

Fantasy I Pick Up Attributes In The Future

Chapter Eight: The Horror Of Soul Power! (Looking For Flowers At Midnight!)

Looking at the own attribute, Zhao Ling couldn't believe that he was the result of four or five hours after getting the system!

This result is simply too terrifying.

Only one day can grow from a boy with a strength of only more than 200 kg to a powerful Body Tempering First Stage.

"By the way, system, can my experience be used to improve this soul power?"

Zhao Ling asked the system suspiciously!

"Ding... That's right, experience points can be used to upgrade anything. For example, the host only needs 2,000 points of experience points to upgrade the Bull Fist to the lower level of the spirit class!"

The system's explanation made Zhao Ling's eyes shine. It turns out that the experience value has such a terrifying effect.

Then if I have enough experience, can't I directly upgrade any Cultivation Technique to a magic skill?

"Tsk tsk tsk, I just don't know how much experience is needed to do this!"

Zhao Ling thought to himself.

"By the way, system, help me upgrade my soul power!"

Suddenly, Zhao Ling remembered the soul power in the own attribute.

"Ding... Congratulations to the host for spending experience points: 100 points to upgrade soul power, 1 soul power to 2 soul power (0/1000)!"

As the system's notification tone fell, Zhao Ling clearly felt that the telekinetic power in his sea of consciousness seemed to have undergone a slight qualitative change!

Then he applied his own telekinetic power to his own Flying Daggers and found that he needed 1% of the force to lift the Flying Daggers up, but now he only needs 1/200th of the power, which means that he has the power of his own telekinetic power. The usage efficiency has been doubled!

"The power of the soul actually has such a terrifying effect."

Zhao Ling took a look at the own data soul attribute has reached more than 200, which means it can exert a strength of 2,000 kilograms.

And with the addition of soul power, Zhao Ling can now use telekinetic power to burst out a force of 4,000 kilograms, which is enough to blow up a Body Tempering Fourth Stage!

"I still have 1,500 experience points, and I can upgrade my soul power again!"

Thinking of this, Zhao Ling's eyes lit up, and he was about to directly use a thousand experience points to improve his soul power.

"Ding... Congratulations to the host for spending experience points: 1000 points to upgrade soul power, 2 soul power to 3 soul power (0/3000)!"

The next moment Zhao Ling once again felt a slight change in own soul.

And this slight change is almost the same as before!

And just when Zhao Ling was improving his own strength, the principal on stage finally finished speaking!

The students in class E were brought to the titanium training ground by instructor Wang again.

"This is the end of today's class, everyone remember it in the last three days! The hope of your whole family is entrusted to you, and the success of the martial arts test is what determines your life."

Instructor Wang's serious words darkened the expressions of the surrounding students, but when they suddenly thought of Zhao Ling, they felt a little hope in their hearts.

"Okay, everyone disbands, Zhao Ling stays!"

Zhao Ling was taken aback by Instructor Wang's words, but he stayed according to the other party's wishes.

The students around all walked towards home one by one, and of course more of them stayed on the titanium training ground and practiced hard.

"Boy, it's hidden very deep!!"

Instructor Wang came to Zhao Ling and smiled heartily.

But the sincere happiness in his tone warmed Zhao Ling's heart!

After the death of their parents, the Zhao Ling siblings almost all depended on the relief money and the inheritance left by their parents.

But Zhao Xue, who was weak and sickly since childhood, went to the hospital from time to time.

And Zhao Ling, who often went to take care of Zhao Xue, even though he worked extremely hard, still wasted most of Zhao Ling's little practice time.

During this period, Instructor Wang has been helping Zhao Ling more or less.

"Instructor, don't laugh at me, it's not like you don't know my situation!"

Zhao Ling smiled helplessly.

Hearing Zhao Ling's words, Instructor Wang's face was slightly serious.

"Sure enough, you should have awakened the ability! Otherwise, it would be impossible to improve so much strength in such a short period of time!"

Speaking of supernatural powers, instructor Wang's eyes flashed with envy!

"Ability?"

Zhao Ling was taken aback for a moment. The reason why he was not worried about whether his sudden surge in strength would be suspected was because this kind of thing had happened not once or twice.

As far as Zhao Ling knows, it happened more than three or four times. Of course, it didn't happen in own school, but at least it happened in Tianshui City.

The most recent one was last year, when a crane tail in the Eighteenth Middle School of Tianshui City suddenly broke out before the college entrance examination. He was not even a preparatory Practitioner, but he became a senior preparatory Practitioner.

How similar this situation is to myself!

"It turns out that they are all abilities awakened?!"

Zhao Ling suddenly realized, no wonder he suddenly became stronger.

"That's right, it's the awakening of abilities. Have you felt anything unusual recently?"

Instructor Wang asked Zhao Ling curiously.

"Abnormal? Does this count!!!"
