

Ex Convict 2531

Chapter 2531

"Didn't need to?" Louise Mitchell suddenly laughed. "Do you really think I didn't need to do that?"

His thin lips were pressed into a straight line. If the accident had never happened, he would have married Amber Mitchell no matter how much he quarreled with her. After all, he loved Amber Mitchell and wanted to marry her.

"Was it to marry me or to get Amber Mitchell's shares in Mitchell Group?" George Gregory asked.

"I won't answer you. If you don't want Simon to have a murderer as a mother and the reputation of the Gregory family to be greatly affected, you'd better find a way to help me win this lawsuit again. It should be easy for you," said Louise Mitchell.

George Gregory's eyes narrowed sharply. "Are you threatening me?"

"No, I'm just telling you the truth. It's in the Gregory family's best interest for me to get acquitted again, isn't it?" Louise Mitchell said.

"What's best for the Gregory family isn't necessarily what I would do. Louise Mitchell, you forgot one thing. I, George Gregory, hate getting threatened the most!" With that said, he turned and left.

Chapter 2531

Panic flashed across Louise Mitchell's face. "George Gregory, you'll regret it if you don't help me. You'll definitely regret it!"

He stopped in his tracks and said coldly, "What I regret most is marrying you. You shouldn't be Simon's mother. You don't deserve it!"

Louise Mitchell bit her red lip. 'Regret... He really regrets it!

'I don't deserve to be Simon's mother. Does Amber Mitchell deserve it, then?

'He'll never know that Amber Mitchell is Simon's real mother, and Simon will only have to wait to die. It's best if he really dies!'

George Gregory came out of the detention center and got into the car.

The driver respectfully asked, "Mr. Gregory, do you want to go back to Gregory Residence now?"

"No, just drive," said George Gregory.

Hearing this, the driver began to drive around the town. George Gregory turned to look out the car window at the receding street view.

It was ridiculous that he had always been conceited but was kept in the dark again and again.

He thought he was in control of Louise Mitchell, but she had done more than he thought.

Chapter 2531

He thought that he would never see Amber Mitchell again and had gotten over Amber Mitchell. However, a great storm still stirred up in his heart when she appeared in front of him.

When the car drove to an empty road and a figure came into his sight, he shuddered instantly.

That was... Amber Mitchell!

“Stop the car!” he said to the driver almost automatically.

When the driver pulled up to the roadside, George Gregory realized that it was the spot where Herman Moss and Amber Mitchell’s car accident had occurred.

Amber Mitchell was standing at the junction with her head down as if she were looking at something in her hand.

George Gregory was suddenly curious about what Amber Mitchell had in her hand.

Almost without thinking much, he got out of the car and walked over to Amber Mitchell.

Amber Mitchell was so focused on what she was holding that she did not notice someone was approaching her.

Chapter 2532

In her hand was a bracelet that Herman had given her before he was about to leave.

At that time, he said, “Amber Mitchell, I don’t think I’m going to your wedding. This is my wedding gift to you. I hope you’ll be the most beautiful bride at the time.”

‘Bride... Yeah, I will one day be a bride and... put on this bracelet.’

However, a voice suddenly rang in her ears. “What’s the matter? Do you miss Herman Moss that much? Would you marry him if he were alive?”

Amber Mitchell paused and instantly looked up at George Gregory, who had stood in front of her at one point. He was dressed in a suit and tie, looking elegant and noble. However, his handsome face was gloomy.

“Yes. I would marry Herman in a heartbeat if he were still alive!” she answered without hesitation. She only regretted that the man who loved her deeply lost his life trying to protect her.

She was the one who died first!

Her statement seemed to trigger George Gregory, and his face became increasingly gloomy as he approached her. He said, "It seems that you're passionately devoted to him. It's my fault for hindering you two."

Amber Mitchell frowned. "George Gregory, what are you trying to do?"

'Yeah, what am I trying to do?' Even George Gregory had no idea what he was trying to do!

He just saw her standing there, so he could not help getting out of the car and walking up to her. Then, jealousy welled up in his chest when he heard her murmur the name 'Herman'.

The jealousy was so intense.

It was so intense that he was startled and amused.

He was still jealous of Herman Moss after all these years.

His eyes fell on the diamond bracelet Amber Mitchell was holding. It was a diamond bracelet, and it looked expensive.

