

Eternal Life 801

Chapter 801: Death of a Heavenly Immortal (1)

The grass was faint. The white paper fluttered. Shen Yifan knelt in front of the four graves and said in a low voice, "Father, if I hadn't brought them out of Huaishan Town, perhaps they wouldn't have died."

Shen Ping said indifferently, "Without you, they would have died of old age and illness. With you, their lives would at least be exciting and they would have no regrets."

"Really?"

Shen Yifan looked up. Shen Ping did not say anything. Only his son knew if it was true. If he could not cross this hurdle, his future achievements would be limited. Not long after, he left, leaving only his son.

For the next two years, Shen Yifan stayed in Huaishan Town obediently. Every day, he would drink and go to the grave to talk to his companions. This scene made Yin Shu and Xi Lengyan's hearts ache.

"Everyone experiences the pain of life and death. This is a mental tempering for him. Don't worry about it."

Shen Ping actually had no choice. This kind of thing could only depend on himself.

Another two months passed.

On this day, a woman came to the rouge and powder shop with a cute little girl beside her. This happened every day. However, when he saw this little girl, Shen Yifan was stunned. He walked forward and bent down. "What's your name?"

Hiding behind her mother, the girl timidly said, "My name is Lianxiang, Ji Lianxiang."

"Lianxiang." Shen Yifan was slightly shocked. The woman who was in love with him was called Lianxiang. He looked at the girl in a daze and took out an amulet from his pocket. He handed it to the girl. "Little child, this is a Blessing Talisman. You will have good luck if you wear it."

The girl's eyes were bright and clear. "Thank you, Big Brother."

After the mother and daughter left, Shen Yifan seemed to have understood something and resolved the knot in his heart. "It must be Lianxiang. She doesn't blame me. Otherwise, she wouldn't have reincarnated in front of me." He laughed and then left Huaishan Town in a carefree manner to continue his great pursuit of slaying demons and devils.

Shen Ping looked at his back as his body slowly dissipated. When he appeared again, he was not far from the mother and daughter. His gaze landed on Ji Lianxiang, and a hint of surprise flashed in his eyes. His son's senses were actually not wrong. Ji Lianxiang was really the reincarnation of that woman.

As a Heavenly Immortal who had comprehended the Great Dao of Reincarnation, he was not surprised by reincarnation. The Imperial Court of the Netherworld was in charge of the reincarnation passageway. Ghosts that had been cleansed of their memories of his previous life could even pass. However, the key was why this girl appeared in front of his son after reincarnation. It seemed that her goal was to let his son untie the knot in his heart.

He pinched with his fingers. The girl's future gradually became clear. She would still be entangled with her son, and even give birth to a thread of love in the end. However, this thread of love was not deep. Instead, there were many shackles.

"Is this the power of destiny?"

For the first time, Shen Ping felt that he was so close to the power of fate. He silently returned to the rouge and powder shop. In the following period of time, he did not deduce and study the Great Dao of the Chaos Heaven and Earth. Instead, he obediently became a mortal. Every day, he began to chat with his neighbors, walk through the streets, and integrate into ordinary life with the people in the town.

During this period of time, he had been observing the lives of different people. He had never paid attention to them before, but after seriously and meticulously immersing himself in them, he realized that even the ordinary people of Huaishan Town were guided by the power of fate. From their birth, aging, illness, and death to their reincarnation, it seemed to be predestined, and predestined was fate.

Therefore, he left Huaishan Town and transformed into a traveling doctor. He walked around the Jin Country and the nearby vassal countries, experiencing the joys and sorrows of the human world and feeling the intertwining of love and hatred. One year, two years... a hundred years, three hundred years...

Time passed quietly.

Other than Yin Shu and Xi Lengyan, no one in the world knew where Shen Ping was. Even Shen Yifan, who had grown into the Perfected Lord of Ling Yin Temple, did not know.

Shen Ping, on the other hand, had long forgotten his previous life and current life. He had forgotten his identity as a Heavenly Immortal and kept traveling in the human world to see all kinds of life.

In the blink of an eye, 400 years passed. He sat on a low hill, allowing the wind and rain to blow on him. He was like a stone statue without the slightest vitality. Spring passed and autumn came. Spring passed and autumn came again. His body was covered in dust. The plants in front of him grew and withered, turning from full of vitality to dry.

Even after he completely merged with his surroundings and became a human-shaped stone, Shen Ping still did not move.

In the distance, Xi Lengyan and Yin Shu looked at their husband. Although they did not know what Shen Ping was doing, they knew that he was very likely comprehending heaven and earth, so they did not disturb him.

When the summer storm came, black clouds rolled and lightning flashed. A small sapling suddenly grew beside Shen Ping. Under the destruction of the storm, it swayed left and right, but it did not break. After the storm, the sapling thrived.

In autumn, the north wind was like a knife, scraping the sapling's body and breaking its branches and leaves.

In winter, the thick snow bent the sapling. The cold eroded its vitality, and the bald and slender tree trunk seemed to have died.

As spring recovers, the earth warms up. The lifeless sapling gradually grew green sprouts. Then, it could not be stopped. It glowed with vitality and greedily absorbed the nutrition of the world.

Decades later, the sapling had already grown into a big tree that could shelter one from the wind and rain. No matter how much the wind and sun shone on it, it could not move it at all. Not far from it, there were other saplings growing. Boom! Crack!

The rainy season has arrived. The raindrops splashed on the lush tree and gradually dripped onto the stone through the tip of the leaves..

Chapter 802: Death of a Heavenly Immortal (2)

It dripped for an entire day and night.

The stone actually cracked open with a crack, and then it turned into dust and disappeared without a trace. Shen Ping, who was inside the stone, suddenly opened his eyes. There was life in his pupils, and there was a trace of ancient aura.

He stood up and looked at the small sapling not far from the tree and smiled. Fate was unfathomable, even more difficult to understand. It was illusory and insubstantial, but it was everywhere. It was both reincarnation and life and death.

500 years of meditation, he finally comprehended a trace of fate from the cycle of the four seasons.

Without any reluctance to leave this place of Dao Comprehension, Shen Ping instantly disappeared and returned to his grotto-heaven. Then, he raised his hand and used the power of the world to simulate the Chaos Hole Space. The moment he comprehended a trace of the Dao of Fate, he understood how the Chaos Hole Space could balance the power of the other Great Dao of Heaven and Earth.

With the power of fate as the guide, his finger quickly outlined the seven basic Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. Then, with the five elements as the framework, he outlined the Yin Yang and Reincarnation on the foundation of the Great Dao. The great dao of heaven and earth that was originally difficult to balance actually perfectly fused together at this moment. Even though it wasn't a fusion, it was even more perfect than the layered state he saw the guardian display on the dao platform.

Chaos Hole Space... This has probably already exceeded the power of the Chaos Hole Great Dao. Hmm, let's call it the Chaotic Space!"

Although he had simulated a more powerful chaotic space, Shen Ping's expression was calm. There was no trace of sadness or joy. 500 years of cultivation, even sitting there for too years, make his heart seem to contain all things like heaven and earth.

Of course, this was only a natural reaction from someone who had just comprehended the Dao of Fate.

