

Ex Convict 4151

Chapter 4151 Found

1/4

"Where are the keys?" Kit, however, had no intention of explaining the red mark on his face. He just stretched out his hand and asked the manager for the keys to the warehouse.

The manager quickly took out the keys, and Kit swiftly opened the door to the warehouse, then found his nameplate.

Underneath his nameplate were piles of gifts from his fans that hadn't been dealt with.

However, they were in a messy arrangement and it was impossible to tell what they were.

Kit walked quickly, starting to search through them one by one, looking for the talisman he remembered.

"What are you looking for?" the manager asked, puzzled.

Kit ignored his words and continued searching.

Finally, the talisman from his memory came into his view, but it was older than he remembered, and because of poor preservation, it looked dirty.

However, at this moment, Kit held the inconspicuous talisman in his palm as if it were a precious treasure.

"Is this the talisman you were looking for?" the manager asked, "Is it very important?"

"Yes, very important," Kit muttered.

This was the amulet Tina gave him. Luckily, he didn't lose it. Luckily... it's still here!

2/4

After leaving the company, Kit returned to his apartment with the amulet.

As soon as he entered, he saw his father already in the apartment, clearly waiting for him.

"Haha, my son, I knew you would listen to me," Edmond's mood was clearly good. As soon as he saw Kit, he approached with a smile and patted his son's shoulder.

Kit frowned.

Edmond continued, "I heard you signed a big contract today, and the resources are from the Stephenson family's daughter. I knew it, that girl is easy to please. As long as you make her happy, the resources will keep pouring in. But you have to be careful, after all, her fiancé is Chandler."

Edmond was clearly pleased with his son signing this big contract.

3/4

Kit's eyes flickered slightly. He didn't expect his father to already know about the signing today.

"This is the only one Tina gave me, and it's the last resource," he said.

"What?" Edmond was taken aback.

"She told me she won't give me any other resources in the future." Because this resource was hard for her to obtain.

"What's going on? Did you do something to make her angry?" Edmond's face changed.

Kit remained silent. Yes, he did make Tina angry today! Angry enough to even lay hands on him.

She had always cared for him, helped him, encouraged him, and showed him warmth.

She was like an enthusiastic fan to him, but to him, she was more than just a fan. It seemed that unconsciously, she had entered his world and became increasingly vivid and important to him.

Seeing his son silent, Edmond became even angrier. "You've already offended Mr. Perkins. If you offend Miss Stephenson again, what do you think will happen to your future? If no one gives you resources, in the end, you'll just be a washed-up star that no one cares about! Do you really want to live a life of poverty again? Don't think that just because you're my son, you'll get my money!"

Kit sneered. He always knew that his father only saw him as a tool and never truly regarded him as a son.

Chapter 4152 Unexpected Happening

"Alright, I understand," Kit said calmly.

Edmond was taken aback. "What do you understand?"

"I understand that even if I become poor and a washed-up star in the future, I won't spend a single cent of my father's money. So, father, you can rest assured. Even if my future is difficult, I won't burden you," he said.

"You—" Edmond was so angry that he trembled all over. He lifted his foot and kicked Kit in the stomach.

Kit groaned in pain, clutching his stomach, and stumbled to the ground.

1/4

“Boy, let me tell you, you’re not yet strong enough! I’ll pretend I didn’t hear what you said today, but remember to please Miss Stephenson in the future. Otherwise, go and please Mr.

Perkins for me again!” After saying this, Edmond left without looking back.

Kit scrambled to his feet from the ground and pulled out the amulet from his pocket.

Chapter 4152 Unexpected Happening

Staring blankly at the amulet, he let out a bitter smile and pressed it against his chest.

2/4

How much longer would it take for him to break free from his father? To truly live?

If Tina knew that her idol lived like this, would she be even more disappointed?

Every time he got closer to her, the harsh reality only made him feel more inferior.

