

Ex Convict 3801

Chapter 3801

In the silent apartment, only Veronica remained. After a long time, the room was filled with the sound of sobbing, which grew louder and louder until it turned into wailing!

Veronica cried almost all night. Throughout the night, she tightly held the cat pendant that originally belonged to Mason.

Although it was something he had discarded, she couldn't bear to throw it away.

This pair of pendants seemed to commemorate the time they spent together. If she threw them away, it would seem like there was nothing left to remember.

In the following days, she only appeared at school during class, and many students looked at her with various expressions because she was Mason's girlfriend.

But those people didn't know that she and Mason had already broken up.

Her friend Shirley Woolery looked incredulous when she found out about the breakup. "Veronica, you...you broke up?"

"Yeah," Veronica replied.

"But...that was so fast. You guys weren't together for very long, were you?" Shirley said.

"Yeah, it was too fast. You can love someone and then quickly stop loving them," Veronica murmured.

Perhaps Mason, who had a relationship with her for over a decade, wouldn't just stop loving her like that.

But the current Mason is different, he's not the same Mason who had those years of emotional connection with her.

His feelings for her are probably just based on the few months since they met again after he returned to the country, so it's easy for him to fall out of love.

After all, how deep can feelings be in just a few months?

And as for her... her feelings for him have been going on for over a decade... Veronica smiled bitterly. From the beginning, their relationship and feelings for each other were unequal.

"So, what about you now..." Shirley didn't know how to comfort her friend, especially since her friend's relationship with Mason had caused a stir in school and everyone knew about it.

But now, her friend had broken up with Mason again. If the other students found out, who knows what rumors would spread.

"I'm fine," Veronica tried to cheer up in front of her friend, forcing a smile. "It's just a breakup, everyone goes through a f breakups in life, do we have to be devastated every time?"

"If you need someone to accompany you, just let me know. I'm always free to hang out with you, go shopping and eat good food together!" Shirley said.

"Okay," Veronica agreed, looking at the time. "I have to go now."

"Where are you going?" Shirley asked.

"To visit someone in the hospital," Veronica said.

Daniel, a new employee in the company, wouldn't have attracted attention from the higher-ups even if he was hospitalized due to an injury. But somehow, the leaders found out about Daniel's injury and his intention to sue Mason, and they also knew that she was Daniel's ex-girlfriend.

So the company leaders asked her to go and persuade Daniel to drop the lawsuit, and if he was willing to focus on recovering and drop the lawsuit, the company would keep his position and let him continue working after he recovered.

Chapter 3802

If the lawsuit is not withdrawn, the company will naturally not allow him to continue working here. Of course, the leader said this in a rather subtle way. When saying this, the leader made it clear to Veronica that it is necessary to make Daniel withdraw the lawsuit.

"If Daniel really sues, even if he loses in the end, he is still an employee of our company. This means that the company has offended the Reed family. You must know what kind of existence the Reed family is in Emerald City." The leader spoke frankly.

The reason why the leader sent Veronica first was nothing more than to let her persuade Daniel and find out his attitude. If Veronica can persuade him, it would be great. If not, then the company's top management will directly go to Daniel.

Veronica accepted the task and had no intention of refusing.

Firstly, she wanted to see how Daniel's injuries were, because the severity of his injuries would directly affect the responsibility that Mason might have to bear.

Secondly, if she could really persuade Daniel to withdraw the lawsuit, it would be the best outcome. However, based on her current understanding of Daniel, this is probably difficult to achieve.

Chapter 3802

When Veronica arrived at the hospital, Daniel was resting in the ward. His hair was shaved off in the area where he was injured, and he was wearing a hospital gown. Other than that, he looked normal and his complexion was good.

When Daniel saw her, he didn't seem too surprised, but rather looked like he had expected her to come.

"What, are you here to plead for Mason? Asking me not to sue him?" Daniel sneered at Veronica.

"I'm here because the company's leader asked me to come. The leader hopes that you can withdraw the lawsuit," Veronica said.

"Hmph, it's good to have money and power! Mason was clearly in the wrong, but now I have to withdraw the lawsuit," Daniel said disdainfully.

"You were originally in the wrong. If you hadn't taken me to the hospital against my will, nothing would have happened," Veronica said. "His behavior was stimulated by your behavior. If you don't withdraw the lawsuit, then I will also exercise my right and hand over all the call records of when you forced me to go to the hospital to the police."

