

Ex Convict 4111

Chapter 4111

Tina nervously closed her mouth and frantically tried to think of an excuse to get out of it.

But Hadwin obviously didn't give his daughter time to come up with an excuse, and looked directly at Chandler, "Did you do something to Tina?"

Chandler met Hadwin's gaze, "I..."

"No...no, Chandler didn't do anything to me." Tina quickly interrupted.

Hadwin, who was rarely angry, shouted at his daughter, "I didn't ask you, I asked him!"

"Yes, I did." Chandler gave a simple and straightforward answer.

The air suddenly seemed to freeze, and Hadwin suddenly rushed forward, grabbing Chandler's collar, "Is this how you treat the Stephenson family's trust? I trusted you to be with Tina, she's only a few years old, and you're treating her like this. You're not even married yet! Have you thought about the consequences of this?"

Tina and Lina looked at Hadwin's angry expression, both dumbfounded.

But fortunately, they were mother and daughter, and their tacit understanding was enough. They both rushed forward without saying a word, one pulling her husband back, and the other squeezing in between her father and fiancé, trying hard to separate the two.

"Husband, calm down first, and figure out what's going on. Chandler is someone we've watched grow up, he's not that kind of person!" Lina helped her future son-in-law,

"How can I calm down about something like this!" Hadwin said angrily.

He cherished his precious daughter, who was already 20 years old, but in his eyes, she was still a little girl. Even though she had been engaged to Chandler for many years, to Hadwin, it was just an engagement.

They hadn't even set a date for the wedding yet!

But today, he suddenly discovered that his carefully nurtured daughter had been taken away by someone else without his knowledge. How could he not be angry?

Just then, Tina shouted at her father, "Dad, you've got it all wrong. Yes, Chandler and I had S, but I forced him to do it! He didn't want to, but I made him!"

The air froze once again.

Hadwin, who had been full of anger just a moment ago, almost couldn't catch his breath after hearing his daughter's words.

Lina, on the other hand, looked at her daughter with interest. "You took the initiative?"

"Yeah." Although Tina was usually carefree, she blushed when talking about this kind of thing with her parents.

"You're my daughter after all. When you need to take the initiative, you should take it!" Lina patted her daughter's shoulder.

Tina was delighted. Her mother's words meant that she was being supported and that her mother was on her side!

"Lina, how could you say that!" Hadwin was unhappy.

"You heard it yourself. It was Tina who took the initiative. Don't blame Chandler." Lina was still very satisfied with her future son-in-law.

"If a man refuses, how can a woman take the initiative? He could have refused!" Hadwin blamed Chandler for not refusing.

In any case, it was all Chandler's fault!

And his precious daughter was just an innocent little white rabbit!

Lina was puzzled. Her usually steady husband was acting like a stubborn child.

"Then why didn't you refuse my advances back then?"

With Lina's shout, the room fell silent again.

Chapter 4112

Finally, Hadwin shut his mouth and stopped talking.

Lina took command and said to her daughter and future son-in-law, "You two, sit down first before you speak!"

Tina and Chandler obediently sat back in their seats.

Lina then asked, "You two aren't married yet. What if you get pregnant?" It was a very practical question.

Tina couldn't help but think to herself that she actually wanted to get pregnant!

But she couldn't answer like that in front of her mother, so she said, "I will take responsibility!"

"What responsibility will you take?" Hadwin glared at his disappointing daughter.

Tina's shoulders couldn't help but shrink, but she persisted, "Of course, I will take responsibility for marrying Chandler as soon as possible!"

"You're still in college!" Hadwin said.

"You can still get married while in college!" Tina muttered, after all, there are people who get married while in college!

Chandler spoke up, "There won't be anything like this happening again before Tina and I get married. As for the wedding date, it's up to the Stephenson family. If Tina is willing marry me, I will take good care of her for the rest of my life. If Tina doesn't want to, I will still bless her and won't force her!"

to marry

Chandler naturally understood Hadwin's concerns because he had the same worries.