He did not remember Amber Mitchell ever owning a bracelet like that. There was also no way Amber Mitchell would buy such a bracelet in her current situation either.

Amber Mitchell had not reclaimed her shares in Mitchell Group. Jason's wife, Grace, even rented the house she was currently staying in. How could she possibly afford a bracelet that might be worth up to tens of millions of dollars?

Chapter 2532

A possibility suddenly flashed through his mind.

"Did Herman Moss give you this bracelet?" he blurted out.

Amber Mitchell froze, and her expression stiffened.

George Gregory instantly knew he was right. The jealousy in his heart spread all throughout.

The next moment, he did something beyond his expectation. He snatched the bracelet from her hand.

"What are you doing?" Amber Mitchell was surprised and tried to grab the bracelet, but it was too late. George Gregory had already gotten the bracelet, and her hand missed.

"What's the matter? Do you care so much about what Herman Moss gave you?" George Gregory asked coldly.

"Give it back to me!" Amber Mitchell spread out her hand to George Gregory. She spoke with such force while her eyes only stared at the bracelet he was holding.

It was as if all she saw was the bracelet and nothing else.

George Gregory felt an unspeakable frustration. 'She's not even looking at me! What do I mean to her?'

"Amber Mitchell, do you think you haven't cheated on me enough? So, you're trying to remember Herman Moss by holding onto the bracelet he gave you? It's best to destroy something like this!" He said as he held out his hand to one side.

There was a drain on the ground beside him. Once the bracelet fell into the drain, it would be difficult to find it again.

Amber Mitchell yelled, "No! George Gregory, don't destroy it. I won't forgive you if you destroy it!"

"You won't forgive me?" He chuckled suddenly. "Why do I need you to forgive me? Who do you think you are? I'm the one who will never forgive you!"

Her face instantly paled. "This is what Herman gave me. You snatching it will be considered robbery if I report it to the police!"

"Robbery?" George Gregory sneered, but his eyes grew colder. "At most, I just lost it by accident, I can compensate you with the full price or even double it. Do you think the police are going to treat this as robbery? Do I, George Gregory, need to steal a bracelet?"

Amber Mitchell was tottering slightly. She closed her eyes, knowing George Gregory was blaming her for old and new grudges.

Maybe the only way to save the bracelet was to give in to George Gregory.

"Alright, what do I have to do so that you can return the bracelet to me?" Amber Mitchell asked.

George Gregory said coldly, "There's nothing you can do! Did you ever think of me when you and Herman Moss made me the laughing stock of Deer City?"

"I told you, Herman and I never wronged you!" Amber Mitchell shouted.

However, George Gregory's eyes were full of disbelief.

"You don't believe me, do you?" Amber Mitchell asked.

"Why don't we make a bet if you want me to believe you? Lie down on the street and see if a car comes along and spots you. I'll believe you if it stops and you survive. If you get run over by the car, you can only blame yourself for being unlucky!" George Gregory said nonchalantly.

Amber Mitchell's heart sank when she heard this. He was asking her to gamble with her life!

She took a deep breath and closed her eyes as if in thought. Moments later, her dark eyes opened, and her red lips gently uttered, "Okay, I'll do it! If I survive, give me back my bracelet!"

With that said, she looked intently at the bracelet again before setting off down the street without hesitation.

The sky was already dark. The cars driving on this street would often drive a little faster because there were not many cars. There were not many streetlights around either. If the driver was not careful, they could easily run over her.

However... she could not lose the bracelet no matter what.

It was the most precious thing that Herman left her.

When Amber Mitchell stood in the middle of the road, looking at the street with no traffic, all she could think of was... it would be nice to be with Herman in the afterlife if she did die.

Chapter 2534

Since they had all the evidence for Louise Mitchell's case, the Moss family would not spare Louise Mitchell. She could avenge Herman's death, so she would have nothing to regret.

Amber Mitchell lay straight down in the middle of the road with no fear on her face.

On the roadside nearby, George Gregory's face was full of shock.

He never expected her to agree to a bet like that!

Her goal was only to get the bracelet back.

She looked fearless as she lay on the ground, but a chill ran up his back as if he were covered with cold sweat.

'Is this bracelet that Herman Moss gave her that important to her? Is it so important that she can risk her life for it?' His right hand clutching the bracelet was trembling, and his face was full of fear that even he could not describe!

When he saw car lights flashing in the distance, he trembled all over. However, when he saw the car getting closer and closer to Louise Mitchell, he rushed out and stretched out his arms to stop it without thinking much.

