

Ex Convict 4061

Chapter 4061

Originally, he just wanted to teach her a lesson, to let her know that some words and actions shouldn't be taken lightly when it comes to giving away one's body.

He deliberately made such a move, thinking that she would be scared and, with her personality, would at least calm down for a while.

But unexpectedly, the one who learned the lesson was him!

When he kissed her just now, he almost couldn't control himself.

At this moment, if she paid a little more attention, she should have noticed the change in his body.

"You...will you never be afraid of me?" Chandler looked at Tina and asked.

"Hmm." She responded with a very affirmative tone.

"Even if in the future, you see the scary side of me, you won't be afraid?" he asked.

"You won't hurt me, so why should I be afraid?" she asked strangely, "I heard from my mom that my dad also has a scary side, but my mom never feared my dad!"

And if her mom was unhappy, she dared to kick her dad off the bed and pull his cars!

She still remembers asking her mom if she wasn't worried about her dad getting angry?

As a result, her mom smiled and said, "Your dad loves me so much, how could he get angry with me!"

Later, she summed it up. Her mom was arrogant because of her dad's love.

But who made her dad spoil her mom? So, her mom had the capital to be arrogant!

"So, shall we continue?" Tina asked shamelessly.

Chandler suddenly raised his hand and touched his forehead, "You...you go to sleep first, I still have some work to do!" After speaking, he hurriedly left the room.

Leaving Tina with a puzzled look.

Uh...did Chandler just...run away?

Could it be that she's just not attractive enough, or maybe he still sees her as a child, so he can't make a move?

Originally, tonight was just supposed to be a test to see if she really loved him, but now... she's the one who ran away!

But, well, she doesn't mind kissing him, or him kissing her body, even more intimate actions.

She even kind of likes it.

So the conclusion is, she must love him!

11mm, then next time, she'll find a chance to "cat" him.

Just like Mommy did back then.

Mommy ate Daddy first back then, so he wouldn't be taken away by other women!

Tina lay in bed, thinking about how to "eat" Chandler next time.

Meanwhile, Chandler didn't go to the study like he said he would, but instead went to the bathroom for a cold shower.

His body was telling him that his pride in his self-control was almost shattered in front of her. If she had continued to hold onto him earlier, he might have really done something to her.

"Tina!" He murmured her name, desperately suppressing his desire.

After a long time, he wiped himself off, put on a bathrobe, and walked to the sink.

In the mirror, his face still had a rare blush.

And all of this was because of Tina!

But... in the future, even if she learns about Hunter's secret and knows why he chose her back then, will she still be completely unafraid of him like she is now?

If one day she looks at him with fearful eyes, can he bear it?

People are always like this!

If they have never tasted the sweetness and have always been in hell, then they won't find hell terrifying.

But if they have tasted the sweetness, they will crave it more and won't be able to bear the pain anymore.

"Tina, I hope you will never be afraid of me in the future!" Chandler said in a low voice.

There was an undiscovered anxiety in his eyes!

Chapter 4062

The next day, Tina wore a high-necked shirt to school. Eugenia took one look and immediately gave her a sly look, "Did you really have S with your Chandler brother last night?"

Tina gave her friend a direct glare, "Sometimes, don't assume things so easily. Also, you're a beautiful girl, and that kind of look doesn't suit you at all!"

Eugenia was puzzled, "Then why are you wearing a high-necked shirt? It's not even cold today."

"Is there a rule that says you can't wear a high-necked shirt when it's not cold?" Tina retorted.

Eugenia rubbed her nose, "Sister, it seems like you're not in a good mood. Why don't you tell me what's bothering you? Maybe I can give you some advice."

Tina thought it was a good idea and agreed.

Chandler's reaction yesterday kept her up all night.

She had been so proactive, but he just left without a word. Was it out of respect or because he saw her grow up and couldn't see her as anything other than a sister, despite her being engaged?

