

Ex Convict 2441

Chapter 2441

Moments later, Martin Weiss seemed to come back to his senses and ran out. However, he only saw Kyla hailing a taxi to leave.

'This woman!

'Doesn't she know how dangerous it is to act alone in her condition?'

Kyla got out of the car with her big belly, and Martin Weiss's car quickly arrived soon after.

Martin Weiss immediately lunged forward to pull Kyla as soon as he got out of the car.

"Let go. The Mitchell family is already inside! I need to go over!" Kyla said quickly.

"So what if you go? Is it really only for the sake of getting one.

more minute?" Martin Weiss asked.

"No, I can get more time. I called the media when I was in the taxi. I want to make a big deal out of this, but..." Kyla paused. "I'll take responsibility for everything. You don't need to go in, lest the press target you. If Amber Mitchell's diagnosis confirms that she's mentally ill, then I'll say that I tricked Grace and the rest. I tricked Grace and her family into doing me this favor."

Kyla's words shocked Martin Weiss.

He did not expect that Kyla, whom he thought would be of no help in this situation, would make such a decision.

What had gone through her mind when she made the call to ask the media to come over? What was it like for her to make such a desperate decision in the car?

If the final diagnosis said that Amber Mitchell was indeed mentally ill, Kyla intended to take all the blame. She would become a joke for believing in mental patients and dragging down her innocent friends who trusted her.

She would shoulder all responsibility. In this way, she would be the real culprit and would be blamed, while everyone else would be relatively unharmed.

Martin Weiss's thin lips were almost pressed into a straight line before he said, "Don't forget that we're husband and wife!"

"I'll say that you weren't aware of anything, and I did everything of my own accord. You only came to Deer City to visit my friends with me. You didn't know I would do all this!"

said Kyla.

Martin Weiss had mixed feelings. 'What is... this woman doing?

Is she protecting me?'

Since when did he need a woman to protect him?

When he accompanied her to Deer City, he had already prepared to get himself involved.

"Come on," Martin Weiss said suddenly.

"What?" Kyla was dumbfounded for a moment.

"Aren't you going there to buy some time? Then go in. It'll be pointless if you're late. I'll go in with you, but I have one.

condition. You must hold my hand and not leave my side," said

Martin Weiss.

Kyla froze as she was in disbelief at what she heard. "But if you go in with me, that means you..."

"Do you think I can say I have nothing to do with it now?

Instead of thinking about what will happen to me, you should pray that Amber Mitchell isn't really mentally ill!"

Chapter 2442

Martin Weiss said as he held Kyla's hand in one hand and took out his phone in the other to make a phone call. "Get all the media you can contact now. Hurry. I'll give you the specific address in a moment, but be quick..."

After finishing the call, Martin Weiss turned to Kyla who was still motionless and said, "Since you intend to make a scene, let's make it a big one!"

Kyla only felt a surge of warmth flowing within her chest.

It was as if the man would always be there for her and handle everything for her no matter what happened.

When Kyla and Martin Weiss found Grace, the Mitchell family, the Gregory family, and the police were already there. The two parties were locked in a stalemate.

Grace had Jason, Brian, and Martin Weiss's men protecting her, but there were still too few people.

Besides, there were police officers there. The police warned that they would arrest them right away and sue them later if they did not get out of the way.

Grace was in the wrong.

Back in the Mitchell family's house, Louise Mitchell had found out that Grace, whom she saw at the party before this, was the wife of Emerald City's famous Young master Reed!

Not only was Jason there but even Brian.

'What the hell is going on with Amber Mitchell? Why would such big shots want to help her out?' Louise Mitchell thought to herself while shouting fiercely, "I'm my sister's guardian. I can tell you that no matter what the evaluation is afterward, it's invalid because you carried it out illegally! I'm going to take my sister away. You've frightened her, and what you're doing is kidnapping. I'll definitely pursue this matter!"

On the other hand, Grace was about to speak when Kyla's voice suddenly rang out. "We didn't kidnap her! We're saving her! I'm saving my friend's life!"

All eyes immediately fell on the Kyla and Martin Weiss, who had come over.

Grace walked quickly to Kyla's side. "What are you doing here? I thought you were supposed to rest."

"I started this. Of course, I have to come." She walked up to the police as she said, "I suspect that my friend Amber Mitchell was imprisoned and abused, so I hope the police will allow the doctor to give Amber Mitchell a preliminary evaluation. Barging in now will only interfere with the evaluation."

