

Ex Convict 2521

Chapter 2521

They thought their daughter hurt herself when she had a mental breakdown!

Louise Mitchell only stated she knew nothing about it. She always thought her sister was ill, so she often visited Amber Mitchell in the hospital. During those times, Amber Mitchell had behaved like a real mental patient.

All in all, the case was indeed as tough as Lawyer Gan said.

Even if the final chain of evidence could prove that the Mitchell family committed bribery and that Amber Mitchell was abused in the hospital, Louise Mitchell could still get acquitted.

The trial lasted three days.

On the third day of the trial, the judge sentenced Mr. Mitchell and Amber Mitchell's stepmother to three years in prison, while Louise Mitchell was acquitted on the spot.

Louise Mitchell's face instantly burst into a smirk. Sure enough, she was not found guilty in the end! George Gregory still had some tricks up his sleeve!

She still emerged as the winner!

Lawyer Gan, who was at Amber Mitchell's side, consoled Amber Mitchell by saying, "In any case, at least two people have been sentenced now. As for Louise Mitchell, we can sue her again if we find new evidence."

Amber Mitchell replied in acknowledgment, but she knew that George Gregory must have made full preparations since he was helping Louise Mitchell with the lawsuit this time.

Her father and stepmother took all the blame to 'clear' Louise Mitchell's name. She could tell that her father and stepmother had also bet all their hopes on Louise Mitchell, believing they would be released from prison sooner as long as Amber Mitchell was safe.

Everything that the Mitchell family owned could also be preserved.

When the trial ended, Louise Mitchell came over from the defendant's table, looked smugly at Amber Mitchell, and said in a voice that only they could hear, "What a pity, Sis. You couldn't get what you wished for. Even the law has proven I'm innocent. Maybe you need to find another way to send me to jail, Sis."

Amber Mitchell looked at her coldly. "You know full well whether you're innocent or not, Louise Mitchell. You can escape once but not twice."

“Really? Let’s see whether it’ll be you or me who will suffer, Sis.” Louise Mitchell smiled faintly before turning around and walking to George Gregory’s side. She took George Gregory’s arm affectionately, looking like a loving couple.

George Gregory glanced indifferently at Louise Mitchell but did not reject her intimacy in front of everyone.

Louise Mitchell was instantly smugger as she gently pressed her face to George Gregory’s arm. “George, let’s go.”

George Gregory then walked out of the court with Louise Mitchell, but his eyes still glanced at Amber Mitchell when they left.

Even he could not explain it. The outcome of the case was exactly as he had expected, but he felt no joy at all. Instead, he felt guilty as if he had committed a crime.

Rather, he had indeed committed a crime. He knew who was responsible for making Amber Mitchell a mental patient, but he was still trying to exonerate and save that person.

When George Gregory and Louise Mitchell walked out of the courtroom, a crowd of reporters instantly surrounded them and bombarded them with questions.

Louise Mitchell pretended to look sad. “I’m sad. Both parties are my family. I think my father and mother might have other reasons for what they did to Sis. But for what it’s worth, I believe that the law is fair. Since Mom and Dad did Sis wrong, they should be punished by the law.”

After a pause, Louise Mitchell said, “I also blame myself for not finding this out sooner. If Sis had trusted me more and told me the truth earlier, maybe I could have saved her sooner. I hope Sis will trust me after this incident. We’ll always be sisters!”

The words were uttered with such affection that those who did not know them would think that she loved her sister very much.

However, George Gregory was in no mood to watch Louise Mitchell play pretend. He asked the bodyguards to fend off the reporters and hurriedly got into his car with Louise Mitchell.

As soon as he got into the car, George Gregory said expressionlessly, “I gave you what you requested. We’ll go to the hospital later and ask the hospital to give you a full-body check-up to prepare for Simon’s transfusion.”

The expression on Louise Mitchell’s face changed. “Did you get me out only because of Simon? Do you really have no feelings for me?”

George Gregory said indifferently, “Do you think I’m supposed to feel anything for you today? What do you think I should feel for a woman who can harm her sister and use her own son as a bargaining chip?”

