

Ex Convict 2571

Chapter 2571

1/4

When he got home, he heard from the servant that his son was still practicing in the piano room, so he went to the piano room and gently pushed the door open. He only saw the little one playing attentively in front of the piano. There were many little paper frogs that Jasper had given to his son on the piano.

His son, who normally disdained expensive toys, treated these little frogs as though they were treasures.

In his son's opinion, his own father was not nearly as important as that girl.

As the father, he had never fallen in love with anyone, but his son was different. Although the little one had not fully grasped the idea of 'love', he only knew that Jasper was important to him. However... maybe the feeling would turn into love when he was older.

Perhaps it would turn into... a paranoid controlling behavior instead?

He had no idea how deep his son's feelings for Jasper would be in the future, but one thing was certain-he did not want his son to be like George Gregory.

Chapter 2571

At the end of the piano tune, William noticed Philip Barlow standing in the doorway.

"Daddy," he called out.

2/4

Philip Barlow walked into the piano room and looked at the little frogs sitting on the piano. He picked up one of the little frogs and said, "Do you like them?"

"Yes." William nodded without hesitation.

"Is it because Jasper gave them to you?"

"Yes." The little one nodded again.

"Do you like Jasper enough to want to be with her all the time?" Philip Barlow asked again.

The little head nodded a third time.

"But what if you find out one day that you're not the person Jasper likes the most? What if she likes someone else and he's the one she wants to be with?" Philip Barlow asked.

However, he could not help laughing after asking the question. 'What's the matter with me? Is it because I was influenced by George Gregory today? Is that why I'm asking a six-year-old such a question?'

Chapter 2571

"Then I'll make myself so brilliant that she'll only want to be with me," the little one answered earnestly.

3/4

Philip Barlow's lips moved, and he suppressed the slight sigh in his mouth. Sometimes, those who were better than others. would not necessarily be the recipients of love.

Otherwise, there would not be so many people who failed to get whatever they wanted.

"Okay, then you'll become a brilliant person," said Philip Barlow as he touched the back of his son's head. He would try his best to give him good resources.

Moments later, Philip Barlow's phone rang. It was a call from the driver.

"Mr. Barlow, I wanted to send Mr. Gregory to the Gregory family's house, but Mr. Gregory insisted that I take him to another place when we were on our way or he would jump out of the car. I... I could only send him to where he wanted to go," the driver said and gave the address.

Philip Barlow knew that the address was where Grace had rented a place for Amber Mitchell. Grace had asked him to take care of Amber Mitchell when she left.

It seemed George Gregory had gone to see Amber Mitchell again after getting drunk.

Chapter 2571

4/4

"Mr. Barlow, Mr. Gregory has taken the elevator upstairs. I... I'm still downstairs. Well... shall I wait for Mr. Gregory?" the driver asked.

Chapter 2572

Philip Barlow said, "No, come back first. Someone will take him back to the Gregory family's house when the time comes."

After the call, Philip Barlow looked at his son. "William, don't misunderstand Jasper if you want to be with her in the future. When she's in trouble, don't just stand by and watch."

"I won't stand by and watch. I'll do my best to help Jasper if she's ever in trouble!" the little one said earnestly.

Philip Barlow smiled. "That's great!"

He just hoped his son would remember what he said today no matter what happened in the future.

Amber Mitchell did not expect George Gregory to come to her door drunk.

"George Gregory, it's late. I'm going to bed!" Amber Mitchell said coldly, trying to close the door.

However, his hand was on the door, preventing her from closing it.

Chapter 2572

"Don't... Don't close the door. I... I just... came to see you... I... I'd like to have a word with you. Don't... Don't worry. I won't do anything else. I won't... I won't hurt you anymore..." he stammered. He reeked of alcohol and was drunk.

Amber Mitchell frowned. 'How much did he drink?'

2/4

Amber Mitchell said, "But I don't want to see you, and I don't have anything to say to you! George Gregory, if you want to get into a drunken fit, don't do it here. If you really don't want to hurt me, don't ever show up in front of me again."

Her words were like a slap in the face.