Or maybe he had always said he liked her, but didn't truly love her?

"What do you call it when a woman makes a move on a man, but he still leaves her alone in the room and walks away?" Tina asked.

Eugenia widened her eyes. "Are you talking about you and Chandler?"

"You know it, why do you have to say it so clearly?" Tina complained.

"I get it, I get it!" Eugenia quickly said. "Are you sure the woman made it clear enough?"

"Very clear!" Tina gritted her teeth. She had already made it clear enough. If he still didn't get it, she didn't know what else to do.

Eugenia thought for a moment and analyzed, "Either Chandler is old-fashioned and wants to wait until the wedding night, or he's just not interested in you, or..."

"Or what?" Tina perked up her ears.

"Or he likes men!" Eugenia said.

"Cough...cough!" Tina almost choked on her own saliva. "How is that possible?"

"I'm just guessing!" Eugenia said. "Or maybe he's just not into

S."

Tina remained silent, seemingly pondering her friend's words.

“By the way, aren’t you supposed to be taking some COS photos this weekend? Can I come along? You have so many fans online, and I promised them some behind-the-scenes footage of you,” Eugenia said.

“Okay,” Tina didn’t have any objections.

Taking photos of some anime characters in cosplay was just a small hobby of hers. At first, she thought it was interesting to dress up as her favorite anime characters with exaggerated costumes and makeup.

Unfortunately, many of the characters she liked were male, but luckily she was tall enough to pull off the male characters without looking awkward.

She just took some photos and found it fun, so she posted them on her page. Unexpectedly, they became popular.

Fortunately, no one dug up anything about her family background, or it could have been even more popular.

On the day of the shoot, Eugenia, who was supposed to follow and take some behind-the-scenes footage, disappeared while Tina was getting her makeup done. She hurried back just before the shoot.

“Tina, do you know what? Kit is shooting next door to you! Hurry up and take some photos. Maybe we can see him when he leaves!” Eugenia said.

Chapter 4063

Tina was surprised. Kit? Her luck was really good!

“Do you guys like Kit too?” the photographer asked with interest.

“Yes, we’re all fans of Kit!” Eugenia replied.

“Okay, if the shoot ends later than theirs, I’ll introduce you to them and let you see the studio. But you can’t disturb the shoot!” the photographer said.

Eugenia was excited, and Tina was surprised. “Zabulon Albin, do you know someone in the next studio?” Tina asked.

“I worked with Kit before. My senior sister is shooting him today. I’ll take two of Kit’s fans to see him later. No problem,” the photographer said.

The photographer had worked with Tina a few times before, and they had a good working relationship, so he was willing to help her out.

“Thank you so much!” Tina said happily.

With the encouragement of her idol, Tina’s shoot went exceptionally smoothly and she was in great spirits! This earned her some praise from the photographer.

After the shoot was over, the photographer said, "Let's go to the next studio. I had my assistant check it out earlier and they're still shooting there!"

"That's great, Zabulon. Thank you so much!" Eugenia expressed her gratitude.

"No problem!" Zabulon replied.

Zabulon then led Tina and Eugenia to the next studio where they immediately spotted Kit standing under the lights.

Today, Kit was dressed in a white vintage-style shirt with matching pants, belt, and cuffs. There were also many jewels decorating the collar, making him look exceptionally magnificent, like a prince from the Middle Ages.

Eugenia was immediately excited and covered her mouth. Coming here today was really worth it!

Tina was also watching Kit's shoot with great enthusiasm.

Although Tina was already familiar with the various photo shooting and had been through several shoots herself, this was the first time she had watched someone else's shoot and found it quite interesting.

Especially since the subject of the shoot was her favorite idol, this opportunity to see him up close was not something everyone could have.

Suddenly, Tina's eyebrows furrowed and not long after, she heard the female photographer who was shooting say, "Kit, you're still not in the right state. If you continue like this, the photos may not turn out well. I've told you before that the main theme of this poster is mystery, light, and darkness."