He was afraid that Tina was too young and might not be able to distinguish her feelings.

He was afraid that she might mistake their years of companionship for love and regret the marriage if she met someone she truly loved after getting married.

After hearing Chandler's words, Hadwin's expression eased, "Can Hunter agree to what you said?"

"You don't have to worry about Hunter. I can make the decision!" Chandler said directly.

Tina was angry and stared at Chandler, "Chandler, do you still think I will regret getting married to you? Do you really not trust my feelings?"

"Tina, I just..."

Tina suddenly stood up and walked to Chandler, who was still sitting in his chair. She looked down at him and said, "Although I'm eight years younger than you, I know my own feelings. I know who I want to spend the rest of my life with. Your constant search for a way out only makes me feel that you are not the one who loves me enough!"

After saying this, she turned to her parents and said, "Mom and Dad, whether I marry Chandler or not, I will have his child. There will be a child of Chandler and me in this world, and you will be grandparents no matter what!"

After speaking, she didn't look at anyone's reaction and went straight upstairs.

Hadwin and Lina were surprised. What did she mean? Did she want to have a child even if they didn't get married?

"Is Tina really not pregnant?" Hadwin stared at Chandler and began to suspect that his daughter was already pregnant.

Lina quickly said, "I'll confirm it later. Don't be angry. Chandler has made everything clear, and he has given the decision-making power to the Stephenson family."

Lina was still very satisfied with her future son-in-law!

He is willing to take responsibility, but he won't force Tina. On the contrary, his own daughter is more willful!

Only Chandler understands the true meaning behind Tina's words just now!

She was telling him that no matter what, she will save him, right?!

Chapter 4113

Tina is sulking in her room. Although she understands that by saying what he did, Chandler has given her the power to choose, and he will accept whatever decision she makes.

But she is still angry.

She would rather he be a little selfish, rather he say that he will never let go, and that he must marry her no matter what!

Doesn't he know that if she gives birth to his child, it can save his life?! Why won't he be a little selfish?!

Does he really love her? Or... does he love her a little, but not enough?!

After a while, there was a knock on the door. Moments later, Lina walked in.

As soon as she entered the room, she saw her daughter lying on the bed, looking unhappy.

A mother knows her daughter best. Lina approached and said, "Is it because of what Chandler said just now?"

"Yes!" Tina replied. "I feel like my feelings for Chandler are growing stronger and stronger, but he still treats me like he did when we were kids!"

"But Tina, you have to understand that in this world, being consistent is not an easy thing to do!" Lina touched her daughter's head and said, "Moreover, in my opinion, Chandler loves you too much, that's why he said that."

"Too much love?" Tina looked at her mother in confusion.

Lina smiled, "Everyone has a different personality. Some people love someone so much that they want to tie that person to themselves and don't allow them to have feelings for anyone else. But there are also people who are afraid of their own love becoming a burden to the other person. They want to give the other person enough freedom and are willing to silently endure the pain to make the other person happy."

"So, Mom, are you saying that Chandler is the latter type of person?" Tina asked.

"You understand me well."

"But I don't want him to give me any choice. I love him, and he loves me. So what if we get married earlier? He should have told Dad loudly just now that he wants to marry me, right away!" Tina said.

In this relationship, she felt more and more like she was the one taking the initiative, and he was just accepting it.

If one day she stopped taking the initiative, would their relationship go back to the way it was before?

"Maybe it's because of the age difference between Chandler and you. You are eight years apart, and often have different perspectives on things. And Chandler was born into a big family like Hunter's, so he has always been more restrained," Lina said.

When she first saw Chandler, she thought he was more mature than other kids his age.

It was like he was hiding all his thoughts and emotions deep inside!

He treated everyone the same, except for Tina.

At that time, Tina was just a baby, but she seemed to evoke some different emotions in him, making him smile and look like a kid his age!