'No! She can't die!

Chapter 2534

'I won't let her die!'

The car screeched to a halt. The driver poked his head out and shouted, "Are you crazy? Are you in a hurry to die by suddenly running out into the middle of the road?"

However, he did not mind that person's scolding at all. He could only think of her, who was lying on the ground!

"Have you lost your mind?" George Gregory turned and yanked Amber Mitchell off the ground as he glared at her.

Amber Mitchell said indifferently, "Isn't this what you asked for? I only accepted your bet. Did I win the bet when you rushed out like that? If not, get out of the way. I can do it again."

"Do you have a death wish?" He snapped.

"I don't, but I want this bracelet." This was her answer to him, and she said it calmly as if she was merely stating a simple fact.

George Gregory's right hand clenched into a fist, and the diamond bracelet he held in his hand hurt his palm.

"How important is Herman Moss to you? Have you forgotten that you were my fiancée? Why would you risk your life for a bracelet he gave you?" He growled in a low voice, his jealousy seemingly bursting through him.

"Herman sacrificed his life for me. What's wrong with me risking my life for the bracelet he gave me? George Gregory, how dare you say I was your fiancée? My fiancé should be someone who believes me even when others don't. He would come forward to protect me when others bullied me. He would do anything to help me if I was in trouble..."

Chapter 2534

Her voice rang, and he grew pale with each word.

"George Gregory, you were never really my fiancé. You were just a fantasy of mine at the time." She had fantasized that he could shelter her from everything and be faithful to her.

However, she realized in the end that he had never been what she thought he was.

"Fantasy?" George Gregory murmured the word. He seemed to look gaunt all of a sudden.

His right hand loosened, and the bracelet he had been holding between his fingers fell to the ground.

Amber Mitchell threw herself at the bracelet, grasped it firmly, and held it over her heart. She cried and laughed. She had regained something precious.

However, the way she looked hurt his eyes and made him not want to take another look.

Chapter 2535

Herman Moss... won her over with just a bracelet.

He, George Gregory, was probably nothing to her now!

George Gregory returned to the car and looked down blankly at his palm. His right palm still had marks left by the bracelet.

‘What the hell is wrong with me? Did I get so angry because of a bracelet and Amber Mitchell?’

He was no longer... behaving like himself.

“Drive back to Gregory Residence.” George Gregory closed his eyes and said wearily.

Amber Mitchell returned to her place. Looking at the bracelet in her hand, she solemnly put it back in the jewelry box.

“Herman, I’ll wear this bracelet in a few days and... never take it off again,” murmured Amber Mitchell.

The case would go to trial in two weeks. She had asked Brian to help her find evidence, and with the Moss family looking into the case, it would be difficult for the Gregory family to tamper with the evidence.

Chapter 2535

Louise Mitchell would pay for her crimes this time!

What she did not know was that George Gregory was looking at a bunch of photos sent to his email in the Gregory family house’s study. These photos were taken after he ran into Louise Mitchell today.

His facial expressions in the photos were gloomy, ferocious, angry, and helpless. However, out of all those emotions, what he saw on his face the most was... jealousy!

Yes, jealousy!

Anyone looking at the photos would think he was a man mad with love and jealousy!

Was he jealous of Herman Moss?

He was jealous of Amber Mitchell’s love for Herman Moss. He was a man who had been dead for so many years, yet he could still occupy such an important place in her heart!

He was only jealous because he loved Amber Mitchell!

No matter how reluctant he was, these photos seemed to easily shatter his pretense and make him admit it!

Moments later, his phone rang. George Gregory said coldly, “I’ve received the photos. I’ll buy all of them. You’re not allowed to publish any of them. If I ever see any one of these photos leaked, you can forget about living in peace.”

Chapter 2535

“Yes, yes, Mr. Gregory. I won’t leak them as long as you’re willing to buy them,” the person said obsequiously.

That person was only a small-time reporter who found Amber Mitchell by accident. He wanted to report it at first, but George Gregory unexpectedly showed up, so he took these photos.

George Gregory was willing to pay a lot of money for the photos, which was an unexpected fortune for him.

Moments later, the reporter received the money and smiled with satisfaction. Then, he deleted all the backups from his USB flash drive.

After all, he had made a deal with George Gregory. He dared not say one thing and do another.