Daniel's face twisted, "Sure enough, you are also someone who favors the rich and despises the poor. Do you think that by doing this, you can become the second young lady of the Reed family in the future? Let me tell you, you won't have a good ending either. Mason abandoned you and went abroad back then. Who knows if he will abandon you in the future!"

Chapter 3802

Veronica felt bitter in her heart. It's not a matter of who knows what will happen in the future, but rather that Mason has already abandoned her!

No, it's not so much that he abandoned her, as it is that Mason has already given up on their relationship.

"Even if I don't have a good outcome, it's none of your business, Daniel. I've said my piece, so think carefully about whether or not you want to drop the lawsuit," Veronica said, turning to leave the hospital room.

"Wait!" Daniel called out, "Veronica, are you really going to be with Mason? You saw how he hit me, like a crazy person. Whenever he's provoked, he acts like a lunatic. Aren't you afraid he'll be violent towards you in the future?"

Veronica paused and turned to face Daniel. "You think he's crazy, but I never see him that way. Daniel, you're living in the past, blaming others for all your mistakes. Is that a meaningful way to live?"

Veronica left the hospital room, leaving Daniel glaring at the door as if he were staring at her back.

Who was she to say such things to him?

She didn't experience the same setbacks as him. His life was ruined because of Mason!

If that's the case, he wouldn't let Mason have the last laugh!

Chapter 3803

Veronica wasn't surprised that she couldn't convince Daniel to drop the lawsuit.

After all, she never thought she could persuade him in the first place.

Someone like Daniel, who's been stubborn for so long, can't be convinced with just a few words!

Veronica picked up her phone and looked at the two cat paw keychains hanging from it.

After Mason threw his keychain at her, she eventually hung it on her phone. Although every time she looked at the two keychains, she felt a bitter feeling.

But she still didn't want to put away or throw away the two keychains.

This is probably her still reminiscing about this relationship, this short-lived romance.

Thinking about this, she couldn't help but smile bitterly. How long will it take for her to let go of her feelings for him?

One year, two years? Ten years? Or a lifetime?

As she was thinking, the doorbell suddenly rang. Veronica opened the door and saw her father and stepmother standing outside.

Chapter 3803

As soon as they entered the room, Archer smiled at his daughter and said, "You, how come you didn't tell us about your relationship with Mason? As your father, I had to hear this good news from someone else."

Stepmother Rosalind also chimed in, "That's right. Everyone congratulated your father in person, saying that he had a good daughter. Your father, on the other hand, took a long time to figure out what was going on."

Veronica asked and found out that it was a schoolmate's father who happened to have business dealings with her father. Therefore, during a casual conversation, the other party congratulated Archer and also gave the Barlow family a great deal of business at a huge discount.

Of course, the reason why the other party gave such a big discount was because they thought Veronica was Mason's girlfriend and that the Barlow family might have a chance to marry into the wealthy Reed family in the future.

Veronica looked at her father and stepmother's smiling faces and simply said, "Mason and I have already broken up."

Suddenly, Archer and Rosalind's smiles froze on their faces.

“What did you say?” Archer said incredulously.

“Mason and I have broken up, so you don’t need to think too much about it. Whatever happened in the past is in the past. Don’t think you can get any benefits from the Reed family anymore,” Veronica said.

Chapter 3803

“Don’t lie to me. How could you break up? Not long ago, he publicly admitted that you were his girlfriend at your school, didn’t he?” Archer said.

“Who says that after dating, you have to wait a certain amount of time before breaking up?” Looking at her father’s panic-stricken face, Veronica suddenly had an urge to laugh.

“Then make up with him right away. I don’t care why you broke up, make up with him now!” Archer said urgently.

“It’s impossible,” Veronica said. Mason’s attitude had made it clear that there was no chance between them.

“Why is it impossible? You’ve had so many years of history together, and now that he’s back in the country and with you again, it shows that his feelings for you are extraordinary. Just soften up to him a bit and everything will be fine!” Archer quickly interjected.

Chapter 3804

Rosalind chimed in, “Yes, just show him some affection. If that doesn’t work, you can even let him stay overnight. What can’t be resolved between a man and a woman?”

Veronica frowned at her stepmother’s explicit suggestion, and her father, unfortunately, seemed to agree.

“What, are you planning to sell me off for your own benefit? Too bad, I’m not planning on selling myself. And as for you, don’t even think about leeching off me to suck the Reed family’s blood!” Veronica said.