Later, Chandler's expressions in front of Tina became more and more frequent, which made Lina gradually think that maybe it wasn't such a bad thing for these two kids to be engaged.

Chapter 4114

"Tina, if you really love Chandler, then get to know this man better! Instead of listening to what others say about his feelings. for you, use your own heart to feel it! You're already 20 years old, and in my opinion, not that young anymore. Only your dad and Chandler still treat you like a child," Lina said.

Thinking back to her own time, she was only two years older than her daughter, but she fell in love with her husband at first sight and even had S with him!

Thinking back, if I hadn't taken the initiative with Hadwin, maybe they wouldn't have had any future together.

“Mom, do you really think I’m not a child?” Tina asked her mother.

“Well, whatever decision you make, I’ll support you. Even if you want to have a child, I’ll support you,” Lina smiled and said. “But before you have a child, you need to ask yourself if you’re ready to be a mother! And also, if the child is born, will they be happy? If everything is okay, then I’ll support you in having the child.”

“So it doesn’t matter if I have a child out of wedlock?” Tina asked.

“It doesn’t matter, as long as the child is born out of ‘love’,” Lina said.

Tina widened her eyes and couldn’t help but exclaim, “Mom, you’re so open-minded. If that day really comes, please help me deal with Dad!”

Otherwise, she was afraid that the day she had a child out of wedlock, her father would beat Chandler to the point where he couldn’t get up in the hospital!

“Of course, Mom will help you deal with it, but...” Lina paused and looked at her daughter’s flat stomach. “Tell Mom, are you really pregnant?”

“No,” Tina said. “But I really want to get pregnant soon and have Chandler’s child.”

“Even if you like children, there’s no need to be in such a hurry,” Lina said. But then again, her daughter didn’t seem to show any particular liking for children before!

So she wanted to have a child as soon as possible to make Chandler no longer suffer!

Since the day of the Stephenson family’s trial, Tina hadn’t seen Chandler for a few days.

Of course, on the one hand, Tina had been busy avoiding gossip lovers.

Ever since her scandal with Kit made headlines, even though the news was later retracted and both Kit and the Ste family released statements, it seemed like everything to normal.

However, there were still plenty of gossip enthusiasts who would find her and even take pictures of her without permission, despite her warnings.

So Tina could only try to avoid these people as much as possible, and hope that after some time, when the hype died down, they would disperse.

But she never expected that while trying to avoid the gossip enthusiasts, she would run into Kit again.

It was quite a coincidence, as Eugenia asked her if she wanted to go to the film and television city over the weekend.

In the film and television city, there were many filming crews, and if you were lucky, you might run into the filming crew of your favorite celebrity and even get a signed photo with them.

Eugenia, who was a fan of celebrities, had been to the film and television city several times and had even run into the filming crew of her favorite celebrity.

As a result, she was even more eager to go to the film and television city.

Tina thought that since she had free time on the weekend, it would be good to go to the film and television city to relax.

Moreover, she wanted to sort out her relationship with Chandler and figure out her next steps.

Chapter 4115

She wanted to have the baby soon, but why did she still feel a hint of unease?

Was it because Chandler was too selfless in his feelings for her? He always put the choice in front of her, as if he could accept it whether she wanted him or not.

But this made her confused about his feelings for her, and she couldn't figure out how much he really cared."

When they arrived at the film and television city, Tina and Eugenia strolled around, and Eugenia took out the guide she made online. After all, you could find out which filming crews were in the film and television city with a little effort online.

Of course, not everyone can manage to do this "put in some effort".

Take Eugenia for example, she has around 10 fan groups at her fingertips. She filters out all the information, big and small, and combines it with news and posts she finds online to determine that there are three crews filming in the film and television city today.

Although visitors are not allowed to approach the filming location of the crew, it's still nice to take a distant look at the filming scene. What's more important is that, with permission, you can get closer when the actors are on break!

