Chapter 204: Eighty Nine Heavenly Tribulation! ! (3/5)

After Zhao Ling finished speaking, he rushed into the void in an instant, which immediately made the faces of the two Zergs change drastically in fright!

You know, Transcend Tribulation in the universe starry sky can only be Transcend Tribulation in the starry sky.

If Heavenly Dao rushes into the void thunder pool rashly when Heavenly Tribulation is condensed, it will be regarded as a provocation by Heavenly Dao!

It means something different!

Sure enough, when Zhao Ling felt that Zhao Ling had rushed into the Nether Thunder Pond, which is the birthplace of Heavenly Tribulation, the Nether Thunder Pond instantly exploded!

In a word, I have never seen such a Zhang!"

And as a representative of justice in heaven and earth, Heavenly Tribulation broke out immediately.

"boom!!!!"

With a terrifying roar, a terrifying power of thunder calamity instantly smashed down from the endless void towards Zhao Ling in the middle of the thunder pool.

"Five times the immortal power?"

Zhao Ling's eyes flashed, sure enough, those who provoke the power of Heavenly Tribulation will definitely be targeted.

However, Zhao Ling doesn't care!!

"boom!!!!!"

After an earth-shattering bang, Zhao Ling was instantly struck by a huge thunder!

The light golden power of Heavenly Tribulation exudes a hint of Supreme breath.

However, this Supreme aura, before the seal of law exuded by Zhao Ling, did not have much resistance at all!

With a whole wave of fluctuations, this thunder disappeared into nothingness in an instant.

And this fluctuation is emitted by the law seal.

Zhao Ling's eyes lit up when he saw this scene!

"The level of the law seal is so high! It seems that the power of Heavenly Tribulation doesn't seem to be of any use to him!"

Zhao Ling thought to himself, the seal of own law is fundamentally different from the seal of law in the traditional sense, Zhao Ling's seal of law is composed of thousands of original seals of law!

Therefore, the aura emanating from the current law seal is tens of thousands of other people's law seals!

And this strength is not only the degree of strength, but also the level, and the degree of dignity is tens of thousands of times that of a normal seal.

"boom!!!!"

However, at the next moment, another thunderbolt crashed down from the sky.

"Fifty-three thousand times!?"

Zhao Ling's eyes flashed, and it was three times stronger than the usual six-nine Heavenly Tribulation!

"Could this be Seventy-Nine Heavenly Tribulation?"

Zhao Ling frowned, guessing secretly, but the level of this Heavenly Tribulation is not much different from the eighth Nine Heavens level of the Blood Devil gun!

"It's actually 89 Heavenly Tribulation now, because you think of me!?"

Zhao Ling is a bit helpless! The one who was tempered by Seventy-Nine Heavenly Tribulation at the time of breakthrough to immortality is a genius that is rarely seen in countless epochs!

And eighty-nine Heavenly Tribulation, there is no record in the history of the human race that anyone has ever experienced it!

And Zhao Ling has not even reached the real immortality level and will go through the eighty-nine Heavenly Tribulation, this is absolutely abnormal!

Zhao Ling frowned!

"Ding...it's normal. Originally, no matter how powerful the host's Talent is, it can only pass seventy-nine Heavenly Tribulation because eighty-nine Heavenly Tribulation is not an ordinary postgraduate entrance examination.

Rather, it is a punitive test.

Only the strong, or artifacts that are not tolerated by the world will trigger it!

Unfortunately, the host's Blood Devil gun exists like this.

And the host rushing into the void mine now means provoking Heavenly Tribulation.

Therefore, the host can only bite the bullet now!"

At this time, the system explained Zhao Ling's doubts!

In an instant Zhao Ling was speechless!

"Fuck, I just thought that now that I am stronger, maybe I can increase the strength of Heavenly Tribulation a little bit, who knew Heavenly Dao was so stingy!?"

Zhao Ling was a bit speechless, but he can't be blamed, who knew that Heavenly Dao was going to give him the most powerful Heavenly Tribulation!

"But eighty-nine Heavenly Tribulation words have a total of seventy-two words.

And every word will increase the peak strength of the world lord by three thousand times!

That is to say, the most powerful Eighty-nine Heavenly Tribulation can only play about 270,000 times the power of the World Lord's peak!"

Thinking of this, Zhao Ling breathed a sigh of relief,

The next moment Zhao Ling directly took out his own Blood Devil gun!

"Tsk tsk, since Heavenly Dao wants me to die, then I'll give it a try too, what is the limit of your strength!"

When Zhao Ling said this, he shot out instantly, The next moment, the lightning calamity that struck towards Zhao Ling instantly shattered into thunder elements all over the sky!

It's just that there is still an incomparably noble atmosphere in the thunder element!

This breath made Zhao Ling feel a little palpitation.

Fortunately, this breath is very weak, almost negligible, otherwise, even if Zhao Ling is tens of thousands of times stronger, he will be destroyed by this terrifying noble breath!

"Is this the really powerful part of Heavenly Tribulation!?"

Zhao Ling frowned suddenly.

This breath is the noble existence that Zhao Ling felt before.

And it was this aura, Zhao Ling knew that if he was directly hit by this aura, he might die!

..... Ask for flowers.....

"But! Why is this breath so dick?"

Zhao Ling was a little startled, if this aura was a little more tyrannical.

If I don't have the law seal or the Blood Devil gun with the extremely powerful Death law, I may be killed by this thunderstorm!

Although the strength of this thunder tribulation itself is not very strong!

"Ding... this trace of power is a unique element in Heavenly Tribulation, the power of heavenly punishment, the power of heavenly punishment at the eighth Nine Heavens level is not strong, so the host does not need to worry at all!

At the same time, the power of Heaven's Punishment doesn't have much malice towards the host, which means that the host is not a heinous person!"

Zhao Ling was relieved by the system prompt.

It's okay, but the system said that he is not a heinous person, and Zhao Ling is a little confused. Under Zhao Ling's hands, or indirectly killed Zerg, the number of Zergs probably reached hundreds of millions.

.....O

This number is actually not a heinous crime!

"It seems that the existence of Zerg is unbearable even for Heavenly Dao!"

Zhao Ling quickly figured out why!

The Zerg race is like the borers of this Fang universe, gnawing on the nutrition of the universe every day. You must know that the original area of this universe is many times wider than it is now, but now it has a large area of barren star field!

These are the ghosts of the system!

"!!!!!!"

However, at the next moment, another powerful force of thunder and calamity blasted down from the sky.

"drink!!!!!"

Zhao Ling let out a low cry, and a terrifying blood-colored gun light was shot out by Zhao Ling in an instant, and the Thunder Tribulation bombarded in the void was instantly shattered by Zhao Ling's shot!

Next, the power of Heavenly Tribulation continued to bombard Zhao Ling crazily!

With the passage of time, the power of thunder calamity is also rapidly increasing his strength.

Soon, the calendar of calamity reached more than 180,000 times the horror!

And Zhao Ling did hold on with the help of the Blood Devil gun!

At the same time, the power of Zhao Ling's law of destruction was also raised to the level of more than 300 scales under the bombardment of the power of Heavenly Tribulation!

'boom!!!!!"

After another loud noise piercing through the sky, a thunderbolt blasted towards Zhao Ling again.

"destroy!!!!!"

Zhao Ling let out a low snort, and a terrifying destructive force erupted from the tip of the spear instantly.

The fifty-fourth thunder tribulation collided with Zhao Ling's in an instant. .