“Do you really think I’m that evil?” said Louise Mitchell.

Chapter 2522

George Gregory said nothing as if he was not bothered to pay her any attention. He only closed his eyes to rest.

Louise Mitchell suddenly laughed, but her laughter sounded harsh. “George Gregory, you’re really heartless. You treated Amber Mitchell that way, and you’re treating me the same. Someone like you can never truly love anyone. You love only yourself!”

George Gregory’s eyes opened suddenly. “You’d better not mention Amber Mitchell in front of me again, or I’ll make sure you can never utter another word.”

Louise Mitchell’s pupils shrank suddenly. “Aren’t you afraid I won’t help Simon with his transfusion?”

“Since I’ve gotten you out, it’s not up to you to reject the transfusion. Even if you refuse to do so, I can still make you help Simon with his transfusion,” George Gregory said calmly.

Louise Mitchell’s heart sank. She knew how cold-blooded he was, but she had always hoped that he would develop feelings for her one day.

The more she had admired his tender affections for Amber Mitchell, the more she found herself ridiculous now.

Maybe he had exhausted all his affections when he was with Amber Mitchell, so he did not have any to give to her.

The car drove to the hospital, and Louise Mitchell followed George Gregory out of the vehicle. She was forced to go to the

Chapter 2522

VIP ward that George Gregory had booked for her.

“Stay here for a few days first. The hospital will arrange for you to help with Simon’s transfusion after the full-body checkup. After that, I won’t stop you from going anywhere you want,” said George Gregory.

Louise Mitchell pressed her red lips tightly as she listened quietly and did not raise any objections.

Then, the nurse handed over a series of documents regarding the full-body check-up and blood draw for the transfusion, which Louise Mitchell signed.

Chapter 2523

He tiredly rubbed his brow in the car. A great sense of weariness filled his body.

Speaking of which, he did Amber Mitchell wrong today. However, he had to do it to save Simon.

'Besides, didn't Amber Mitchell betray my affections? Why should I feel guilty?' George Gregory thought to himself.

Back at the Gregory family's house, Old Master Gregory and Old Madam Gregory came over and asked, "How was it? Will Louise Mitchell help Simon with his transfusion?"

"She's receiving a body check-up in the hospital. Even if she refuses, I'll make her help Simon with the transfusion," said George Gregory.

Old Madam Gregory was finally relieved, but she could not help lecturing, "How could there be such a mother? Her son needs her blood, yet she wants to make a bargain using this! After Simon recovers, divorce her no matter what. How could such a woman be the Gregory family's daughter-in-law?"

Old Master Gregory had no objection to his wife's statement and agreed with her.

He was also a little afraid of his daughter-in-law, Louise Mitchell. The Mitchell family indeed made people uncomfortable. Since the Mitchell family could shamelessly frame their own daughter, who knew what they would do in the future?

It would be good to cut ties with the Mitchell family now. It would be better for their grandson not to have such a mother.

"Can Simon recover after the transfusion?" Old Madam Gregory was nervous.

"According to the doctor, there's a high possibility he'll recover. If the transfusion with Louise Mitchell's blood fails to cure him, we'll think of another way. I'll contact doctors abroad to see what treatment options are available," said George Gregory.

Old Madam Gregory wept. "Why is Simon so unfortunate? Louise Mitchell doesn't deserve to be a mother. If she had been willing to help Simon with his transfusion sooner, Simon would not have suffered so much! Who would have thought that even Amber Mitchell would donate blood to Simon, but his own mother-"

"Alright, stop," reminded Old Master Gregory. When they went to the hospital, they accidentally learned that one other person had donated blood apart from the three medical staff. That person happened to be Amber Mitchell.

Old Master Gregory and Old Madam Gregory were shocked for a while after learning that Amber Mitchell had donated blood to Simon.

Old Madam Gregory said no more as if she realized something.

George Gregory said indifferently, "Alright, I'm going back to my room to rest." With that said, he walked to his room. He tiredly took off his clothes after entering his room. He entered the bathroom and let the warm water wash over his tired body.

