.

He was not surprised at all. This palace world was definitely affected by the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. One could only use the rules of this world to unleash extraordinary power. Sensing the auras of Xi Lengyan and Chunxiang outside the inn, he immediately stopped cultivating.

After a while, the two women walked into the inn.

"Here, this is the snacks and roasted chicken Miss brought for you. Young Master Shen, my Miss is sincere to you. I hope you won't let her down." Chunxiang placed the lunch box on the table and did not forget to remind him.

Shen Ping smiled meaningfully and said, "Don't worry, I'll repay your Miss well tonight."

The two women's faces instantly turned red. Although they were not chaste women, they were also young ladies from noble families when they were alive. They were reserved and shy in this aspect.

When they finished the food, Chunxiang left to rent a residential courtyard. Shen Ping took the opportunity to ask Xi Lengyan about cultivation. "Miss Xi, I saw that your maidservant's skills are not bad. Has she followed an immortal before? Does she know magic?"

Xi Lengyan shook her head. "There are no immortals in this world. They're just Daoist methods and unorthodox techniques. When Chunxiang and I were young, we met a traveling Daoist priest and learned something. That's why we dared to walk in the wilderness."

Shen Ping nodded. "In that case, if you want to cultivate, you have to enter the Daoist temple to learn from a master?"

"That's right, but the Daoist temple is very strict in accepting disciples. Not only does it depend on talent, but it also depends on character. Since Young Master Shen is a scholar, I think it's best to take the imperial examination. If you pass, you won't be weaker than cultivation in this world." Xi Lengyan said seriously.

"What do you mean?" As Shen Ping spoke, he first told her about his encounter with the demon fox before revealing his pursuit of visiting immortals and seeking the Dao.

"All those who can pass the imperial examination are protected by the Wenqu Star. Once they enter the court and become officials, they can obtain the protection of the Imperial Qi of the Imperial Court. Ordinary cultivators and wild fox demons can't get close."

Hearing Xi Lengyan's explanation, Shen Ping gradually had a clearer understanding of this world. There was only one dynasty in this world, and it was the Great Zhao. There were twelve large states under its jurisdiction, and each state had a dragon cauldron guarding it to gather the dragon vein energy. The government, even the county offices, would have the protection of the dragon vein. Demons, ghosts, and devils could not easily approach.

On the other hand, famous Daoist temples in the world would be conferred by the dynasty and enjoy the luck of the dynasty. Apart from that, there were also some civilian Daoist temples and temples that could gather dragon qi after receiving incense from the people.

“The path of cultivation is as difficult as ascending to the sky. Even if you achieve success in cultivation, there are many restrictions and you can’t really be carefree. Therefore, Young Master, you still have to work hard in your studies. When you enter the Dragon Court in the future, you will rise to the sky.”

Shen Ping shook his head. “Miss Xi, don’t persuade me anymore. My heart for cultivation has long been firm. I won’t change it.”

Xi Lengyan could only sigh helplessly. Although her cultivation level was not low, she came from a scholarly family when she was alive. She had been nurtured all year round and her desire to pursue an official career had long been ingrained. In her heart, she hoped that Young Master Shen, who had a few nights of fun with her, could become a scholar like her father.

Around five in the evening, the maidservant, Chunxiang, rented a house and the three of them moved in. This courtyard was a hundred years old and had three courtyards. The front yard and atrium were not bad, but the backyard was dilapidated and looked rather sinister at night.

“It’s just a place where Yin Qi gathers. That well is even in the Six Fiend Position. It’s a good place for us to cultivate our Yin bodies.”

Xi Lengyan was very satisfied. Chunxiang smiled and said, “As long as Miss likes it. Relying on this environment, Miss can recover faster.”

Late at night, in the bathtub in the backyard bedroom, the water soaked in the medicinal herbs was milky white. Shen Ping could feel that his body was warm, as if there was medicinal power nourishing his body..

“This medicinal bath will nourish your body. Young Master Shen has been having sex non-stop for the past few days. Although you look fine, you’ve already suffered a loss internally. Tonight, you’ll nourish your body first. I’ll serve you well tomorrow night.”