"Sorry!" Kit said with a tired expression.

"Take a break and let the makeup artist touch up your makeup," the female photographer said as she walked away.

The makeup artist came over to touch up Kit's makeup.

Zabulon walked over to the female photographer and greeted her.

Eugenia looked puzzled and asked, "I thought Kit did a great job earlier, why isn't the photographer satisfied?"

"Your attention was all on that face, anyway, no matter how Kit poses, you'll think it's great," Tina said. Although she is also a fan of Kit, she is not as extreme as Eugenia!

Before the photographer called a stop to the shoot, she had already noticed that Kit's performance was a bit off, as if he was exerting too much force.

"I was going to go up and say hello to him, but now it's awkward," Eugenia said regretfully.

After all, no idol wants to be seen by their own fans being criticized.

Chapter 4064

While the two were chatting, Zabulon suddenly walked over with his senior sister to Tina and Eugenia.

"Tina, can you help me with something?" Zabulon asked.

Tina was taken aback, "What do you need help with?"

"Well, since you haven't taken off your makeup yet, I want you to change your clothes and take a few photos with Kit to help him find his groove. Of course, since this is just a spur-of-the-moment idea, the client may not use the photos in the end, but if they do, you will be paid accordingly," his senior sister said.

Eugenia was even more excited than Tina when she heard this, looking at Tina with anticipation.

Tina knew that if she didn't agree, Eugenia might make this difficult for her.

"Okay," Tina agreed. After all, she also wanted to try what it feels like to shoot with her idol.

For her, it was also a fresh experience.

Tina was taken to change her clothes and the makeup artist touched up her makeup.

When everything was ready, she walked out and Eugenia was immediately impressed.

"Oh my god! Tina, you look...so handsome!" Especially with the wig, black shirt, and matching pants with red gem accents, it exuded a neutral beauty. "If you were a man, I would really be willing to be an enemy with Chandler! The enemy of the rival!"

Tina was speechless. "Okay, do you have to be so exaggerated?"

"It's really good-looking! It makes me so excited that my best friend is going to shoot with Kit!" Eugenia was still in an excited state.

Tina walked up to Kit. "Hello, Kit, we meet again!"

"You are..." Kit frowned, obviously not recognizing Tina.

He was only informed by his assistant that someone else would be shooting with him later.

He didn't really care who he was shooting with, after all, since his debut, he had countless experiences shooting with other models or celebrities.

But when he saw the person in front of him, he was stunned.

This person's temperament and makeup were very eye-catching, making it hard to look away.

"We met at the Reed family's wedding. You even gave me an autograph, remember?" Tina reminded him.

"Is it you? Miss Stephenson?" Kit said.

After all, Tina was the only one who asked for his autograph at that event.

But is this person in front of him really the same as Tina? It was hard for him to imagine.

"Yes, it's me!" Tina grinned. "I'm glad to be shooting with you today. I hope the rest of the shoot goes smoothly!"

"I hope we have a pleasant collaboration," Kit said in a formal tone.

Even if a rich young lady has the best makeup and styling, how good can the photos be if it's just a hobby?

Kit lowered his gaze, hiding the disdain that flashed in his eyes.

At this moment, in his eyes, Miss Stephenson probably bribed the photographer to shoot with him because she was a fan.

However, as the photographer said, "Let's begin!" Kit was suddenly stunned.

Chapter 4065

Because in that instant, the atmosphere around Tina changed completely.

If the original Tina, even with makeup, gave Kit a feeling of being naive and sweet, but at this moment, he suddenly wasn't so sure.

Was this woman in front of him really naive and sweet?

Why did she exude a dark feeling in that instant, like chaos in hell, giving people a shivering sensation?

But at the same time, while shivering, all eyes were drawn to her, making people unable to stop looking at her.

It was as if her every glance, every breath, every simple movement gave people a strong sense of presence, making the world in other people's eyes become her own!