Although he had only sat in the gallery during the trial, every second felt like he was on pins and needles.

Amber Mitchell did not even look at him much during the trial. Even if she glanced at him occasionally, it only seemed unintentional. He even hoped that she could look at him more, but it seemed like he did not exist to her at all.

George Gregory lowered his head as his fingers gently touched his heart. He had once pressed the woman's hand firmly on his heart and said to her, "Amber Mitchell, I will forever be yours. You will be the only one I love in this life. If you don't love me, my heart will die and never revive."

Chapter 2524

Had his heart died?

Even though it was still beating, each beat seemed to bring a fit of sharp pain.

It was worse than death!

After learning the verdict of the case, Grace called Amber Mitchell to comfort her. However, Mitchell did not sound upset in the phone call. Instead, she said confidently, "Louise Mitchell won't get away so easily. I'll let the law punish her."

"Is there new progress with Herman Moss's car accident case?". Grace speculated because Amber Mitchell had told her that Louise Mitchell had something to do with the accident.

Amber Mitchell replied, "Yeah, there's some progress. the Moss family has also sent someone to keep an eye on Louise Mitchell to prevent her from escaping."

"That's good," said Grace. She did not want to see someone like Louise Mitchell get away with murder either.

"By the way, how are you doing? How's the baby? Is everything okay?" Amber Mitchell asked.

Chapter 2524

"Everything's fine. I just have to get more rest," said Grace.

"That's good. I'll come to Emerald City to see you when the matter with Louise Mitchell is over," said Amber Mitchell.

"Okay, I'll wait for you," said Grace.

After the call, she raised her hand and caressed her belly. What she did not tell Amber Mitchell was that everything was unconfirmed. They could only decide after seeing the placenta's growth.

If the situation was bad, they might not be able to keep the baby.

"What's the matter? Are you worried about the baby again?" Jason came over and knew what Grace was worried about as soon as he saw the look on her face.

Grace nodded gently. "Yeah. I hope there won't be any problems when the baby grows their placenta."

Jason said, "Alright, don't overthink it. No matter what the problem is, we'll face it together. Grace, I just want you to remember that all I want is for you to be safe."

Everything else was the next best thing. All he wanted was for her to be safe.

Grace gazed intently at Jason. His beautiful peach blossom eyes were full of worry.

The worry in his eyes somehow increased, and she knew it was all because of her.

Chapter 2524

She raised her hand to caress his eyebrows. "Don't worry. I'll be safe. Aren't we going to grow old together?"

She knew better than anyone what would happen to this man if anything happened to her.

Her life was not only hers. It was also his!

Jason held Grace. "You promised me that we'll grow old together. You can't go back on your word."

"Okay, I won't go back on my word," she said gently as she leaned in his arms and listened to his heartbeat. Little by little, her anxiety seemed to dissipate. "By the way, do you know how Martin Weiss is doing now?" Grace asked.

Kyla and Martin Weiss's youngest daughter, Trista, would be discharged from the neonatal care unit next week. She could return to Kyla's side if everything went well.

However, Martin Weiss had never once visited Trista in the hospital, nor did he contact them. It was just like what he said before this. He wanted a clean separation.

Chapter 2525

Although Kyla said nothing, Grace could sense that Kyla was missing Martin Weiss.

"As far as I know, he's currently in L city, recuperating in a mansion in the suburbs. He has passed over most of the company affairs to his subordinates. Only some decisions that affect the company are still made by him," said Jason.

"Do you think he really wants a clean break-up with Kyla?" Grace asked.

"I guess so. But if Kyla wants to get back together with him, it's not out of the question. Since Martin Weiss was willing to donate his kidney again to Kyla, could he refuse to be with Kyla if he learns that Kyla truly loves him?" Jason analyzed.

"I don't know if Kyla can take that step," Grace said with a sigh. If the doctor had not said that Kyla should not have too many emotional ups and downs in her current physical condition, she might have been unable to resist telling Kyla what Martin Weiss had done for her.

The Weiss family's mansion in L City.