And this sense of inferiority deepened over time...

Tina arrived at Chandler’s company, which surprised him.

It wasn’t her sudden arrival without any greetings that surprised him, but her obvious low spirits.

“What’s wrong? What happened?” he asked as he approached her.

Tina suddenly hugged Chandler tightly, burying her face in his chest.

“Huh?” Chandler looked down at the person in his arms.

“Let me stay like this for a while,” she whispered softly. The uncomfortable feelings caused by Kit seemed to gradually calm down only when she held Chandler like this.

3/4

It had become an unconscious habit over the years. It was as if he had become her emotional stabilizer.

Just then, the office door was forcefully pushed open and someone barged in. “Mr. Hunter, there’s an incident at the Downtown factory...”

However, upon seeing the two embracing each other, the person immediately closed their mouth.

Chandler furrowed his brow but didn't push Tina away.

Instead, Tina felt a bit embarrassed and voluntarily released her hold, no longer clinging to him in front of his subordinates.

"Why didn't you knock?" Chandler said coldly.

"I was in a hurry and forgot," the subordinate said. "There's been a fire accident at the Downtown factory. The fire truck has already been dispatched, but the situation is still unclear."

Chandler's expression changed. "How bad is the fire?"

"Not optimistic."

Just those four words made Chandler realize that this fire incident was no small matter.

4/4

"I need to rush to the Downtown factory now," Chandler turned to Tina and said, "I'm sorry, I can't accompany you. After I handle the fire situation, I'll come back tonight and hear what happened, alright?"

"I'll go with you!" Tina said.

"No, it's not possible. There's a fire happening over there, and in case of any sudden emergencies..."

"But won't you also encounter unexpected situations?"

Regardless, I want to go with you," Tina said. "Just like how you worry about me, I also worry about you!"

Chapter 4153 Accompanying

So she wanted to accompany him!

Chandler stared at Tina for a while and finally nodded.

"Alright."

Soon, Tina and Chandler got into the car and hurriedly headed towards Downtown with other executives from the company.

Upon reaching their destination, Tina saw the towering flames from the car.

Firefighters were continuously extinguishing the fire, rushing into the fire scene one by one, while high-pressure water hoses sprayed water onto the flames.

Tina stood beside Chandler, nervously watching the scene in front of her. The people who had been rescued kept crying out that there were still people inside.

They could be their friends or relatives!

Tina knew that in these factories, many people came from out of town to work in Emerald City, either coming together as a family or being brought by relatives from the same place.

But at this moment, a fire had put them in a situation where they might face separation by life and death at any moment.

Unable to resist, Tina turned her head and looked at Chandler beside her.

At this moment, Chandler was attentively observing the situation on the scene, giving instructions to his subordinates on how to handle various aftermath tasks, including closely monitoring the injured who were urgently taken to the hospital and arranging their rooms for recovery.

For those who appeared to have serious injuries, he directly arranged for them to be sent to the best burn unit hospital in the city.

Even in the face of such a disaster, the people around were all panicked, but his presence was like a lighthouse that could dispel that despair.

Fortunately, he didn't come to this factory today!

Tina didn't know that sometimes Chandler would come to this side of the factory to inspect it! If he had come to the factory today and got trapped in the fire, then...

Tina looked at the flames still leaping, thinking that if he were inside, she would rush in.

Even though she knew that maybe she should trust the firefighters and wait outside for the outcome, it might be the best option.

But... human emotions are often uncontrollable. Just waiting might be something she couldn't do!

"Why are you looking at me like that?" Chandler's voice suddenly interrupted Tina's trance.

She snapped out of it and realized that he had turned to look.
at her at some point.

"I just realized how important it is for you to be safe and sound!" she murmured.

After the fire was completely extinguished, some of the company's executives who came with Chandler, along with firefighters, were carrying out post-fire cleanup at the scene.

Chandler planned to go to the hospital to learn about the condition of the injured.

