

Fall for You 941

Chapter 941

As he spoke, Zane's face turned incredibly unsightly again.

For that child, he still felt somewhat regretful.

Kiley pursed her lips, "You can't blame mom for this, can you? When Sabina gave birth to your son, you insisted on divorcing her. That incident caused her a great deal of psychological trauma, so it's only natural that she would be upset to see you two together again."

Zane fell silent, and after a long while, he slowly said,

"Regardless, the child is gone now. You should try to comfort your mother more!"

"I knew that, but if you wanted to continue being with Sabina, you had to be more discreet. Not only would my mom be heartbroken if she found out, but if the public knew, it would also affect the image of the Schneider Group."

Zane was taken aback, he hadn't expected Kiley to have this attitude.

"Didn't you blame me?"

"What's so strange about this? If anything, it should have been strange years ago. At least with Sabina, we know her inside and out, which makes things easier to handle."

Zane looked at her appreciatively and nodded, "Not bad, that's what I thought initially too."

"Dad, as long as you don't let her meet mom, I support you in everything else."

"That's good, Kiley. Daddy will definitely work hard. Hopefully, by the time I hand over the Schneider Group to you, the Schneider family will have become a prominent family in Haseton."

"Dad, it definitely will, I believe in you!"

Leaving the Schneider Group, a cold smirk appeared on Kiley's face as she pulled out her phone and dialed a number.

"Starting from tomorrow, you were to bring chicken soup to the Schneider Group every day, and you had to make sure my dad drank it."

After all, some good things were added in there.

Kingly Group.

In the CEO's office, Isaac's face was ashen.

Zane and Kathy had consecutive mishaps, which forced him to suspect that someone was causing trouble behind the scenes. As for who it was, he knew without even having to guess.

He called his secretary in and asked coldly, "How is the follow-up with the Cameron Group going?"

As long as the Cameron Group was taken down, dealing with the Yoder Group would be much easier.

The Cameron Group seemed to have noticed something, their recent cooperation was not very enthusiastic, many procedures and documents were constantly delayed.

Isaac frowned, saying coldly, "Go arrange a meeting with Mr. Cameron."

In the evening, Isaac and Sean met at Cheerful Chamber.

The two had just sat down when Isaac frowned and said, "Mr. Cameron, do you have any issues with Kingly Group? Why has our recent collaboration become much more difficult to progress?"

Facing Isaac's questioning gaze, Sean looked somewhat embarrassed, "Mr. Yoder, it's not that I don't want to advance our cooperation, but the Cameron Group has recently encountered a bit of a crisis. We can't afford that much money right now. I'm currently trying to solve this issue, it shouldn't take too long."

Isaac's face turned cold, "Mr. Cameron, you should know, this collaboration can't be delayed any longer. If the funds from the Cameron Group don't come through, I'll have to find someone else to collaborate with."

Upon hearing this, Sean's face changed. After a few seconds of silence, he said seriously, "Mr. Yoder, give me another week. The funds will definitely be in place. If there is still a shortage of funds by then, you can cooperate with other companies. How about that?"

Isaac chuckled lightly, yet there was not a trace of warmth in his eyes.

"Mr. Cameron, I have given the Cameron Group more than a month's time, are you now making a fool out of me?"

Sean quickly said, "Mr. Yoder, please don't be angry. I really value this project. You know that the Cameron Group has

Chapter 942

"Mr. Yoder....."

Isaac interrupted him coldly, "Mr. Cameron, you don't need to say anymore, I couldn't possibly let the Cameron Group indefinitely delay this project."

Seeing his upset expression, Sean had no choice but to agree.

"Alright, within three days, I will definitely have the funds in place."

Isaac didn't say anything else, he turned around and left directly.

On the way back to the company, the secretary suddenly handed him the phone with a distressed look.

“Mr. Yoder, there were people spreading rumors online about Kingly Group’s financial fraud, and because of the previous incident with Zane, the online public opinion is now lumping Kingly Group and the Schneider Group together in criticism!”

Isaac took the phone, glanced down at it, and said coldly, “Let the Public Relations Department handle it, try not to respond!”

The two had just returned to the entrance of the company when their car was suddenly surrounded by a group of reporters. One by one, cameras and microphones encircled the entire vehicle.

“Mr. Yoder, regarding the allegations of financial fraud by Kingly Group circulating online, don’t you think you owe the public an explanation?”

“Mr. Yoder, the Kingly Group has risen abruptly in the past two years. I heard they’ve done quite a few unsavory things behind the scenes. Is this rumor true?!”