"Unfortunately, Kit's crew isn't filming here today. They were here a few days ago, but not today...sigh!" Eugenia expressed her regret. Although she is a fan, she is not so obsessed that would skip school to come and see him.

Tina, on the other hand, is relieved that Kit's crew isn't here. Otherwise, how would she face Kit?

The online gossip is so lively that many people directly assume that she is pregnant with Kit's child!

Speaking of which, this gossip has had quite an impact on Kit's reputation.

For stars like Kit, even if the scandal is unfounded, it still has a negative impact on them!

Tina has decided that if this scandal causes Kit to lose any endorsements or advertisements, she will have Kit come and do an advertisement and endorsement for White Maple Group.

After all, Kit is already good-looking and has many fans. Moreover, he is involved in this scandal because of her, so her father should agree, right?

At this moment, Tina has forgotten to consider that if Kit really does an advertisement and endorsement for White Maple Group, there may be more scandals in the future!

"Even if Kit's crew isn't filming here, we can still watch other crews filming, right?" Tina is still interested in watching crews

When her mother was a fan, she took Tina to the set before, of course, with her father.

But because her father was there, everyone on the set was nervous, even her mother's idol, who was trembling and calling them "Mr. Stephenson, Mrs. Stephenson..."

So later on, her mother didn't go to the set much!

"Hey, that crew over there, it seems to be...Kit's crew! I see several actors who are part of his crew!" Eugenia's voice suddenly brought Tina back from her daydream.

"Didn't you say his crew wasn't filming at the studio today?" Tina asked.

"That's what the information online said, but...looking at it now, it should be his crew from 'The Game of Thrones'," Eugenia pointed to the left.

Chapter 4116

Tina followed her friend's finger and saw a film crew shooting a period drama. The two actors being filmed were quite famous.

As for Kit joining the "Game of Thrones" crew, it was a recent development. According to online rumors, the actor originally cast as the third male lead suddenly resigned due to personal reasons, so Kit was brought in as a last-minute replacement.

"It seems like it really is the 'Game of Thrones' crew, but just because the crew is here doesn't mean Kit is," Tina said. After all, a film crew is usually divided into two groups, A and B, which may be filming in different locations.

"Hey, it looks like Kit is really here!" Eugenia's voice suddenly became very excited, and she pulled Tina and said, "Look, that nanny car is Kit's car. He should be in the car!"

Tina took a closer look at the nanny car and confirmed that it was indeed Kit's. The last time she was rumored to be dating Kit, he was in this car!

“Oh my god, this is too lucky. We can actually see Kit today! It’s so worth it!” Eugenia shouted, “When they take a break later, let’s go ask for autographs and photos. Do you think they’ll give them to us?”

Eugenia was already thinking about what to do next, but Tina raised the collar of her jacket and pulled down the sun hat on her head.

She couldn’t let anyone recognize her here!

Otherwise, the rumors about her and Kit that had just died down a few days ago would resurface if she was recognized near the “Game of Thrones” crew.

Unfortunately, at that moment, the door of the nanny car opened, and a figure walked out.

It was Kit!

Tina recognized him at a glance.

However, Kit looked different from usual. He was wearing a black robe with golden totem embroidery, and a silver-white headband on his head. He looked colder and more beautiful than in modern clothes, with a hint of feminine charm.

It must be said that Kit’s outfit was very eye-catching.

Eugenia, who was beside Tina, exclaimed excitedly, “Wow, he’s so handsome! Oh my god, he’s even more handsome than the male lead in this movie. I bet that when the TV series airs, just with this look, he’ll be the talk of the town!”

It wasn’t just Eugenia who praised Kit’s look today. Tina noticed that there were many other girls around the set who were chattering and shouting. Some girls even took out their phones to take pictures, but they were stopped by the crew members.

Tina looked at Kit in front of the nanny car. Because of her high position, she was looking down at him.

It must be said that ancient costumes really suit him.

His ancient costume reminded her of the first time she saw him on screen in an ancient costume.

