

Ex Convict 4161

Chapter 4161 Caught in the Act

Chandler was startled and looked at Tina.

Her face had turned a deep shade of red, and her once spirited and beautiful eyes now seemed filled with a misty glow, giving off an enchanting look.

“Tina!” Chandler quickly held Tina’s face, checking her condition.

1/4

There was something off about her appearance, causing a sense of unease to flash through him.

“I’ll have the doctor come and have a look at you,” he said.

The Hunter family had a family doctor who could be called immediately.

Just as Chandler was about to get up, Tina grabbed his hand instead. Her burning cheeks kept rubbing against his palm.

“Chandler, I’m so hot... Can you hold me... please?” Tina whispered.

Chandler’s heart skipped a beat as he looked at Tina’s current state and glanced at the unfinished snacks. Suddenly, a possibility crossed his mind.

Chapter 4161 Caught in the Act

2/4

Immediately, he felt a surge of heat in his lower abdomen.

Dammit, could it be that there’s something wrong with these snacks!

Could it be that his mother had drugged them?!

“Chandler...” Tina’s condition seemed to be worsening, and she was practically clinging to him.

This felt like a test to him.

“Tina, try to stay conscious, don’t let the drugs control you, I... I’ll go find the doctor.” Chandler struggled to suppress his desires, wanting to take out his phone and call the family doctor.

But she exerted force and pinned him down, and at the same time, his phone fell to the ground.

“Tina!” Chandler said hesitantly, feeling her body pressed against him, constantly challenging his self-control.

“I want you, Chandler... Please don’t push me away...” As Tina’s words fell, she forcefully pressed her lips against his, sucking on them passionately. His body grew hotter and hotter.

Chapter 4161 Caught in the Act

3/4

Her hands continued to caress his body, and finally, under her repeated “pa*sion,” his rationality completely snapped.

Tina was awakened by voices.

“Mom, was it you who gave me the medicine yesterday?”

“What are you talking about? I don’t understand.”

“If you really didn’t understand, you wouldn’t be here now.””

“You two aren’t married yet, but this happened. Don’t you think you owe an explanation?”

Who... Who is speaking?

Tina thought drowsily, one voice was Chandler’s, and the other voice seemed somewhat familiar!

She sleepily opened her eyes and saw Chandler’s handsome profile.

Hmm... Chandler looks so good-looking no matter when I see him!

It’s like a feast for the eyes.

Chapter 4161 Caught in the Act

“Miss Stephenson, you finally woke up.” Suddenly, a voice sounded.

4/4

Tina was startled and turned her head to see Adele standing at the foot of the bed, looking at them!

"Aunt... Good morning... um." Tina awkwardly pulled the blanket, feeling quite uncomfortable.

After all, she was currently under the blanket and not wearing anything.

www

After what happened last night with her son, she was caught red-handed by the guy's mother early in the morning.

Even if Tina had thick skin, she couldn't stand being looked at by Chandler's mother like this and continue to act nonchalantly.

"Miss Stephenson, now that you're awake, please explain

Chapter 4162 Explanation

Tina stared at Adele with wide eyes, "Explanation?"

"Yes, shouldn't you give an explanation for sleeping with my son?" Adele spoke bluntly.

Tina was taken aback, but then realized that Adele had a point!

Although she felt like her mind was fragmented, she vaguely remembered pinning Chandler down on the couch.

But last night, she wasn't even thinking about getting intimate with Chandler, so why did it end up like this? She was just having some snacks before...

"So... what kind of explanation does Auntie want?" Tina forced herself to look at Adele.

"Now that you've done this, you should get married right away. After all, you might be carrying a child in your belly now, and I can't let the Hunter family's child be born out of wedlock," Adele said.

"Mom!" Chandler was immediately displeased upon hearing this.

His mother was clearly pressuring Tina!

Tina lowered her head in confusion, looked at her wrapped body, and then turned to look at Chandler.

She didn't use any contraception last night, and Chandler... did he also not use any contraception?

“What about you? Did you use contraception last night?” Adele retorted.