“You—” Archer became angry and raised his hand to hit Veronica’s face.

But Veronica intercepted his hand in mid-air. “Don’t think I’ll just let you hit me. If you cause me any harm, I’ll call the police and see who will be embarrassed in the end!” Veronica said coldly.

Archer was so angry that he trembled all over, but he reluctantly withdrew his hand.

After all, he didn’t want to go to the police station. Once he did, those clients who mistakenly thought his daughter was still dating Mason would find out the truth, and he wouldn’t be able to do business anymore!

For now, he could only sign the business contracts while others still didn't know that his daughter and Mason had broken up. As for the rest, he could only deal with it later!

Archer and Rosalind left in a huff. After Veronica closed the door, she slumped against it like a deflated balloon.

At this moment, she didn't feel the coldness of her biological father, only endless bitterness.

She had always known that her father had no real affection for her, and her stepmother was even worse. Even her half-brother, who was the same father but different mother, only treated her slightly better, but that was all.

After she moved out, that half-brother never came to see her, let alone care about her.

In the past, although she felt bitter, she didn't feel any pain.

But today, facing everything, she only feels her heart constantly throbbing in pain.

Is it because of breaking up with Mason? Not only did she lose her family, but also the love she had finally gained.

"Veronica, you really...have no one who loves you," she murmured to herself.

Perhaps being with Mason was just a dream, a short-lived dream, a fantasy of someone truly loving her and being with her.

Chapter 3804

But dreams are just dreams, and there will always be a day to wake up!

In the following days, everything seemed calm and quiet. Fewer and fewer people in school paid attention to her, and those who came to see her on purpose also decreased.

After the company's leaders found out that she failed to persuade Daniel, they didn't ask her to go find him again. She continued to go to class and work every day, as if everything had returned to before she dated Mason.

Only she knew that she couldn't go back! Her state of mind couldn't go back to the past.

It's like a heart that has lost its vitality. Now it's just alive, just existing, and she doesn't even know what she's hoping for.

Auntie Grace had come to see her once and asked her what she was thinking.

And she just smiled faintly, "Maybe Mason and I are really not that suitable. People like us may only be suitable as siblings, not as lovers."

But now, they can't even be siblings.

Chapter 3805

Veronica was about to go home after school when her phone rang. She looked at the caller ID and saw that it was Daniel calling.

Veronica frowned but still answered the phone. "What's up?"

she asked.

"I want to talk to you about withdrawing my lawsuit," Daniel said.

"If you want to withdraw your lawsuit, you can talk to the Reed family's lawyer directly. If you have any requests, you can also bring them up with them. Talking to me won't make any difference," Veronica replied.

"I don't want to talk to them. I only want to talk to you. It's up to you whether you want to talk or not. If you don't want to, then forget it. Maybe I'll change my mind in a few days!" Daniel said.

Veronica hesitated for a moment and said, "Okay, where do you want to talk?"

Daniel gave her an address and said, "This is where I live now. Let's talk here. But I only want to talk to you, no one else."

"Okay, I understand," Veronica said. Regardless, since Daniel

Chapter 3805

wanted to withdraw his lawsuit, she still planned to go see him.

After all, withdrawing the lawsuit was the best outcome for Mason. Even if they broke up, she still hoped he would be okay and safe.

Veronica went to the address Daniel gave her and arrived at his place.

It was a mixed and chaotic place, almost like a slum in the city, with all kinds of people.

Veronica was a little surprised that Daniel would live in such a place, but when she thought about his current situation, she could understand.

After all, his mother was in the hospital, he couldn't find a good job, and hospitalization required a lot of money. His life must be very difficult.

It was probably because of this that he was so stubborn, Veronica thought to herself.

When Veronica arrived at Daniel's door, she knocked twice. After a moment, Daniel opened the door and said, "Come in."

Veronica entered the room, which was a small farmer's house with only a dozen square meters, and the furniture inside looked rather old and simple.

"Please sit down!" Daniel said, pointing to a chair next to a small square table in the room.

Chapter 3805

Veronica sat down as instructed. "Okay, I'm here. What do you want to talk about?"

"I only have water here, nothing else to offer you," Daniel said, pouring a glass of water and placing it in front of Veronica.

"I didn't come here for water!" Veronica said.

Daniel shrugged and sat down. "So, what do you think of the place where I live?"