When the simulated chaotic space had just evolved, the entire grotto-heaven actually transformed again. A large amount of world power surged in crazily. Mountains, lakes, plants, and the ground expanded at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Shen Ping flicked his sleeve. Everyone who lived in the grotto-heaven was unaffected by this, while he quietly watched the grotto-heaven expand. Time passed slowly.

The Grotto – Heaven did not show any signs of stopping. After a full two months, the infusion of World Energy slowly ended. The Grotto-Heaven had expanded by hundreds of thousands of kilometers. The World Energy inside had automatically formed an internal circulation, similar to a true miniature world.

“Could this be the prototype of a small world formed by the chaotic space?” No matter how calm he was, Shen Ping could not help but reveal a look of surprise. He did not expect that the simulated chaotic space would evolve on its own. Although it did not look like a true small world, this was a grotto-heaven. The current range had already exceeded the grotto-heaven of other Heavenly Immortals. It was even a hundred times or hundreds of times theirs.

The moment the Grotto-Heaven stopped evolving, the power of laws of the grotto-heaven circulated, and a large amount of feedback surged into Shen Ping’s sea of consciousness. Information filled with various Heaven and Earth Great Dao swept out like a vast sea.

He immediately closed his eyes to digest and absorb.

In the blink of an eye, 50 years passed. He had finally digested all the information. He had already reached nearly 70% comprehension of the five elements, Yin Yang, and Reincarnation. If the news spread to the Immortal Dao territory, the myriad races would probably be shocked again. Even Venerable Sovereigns would be extremely surprised.

70% of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao was a level that only an outstanding Immortal Venerable could reach. Now, Shen Ping, a Tribulation Transcendence cultivator who had yet to ascend, had actually reached it.

He left the grotto-heaven. Just as he appeared in the world, a majestic will descended. Although this will was very vast and could easily crush Shen Ping, it did not have any malice. It was as if it was unconscious and followed the rules of the world.

Shen Ping immediately understood that after the grotto-heaven underwent another transformation, he had already broken through the shackles of the Heavenly Immortal Realm and reached the legendary Golden Immortal Realm. At this level, there were two choices. The first was to transform into the world and fuse with the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth to become the Heavenly Dao. The second was to leave this world. After all, the strength of a Golden Immortal was too strong. He could casually destroy all living beings. If he did not become the Heavenly Dao and was restricted by the rules, the safety of all living beings in the world would be in his hands.

Needless to say, this was definitely set up by the Realm Sea Peak expert who established this world back then.

“I will leave this world.” Shen Ping transmitted his thoughts. Soon, the majestic and vast will disappeared. “Only a hundred years?” He thought to himself.

Originally, he had comprehended the power of fate and simulated a stronger Chaotic Space. In the end, he accidentally broke through to the Golden Immortal realm. This was something he did not expect. His plan was to wait until his master, Lian Xuejin, Yin Ting, and the others descended to this world, helping them become Heavenly Immortals before leaving. Unexpectedly, his plan could not keep up with the changes.

However, too years was enough for him to make some follow-up arrangements. With a thought, Shen Ping flashed to Xi Lengyan and Yin Shu’s side.

“Husband, you’re finally done with your seclusion.”

Both women were overjoyed.

“Yes, I won’t go into seclusion like this again.”

As he spoke, he told them about his breakthrough to the Golden Immortal Realm. The two women fell silent, too years, only 100 years of interaction. This immediately made the joy on their faces disappear.

Don’t worry, I’ll find a way to leave a clone in the grotto-heaven.” Shen Ping said. He had the Soul Parasite talent, and his Nether Fiend clones were still around. Furthermore, he had yet to reach the Golden Immortal realm. He could completely stay. Therefore, he only needed to create another clone and stay in the grotto-heaven to accompany them.

Only then did the two women’s worries turn into joy. Even though it was only a clone, it was still better than completely leaving.

“By the way, Darling, while you were in seclusion, the world had been unified and a new dynasty was established. However, a demonic creature with monstrous demonic flames appeared in the north. Even Earth Immortals were not its match and were devoured. This demonic creature wreaked havoc everywhere and harmed the common people. Everyone in the various Daoist sects was in danger. No one dared to kill it.”

Xi Lengyan briefly explained what had happened in the world.

Shen Ping pinched his fingers and comprehended the power of fate. He had broken through to the Golden Immortal realm, so he could deduce almost everything in an instant. With this calculation, he immediately knew that the cause and effect behind the demonic creature was actually pushed by Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing of Tianshan.

He directly arrived at Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing’s grotto-heaven.

Xue Jing was sitting in the pavilion and drinking fragrant tea. When he saw Shen Ping appear, Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing was not surprised at all. He said leisurely, “Fate makes fools of people. I didn’t expect you to easily obtain the supreme Golden Immortal I’ve been searching for.”

As a Heavenly Immortal with a great inheritance, he originally planned to use the demonic creatures to snatch the luck of the dragon vein in the world. Then, he would kill the demonic creatures and intercept the merit of the world to transform the grotto-heaven in one go. Who would have thought that someone would be faster than him?

Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing really wanted to ask how Shen Ping had done it, but he swallowed his words. All of this was no longer important to him. After all, only one Golden Immortal could be allowed in the entire world. Once one appeared, the other Heavenly Immortals would not have a chance. All that was left was to slowly wait for the grotto-heaven to wither.

Shen Ping sat opposite Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing. "A Heavenly Immortal has a long lifespan. No one in the world can threaten a Heavenly Immortal. You can be carefree. Why do you have to fight for the position of a Golden Immortal? Becoming a Golden Immortal might not be as you imagine. Instead, you will lose your freedom."

Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing shook his head. "I'm different from you. You've only experienced how many years since you started cultivating, and I can't even remember how long I've lived. Other than being a Golden Immortal, I don't have any other pursuits. If I don't even fight for this, what's the point of living?"

Shen Ping was stunned. Then he went silent.

That's right. Having lived for too long without any goals or meaning to exist, then living was equivalent to death. To Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing, there was no need to choose. Caring about the world? Who would care about the world at the level of a Heavenly Immortal? If one batch was gone, another would grow. At last he left. He did not attack Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing because he could tell that he was already determined to die.

Sure enough, only half a year later, Tianshan's Grotto-Heaven collapsed. Huge amounts of vitality scattered outwards, making heaven and earth's vitality twenty percent richer. Meanwhile, no matter where the world was, it was raining, as if heaven and earth were crying.

Chapter 803: Preparations Before Ascension (1)

Without the support of Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing, no matter how strong the demonic creature was, it was not a match for the other Dao factions. Kunlun and Emei sent out several Earth Immortals and spent ten days killing this demonic creature that's wreaking havoc. With the death of the demonic creature, the calamity that would harm the common people gradually dissipated.

Originally, according to the normal development of fate, the demonic creature would grow to the level of a Heavenly Immortal. Then, Shen Yifan and a few lucky figures with fate would join forces to severely injure it. In the end, Heavenly Immortal Xue Jing would take action and complete the merit.

Unfortunately, Shen Ping had comprehended fate and simulated the Chaotic Space, allowing the grotto-heaven to transform and break through to the Golden Immortal realm. He had broken the shackles of fate and caused the tribulation to dissipate in advance. As a result, there was not much merit feedback. However, a large amount of merit still landed on Shen Ping's son and companions.