“Mr. Yoder, I heard that you were close with the president of the Schneider Group. Now that the Schneider Group is embroiled in a scandal, and the Kingly Group has also been exposed for financial fraud, did you and Ms. Schneider have any secret dealings?”

The questions were incredibly sharp, one after another. Isaac listened with his eyebrows furrowed deeply, coldly saying, “Drive!”

The driver looked somewhat troubled, “Mr. Yoder, there are reporters surrounding the car now. If we start the car, we might hit someone.”

Isaac sneered, “You just drive, I’ll take responsibility if anything happens.”

Hearing this, the driver immediately turned off the engine.

“Mr. Yoder, I didn’t dare to do this. Maybe... you should open it yourself.”

He wasn’t a fool. If something really happened, Isaac would directly scapegoat him, and he himself would come out clean.

A shadow passed over Isaac’s eyes as he coldly stared at the driver, “Leave immediately if you’re not going to drive! You’re fired!”

The driver didn’t hesitate either, he simply set aside the what- ifs, pushed the door open and left directly.

Isaac’s face turned livid with anger. He had intended to threaten the driver with this, but he didn’t expect the latter to just up and leave.

Seeing Isaac’s face so gloomy that it almost seemed to drip water, the secretary quickly said, “Mr. Yoder, I have already contacted security, they will be here shortly.”

“Mm-hmm.”

On the other side, the driver had just gotten out of the car when he was immediately surrounded by a crowd.

“Hello, as Mr. Yoder’s driver, did you know about the financial fraud of Kingly Group?”

Those reporters swarmed around like flies as soon as they saw the driver get out of the car.

However, the driver ignored them, pushing away the cameras and microphones, ready to leave.

However, the reporters had finally seen someone get out of the car, how could they possibly let him leave so easily? They were all armed with cameras, giving off an attitude that they wouldn’t let him leave without getting some information.

The driver, annoyed by being stopped, snatched a microphone from a reporter and threw it on the ground, angrily saying, “Who the hell dares to come over again, I’ll kill him! I’m just a driver, what could I possibly know?!”

With his roar, those reporters instantly quieted down.

Seeing that they were not moving forward anymore, the driver directly pushed through the crowd and left.

terminate the contract!”

“I really didn’t understand, was there a problem with any clause in the contract?”

Seeing his bewildered expression, Mr. Winters said coldly, “I can’t be bothered to continue this pointless conversation with you. I heard that for the past three years, you’ve been locked in a basement. When you were running the Yoder Group, you often did things that harmed the interests of the Yoder Group, even secretly transferring the assets of the Yoder Group. I’m afraid we can’t cooperate with someone of such poor character!”

Isaac’s face instantly turned cold and terrifying, he stared intently at Mr. Winters, “Who told you? Maxim?”

Mr. Winters was startled by his gaze, unconsciously stepping back, feeling goosebumps all over his body. The idea of terminating the contract became even more firm. He absolutely couldn’t cooperate with this madman!

“This matter has been spread all over the internet, many people are discussing it, Mr. Yoder, didn’t you see it?”

A flash of hatred and gloom passed through Isaac’s eyes, it must have been Maxim’s doing!

Besides him, no one would spread the word about being locked in his basement for three years!

However, the most important thing now was to secure these partners, they absolutely could not terminate the contract.

“Mr. Winters, how could you believe in such groundless things? Have you always treated your business as child’s

Dividing into pages now

Chapter 943

Mr. Winters took a deep breath, his expression serious, and said, "Mr. Yoder, no matter what you say, I will not change my decision to terminate the contract. I have brought the termination contract with me. Please sign it now."

Isaac sneered, "Sign or terminate the contract as you wish, are you treating me like a monkey to play with?!"

"Mr. Yoder, I know I was the first to breach the contract, so I will pay you the penalty in full without any shortage."

Isaac looked up at him, his eyes devoid of any warmth.

"Did you think that after terminating the contract with me, Maxim would still collaborate with you?"

Mr. Winters' face stiffened, he averted his gaze and said coldly, "There's no need for Mr. Yoder to worry about that."

"Don't forget, it was I who paid the penalty when you broke the contract with the Yoder Group. You know Maxim's character well, he won't cooperate with a company that has stabbed him in the back. Mr. Winters, we are now in the same boat. Are you sure you really want to break the contract?"

Seeing the confidence in Isaac's eyes, he realized what kind of madman he had provoked in the first place.

However, if they didn't terminate the contract, the Winters Group would eventually be played out by the Kingly Group.

"Mr. Yoder, regardless of whether I will collaborate with the Yoder Group in the future, I must terminate the contract today."

Dedding into pages now

"Weren't you afraid of Kingly Group's retaliation?"

