

Fall for You 991

Chapter 991

“Speak your mind, Iris. After all, we’ve been through life and death together countless times. If you’re willing to let me go, I’ll tell you everything.”

“You speak first, then I’ll consider whether or not to let you go.”

Isaac frowned, “Isn’t this a bit too much?”

“If you don’t want to die, spill everything you know.

Otherwise, I can’t guarantee that the knife in my hand will be discerning.”

“Alright, I admit, I was scared of you,” I said. “Initially, when I saw you online, I wanted to invite you to join me on a mission. But before I could approach you, a mysterious person suddenly contacted me, asking me to take on a mission and to involve you. However, the purpose of that mission was not to kill Scorpion, but to kill his subordinates, in order to provoke Scorpion and make him hunt you down!”

Coldness filled Briana Cameron’s eyes. She had been living under a pseudonym for many years and had never logged into the Fullmoon Hotel’s account. As soon as she did, the other party locked onto her, indicating that they were well aware of her identity.

Only the founder of Fullmoon Hotel and a few managers knew her identity. It seemed that the person who wanted to kill her was among them. But... why did they want to kill her?

She put the issue aside for a moment and coldly asked, “So how did you end up getting involved with Scorpion?!”

“After that mission ended, Scorpion was not only hunting you down, but also looking for me. I planned to hide for a while, then revert to my original identity and return to the Yoder family. At first, I didn’t know you were Iris, so I didn’t pay attention to you. Later, the person who helped me conceal my identity asked me to steal the secret key of the Yoder family.”

“I had tried to subtly probe my grandmother, but she responded without giving anything away, completely unwilling to reveal where the key was. Later, I guess my grandmother realized that my return was not for simple reasons, and she became much colder towards me. For the sake of the key, I decided to first take back the Yoder Group. Moreover, at that time, I believed that my parents were killed by Maxim’s parents, and I harbored a personal desire for revenge!”

“You knew what happened later, I didn’t manage to deliver the key to the other party, and they didn’t bother with me anymore.”

“After you died, Maxim locked me in the basement for a full three years. I thought I would never have the chance to get out, but not long ago, I was rescued by Scorpion. His demand was for me to get the secret key of the Yoder family. Now, he also wants the secret key of the Cameron family, so he will definitely do everything he can to deal with the Cameron family!”

As for the matter that Scorpion was Robinson, Isaac didn't plan to say it at the moment. After all, if he said too much, Robinson would definitely notice.

Briana Cameron pondered for a moment, then said coldly, "I'll spare your life for now. As for what you've said, I'll verify it myself. If you dare to deceive me, I'll make sure you wish you were dead!"

After speaking, Briana Cameron removed the dagger from his neck and turned to leave directly.

Just when Isaac thought she had left and heaved a sigh of relief, her cold voice suddenly rang out again.

"Right, I almost forgot to tell you, when I came to find you, I noticed that your villa was being watched. It seems that Scorpion doesn't trust you that much."

Isaac: ".....

After Briana Cameron left, a cold smirk appeared on Isaac's face. All he had to do next was to watch Briana Cameron and Robinson fight from the sidelines. Nothing else mattered to him.

Returning to Gilded Bay Villa, as soon as Briana Cameron pushed open the door, she saw Maxim sitting on the sofa, looking very upset.

"Where did you go?"

Meeting his questioning gaze, Briana Cameron pursed her lips, her expression cold as she said, "A person gets bored, they go for a walk."

"Briana, I didn't want to argue with you, I hoped you could be honest, where exactly had you gone?"

Briana Cameron frowned, coldly locking eyes with Maxim. said it was just a walk, if you don't believe it, then forget it."

She changed her shoes, turned around and walked straight upstairs.

Just as I stepped on the first step, my wrist was grabbed.

In the next second, he fell into an embrace filled with the scent of pine.

"Maxim, what were you doing?!"

Maxim held her waist tightly, whispering, "Briana, it was my fault today. You just regained your memory, you must have been very upset, and I left you alone in the villa without any care. Now I think about it, I was really a jerk. When I asked you where you were going, I was also scared, scared that you wouldn't want to deal with me anymore..."
