

Ex Convict 4201

Chapter 4201

When the elevator doors opened again,
Kit and Tina walked out of the elevator.
The staff hurriedly approached them, "Are you both alright?"
"We're fine," Kit said, holding Tina's hand and bypa*sing the staff.
Although this city isn't big, he still feared being recognized.
Once he was recognized, if anyone took a photo of him and Tina together, then the Stephenson family and the Hunter family would probably take notice too!

For him now, he just wanted to continue this happiness!

Even if it's just one more day!

"Are you really okay?" Tina asked worriedly.

"It's okay. As long as you're with me, I'll be fine," Kit said. "Alright, let's go back."

The two got into the car and drove back on the way they came.

On the way back, Tina continued to talk to Kit about what they should eat tonight and her upcoming check-up tomorrow, just casual topics.

And Kit listened to these everyday conversations and felt how wonderful they were.

It was as if he and Tina were truly a family now!

Just then, suddenly, a car came out from the side, causing Tina to scream. But in that critical moment, Kit quickly turned the steering wheel.

The other car was about to hit Tina's side!

No matter what, he couldn't let Tina get hit.

As for himself, it didn't matter!

The car that Kit and Tina were in was grazed and collided with the car that came out, then crashed into the trees on the side of the road. The front of the car, where the driver's seat was, crashed heavily into the trees.

And until the very last moment, Kit quickly unbuckled his seat belt and threw himself towards Tina, using his body to shield her, wanting nothing more than to protect her and the baby in her belly!

Chapter 4202

The accident happened without any warning.

Kit only felt a tremendous impact, and then he passed out.

When he woke up, he was already in the emergency room of the hospital.

"Where's Tina? How is Tina?" He didn't care about his own injuries and kept asking the doctor about Tina's condition.

"The woman who was in the accident with you? She's still in the emergency operating room. Because she's 8 months pregnant and also because of the accident just now, she needs an emergency C-section to deliver the baby!" the doctor said. Kit's face suddenly turned pale. "What about her? How is she doing?"

"We'll have to wait for the doctors in the operating room to come out to know." the doctor said.

But just by looking at the doctor's expression, Kit already knew that Tina's condition was not optimistic. It was supposed to be a beautiful dream, but in the blink of an eye, it turned into a

"Where is the operating room? I want to go see her!" Kit suddenly got up, wanting to find Tina.

But as soon as he moved, the pain made him fall back onto the bed.

The doctor and nurses hurriedly checked his condition. The doctor said, "You shouldn't get up for now. Your injuries are severe, with several broken bones and damaged internal organs. You need to cooperate with the treatment!"

"I want to wait outside the operating room. Please let me go... please..." Kit pleaded desperately.

The doctor and nurses exchanged glances, seeing Kit's firm attitude and refusal to cooperate with treatment.

They had to discuss it with their superiors and then pushed the mobile bed to the outside of the operating room.

Chapter 4203

Kit stared blankly at the door of the operating room, filled with endless regret.

If he hadn't lied, if he had told Tina everything when he found her and handed her over to the Stephenson family and the Hunter family, would Tina have not experienced this accident?
All of this happened because of his selfishness!

And now, it was time for his lies to be exposed!

Just then, a nurse hurriedly came out holding a baby.

The baby was placed into the waiting incubator!

"How is the child?" Kit asked anxiously and timidly.

"The situation is not good. The child needs treatment now, but the medical expenses are expensive. And if the child's condition worsens later, it would be best to transfer to a larger hospital. The medical environment here is not good,"

the nurse said hurriedly and then left with the child.

The surgery continued, and when the door of the operating room finally opened again, Kit heard the doctor say to him, "Although we saved the patient's life, the situation is not very good. We can't predict when they will wake up. For now, we can only observe. But we recommend that you transfer to a bigger hospital in a big city as soon as possible. They have better medical equipment there!"

After hearing the doctor's words, Kit felt even more distressed.

When Tina was pushed out by the nurse, Kit only saw that her face had lost all color. She lay on the mobile bed as if she were dead.

Just a short while ago, she was smiling at him! She was talking to him about their future.

But now...

He was wrong. He was really wrong!

As long as she could be safe and sound, he was willing to give everything!

At the same time, a news story became popular, reporting that a former idol star was involved in a car accident in a small town, and there was also a pregnant woman with him!

Chapter 4204

It was a video, captured by a passerby.

After the video was released, someone recognized the man being carried out of the car by medical staff, suspecting it was the former idol star Kit, who had previously announced his withdrawal from the public eye.

The news of Kit's absence from public events had also become widely known, and there had been no news about him since then.

Now suddenly appearing in a small town far from Emerald City naturally made people very curious about this news.

Especially since a pregnant woman was being carried out of the car with Kit.