"These are just your words. The police can't wait here just because of your statement. If you really think there's something wrong with the Mitchell family's guardianship, you should go through the normal legal procedures," the police said.

"I have proof!" said Kyla.

"Proof? Did you need to sneak her out like this if you had proof? You said you're my sister's friend. Why have I never heard my sister mention you?" Louise Mitchell asked.

Chapter 2443

With that said, Louise Mitchell turned to say to the police, “Captain Wang, I hope the police can rescue my sister as soon as possible. She’s in there now, and I don’t know what they’ll do to my sister. If anything happens to my sister...”

The man known as Captain Wang mused. This was a dilemma.

Neither side was easy to deal with!

Just then, George Gregory said, “Captain Wang, let’s save them first. As for what evidence they have, it has nothing to do with the police. They should go through formal procedures.

instead of doing things illegally, right? If anything happens to Amber Mitchell under the police’s watch, there would be no way to end this.”

Hearing this, Captain Wang finally said to Grace, Jason, and the rest as if he had made up his mind, “The police are doing their duty. Please get out of the way. If you continue to interfere, you’ll have to bear the consequences.”

Kyla handed her phone to one of Brian’s computer experts.

“Please handle this.”

“Okay.” They turned on their laptops as they spoke, their fingers moving quickly across the keyboard.

Just as the police were about to rush in, the screen that was used to announce queue numbers suddenly lit up. A video appeared on it.

The screen was linked to Kyla’s phone, and the video on the screen was the video Kyla had filmed when she sneaked into the hospital the second time.

She had put a mini spy camera on her collar. She was afraid that she might miss something when she saw Amber Mitchell again, so she recorded it. She did not expect it to become evidence one day.

Kyla yelled, “Here’s my proof! You’ll know how the Mitchell family tortured a normal person into becoming mentally ill after you watch this video!”

Kyla targeted the Mitchell family. She had to buy time. The most important thing now was to buy time.

Everyone’s eyes were focused on the big screen while Louise

Mitchell panicked. When was the video taken? Amber Mitchell seemed to only sit still and keep her head down. What proof kind of proof is that? What was going to happen next?

However, the more assertive Kyla was, the more uneasy Louise Mitchell's heart became.

'George...' Louise Mitchell called to her husband in a whisper but found George Gregory staring at the screen seemingly with all his attention.

Louise Mitchell gritted her teeth in hatred and said to the police, "This video is unnecessary. Captain Wang, how long are you going to stay here? If anything happens to my sister, I won't..."

However, several people suddenly rushed over before she could finish speaking. They raised their cameras to film the scene.

The expressions of the people on Louise Mitchell's side changed, while Grace's looked calm because Kyla had already told them she would be inviting the press over when she came. Hence, they were all mentally prepared.

"What's with all these people? Get out. Kick them out!" Louise Mitchell instructed the Mitchell family's men, her uneasiness growing stronger.

Kyla lunged forward and said, "I invited these media! Since it's proof, more people should see it so they can judge whether Amber Mitchell should be given a mental evaluation!"

Chapter 2444

1/4

Over the years, Kyla had always been forbearing and did not enjoy any attention. However, she stood out in front of the police and a bunch of press with her huge baby bump. She said confidently, "I'm willing to bear any legal responsibility, but before that, I hope my friend Amber Mitchell can be given a fair evaluation to determine if she's sick and if the Mitchell family, who are supposed to be her family, are even treating her well!"

Kyla was accusing the Mitchell family, and the cameras instantly focused on Louise Mitchell.

"Is Amber Mitchell really suffering from mental illness?"

"What do you have to say about her statement?"

"In the video, Amber Mitchell seems to have lost a finger on her right hand. I remember that her fingers were intact before she was admitted to the mental hospital. How did she lose it?" A sharp-eyed reporter in the room asked. It had caused a stir in the news when Amber Mitchell was sent to the mental hospital, and many reporters remembered the incident well.

Louise Mitchell was nervous as she faced these aggressive questions. However, she spoke calmly to the reporters before her, "If the person who filmed this video is calling it proof when Amber Mitchell is only remaining motionless, then I only have one thing to say. That is, I'll sue the person slandering me using the law!"

With that said, Louise Mitchell looked at Captain Wang again.

"Do the police allow such people to slander the Mitchell family? My sister is in there, yet the police aren't doing anything."