Just as Tina was thinking, suddenly, Kit in front of the nanny car seemed to feel something and looked in Tina’s direction.

In an instant, their eyes met.

Kit frowned slightly, and his gaze seemed to see through her.

“Kit looked over here! Tina, do you think Kit recognized you?” Eugenia said.

As Kit looked up in her direction, the other girls who were paying attention to Kit around the set also looked over at her.

Danger!

Can't be recognized!

“I...I need to go to the bathroom first.” Tina found an excuse and hurried away.

1/3

In the bathroom, Tina looked at herself in the mirror above the sink. She wore a sun hat on her head, and the raised collar of her shirt covered her chin. It can be said that most of her face was covered.

Looking at her from such a distance, can Kit really recognize her?

Suddenly, someone else entered the restroom, and Tina instinctively hid in a stall.

Along with the sound of footsteps, came the voices of the newcomers, “Kit's look in this drama is really good. Maybe he'll become even more popular after the show airs.”

“But he's just an idol singer, we don't know how good his acting skills are.”

“But his looks are enough, right?”

“But speaking of it, how did Kit end up with that Tina? Although Tina looks good in her male dress-up photos, didn't Kit say that his ideal type is a petite and cute girl?”

“Oh, what ideal type? Money can change everything. Tina is the Stephenson family's young lady, and the White Maple Group is worth so much. Although Kit's family background is not bad, it can't compare to the Stephenson family. If the Stephenson family's young lady likes me, I'm willing!”

Tina was sweating profusely as she listened. Come on, she had no intention of developing a lesbian relationship!

“But I heard that Kit has a homoSual tendency, so that's why he's involved in a scandal with Tina. After all, since his debut, he hasn't had any scandals with women, and although Tina is a woman, the photos she took are quite androgynous. Some people even believe that she's a pretty boy!”

Hey hey! Tina was even more nervous now. Did they just transition the topic directly to homoSuality?

Tina really wanted to jump out and tell those two girls who were discussing that there was absolutely no ambiguity between her and Kit, so they didn't have to think in the direction of homoSuality!

Finally, when the voices gradually faded away, Tina walked out of the stall and took a deep breath before leaving the restroom,

Unfortunately, she hadn't walked a few steps when she brushed past several women who were entering the restroom. Then, the voice of a woman sounded, "Hey, that person just now looked a bit like Tina!"

"Who's Tina?"

"The one who's involved in a scandal with Kit!"

Upon hearing this, Tina quickened her pace, but then she heard hurried footsteps behind her.

Oh no, could it be that these people are chasing after confirm if she really is Tina?

Tina decided to run as fast as she could!

In any case, she couldn't be recognized here. Otherwise, there would be another round of gossip and scandal, and she would have to face her parents' interrogation again. And what about Chandler? Would he misunderstand her again?

However, Tina was not familiar with this area of the film and television city, so she was running around like a headless fly!

Just as she was about to run into a dead end, a hand suddenly reached out and pulled her to the side!

Tina was startled and was about to struggle, but then a familiar voice rang out, "It's me!"

She then realized that the person who had just grabbed her was Kit.

Meanwhile, the people who were chasing after her had not noticed them squeezed into this hidden crevice and had run past them.

Chapter 4118

"Thank you..." Tina gasped, but even though Kit had helped her, if someone had seen the two of them squeezed into such a narrow space, she didn't know what kind of scandal would be spread.

"Why were people chasing after you?" Kit asked.

“Hehe...” Tina gave a dry laugh. “Those people seem to have recognized me as the person who was rumored to be with you.”

Tina didn’t need to explain the rest, as Kit already understood.

“Wait here,” Kit said, taking out his phone and dialing a number, then telling the person on the other end their current location.

After the call ended, Tina couldn’t help but ask, “What about you? Aren’t you filming?”

“It’s not my turn yet,” Kit replied.