However, her face was covered by her disheveled hair, and due to the angle, people couldn't see her clearly.

Therefore, there were rumors online that Kit had suddenly decided to quit being a star because he had a child and wanted to get married early.

Of course, some people thought otherwise. After all, Kit had withdrawn from the public eye after Tina's disappearance. Therefore, many people believed that Kit quit the entertainment industry because he loved Tina deeply and was too heartbroken by her disappearance.

In short, there were all kinds of discussions.

In Emerald City, Chandler's secretary rushed into the CEO's office.

"Mr. Hunter," the secretary called.

Chandler's cold gaze made the secretary shiver involuntarily.

He had been working by Chandler's side for many years, but ever since Miss Stephenson disappeared, Mr. Hunter had changed completely.

If he used to exude composure and restraint, giving people the impression of a towering mountain, now he seemed like a sharp sword. Just getting close to him felt like being harmed by the sword's light.

Mr. Hunter had changed too much in the past six months!

Chapter 4205

Previously, a reporter had asked Mr.

Hunter directly if he would never marry again for the rest of his life if Miss Stephenson died.

As a result, Mr. Hunter beat up the reporter.

The once poised and elegant man had turned into a beast. The secretary even felt that perhaps Mr. Hunter had always been a beast, but in these years, because of Tina's presence, he had maintained his humanity.

And now...

The reporter was covered in blood, and if someone hadn't pulled Mr. Hunter away, he might have been beaten to death.

As the reporter was being lifted into the ambulance, Mr. Hunter simply said, "Tina is still alive. No one can say she's dead."

At that moment, everyone understood that the words "Tina is dead" were taboo, something that could not be said in front of Chandler!

At this moment, the secretary hurriedly said, "There may be news about Miss Stephenson."

"What?" Chandler's face suddenly changed, he took big strides forward and grabbed the secretary by the collar.

“Yes... there’s a news report, Kit had a car accident, and there was a pregnant woman in the car with her. We suspect that the pregnant woman is likely Miss Stephenson!” The secretary quickly replied, then after Chandler let go of his hand, he opened his phone and found the news report for Chandler to see.

Chandler looked at his phone, staring intently at the image of the pregnant woman being carried out of the car.

Even though he couldn’t see the pregnant woman’s face clearly, an instinctive feeling told him that this person was Tina!

Tina!

His Tina!

He had been searching for Tina for so long, and she was in a small town hundreds of kilometers away from Emerald City!

What happened to Tina? What kind of injuries did the accident cause her?

“Find out immediately which hospital she is in and how serious her injuries are!” Chandler urgently ordered.

Just then, Chandler’s phone suddenly rang.

Chapter 4206

The incoming call showed an unfamiliar phone number.

But not many people knew his private number.

Chandler frowned and answered the call.

A hoarse male voice came from the other end, "Is this Mr. Hunter?"

"Who is this?" Chandler replied in a low, hoarse voice.

When these words came through from the other end of the phone, Chandler's expression instantly changed.

2/4

The news he had just seen made it clear to Chandler that Tina was now with Kit.

"Where is Tina? How is Tina?" Chandler asked urgently, wishing he could rush to the other end of the phone immediately.

"Tina is currently in the hospital, she just gave birth and had surgery, so she is very weak and still unconscious. The doctors say it's best to transfer her and the baby to a better hospital." Kit's voice was low.

This was undoubtedly a heavy blow for Chandler.

From Kit's words, Chandler had already understood that Tina and the baby were in a very bad condition.

"Tina is currently at..." Kit mentioned the name and address of the hospital.

After hanging up the phone, Chandler grabbed his car keys and rushed out of the office.

The secretary was startled and quickly followed, "Mr. Hunter, what are you doing?"

"I'm going to pick up Tina and the baby.

Keep your phone on 24/7. Also, find the best surgical hospital and pediatric hospital in Emerald City. When I arrive at the hospital, I will send over Tina and the baby's medical records. We will immediately organize a consultation with the experts. I want them back in Emerald City so we can start treatment quickly." Chandler said. "Yes!" The secretary quickly responded, feeling overwhelmed by the influx of information.

Chapter 4207

The baby? So, Miss Stephenson has already given birth to the baby?

If we calculate the dates, this is premature!

The baby's condition is probably not good either.

Without waiting for the secretary's reaction, Chandler went straight into the elevator.

The secretary looked at the closed elevator and suddenly realized, could it be that Mr. Hunter intends to drive there himself?

At the same time, Kit tightly held the phone in his hands after ending the call.

He knew that it was all over!

All his dreams, all the lies, it was all over!

When Tina finds out the truth, how will she look at him?

"I'm sorry... Tina, I'm sorry..." he repeated in a pained voice.

But the person who can forgive him is still unconscious.

Chandler drove alone, heading towards the hospital address Kit mentioned.