The lawyer handed a divorce agreement draft to Martin Weiss. "Mr. Weiss, this is the divorce agreement drafted as per your wishes. Please go over it and see if there's anything to be added or modified."

Chapter 2525

Martin Weiss looked through the divorce agreement and handed it back to the lawyer after reading the last page. "It's alright. Send this divorce agreement to Kyla in three months."

She should be well enough by then, so it was natural for them to get a divorce.

"Okay, I'll do it," replied the lawyer.

After the lawyer left, Martin Weiss closed his eyes. His recovery after the second liver donation was significantly worse than the first time.

Even though he had been taking good care of his health, his body was still weak. He felt exhausted even if he had not done much the entire day.

This must be the price he had to pay.

Before the liver donation, the doctor had told him that his health would probably be much worse than before if he donated his liver a second time. He would need to pay special attention to his health. His body might collapse if he was not careful.

He had expected all these.

It was a choice he made himself. There was nothing to complain.

about.

"Kyla, we'll probably have nothing to do with each other for real this time," he murmured, but only the silent air answered him.

Chapter 2525

After a comprehensive body check-up, the hospital began to arrange for Simon's transfusion. Louise Mitchell was unwilling, but she knew she could not escape it.

If she resisted, George Gregory would probably resort to coercion next.

George Gregory had coldly looked on when Amber Mitchell was suffering back then. How could he show mercy to her? Louise Mitchell knew very well about George Gregory's indifference.

What she needed to do now was obediently help Simon with his transfusion, leave the hospital quickly afterward, and then leave Deer City.

After all, she knew very well that she was not Simon's biological mother, so Simon's transfusion with her blood would probably not have good effects. If the hospital started looking into the reason, they would easily find out that she was not Simon's biological mother.

George Gregory would probably never let her get away when that happened.

Therefore, she had to leave as soon as possible!

Her father and mother would have to wait!

Chapter 2526

Louise Mitchell made up her mind to transfer her funds and sell some of her shares during her stay in the hospital.

She was afraid to sell them all for fear of arousing George Gregory's suspicions.

However, even if she only sold a portion, it would be enough to ensure a lavish life for her.

On the day of the transfusion, Simon lay weakly in the hospital bed and said to Louise Mitchell, "Mommy, why haven't you come to see me? I've missed you."

Louise Mitchell had nothing but disgust for the son who called her 'Mommy'. He was becoming increasingly like Amber Mitchell!

However, she still pretended to look like she missed him. "I've come to see you, haven't I? Simon, don't worry. I'll save you."

George Gregory glanced coldly at Louise Mitchell, who was putting on an act. Then, he turned to look tenderly at his son, saying, "Alright, be good and get some sleep. You'll slowly get better after you wake up."

Simon nodded obediently and closed his eyes.

George Gregory turned to the medical staff nearby and said,

Chapter 2526

“Let’s get started.”

Louise Mitchell lay in another hospital bed and watched as a nurse stuck a needle into her arm. Warm blood began to pour into Simon’s body.

If the only thing that could save Simon was his biological mother’s blood, Simon would surely die.

She would never tell George Gregory that Simon’s biological mother was Amber Mitchell!

She would go abroad to enjoy life, while George Gregory would face the pain of losing his son. How wonderful!

Louise Mitchell could not help smiling at the thought of it.

Since George Gregory wronged her, he could not blame her for all this!

The transfusion was finally completed after a week.

Louise Mitchell was very weak at the moment. After all, she had been pumping more blood out of her body this week than a regular person could handle.

“Can I leave the hospital and go home now?” Louise Mitchell asked George Gregory.

“You’re going back? You can stay in the hospital and rest for a few more days.” George Gregory was slightly surprised by Louise Mitchell’s eagerness to leave.

Chapter 2526

“No, I don’t want to be in the hospital too long,” said Louise Mitchell. Besides, the longer she stayed, the more likely she would get into trouble!

George Gregory said nothing more. He only said, “You don’t need to go back to the Gregory family’s house. I’ve packed all your things and sent them back to the Mitchell family’s residence. You’ll see them when you return to the Mitchell family’s house.”