His body swayed. "Can... Can you give me another punishment? Don't do this. I... can't do it. I can't..."

"Can't? She sneered suddenly. "Why can't you do it? Mr. Gregory, you never came to see me when I was in the hospital for so many years!"

He was speechless and began to tremble as if he had been.

struck with the sharpest sword.

"Amby... I know. I'm sorry. I'm sorry..." he whispered. It was the most painful sorrow.

However, no amount of apology was of use. "I told you to stop calling me Amby. You shouldn't be the one to call me that."

Chapter 2572

3/4

"Please forgive me, will you? I know how wrong I was. I know I've hurt you too much. I'll make up for all that you've suffered, okay?" He sobbed after losing control of his emotions. He hugged her as if he were holding his most precious treasure.

"George Gregory, let go of me!" Amber Mitchell struggled hard.

However, he held her tight. "I'll make it up to you. I can make it up to you. I'll make it up to you as long as you say so! Amby, I love you. I really love you..."

"Love? George Gregory, who are you to talk about love? If this is the way you love someone, I would rather you never loved me! Do you know how disgusting it is to be held by someone you hate?" Amber Mitchell shouted.

His body stiffened, and she took the opportunity to push him away.

Slap!

He was slapped hard across the face.

"Make it up? How are you going to make it up to me? Can you prevent me from ever being tortured in the mental hospital?

Or can you return me my missing finger?" Amber Mitchell said as she raised her right hand in front of George Gregory.

Chapter 2572

Her right ring finger was missing.

Chapter 2573

"George Gregory, do you know how bad the pain of losing a finger is? Do you know the horror of seeing your finger get cut off before your eyes? Do you have any idea how much I hated the person who cut my finger off at that moment? But my fiancé married the person who did it! She cut my finger off just because the ring I was wearing was an eyesore to her.”

Amber Mitchell said. Every word carried the pain she had suffered.

“After you married Louise Mitchell, Louise Mitchell came to me wearing your wedding ring. Do you know how much it hurt me when she raised her right hand to show off the wedding ring you gave her? What makes you think you can make it up to me?”

George Gregory’s face turned utterly pale as his body swayed. Her mutilated right hand stung his eyes! He had never experienced the suffering and pain she spoke 1.

How painful was it to have a finger cut off?

However, he married Louise Mitchell after Amber Mitchell lost

Chapter 2573

2/4

her finger, which was tantamount to another cruel blow to her.

“Yeah. How am I going to make it up to you? I really can’t make it up to you, can I?” George Gregory muttered as he suddenly raised his right hand.

Amber Mitchell looked surprised. Then, she saw George Gregory raise his left hand.

Just as she was confused, George Gregory suddenly grabbed his right thumb with his left hand. Then, she heard a crack...

Amber Mitchell was shocked. George Gregory was... breaking off his right thumb!

However, what surprised her more was that George Gregory continued to do it. From his thumb to the index finger and then the middle finger... The ring finger...

Finger by finger, the sound of bones cracking kept ringing in her ears.

“S-George Gregory, what are you doing?” Amber Mitchell asked in surprise.

“I... can’t make up for your pain, but at least I can feel it. You can cut off any of these fingers. You can even cut off all of them if you want!” A thin layer of sweat broke out on his forehead as his face grew paler. Even his lips turned ghastly pale.

Chapter 2573

3/4

"You're out of your mind!" She could think of no other words to describe what he was doing.

"Out of my mind... Yeah, I'm out of my mind..." he murmured as he smiled blankly. Perhaps he had gone mad the moment he knew the whole truth.

He was driven mad by regret and pain.

Crack!

There was another crack, and he broke off the pinky on his right hand.

Beads of sweat trickled down his forehead.

"I'm... sorry..." he gasped as he uttered the words. His body tottered, seemingly unable to stand still.

She was silent. His madness was beyond her imagination.

After a long while, she slowly said, "Leave. I don't need you to make it up to me, and I don't want to see you either. No matter how many times you apologize, it doesn't mean anything to me."

He seemed utterly dejected as he bent over slightly. His deep

Chapter 2573

4/4

black eyes dimmed as if they had lost all their luster.