Even when he came to his senses, he heard the photographer say, "Stop, Kit, what's wrong? Why can't you keep up with Tina's movements?!"

"Sorry!" Kit came back to his senses and said, he was distracted just now!

“Don’t worry about it. It’s our first time working together, and we haven’t gotten used to each other yet. I’ll cooperate with you in a bit.” Tina winked at Kit.

At this moment, in Kit’s eyes, she had become that silly and sweet girl again.

“No need, I’ll just cooperate with you!” Kit said. After all, he was a professional, and the girl in front of him was just a rich girl playing around.

“Oh, you’re willing to cooperate with me? That’s great!” For Tina, this was clearly a pleasant surprise!

So, when filming resumed, Tina immediately wrapped her arm around Kit’s waist.

Kit’s body stiffened, but he quickly suppressed his shock because he realized that Tina was really focused on the shoot and not trying to do anything inappropriate.

At the moment she wrapped her arm around him, her gaze turned cold as ice, fixed on the camera.

Their actions were flirtatious, but her eyes were colder than anyone else’s.

This stark contrast also stirred up Kit’s emotions.

At least he was a professional, and he couldn’t lose to this rich girl!

more apparent!

Between the two of them, there was an atmosphere that no outsider could penetrate, and everyone’s eyes were inevitably drawn to them.

When the photographer finally shouted “cut,” they stopped all movement, and everyone seemed to snap out of their trance.

“Thank you for shooting with me. It was a precious experience for me! I’ll continue to support you in the future!” Tina smiled at Kit.

Kit looked at the person in front of him, still a little dazed. He felt like he was still immersed in the shoot.

It was a thrilling feeling!

How long has it been since you felt this way while shooting a poster?

Every time he posed for a poster or a photo album before, he felt like a puppet that could be manipulated at will as soon as the camera was pointed at him.

But just now, he didn't feel that way!

Under the lights, Tina walked over and stood next to Eugenia, while Kit continued to shoot.

After shooting with Tina just now, Kit obviously found his rhythm and the shooting went smoothly!

Eugenia watched the shoot and whispered to Tina, "Do you know how amazing you were just now? You and Kit looked like a couple, and the scene we just shot was unforgettable!"

Her voice was full of excitement!

Chapter 4066

"A couple?" Tina rolled her eyes. "I was wearing men's clothing during the shoot!"

"That doesn't stop you from looking like a couple! Like two poles, but with an irresistible attraction to each other. It's simply indispensable! It's a pity that your shoot just now may not be selected. If it really becomes a poster, it will definitely cause a sensation!" Eugenia said.

"You're exaggerating!" Tina said.

"It's true!" Eugenia said confidently.

When Kit finished shooting, he found that it was already dark outside. When he turned around to search the studio, Tina was nowhere to be found.

"What are you looking for?" Kit's assistant asked.

"The person who was shooting with me just now, where did she go?" he asked.

"Oh, she left with her friend when you finished shooting," the assistant replied.

"She left?" Kit lowered his eyes and for some reason felt a faint sense of disappointment.

"But wasn't she supposed to be his fan?"

"Usually, if fans have the chance, they would wait until their idol finishes shooting and then come over to get noticed, and try to get closer to their idol, right?"

"But why didn't she do that?!"

"Is she really his fan?"

Tina hurriedly took Eugenia to a nearby mall.

"Hey, do we have to be in such a hurry? After Kit finishes shooting, at least let me go up and chat with him for a few minutes," Eugenia strongly expressed her dissatisfaction.

"Fine, if he has any fan meetings next time, I'll do my best to get two tickets and go in with you to meet him up close and let you chat with him, okay?" Tina said.

"That's more like it! But why did you bring me here?" Eugenia looked puzzled!

The floor they were on was the men's clothing section!

Even if they really wanted to go shopping, it should be the women's clothing section, right?

"Are you buying clothes for Chandler?" Eugenia guessed after thinking for a moment.