In a short ten years, Shen Yifan broke through to the Earth Immortal Realm, and so did Xi Lengyan and Yin Shu. Only then did he know that his father was actually the famous Earth Immortal Ling Zhen, no, Heavenly Immortal Ling Zhen, of Changling Mountain.

This made him sigh helplessly. "Father, Mother, I thought that all of this was obtained through my own hard work. Now I understand. So I have parents like you. If I had known that my father was a Heavenly Immortal and Mother and Aunt were Perfected Lords close to the Earth Immortal Realm, why would I have worked hard?!"

Yin Shu glared at her son. "It's because of powerful parents like us that you have to work harder. Otherwise, how can you catch up to your father?"

Shen Yifan had a bitter expression. "I'm so tired. Father is already a Heavenly Immortal. How can I catch up? Mother, I don't want to cultivate anymore. I plan to travel well and find a remote town to be an ordinary person like you." Smack.

Shen Yifan, who had already become an Earth Immortal, had a footprint on his butt. When he looked up, he immediately did not dare to flare up.

"How old are you and you want to lie flat? Hurry up and go back to get married and have children. Give our Shen family a long line of children!"

"Got it, Father."

Yin Shu smiled and looked at Shen Ping. "How can you teach your son like this? He's already an Earth Immortal. You should give him some face outside."

Shen Ping said casually, "It's only right for me to teach my son a lesson. Besides, even if this matter spreads, who will dare to say that my son has lost face?"

Yin Shu was speechless.

"Well, let's leave our son alone. I don't have much time. I'll spend the rest of my time with you."

After resolving the demonic calamity, the new dynasty's founder only used 20 years to restore the living standards of all the states and prefectures in the world to the first year of Great Zhao's Rende. There were abundant resources, the people were happy to live in peace, and the Dao lineages everywhere flourished.

As Shen Ping accompanied Xi Lengyan and Yin Shu, he used his Soul Parasite talent to create a new Perfected Lord clone. He also handed over the authority to the grotto-heaven that had transformed into a small world to the clone. This way, not only could he continue to accompany them in this world, but when his master, Yin Ting, and the others descended to this world, he could also find their reincarnated bodies and bring them to the grotto-heaven to cultivate quickly.

Time flew by. In the blink of an eye, a hundred years had passed. The repulsion of Shen Ping in this world had reached its peak. It would only be a few days before he left.

After sensing the majestic will above his head, he returned to the place where he had first descended, which was the Mountain God Temple near Mount Daliang. Xi Lengyan was also here to accompany him. The two of them walked into the Mountain God Temple. It was as if the bonfire of the past appeared in front of them, as well as the scene of warm bodies touching each other.

“Darling, I can’t bear to part with you,” Xi Lengyan said faintly. “Although you have a clone, I know that it’s just a strand of your bond to this place.”

Shen Ping did not reply. He had no choice. Whether it was now or in the future, he would have to leave. After all, this was only a palace world in Realm Sea Peak. Even if there were living beings reproducing, even if this was the real world, it was not the outside world, not the world he lived in.

Thunder suddenly rumbled in the sky. A mighty will enveloped the entire mountain range.

“I should go,” Shen Ping sighed softly. He looked at Xi Lengyan and slowly hugged her in his arms. Yin Shu did not come. She was afraid that she would not be able to hold it in.

“Darling, will you come back?”

“Yes.”

Xi Lengyan finally smiled. Regardless of whether this was true or not, she was willing to wait for her darling to return.

Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled above the mountain range, as if the end of the world had arrived. Shen Ping’s body rose into the air. “Go back and take good care of our child.” After saying that, he transformed into a stream of light and charged into the sky.

“Darling.”

She looked at the disappearing Shen Ping. Xi Lengyan felt as if she had lost something. She stood rooted to the ground for a long time before turning around. Tears streamed down her face. She knew very well that this farewell would probably be forever.

Realm Sea Peak.

A figure suddenly appeared on the palace platform. It was Shen Ping. Before he could regain his senses, the black-robed artifact spirit appeared before him.

The black-robed artifact spirit looked at Shen Ping with surprise in his eyes, “I really didn’t expect you to break through to the Golden Immortal realm of that world in less than 200 years after entering the palace world. And you have comprehended the Great Dao of the five elements, Yin and Yang, and Reincarnation. This Great Dao of Heaven and Earth is very difficult to comprehend. Although it can’t compare to the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole, it can still be ranked first-rate.”

It then continued, “The most important thing is that you actually comprehended a trace of the power of fate. No wonder you could obtain Master’s green bracelet. It seems that other than the strange beast talent, you have other secrets.”

Shen Ping hurriedly said, “I was just lucky..”

The black-robed Artifact Spirit chuckled and did not continue this topic. Instead, it said, "You came out early. When this palace world opens, you won't be able to enter again. You can only continue to enter after the other Beast Spirits leave. However, that world is no longer of any help to you."

"I understand." Shen Ping nodded and asked, "Senior, when will the other bracelet of Realm Sea Peak open?"

The authority of the green bracelet was extremely important. If he could obtain another one, then he could allow his wife, concubine, and dao companions to enter the palace world and comprehend the great dao of heaven and earth inside. After all, if he wanted to comprehend it outside, he had to be at least at the Immortal King level.

However, in the palace world, even True Immortals could comprehend it.

The black-robed artifact spirit smiled and said, "The bracelet of the palace world will only open after you obtain the blue bracelet from the Realm Sea. You will sense the location of the bracelet when you enter the Realm Sea. However, let me remind you that with your current strength, you can't obtain the blue bracelet at all."

"Senior, may I know what strength is needed to obtain the bracelet of the Realm Sea?"

There were a total of five authority bracelets in the Realm Sea Peak. After completely obtaining them, one could control the Realm Sea Peak. Although he did not know what level of treasure the Realm Sea Peak was, since it could carry many palace worlds, it was definitely something that surpassed the Great Dao Treasure.

The black rune artifact spirit said, "At the very least, you have to have the strength comparable to a Venerable Sovereign."

"What? The strength of a Venerable Sovereign?"

Shen Ping was secretly speechless.

The black-robed artifact spirit said casually, "You've comprehended more than 50% of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao in the two palace worlds and also comprehended the power of fate. I believe you'll be able to master the true essence of the Chaotic World very soon. As long as you have the strength of an ordinary Venerable Sovereign, you can go to the Realm Sea."

Shen Ping hesitated for a moment. "Senior, how vast is the Realm Sea?"

The black-robed artifact spirit laughed. "The Realm Sea is incomparably vast. It's so huge that it exceeds your imagination. The current exploration of your human race, including the other races, is not even a drop in the ocean. Shen Ping, when you walk out of this world and the Realm Sea, you will know how vast the world is.

"Alright, I've said enough. The most important thing for you now is how to comprehend the Great Dao of the Chaos Hole faster." After saying that, it disappeared.

Shen Ping couldn't help but think of the 33rd level of the Dao Platform. Even an expert like Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong could only stop at the 10th level. It could be seen that Venerable Sovereigns weren't at the peak. There should be many living beings who exceeded the strength of Venerable Sovereigns, so ordinary Venerable Sovereigns were indeed nothing.