Mr. Winters fell silent for a few seconds, then slowly said, "If Mr. Yoder is such a petty person, there's nothing I can do, but I must terminate this contract!"

Isaac exuded a terrifying coldness, staring at Mr. Winters for several minutes before he slowly said, "Fine, if you insist on breaking the contract, I'll let you. Just don't regret it."

Dividing into pages now

Chapter 944

The other two partners also immediately took out the termination contracts they had brought.

"Mr. Yoder, we also wanted to terminate the contract."

Isaac signed several contract termination papers with a gloomy face, saying coldly, "I want to see the penalty before the end of work today, or we'll see each other in court!"

Seeing Isaac sign, the group finally breathed a sigh of relief.

After carefully putting away the termination contract, Mr. Winters said, "Don't worry, Mr. Yoder. I will immediately call my secretary to have finance transfer the penalty fee."

Isaac had no more patience to deal with them, coldly saying, "You got what you wanted, now get lost?!"

"Leave immediately, Mr. Yoder, hope to have the opportunity to cooperate again next time."

Isaac didn't even glance at them, he turned around and walked straight into his own office.

None of them stayed here any longer, they turned around and left together.

Stepping out of Kingly Group, they finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"I originally thought that wanting to terminate the contract would be difficult, luckily Isaac didn't give us a hard time."

Dividing into pages now

"Exactly, as long as I could sever ties with Kingly Group, I was willing to pay some penalty fees!"

Mr. Winters was not as optimistic as they were, he sighed and said, "The troubles of Kingly Group have just begun."

According to Isaac's personality, he would definitely make things difficult for them later, but wanting to terminate the contract would certainly offend Isaac, which was still better than having the entire company swallowed up by Kingly Group.

If they hadn't known about the companies that had previously cooperated with Kingly Group, which ended up either being ruined or swallowed by Kingly Group, they wouldn't have terminated their contract with Kingly Group.

Just... who leaked this information to them, they hadn't found out yet.

Upon hearing this, the faces of the other two also turned somewhat unsightly, both remaining silent without saying a word.

After a good while, one of them finally murmured, "Forget it, let's just take it one step at a time, there's nothing we can do now..."

Continuing to cooperate with Kingly Group, the ultimate outcome was ending up with nothing.

At least, they had a chance then,

Mr. Winters whispered, "I told you that matter because I trust you. Don't ever leak it out, or Kingly Group will definitely find a way to make our three companies disappear in Haseton."

Dividing into pages now

By then, don't even mention the company, they might even...

"Don't worry, we definitely won't tell anyone!"

The actions previously taken by the Kingly Group were very secretive. Everyone thought that those companies failed due to poor management or broken capital chains, among other reasons. Who would have thought that the real reason was the Kingly Group plotting in the background.

No wonder Kingly Group was able to expand so quickly, it was all built on the corpses of other companies.

Thinking of this, a chill unconsciously rose up from behind each of them.

the Yoder Group.

Rayan walked into Maxim's office, whispering, "Mr. Yoder, three companies have already sought to terminate their contracts with Kingly Group today."

Maxim nodded, "Hmm, continue to send those evidences to potential partners interested in collaborating with Kingly Group."

"Alright."

Rayan was about to leave when Maxim suddenly said, "Wait."

"What happened?"

He cleared his throat lightly, "I'm planning to propose at a specific location, what place do you think would be appropriate?"

Dividing into pages now

Chapter 945

Rayan had a puzzled look on his face. He was single, why would anyone ask him?

The two stared at each other in silence for a moment before Rayan slowly said, "I'm not very sure either, shall I go check?"

"Um, it would be best to have a few more alternatives."

"Alright, I got it. By the way, do we need to resize the ring?"

Three years ago, Maxim prepared an engagement ring and had it delivered from Bridenville. After taking a glance at it, Maxim suddenly decided to have it remade. However, he later became too busy and this matter was never settled.

"Um, I happen to be going on a business trip to F State next week, I'll personally select the raw stones then."

Rayan nodded with a smile, "Alright, I'll go out to work then."

After the office quieted down, Maxim could clearly feel his heartbeat accelerating, thinking about the marriage proposal that had been aborted without being spoken out three years ago, he slowly exhaled.

This time must be successful!

In the evening after work, Maxim went to pick up Briana Cameron.

Just arrived at the bottom of Graceful Attire, saw Briana Cameron talking to a strange middle-aged woman.

He furrowed his brow, pushed open the car door and got out.

Just as she approached a spot not far from the two, she heard the woman pleading in a voice, "Ms. Cameron, Mrs. Schneider is your biological mother after all, please go see her... The doctor said her condition is very bad."