The only relief was that although the fire was large, there were currently no reported deaths.

Tina accompanied Chandler to the hospital, where they saw the injured patients, some of whom were undergoing surgery.

After Chandler learned about the condition of the injured.

individuals, he assigned someone to stay at the hospital to handle matters, and instructed the company to allocate funds for their treatment.

Tina watched as Chandler carefully arranged everything. Only a person like him could give a sense of reassurance.

It was as if he would bear the brunt, even if the sky was falling.

"Let me take you back home first," Chandler said.

"I want to go to your place," Tina said. When she saw Chandler slightly furrowing his brow, she quickly added, "I have already talked to my parents about it!"

After seeing the scene of the fire and the injured people at the hospital today, she especially wanted to be with him.

It was as if she suddenly realized that life is even more fragile than she had imagined!

Chapter 4154 Are you afraid I will get hurt?

In the end, Chandler said, "Alright, let's go."

Just as the two of them walked out of the hospital building, several reporters rushed up.

Holding their microphones, they all directed their questions at Chandler, "Mr. Hunter, do you have anything to say about today's fire accident?"

"Did the factory have any safety hazards that were not addressed in a timely manner? Doesn't this show that the Hunter family doesn't value the lives of ordinary workers?"

"How does the Hunter Group plan to compensate the workers?"

Chandler frowned, while the reporters even started taking photos of Chandler and Tina. Despite Chandler's bodyguards and hospital security personnel trying to stop them, some people were still desperately trying to push their way forward.

There was even a reporter who saw Chandler leaving without saying a word and anxiously shouted, "The Hunter Group is

Are you afraid I will get hurt? profiting off the blood of the people. Don't you plan to be accountable to the public?"

2/4

Before Chandler could speak, Tina suddenly stepped forward,

"On what basis do you claim that the Hunter Group is profiting off the blood of the people? If you have no evidence, then isn't it defamation?"

The reporter was taken aback and then said, "Isn't the fire the best proof?"

"The cause of the fire has not been determined yet. Can't you refrain from making baseless accusations like this? Who gave you the right to spread rumors?" Tina said angrily.

"Miss Stephenson is really defending your fiancé! I just want to seek justice for the people who were injured in the fire. Even if the Hunter family and the Stephenson family have power and influence, those people are just small individuals in the city.

But you can't play God..." The journalist put on a righteous and stern look, but secretly felt excited inside.

This was a great opportunity to make a name for himself! If he portrayed himself as a small person seeking justice, as long as he established this image, he could have better career prospects in the future!

He could also gain more attention and even become a benchmark of some sort.

3/4

Are you afraid I will get hurt? "You-" Tina was so angry that she almost rushed forward to hit the person. It was just nonsense!

Chandler reached out and tightly held Tina's hand, then coldly stared at the journalist. "Is that so? If I really had the power to cover up everything, do you think you could still say these things in front of me?"

The cold gaze made the journalist's heart skip a beat, and a cold sweat broke out on his back.

"The truth behind this fire will be revealed by the fire department. And as for those injured in the fire, the Hunter Group will take care of them. There's no need for you to seek justice for them. Of course, if you care so much, you can donate to help their families or volunteer at the hospital to assist them. The Hunter Group welcomes kind-hearted people like you," Chandler continued.

The journalist widened his eyes. Donate? Volunteer?

What does this have to do with anything!

He just wanted to create a sensational news story and establish a good image for himself.

But there were other journalists and cameras around, he couldn't refuse.

Are you afraid I will get hurt?

4/4

So the journalist could only reluctantly agree on the surface, but he felt disgusted inside!

Chandler protected Tina and got in the car. As soon as they sat in the car, Tina looked at Chandler with concern. "Don't take those journalists' words to heart, especially that last one. He's simply despicable!"

Chandler raised an eyebrow. "Are you afraid I will be hurt by those words?"