Along the way, he didn't even know how managed to drive, his mind filled with one thought: to see Tina as soon as possible!

Tina, his Tina, and their child!

Eight hours later, when he finally arrived at the hospital, it was already midnight.

"I want to see Tina, which ward is she in?" Chandler asked the duty nurse in the inpatient department.

The duty nurse was startled, "It's already the patient's rest time now. If you want to visit a patient, please come back tomorrow..."

"I want to see Tina, where is she?"

Chandler's voice became more fierce, his

The nurse was frightened and felt a wave of fear spreading from the depths of her heart. She was considering whether to call security when suddenly several people hurriedly walked towards them.

Chapter 4208

The nurse took a closer look and saw that the people coming were the leaders of the hospital.

The nurse found it strange. Why would the hospital leaders come to the inpatient department in the middle of the night? Could something big have happened?

The leaders hurriedly walked up to the menacing man, and the hospital director respectfully said, "Mr. Hunter, I didn't expect you to come especially!"

"Where is Tina?" Chandler asked.

naturally knew that the unconscious pregnant woman being treated in their hospital was the missing daughter of the Stephenson family who had been in the news before.

Therefore, the hospital director and the hospital's top management hurriedly came to the hospital.

"I'll take Mr. Hunter there right away!"

the hospital director said, immediately leading the way.

When Chandler arrived at Tina's ward and saw Tina in a coma, he froze in place.

Despite Kit explaining her condition over the phone and despite him driving all the he actually saw this scene, he still stood there in shock.

What followed was an indescribable pain.

Tina, his Tina, whom he had searched for so long, he finally found her, but at this moment, she had a nasal oxygen tube and a pale face lying on the hospital bed.

Why did it have to be like this?

Back then, he watched helplessly as she was washed away by the water, becoming his nightmare.

And now, he sees her lying on a hospital bed again!

what he sees now is a living Tina and not a lifeless body?

Chapter 4209

“How is she doing?” Chandler asked, walking to the bedside with a trembling hand, but hesitating to touch Tina.

It seemed as if he was afraid that a gentle touch would shatter her.

The dean quickly asked Tina’s current attending physician to explain her current condition.

After listening, Chandler asked, "Can she be transferred to another hospital with her current physical condition?"

"It would be best to wait another day until her condition stabilizes before

"Alright, then we'll wait here for a day,"
Chandler said.

At this moment, the dean asked again,
"Mr. Hunter, will Miss Stephenson's child be transferred together?"
After all, the dean couldn't really guess whether the child in Tina's belly was Chandler's, so when he asked this question, he was extra cautious.

"Yes, they will be transferred together,"
Chandler said.

This was the child that Tina fought so hard to give birth to!
But at this moment, he felt no joy at all.

The doctor had already explained earlier that Tina's condition was not good and had a lot to do with the premature delivery.

If it weren't for the pregnancy, her condition wouldn't be so bad.

"Alright." The dean looked at Chandler's gloomy expression and didn't say anything more.

"I want to be alone with Tina for a while. You all can leave first. If there are any changes in her condition, I will immediately call for the doctor,"

Chandler said.

“Okay!”

leave the ward. Suddenly, Chandler asked again, “By the way, where is Kit? The man who was brought to the hospital with Tina!” Immediately, a tense atmosphere filled the air.

The dean’s expression stiffened as he glanced at the person behind him. After a while, a nurse finally timidly stepped forward and revealed the room number where Kit was staying.

Chapter 4210

That night, Chandler stayed in Tina’s ward, quietly watching her.

It was as if he wanted to imprint the image of her that he hadn’t seen in the past six months into his mind.

“Tina, what happened to you? Since you met Kit, why didn’t you come to find me?”

Chandler asked softly.

But the person on the hospital bed didn’t answer him.

And he already knew the answer, he probably had to find it from Kit.

they met? And how did Kit find Tina?

All of this could only be answered by Kit.

Chandler didn't sleep a wink that night.

And Kit, too, didn't sleep.

Even though Kit was lying in the ward and couldn't move freely due to his injuries, he could at least estimate the time. Starting from when he called Chandler, if Chandler set off immediately, he should be here by now.

Chandler should have seen Tina!

The two people who should have been together finally met!

And the liar also received punishment!

When the day finally dawned, Kit had a feeling that he was about to be punished.

My Gorgeous Wife is an Ex-Convict!

When the doctor made rounds in the morning, Chandler suddenly walked into the ward.

Kit looked at Chandler and calmly said, "You're here." As if Chandler appearing in front of him was something he had anticipated.

"Yes, I'm here!" Chandler said coldly, walking to the bedside.

"You've seen Tina, right?" Kit said.

“I have, she hasn’t woken up yet. The doctor says her condition is not good,” Chandler’s voice was very cold.