“Oh...” she muttered, then said to him, “Your look is great. If you act well, you’ll definitely leave a deep impression on people. Keep it up! I’ll support you!”

The second half of her statement was pure encouragement from a fan to her idol.

Kit had heard these words of encouragement many times before, but hearing them from Tina’s mouth gave him a different feeling.

He couldn’t quite explain why this was different, even to himself.

Tina looked around and saw that no one was passing by, so she decided to try to leave through the narrow gap.

“Wait a minute,” Kit suddenly grabbed her hand. “My people will be here to pick us up soon.”

“Pick us up?” she asked, confused.

“Otherwise, what? You’ll be stuck here and chased again later?” Kit asked in response.

“But if I stay here with you now and we’re discovered, it’ll be even harder to explain,” she said. They were standing very close to each other, and a slight movement could cause them to touch.

Kit pursed his lips tightly. “Are you afraid of being involved in a scandal with me? Because you’re afraid your fiancé will misunderstand?”

Tina quickly said, “No, it’s not that. Aren’t you celebrities afraid of being involved in scandals? It would be detrimental to your career. As for Chandler, he won’t misunderstand. He’s not the type of person to jump to conclusions!”

But her words seemed to block something in his heart.

She spoke so openly about trust and mutual reliance between her and her fiancé, as if they were completely devoted to each other.

Just then, someone ran over and Tina immediately became nervous.

"It's my a*sistant, don't worry," Kit said.

"Kit, are you okay?" the person asked.

"I'm fine. Where's the thing you brought?" Kit asked.

"Oh, here it is," the a*sistant said, pulling out a large cloak and glancing at Tina.

Tina recognized it as a costume prop from the set.

Kit and Tina walked out of the narrow gap and Kit draped the cloak over Tina's head, covering her almost entirely.

"What's this for?" she asked.

"The nanny car is right up ahead. Let's get in first," Kit said.

Huh? Tina was stunned. She didn't expect Kit's a*sistant to have brought the nanny car here. When she got in the car with Kit, she still couldn't believe it.

She...actually got into Kit's nanny car. This is the dream of so many fans!

"I still have a few scenes to shoot today. After we're done, I'll take you back," Kit said.

When the car arrived near the filming location, Kit got out of the nanny car and couldn't help but glance at it again.

Why did he bring Tina into the car? He could have found a better solution if he didn't want the rumors about them to escalate, but he...

Chapter 4119

When he stepped out of the nanny car today and looked up to see her, something seemed to slowly spiral out of control.

Bringing her onto the nanny car and keeping her there was just to prevent her from being photographed today at the film studio, to avoid further rumors from spreading, right?

"Kit, are you ready? We're about to start shooting," the a*sistant director said.

Kit gathered his thoughts. He shouldn't be thinking about anything else right now. All he had to do was focus on the shoot, This was his first step into a new field. He could only succeed, not fail!

At this moment, Tina was still in the nanny car, watching everything inside. The a*sistant got out of the car with Kit, leaving only her inside.

Wasn't Kit afraid that she would mess with things inside the nanny car? Tina thought to herself.

Was this... the trust of an idol towards their fan?

The gla*s on both sides of the nanny car was covered with a special film. You could see outside from inside, but you couldn't see inside from outside.

So Tina could see the outside scene through the gla*s, but unfortunately, she couldn't see the filming scene outside!

Just then, Eugenia called, "Tina, where are you? You've been in the bathroom for too long."

Tina was sweating profusely. So much had happened that she almost forgot Eugenia was still waiting for her!

"Something happened earlier, and now I'm in Kit's nanny car," Tina didn't hide anything from her good friend.

Eugenia was someone she could trust!

"What?" Eugenia was extremely surprised. "How did you end up in Kit's nanny car?"

Tina explained the whole situation to Eugenia.

"So, he's worried that someone might take a picture of you coming here, and it would make things even more complicated between you two," muttered Eugenia.