However, he gave the photos one final glance when he was deleting them.

Chapter 2536

Judging from Amber Mitchell’s expression when she was talking to George Gregory, Amber Mitchell seemed to not have any affection for George Gregory. She did not seem to want to be with George Gregory again as the news mentioned online.

Instead, George Gregory looked jealous and disappointed as if he had been abandoned by someone he loved deeply!

Was George Gregory still deeply in love with Amber Mitchell?

The reporter chuckled as the speculation flashed across his head. ‘What does it have to do with me? I just have to make sure I get the money!’

The trial drew near. When Amber Mitchell knew Brian was leaving, she went to see him off with the Moss family.

“Mr. Hart, I appreciate all your help thus far,” said Amber Mitchell. Brian agreed in a heartbeat when she asked him for help, which was why Stan Lucas agreed to appear in court.

Stan Lucas might have disagreed to testify in court if she were the one who asked him.

“Since you’re Grace’s friend, I’ll help you,” said Brian. Brian was a little melancholic at the thought of Grace’s departure. ‘I wonder how Grace is doing. Is the baby she’s carrying okay?”

“Yeah, I’m also glad to have met a friend like Grace. I hope her pregnancy will go smoothly and she can make it through this!” Amber Mitchell said as she thought of her phone conversation with Grace the other day.

However, her statement made Brian's expression change. "What do you mean she can make it through? What's going on with her?"

"She..." Amber Mitchell froze and immediately realized that Brian had no idea about Grace's current situation. Should she tell him about Grace?

After all, Brian and Grace...

"Tell me!" Brian was worried. Even his phoenix eyes began to redden.

Amber Mitchell could only say vaguely, "Her pregnancy this time is a little tough, but Grace is confident about being able to give birth to the baby."

'A little tough? What's going on?' Brian's expression changed. Suddenly, he turned around and walked to the exit of the airport.

Amber Mitchell and the Moss family were stunned. It was time for Brian to board the plane. Why did he leave?

The crowd quickly ran out of the airport, only to find Brian in a car speeding away from the airport.

Whitney Herrera murmured, "Is Brian... going back to Emerald City?"

It was just speculation, but Amber Mitchell suddenly found it possible when she heard it.

She had only made one statement, yet his expression changed so drastically. They could see how much he cared about Grace.

Even though Grace was already married and had children, Brian was still deeply in love with Grace!

Amber Mitchell's heart sank at the thought of the impact Brian's arrival in Emerald City might cause Grace.

After all, Brian would not have gone to Emerald City if she had not said those words.

"We should probably go back," added Whitney Herrera.

There was no point in them staying at the airport now that the person they wanted to see off was gone.

Chapter 2537

"Okay," Daley Moss replied to his wife before glancing at Amber Mitchell again. "Why don't you get in the car with us and return to the Moss family's house? I'd like to have another talk with you about what you said the last time."

Amber Mitchell froze slightly before smiling gently. "Okay."

Whitney Herrera looked at Amber Mitchell. She wanted to say something but hesitated.

Once they arrived at the Moss family's house, Daley Moss had his servants leave. Hence, only he, his wife, and Amber Mitchell were in the living room.

Daley Moss asked, "Are you still planning to do what you said last time? Even if you feel indebted to my eldest brother, you don't have to do so."

He had once hated this woman, but the hatred had somehow faded after seeing how hard the woman was trying to find the truth of the car accident.

Besides, the person who caused the accident was the one he should hate.

"I'm not doing it out of guilt but because I... love Herman," muttered Amber Mitchell, but the words seemed to carry infinite weight. "Just think of it as realizing a wish for him and Chapter 2537 myself."

"You're not that old. You have plenty of time to meet someone you can love," said Daley Moss.

Amber Mitchell smiled bitterly. "Herman loved me the most in this world, and I don't want to love anyone else."

Herman had occupied her heart, and there was no room for others!

"If you've made up your mind, sign this agreement. We can do the rest as you wish," said Daley Moss as he took out an agreement.

Amber Mitchell read the agreement and prepared to sign it without any objection.

"Amber Mitchell, are you sure? You're not obligated to do this, but your future husband might find it difficult to accept if you ever want to get married," Whitney Herrera could not help warning her.

Amber Mitchell smiled faintly. "I have no intention of getting married."

With that said, she signed her name on the document!

She just wanted to do what she wanted to do most. Life was too short. She had wasted too much time. She wanted to cherish every day she was still alive!