Mm," she responded. Those words were just too harsh.

"I won't be hurt," Chandler said calmly.

Those verbal attacks meant nothing to him. If it weren't for that ignorant journalist involving Tina, he wouldn't have wasted a single word on him.

Chapter 4155 Two Different Emotions

"Yeah," she replied. Those words were simply too offensive.

"I won't be hurt," Chandler shrugged.

1/4

Such verbal attacks didn't affect him at all. If it weren't for that journalist who didn't know his place, dragging Tina into it, he wouldn't have bothered saying anything to him.

"Didn't you feel hurt at all?" Tina carefully observed Chandler, as if afraid that the journalist's words just now would upset him.

"When you look at me like that, it makes me feel fragile, like I can't handle any kind of blow." He chuckled.

Tina awkwardly touched her nose, "I'm just afraid that you'll take those nonsense words to heart."

"No, there are very few things in this world that can stay in my heart." Chandler gazed at the person in front of him firmly.

Suddenly, Tina felt her face getting warm. The way he looked at her and said those words, it was as if he was silently saying

Two Different Emotions that only she, he would keep in his heart.

Because it was getting late, the two of them had a simple dinner outside before returning to Chandler's place.

2/4

"Alright, now you can tell me why you came to the company to find me today." Chandler spoke up.

Tina almost forgot about it herself, she didn't expect Chandler to remember.

"It's because of Kit's situation, I was feeling a bit down, so I wanted to talk to you." Tina said.

"What happened to him again?" Chandler's eyes flashed with a hint of curiosity.

It seemed that unnoticed, the number of times she mentioned Kit was increasing.

He could only keep telling himself to try to understand the kind of feelings fans have for their idols, but he had never liked any idol before, so truly experiencing this kind of feeling wasn't easy for him.

So Tina told Chandler about the resources she obtained from her parents and the conversation she had with Kit on campus.

"I didn't expect him to think like that, or maybe he thinks it's normal to exchange his body for resources? Or... maybe I misunderstood him." Tina said dejectedly.

Chapter 4155 Two Different Emotions.

"Don't you really like him? So when he made that proposal, what did you think?" Chandler hinted.

3/4

Tina blinked her eyes, "The proposal itself is ridiculous, I just find it unbelievable. At least in my opinion, he shouldn't be that kind of person!"

"But if you like someone, don't you also want to have their body?" he asked.

Tina was taken aback, but she didn't get angry because of Chandler's words. Instead, she seriously said, "The way I like him is that I want him to shine even more on his own stage, to be more dazzling, and to have more people like him. But this kind of liking is different from my liking for you."

As Tina spoke, she raised her hand and gently touched Chandler's cheek, "My liking for you is possessive. I don't want many people to like you, I don't want you to attract too much attention. I want to be with you all the time, I want you to belong only to me, no one can take you away, and no one else can have you!"

Those were two completely different kinds of liking, but she didn't know if he would truly understand what she meant by saying this.

Chapter 4155 Two Different Emotions

4/4

Chandler's cheek rubbed against the palm of Tina's hand, his beautiful and deep eyes gazing at her, "If that's what you want, then I will belong only to you, no one can take me away. So, you also have to do as you said, not give yourself to anyone else."

Chapter 4156

MMlininæresponded and took the initiativetotkiskis@Chandler.

Buiftifter moment she went from being ththerantalaking the itative to being pa*sive.

Champiteléreteich the back of Tina's head with one hath drthd issedebandoforcefully, with such desire and argentycas if if rovininisis awards from earlier.

Chandleitemarbyltereteased his lips after kissing fin until shee vastalmost and fairbreath.

inata facecwasaßuthsidedsashshe gasped fonciotoaking andsome faceda in droo ofther.

Do yourwantima??cheitisperetis.isusky voice exuding a d pecial charmm.

he notitied, hererosydipipoformingh the word "yes".

the next moment, he liftetebordrdrozdalolland walked intoto ne bedroom..

arefully placing heronthe basi, Henslowly removed his lathespfully exposing himself to tader.