The person who came to find Briana Cameron was none other than Mallory's caregiver, Sister Sun. At that moment, she was looking at Briana Cameron with a pleading expression.

In her view, no matter how big the conflict between the two was, Briana Cameron was always Mallory's daughter. Moreover, Mallory had occasionally mentioned Briana Cameron recently, which made her unable to resist coming to find Briana Cameron.

Briana Cameron's expression was indifferent, her voice devoid of any warmth, "I haven't had any connection with her for a long time, I hope you won't come looking for me again in the future."

Sister Sun frowned, speaking in a dissatisfied tone, "How could you be so heartless? No wonder Mrs. Schneider and Mr. Schneider didn't like you in the past, and they were unwilling to mention you. You wouldn't even visit your own mother when she was sick. You really don't deserve..."

"Shut up!"

Before she could finish speaking, a cold, angry voice sounded from behind, directly interrupting Sister Sun's words.

Sister Sun turned her head and saw a tall man in a black suit, emanating a chill all over, walking towards her.

Anger filled his eyes, and the oppressive aura radiating from him sent chills down one's spine. Sister Sun couldn't help but shudder.

"You... who are you... I was talking to her, what's it to you..."

Maxim walked up to Briana Cameron, pulled her into his arms, and said coldly, "She is my wife, what's it to you?!"

Sister Sun's momentum was immediately cut in half, stuttering, "You...since you are her husband...you should...should advise her to see Mrs. Schneider, after all, family harmony brings prosperity...you young people are just too..."

Maxim had no patience to listen any further. He gave a cold glance that scared Sister Sun so much that her tongue was tied, forgetting what she originally wanted to say.

After calming down, Sister Sun wanted to speak, but was directly carried away by Maxim's bodyguard.

Sister Sun was startled, struggling and shouting, "What are you doing?! Let me go! It's a kidnapping!"

However, no one paid attention to her. As the distance between her and the two people grew, her voice became fainter and fainter.

Briana Cameron looked up at Maxim, "Why did you come so early today?"

"If I hadn't come so early, I wouldn't have seen that woman bullying you. Where is your usual dominance towards me? Why do you become silent when you encounter such unreasonable people?"

Briana Cameron huffed in annoyance, "I was just about to show off, and then you came along. There's no room for me to shine now."

Maxim raised an eyebrow and chuckled, "Are you blaming me for standing up for you?"

"I wouldn't dare, I just thought that next time you don't have to worry, I can handle it myself."

Chapter 946

"Alright, I understood."

"Alright, let's go back."

Briana Cameron had thought that the matter would end there, but to her surprise, she saw Sister Sun again at the entrance of the company the very next morning.

Upon seeing her, Sister Sun hurriedly came forward.

"Ms. Cameron, the doctor said Mrs. Schneider's health is getting worse and worse... You should go see her... She was calling for you again last night..."

Watching the enthusiastic look on Sister Sun's face, Briana Cameron couldn't help but ask, "Did Mallory save your life?"

Sister Sun was taken aback, "Why do you say that?"

"If it weren't for her life-saving favor to you, I wouldn't want to think about the reason you've come to find me time and again."

"I just didn't want you to regret it later."

"Even if I regret it, it's my own business. Please don't come again, or I will call the police and accuse you of harassment."

"Were you really that heartless?!"

Sister Sun looked incredulous. Even if Mallory had been unkind to her, she was still her biological mother, the one who

288 Vouchers

gave her life. How could she not feel any gratitude at all?!

Briana Cameron couldn't be bothered to deal with her anymore, she quickly stepped into Graceful Attire.

Sister Sun stayed downstairs for a while, but eventually turned around and left.

Back at the hospital, she told Mallory that she had gone to find Briana Cameron, but she refused to come see Mallory.

Mallory's face also turned extremely ugly, frowning and saying, "Sister Sun, don't go looking for her anymore, I've long since cut off all ties with her."

Sister Sun frowned and said, "You two are mother and daughter. You gave her life, she should be grateful. How could she possibly sever ties? She will always be your daughter."

Upon hearing this, Mallory's face darkened, "Sister Sun, you may not be fully aware of our family matters. Please don't take it upon yourself to do such things in the future."

Sister Sun was somewhat upset. She had clearly acted for her benefit, yet she was blamed instead.

"Alright then."

After a moment of silence, Mallory continued, "Sister Sun, having one daughter, Kiley, is enough for me. As for Briana Cameron, I consider it as if I never had this daughter. You should not meddle in this matter anymore."

Mallory had tried all sorts of methods with Briana Cameron, but Briana Cameron was unyielding, and she was helpless.