Louise Mitchell froze and immediately understood that George Gregory had decided to separate from her.

“So, are you kicking me away after using me?” Louise Mitchell asked bitterly.

“I helped you get acquitted, and you gave Simon your blood. Our deal is done. That’s all there is,” George Gregory said indifferently as he looked at Louise Mitchell’s cold eyes without any emotion.

Louise Mitchell smiled sarcastically. “You’re indeed cold-blooded. You’re right. That’s all there is between us.”

This man had never had the slightest affection for her. It was time she gave up.

After returning to the Mitchell family's house, Louise Mitchell found all her belongings in Gregory Residence already in the Mitchell family's living room.

Chapter 2526

Her pretty face began to contort when she saw them. She had tried every means to join the Gregory family. She even committed a crime. However, she was now kicked out by the Gregory family in such a way!

Chapter 2527

The Gregory family and George Gregory!

She would make them pay one day!

However, what she should do now was leave before George Gregory found out that her blood had no effect on Simon!

With this in mind, Louise Mitchell got to work.

The next afternoon, Louise Mitchell headed to the airport with her luggage. She had bought a plane ticket to go abroad. She would be safe once she went abroad.

Even if George Gregory discovered something, he could no longer threaten her.

When Louise Mitchell rushed to the airport, the doctor was telling George Gregory the result of Simon's exchange transfusion.

"The effect of the transfusion isn't as good as we expected. It's not even as good as the last time. Logically speaking, your wife is Simon's biological mother, so this shouldn't happen," the doctor analyzed.

George Gregory's eyes narrowed. "It's not even as good as last time?"

"Yes, the effect is the same as the first regular transfusion, but the last one was better than these two times. We're going to do some more research to see what went wrong," the doctor said.

"More research? How long will that take?" George Gregory asked. Time was all that mattered to Simon now!

He was only worried that the child's condition would worsen with each passing day.

"We'll do it as soon as possible," the doctor said. After all, it was hard to guarantee anything in medicine.

George Gregory pressed his thin lips together tightly. He knew things would not turn out the way he wanted!

Just then, George Gregory's phone rang suddenly. His subordinate's voice came from the phone. "Mr. Gregory, Mrs. Gregory has arrived at the airport with her luggage. It seems that she's about to board a plane and leave."

George Gregory froze. "She wants to leave Deer City?"

"I think so, and the terminal she's heading to is for international departures."

George Gregory could not help frowning. 'Louise Mitchell's leaving and going abroad? What the hell is she up to?

'And why is her blood useless on Simon? We can't let her leave no matter what.'

Chapter 2527

"Try to stop her. I'm coming over," said George Gregory.

"Okay, got it. Mr. Gregory," the subordinate responded and hid nearby, planning to stop Louise Mitchell by surprise when she was ready to board the plane.

Just then, the subordinate saw a police officer approach Louise Mitchell. They seemed to talk for a moment, then the police officer put a pair of handcuffs on Louise Mitchell's wrists.

The scene took the subordinate by surprise.

'Did the police just... arrest Louise Mitchell? What the hell is going on here?'

Louise Mitchell seemed to be panicking. Just now, the police said... she was suspected of being involved in Herman Moss's death. She was now a suspect, so she needed to return to the police station for questioning.

'What's going on here? It was so many years ago. Why is it being brought up now?'

Chapter 2528

Haven't they defined Herman Moss's death as an ordinary car accident?'

"How could I have anything to do with Herman Moss's death? Have you gotten the wrong person? I want my lawyer! I'm suing the police for resorting to force without grounds," said Louise Mitchell.

"You can see your lawyer after you get back to the police station with us! And we wouldn't be arresting you like this if we didn't have enough evidence," the police said.

'Enough evidence?' The statement shocked Louise Mitchell. She wondered what evidence the police had at the moment.

When Louise Mitchell was taken away from the airport, the subordinate called George Gregory, who was on his way over.

"Mr. Gregory, Mrs. Gregory has been taken away by the police. I vaguely heard Herman Moss's name being mentioned. It seems Mrs. Gregory has been taken away because of the car accident that year," the subordinate said.