After leaving Realm Sea Peak, he returned to Gray Stone City in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness.

"My comprehension of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao of Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, Earth, Wind, Lightning, Five Elements, Yin and Yang, and Reincarnation has reached 50%. Among them, the Five Elements, Yin and Yang, and Reincarnation has exceeded 50%. Although it's only 10% after fusing into the Chaotic Heaven and Earth Great Dao, that artifact spirit senior is right. My combat strength is not far from the most ordinary Venerable Sovereign.

"Furthermore, the chaotic space simulated by the power of fate is extremely powerful. It definitely far exceeds the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth of the same level!"

He sat cross-legged in a quiet room and fall into deep thought. Ever since he entered the Realm Sea Peak and stepped into the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, he knew that the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth was the foundation. Although cultivation was also very important, cultivators who had comprehended the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth had combat strength that far exceeded ordinary cultivators. In battles of divine powers, and competitions of various methods, the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth would form an absolute suppression.

"It's time to ascend. As long as I transcend the early stages, I believe I can quickly rise in the Immortal Dao territory with my comprehension of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, and not be afraid of Immortal Kings and Immortal Venerables of the foreign races!"

He had heard Master Tian Hong mention it before. At the same level, for example, if they were all Golden Immortals, Golden Immortals who had comprehended the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth could contend with ordinary Grand Unity Golden Immortals. Above Golden Immortals were Mystic Immortals, and above Mystic Immortals were Peerless Golden Immortals. Then, there were Grand Unity Golden Immortals.

Therefore, if he ascended, his strong foundation and his overall combat strength would be comparable to a Mystic Immortal. If he combined it with the talent of a strange beast and a Great Dao treasure, even a Mystic Immortal might not be his match.

Of course, these were only theoretical levels. He still had to fight against them.

"After ascending, I have to try my best to go to the core territory of the human race's Immortal Dao. That's the safest place."

He made a decision in his heart. Only then did he get up and leave the quiet room. He went to the pavilion by the lake. His huge divine sense swept out, and everything in the entire City Lord Residence appeared in his divine sense. Even though he had spent thousands of years in the palace world, as if the world had changed, it had not even been 200 years in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness.

Nothing had changed here, including the entire Gray Stone City. In fact, in another 10,000 years, this prosperous cultivation city would not change much. If there was really a slight difference, it was that the bloodline of the Shen family had increased a little.

His wife, concubine and Dao Companions had gone to other cultivation worlds to travel. Shen Ping did not inform them. Instead, he concealed his aura and walked on the streets of Gray Stone City alone. After so many years of development, Gray Stone City had long become the core of the Abyss of Supreme Darkness. Every year, countless cultivators come here to find their dreams.

He walked around before he returned to the City Lord Manor. As a Tribulation Transcendence expert, he no longer had the mentality to enjoy this prosperous cultivation life with the ordinary cultivators in the city.

Not long after, he had come to the five continents and four seas. He met his master, Lian Xuejin. She was wearing a snow-blue palace dress, and her hair was casually tied up. Although there was no headdress on it, she looked dignified and beautiful. The curves on her chest were not majestic, but they looked round and moderate, as if they matched her figure perfectly.

Lian Xuejin blushed slightly when she saw Shen Ping sizing her up. The memories hidden in her sea of consciousness flickered involuntarily. Recalling the ridiculous and embarrassing actions in her memories, her expression was a little unnatural. She turned her body slightly to the left.

“Disciple, why did you come to the Nine Continents Tower this time?”

Only then did Shen Ping say, “Master, I plan to ascend to the immortal Dao territory after a while.”

The distracting thoughts in Lian Xuejin’s mind immediately disappeared without a trace, and her expression became solemn. “Disciple, have you really thought about ascending? To the other cultivators, ascending is a huge matter, and you have to be even more careful. Once you ascend, the upper echelons of the Spirit Race, the Devil Clan, and the Demon Race will definitely interfere.

“Although we have the protection of a Venerable Sovereign, he’s only one person after all. He can’t take care of everything. When the time comes, an accident might happen.”

Shen Ping knew this. “Master, I have the protection of the Great Dao treasure, the Heavenly Star Armor. There’s no problem with my safety. Even if an accident happens, I believe it won’t be a big problem. If I continue to stay in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness, it will be very difficult for me to increase my cultivation.”

After comprehending the Chaos Great Dao, he could use 30% of the Heavenly Star Armor’s power. This was a Great Dao treasure. Even 30% of its power was enough to withstand the attacks of other Venerable Sovereigns.

When she saw Shen Ping’s serious expression, Lian Xuejin knew that her disciple had already made a decision. She slowly nodded and said, “In that case, I won’t persuade you anymore. It’s good to ascend. Only when you reach the territory of the immortal Dao will you have a wider world.

“However, we need to inform the Venerable Sovereign about this so that we can make sufficient preparations.”

“Understood.”

Soon, Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong received the news. In the room in the core space of the Nine Continents Tower, the Venerable Sovereign’s projection descended. When he saw Shen Ping, he only asked, “Disciple, are you prepared to ascend?”

Shen Ping nodded solemnly. “I’m preparing to officially ascend in two years.”

“Ascension is a big thing. There’s no need for me to say anything. You should know that the Venerable Sovereigns of the various races will definitely attack. They’re even waiting for you to ascend.”

As Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong spoke, he handed Shen Ping an ancient jade. “This ancient jade is a treasure I obtained in the Realm Sea. Its material is special and can protect your soul. If anything happens, it can at least protect your soul.”

Originally, his strength was enough to protect Shen Ping. However, Shen Ping was too outstanding and far exceeded his expectations. Therefore, when he ascended, it was difficult for him to be 100% confident in protecting this disciple..

Chapter 805: Venerable Sovereign’s Attack (1)

Months later, Wang Yun, Yu Yan, Bai Yuying, Luo Qing, and the other Dao companions who were traveling in the other worlds returned to the Abyss of Supreme Darkness. Although they had been traveling for more than 200 years, their cultivation levels had not fallen. Among them, Ying Yue, who cultivated the fastest, had already broken through to the Tribulation Transcendence realm. Yue Lingluo was not far from the Tribulation Transcendence. The rest had all reached the middle and late stages of the Mahayana Realm.

Even Jing Huilan, whose cultivation had always been the lowest, was already at the mid-stage Mahayana Realm. It could be said that none of Shen Ping’s Dao companions were weak. With the divine powers they cultivated and immortal artifacts, they were comparable to Itinerant Immortals below the third tribulation.

Furthermore, Yin Ting, who had stepped into the scaled realm, had the bloodline of a strange beast. She was the strongest among his many wives and Dao companions. Itinerant Immortals were not her match at all. Even Heavenly Immortals could not do anything to her.

“Husband, are you ascending?”

As soon as they came back, Bai Yuying whimpered, “I’m only at the late-stage of the Mahayana Realm. I’m still a distance away from the Tribulation Transcendence Realm. I can’t ascend with you.”

Shen Ping scratched Bai Yuying’s face and said with a smile, “Do you regret it now? I told you to focus on cultivation long ago. You only wanted to play. However, the mid-stage of the Mahayana Realm is not bad. In the future, you can break through in the World Pearl after working hard for thousands of years.”