Chandler felt embarrassed, “I’ll make Tina take the pill later.” Even though he had always been reluctant to let Tina take pills to avoid damaging her health, he couldn’t control himself last night.

At this moment, he felt deep remorse in his heart.

If he had been able to keep his composure last night, things might not have turned out like this.

Adele looked at Tina, “Miss Stephenson, what do you think? Are you planning to hide this by taking the pill, or do you intend to give me and the Hunter family an explanation?”

“Mom, Tina doesn’t owe you anything, let alone the Hunter family. You know best why things turned out this way, don’t you?” Chandler angrily stared at his mother.

There was something wrong with the snacks yesterday, and now his mother showed up early in the morning.

There was no doubt that his mother was behind all of this, just trying to force Tina and him to get married as soon as possible!

Tina looked at the confrontation between mother and son, and the initial awkwardness and panic faded away,

“The explanation you want, Auntie, does it mean that Chandler and I should get married?” she asked.

Adele said, “Of course, you wouldn’t want to get married when you’re already heavily pregnant or have a child out of wedlock. That would invite criticism.”

“Tina is still in school!” Chandler said,

“University doesn’t prevent marriage. She’s already reached the legal age for marriage,” Adele said.

“Getting married won’t affect her studies, but having a child out of wedlock will have a bigger impact on her. After all, if she’s really pregnant, you know very well that your father and grandfather would never allow the child to be aborted.”

“Mom, this is our own business, Tina and I will decide for ourselves!” Chandler’s face was filled with anger.

Adele raised her voice, “This is not only your business, but also the Hunter family’s business. Don’t forget, in the old Hunter family mansion, you are the only heir!”

Tina saw that the two of them were about to argue, and quickly spoke up, “I’m willing to get married. Anyway, we’re going to get married eventually, so it’s better to get married sooner!”

This way, she can openly have Chandler!

Chapter 4163 Have Really Thought About It

"Tina, do you know what you're agreeing to?" Chandler said.

"Yes." Tina nodded earnestly. In fact, from the beginning, she had hoped to get married early, have children early, and solve his pain as soon as possible.

She didn't actually oppose his mother's arrangement.

Although it seemed a bit forced!

"Very well, since Miss. Stephenson has agreed, the Hunter family will formally visit the Stephenson family in a few days to discuss the marriage arrangements," Adele said, then turned and left the room.

Tina finally breathed a sigh of relief. The scene just now was like catching someone in bed in a TV drama, except she was experiencing a forced marriage.

Chandler uncovered the blanket and got dressed. "Tina, you don't have to pay attention to my mother's words. I'll talk to her again and make her change her mind."

"No!" Tina quickly said, "I agreed just now willingly, I wasn't forced."

Have Really Thought About It Chandler paused.

Tina continued, "And you know, I've always wanted to have children earlier. Since yesterday... um, we didn't take any precautions, so like your mother said, maybe now there's already a child in my belly, who knows."

Chandler looked at the person in front of him with a complex expression. "Are you... really sure about this?"

"Do you think that until now, I still haven't thought it through?" Tina said, "I've said it more than once, I want to have children. earlier, I want to relieve your pain sooner. It's you who always thinks I'm still young, always thinks I need more time to consider, but..."

Tina paused, wrapped in the sheet and walked to Chandler's side, looking up at him. "Even though we have an 8-year age gap, my feelings for you are not less than yours. You've known me for 20 years, and I've known you for 20 years. So if these 20 years have made you certain about me, why do you think I haven't made up my mind about you in the same amount of time?"

Chandler's Adam's apple bobbed, as if there was something warm surging up in his heart.

"I'm very clear-headed now, and I think I'm mature enough to decide my future!" Tina said.

Chandler pulled Tina into his arms.

"But if you have a child at your age, you'll be very hard-pressed," He didn't want her to have a child so early, he hoped she could enjoy her youth more, instead of being tied down by a child,

"That would be a sweet kind of hardship. I believe I'll be a good mother, and also, I really hope we can have our child soon." She hoped that this time, she could successfully conceive,

"You'll definitely be a good mother." And he, to love the person who loved him back, was so incredibly lucky.