"What do you want me to think?" Veronica asked in response.

"If it weren't for Mason..."

"If it weren't for him, your father would have gone to jail for corruption, your family's property would have been confiscated as stolen goods, and your life would not have been good," Veronica interrupted.

Daniel's face turned ugly.

"If you keep dwelling on the past, you'll never change anything. If you really feel that your life is not good, you should work hard to change it," Veronica said.

Suddenly, Daniel laughed. "Yes, you're right. I should work hard to change. That's why I came to talk to you today."

"Do you have any requests?" Veronica asked.

Chapter 3805

"My request is to see you or Mason in pain!" Daniel said with a strange smile.

Veronica frowned and suddenly stood up. "You didn't come here to talk properly at all."

Chapter 3806

"What do you mean it's not? As long as I can see you in pain, I won't withdraw my lawsuit!" Daniel said.

This guy is definitely not normal! Veronica said, "Well, then you'll be disappointed. Since you're not planning to talk properly, I'm leaving!"

As she spoke, she walked towards the door, but when her hand was about to touch the doorknob, her other hand pressed against the door to prevent her from opening it.

"Daniel, you—" Veronica was about to turn around and scold him, but Daniel's other hand held a square handkerchief and covered her mouth and nose.

This is... Veronica was shocked and struggled desperately.

However, Daniel firmly held the handkerchief over her mouth and nose and refused to let go.

Veronica felt her strength gradually fading and her consciousness becoming increasingly blurred. Finally, her vision went black and she fainted.

It was only at this moment that Daniel let go of her and looked at the unconscious Veronica, twistedly saying, "The real show is just beginning! Veronica, how desperate will you be when you realize that Mason has abandoned you?!"

When Veronica woke up, her eyes were covered with a black cloth. Even if she opened her eyes, everything around her was pitch black.

She instinctively tried to move her body, but then realized that she was tied up like a dumpling and couldn't move at all.

What's going on? How did this happen? Where am I now?!

A series of questions exploded in her mind. Then, she suddenly remembered that before she passed out, she was at Daniel's house and was trying to leave when he covered her mouth and nose with a handkerchief. After that...she couldn't remember anything.

"Daniel?" Veronica spoke up. Although she was bound and blindfolded, her mouth was not covered and she could still speak.

"Here," Daniel's voice echoed in the air.

Veronica pursed her lips. Even if she was slow, she could understand that she had been kidnapped by Daniel.

"You never really wanted to talk about dropping the lawsuit with me, did you?" Veronica asked.

Daniel suddenly chuckled, "Your reaction is quite unexpected. I thought you would scream and cry, but I didn't expect you to have the leisure to ask me this."

Chapter 3806

"If screaming and crying won't make you release me, why waste the effort?" Veronica said.

"Since you're so smart, why don't you guess what I want to do?" Daniel taunted.

Veronica knew that Daniel, at this moment, was not normal in terms of cognition and mental state.

She used to think that Daniel was just too stubborn, but now it seemed that he was a bit paranoid and delusional.

"You're not trying to use me to threaten Mason, are you?" Veronica said. She figured that Daniel hated Mason the most, so it wasn't hard to guess his motive for kidnapping her.

"You're right. I want to see how good your relationship with Mason really is!" Daniel's voice was sinister and close to Veronica. She felt like he was standing right in front of her.

"If you're trying to test my relationship with him, then you'll be disappointed," Veronica said. "We've already broken up. Even if he knows I've been kidnapped, he'll only help me report to the police. He won't risk his life for me."

Chapter 3807

"Break up?" This answer clearly surprised Daniel. The next moment, Veronica felt a sharp pain on her scalp as Daniel yanked her hair down, forcing her to tilt her chin up. "Are you trying to lie to me?"

"I'm not lying to you," Veronica gritted her teeth against the pain. "I broke up with him after you were hospitalized. So what you're doing now is pointless. If you release me, I won't report to the police. We can pretend this never happened..."

Before Veronica could finish her sentence, Daniel slapped her hard. Her whole body tilted to one side, and one side of her face burned with pain.

"Break up? How could you break up? He went to such great lengths to make us break up, and now you and him broke up so soon? Are you playing games with me?" Daniel yelled while kicking Veronica with force.

Veronica was tied up and couldn't resist, she could only take the kicks like a punching bag.

Her body was in pain, and her bones felt like they were about to break.