From the Mahayana Realm to the Tribulation Transcendence, it was mainly the condensation of the soul. The reason why Ying Yue and Yue Lingluo could progress so quickly was probably because they had gained something from traveling outside.

Wang Yun, Yu Yan, and the others did not say anything. Although they really wanted to ascend with Shen Ping, they knew very well that they could not drag their husband down again. Moreover, the commotion caused by their husband’s ascension was definitely not low. If they ascended with him, it would affect him.

“Alright, I will accompany you all for the next two years. After I ascend, you all have to work hard and strive to ascend to the immortal dao territory within a thousand years. I will wait for you all there.

“Yes, husband.”

For the rest of the time, Shen Ping accompanied his wife, concubine, and Dao companions to travel around Gray Stone City and live a life like an immortal couple. At the same time, he adjusted his mental state.

Two years passed.

The tens of thousands of descendants of the Shen family had all returned to the Shen family’s main residence from various worlds and the districts of the Abyss of Supreme Darkness. His wife, concubine, and Dao companions surrounded Shen Ping, their eyes filled with reluctance.

“Ting’er, after I ascend, I have to trouble you to continue staying here to take care of them.”

“Don’t worry, husband, I will.”

Shen Ping looked at Ying Yue again. Ying Yue nodded. Her strength in Tribulation Transcendence was the strongest other than Yin Ting. Then, he gave Wang Yun, Yu Yan, and the others a few more instructions before summoning his son, Shen An, and the other first-generation bloodlines. He instructed them to take good care of the family and try their best not to have any conflict with the other forces in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness, but they did not have to be afraid.

After instructing them, he looked at the densely packed descendants of the Shen family around the pavilion by the lake and smiled. From the moment he cultivated until now, excluding the time in the palace world, he had already experienced more than 6,300 years. He had grown from a rogue cultivator to now and was finally about to ascend to become an immortal.

Boom.

While his thoughts were flying, a huge amount of magic power was released from his body, and his powerful soul did not suppress it at all. All of it erupted. Waves of pressure enveloped the entire City Lord Residence and spread in all directions at an extremely fast speed.

The moment Shen Ping released his cultivation, the world above Gray Stone City instantly condensed a nine-day lightning tribulation. In an instant, black clouds surged and lightning wreaked havoc.

“Who wants to undergo the tribulation in Gray Stone City?”

“From the looks of it, they’re at least experts above the Mahayana Realm. Could it be that someone has transcended and ascended?”

“Look, it’s the City Lord Residence. It’s City Lord Shen!”

“What, City Lord Shen is ascending?”

When the lightning tribulation gathered, the entire Gray Stone City and even the nearby cities sensed the might of heaven and earth’s lightning and immediately looked at the center of the lightning.

Almost instantly, all the factions in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness had received the news that Shen Ping was about to undergo the tribulation and ascend.

Powerful figures rushed towards Gray Stone City at an extremely fast speed, while the experts from Gray Stone City fled, afraid that the huge lightning would draw out their own Lightning Tribulations.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Shen Ping took a step into the sky. After taking ten steps, the Nine Heavens Purple Lightning that had gathered and brewed formed a lightning pillar that charged down, completely enveloping him. The purple lightning was extremely powerful and could destroy an Itinerant Immortal’s body, but when it landed on Shen Ping, it did not even shake his armor.

The lightning pillar lasted for nearly five minutes before slowly disappearing. The thunderclouds in the sky continued to gather. Most Tribulation Transcendence cultivators would experience three, six, or nine different levels of lightning tribulation when they ascended. The further they went, the stronger the lightning tribulation would be. By the sixth lightning tribulation, they could already shatter the bodies of Itinerant Immortals below the sixth tribulation.

However, basically all tribulations stopped here. Nine tribulation thunderclouds rarely appeared.

Another ten seconds later, the second lightning pillar descended. Shen Ping walked leisurely. His accumulation was too deep. Not only had the strange beast bloodline in his body reached a perfect level, but his soul and will had also reached the Golden Immortal level. Moreover, he had comprehended many Heaven and Earth Great Dao. If he was willing, he could use the Heaven and Earth Great Dao to dissipate the thunderclouds in the sky.

Then, the third, the fourth,

At the sixth, there was a large number of cultivators floating far away from the city.

“It’s about time for the sixth bolt. This bolt of lightning is peerless. Many Tribulation Transcendence cultivators in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness have fallen under this bolt of lightning. If they're lucky, they can become Itinerant Immortals. If they're unlucky, their souls will be destroyed.."

Chapter 806: Venerable Sovereign's Attack (2)

"City Lord Shen is a prodigy of our human race. He will definitely be able to successfully transcend the tribulation and ascend!"

"That's right. If he can't ascend, who can succeed?"

Many cultivators were looking at the increasingly terrifying Lightning Tribulation.

The cultivators of the Devil Clan, the Flame Race, the Spirit Race, and the other races watching, hoping that this human prodigy would die under the power of the lightning tribulation.

After all, before Shen Ping appeared, the human race was ranked at the bottom of the Myriad Spirit Ranking. The human race in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness was even suppressed by the foreign races and could not make a comeback at all. They were about to completely decline and become a small race. In the end, Shen Ping appeared out of nowhere and made the human race glorious again.

Therefore, the foreign races hated Shen Ping so much that they gritted their teeth.

Boom!

Lightning tribulation descended. Shen Ping still had no intention of using his magic treasure. He used his body to resist the sixth purple lightning. His body began to transform under the envelopment of the lightning pillar. However, the thunderclouds in the sky had yet to disappear and continued to gather.

"Heavens, could it be the nine tribulations?!"

"Once the Nine Heavens Divine Thunder descends, it's said that even a Tenth Tribulation Itinerant Immortal won't be able to withstand it!"

"Although the Nine Heavens Divine Lightning is very strong, as long as you transcend it, you can become the strongest True Immortal and even break through to the Heavenly Immortal Realm."

"Shen Ping is a prodigy of the human race. He's talented and is ranked first on the Beast Spirit Ranking. It's normal for him to experience nine tribulations."

The human cultivators were all extremely nervous. The foreign cultivators laughed in his heart. No one in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness had ever been able to transcend the ninth lightning tribulation. Shen Ping was finished.

The seventh.

The eighth one!

A large amount of lightning circulated on the surface of Shen Ping's body, and his magic power vaguely had immortal spiritual energy circulating. This was a sign that he was about to complete his transformation, but at this moment, the ninth purple lightning was brewing.

Immortal Dao Territory.

The news that Shen Ping was about to undergo tribulation and ascend had also reached the upper echelons of the Spirit Race.

"Venerable Sovereign, Shen Ping is a huge threat to our Spirit Race. We have to kill him when he ascends."

"If he is allowed to grow, I'm afraid the Realm Sea Peak will become his in the end. My Spirit Race will also become a vassal of the human race."

Several Immortal Venerables said solemnly.

The Venerable Sovereign of the Spirit Race had a calm expression. His eyes flickered with a golden luster, as if they had pierced through layers of space and landed on Shen Ping, who was undergoing the tribulation in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness. "Everyone, don't worry. I've already contacted the Venerable Sovereigns of the Devil Clan, the Flame Race, the Demon Race, and other races. As long as he transcends the Tribulation Lightning, I'll kill him."