"Yeah, it doesn't mean anything... It doesn't mean anything..." he murmured.

Chapter 2574

Turning around, he walked away from her door. However, he had only taken a few steps when he suddenly fell flat on his face.

His face was pale, and he closed his eyes. He had seemingly fainted.

George Gregory only felt as though he had a very long dream.

In the dream, he and Amber Mitchell were about to get married. Herman Moss had gone abroad. There was no accident, no suspicion, and Amber Mitchell was never admitted to a mental hospital.

They were still in love. Besides that, to his delight, she had gotten pregnant. A few months after their marriage, she gave birth to a boy.

They were a happy family of three.

The dream was so beautiful that he was reluctant to wake up.

Once he woke up... what he had to face was the harsh reality!

Chapter 2574

"George, George..." There was a voice calling his name!

2/4

"Son, how did this happen all of a sudden? What's going on?" Someone was sobbing. It was his mother's voice.

It was time... to wake up!

George Gregory slowly opened his eyes and saw his parents' faces.

"Dad... Mom... What are you..."

"What happened to you? Who did this to your hand? Did Amber Mitchell have someone break your hand?" Old Madam Gregory asked quickly.

The mention of Amber Mitchell made George Gregory's expression change suddenly. "Where's Amber Mitchell? W-Where is she? W-Why am I here?"

"She sent you to the hospital, but now she's detained by the police at the police station," said Old Madam Gregory.

"Detained? Why is she detained at the police station?" George Gregory asked hurriedly.

"She's being held on suspicion of intentional injury!" Old Madam Gregory snapped.

Chapter 2574

3/4

However, George Gregory's face turned paler as soon as she said this. He pulled off the thin blanket to get out of bed.

"What are you doing? Stay in bed! They just got your fingers. in a cast. It'll be all for nothing if you move. It'll affect your fingers' function!" Old Madam Gregory said hurriedly.

Old Master Gregory also pressed George Gregory's shoulder. "Listen to your mother and go back to the bed!"

"I broke my fingers myself. Amber Mitchell has nothing to do with it. Even if she wanted to cripple my hands, I would've willingly let her do it! I'm going to the police station to explain things!" George Gregory said. He could not let Amber Mitchell suffer any more injustice.

However, it surprised Old Master Gregory and Old Madam Gregory as soon as he said this.

"What? You broke your fingers yourself?" The old couple looked at their son in disbelief.

"Yes, I broke them myself. Louise Mitchell cut off one of Amber Mitchell's fingers. Even if I break all five of my fingers, I still can't make up for that finger!"

It was the greatest pain to him!

Chapter 2574

4/4

"You... You..." Old Madam Gregory was so shocked that she was at a loss. She finally spoke after a long while, "Louise Mitchell cut off her... finger, not you. Why did you have to do this?"

Chapter 2575

George Gregory said bitterly, "Louise Mitchell? If I had defended Amber Mitchell when she got into trouble, Louise Mitchell wouldn't have cut off her finger like that. I... I gave her that chance!"

"Even if you feel sorry for Amber Mitchell, you didn't have to do that. We can compensate her with more money. Since you're divorcing Louise Mitchell... you can marry her!" Old Madam Gregory said. The Gregory family already knew that their grandson's biological mother was Amber Mitchell.

Therefore, Old Madam Gregory did not object to her son marrying Amber Mitchell.

However, George Gregory seemed to have heard a joke after hearing it.

"Mom, do you know how much I want to marry her? But it's impossible! She won't forgive me, let alone marry me. She won't look at me twice even if I give her my life," George Gregory said mournfully. The pain on his face looked as if he was already in hell.

Old Madam Gregory gave a sharp gasp and staggered.

Chapter 2575

Old Master Gregory quickly grabbed his wife.

2/4

"Why are you..." Old Madam Gregory tried to say something, but all the words seemed stuck in her throat.

George Gregory got out of the hospital bed. He rushed straight out of the ward.

Old Madam Gregory watched her son disappear while she was in a trance. She eventually fell into her husband's arms as she cried.