Two days later, in the living room of the Stephenson family, Hadwin glared at Chandler, shouting. "What did you say? Marriage? You want to marry Tina as soon as possible?"

"Yes." Chandler said in a deep voice.

"Don't you know that Tina is still in college?" Hadwin said impatiently.

In his eyes, his daughter was still a little girl, too young to get married. If it was possible, he could come up with hundreds of reasons to delay her marriage until after she graduated from university. But now... Chandler was telling him to get married as soon as possible, how could Hadwin not be angry?

Chapter 4164 Let's Get Married

"I know," Chandler replied, "but I want to marry Tina. Besides, marrying her won't hinder her studies. After we get married, she can continue doing what she loves and wants to do. I won't stand in her way."

"So just because you want to marry, I should marry my daughter to you right now?" Hadwin gave him a look that said, "Don't even think about it."

Tina couldn't help but speak up, "Dad, it's me who wants to marry Chandler as soon as possible. Chandler was forced to agree because of me."

Hadwin turned to look at his daughter, "You forced him to marry you?"

"Yes," Tina quickly nodded.

Hadwin frowned, "What sweet words did Chandler say to you that made you speak up for him? Let me tell you, a man's sweet words are the least trustworthy!"

Tina had the urge to comment, did Dad forget that he himself was a man?!

And she heard from Mom that Dad used to say sweet words to Mom too!

"Um... I swear, Chandler really didn't say any sweet words!" Tina quickly raised her hand to a*sure.

"Then why do you want to marry Chandler as soon as possible?" Hadwin said impatiently.

"Because I might already be pregnant, Dad. Don't you want your grandchild to be born out of wedlock? Or do you want me to get married with a big belly?" Tina touched her belly and said.

Hadwin almost choked on his breath and it took him a while to extend his hand, pointing at his daughter, "What did you say? You're pregnant?"

"Um... there's a possibility," Tina added, after all, she still didn't know if she was actually pregnant or not, "But in the Hunter family, I had S with Chandler without protection, so..."

Although Chandler told him that his mother drugged her in the pastries, so she acted that way after eating them..

But in fact, she felt that even if there was no drug, maybe she wouldn't be able to resist anyway.

The drug simply unleashed her desires, and she had always hoped to marry Chandler and have children early.

So Tina wasn't really against Auntie Adele drugging her.

After all, the other party did it with the hope that Chandler could resolve this source of pain sooner.

But before Tina finished speaking, Hadwin had already grabbed Chandler by the collar, glaring at him angrily, "Is this how you followed my instructions?"

"I'm sorry," Chandler apologized.

"You should be sorry!" Hadwin punched Chandler directly in the face.

Chandler staggered back a few steps, his cheek red and his lips bleeding, showing a hint of blood.

Tina was dumbfounded, watching her father about to throw a second punch. She quickly stepped forward and stood in front of Chandler. "Dad, I... I already said it earlier. It was me who forced myself on him. Chandler was coerced."

Hadwin sneered, "If he didn't want it, could you really force him? Tina, move aside!"

Men understand men the most. In Hadwin's eyes, Chandler deliberately seduced his own daughter!

"Enough!" Lina, who had been standing by, suddenly spoke up. "If Tina and Chandler truly want to get married, then let them!"

Chapter 4165 Will They Agree?

Tina looked at her mother with delight on her face. Truly, she had a great mom!

Hadwin looked at his wife in astonishment. "You agree to their marriage?"

"Tina is already 20 years old. She can distinguish between right and wrong. Besides, Chandler is a child we've watched grow up. Don't you know what kind of person he is?"

Even so, for Hadwin, his daughter getting married now was still too early. No matter how he thought about it, she was still a little girl. How could she be getting married?

"I disagree. Tina is still too young," Hadwin rarely opposed his wife's opinion.

"So, do you really want your daughter to end up pregnant and get married, or have a child and be called a bastard?" Lina retorted.

Hadwin stumbled, "But it hasn't been confirmed yet. Maybe she's not pregnant."