Captain Wang looked at the crowd of media here. If something happened to Amber Mitchell when the video was over, the police would probably have to take the blame again.

All they had to do now was get Amber Mitchell out first.

Therefore, Captain Wang ordered his police officers to break through the human barrier in front of them to enter. Suddenly, a reporter screamed, and more people followed suit.

In the video, Amber Mitchell was looking up. There was a glimmer of light in her dark eyes. It was because... she had seen some hope!

Her hoarse voice said... "Help... me..."

At this moment, anyone would think that she was clear-headed and not a mental patient. She had mustered up all her strength to say the two words 'help me'!

"No way. Did the Mitchell family really force a normal person to stay in a mental hospital?"

"When Amber Mitchell was sent to the mental hospital, there were rumors the Mitchell family did it to seize her shares in the company."

"But isn't the Mitchell family her family?"

"Humans die in pursuit of wealth, and birds die in pursuit of food. Even family can't resist wealth. Besides, Amber Mitchell's mother died a long time ago. The second heiress of the Mitchell family and Amber Mitchell don't share the same mother."

Louise Mitchell's face increasingly paled as people kept whispering around her.

Although the video had finished playing, the computer expert deliberately paused at the last scene when Amber Mitchell looked up and said the words 'help me. Her eyes were full of pain and suffering but with a glimmer of hope. It was enough to move many people.

Louise Mitchell suddenly shouted, "Captain Wang, are you done watching the video now? I want you to get my sister out of there now!"

Chapter 2445

"But..." Even Captain Wang was starting to think that Amber Mitchell was not mentally ill.

"No buts. I'm my sister's guardian. My sister has been viciously kidnapped, and I want to rescue her! TMason Swansonty's expert confirmed my sister's mental illness. How could it be otherwise just because others said so? Who's going to take responsibility when something happens?" Louise Mitchell yelled.

Just as Captain Wang was about to rush into the room where the doctor was diagnosing Amber Mitchell, a voice suddenly rang out. "That's enough. Let the doctor finish diagnosing Amber Mitchell."

"What?" Louise Mitchell was surprised as she looked at the person next to her in disbelief. The speaker was her husband, George Gregory.

The others froze as well.

"George, what are you saying? We must take Sis away and end this joke!" Louise Mitchell whispered.

However, George Gregory only looked straight at the huge electronic screen and looked at Amber Mitchell's eyes.

Her eyes seemed to be brimming with heavy suffering, but they also seemed to have a touch of hope and... the last shred of trust.

One could see that she cried for help because she trusted

Kyla.

It was unlike the other day when he went to the hospital to see Amber Mitchell. What was left in her eyes was hatred apart from numbness to pain.

"I know what I'm saying. And I wonder what her mental state is right now," replied George Gregory.

Louise Mitchell felt a pang in her heart, and a chill suddenly began to spread all over her body.

'He... has never gotten over Amber Mitchell! Otherwise, he wouldn't have said such a thing!'

If Amber Mitchell was diagnosed with no mental illness, did he know what would happen to the Mitchell family and her?

However, in front of so many people and the media, she could only maintain a semblance of composure. With a dry chuckle, she said, "Doesn't Sis have a doctor in charge of her mental health? The attending doctor will show you her medical records over the years. George, I don't want this farce to go on!"

George Gregory's eyes finally fell on Louise Mitchell, but his gaze made Louise Mitchell's heart sink even more.

"Yeah, maybe it's time this farce ends," he said.

Louise Mitchell's hands and feet went cold. 'He... He seems to be alluding to something. Could he have figured something out?'

Louise Mitchell wanted to continue whispering to George Gregory, but he looked away from her and turned to speak to the nearby Captain Wang, "Captain Wang, wait here until the evaluation is over.'"

"Okay, okay!" Captain Wang said. He wanted to do that too, of course. After all, both parties were in conflict, and this case was not easy to handle with so many media outlets present.

Chapter 2446

Louise Mitchell was anxious, but George Gregory had already spoken up. If she insisted on opposing, her action would undoubtedly humiliate George Gregory and make others more suspicious of her.

Louise Mitchell could only force herself to calm down and stand beside George Gregory as they waited.

Time ticked by. About more than half an hour later, the consultation room door was suddenly pushed open. The nurse wheeled Amber Mitchell out as she was sitting in a wheelchair, then came along the doctor who had diagnosed her.