"Why did this happen... Why..." Old Madam Gregory muttered.

Old Master Gregory could only pat his wife on the shoulder and comfort her by saying, "Maybe things aren't as bad as we think. Don't overthink it..."

That being said, he had an intense feeling of unease. He kept having a premonition that maybe the Gregory family... would always be shrouded in gloom in the future...

George Gregory went all the way to the police station. The police finally released Amber Mitchell after he explained things to them.

"I'm sorry," said George Gregory. However, he froze again as soon as he spoke. He had been apologizing to her non-stop since some time ago.

Chapter 2575

3/4

"Such a thing wouldn't have happened if you had stopped showing up in front of me," Amber Mitchell said indifferently as her eyes fell on George Gregory's right hand, which was bandaged and in a cast. "And don't ever say such silly things again. Even if you lose all your fingers, my cut finger will never recover. It's pointless for you to do that."

He only felt another throb of pain in his heart. "Is there no way I can make it up to you?"

"You can't. There's no way we can start over," she said, taking her eyes off him. She walked toward the police station exit as if he were nothing to her.

George Gregory's uninjured left hand held his heart tightly. He felt a growing pain.

'Is there no way we can start over?

'Is it impossible?"

He was like a prisoner sentenced to death. He had nothing left but despair!

Amber Mitchell commissioned a lawyer and filed a lawsuit to reclaim the shares that Louise Mitchell stole. Louise Mitchell became her guardian after claiming that she was mentally ill, so Louise Mitchell naturally took over her shares.

Chapter 2575

Now that leading experts had cleared her of mental illness, she could get her shares back.

However, due to the restructuring of Mitchell Group's and Gregory Corporation's assets, it had become difficult to distinguish the shares. They needed to be re-calculated.

Fortunately, the Gregory family did not make things difficult and offered a generous amount in court. Finally, the lawsuit could be said to have ended without any fuss.

Amber Mitchell did not go to court because she had given the lawyer full control of her case.

Chapter 2576

On the contrary, George Gregory attended court. However, disappointment flickered in his eyes when he did not see Amber Mitchell there.

He had thought he would have one more chance to see her.

It now seemed to him that seeing her had become a luxury.

Amber Mitchell was in Daley Moss's office when the lawyer told her the final result.

"How did it go?" Daley Moss asked.

"Not bad. Better than expected," replied Amber Mitchell.

"Congratulations! If you plan to regain control of Mitchell Group, you should be able to regain power over the whole company," said Daley Moss.

After all, this woman would have managed Mitchell Group long ago had it not been for the car accident.

"No, I'm going to sell my shares. After all that I've been through, I don't want to live a life of malicious competition," said Amber Mitchell.

1/4

Chapter 2576

2/4

Daley Moss looked at Amber Mitchell with surprise. After all, it meant she had to give up some of her interests.

The wealth represented by these interests would drive ordinary people crazy.

"So, are you..." Daley Moss asked.

"I want to go to Emerald City where there's an archaeological research institute. I want to study there for some time and then work in this field in the future," said Amber Mitchell.

Daley Moss had a twinkle in his eyes. 'Brother loved archaeology. Is Amber Mitchell planning to take up archaeology because of him?'

'Won't you feel lonely that way?' Daley Moss asked.

Amber Mitchell smiled. "I'm not lonely." It was because Herman... would always be with her.

Amber Mitchell would have to see George Gregory even though she did not want to if she wanted to regain the shares and sell them.

The Gregory family took over her shares and paid a pretty good price for them.

Chapter 2576

Amber Mitchell was not contentious about it. It was also.

3/4

beneficial for Gregory Corporation for the Gregory family to take over the shares, and it was convenient for her to sell the shares to them.

After signing the contract in person, the two parties made a deal. The Gregory family generously paid the money right away.

Looking at the fund transfer information on her phone, Amber Mitchell knew that the money was enough for several lifetimes even if she was not cautious with her spending.

The press said she was the ultimate winner.

'Winner? There's no winner. If this sum of money could buy Herman's life, I would've chosen Herman without hesitation!'