"Even if not this time, what about the next time?" Lina asked.

Chapter 4165 Will They Agree?

Hadwin's face turned grim. Another time?

2/4

"Since Tina wants to marry Chandler, as parents, shouldn't we respect our children's decisions? Isn't that good?" Lina said again.

Hadwin remained silent, but his expression clearly showed his unwillingness.

So, Lina turned to Chandler and Tina and said, "Alright, Chandler, you take Tina to your place for a couple of days. Your father and I will discuss your marriage."

"Okay," Chandler obediently agreed.

Tina made faces at her mother, signaling her with her eyebrows, pleading for her mom to handle her dad!

After all, in this family, the only one who could handle the father was the mother.

Lina responded by making faces back at her daughter, assuring her that she would handle it.

With their signal exchange complete, Tina quickly pulled Chandler away from the Stephenson family. Hadwin didn't even have time to stop them!

"You're not worried that Tina is getting married so young?"

Hadwin glared at his wife.

“You say young, but she’s actually not that young. She’s already 20,” Lina said. When she was 20, she was quite independent. And it seemed like her daughter was even more independent than she was at that age.

“She’s 20, but she’s still a student!” Hadwin argued.

“Why are you so against Tina marrying Chandler?” Lina asked. “Tell me, what’s wrong with Chandler?”

Hadwin paused, displeased. “He shouldn’t have gotten involved with Tina in the first place!”

“But Tina said it was her own choice,” Lina replied.

“Even if it was her choice, can’t Chandler tolerate that?”

Hadwin retorted irritably.

Lina smiled and suddenly pushed her husband down onto the couch. “Well, what about when we first met and I made the first move? Why couldn’t you tolerate it then?”

Hadwin blushed, a rare sight. “Back then... it’s the same as now, back then I...”

“What’s different? Did you only play with me back then?” Lina reached out and gently caressed her husband’s face, his eyes, nose, and lips...

Although time had passed, her husband still looked so handsome in her eyes, captivating her senses.

“Of course not!” Hadwin exclaimed.

“If back then, after we spent the night together, I didn’t leave but instead asked you to marry me, would you have agreed?”

Lina asked.

Hadwin fell silent, understanding the meaning behind her question.

Chapter 4166: Lina's Persuasion

Letting out a sigh, Hadwin said, "I always worry that Tina's feelings for Chandler, are only because of the agreement made between me and the Hunter family all those years ago. That agreement has bound Tina's emotions from the start, limiting her choices to Chandler. I'm afraid she doesn't actually love him, that she's not clear about her feelings."

"Don't think too much, you worry too much!" Lina playfully tapped her husband's nose. "I believe Tina has already thought things through. Besides, love and a good life aren't guaranteed just because you think about it before marriage. In the days to come, it's up to Tina to walk her own path. We can only offer help when she needs it, but we can't control her life. She should make her own choices.""

Hadwin smiled wryly, "I know, you always manage to convince me."

Seeing this, Lina knew that her husband had accepted the fact that their daughter was getting married soon.

"I can persuade you because I know we both love Tina very much. It's because I love her that I can persuade you," Lina said, lowering her head and gently : Lina's Persuasion night when I had you pinned down. You have no idea how adorable and beautiful you were back then.""

Hadwin couldn't help but smile wryly. Only she would use words like adorable and beautiful to describe him.

"And what about now?" Hadwin asked.

"Now, even though you've aged, you're still a handsome and good-looking dad!" Lina smiled and kissed him on the lips.

No matter how old her adorable husband became, she still loved him so much.

Even when they both had gray hair, she would still love him!

Hadwin wrapped his arms around his wife's waist, matching her passionate kisses.

If it hadn't been for her initiative in the beginning, maybe there wouldn't have been their story! And he loved Lina's enthusiasm for him.

It was as if no matter how many years had passed, he was still her favorite man!

"I love you!" Hadwin whispered. "If Chandler doesn't love Tina as much as I love you, he's done for!"

Lina couldn't help but laugh and cry at the same time.

This man, still thinking about that at a time like this.