That car accident shocked the entire city back then.

George Gregory's pupils constricted. "What did you say? She was taken away under suspicion of being related to Herman Moss's car accident?"

"It seems so. I was a little far away and didn't hear very clearly," the subordinate said.

When the phone call was over, George Gregory closed his eyes, pondered for a moment, and said to the driver at the front, "Turn around and go to the police station!"

He wanted to find out what happened. How was Louise Mitchell involved in the car accident?

It was as if there was a layer of mist before his eyes. He was getting so close, as though he could finally see everything if he stretched out his hand.

When Louise Mitchell was taken to the police station, she found Amber Mitchell there.

Louise Mitchell looked at Amber Mitchell walking toward her in shock. 'Why is Amber Mitchell here? Is this a coincidence? Or...'

"I told you that you could get away with it once, but that doesn't mean you can get away with it the second time," Amber Mitchell said coldly to Louise Mitchell. "Louise Mitchell, I won't let you get away with it this time."

"Amber Mitchell, you..." Louise Mitchell suddenly felt a sense of fear. She had a bad feeling. Amber Mitchell already knew what had happened in the past. Louise Mitchell probably would not be able to get away with it again this time.

Louise Mitchell was taken to the interrogation room, while

Amber Mitchell entered the statement room. She retold her story to the police, explaining every detail and doubt she had.

By the time she came out of the statement room, tears were streaming down her face.

She raised her hand and gently wiped away the tears on her face. It turned out Herman's accident still hurt her so much and the memory had never faded even after so many years.

Herman asked her to live a good life, but could she really have 'a good life' after losing so much?

Just then, there was suddenly the sound of footsteps. Amber Mitchell looked up only to see George Gregory walking quickly into the police station.

George Gregory stopped abruptly when he saw her, and surprise flashed across his face.

"What are you doing here?" George Gregory asked coldly.

"I'm here for the same reason as you are," said Amber Mitchell. They were here because of Louise Mitchell!

Chapter 2529

George Gregory's face darkened. "What's the matter? Are you unhappy to see Louise Mitchell acquitted, so you're finding ways to get Louise Mitchell back in jail? The police have already ruled the car crash as an accident. Louise Mitchell is still the Gregory family's daughter-in-law. Do you know what your reckless behavior will do to the Gregory family?"

"Is all you care about is the effects on the Gregory family?" Amber Mitchell snapped. 'Am I disappointed? What's there to be disappointed about? I should have known that George Gregory is such a person.'

"I'm only asking if you have to go through so much trouble? You can't afford the consequences if you involve the Gregory family in this," warned George Gregory.

Amber Mitchell replied without backing down, "Is there anything I can't afford? At worst, I just have to give up my life! But what about you? Speaking of which, Herman was friends with you. He died for no apparent reason, but you're now warning me not to find out the truth about his death. George Gregory, is this how you treat your friends?"

"Herman Moss is no longer my friend. If he was my friend, he wouldn't have gone behind my back and hooked up with you. How dare you say that now?" George Gregory said coldly.

"He has never done you wrong. You're the one who's been doubting him and me. If he had wanted to do you wrong, he wouldn't have come to say goodbye to me before going abroad!" Amber Mitchell said.

Chapter 2529

She did not care about being wronged and misunderstood, but she did not want Herman to keep carrying that burden.

He was such a nice person!

However, George Gregory did not believe her explanations.

"Either way, you'd better drop this case immediately. Or..."

Amber Mitchell said indifferently, "I can't. It's already a criminal case. Louise Mitchell deliberately plotted the accident and killed Herman. Even though all these years have passed, she'll still have to pay for her crime! With the current evidence, you can't get her out of this even if you wish to help her."

George Gregory stared at Amber Mitchell. "There's nothing I can't do in Deer City."

"The Gregory family doesn't rule Deer City." Another voice rang. Daley Moss had also come to the police station.

Daley Moss looked coldly at George Gregory. "If Mrs. Gregory is responsible for my eldest brother's death and the Gregory family plans to protect her, the Moss family won't be willing to take things lying down!"