Chapter 4156 Her Good

2/4

As long as she desired him, he would willingly give himself to her.

He was afraid that he wasn't good enough, not beautiful enough, unable to attract more of her attention.

He feared that her feelings for him were merely the confusion.
of adolescence, unable to last, and that someone else would make her love them more in the future.

Does loving someone always involve such anxiety and insecurity?

Today, at the scene of the fire and in the hospital, he also experienced an indescribable emotion when he saw those injured and suffering.

In the past, he wouldn't have cared about anything; even if someone died in front of him, he wouldn't have felt a shred of pity.

But now, things were different.

Was it because she stayed by his side today, or was it because... for some other reason?

In the midst of their intimacy, he seemed to want to give everything to her, causing her to constantly sink deeper...

www

Chapter 4156 Her Good

3/4

In the following days, there was a heated discussion online about the fire incident.

Chandler gained praise from many people for his handling of the fire aftermath, but of course, there were also many people who questioned whether Chandler was just putting on a show.

Some people even criticized online, saying that the fire happened because the Hunter Group's factory didn't have adequate fire safety measures.

However, these criticisms disappeared with the release of reports from the fire department and the police.

The fire department determined that the fire was not accidental, but deliberate!

As a result, the police also began investigating who intentionally caused the fire.

After dealing with the factory's matters, Chandler also planned to visit the Hunter family and inform the elders of the incident.

"I want to go with you," Tina said. "After all, I went with you last time, and now I also know the secret that you're guarding for the Hunter family. If I go with you, your grandfather shouldn't kick me out again, right?"

Her Good

4/4

"There's no need to visit the Hunter family. You've been there once, so you should know what kind of place it is," he said.

She said, "I feel like even after we get married, I should go there often. So why not familiarize myself with it now?" The key reason is that she always feels that the Hunter family gives off a cold feeling.

It's as if that mansion hides countless secrets.

Although she now knows some of those secrets, she still wants to understand him more, to truly enter the Hunter family and face his family!

"Technically, you shouldn't enter the extended family before we get married," Chandler pondered.

"But you've already been there once, so a second time wouldn't hurt," she insisted.

Chapter 4157 Returning to the Hunter Family

1/4

Seeing Chandler's expression soften, Tina continued,

"Chandler, I want to understand you more, see more of your extended family where you grew up, and also your grandfather. Last time, I didn't have a chance to properly greet him. Oh, by the way, are your parents also at the estate this time? It's been so long since I've seen them."

Tina tugged at Chandler's sleeve and acted cute.

Usually, whenever she acted cute, he would almost always agree to whatever she wanted.

Of course, Tina's ability to act cute has been evaluated by her good friend Eugenia.

“Tina, not to be mean, but with that kind of dignified face, making a cute expression... uh, it really gives me goosebumps. Only Chandler can fall for your act!”

Of course, in response to her friend’s teasing, Tina simply acted even cuter, giving her friend an even stronger case of goosebumps!

Chapter 4157 Returning to the Hunter Family

“Alright then, I’ll let my family know and we’ll visit our old estate this weekend,” Chandler said.

“That’s great!” Tina exclaimed.

2/4

When the weekend came, Chandler went to see Tina and saw her carrying many bags and belongings.

He couldn’t help but frown and ask, “What are you doing with all that?”

“It’s a gift for our visit. I can’t just show up empty-handed,” she explained. After all, this time they were going to the Hunter family estate openly, not sneaking in like before, so proper etiquette was necessary.

However, when it came to their daughter going to the Hunter family estate, Lina and Hadwin kept reminding her to be polite to her elders, to not be careless, and to follow the rules.

On the other hand, they warned their future son-in-law to take good care of Tina, not to let her be mistreated in any way. Furthermore, going to the estate did not mean they would immediately get married. When they would get married still depended on their daughter’s wishes!