"Miss Mitchell, your plane will take off in two hours. Do you want me to take you to the airport?" asked one of Amber Mitchell's lawyers who was in charge of handling her affairs.

"Yes, thank you," Amber Mitchell said with a smile.

"What?" George Gregory was shocked. He finally managed to see her on such an occasion.

'But... she's going to the airport?

Chapter 2576

'What does that mean?'

"You're... going to the airport? Why are you going to the airport?" George Gregory asked as he hurriedly stepped forward to stop Amber Mitchell.

"Mr. Gregory, you're crossing the line," Amber Mitchell said indifferently.

"Why are you going to the airport?" He was only obsessed with the question.

"It's none of your business," replied Amber Mitchell as she went around George Gregory to leave.

"Why?" he asked again as he grabbed her arm with his left hand.

Chapter 2577

She pressed her red lips together and felt everyone around them watching them. "Because I want to go to Emerald City to study. I've given you the answer you want. Can you let go of your hand now?"

"Are you going to Emerald City?" George Gregory froze. "What about Simon? Are you going to abandon him too?"

"I never wanted to abandon him, and I would take him with me if he agreed, but... would he? Would the Gregory family be willing?"

George Gregory paused. Simon had no idea that Amber Mitchell was his biological mother. Besides, his parents would never agree to it even if Simon wanted to follow Amber Mitchell one day.

"Why say more if they wouldn't agree to it?" Amber Mitchell pulled her arm out of George Gregory's hand and left for the airport with her lawyer.

It was a long time before George Gregory came to his senses. He told the driver, "Get the car ready. We're going to the airport."

Chapter 2577

2/4

At the airport, it was not difficult to find out which flight Amber Mitchell was taking.

While Amber Mitchell was waiting in the VIP lounge, George Gregory watched afar from outside.

He had always known how straightforward she was.

People like her could clearly differentiate love from hate.

However, he did not expect that she would leave Deer City. Even their son... could not make her stay!

In that case, what else was there that could keep her?

Sometime later, George Gregory saw Amber Mitchell walk out of the VIP lounge and go to the boarding gate. He only stood behind her and watched her go in.

It was because he knew he could not keep her!

Even if he fell on his knees and harmed himself, he could not make her stay!

'Is it over for us? Should I accept my fate?'

Maybe the best way was to stop loving her. That way, he would stop feeling pain.

Chapter 2577

However, his heart throbbed as if telling him how much he loved her!

3/4

“Amby... What should I do? What should I do to get close to you...” he murmured.

However, no one could give him an answer!

He could only stare blankly at the plane as it flew past. He watched the distance between them grow farther apart!

Perhaps he would never get anywhere near her again.

On the plane, Amber Mitchell looked at the photo on her phone. It was... a photo of Simon. It was a photo of the little one asleep. She had secretly taken it with her phone.

She had asked the doctor, and the doctor said that Simon was recovering well. She was relieved to hear this.

The child would have a far better life with the Gregory family than with her.

Besides, the child had no feelings for her. It would be too much for her to force maternal love on him. She would rather let nature take its course.

As a mother, all she wanted was for her child to be healthy, safe, and happy!

Chapter 2577

Other than that, nothing else mattered!

4/4

Amber Mitchell visited Kyla at the store as soon as she arrived in Emerald City.

Kyla was enjoying the sun with her little daughter at the store entrance. She was surprised to see Amber Mitchell. Although Amber Mitchell had said she would come to Emerald City when they spoke on the phone, Kyla did not expect her to come so soon.

“Are you really planning on staying in Emerald City?” Kyla asked.

1/3

"Well..." Amber Mitchell nodded. "I'll be studying archaeology in Emerald City for at least three years. After that, I'll consider whether I want to stay in Emerald City."

"You're not going back to Deer City?" Kyla asked again.

'Deer City...' There was a flicker of gloom in Amber Mitchell's eyes. Deer City was a sad place for her. "I'll go back to Deer City to pay my respects during Tomb Sweeping Day, Winter Solstice, and Herman's death anniversary. I'll also go back if my son needs anything."

In her opinion, Herman and her son were the only ones in Deer City holding her back.