"No, I'm buying clothes for myself," Tina said.

"What? You bought men's clothing?"

"Yes."

Eugenia was a bit confused. "Why did you buy men's clothing for yourself? Do you have another shoot where you have to provide your own men's clothing?"

"It was your words just now that reminded me," Tina said. "Didn't you say that when I'm shooting with Kit, we look like a couple? And didn't you also speculate that Chandler might be interested in men, which is why he rejected me? So I thought, why not try wearing men's clothing and see if Chandler is interested."

"..." Eugenia felt like she couldn't keep up with her friend's thought process. "But what if Chandler is attracted to you in men's clothing?"

"Then when we're intimate in the future, I can dress up in men's clothing too!" Tina shrugged.

"You really are... um, open-minded!" Eugenia didn't want to ask how Tina wasn't worried about what would happen if Chandler really was only interested in men. Even if Tina could dress up like a man, she still wasn't a man!

Chapter 4067

"Hehe, help me pick out some good-looking clothes," Tina patted her friend's back.

"Picking out clothes is no problem, but if Chandler asks why you thought of using men's clothing to test him, please don't mention my name!" Eugenia reminded her. She didn't want to die young!

"No problem!" Tina readily agreed.

The two of them picked out clothes quickly, and as for the wig, Tina had bought some before for her previous shoots, so she just needed to go back and get them.

But as they were leaving the mall, Eugenia couldn't help but ask again, "Are you really planning to test Chandler?"

"Why else do you think I bought these?" Tina said.

Eugenia took a deep breath and solemnly patted her friend's shoulder. She had a thousand words to say, but in the end, it all boiled down to two words: "Take care!"

After returning home, Tina told her family that she was going to spend the night at Chandler's place again.

"Again? And what's in this big bag of yours?" Lina asked her daughter.

"Oh, it's props for the shoot. I'm taking them over and will tidy up while I'm there," Tina made up a reason on the spot.

"By the way, my daughter is getting more and more handsome. Remember to give me a copy of the photos you take of her!" Lina reminded her, knowing and supporting her daughter's cosplay photos.

She even dragged her husband, Hadwin, to take a set of cosplay photos because she thought her daughter looked so handsome in men's clothing. She kept saying that when she was young, she never thought of having Hadwin take more of these cosplay photos, which was a waste of his good figure and looks.

After "being forced" to take that set of cosplay photos, Hadwin sternly warned his daughter that it was okay to continue taking these cosplay photos in the future, but she must convince her mother not to let her father take any more cosplay photos!

For the sake of her hobby, Tina finally used her persuasive skills to convince her mother.

Of course, the most powerful argument she used to persuade her mother was, "Mom, if you really want Dad to cosplay those anime or movie characters, let him cosplay in the room for you. You can watch it alone, isn't that great? If you really want to take photos, just take them yourself. Why let others take them? Dad looks so good, aren't you afraid that others will covet him?"

Lina was finally convinced by her daughter, and they began a new "bedroom pleasure" with her husband.

Although Hadwin didn't like cosplay very much, he said he could accept it because of his wife's enthusiasm. After all, only his wife would see it, so he didn't feel embarrassed!

When Hadwin returned home at night, he learned from his wife that their daughter had gone to Chandler's place again.

"Again?" Hadwin frowned.

Even though their daughter and Chandler were engaged, and even though Chandler's family background was impeccable, as a father, he still had a feeling that his daughter was going to be taken advantage of.

"They're engaged, so it's not a big deal. Besides, Chandler knows his limits," Lina said, feeling very confident about her future son-in-law.

"Even if he knows his limits, he's still a man," Hadwin said.

As a man himself, he knew that sometimes, in the face of desire, self-control was not as strong as one might imagine.

Chapter 4068

"I thought you liked Chandler!" Lina said.

"I do appreciate him, but that's a different matter," Hadwin replied.