The other Immortal Venerables immediately relaxed. With five Venerable Sovereigns working together, even with Venerable Tian Hong's protection, it was definitely difficult for Shen Ping to survive.

Other than the Spirit Race, the upper echelons of the various races were all paying attention. They knew very well the potential of this human prodigy. It had not been long since he became a Beast Spirit, but he had already reached the top of the Beast Spirit Ranking. Moreover, he had allowed the human race to jump into the top too. If such a prodigy grew, it would be disadvantageous to everyone.

After all, if they were not of the same race, their hearts would definitely be different. Even if some of their races were on good terms with the human race, they were unwilling to see such a genius with powerful potential survive.

"The tallest tree will be destroyed by the wind! Shen Ping is about to die!"

Gray Stone City.

The ninth lightning tribulation had been brewing for a long time, but the longer it lasted, the more terrifying its power became. Shen Ping stepped on the air and was about to approach the clouds. The immortal aura around him gradually became denser. He was not far from the final transformation.

When he felt a destructive aura envelop him, he looked up. The ninth lightning tribulation descended.

Boom!!!

It was like the end of the world. The edge of the purple lightning pillar was slightly black. If a Tenth Tribulation Itinerant Immortal faced such a terrifying lightning tribulation, they would instantly disappear.

If it were any other Tribulation Transcendence cultivator, no matter how confident they were, they would immediately activate their magic treasures and immortal artifacts to block it. However, Shen Ping's expression was calm as he welcomed them with his hands behind his back.

Just as the lightning pillar completely struck down, the clothes on the surface of his body shattered and burned. His skin was charred black, but the bloodline of the strange beast in his bones and meridians shone brightly. It easily resisted the corrosion of the destructive power of the lightning tribulation.

Clang!

As the thundercloud dissipated, a melodious bell rang out from the depths of the surging clouds in the sky.

"Haha, I knew City Lord Shen would definitely be able to transcend nine lightning tribulations!"

"As expected of the strongest prodigy of our human race."

"Tremble, foreign races!"

"City Lord Shen is awesome!"

The human cultivators were all excited. Although there were some who were envious and jealous, they all knew that Shen Ping's ascension was a great thing for the human race. On the other hand, the foreign races' expressions were gloomy. They did not stay for long and quickly fled.

Clang!

The second bell rang.

A majestic palace gate gradually appeared in the depths of the clouds. This was the Heavenly Gate. As long as one knocked on the Heavenly Gate, one could fly into the immortal dao territory and become an immortal.

After Shen Ping transcended the ninth lightning tribulation, the magic power in his body had completely transformed into immortal spiritual energy. At this moment, he had already broken through to the True Immortal realm. His entire body was incomparably powerful. Looking at the majestic palace gate, he walked towards it and arrived in front of the palace in a few steps.

Clang!

The third bell rang. The palace door slowly opened. An incomparably rich immortal spiritual aura surged out from the palace gate. Shen Ping's body absorbed the immortal spiritual energy uncontrollably. Without hesitation, he stepped into the palace door. Immediately after, the door slowly closed and finally disappeared into the depths of the clouds.

"Congratulations, City Lord Shen, for ascending to immortality!"

The moment the palace gate disappeared, all the cultivators in Gray Stone City bowed and congratulated him.

Wang Yun, Yu Yan, Bai Yuying, Luo Qing, Yin Honglian, Qjuying, Pei Huoyu, Yu Qingling, Ying Yue, Yue Lingluo, Jing Huilan, and An Yue looked at the sky and silently congratulated their husband.

Behind the majestic palace door was an invisible passageway. As long as a cultivator from the Abyss of Supreme Darkness ascended, they would arrive at the Ascension Pool of the Human Race's Immortal Realm through this passageway. Then, they would absorb the immortal spirit liquid in the Ascension Pool and stabilize their True Immortal cultivation to become true immortals.

Not long after Shen Ping stepped through the palace door, a palm that was like the sky suddenly appeared in the distance. He could even clearly see the patterns on the palm. At the same time, a thunderous roar sounded in his ears. "Junior, die!"

The entire ascension passageway instantly shattered under the pressure of the huge palm. Space turned into nothingness. The terrifying impact could even crush the immortal body of an Immortal King.

"Venerable Sovereign."

Shen Ping's pupils constricted. Facing such a terrifying Venerable Sovereign, he had no time to react at all. Fortunately, he had changed into the Heavenly Star Armor before entering the palace. After the weakening and protection of the Heavenly Star Armor, he did not shatter into pieces immediately. Moreover, his thoughts could still function.

"Ling Jue, as a dignified Venerable Sovereign, aren't you too shameless to attack a junior?!"

Just as the towering palm was about to land, a phoenix cry appeared out of thin air in the distance. Its fiery red wings blotted out the sky and blocked the huge palm.

The Spirit Race's Venerable Sovereign's expression changed slightly. "Hmph, Feng Yi, does your Phoenix Clan really want to go against my Spirit Race?!"

The Venerable Sovereign of the Phoenix Clan smiled and said, "Ling Jue, I just owe Tian Hong a favor to repay him. The three Venerable Sovereigns of the Devil Clan, the Flame Race, and the Demon Race are holding back Tian Hong. You have a good plan."

"You can't stop me!"

The sky-like palm pressed down again. Right at that moment, a dragon's roar resounded from afar.

"Ling Jue, stop. Why do you need us old fellows to take action in the struggle between the younger generation?"

The Dragon Clan's Venerable Sovereign had descended.

"I had known that the dragon and phoenix races had always been related to the human race, and now I know that it was true! Jie Yan, when are you going to watch the show? Are you going to wait for Tian Hong to break free?"

The expressions of the Venerable Sovereigns of the Dragon and Phoenix races changed as they looked into the distance. A ferocious beast appeared there. It was the Realm Clan's Venerable Sovereign who had rushed over from the Realm Sea.

"Not good, the Realm Clan has actually allied with the Spirit Race. Hurry up and move Shen Ping away. Otherwise, the two of us won't be able to stop them," Feng Yi hurriedly said.

The two Venerable Sovereigns immediately used the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth and used great methods to teleport Shen Ping. However, the Spirit Race and Realm Clan's Venerable Sovereigns were faster. They broke through their defense a step in advance and attacked Shen Ping.

At this critical moment, Shen Ping mobilized the Great Dao of the Chaos with difficulty and poured it into the Heavenly Star Armor. The Great Dao Treasure emitted a dazzling light at this moment and easily blocked the Venerable Sovereign's attack..

Chapter 807: Special Place of the Immortal Dao (1)

As Shen Ping blocked the Venerable Sovereign's attack, the teleportation divine power of the two Venerable Sovereigns had already descended. His body disappeared into thin air.

The expression of the Venerable Sovereign of the Spirit Race was incomparably gloomy. He knew very well that he only had this one chance to kill Shen Ping. Under the circumstances of joining forces with the Venerable Sovereigns of the Realm Clan, the Devil, Flame, and Demon Clans, he still managed to escape.