Louise Mitchell's heart sank when she saw the doctor, who was a famous psychiatrist in Deer City. She did not expect them to arrange for this psychiatrist to diagnose Amber Mitchell.

When Amber Mitchell was wheeled out, she saw many people and flashing lights in front of her.

On her way over, she recalled Grace saying to her, "The road ahead might be rough, and all sorts of things could happen, but I hope you'll be as calm as possible. What you need most right now is to stay calm. The best response when facing an enemy is to be calm and not lose control of your emotions. We'll try our best to help you as well!"

'Calm down... It's all I have to do now!'

She used to be the high-spirited heiress of the Mitchell family after being released from prison, but she had suffered immensely in the hospital.

Amber Mitchell glanced at the people not far away. She saw Grace, who had brought her here, and Kyla.

Kyla was heavily pregnant, but she looked at her eagerly and anxiously as she stood in the crowd.

Amber Mitchell's eyes instantly watered. 'Kyla...' She did not expect her to insist on finding her and do anything to save her.

She thought she would spend her whole life in that hopeless hospital and maybe choose to end her life when she could not stand it one day.

However, just as she was getting increasingly desperate, Kyla and her friend showed up to give her hope!

Just then, a reporter tried to break through the bodyguards in front and shouted at Amber Mitchell, "Miss Amber Mitchell, is it true that you were abused in the hospital? Can you answer our questions in a clear mind now?"

Then came a barrage of questions from more reporters. "Miss Amber Mitchell, do you have anything to say?"

"How did you lose your finger?"

“How were you abused?”

Louise Mitchell rushed forward to approach Amber Mitchell.

“Shut up. My sister is still a patient. Is this how you treat a patient? I’m going to get to the bottom of this!”

However, when she tried to walk up to Amber Mitchell, one of Jason’s bodyguards stopped her.

Louise Mitchell glared at the bodyguard. “Get out of my way. I’m my sister’s guardian. Who are you to stop me?”

However, a voice rang out. “I think whether Amber Mitchell needs a guardian is controversial. At least according to my preliminary diagnosis, Amber Mitchell is normal. Despite spending so many years in a mental hospital and faced with so much stress, she’s normal and not a mental patient.”

Chapter 2447

The speaker was the psychiatrist who had come out of the room with Amber Mitchell.

There was an uproar when everyone heard the words.

If Amber Mitchell was not mentally ill, the Mitchell family would have forced a healthy person into a hospital as a mentally ill person. They imprisoned her in the hospital for so many years.

It was tantamount to torture!

It would easily drive a normal person crazy!

“What nonsense are you talking about? Several well-known doctors confirmed my sister’s mental illness!” Louise Mitchell retorted.

The psychiatrist smiled faintly. “Are you questioning my expertise? You can gather a team of leading specialists in psychiatry to evaluate Amber Mitchell again. We can find out if Amber Mitchell is mentally ill then!”

Louise Mitchell instantly found herself in a dilemma when the psychiatrist said that. She could neither say agree nor reject!

“Then... I’ll take my sister home and consult a specialist first,” said Louise Mitchell.

"No." Kyla went up to defend Amber Mitchell and said, "She can't go back with you now. The Mitchell family has been keeping her in the hospital as a mental patient. Who knows what will happen to her if she goes back with you? She can stay in the hospital with a dedicated nurse looking after her."

"I'm her guardian!" Louise Mitchell stressed.

Kyla said coldly, "She's not mentally ill. She has never been incapable, so she doesn't need a guardian! Or are you taking her back to make her a real mental patient?"

At this moment, she was like a fighter facing the enemy head-on for her best friend.

"You..." Louise Mitchell glared at Kyla fiercely.

Just then, someone reached out their hand. It was missing a finger. Amber Mitchell held Kyla's drooping hand with some difficulty.

Kyla froze before looking at her. Amber Mitchell's pale face seemed even paler in the hospital lights, but the look in her eyes was not the same as before.

"I'm... not mentally ill. My father, sister, and her mother accused me of being mentally ill and forcibly admitted me into the hospital for various 'so-called' treatments to seize my shares in Mitchell Group. I believe the specialists' evaluation will do me justice! At the same time, I refuse to return to the Mitchell family's house with Louise Mitchell. It'll be a prison I can't escape if I go back!"

Amber Mitchell said in front of everyone.

The cameras kept flashing, and Louise Mitchell's face turned ghastly pale. She knew she could not take Amber Mitchell back with her after Amber Mitchell said that.

The media would have something on her if she hesitated even a little!