"I was just feeling sorry for you. Look at you, you've been in the hospital for so long, and she never once came to visit you. Raising a dog would be more useful than taking care of her."

"Alright, stop talking. The doctor just came by and said I need to go for a re-examination. Find a wheelchair and push me to get the check-up."

Sister Sun pursed her lips, said no more, and found a wheelchair to take Mallory for a check-up.

In the afternoon, the test results came out.

The doctor came over with the form, his expression serious as he said, "Mrs. Schneider, Mr. Schneider didn't come today?"

Seeing the doctor's expression, Mallory suddenly felt nervous.

"No, was there any problem with my test results?"

The doctor nodded, "Your body is very weak now, and you originally had a poor physical foundation. However, you should have taken some time to recuperate in the past, so the situation is not very serious at the moment. As long as you continue to recuperate, your body should be able to return to normal in about a year, but it will still be weaker than the average person.”

Disbelief filled Mallory’s eyes as she quickly said, “I’ve never nurtured before...”

Speaking to this point, her face suddenly changed.

Could it be the time when Briana Cameron returned to the Schneider family and they were nourishing her with food?

At that time, she didn’t care at all, just thinking it was a way for Briana Camero

“Alright, I understood.”

“Alright, let’s go back.”

Briana Cameron had thought that the matter would end there, but to her surprise, she saw Sister Sun again at the entrance of the company the very next morning.

Upon seeing her, Sister Sun hurriedly came forward.

“Ms. Cameron, the doctor said Mrs. Schneider’s health is getting worse and worse... You should go see her... She was calling for you again last night...”

Watching the enthusiastic look on Sister Sun’s face, Briana Cameron couldn’t help but ask, “Did Mallory save your life?”

Sister Sun was taken aback, “Why do you say that?”

“If it weren’t for her life-saving favor to you, I wouldn’t want to think about the reason you’ve come to find me time and again.”

“I just didn’t want you to regret it later.”

“Even if I regret it, it’s my own business. Please don’t come again, or I will call the police and accuse you of harassment.”

“Were you really that heartless?!”

Sister Sun looked incredulous. Even if Mallory had been unkind to her, she was still her biological mother, the one who 288 Vouchers

gave her life. How could she not feel any gratitude at all?!

Briana Cameron couldn’t be bothered to deal with her anymore, she quickly stepped into Graceful Attire.

Sister Sun stayed downstairs for a while, but eventually turned around and left.

Back at the hospital, she told Mallory that she had gone to find Briana Cameron, but she refused to come see Mallory.

Mallory's face also turned extremely ugly, frowning and saying, "Sister Sun, don't go looking for her anymore, I've long since cut off all ties with her."

Sister Sun frowned and said, "You two are mother and daughter. You gave her life, she should be grateful. How could she possibly sever ties? She will always be your daughter."

Upon hearing this, Mallory's face darkened, "Sister Sun, you may not be fully aware of our family matters. Please don't take it upon yourself to do such things in the future."

Sister Sun was somewhat upset. She had clearly acted for her benefit, yet she was blamed instead.

"Alright then."

After a moment of silence, Mallory continued, "Sister Sun, having one daughter, Kiley, is enough for me. As for Briana Cameron, I consider it as if I never had this daughter. You should not meddle in this matter anymore."

Mallory had tried all sorts of methods with Briana Cameron, but Briana Cameron was unyielding, and she was helpless.

"I was just feeling sorry for you. Look at you, you've been in the hospital for so long, and she never once came to visit you. Raising a dog would be more useful than taking care of her."

"Alright, stop talking. The doctor just came by and said I need to go for a re-examination. Find a wheelchair and push me to get the check-up."

Sister Sun pursed her lips, said no more, and found a wheelchair to take Mallory for a check-up.

In the afternoon, the test results came out.

The doctor came over with the form, his expression serious as he said, "Mrs. Schneider, Mr. Schneider didn't come today?"

Seeing the doctor's expression, Mallory suddenly felt nervous.

"No, was there any problem with my test results?"

The doctor nodded, "Your body is very weak now, and you originally had a poor physical foundation. However, you should have taken some time to recuperate in the past, so the situation is not very serious at the moment. As long as you continue to recuperate, your body should be able to return to normal in about a year, but it will still be weaker than the average person."

Disbelief filled Mallory's eyes as she quickly said, "I've never nurtured before..."

Speaking to this point, her face suddenly changed.

Could it be the time when Briana Cameron returned to the Schneider family and they were nourishing her with food?

At that time, she didn't care at all, just thinking it was a way for Briana Cameron to curry favor with her. Could it be that her body had been recuperated during that period?