After a while, Daniel finally stopped kicking and gasped, "Even if you really broke up, I won't let you go. Let's make a bet, let's see if Mason will come to save you. If he doesn't come, I'll throw you into the sea and see if he regrets it for the rest of his life!"

Chapter 3807

Veronica spat out bloody saliva, "Why... why do you have to do this? You're only ruining your own life!"

"My life has already been ruined!" Daniel said irritably.

"You still have parents, don't you care about them? What will they do if something happens to you?" Veronica said.

"Them? I've already made arrangements. Anyway, I'll have a lot of money, and I'll start my new life abroad! As for you, whether you can survive or not depends on what Mason will do." Daniel said.

Veronica suddenly froze, what did Daniel mean by that? What was the big sum of money he was talking about? Did someone pay him to do this?

And what was the purpose of the man who paid him?

Then, Veronica heard the sound of a phone taking pictures. Was Daniel taking pictures?

What was he doing, and where was she now? She couldn't move and couldn't see what was happening around her. She couldn't do anything!

It seemed that all she could do now was wait!

Come to think of it, this wasn't the first time she had been kidnapped. She was once kidnapped because of her half-brother.

It was only that one time when she was kidnapped with Jasper, and later, the Reed family mobilized a lot of people, with Mason even coming to rescue her personally.

At that time, she was still wearing the necklace that Mason gave her, which had a locator device that allowed Mason to know her exact location.

But what about this time? This time she was kidnapped alone, would the Reed family still go to great lengths to find her? Although Auntie Grace and Uncle Reed were good to her, she was not part of the Reed family after all.

Chapter 3808

What would Mason think when he found out she was kidnapped again? This time, she wasn't wearing anything he gave her, and there was no locator device either.

And the reason why Daniel kidnapped her might be more complicated than she originally thought. He probably had someone behind him!

"Are you...are you really sure you'll have a lot of money?" Veronica gritted her teeth and spoke, despite the pain in her body. "Maybe...that person is just joking with you?"

"No, that person is not just anyone. Since he's willing to give me he will definitely give it to me, and he will also help me arrange everything for going abroad." Daniel said.

money,

Veronica said, "If this person is so powerful, why didn't he kidnap me himself? Why did he have to use you to kidnap me? Besides, I don't remember offending such a capable person."

"It's not you who offended him, it's—" Daniel paused suddenly and didn't say anything more.

"Could it be that Mason offended him?" Veronica guessed.

"Anyway, it's not something you need to know! Right now, all you have to do is wait for Mason to come and save you. Of course...if he wants to save you, be prepared to risk your life!"

Chapter 3808

There was a clear malice in Daniel's voice. "Veronica, since you insist on stepping on me, I will also use you as a stepping stone. This is only natural, isn't it?"

As time passed, Daniel seemed to want to vent his anger and kicked her a few times. Finally, she passed out.

When she woke up, she found that her blindfold had been removed, her body was tied to a large pillar, and her mouth was taped shut, making it impossible for her to make any sound!

What was going on? What did Daniel want to do?!

She looked around nervously, but didn't see Daniel's voice at all. Instead, the surroundings gave her a familiar feeling.

It was like... the auditorium of her old school!

Right, it was her high school's auditorium!

Even on the mottled walls, there were still the names of her old high school.

This is... their high school?!

Veronica remembered that she had seen news that her old high school was going to be relocated and the original site was going to be used to build a large shopping mall.

So, the place where she was trapped now was a place that could be demolished at any time?!

Chapter 3808

But why did Daniel tie her up here? And where is Daniel?!

Daniel wanted to use her to lure Mason and harm him. What was Daniel planning to do?!

Various speculations filled her mind for a moment!

But now, there was only her here, and Daniel had disappeared.

She tried to struggle and break free from the ropes, but she couldn't and there were no tools to use. At the moment, she seemed to be able to do nothing but wait.

This was a place that was about to be demolished, and there should be no one coming here normally.

But she remembered seeing news not long ago that this building was going to be demolished soon... Suddenly, Veronica shuddered. Demolished? What date was it on the news? And what date was she kidnapped by Daniel?!

She tried hard to recall the date in her mind. It was dark outside now, and she didn't know what time it was, but judging by her current level of hunger, it shouldn't have been more than a day.

So... if she remembers correctly, tomorrow is the day when this place will be demolished?

Did Daniel tie her up here to...?!