It was basically impossible to deal with Shen Ping in the future. After all, the human race would definitely bring him to the core territory. Although the human race had spies from the Spirit Race, the core territory was Venerable Sovereign Tianhong's territory. Even if the four races joined forces, they would not be able to do anything.

"It's a treasure of the Great Dao," The Realm Clan's Venerable Sovereign said slowly.

The Spirit Race's Venerable Sovereign nodded, but he still hesitated and said, "It's extremely difficult to activate the power of a Great Dao treasure. You have to master the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. Looks like Shen Ping has already comprehended the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth."

Before they made his move, they knew that Shen Ping had a Great Dao treasure, but they did not take it to heart. A treasure of this level was not something an ascended cultivator could activate. However, reality had taught the Venerable Sovereign of the Spirit Race a lesson. Freaks indeed could not be judged by common sense.

"Hmph, with the Realm Sea Peak, comprehending the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth is nothing." The Realm Clan's Venerable Sovereign stared coldly at the two Venerable Sovereigns, "Don't be smug. Even if you use teleportation to save him, you might not be able to teleport him to the core territory of the human race."

When the two Venerable Sovereigns heard this, their expressions changed again, “Jie Yan, what do you mean?”

The Realm Clan’s Venerable Sovereign did not say anything and disappeared. When the Venerable Sovereign of the Spirit Race received the voice transmission, he laughed out loud. “Feng Yi, you made a wasted trip this time. Don’t worry, when we destroy the human race, your Phoenix Clan will become the mount of our Spirit Race!”

With that, his figure slowly dissipated.

Feng Yi frowned. Her lips moved slightly, and she quickly sighed. “It was a Venerable Sovereign of the Stone Clan who attacked. It destroyed our teleportation space. Now, I don’t know where Shen Ping has teleported to. I hope nothing will happen.”

The Dragon Clan’s Venerable Sovereign shook his head. “This is a human matter. You and I are only doing this for the sake of a favor. As for the outcome, it’s not our business.”

Feng Yi glanced at the Venerable Sovereign of the Dragon Race and thought to herself that this stubborn old fellow was still living in the glory of the Dragon Race in the past. With the current situation, once the human race declined, the dragon and phoenix races would definitely be the ones to suffer.

In a dark void. Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong’s gaze was cold. He looked at the three Venerable Sovereigns in front of him and said coldly, “Very good. I, Tian Hong, will remember what happened today. Don’t let me meet you in the Realm Sea!”

Whoosh.

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong disappeared.

The three Venerable Sovereigns of the Devil Clan, the Demon Race, and the Flame Race, heaved a sigh of relief. This time, they had finally barely blocked this human Venerable Sovereign. If not for the fact that the other party was in a hurry to go to the ascension passageway and did not plan to pester them, they would not have been his match at all. Of course, it was basically impossible for Venerable Tian Hong to kill them.

“Tsk tsk, I didn’t expect the Realm Clan and the Stone Clan to also take action. Now, the human race can be considered the enemy of the entire world. When we completely destroy Shen Ping, the human race will decline again.”

“Don’t be happy too early. The Realm Race, Stone Race, and other special races have always maintained neutrality. This time, they suddenly stood on our side. I’m afraid their goals are not small.”

“Indeed, these special races come from the Realm Sea and know more about the Realm Sea Peak than us. They must be coveting something on that human genius. Unfortunately, they didn’t directly destroy that human prodigy this time.”

As the three Venerable Sovereigns spoke, their figures dissipated.

After Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong returned to the misty peak, he frowned. He had indeed not expected the special races to attack, or rather, he had been prepared. However, he had not expected the Realm Clan and the Stone Clan to attack together. Fortunately, his disciple had a Great Dao treasure and had comprehended the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth, saving his life. He looked at Immortal Venerable Nanji and asked, “Immortal Venerable Nanji, have you found Shen Ping’s whereabouts?”

In the entire upper echelons of the human Immortal Dao, Venerable Sovereign Ling Yun was the best at divination. After Venerable Ling Yun lost himself in the Realm Sea, his disciple, Immortal Venerable Nanji, was the best at divination. Moreover, he had an Eight Heavenly Formation Disk in his hand. It was a treasure second only to the Great Dao.

“No.” Immortal Venerable Nanji sighed, “Venerable Sovereign, with my deduction ability, other than a few places in the entire Immortal Dao Domain, it’s very difficult to hide the rest. Now that I can’t deduce Shen Ping’s exact location, it can only mean that he was teleported to the three Lands of Extremis.”

Venerable Sovereign Tianhong frowned even more. The Three Lands of Extremis were the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land, the Demon’s Den Battlefield, and the Sea of Illusions. These three places were harsh environments in the Immortal Dao territory that were formed naturally, especially the Sea of Illusions. Even he did not dare to enter without permission because there were many vortexes inside. Moreover, they were connected to the Realm Sea. If he was not careful, he would be sent to the depths of the Realm Sea.

Ling Yun and Hei Tian, the two Venerable Sovereigns, had lost their way in the Realm Sea. There was no news of them until now, let alone Shen Ping. If he was teleported to the Sea of Illusions, it would be dangerous.

“By the way, Venerable Sovereign, Shen Ping has the Nine Continents Tower on him. You can contact him through the Nine Continents Tower and see if you can confirm his location.” Immortal Venerable Nanji hurriedly said.

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong immediately tried to sense the Nine Continents Tower, but he couldn’t sense anything. “It seems that he’s indeed teleported to the Three Lands of Extremis.”

In fact, other than the Three Lands of Extremis, there was also the Black Mist Direlands of the Abyss of Supreme Darkness. They were all extremely nasty places. However, compared to the Three Lands of Extremis, the Black Mist Direlands was slightly weaker. It was only because they were in the lower realm that it was difficult for Venerable Sovereigns to sense them..

Immortal Venerable Nanji continued, “Venerable Sovereign, don’t worry. Don’t forget, Shen Ping is still a Beast Spirit. With the magical power of the Strange Beast Gate, as long as he’s safe, he should be able to enter it.”

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong’s eyes lit up. “Yes, the Strange Beast Gate. Haha, I almost forgot about this. The Strange Beast Gate and the Realm Sea Peak were left behind by an ancient powerhouse. No matter where it is, as long as one is a Beast Spirit, they can sense and enter it. The Three Lands of Extremis should not be able to stop it. Let's go to the Strange Beast Gate to wait for news."

In the lush primitive forest, towering ancient trees, and continuous mountains, it was like a barren land. A man in ancient armor suddenly appeared in the sky. It was Shen Ping. When he was teleported, he sensed that the surrounding space seemed to have been forcefully squeezed by something terrifying. Immediately after, the space was sent flying like a ball. After the consecutive tremors and the world spun, he finally rushed out the moment the space shattered.

He looked up. Before he could see the scenery, his body fell uncontrollably. This shocked Shen Ping. He hurriedly circulated the completely transformed true immortal magic power in his body, but in the end, he could not use it. In a moment of desperation, he hurriedly circulated the power of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. Instantly, waves of the power of the Great Dao surged out of the vast world and enveloped it, stopping at the tip of a towering ancient tree.

