

Ex-Wife 1906

Chapter 1906

Both Stefan and Renee had nothing else to say as they made their way back to the dock.

The atmosphere was tense.

When they arrived, the dock was full of rescue teams and cops, and Quinton, Leia, and the others were there as well.

When they realized that Renee had disappeared, they suspected that she had gone to the island to save her child, so they gathered manpower and set off for the island. "Look at that yacht...

It looks like Ren and the others!" Leia said excitedly as she pointed at the white yacht slowly approaching the dock.

"Let me see!" Through his binoculars, Quinton saw Renee and Adie standing on the yacht.

Tears of relief filled his eyes.

"It's them...

It's really them." The yacht docked smoothly, and the first person to react was Leia.

"Ren, Adie!" Leia shoved the people in front of her aside and dashed towards Renee and Adie.

Renee looked at the many people gathered there and asked Leia awkwardly, "What are you guys doing here? Are you headed to the market?" "What do you think?" Leia hugged Renee and Adie. "You secretly ran off...

We were worried sick about you! The hurricane last night was terrible, and you were hurt, but you still went there to save them! Do you think you're a superhero?" Leia scolded Renee, feeling sorry for her best friend. She held Renee's wrist and sighed.

"Look at your hand! Your wound tore open again.

You always make me worry! What about Adie? Is he okay? Who dared to kidnap our baby? I won't forgive her!" Leia rolled her sleeves up and looked at the yacht angrily.

However, the person who exited the yacht next was Stefan, wearing a night robe.

Flabbergasted, Leia lowered her hands and asked in confusion, "What...

is he doing here? Did he kidnap Adie? And why is he wearing a night robe in broad daylight how embarrassing amused, Renee explained, "He tried to rescue Adie too, and reached there earlier than me.

Then, he got trapped in the cave when it collapsed and rain kept seeping in.

If I didn't make it there in time, I can't imagine the consequences Was it that dangerous Teia's eyes grew wide

as she stared at Renee worriedly.

It sounded like the plot of an action movie.

"Yeah, so I don't regret my decision." Renee smiled helplessly feeling anxious when she remembered the earlier scene.

"Why did you act on your own? Did you even think of the consequences?" Quinton demanded suddenly, looking horrified.

"What would I do if anything happened to you? You're my only family.

How would I answer our late parents?"