When the construction site is demolished, her body will be mixed in with this pile of abandoned building debris. Even if someone discovers it, it's very likely to be considered an accident caused by her mistakenly entering here.

Moreover, this place used to be her alma mater. It's believable that she snuck in to take a look because she missed her soon-to-be demolished school!

And is Daniel planning to lure Mason here? Then he can make Mason's death look like an accident too?!

Thinking of this, Veronica breaks out in a cold sweat. If it's really like this, then Daniel is truly terrifying.

He's become so extreme that he doesn't even value human life anymore!

Although she used to have some pity and sympathy for Daniel, now she has none left.

She only regrets not letting Mason beat up Daniel that day. She should have made sure Daniel was hospitalized for a year or two!

If she had known that Daniel had become so extreme, she should have been more cautious instead of foolishly going to Daniel's place alone.

Chapter 3809

Her current situation is entirely her own fault!

But... she doesn't want to die!

She still has many things she wants to do. Also, if she really dies, will it not cause pain for Mason? Even if he no longer loves her, if he knows that she was kidnapped and scared because of him, will he not blame himself? Will he not be sad?

The thought of her death possibly causing some kind of shadow for Mason makes Veronica's will to survive even stronger.

She can't die, but what can she do now?

Her upper body was tightly bound to the pillar, unable to move even though her legs were not tied.

Suddenly, Veronica had a flash of inspiration and stared intently at her own feet. She was wearing a pair of ordinary black leather shoes with a heel of only about 4cm, but there were spikes in the heel.

Just two days ago, she felt that the heel was a bit unstable and felt like it was about to come off.

If Daniel hadn't kidnapped her, she would have gone to the shoemaker in her own community to have the heel of her shoes re-nailed after leaving Daniel's residence.

If she could pull out the spikes... maybe she could break the rope!

Thinking of this, Veronica became excited and began to take off her shoes and then her socks!

The few simple movements that were usually easy for her had become much more difficult now.

Finally, she managed to take off her socks and then looked at her two shoes. She remembered that the left shoe had a loose heel.

So she picked up the shoe with her toes and slowly bent her leg backwards, trying to get her hand to take off the shoe.

However, the shoe was already heavy, and coupled with being tied up, trying to get her hand to take off the shoe was like a physical challenge.

Repeated failures left Veronica panting and her legs were extremely sore.

But she couldn't give up, she had to survive. She must survive!

Not just for herself, but also for those who had been good to her, and...

Mason's face appeared in her mind, causing her to let out a long sigh and continue with her previous actions.

The most important thing now was to save herself, not to risk Mason's life to save her!

Finally, after who knows how long, Veronica's fingers finally hooked onto the shoe, and her tense heart finally calmed down a bit.

Next, she had to remove the heel from the sole of the shoe and use the head of the shoe nail to rub against the rope to break it.

Although the heel was already a bit loose, separating it from the shoe still required a lot of effort, especially since this kind of work would normally require tools.

But now, she not only had no tools, but was also in this position, which meant she needed to use even more strength to do this job...

Chapter 3810

She would succeed, she must succeed, Veronica kept encouraging herself in her heart.

Mason always felt uneasy. One night, he received a text message on his phone, it was from Veronica.

Although he had deleted her phone number from his phone, he still remembered it in his mind and couldn't forget it.

Therefore, when he saw the number on the text message, he knew it was from Veronica.

The content of the message invited him to go to their old high school tomorrow, because tomorrow was the day when the old high school site would be completely demolished.

Mason looked at the text message on his phone, feeling a bit distracted. High school?

For him, the last memories of high school were not good memories. Ever since Veronica chose to date Daniel back then, his high school life had been a mess.

And now, what did Veronica mean by sending this text message? Did she really just want to see the old campus being demolished with him? Or was there some other purpose?

For some reason, he felt a sense of unease in his heart, causing him to feel restless and anxious.

Chapter 3810

Suddenly, his gaze fell on a certain line of text in the message, and his eyes changed. He seemed to be pondering something.

After a moment, he replied to the message on his phone, "Okay, let's meet for the last time tomorrow."

On the other end of the phone, Daniel looked at the message from Mason with a satisfied smile on his face.

Tomorrow, there would be a good show to watch. He would make sure that Mason and Veronica would both meet their end!

Not only would this relieve his hatred, but he could also leave the country afterwards and start a new life.

He would never let himself be trapped in this muddy life again, struggling to get out.