Phew. He heaved a sigh of relief. Shen Ping hurriedly checked his body. Under the protection of the Heavenly Star Armor, his body was intact. Moreover, after the baptism of nine lightning tribulations, the power of the Divine Demon Body in his body was completely activated. He could feel the endless power in his body.

The immortal spiritual energy in his dantian was incomparably rich, as if it was about to break through the shackles at any time.

"Unfortunately, if I could successfully ascend and enter the Immortal Pool to absorb pure immortal spiritual energy, I should be able to directly break through to the Heavenly Immortal Realm. Now, I'm just a little short." He shook his head secretly, but he was not too disappointed. As long as he could continue to absorb immortal spiritual energy, he would be able to break through to the Heavenly Immortal Realm sooner or later. Although he could not activate the magic powers of a True Immortal here, he could absorb the immortal spiritual energy in the immortal spirit stone. This was good news for him.

"I wonder which immortal realm this place is?"

The Immortal Dao territory was very vast. The human territory was even divided into Immortal Realms. Every Immortal Realm had immortal cities of various sizes. He still remembered that Golden Immortal Li had invited him in the Abyss of Supreme Darkness.

He put away his distracting thoughts. Shen Ping looked around. There were ancient forests and mountain ranges everywhere. He could not even see the water flow. The area was extremely vast. He relied on activating the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth to continue flying for a while, but he did not see the border of the forest.

"Let's see if I can enter the Strange Beast Gate first.

After flying for about an hour, he did not see any buildings or immortal cities. Shen Ping could only find a mountain range and carve out a cave abode with his fist. He sat down cross-legged and tried to sense the Strange Beast Gate.

The strange fluctuation in the world was quickly grabbed by him. This made him happy. He directly stepped into the Strange Beast Gate and appeared on the third level of the Heavenly Palace.

The third level of the Heavenly Palace was the level of the True Immortal to the Golden Immortal. More than 60% of the Beast Spirits of the entire myriad races were on this level. Therefore, as soon as he arrived at the third level of the Heavenly Palace, he encountered other Beast Spirits.

“Human prodigy, Shen Ping?” The Beast Spirit was stunned.

Shen Ping grinned and said, “Beast Spirit of the Ice Race.

The Beast Spirit came back to his senses and hurriedly said, “Congratulations to Fellow Daoist Shen for breaking through to the True Immortal Realm and successfully ascending.” After saying that, he ran away.

Although this Beast Spirit was at the Heavenly Immortal level, he did not dare to provoke Shen Ping. The other party was at the top of the Beast Spirit Ranking and his combat strength was extraordinary.

Shen Ping did not mind. He immediately contacted his master.

Lian Xuejin’s gentle voice quickly sounded in his ear. “Disciple, you finally have a response. I had been contacting you through the Nine Continents Tower, but there was no news. I thought something had happened to you.”

There was surprise in her voice.

Shen Ping hurriedly said, “Master, I did encounter an attack. The Venerable Sovereigns of the Spirit Race, Realm Clan, and other races surrounded me. Fortunately, I had the protection of a Great Dao treasure, so I was safe. However, the place where I appeared in the Immortal Dao territory seemed to be special. I couldn’t contact you through my soul.”

Lian Xuejin patted her chest. “It’s good that you’re fine. I guessed that the Venerable Sovereigns would take action. But I didn’t expect even the Venerable Sovereigns of special races to be so afraid of you. Now that I can’t contact the human Venerable Sovereign and other Immortal Venerables, I’m afraid the place you’re staying at isn’t a good place.”

Shen Ping’s communication stone vibrated.

“I think some other Beast Spirits of the human race contacted me.”

Not long after, a Heavenly Immortal Beast Spirit appeared in front of him. This Heavenly Immortal’s surname was Yun, and he was a Heavenly Immortal who had emerged after the expansion of the human Beast Spirit.

Seeing Shen Ping, Heavenly Immortal Yun said happily, “That’s great. It’s good that Fellow Daoist Shen is fine. I’ll inform the seniors of our human race now.” Five minutes later, Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong, Immortal Venerable Nanji, and the other upper echelons of the human Immortal Dao knew that Shen Ping was safe and sound. They heaved a sigh of relief and asked about Shen Ping’s current environment through Heavenly Immortal Yun.

After Shen Ping explained the specific situation, Immortal Venerable Nanji smiled bitterly, “Venerable Sovereign, Shen Ping’s current location is the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land. It’s both good and bad news.” Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong said helplessly, “It’s better than the Sea of Illusions and the Demon’s Den Battlefield.”

Immortal Venerable Qi nodded, “That’s right. Although the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land can’t use immortal power and one’s own immortal spiritual energy is greatly exhausted, it can rely on immortal spirit stones to cultivate. Moreover, it can sense the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. Not only is this not a bad thing for Shen Ping, but it’s also a good thing.”

Immortal Venerable Yu also said, “That’s right. Shen Ping has comprehended the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. It’s an advantage in the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land. Most importantly, he can obtain immortal spirit stones through the Strange Beast Gate and continue to cultivate in it.” Immortal Venerable Bing frowned, “I’m afraid that the foreign races will send experts to surround and kill him after knowing that he’s in the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land.”

The other Immortal Venerables’ expressions changed slightly.

Immortal Venerable Nanji shook his head, “Once you enter the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land, you won’t be able to come out. That area is enveloped by a forbidden power. Unless you can master a complete Heaven and Earth Great Dao, no one will rashly send themselves to their deaths. Even if there is, at most, there will be some Golden Immortals or Mystic Immortals. No one above the Grand Unity Golden Immortal Realm should enter.

“So for the time being, Shen Ping staying in the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land is actually a form of protection for him.”

Venerable Sovereign Tian Hong slowly said, “In the past, those cultivators who couldn’t break through to the Venerable Sovereign realm will go to the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land to try their luck and find opportunities. There are also many foreign races among them. I hope Shen Ping won’t encounter any foreign races. Nanji, keep in touch with Shen Ping. If the foreign races really send cultivators above the Golden Immortal realm, our human race can’t stand by and do nothing.”

Immortal Venerable Nanji nodded heavily. It was mainly because the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land was too special. Without absolute confidence, the human race would not send people to die.

Shen Ping was also talking to his master, Lian Xuejin.

“In that case, the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land is a forbidden ground and a land of death for other cultivators, but for you, disciple, it’s an excellent cultivation place. Here, you can capture the Dao marks and Dao runes of the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. It’s very helpful for comprehending the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth.

“The only drawback is that you can only sense the exit of the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land and leave when you grasp a Heaven and Earth Great Dao. This means that you have to break through to the Venerable Sovereign Realm to leave,” Lian Xuejin said.

Shen Ping smiled, “Master, mastering a Heaven and Earth Great Dao doesn’t necessarily require me to break through to the Venerable Sovereign realm. Moreover, my comprehension of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao isn't low." If other immortals came to the Immortal Extinction Forbidden Land, they would only have their lifespans wither and wait for death. However, he was different. With the Realm Sea Peak around, it was not too difficult for him to comprehend and master an ordinary Heaven and Earth Great Dao. After all, he had already exceeded 50% of the Heaven and Earth Great Dao.

"It's good that you're confident. The most important thing now is to break through to the Heavenly Immortal Realm as soon as possible.."