Hadwin insisted on this because he wanted to give his daughter more time. He wanted her to make this decision that would impact her entire life when she was more mature and Chapter 4157 Returning to the Hunter Family 3/4 not have any regrets in the future.

But based on his understanding of his daughter, if the Hunter family were to propose getting married immediately, he was afraid his naive daughter would agree right away.

“In any case, you are not allowed to get married until Tina graduates from college, and you are not allowed to do anything inappropriate to Tina. If Tina accidentally gets pregnant, don’t blame me for getting angry,” Hadwin said in a low voice, with a volume only the two of them could hear.

Chandler uncomfortably pursed his lips, not daring to tell his future father-in-law that he had done something inappropriate just a few days ago...

But getting pregnant... he certainly wouldn't let Tina get pregnant now. After all, Tina is still young. Even if she gave birth to their child, which could save him, he would rather endure the pain and wait a few more years to have a child – if Tina still loved him and was willing to have a child together.

After the two got in the car, Lina and Hadwin exchanged a glance.

"You say Tina won't cause any trouble this time, right?" Lina couldn't help but say.

"She's only staying for a day, and even if there's any trouble,

Chapter 4157 Returning to the Hunter Family

Chandler should be there to protect her," Hadwin said.

Hopefully! Lina thought to herself.

4/4

After the car arrived at the Hunter family mansion, Tina finally met her future in-laws and the elder Mr. Hunter, carrying bags and packages.

"Grandpa, Uncle, Aunt, hello!" Tina had a smile on her face as she greeted the Hunter family elders in a familiar manner, and then proceeded to display the gifts she had brought!

Chapter 4159 Not Able to Sleep Together

"Tonight, you sleep in the room next to mine," Chandler said.

"Can't we sleep together?" Tina blinked her eyes.

"No," Chandler said firmly.

"Ah? Why not?" Tina looked puzzled.

1/4

"I'm afraid I won't have that self-control!" he said, rubbing his forehead. "Alright, you rest in the room for now. I'll go to the ancestral hall and pay my respects, and then I'll come back to find you."

After saying that, Chandler left first, leaving Tina alone in the room, muttering to herself, "If he doesn't have self-control, then so be it, I don't mind!"

She looked around the bedroom, which was elegantly decorated. Even the random decorations in the room, in Tina's eyes, were valuable.

Just then, there was a sudden knock on the door.

Chapter 4159 Not Able to Sleep Together

2/4

Tina got up to open the door and was slightly surprised when she saw who was standing at the door.

It was Chandler's mother!

"Auntie, are you looking for Chandler? He just went to the ancestral hall," Tina said.

Adele looked at Tina and said, "I'm here to find you."

A look of surprise flashed in Tina's eyes, as when she had seen Auntie Adele before, her attitude seemed indifferent, and she had even left early, as if she had nothing to say to her.

"Do you mind having a chat with me?" Adele asked.

Tina smiled, "Of course not." Because she was Chandler's mother, even if Adele's attitude towards her was cold, Tina still had a favorable impression of her.

Because that is the person who gave birth to Chandler.

"I heard some things about you. Although Chandler has been with you since childhood and your relationship has always been good, in this world, people's hearts are the most fickle,"

Adele said.

"I disagree with that statement," Tina said. "I don't think people's hearts are the most fickle. Many times, people's hearts are also steadfast, just like my parents. After so many years, they still love each other. I believe they will continue to love each other in the future. I don't think that will change."

Chapter 4159 Not Able to Sleep Together

3/4

"But this is a minority," Adele shrugged. "I know Chandler has already told you about the worms on his body. You must also know that the only way to relieve his pain is for you to quickly give birth to his child."

"I know. After I graduate, I will marry Chandler immediately and have a child," Tina promised.

"Are you really willing to give birth to this child?" Adele asked.