Therefore, she could only pretend to be aggrieved and said, "What makes you think so, Sis? Dad took over those shares because you were sick, and we always hoped that you would recover. All those years of therapy wouldn't have been in vain if you've recovered. Since you no longer trust us, it's better for you to stay in the hospital first. I'm sure it'll all be sorted out. Sis, we'll always be family, won't we?"

Chapter 2448

Amber Mitchell muttered coldly, "A family... Ha!" The last chuckle was filled with irony.

"Alright, let's take Amber Mitchell back to the ward to rest first," said Grace as she stepped out to run the show. Kyla replied in acknowledgment.

The bodyguards blocked off the reporters. Kyla wanted to accompany Amber Mitchell to the ward, but George Gregory moved his feet and stopped in front of Amber Mitchell's wheelchair when they were about to leave.

Amber Mitchell looked up at the man before her as her wheelchair stopped.

He was as handsome as ever with an added sense of maturity. However, her intense affection for him had been replaced with hatred.

She hated the man for saying he loved her but refusing to believe in her.

She hated the man for watching her be helplessly branded as a mental patient without helping her.

Perhaps she hated... herself the most for blindly falling in love with such a man.

"Is everything you said earlier true?" George Gregory murmured.

Amber Mitchell parted her dry lips slowly. "Mr. Gregory, don't you find your question ridiculous?" Her hoarse voice still sounded like a broken gong.

However, her voice struck hard at his heart like the toughest whip.

Even the thought of her being locked up in a mental hospital for so many years when she was not ill had made him feel as though he was standing on the edge of a precipice and would fall into the abyss with just one more step.

When Amber Mitchell's wheelchair passed by in front of him, and the figure in the wheelchair finally disappeared from his vision, he looked down slightly. The surrounding reporters swarmed toward him, wanting to interview him. However, they were blocked by the police and his men.

When George Gregory turned around to leave, Louise Mitchell instantly stopped him and said in a slightly nervous voice, "George, where are you going?"

"Are you going to stay here and let people laugh at you?"

George Gregory walked away. Embarrassed, Louise Mitchell bit her lip and quickly followed.

Louise Mitchell quickly told George Gregory once they got into the car, "George, don't believe what Sis said. She's a mental patient. What if someone had taught her to say those things? Her so-called 'friends' only want to use Sis to gain more benefits from the Mitchell family. They must have bribed the psychiatrist."

George Gregory only looked down as if he was thinking of something. He did not pay any attention to Louise Mitchell.

"George, did you hear me? Why don't we think of a solution? If Sis is diagnosed as mentally sound, we--"

"We what?" George Gregory interrupted Louise Mitchell and stared at her with cold eyes. "Should we get more doctors to prove that she's mentally ill or prove that she's now normal because of the treatments she previously received in the hospital?"

Louise Mitchell felt a cold sweat break out on her back. It was as if the man had seen through her.

Chapter 2449

"George, it's not what you think. Didn't you read Sis' mental illness report back then? Besides, you also said it would be better for her to stay in the hospital for long-term treatment," Louise Mitchell said quickly.

"Yeah, I did say that at the time," muttered George Gregory as he stared blankly at his wife with dark emotionless eyes. "Tell me, was Amber Mitchell really mentally ill?"

Louise Mitchell's heart thumped and almost burst out of her throat. The next moment, she replied in a calm voice, "Of course. How could it be fake?"

"Really?" His lashes quivered slightly. He closed his eyes and rested his head on the seat of the car. "Get out of the car!"

"What?" Louise Mitchell froze.

"I said, get out of the car now. I want some peace." The car stopped as he finished speaking.

Louise Mitchell's eyes widened in disbelief. "You... You want me to get out of the car? But there's a lot of media following us. They'll write about me again if I get out of the car now."

"I said... Get out of the car!" George Gregory slowly opened his eyes, but he was looking indifferently at Louise Mitchell.

Louise Mitchell shuddered, and her blood seemed to freeze at his gaze. She opened the car door and got out of the car numbly.

Then, the car sped away, leaving her alone in the cold.

Louise Mitchell had no choice but to stop the Mitchell family's car that was following from behind and get into it. She knew those gossip reporters must have taken photos of that scene earlier.

Louise Mitchell would be in the headline of gossip news and become the joke of Deer City tomorrow!

Louise Mitchell did not return to the Gregory family's house but went to the Mitchell family's house first.