Xi Lengyan stood beside the bathtub and gave Shen Ping a clear view. Shen Ping smiled and said, "Miss Xi, do you want to bathe with me?"

Xi Lengyan blushed and said, "Master, don't seduce me. If I go into the water, I don't know what Master will do to me." With that, she quickly left.

The next night, the energetic Shen Ping quickly stripped Xi Lengyan down to a pink undergarment. Under the light of the red candle, her skin was moist and shiny. Soon, a decadent sound sounded in the room.

Less than two hours later, Xi Lengyan could not take it anymore. She panted and said, "Master, why don't you let Chunxiang come along? This girl is listening to the wall."

Before Shen Ping could speak, the maidservant, Chunxiang, rushed into the bedroom and said with a face full of spring, "Miss, you finally remember me." "You wretched girl, hurry up and help Young Master."

"Sure."

For the next six or seven days, the three of them stayed in the courtyard and enjoyed themselves. They recited poems during the day and played the flute every night.

"Chunxiang, my cultivation has already recovered by 60%. It's time for us to leave Shanyang County." On this day, Xi Lengyan said faintly.

Chunxiang could tell that her Miss was reluctant to part with Young Master Shen. After all, be it when she was alive or after she was born, Young Master Shen was her first man. Although they were not married, they were husband and wife.

"Miss, although Young Master Shen is good, he's a scholar. If we bring him along, we'll only be a burden and harm him."

Actually, Chunxiang was also a little reluctant. She had experienced Shen Ping's power these few days. That feeling was simply happier than anything in the world.

“Chunxiang, how can I not know what you’re saying? It’s just that, it’s just that... Forget it. Let’s pack up and leave. I’ll leave this courtyard to him. I hope that we’ll meet again in the future.”

The two women left without saying goodbye. However, in her bedroom, Xi Lengyan left a letter. With Shen Ping’s powerful true spirit, he could naturally sense their departure. However, he did not force them to stay because in their eyes, they were from two different worlds.

He sat at the table and opened the letter. There were beautiful words on it. “Young Master Shen, to be honest, I’m a ghost. If the two of us are together I’m afraid we’ll be punished by the heavens. Moreover, I still have something to do, so I can only leave without saying goodbye. I know that Young Master Shen is devoted to Dao. There’s a Daoist temple on Mount Daliang near Shanyang County. Young Master, you can try it. If you don’t have talent, I hope you can change your mind and be obsessed with learning from now on to take the imperial examination. We’ll meet again if fate allows it. Young Master Shen, don’t miss me.”

His fingers flickered. The letter burned to ashes. Over the past few days, he had become more and more familiar with the use of his own magic power. Although it was still difficult to activate various methods, he had already understood that the Dao Bone was the foundation of all magic power.

“Miss Xi and Chunxiang are indeed quite kind. If it were any other ghost, they would have eaten me up long ago.”

He shook his head and suppressed his distracting thoughts. He rushed to Mount Daliang the next day. Mount Daliang was not a famous mountain or river in the twelve states of Great Zhao. The mountain peaks were not as steep and majestic as other mountain ranges. Instead, the terrain was relatively flat but the area was very vast, stretching for nearly a hundred miles. The mountains were filled with vegetation and few pedestrians.

Not long after Shen Ping arrived, he encountered a few snakes and insects. After walking along the winding and rugged mountain path for more than four hours, he saw the villagers who went up the mountain to pick herbs. After asking around, he learned that the Daoist temple was at the top of the third mountain.

He could vaguely see it when he looked up, but he could not see any buildings. He hurried on his way and arrived at the entrance of the Daoist temple at dusk.

I'm here to seek the Dao. I hope to enter the Dao Sect."

The Daoist temple was not big, so it was easy to find the Daoist priest. He directly explained his purpose. One of the older Daoists sized up Shen Ping. This time, Shen Ping did not use his true spirit to hide the aura of magic powers in his body. "Eh, you actually have magic powers. It seems that you have talent in the Dao Bone. Come up."

"Yes, Daoist Master."

Shen Ping took a few steps forward. The Daoist priest checked and nodded slightly. "Have you entered other Daoist sects before?"

"No, I met a wandering Daoist priest in the past. That Daoist priest taught me a few incantations and I practiced them for a few years."