The doctor was also somewhat puzzled, "None? Then I must have made a wrong estimation. However, your health is currently very poor, you need to take good care of yourself."

Mallory nodded, but couldn't help asking, "After I recover, I still be able to get pregnant?"

n to curry favor with her. Could it be that her body had been recuperated during that period?

The doctor was also somewhat puzzled, "None? Then I must have made a wrong estimation. However, your health is currently very poor, you need to take good care of yourself."

Mallory nodded, but couldn't help asking, "After I recover, I still be able to get pregnant?"

Chapter 947

The doctor was silent for a moment, then slowly said, "I wouldn't recommend it. One reason is your age, and another is that your body is weaker than others. Even if you do get pregnant, there's no guarantee you'll be able to give birth."

Upon hearing this, Mallory immediately felt a sense of despair.

"I knew, thank you."

The doctor nodded, "I suggest you seek some traditional medicine to recuperate your body, otherwise, you might leave lingering health issues."

Mallory stared blankly at the quilt, as if she hadn't heard the doctor's words.

The doctor didn't say anything more either. After giving Sister Sun some precautions, he left.

Seeing Mallory in such a dispirited state, Sister Sun sat down next to her, "Mrs. Schneider, the most important thing now is to take care of your health. Once you're better, there are women in our village who have had children in their fifties. You're just in your early forties, you can definitely do it."

After her reminder, Mallory suddenly remembered the dietary treatments Briana Cameron had made for her and quickly said, "Give me my phone."

Upon receiving the phone, Mallory immediately called the butler of the Schneider family, asking him if he still had the list of dietary therapy that Briana Cameron had made for her in the past.

Receiving a negative answer, a wave of disappointment immediately washed over Mallory's face.

At that time, she ate meals made by Briana Cameron every day. During that period, she indeed felt much better physically. She originally thought it was due to going to bed early and getting up early. Now thinking about it, she guessed that her improved sleep was probably due to the food she ate.

Was she going to beg Briana Cameron?

Thinking of this possibility, she felt a wave of discomfort in her heart.

Seeing her looking unwell, Sister Sun quickly asked, "Mrs. Schneider, are you feeling unwell somewhere?"

Mallory shook her head, "I'm fine, I just want some quiet time alone. You go out and have a walk."

Seeing her pale face, Sister Sun felt uneasy. After all, she was now a caregiver. If anything happened to Mallory, she would not be able to escape the blame.

After hesitating for a moment, she still shook her head and said, "I'll just stay here with you."

"Don't worry, I wouldn't do anything foolish, I still had a lot to do."

She hadn't yet avenged her child's enemies, she wouldn't let those two scoundrels, Zane and Sabina, get away with it!

Seeing the hint of hatred flickering in her eyes, Sister Sun was taken aback and quickly said, "Madam, the most important thing for you now is to get better. Don't think about anything else."

"Um, I knew, Sister Sun, thank you!"

"This was all I was supposed to do."

"Um, then go out and buy me some food, I want to eat Spaghetti."

This was the first time Mallory had expressed a desire to eat since her miscarriage, and Sister Sun was immediately overjoyed.

"Alright, I went to buy it for you immediately, and I was back in half an hour."

"Mm-hmm."

After Sister Sun left, Mallory held her phone and pondered for a long time before finally calling Briana Cameron.

The phone had barely rung a few times before it was abruptly hung up on the other end.

She was about to make the second call when a text message came into her phone.

"Mrs. Schneider, if I remember correctly, we severed ties a long time ago. Please stop appearing in my life."

Their best ending was to be well on their own.

Upon seeing those cold words, Mallory was so angry that her chest heaved violently. It took her quite a while to calm down.

She took a deep breath, dialed again, only to find out that she had been blocked by Briana Cameron.

Her face immediately fell, she directly threw her phone on the ground, and let out a cold laugh.

"Fine, you wouldn't answer the phone, so I came to find you in person!"

Chapter 948

Mallory had just put down the phone when the door to the sickroom was pushed open.

Seeing Kiley, a smile appeared on her face, for now, Kiley was her only hope.

However, the next second, her smile froze on her face.

“Kiley, what happened to your face?”

Kiley had noticeable bruises at the corners of her eyes and mouth, and her cheeks were also swollen. She appeared to be severely injured.

Entering the ward and finding no one else, Kiley finally sat down by the bed.

“Mom, Isaac hit me!”

Yesterday, Isaac was not himself, he suddenly started hitting her like a madman, completely unlike before, this time he even hit her face.

Finally, she was literally knocked out by the pain.