"But honey, Tina's not home tonight. Why don't we have some fun later?" Lina's eyes scanned her husband with "pa*sion".

When her daughter left today, the bag of clothes she took with her reminded her that she and her husband hadn't played COS together much lately. So she had ordered some costumes and headgear from the same TV shows and movies through a local courier, which should arrive soon.

She would put on a beautiful makeup for her husband later... Thinking of this, Lina's "anticipation" for the night became stronger!

On the other side, Chandler was stunned when he returned to his residence.

Standing in front of him was Tina, dressed in men's clothing, with short hair, looking like a delicate young man.

"Did you cut your hair?" Chandler asked.

"No, it's a wig," Tina replied, then walked up to Chandler, "What do you think?"

"Is this your next COS style?" he asked back.

"No, it's something special I wanted to show you," Tina raised her hands and wrapped them around Chandler's neck, "Do you like me like this?"

He squinted his eyes, "What do you mean?"

"Do you like me the way I am now or my usual self?" She asked him.

At this moment, the distance between the two was very close. Her breath sprayed lightly on his face, carrying a sweet scent.

In his mind flashed the memory of that night, when she was pressed against his body and his lips showered her with kisses.

Her moans, her breaths, and her reluctance...

Suddenly, Chandler's face turned red, feeling a certain reaction in his body, as if his blood was converging in one place.

"I...I'll go back to my room and change my clothes. Wait for me here," Chandler said, pushing Tina away and intending to go upstairs.

But Tina grabbed Chandler's hand first. "Your face is red, do you have a reaction to me?" she asked.

Her words were so direct, and her dark eyes were looking at him, clear and pure.

As if she was just innocently asking this question.

In that moment, Chandler suddenly felt embarrassed. "Let go first."

"Are you really attracted to men?" she asked surprisingly.

"What?" Chandler didn't react at first.

"Do you prefer men over women? So when I seduced you in my usual appearance, you had no reaction, but when I dressed like a man, you felt something, right?" Tina asked seriously.

Even though Chandler felt that he had experienced a lot in his life, he was still stunned for a while when faced with Tina's words. It took him a while to come back to his senses.

"Do you think I like men?" he said, with a faint blue vein. popping on his forehead.

"It's just...um, a speculation." She said, feeling a bit embarrassed.

Even though she's usually carefree, she could sense that he seemed...upset?

"So besides this speculation, do you have any other guesses?" He continued to ask.

"There's also...Sual frigidity." She said cautiously.

He stared at her, not saying a word.

Chapter 4069

Okay, every time he's like this, she always feels weak!

"You're not really angry, are you?" She asked.

"So you dressed up like this today just to test me?" He asked.

“Hehe.” She chuckled nervously, “Anyway, I know you’re probably not Sually frigid.”

“Take out the word ‘probably’!” Chandler said irritably, “And also, I’ll have feelings for you regardless of your gender, just because it’s you!”

“Just because of me?” Tina blinked.

“Yes, whether you’re a man or a woman, I’ll fall in love with you. So for me, it doesn’t matter what gender you are!” Chandler raised his hand and gently stroked Tina’s cheek, “Do you understand what I’m saying?”

“Oh.” She nodded, then suddenly exclaimed, “Do you love me? Do you really love me? No matter what I’m like, you love me?”

“Yes.” He said with absolute certainty, “So don’t do these kinds of tests again in the future. You’re still young, after we get married, you can do whatever you want.”

Getting married...

Tina was taken aback. According to the agreement between the Stephenson family and Hunter, she was supposed to marry Chandler after she graduated from college!

“Also, I need to go back to my family for a while to take care of some things. It might take a bit longer,” Chandler said.

“How long is a bit longer?”

“Probably around a month,” Chandler replied. A month should be enough time to take care of everything.

“A whole month?” Tina asked.

“Yes, be good and I’ll contact you when I get back!” Chandler said.

“Okay,” Tina agreed.