The fact that she sold the shares of Mitchell Group was the best proof she wanted to leave Deer City.

"How's Simon?" Kyla asked with concern.

"The doctor said that he's doing okay. Perhaps he can leave the hospital healthy after a period of treatment," she said.

"That's good." Kyla breathed a sigh of relief. As a mother, what scared her the most was something bad happening to her children. "Does he know you're his biological mother yet?"

Chapter 2578

2/3

Amber Mitchell shook her head. "I don't know if he knows. I've only met Simon a few times. Sometimes, I think it would be better for him not to know that I'm his biological mother."

After all, the feud between the adults was so intense that the child might not be as happy as before if he found out about it.

"Well, enough about me. Trista is so cute!" Shifting the subject, Amber Mitchell began to tease the baby in Kyla's arms.

Although born premature, the little one had grown to two and a half kilograms after a period of careful feeding in the incubator. She could be fed like regular babies now.

The little one looked tender and adorable.

Kyla said, "She's still a little skinny. She drinks less milk than other babies who are born full-term. It's a pity she has been drinking baby formula since birth and has never had her mother's milk."

"You've done enough for her. She'll understand your hard efforts when she grows up," said Amber Mitchell as she took out a red envelope. "Alright, it's my first time meeting the baby today. I'm giving her a red envelope for good luck!"

Kyla immediately rejected it and said, "That's inappropriate."

Chapter 2578

Take it back!"

3/3

Amber Mitchell chuckled and said, "It's for the baby, not you. You're just keeping it for her. You gotta give it to her later! Besides, I've sold my shares. I have enough money to last me for several lifetimes. You don't have to be conscious about my money."

Kyla then accepted the red envelope.

"Here, let me carry the baby. She's so cute. I want to carry her." Amber Mitchell seemed like she could not wait to carry her.

Kyla then carefully handed her daughter to Amber Mitchell.

Amber Mitchell hugged the tiny and soft body carefully. Watching the little one pouting in her arms and spitting bubbles... Her eyes grew red.

'Was Simon like this when he was born? Was he this adorable too?'

However, she had never even held Simon once since he was born.

Chapter 2579

Looking at her best friend's red eyes, Kyla knew what was on her mind, so she stood still nearby and did not make a sound.

There were some emotions that outsiders simply could not help with. They could only process those emotions themselves.

Just then, Kyla's phone suddenly rang. She took it out to see an unfamiliar caller ID.

When she pressed the answer button, what the person said shocked her.

"Is this Miss Corbyn? I'm Mr. Martin Weiss's attorney. Mr. Weiss has entrusted me with full authority to handle your and Mr. Weiss's divorce. He has entrusted me to draw up a divorce agreement. I hope you can come to our law firm to take a look at the agreement when you're free. You can also let us know if you have any objections. We'll pass the message on to Mr. Weiss and revise the agreement accordingly."

Kyla froze, only feeling as though the voice on the other end of the line was becoming infinitely distant.

"Miss Corbyn?" The lawyer's voice on the other end of the line grew louder due to the long silence.

Chapter 2579

2/4

"Huh?" Kyla suddenly came to her senses. "Okay... I... I got it."

"The address of my law firm is..." The person gave the address. and said, "I wonder when you'll be free? I'll make time for you."

Kyla hesitated slightly. "Tomorrow, then. I'll come over tomorrow."

"Okay, how about tomorrow afternoon? We can send a car to pick you up," they said.

"You don't have to send a car to pick me up. Tomorrow afternoon it is, then," said Kyla before putting her phone away.

Amber Mitchell, who was nearby, saw her best friend's pale face and asked, "What's wrong? What happened? Is there anything I can help you with?"

Kyla smiled bitterly. "No thanks. It was a call from the law firm. Martin Weiss has entrusted them to draft the divorce agreement. They want me to go over and take a look at it."

"Martin Weiss's divorcing you?" Amber Mitchell froze. She remembered how Martin Weiss had accompanied Kyla to the mental hospital to see her and visited her after she was rescued.

She thought Kyla's suffering had ended. Besides, Martin Weiss seemed nice to Kyla.