When she woke up again, Isaac had already gone to work, and she was still lying on the cold floor of the study.

Just the thought of Isaac’s seemingly insane behavior last night filled Kiley with fear, to the point where she didn’t want to see Isaac ever again.

Mallory saw the scars on her wrist, and tears of heartache immediately fell.

“What on earth happened? How could he suddenly hit someone?!”

Kiley shook her head, tears welling in her eyes, “Every time things don’t go his way, he comes back and beats me. He’s done it so many times recently, Mom, please save me...”

Mallory’s eyes were filled with heartache as she angrily said, “You gave him a daughter, and he still treats you like this, he’s nothing but a beast! Your dad bought a villa in Haseton, go pack your things, take Denise with you, and live in that villa. I don’t believe he would dare to come to that villa to hit you!”

“No, it’s not possible. The Schneider Group is currently relying on the Kingly Group for survival. If my dad knew I left him, he would definitely try to persuade me to go back, he might even directly send me back.”

For Zane, she knew him too well.

He only had interests in his eyes, and for the sake of interests, he could betray anything, including his own daughter.

Mallory frowned, “What should we do then?”

Besides this method, she couldn’t think of anything else.

Kiley wiped her tears, “Now, only Maxim can save me.”

Mallory fell silent, and it was a long time before she spoke again: "Maxim is not the same person who used to like you anymore. He's been completely smitten by Briana Cameron, and I doubt he'll help you again."

There was a cold look in Kiley's eyes, "I know, but he likes Denise. As long as Denise asks him, he will definitely help."

Seeing Kiley's confidence, Mallory didn't think much of her idea.

"Kiley, you know the relationship between Isaac and Maxim. If Isaac found out, he might hit you again. Maybe you should think of another way."

"I couldn't wait any longer!"

Kiley roared in desperation, "I'm taking Denise to Maxim today, and if Denise asks him, he will definitely help me!"

During this period, she sometimes had nightmares when she slept, dreaming that she was killed by Isaac in the study.

If this continued, she would definitely go crazy!

Now all she wanted was to escape from the devil Isaac, and then take over the Schneider Group from Zane. She didn't want to think about anything else.

Seeing her with a crazed expression, Mallory didn't know what to say.

"Kiley....."

Kiley stood up, looking down at Mallory and said, "Mom, stop talking. I've made up my mind. No matter what, I have to leave Isaac."

Seeing the coldness in her eyes, Mallory always felt that it wasn't as simple as her wanting Denise to plead with Maxim.

"Kiley, whatever you do, you must think it through. If you take

Chapter 949

After speaking, Kiley left the hospital, but Mallory couldn't help feeling a sense of unease in her heart, always feeling that something big was about to happen.

On the other side, as soon as Isaac arrived at the company, the secretary hurriedly reported to his office.

"Mr. Yoder, several clients who were originally interested in cooperating with our company have recently started to reject us, both intentionally and unintentionally."

Upon hearing this, Isaac's face instantly turned incredibly unsightly. He said coldly, "Find out what's going on!"

"It was already being investigated, but they all kept their mouths shut, refusing to reveal a single word."

A glint of gloom flashed in Isaac's eyes, his voice chillingly cold.

"Since they refused to speak, unconventional methods could be used when necessary."

The secretary's face changed, but she quickly lowered her head and said, "Alright, I understand."

"Alright, go out."

After the secretary left, Isaac irritably tugged at his tie, the violence in his heart barely suppressed.

Yesterday, due to the matter of the three shareholders terminating their contracts, he couldn't help but hit Kiley when he got home. Seeing the expression of agony on Kiley's face, a strange sense of pleasure rose in his heart. It wasn't until Kiley passed out that he finally stopped.

He greatly enjoyed the terrified expression on Kiley's face, an expression that made him feel like an emperor who could control everything, with everything under his control.

Just that Kiley was seriously injured this time and couldn't play anymore tonight.

Thinking of this, he suddenly became somewhat irritated.

It seemed that I had to find a few more people to practice on.

With these thoughts, a cruel smile slowly crept up the corners of his mouth.

On the other side, Kiley returned to the villa and immediately went into the kitchen.

Half an hour later, she came out carrying two desserts.

She called Denise over and handed her one of the portions, smiling as she said, "Denise, this is a dessert that mom just made, try it and see if it's good."

Seeing the spoon handed over by her, Denise's small body couldn't help but shudder, with resistance in her eyes.

After all, she had made mistakes before, and Kiley would always punish her in various ways, never having cooked for her.

Sensing her reluctance, Kiley scooped up a spoonful herself and brought it to her lips, whispering, "It's delicious, give it a try!"