George Gregory looked intently at Daley Moss. "Okay, I have my eye on you, the Moss family!"

Chapter 2529

With that said, George Gregory turned to leave.

Daley Moss looked at Amber Mitchell. "What did he tell you?"

"Nothing. He just asked me to drop the case because he doesn't want Louise Mitchell's case to affect the Gregory family. He must be unaware of what happened back then," said Amber Mitchell.

Daley Moss said, "If he's really unaware, once everything is cleared up, are you going to..."

"It'll never happen between him and me," replied Amber Mitchell as she looked solemnly at Daley Moss after a moment of contemplation. "Mr. Moss, I have a request. When everything is cleared up, I'd like to do something for Herman..."

Just then, Amber Mitchell uttered something that Daley Moss found unbelievable.

"What do you mean?"

"I couldn't give Herman anything when he was alive. Now that he's dead, it's the only thing I can give him. Mr. Moss, I'm not asking for any money. I can also sign an agreement, and you can set the terms. I just want to repay Herman's affection," Amber Mitchell said sincerely. Her eyes were full of tears for Herman

Moss.

Chapter 2530

Daley Moss only said, "Let me think about it."

Amber Mitchell nodded. It was all she could do for Herman.

News that Louise Mitchell was the main suspect in Herman Moss's case quickly went viral in the media as well as online.

Reporters swarmed the Gregory and Moss families' houses every day.

Some reporters surrounded the entrance to Amber Mitchell's house after finding out where she lived.

Facing those reporters, Amber Mitchell only said, "I believe we'll find out the truth, and those responsible for Herman's death will be brought to justice."

A reporter said, "Word has it that you tipped off the police to arrest your sister, Louise Mitchell. Louise Mitchell married George Gregory immediately after you were admitted to the mental hospital. If Louise Mitchell is sentenced to prison and George Gregory divorces her, is it possible that you'll get together with George Gregory?"

It was the question that netizens were most curious about these days.

Chapter 2530

Many even concluded that Amber Mitchell did that in an attempt to remarry George Gregory.

Amber Mitchell, who was about to leave, stopped suddenly. She looked into the reporters' cameras and finally said, "George Gregory and I will never get back together. It doesn't matter to me whether he'll divorce Louise Mitchell. I just want to uncover the truth and get justice for Herman."

Two hours later, George Gregory heard what Amber Mitchell had said to the media on his phone. He was brimming with mixed feelings.

Never get back together with me? I should be the one to say that!

'Why should the woman who betrayed me say that?'

It was as if he had been dumped.

'Is Amber Mitchell really trying to get the truth for Herman Moss, or is she up to something else? Did Louise Mitchell really play the role of the perpetrator in the accident as Amber Mitchell claims?'

"Mr. Gregory, the information you asked for is here." One of George Gregory's subordinates handed George Gregory the materials in his hand and left the office.

George Gregory's expression became increasingly ghastly as he read the information in his hand. The papers contained evidence the police had so far, and all the evidence pointed to Louise Mitchell.

Chapter 2530

Even though it was still in the prosecution stage and the case had not yet come to trial, the evidence was enough to let him know that Louise Mitchell was indeed responsible for the car accident.

He thought it was an accident, but it turned out to be his wife's doing.

How much more was Louise Mitchell hiding that he did not know?

Louise Mitchell was still his wife. This was regarding a murder case! No matter what happened to Louise Mitchell, the Gregory family would be dragged into this!

The next day in the detention center, George Gregory looked at Louise Mitchell sitting in front of him.

“Why?” The simple question seemed to represent everything.

Yes, he wanted to ask her why she had done such a thing. He did not need to ask her if she had been wronged because all the information had already given him the answer.

“Shouldn’t you ask me if I’m okay in here? Shouldn’t you tell me you’ll help me get a lawyer and try to get me out?” Louise Mitchell asked as she looked at George Gregory.

Chapter 2530

“I’m only asking you why you did that. You didn’t need to do that at all!” George Gregory said.