"Yes, I believe that Chandler will love Tina just as much," Lina said, her hand starting to crawl into Hadwin's clothes, shifting his attention. "Okay, now that they're not here, tonight I want to repeat what we did on our first night together."

Hadwin was taken aback. Did she mean she wanted to pin him down like they did back then?

"By the way, no matter how I treat you, you can't resist, you know, after all these years of pampering myself, I don't have the strength I used to have. If you resist, my arms, my waist, and legs won't be able to hold up." Lina added.

Hadwin's scalp suddenly felt numb, feeling as if tonight, he might be the one who couldn't hold up.

Meanwhile, Tina and Chandler left the Stephenson family. She looked at Chandler's furrowed brow and immediately reassured him, "Don't worry, in my house, if my mom says it's okay, then it's definitely okay, there won't be any problems."

Chapter 4167 Cupid

That's because in her family, it's her mom who has the final say!

Don't be fooled by the high position and power her dad has outside, when he comes home, he still obediently listens to her mom.

Even when her mom said she wanted to enjoy the pleasure of having her eyebrows done, she made her dad do it. And when her mom didn't like his skills, she directly found a master-level makeup artist to teach him how to do eyebrows.

"If your parents agree, then the wedding should happen soon.

If you have any concerns, we can also keep it low-key for now and wait for the future..."

Chandler's words were interrupted by Tina, "What's with being low-key? When we get married, we should definitely be high-profile. I want everyone to know that you're already mine, so no one dares to have any ideas about you!"

She said something that made Chandler feel both amused and puzzled.

"By the way, let's go somewhere," Tina said, pulling Chandler into the car.

When they arrived at their destination, Chandler looked up at the sign above the main entrance in astonishment. He never expected Tina to bring him to the Temple of Cupid.

After all, this place didn't seem like somewhere she would visit.

"Why did we suddenly come here?" Chandler asked curiously.

"I've wanted to come here with you for a long time. They say that by praying at the Temple of Cupid, a couple's relationship will be blessed," Tina said. Although she had thought about it before, she also realized that her relationship with Chandler was already good, so whether they prayed or not didn't really matter.

However, now that they were about to get married, she felt a sudden urge. If their already good relationship could be even better, why not?

"Do you believe in this?" Chandler asked.

After all, he was an atheist.

"Um, I believe in the good things and don't believe in the bad things," Tina grinned, then pulled Chandler into the temple.

The temple was small, but there were quite a few people inside, as if it had become a popular spot for taking photos. Influencers could be seen posing at various locations in the temple that were known to produce good results.

Tina led Chandler to the statue of Cupid inside the temple. With a devout expression, she knelt down, clasped her hands together, closed her eyes, and silently made a wish. She then opened her eyes and stood up.

"They say that the more sincere your prayers to Cupid, the more likely they are to come true," Tina explained to Chandler, as if justifying her previous actions.

"Is that so?" Chandler murmured.

"Yes, that's why the bond between us is so strong. Nothing can break it," Tina smiled and said, "Let's go outside the temple and take a look..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Chandler suddenly took a step forward, lowered his body, and knelt in front of the statue of Cupid.

Tina looked at Chandler in astonishment. Wait...didn't he not believe in gods and spirits? Why was he praying too?

Chandler also clasped his hands together, closed his eyes, and silently made a wish in front of the statue of Cupid. But after making the wish, he solemnly kowtowed three times.

This action completely shocked Tina. Even the other people in the Temple of Cupid turned to look at Chandler.

After all, such a handsome man, bowing before Cupid like this, it looked like a painting no matter how you looked at it!

Chapter 4168 Buying Hot Searches

Even Tina, who was used to Chandler's behavior, was stunned by his devout prayer.

In that moment, she found it almost impossible to take her eyes off him.

When Chandler stood up and looked at Tina, she suddenly snapped back to reality.

"What's wrong?" he asked.

"I didn't expect you to kneel and bow. I thought you didn't believe," she said.

Chandler smiled faintly, his smile melting away his usual coldness. "Since it's said that the more sincere the heart, the stronger the bond, let's make our bond even stronger."