Denise took a step back, carefully looking at her, "Mom... Mom, I'm not hungry..."

The smile on Kiley's face faded a bit, she squinted her eyes and said, "Denise, mom doesn't have much patience, and this is really delicious. I made two servings, you try it. If it's good, I'll take you to Mr. Yoder's later, you can bring him a serving."

Upon hearing this, Denise's eyes widened in shock.

"Really?"

“Of course it’s true, when has Mom ever lied to you?”

A glimmer of anticipation flashed in Denise’s eyes, but for some unknown reason, her gaze turned dull again.

“But...Dad said...he told me not to see Uncle again in the future...”

Kiley said with a smile, “It’s okay, mom will take you there. It just so happens that I have something to do today as well. I’ll drop you off at your uncle’s place to play first, and pick you up before your dad gets home. This way, your dad won’t find out.”

Upon hearing this, a smile finally appeared on Denise’s face.

“Okay, thank you, Mom!”

“As long as Dad doesn’t find out, it’ll be fine,” Denise thought to herself.

“Come on, try it and see if it’s good.”

Denise took a bite and immediately squinted her eyes in delight.

“Delicious!”

Kiley smiled contentedly, handing her the spoon, “Eat it yourself, I’ll pack this up and bring it to you later to see your uncle.”

Chapter 950

“Good!”

Denise was full of anticipation, eating much faster than usual. By the time Kiley had packed the dessert, she turned around to find that Denise had already finished eating.

“Mom, let’s go, I finished eating.”

Kiley touched her head, smiling and said, “Let’s go.”

On the way to the Yoder Group, Kiley reminded Denise, “Denise, you must not tell Uncle that this dessert was made by Mom, otherwise Uncle won’t eat it, you know?”

Denise looked at Kiley with her big eyes, which were completely clear of any impurities.

“Why? Wasn’t uncle with mom before? Why doesn’t he eat the food mom made?”

“The matters between adults are complicated, I’ll explain to you slowly later. For now, just remember what I said, tell your uncle that it was the dessert you liked, and that you pestered me to buy one for him. That’s why I bought it, understand?”

Denise was silent for a moment, then nodded and said, “Alright then.”

"This is mommy's good baby. If you want to live with uncle in the future, you must do as I say, understand?"

"Understood."

Denise agreed, but she wasn't as excited as before, because Isaac had been very good to her recently. She was gradually developing a fondness for this father. Although he was bad, he was her father and he was very good to her.

Young Denise didn't have a sense of right or wrong yet, she liked whoever was nice to her.

Moreover, sometimes she felt sorry for her father, as no one seemed to like him.

In less than half an hour, Kiley's car had stopped downstairs of the Yoder Group building.

She sent Denise in, and repeated her instructions, "Denise, do you remember what I told you?"

"Mm-hmm." Denise nodded.

"Alright, go in. Mom will come to pick you up tonight."

"Um, goodbye, Mom."

After watching Denise go in, Kiley turned around and left immediately. She still needed to prepare, tonight had to go off without a hitch.

The front desk quickly called Rayan, informing him about Kiley bringing Denise to the Yoder Group.

After listening, Rayan couldn't help but frown, "I'll go talk to the president first, then see what to do."

Rayan knocked and entered Maxim's office, "Mr. Yoder, Kiley has dropped off Denise, she's downstairs now."

Maxim frowned, asking coldly, "Where is she?"

Not knowing where they had gone, now only Denise was downstairs.

288 Vouchers

Upon hearing this, a glint of coldness flashed in Maxim's eyes. Leaving the child outside like this, Kiley was truly unfit to be a mother!

"Go pick up the person first, and while you're at it, contact Kiley and ask her to come pick up the child as soon as possible."

"Alright."

Soon, Rayan had brought Denise up.

Upon seeing Maxim, Denise, with her short legs, ran towards him. She stumbled and almost fell, but luckily, Rayan, with his quick reflexes, caught her.

“Be careful, don’t fall.”

Denise nodded, “Yes, thank you Mr. Fleming!”

After steadying herself, she ran up to Maxim, handing him the dessert in her hand, “Uncle, this is the dessert I brought for you.”

A flicker of surprise passed through Maxim’s eyes, then he took it with a smile, saying, “Thank you, Denise.”

Seeing him put the dessert aside with no intention of eating it, Denise immediately became anxious. Her mother had just told her on the way here to make sure her uncle ate the dessert.

“Uncle, weren’t you eating now?”

Seeing the anticipation in the little one’s eyes, Maxim chuckled, “Uncle still has work to do now, we’ll eat when we’re hungry later. Let Mr. Fleming get you a toy to play with.”