

F.D Emperor 75

Chapter 75: Divine Sea Realm

Wang Wei returned to his home and took half a month to get used to his newfound power. Then he called the new temporary head maid and started reading the information about the past few days. He learned how due to him, many of the powerful sects in the world started to increase the training of their Heaven Chosen. However, he did not care about this, he was still confident of himself.

After reading the information, he suddenly thought of something and asked the maid, "Did the sect accept my request to allow Li Jun to cultivate the [Nine Nirvana Blood Qi]?"

"Yes, young master. The Elders told me to inform you that both young master Li Jun and young miss Yan Liling can cultivate it, but they cannot cultivate all 9 Nirvanas."

After saying this, the new maid was confused. She wondered what kind of powerful cultivation technique would be forbidden by even the heir of both the Li and Yan family.

However, Wang Wei understood the Elders' message. If both Li Jun and Yan Liling manage to break through the 13th Layer of the Body Refining Realm, they most likely will have to go through Divine Punishment again.

And the sect cannot or will not afford the cost of opening the Emperor Formations again. According to what Wang Wei learned from his father, the Dao Opening Sect had to bleed a little to protect from Divine Punishment--even with the background of the sect, they are not willing to do so more than once.

Additionally, his father even mentioned the fact that the sect lost a good chunk of their Qi Luck due to the fact they defied the will of Heaven.

In fact Wang Wei is not very optimistic about these two being able to cultivate the [Nine Nirvana Blood Qi] to all 9 Nirvanas. You have to understand, without a sufficiently powerful soul, it is not easy to control the origin qi after the Divine Sea explodes, while at the same time ensuring that it is not permanently destroyed.

On top of that, he did not think either Li Jun or Yan Liling could face the will of Heaven and succeed like he did in the imaginary world. If it was not due to his insistence in the Ninth Pagoda Trial, things might have ended completely differently.

The reason he made the request was that Li Jun was his best brother and he is used to sharing good things with him. Although they have not seen each other the past five years due to them always cultivating, they still sometimes talk to each other through communication talismans.

As for Yan Liling, Wang Wei always suspected her motives were not pure in approaching him or Li Jun, as such, he never truly trusted her. However, the sect seemed to have decided to raise her as part of his future crew.

Given how talented she seemed, she must be of great use in the future. As such, Wang Wei decided to spend more time getting to know what kind of person she is.

After dealing with a bunch of mundane affairs, Wang Wei went back to his cultivation abode in order to continue his seclusion.

He was about to enter the Divine Sea Realm for about the tenth time. However, the process took longer than expected. Due to his very pure and powerful blood qi, it took him more than 2 years to break through. However, after he succeeded, he went straight to the peak second stage of Origin River.

Wang Wei looked at his vast Divine Sea filled with origin qi. He ran it according to the path or meridians of the [Origin Path Sutra], then a few more drops were added to the river.

"It is indeed similar to the inner strength described in my past life," muttered Wang Wei. However, he knew that origin qi was different from inner strength.

For once, inner strength can only travel through the body meridians and acupoints, however, origin qi is different. It can travel to all parts of the body: meridians, blood, muscle, and bones. As long as the user desires it, it will travel there.

Another difference is the fact that inner strength can have different effects based on the specific meridians it traveled through, however origin does not have such an effect. The only purpose that the meridians have is to increase the amount of origin qi in the divine sea.

And the specific route of the meridians determined the efficiency in which origin qi is gathered and how pure it is.

While inspecting his origin qi, Wang Wei could tell that it was extremely pure, maybe to the point that it is comparable to origin essence of Supernatural Realm cultivators.

Furthermore, Wang Wei found something different about his Divine Sea: it was actually expanding on its own, just like a universe infinitely expanding at all times. He guessed this was due to the [Nine Nirvana Blood Qi]. The constant explosion of his Divine Sea is somewhat similar to the Big Bang that created the universe in his previous life.

With this special Divine Sea, Wang Wei will not have to worry about his origin qi being consumed as long as he does not consume more qi than he can make. This is a feature only available to Divine Altar Realm cultivators that can control spiritual qi from Heaven and Earth to replenish their origin qi.

Suddenly, another idea came to Wang Wei's mind. In each cultivating realm, he will make sure that his realm is different and unique from the normal.

For example, he entered the Bodyrefining Realm 13th Layer, and he has an infinitely expanding Divine Sea. And in the future, he would make sure that he also cultivates a unique Divine Altar, Supernatural Realm and so on. He had a feeling that this would be of great benefit to him down the line.

After finishing checking his divine sea, Wang Wei mobilized his origin qi and uttered a bunch of weird words. After that, a bright flame appeared in his hand. Then, he said a few other words which were followed by him creating ice, wood, water, and earth from his hand.

What he was using were actually spells or origin abilities. As the origin path came from both Martial Arts and Qi cultivating, there are many spells. However, the majority of cultivators have to be in the Divine Altar realm to really use spells.

In the Divine Sea Realm, they can only do basic Five Elements spells. And these spells cannot really be used in battle, but for day to day life.

The water spell can create fresh water for cultivators to drink, the fire spell can be used to light up fire in case they need to cook something. And earth and wood spells are used for apprentices to take care of spiritual medicine in the gardens.

Of course there may be some powerful spells that allow Divine Sea cultivators to be able to have powerful combat ability. Wang Wei is not really sure about this. After all, this world is vast, anything can happen.

Maybe he could find some information in the library, but Wang Wei was not interested right now. He preferred to fight with his fists like Martial artists.

After exiting his seclusion, Wang Wei took a shower. Despite the fact that he did not need to bathe anymore, he was used to always bathing and it's hard to change the habit.

After that, he went to the Family Hall to see his parents. A few meters before arriving, he heard two voices shouting. He recognized them as his father and grandfather.

"No, he will use my method!"

"Mine is more suitable for him!"

"He is my son, of course, he has to follow in my shoes!"

"Well, he is my grandson. And without me, none of you will be even born!"

When Wang Wei entered the room, saw both his father and grandfather shouting at each other, meanwhile, his mother was sitting on the side sewing some clothes while watching them fight with a smile on her face.

Even when Wang Wei entered the room, the two of them did not even notice him. As such, he approached his mother wondering what they were fighting about.

Yu Yan was happy to see her son. She motioned him to sit by her side and started caressing his hair, then answered, "They are arguing which of their cultivation methods should you use to fight with in the future."

Wang Wei's mouth twitched a bit when he heard this. 'They were fighting just because of this?' he thought to himself. Then, he asked his mother, "Mom, whose do you think I should choose?"

Yu Yan just smiled and replied, "Whatever you want, honey. In the end, the person who will be most affected is you. So, choose whichever method you think is most suitable. And if both of them do not fit, there are plenty of cultivating methods in the sect."

After hearing this, Wang Wei nodded and kept watching the two of them fighting while chatting with his mother. After a few minutes, Yu Yan seemed to be tired of their constant bickering, as such, she lightly cleared her throat using her origin essence, thus echoing her voice throughout the room.

Suddenly, the two of them stopped and looked at her. Yu Yan smiled and said, "Apologies, I had something stuck in my throat."

"While I have your attention, why don't you both let Wei'er decide what technique to use after reading both of them?"

Both Wang Tian and Wang Chang looked at each other, nodded, then handed a jade talismans to Wang Wei containing their own created cultivation methods.