"That's probably it," Tina said. "But in the nanny car, we couldn't see anything that was being filmed. I really wish I could see it!" Tina felt a great sense of regret.

It was such a rare opportunity to be so close to the filming location, but she couldn't see anything.

"Wait a minute!" Eugenia said, ending the call.

Before Tina could react, Eugenia called back on video and aimed her phone at the filming location.

Because it was a long distance, there were many things that couldn't be seen clearly, but at least it was better than just sitting bored in the nanny car.

Tina chatted with Eugenia while watching the "live broadcast" on her phone until the door of the nanny car opened and Kit walked in.

"What are you doing?" Kit asked.

"Uh, just having a video call with a friend," Tina said, but she deliberately adjusted the phone camera so it wasn't facing Kit.

Eugenia, on the other hand, heard Kit's voice and immediately exclaimed, "It's Kit! I saw him get on the nanny car just now! Can I talk to Kit?"

Because Tina was using the speakerphone, Kit naturally heard all of this.

Tina looked at Kit awkwardly. "My friend wants to talk to you. Is that okay? You've met her before, it's Eugenia. You even took a photo with her and gave her an autograph. She's your loyal fan, and she's here with me today!"

Tina was afraid that Kit would refuse Eugenia.

After all, Eugenio is an even bigger fan of Kit than she is

Chapter 4120

"Sure, no problem!" Kit readily agreed.

Tina turned the camera towards Kit, who greeted Eugenia on the other end of the video, "Hello Eugenia, nice to see you again, I remember you!"

Eugenia immediately showed an extremely happy expression!

Oh my god, Kit remembers her! Her efforts in being a fan weren't in vain! "Kit, keep up the good work! I have confidence in you and I'll promote your new drama as much as I can at school!"

"Thank you!" Kit smiled and said, "But I'm a bit busy today, I still have to continue filming. If there's a chance next time, I'll treat you and Tina to a meal."

Eugenia's expression was even more exaggerated, "Eat a meal together...?"

"Yes, you wouldn't refuse, would you?" Kit said, but his gaze went beyond the phone screen and towards Tina, who was holding the phone.

Tina was also surprised, she didn't expect Kit to take the initiative to invite them to eat together in the future?

Or maybe... it was just a polite remark?

"Of course we'll accept!" Eugenia said excitedly.

In no time, Kit left the nanny car to continue filming.

By the time filming was over, it was already several hours later.

"Let me take you back now." Kit said, "What about your friend, do you want me to drop her off too?"

"Oh, no need. I've already sent my driver to take her home," Tina said. She regretted not knowing earlier that Kit was planning to take Eugenia home, or else she would have asked Eugenia to wait a bit longer.

Tina wondered if Eugenia would be angry with her if she found out about this tomorrow.

As the nanny car slowly left the film and television city, Kit asked casually, "You and your friend are very close?"

"Yeah," Tina smiled. "Eugenia is a lovely person and very sincere to others."

"How long have you known her?" Kit asked again.

"More than two years," Tina replied.

"Such a short time... You seem to be very trusting of people," he said.

"Well, I'm not the type to easily trust others," Tina muttered, the in thought for a moment and said, "I should say I instincts."

"Instincts?" he was surprised.

"Yes, instincts. Like who can become a friend and who can't have side conversations. In this regard, my instincts are very accurate!" Tina said.

"Does your instinct view me?" he asked, his beautiful blue eyes staring straight at her.

Tina's gaze at this moment seemed to contain something else, making her unable to understand.

else,

"I think you're pretty good person, hardworking, pure, and honest!" Tina said, shaking off the doubts in her heart. You're handsome and good-looking, and your songs are great so that's why I decided to become your fan!"

"Is that so?" Kit smiled happily to have a fan like you."

Pure and honest? Tina looked at her smiling face, and it seemed that her instincts were always accurate after all!

Actually, he's not pure, he's just trying hard to make himself more "valuable".

Because the more valuable promises are likely to be abandoned!