"I see." The Abbey Dean is not here. You can stay in the temple first and the Abbey Dean makes a decision when he comes back."

Just like that, Shen Ping stayed in the Changling Daoist Temple for three months. Although he had not officially entered the Dao Sect of Changling Temple in the past three months, the Daoist priest surnamed Chen had still given him a cultivation technique called the Changling Technique. Although it was only an entry-level cultivation technique, the transportation and absorption technique recorded in it made up for his understanding of the rules of this world.

Only now did he know that when absorbing cultivation, not only did he have to pass through the Dao Bone, but he also had to absorb a wisp of vitality in the world. This vitality was only a name. For example, the purple qi that rose from the east every day was vitality. There was also the Yin Yang Qi, the Five Elements Qi, and so on that were born in other special environments. The Dao Sect also had a Vitality Pill that was refined from medicinal herbs.

Therefore, without an orthodox cultivation method, it was impossible to use spells and other methods.

“Bean Soldiers, Messenger Paper Cranes, Golden Armor Puppets, Substitution Technique... These are all Daoist techniques. Interesting. Looks like the trick lies in absorbing a wisp of vitality.”

Different cultivation systems indeed presented different methods. Previously Shen Ping had many methods to cultivate immortal spiritual roots, but he could not give life to dead things. For example, puppets could only be controlled by means like the Art of Controlling Things. Here, even puppets would have simple intelligence after being given magic power.

“This must be the influence of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. The Dao in this world must be extraordinary.”

His face lit up. The Heaven and Earth Great Dao in the green hall world was actually very ordinary. Even if he relied on it to break through to the Venerable Sovereign realm, he would still be the most ordinary Venerable Sovereign. Therefore, after choosing the Chaos Hole Great Dao, he did not impatiently use the Heaven and Earth Great Dao like Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth to construct the Chaos Hole Space. Instead, he entered the palace world of Realm Sea Peak.

Looking at it now, this was undoubtedly correct. The stronger the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, the more complete and stable the Chaos Hole Space constructed would be. The power of the small world he would use in the future would also be stronger.

“Shen Ping, your cultivation has improved very quickly in the past three months. Even the inner disciples of those Great Dao Sects are not inferior to you. Although the Abbey Dean hasn’t returned, I’ve sent a letter to explain the situation. Yesterday, the Abbey Dean replied and asked me to take in disciples on his behalf.

“Today, I’ll officially take you in as a disciple and give you a Daoist name, Ling Zhen. From now on, you’re Daoist Disciple Ling Zhen of my Changling Temple.” In the Dao Ancestral Hall, Daoist Chen, who was also Daoist Ling Wu, said solemnly in front of the ancestral statue of Changling lineage.

Shen Ping hurriedly bowed. “Thank you, Abbey Dean. Thank you, Daoist Ling Wu.” 6

A moment later, after completing the entire disciple recruitment process, Daoist Ling Wu smiled. “Ling Zhen, stand up. From now on, you’re my Martial Nephew. Our Changling Temple is small, and there are only ten people in the sect. Currently, your fellow disciples are following your master. When they return, 111 introduce them to you one by one.

“In addition, you can enter and read the books in the temple if you want to. Remember not to take them out or mess them up.”

Shen Ping was just waiting for this and said, “Thank you, Martial Uncle Ling Wu.” B

There were not many books in Changling Temple. There were only 50 to 60 books, and most of them were useless. However, there were still a few books that recorded information about cultivation.

In the Daoist sect, all cultivation was based on cultivation. Whoever had a high cultivation could control the Dao meridians in the world. Every hundred years was a threshold of cultivation. Those below a hundred years were considered Daoist Disciples, and those above a hundred years could be considered Daoist Priests.

The foundation of cultivation was vitality. The vitality absorbed every day would condense patterns similar to growth rings on the Dao Bone. The more patterns there were, the higher the cultivation. At a certain level, it could even turn something rotten into something magical and create something out of nothing.

Shen Ping had checked the growth rings of his Dao bone. Among them, there were less than a circle of patterns condensed by the Changling lineage's cultivation of the five elements. Similarly, the Yin and Yang patterns he had obtained from Ghost Concubine Xi Lengyan were less than a circle