"Of course." No matter who asks this question, no matter how many times, her answer is always the same!

"Aren't you afraid that having a child will just be a burden for you? After all, you are still so young, but have been bound by a marriage since childhood."

Tina frowned. Did Auntie say these things to test her feelings for Chandler?

"I don't feel that my engagement with Chandler is a burden.

On the contrary, I think it's quite good," Tina said.

"Aren't you afraid of Chandler? Don't you think he's like a monster?" Adele further pressed.

Chapter 4159 Not Able to Sleep Together

Tina's frown deepened. "Auntie, do you think Chandler is a monster?"

4/4

"There are worms in his body!"

"So what?" Tina said seriously. "That's not what he wants.

He even suffers because of it, so I will help him get rid of this pain!"

Chapter 4160 Have some snacks

1/4

Adele looked deeply at the woman in front of her, as if she saw her own reflection from years ago.

Back then, she also had the courage to believe that love only required unwavering courage!

But in the end...

"Regardless, you would be willing to help him relieve his pain, right?" Adele asked.

"Yes!" Tina said without any hesitation.

"Good. Just don't forget the words you said to me today,"

Adele said, then turned and left, leaving Tina confused.

What... did she come to find her just to say these things?

Was it to test whether she was truly committed to Chandler and willing to have his child?

After a while, Chandler returned.

"Did you finish paying your respects?" she asked.

Have some snacks

"Hmm," he said.

"Do you always have to go to pay respects every time you come back?" she asked curiously.

"More or less. If I'm staying at the Hunter family, then on Friday nights we would pay respects," Chandler said.

2/4

"But the person in the portrait didn't harm your family, yet you still insist on paying respects to her?" Tina asked, puzzled.

"It's said to appease her anger, and over time, it became a tradition for the Hunter family," Chandler replied.

"When you're paying respects, do you ever secretly curse the person in the portrait?" After all, it was because of this woman that he was in so much pain.

"I used to, but not anymore," Chandler said.

"Why not anymore?" she asked, curious.

He looked at her with tender eyes, "If the parasites didn't exist in my body, then I wouldn't have met you. I wouldn't have noticed your existence when I saw Lina, I wouldn't have saved you, and I wouldn't have known that you are such a lovely person worth loving!"

So, gradually, his mindset started to change.

Have some snacks

3/4

Before she was born, he would complain about the unfairness.

of fate. Every time the pain in his body flared up, he would resent why he had to have such a body, why such a curse had to exist.

But later, as she spent more time with him, he even began to feel fortunate that fate bound him to this curse, connecting his destiny with Tina's.

Suddenly, Tina felt her heart race. Facing the gaze of the man in front of her, she had an urge to forcefully press him down beneath her!

However, before she could act on this impulse, the sound of a knock interrupted them. This time, it was the maid delivering late-night snacks.

"Madam asked to send some late-night snacks for the young master and Miss Stephenson," the maid said.

"I'm feeling a bit hungry," Tina quickly said, trying to divert her attention. Thankfully, she didn't really lay a hand on Chandler earlier, otherwise she would've been caught red-handed by the servant.

Even though she had a thick skin, being in the man's house made it inappropriate.

Have some snacks

"Just put it down," Chandler said.

4/4

"Yes!" The servant placed the tray of food on the coffee table in the bedroom.

Once the servant left, Tina started enjoying the snacks.

She had to admit, the Hunter family's snacks were indeed delicious! She couldn't help but want to have another one.

"Do you like them?" Chandler asked.

"Mm, they're quite tasty," Tina replied, picking up another one and offering it to Chandler's lips, clearly intending to feed him.

Chandler raised an eyebrow slightly. He didn't really like the snacks at home, but at this moment, he obediently op mouth and took a bite.

Just as he was about to take another bite, Tina suddenly trembled and dropped the snack on the floor, accompanied by a moan from her mouth...