Hunter was from the Crypt family, his own family, and Tina had never been there before. Whenever Hunter went back to his family, all communication would be cut off. She couldn’t even reach him by phone until he left his family’s home.

To her, his family was a mysterious place.

“Okay, can I let go of your hand now?” Chandler asked.

Tina finally noticed that she had been holding onto Chandler’s wrist the whole time.

She thought for a moment and said to Chandler before letting go of his hand, “Chandler, I love you no matter what you look like!”

Yes, she loved him.

So when she heard him say that he loved her no matter what she looked like, she felt a warm and relieved feeling.

When she said those words, it felt so natural to her.

She loved him... She didn't know when it started, but it felt like it was meant to be!

They had an engagement, so if they loved each other, it would be the luckiest thing.

After she graduated, they would get married and be happy, just like her parents!

"No matter what I look like?" Chandler murmured, his expression not as happy as Tina expected, but rather complex and incomprehensible to her. "Tina, some things shouldn't be said too early, or else it will only raise expectations."

And if those expectations were shattered, it would only lead to deep pain!

Chapter 4070

"I'm not saying it too early. I know my feelings, so of course I have to say it!" Tina said.

"But do you know what my other looks are like?" he asked.

"I don't know, but I think I would love you no matter what. If you're worried, you can show me your other looks. I haven't seen them, so why do you think I'm saying it too early?" Tina retorted. "Also, I'm not young anymore. In two years, I can marry you!"

Chandler withdrew his hand, turned around, and faced away from Tina. "Maybe soon, you'll really see another side of me. Then, Tina, I hope what you said is true, that you'll love me no matter what I look like."

If that were true, then it must be heaven's mercy on him!

Although in the end, Tina didn't have S with Chandler, she understood her feelings.

She liked touching him, even looked forward to it.

Therefore, it can be proven that she loves him!

And Chandler loves her too, so that's enough.

It's a beautiful mutual affection!

However, the thought of Chandler returning to his hometown soon and being away for a month made Tina feel a little anxious.

Not being able to see him for a month and having no way to communicate, she would probably miss him a lot.

“What’s wrong? You’re sighing again,” Lina looked at her daughter’s listless appearance and asked.

“Mom, I also want to go to Chandler’s hometown with him,”

Tina said.

“What?” Lina was surprised, “Did Chandler invite you?”

“No, Chandler himself is going back, but this time he’ll be gone for a month. You know, once he’s back in his hometown, we can’t even call him, let alone video chat!” Tina said, “I mean, I’m his fiancée, it’s only right that I accompany him on a trip to his hometown.”

Tina had met some of Hunter’s elders before. On her 15th birthday, Hunter gave her many valuable gifts, and many of Hunter’s elders attended her birthday banquet.

Those valuable gifts, even though Tina had seen many precious things from childhood to adulthood, still made her unable to help but marvel.

Especially Hunter, who gave her a 15-carat Burmese ruby necklace, which is priceless!

But it also shows how much Hunter values her!

At 15 years old, it is the age of a girl’s coming of age, which means that after this, she can get married!

Due to current laws, women must be at least 18 years old to get married. Therefore, her 15th birthday party was more like an engagement party between her and Chandler.

“Hunter is very mysterious. If they didn’t invite you, don’t think too much about it. Chandler will bring you there in the future,” Lina said.

“Mom, why did Chandler want me to marry him in the future?” Tina asked. “Do you know the reason? Chandler always said he would tell me the reason later.”

“I know almost the same as you,” Lina said. “Your father made a promise with Chandler to save me. Later, your father spent a lot of effort investigating Hunter, but all the information he could find was superficial. Hunter is very mysterious. When your father sent someone to investigate Hunter’s family, Hunter found out and almost didn’t let them come back. The relationship between the two families almost broke down.”

Lina still shudders when she thinks about that time.

“What happened? Mom, please tell me!” Tina suddenly became interested. This was something she had never known before!