Tina couldn't help but embrace Chandler. How could she not love a man like him?

After leaving the temple of Cupid, Tina took Chandler to the Marriage Hall.

Here, various marriage-related merchandise is sold, and

Chapter 4168 Buying Hot Searches

many couples come here for good luck.

2/4

Tina spotted a string of bracelets made of alternating white crystal and red agate. They looked quite nice.

And the meaning was quite good – "Eternal unity."

"What do you think of this bracelet?" Tina asked.

"It's nice," Chandler replied.

"Then let's buy two strings and each wear one," she said with great interest.

It would be nice to wear couple bracelets.

He gently said, "Okay." His eyes were full of fondness.

Tina bought two strings of bracelets, and they each wore one.

The bracelets were slightly more feminine, and Tina looked at Chandler in his neat suit, wearing such a bracelet on his wrist. It gave off a feeling of mismatch.

But Chandler didn't think it was inappropriate at all. On the contrary, his lips curved into a shallow smile. "I hope this bracelet can really make us stay united forever!"

"Of course it will!" Tina said.

Just then, a internet celebrity next to them was filming a dancing video. Many onlookers were taking photos. Among them, someone was taking photos and stepping backwards, about to collide with Tina. Chandler quickly raised his hand to protect her.

Tina was already quite tall among girls, but being protected like this by Chandler, her whole body was almost engulfed in his embrace, giving off a delicate feeling.

"Be careful!" Chandler warned the person who was stepping back and taking photos.

"Y-yes, sorry," the person quickly apologized.

This was originally just a small incident, but Tina didn't expect that it would become a hot topic the next day.

The moment when Chandler protected her was captured and uploaded online, along with the scene of Chandler devoutly kneeling and bowing to Cupid.

At first, people were discussing Chandler's handsome appearance and boyfriend material.

Then someone started digging into Chandler's identity and discovered that he was the CEO of the Hunter Group, and the financial and political power behind him was difficult to

Furthermore, someone pointed out that the woman Chandler protected was Tina, the heiress of the White Maple Group and Chandler's fiancée.

Suddenly, the popularity soared and eventually became a hot search.

Of course, Tina also contributed to this hot search. Seeing the popularity, Tina decided to buy another hot search, indicating that the two of them are about to get married.

Chandler looked at the hot search Tina bought and couldn't help but cry and laugh, "You bought a hot search?"

"Yes," Tina nodded candidly.

"Why did you buy a hot search?" he asked.

Chapter 4169 She is Getting Married

"Well, since there is already one hot search, having a second one won't hurt. And this way, when we have the wedding, the public won't find it too sudden," Tina explained.

She actually wanted to buy several more hot searches, but unfortunately, the ones for the same day were already sold out, so she temporarily didn't buy any.

".." Chandler looked at her helplessly, "What if your father sees this hot search and gets upset?"

"Don't worry, my mom will handle my dad. There won't be any problem," Tina said. Besides, her mom had already called her this morning, reassuring her that her dad's attitude had already softened a lot. She estimated that in another two days, he would agree.

Meanwhile, on the other side, Kit was in the dressing room, looking down at his phone.

“Kit, your scene is coming up soon, get ready,” the assistant walked into the dressing room and reminded him.

She is Getting Married “Got it,” Kit pursed his lips.

On the screen of his phone was Tina and Chandler’s hot search news.

Just as Kit was about to get up, another actor in the same dressing room came over and, upon seeing the news Kit was looking at, said, “Oh, you’re interested in this kind of news too. By the way, this Miss Stephenson seems to be your fan. You were on a hot search with her before, right?”

“Kit looks so good, it’s not surprising to have a fan like a wealthy young lady. With this kind of fan, you can also get better resources. Didn’t you get good resources a while ago?”

“I’m really jealous of having such fans! If I had fans like that, I would have no shortage of resources.”

Others also chimed in, with undertones of sarcasm and jealousy.

Kit remained silent and didn’t say much, just putting away his phone.

“But hey, to give resources to this kind of wealthy young lady, you’d at least have to exchange with your body, right? If there are no benefits, how could you give resources!” another voice. spoke up.