The look in George Gregory's eyes when he made her get out of the car just now made her afraid to face the man she loved deeply.

At the Mitchell family's house, Mr. Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell had already dismissed the servants. When their daughter told her what had happened today, Mrs. Mitchell could not help cursing, "That little b*tch! I didn't expect her to be able to turn her fate around and find someone to help her!"

"Mom, the people helping her aren't simple. As far as I know, there are Jason from the Reed family of Emerald City and Brian, the crown prince of the entertainment industry. Besides that, the man standing next to the pregnant lady who claims.

to be Amber Mitchell's friend is no average Joe either," said

Louise Mitchell.

Mrs. Mitchell seemed increasingly uneasy. "What... What should we do, then? Are we really going to admit that we put a normal person in a mental hospital? If those doctors say anything about our deal..."

Mr. Mitchell said solemnly, "They won't unless they're looking for trouble. Their lives will be ruined if they expose it. Once they admit to such a thing, they'll have to go to prison! Anyway, we have to distance ourselves from this. Just say that Amber Mitchell became mentally unstable after Herman Moss's death in the car accident. The doctors back then had diagnosed her to be mentally ill. We don't know how she was suddenly diagnosed as normal now. Those people should ask the doctors who diagnosed her back then."

In conclusion, Mr. Mitchell wanted the Mitchell family to stay out of it.

Chapter 2450

"That might be enough to convince outsiders... but George won't be so easily convinced," Louise Mitchell said worriedly.

1/4

"So what even if he suspects it and figures out the truth?

Can he pursue it? Will he give up his family or even half of his career for Amber Mitchell, who has been living a life of pure misery?" Mr. Mitchell was dissatisfied with his daughter's behavior. She acted as though the sky was about to fall. "Don't forget, you have a child with George Gregory."

Louise Mitchell's eyes lit up instantly. Yes, she still had Ruiheng.

Ruiheng was the only grandson of the Gregory family. Even if George still had feelings for Amber Mitchell, he would not hurl mud at the Mitchell family and her for Ruiheng's sake!

"By the way, is Ruiheng still abroad?" Mr. Mitchell asked.

"Yes, he's with his grandparents. They said they want him to spend some time abroad before he starts school," said Louise

"As his mother, you should go along. He's your son, but you leave him to others all day long. Be careful, or he won't have any affection for the Mitchell family and you!" Mr. Mitchell scolded.

"Yes, yes, I'll spend more time with Ruiheng in the future," Louise Mitchell said quickly before exchanging a look with her mother, who was beside her.

Her father had no idea about it, but she and her mother knew that Ruiheng was not her child. He was Amber Mitchell's child.

He was Amber Mitchell and George Gregory's child.

If Louise Mitchell had not been unable to conceive, she would not have found ways to get Amber Mitchell's baby and raise him.

Heaven knew how she thought of Amber Mitchell every time she saw the child's face. As the child grew older, he began to resemble Amber Mitchell more and more. She was worried that someone would one day realize that the child looked like Amber Mitchell and then discover Amber Mitchell was his biological mother!

If that day came, she would rather have her child disfigured to keep it a secret.

In short, no one must discover that Amber Mitchell was the child's biological mother!

Kyla accompanied Amber Mitchell to the single-room ward, where Amber Mitchell kept talking to her in a hoarse voice, "Thank you... Kyla. Thank you..."

"You haven't spoken for a long time, and your throat will hurt if you suddenly talk too much. We'll talk for as long as you want when you feel better," said Kyla.

Amber Mitchell nodded as her eyes rested on Kyla's bulging belly. At that moment, a touch of regret rose in her eyes.

'If... my child were still alive, they'd be seven years old by now. It's a pity that... I failed to protect the little life and lost the child...!

She stretched out her deformed right hand as if to touch Kyla's belly but hesitated.

Kyla took Amber Mitchell's hand and placed it on her bulging belly. "I'm six months along, and perhaps you'll see the child soon. Be their godmother when the time comes."

The tears in Amber Mitchell's eyes welled up even more. "Okay, I'll be the child's godmother..." she murmured.

Kyla told Amber Mitchell more about herself. Finally, she asked Amber Mitchell to stay in the hospital. The Reed family and the Weiss family had sent people to protect Amber Mitchell in the hospital. Due to the media's intervention and the preliminary evaluation by the psychiatrist Philip Barlow had invited, the Mitchell family dared not take Amber Mitchell away by force anymore.