Chapter 2537

3/4

After receiving a phone call from Amber Mitchell, Grace knew that Brian might have returned to Emerald City when he heard that her pregnancy this time was slightly tough.

When the call was over, Grace bit her lip slightly.

She thought Brian had let go of his feelings for her after spending some time abroad. However, she understood that he had not let go when they met in Deer City.

'What's going to happen now that he's back in Emerald City?'

Grace kept feeling a vague unease.

After leaving the law firm, she asked the driver to take her to Reed group's building.

It was uncertain whether Brian had returned to Emerald City. Maybe he did not return at all, but she still decided to tell Jay in case Brian did return to Emerald City because of her. It might cause Jay to misunderstand again.

When Jason saw Grace in his office, he raised his eyebrows in surprise. "What are you doing here all of a sudden? Is everything at the law firm settled?"

"Yeah, I've settled the matters there," she said. She had been busy with the law firm these days. After all, she had to rest well for her pregnancy, so she had to have someone else handle everything at the firm.

Chapter 2538

Her most important goal now was to keep the baby.

"Didn't you say you'll pick up the kids from kindergarten after taking care of the firm's matters today?" he asked. Looking at the time, the two children would be let off kindergarten soon.

"I sent Uncle Kwan to pick them up. Uh... Jay, there's something I want to talk to you about," said Grace.

"Is it urgent?" he asked nonchalantly as he put down his pen.

"Yes... Brian might have returned to Emerald City because of my second pregnancy, but I'm not sure," said Grace. She told Jason about her phone call with Amber Mitchell.

Since they had agreed to be honest with each other, she did not want to keep it a secret from him.

Jason listened quietly as the expression on his face remained unchanged.

"I see. Are you afraid I'll overthink it?" Jason asked with a smile.

Grace nodded.

He got up and gently hugged her. "Don't worry, I won't think anything of it. Even if he still has feelings for you, it's just his wishful thinking."

Chapter 2538

She was relieved. Her worst fear was that they would have an unnecessary misunderstanding.

"But..." Jason's voice paused. "Is it worth it to pay such a price for this baby?"

She muttered, "I think it's worth it. It doesn't matter even if I'll lose my uterus. I'll probably just age a little faster. But I'll give the baby a chance to live. I have more to gain."

Jason sighed to himself. She was always willing to make sacrifices for her children.

He had no way to refute her decision. Even though he would rather sacrifice the baby than let her get hurt, he could only give up when facing her determination.

Just like this time. Fortunately, the placenta did not grow where her C-section scar was. However, it was in a less desirable location-placenta previa.

It meant that not only would the pregnancy be utterly difficult, but the uterus would also likely need to be removed when she gave birth.

As soon as he heard the diagnosis, he instinctively tried to have her abort the baby. They already had three children. That was enough!

However, she wanted to keep the baby and continue the pregnancy.

Chapter 2538

"It's not because our three kids aren't enough but each life is unique. I don't want to give up on our baby so easily. Besides, it's just my uterus. I don't have to sacrifice my life. I'm much luckier than Kyla in this regard, aren't I? Kyla fought for her baby with her life!" she said calmly.

However, the faint smile made him unable to move his eyes.

It was as if she had had such respect for every living creature!

Perhaps it was why he was attracted to her and loved her so deeply.

Just then, Grace suddenly felt nauseous. She covered her mouth again and hurried toward the washroom.

Jason knew she was suffering from morning sickness again when he saw that.

Chapter 2539

Her morning sickness this time seemed worse than during her last pregnancy. Back then, she stopped suffering from morning sickness after the first three months.

However, not only did her morning sickness not go away this pregnancy, but it also got worse.

Every time he saw her pale face, his heart sank.

Jason came to the washroom door. Listening to the sound of retching coming from inside, he gently looked down.

"Brian..." He mumbled the words, and gloom flickered in his eyes.

Even if Brian returned to Emerald City, there was no way he could affect him and Grace.

It was because he would not allow it!

Jason did not expect Brian to come to him the day after Grace told him about him.

“Why did you agree to let Grace proceed with the pregnancy?” Brian went straight to the point.

Jason looked at him coldly. “This is between Grace and me. You have no right to ask.”

“But do you have any idea how dangerous it is to let her proceed with the pregnancy? She might lose her uterus!” Brian lunged forward and asked as he approached Jason.