Kit suddenly looked up and glanced at the person who had just spoken.

The coldness in his eyes sent a shiver down the person’s spine. “Do you think I said something wrong? You signed a contract with a famous director and got such a big pie. Who in this industry doesn’t know that you sold your body to...”

“Whether you believe it or not, if you continue speaking, maybe tomorrow you won’t have a foothold in this industry!” Kit said coldly, “Have you ever thought about whether you are qualified to throw dirt on the person you want to talk about? The Stephenson family and the Hunter family, which one can you afford to provoke?”

The person suddenly trembled, only now realizing their mistake.

The Stephenson family and the Hunter family were not to be messed with. Just because of their jealousy towards Kit, they nearly let slip something that could have caused them trouble.

Kit didn’t say anything else and walked away.

The others looked at the actor who had just caused trouble with a pale face, frozen like a sculpture.

After leaving the dressing room, someone chased after Kit and patted his shoulder, saying, "Don't mind what that person

said earlier."

"I know," Kit replied calmly.

He didn't care about what irrelevant people said. What he cared about was... is she getting married?

Looking at the trending photos of her with Chandler, a pain that he couldn't explain filled his heart!

It was as if it was telling him how important she was to him!

Chapter 4170 Buried for a Lifetime

When did she become important to him? It seemed that originally, she was just a fan to him, a fan who was slightly different from the others!

But gradually, thoughts of her started occupying his mind. more and more.

He couldn't help but want to see her, and even... touch her.

Even though he knew she already had Chandler by her side, he still couldn't help but wonder... if he had met her earlier,

would he have had a chance?

Tina didn't expect Kit to call her.

"Can we meet?" Kit said softly over the phone.

Tina thought for a moment and replied, "Okay, where should we meet?"

The next day, Tina arrived at the meeting place she had agreed upon with Kit.

sa

It was a secluded scenic area in the outskirts. Because it was a weekday, there weren't many people around, and it was very tranquil.

"There shouldn't be anyone to bother us here, and we don't have to worry about being photographed by reporters," Kit said to Tina. "Thank you for agreeing to meet me.""

"Why did you ask me to meet?" Tina asked.

Her unfamiliar tone made Kit's face darken. "Do you hate me now?" he asked.

Tina looked at him but didn't say anything.

"I'm sorry for my impulsiveness last time. It was my dirty thoughts that influenced how I saw you," he apologized in a hoarse voice.

Her gaze made him feel particularly uncomfortable. It felt like something was blocking his chest, making it hard for him to breathe.

Tina looked at the person in front of her. While she was angry when she misunderstood him at first, it seemed like she didn't care anymore.

"It's okay, I've already let it go," Tina said calmly.

Kit pursed his lips awkwardly, "Will you stop liking me from now on?"

Tina was taken aback, staring directly at Kit.

Kit said dryly, "I only meant... am I no longer your idol?"

"I don't know," Tina replied truthfully, feeling a bit complicated about her feelings for Kit since that incident.

On one hand, she was angry that her good intentions were so misunderstood by Kit, feeling like a joke.

But on the other hand, she also pitied him.

Kit forced a bitter smile, "Seems like I'm really foolish." Foolish enough to push her away with such actions.

"Anyway, I've let it go and I hope you have a successful career in the future," Tina said. "I might still go and see the movies or concerts you act in."

After saying that, Tina turned around to leave.

"Wait!" Kit called out. "Besides wanting to apologize, I asked you out today to ask if you're really getting married to Chandler."

"Yes, the wedding will be held in about a month," Tina said. Although it was a short timeframe, it was not a problem for families like the Stephenson family and the Hunter family, who were from prominent backgrounds.

Even with just a month, they could have a grand wedding.

"Do you... love him?" Kit asked.

"Very much," Tina answered with a smile. When it came to Chandler, her previous distance seemed to have turned into sweetness.

A complex look flashed in Kit's eyes. It turned out, he really had run out of time!

That love, which couldn't be expressed in time, might just have to be buried in his heart forever!