Chapter 2579

3/4

"Yeah, divorce. I married him just so that the child would have a legitimate identity. Now that the baby is born, divorce is inevitable," said Kyla.

Amber Mitchell stared at her best friend. Although she said it was inevitable, the expression on her face was a clear sign of her reluctance to give up the marriage.

"You married him for the baby and nothing more?"

Kyla was silent for a long moment before saying with a bitter smile, "He loved me when I married him, but I only wanted to give my unplanned baby a legitimate identity. However..."

Kyla told Amber Mitchell about her and Martin Weiss's story. Finally, she said, "Funny, isn't it? I thought I didn't love him enough while he loved me too deeply, so I chose to separate. But now that he has stopped loving me, I love him too deeply."

Amber Mitchell had never heard of hypnotizing feelings in such a way. It was not amnesia, but one could diminish such unforgettable feelings.

"He didn't seem to have no affection for you when I saw the way he treated you in Deer City," said Amber Mitchell. She even thought Martin Weiss loved her best friend deeply.

Chapter 2580

"Maybe there were some lingering feelings, but they're very faint." Kyla sighed and said, "After I sign the divorce papers, apart from our two children, we'll have nothing to do with each other."

1/4

Amber Mitchell said, "Do you really want to divorce him? If you really love him, we'll find a way to lift his hypnosis. That way, the four of you can stay as a family. Wouldn't that be great?"

Kyla shook his head. "No, I have a bad liver. I had liver cancer and underwent a liver transplant. Giving birth to the baby has put a strain on my liver. Why lift his hypnosis and let him suffer with me when I don't know how many years I have left to live? He has no feelings for me now, so it won't hurt him to divorce me."

"But won't you regret it?" Amber Mitchell asked.

Kyla smiled. "There are always many regrets in life. It wouldn't be life if there are no regrets. I should be content with this life. I had someone I loved, I have two children, a family, and friends. I can live my life in peace. It's good enough."

'Is it really good enough?' Amber Mitchell looked down at the little one in her arms. Then, she returned the baby to Kyla. "I've always believed that we should have fewer regrets. Some regrets can be remedied, while others can never be. Just like. Herman. He's gone. I can't make up for my regrets for him, but both you and Martin Weiss are still alive. This regret can be remedied."

Chapter 2580

2/4

After Amber Mitchell left, her statement still echoed in Kyla's head.

Some regrets could be remedied, while others could never be!

However, how was she going to make up for her regret with Martin Weiss?

The next day, Kyla arrived at the law firm. They handed her a document. "Miss Corbyn, take a look. This is the agreement drafted according to Mr. Weiss's wishes. If there's something you're dissatisfied with and want to add, we can do so."

Kyla opened the document and looked through it.

This divorce agreement was favorable to her. The two children would live with her, and Martin Weiss would pay her a generous sum of child support fees every month. Besides that, the figure would gradually increase as the two children grew up. He was even giving her several properties in Emerald City. It was indeed a generous divorce settlement.

He was also giving the two children five percent of Weiss

Chapter 2580 Group's shares.

She did not need to pay anything or lose anything after the divorce.

If there was any loss, then perhaps... it was the title of Mrs.

Weiss.

3/4

Finally, she found Martin Weiss's signature already in the signature column.

In other words, once she signed the agreement and the lawyer processed the divorce, she and Martin Weiss would be officially divorced.

"Miss Corbyn, do you have anything to add to this divorce agreement? If you have no opinion, you can sign your name and we'll take care of the rest. If everything goes well, you and Mr. Weiss will be officially divorced tomorrow. The assets and money stated in the agreement will belong to you immediately."

"I..." Kyla looked at the pen in front of her and suddenly realized how difficult it was to pick it up.

The lawyer waited for some time but did not see Kyla take the pen to sign the papers. Hence, they said, "If you're dissatisfied with the conditions, you may voice your suggestions. Mr. Weiss has said that he'll do his best to satisfy you."

Chapter 2580

'But it's not money, shares, or houses that I want. It's... Kyla shouted in her head. Suddenly, an answer came to her.