Jason’s thin lips smiled slightly as his eyes glimmered dangerously. “It seems you’ve checked her medical records before coming to me.”

Brian’s thin lips pressed together slightly. He had indeed looked up her medical records and found out the danger she was facing.

A layer of cold sweat had broken out on his palms after he learned the dangers of her pregnancy. Her pregnancy this time turned out to be such a burden on her.

“Then listen here...” Jason’s voice rang slowly. “Brian, Grace is my wife, and she is pregnant with my baby. It’s up to her and me to decide whether to give birth to the baby. Who do you think you are using to say these to me?”

Brian froze. After a while, he said, “Yes, Grace’s your wife. I know that better than anyone. But you need to know that I was willing to let go of her because she loves you. It’s also because I believe that you can protect her. If you can’t protect her and let her get hurt, I won’t let her go even if she loves you!”

“You won’t let go?” Jason suddenly sneered and raised his hands to grab Brian’s collar. His handsome face was gloomy. “You have no right to say that to me because Grace will never love you!”

“Never? Who are you to say that?” Brian similarly stretched out his hands and grabbed Jason by the collar. “If I had asked for her name and address, I might have found her sooner! If you hadn’t deliberately erased some of her information, how could it have taken me so long to recognize that she was the one I was looking for?”

He had spent many nights regretting it.

He regretted falling into the trap so foolishly. He knew Grace before Jason. He had gone through thick and thin with Grace since the beginning!

He had feelings for Grace at the time, but he still mistook the wrong person and even... hurt her.

"So you hate me?" Jason asked.

Brian said, "Yes, I hate you! If you hadn't tampered with the evidence, I would've recognized her. She and I might even..."

Chapter 2540

"It's never going to happen," Jason interrupted Brian and slammed his body against the wall nearby.

"Brian, even if you had recognized Grace sooner, Grace would still be mine."

"Really?" Unwilling to admit defeat, Brian backhanded Jason and pressed him to the other side.

The next moment, the two men started fighting in the huge office.

When Grace reached the office after receiving a phone call, she saw Jason and Brian. One was sitting in front of the desk, while the other one was sitting on the couch. Their faces were bruised, and their hair and clothes were messy. It was obvious that they had had a bad fight.

The two men were surprised by her arrival, and Jason finally asked, "What are you doing here?"

Grace said, "The secretary said there were some 'noises' in your office but they didn't dare to barge in, so I came to take a look. What are you-"

"Nothing, we were just exercising," Jason smiled and said. "I'll ask the driver to take you home first. Didn't the doctor also tell you that the most important thing you should do is rest well to help the baby grow?"

Chapter 2540

"I'll go back, but tell me why you started the fight," Grace insisted on asking.

Jason pressed his thin lips together uncasily.

Seeing this, Grace turned to look at Brian. "Is it because of my pregnancy?"

Brian hesitated slightly. He did come to look for Jason because of her pregnancy, but it was not why they started fighting.

However, Brian could not tell her the reason they fought no matter what.

Brian simply kept silent.

Therefore, Grace mistakenly thought she was right. "Brian, I don't know what's on your mind. But it's my idea to give birth to the baby. I want this baby."

"But do you want to risk everything for this baby who's endangering your health?" Brian asked urgently.

Grace was slightly surprised. Amber Mitchell had probably not spoken to Brian about this, but he was aware of her condition and the price she had to pay to have the baby.

"I'm not risking everything. It's not like I'm risking my life. I'm actually glad that I have the chance to have this baby," Grace said with a smile.

As she spoke, her hands caressed her belly, while her face

Chapter 2540

radiated with motherly affection.

Brian suddenly realized that it was probably useless no matter how much he said. She was determined to have the baby!

However, did she know what would happen to him if anything happened to her?

'Does she know that all I want is for her to be alive and well? I'm even willing to sacrifice my own life for her to live healthily.

'Does she also know that I was in hell every day, suffering beyond measure after learning that she had fallen into the sea and was missing?

'No, she won't ever know all of this!

'Because Jason is the only man she loves.

'Jason is the one she wants to spend her whole life with. I'm just a passerby!'

"Grace, why... do you want this baby so badly?" he murmured.

"Because this is my and Jay's baby," she answered him.

That one answer was all it took!

Brian left by himself. His suit was now a little messy because of the fight earlier. His bangs were scattered in front of his forehead. The marks left on his face after the fight were particularly eye-catching too.
