Chapter 1001 Like Jocelyn

And just then, his computer screen prompted, [SSS, inviting you to join a team.]

His eyes, calm as a pool of stagnant water, immediately rippled with water.

He then curled his lips lightly and clicked yes.

This is the name that Jocelyn has just changed.

He took it to heart.

The team, all busy with their own games at the moment, didn't notice that such an image.

Once Alex entered the game, the match was soon completed.

The teammates they matched on their side were all high scoring roadies in Korean.

Seeing Alex, the audiences got excited -

Momo: [Support, wild player, you guys don't go anywhere, just help.]

Bao: [Got it, Ben play wild, I'm staying in the top lane today, I want unlimited help!]

Lin: [I'm playing the support position, I'm staying in the top lane today too].

On the other side of the computer, Jocelyn looked at their chat and immediately responded -

SSS: [The wild player is fine alone in the top lane, the support comes with me.]

Lin: [Why should I go with you? Don't you know who is in top lane? Who are you?]

Bao: [Do you know who is in top lane? It's Alex!!!]

Lin: [That's right, want me to give you assistance, are you worthy?]

Jocelyn felt speechless at once.

Lin: [You may think we are going too far, but you have to learn to put up with it, and when you see a god, you have to automatically kneel down].

Bao: [Red buff is for top lane, blue buff is for top lane.]

On the other side of the computer, Alex frowned faintly.

And then he typed a line.

He did not want to break such a balance.
And even if it breaks, it doesn't help.
Nothing will come of it except that it will become awkward, between himself and Jocelyn.
So, that's it.
In the name of a friend, a team member, secretly loving her, watching her, doing everything she likes for her.
Sometimes, loving someone deeply is not always necessary to get it.
In fact, watching this person be happy is a blessing to him.
Although sometimes, he can be jealous.
But he knew that there was no one in this world, other than Noah, who was more suitable for Jocelyn.
The team was relieved to hear him answer that way.
Those gossiping looks in their eyes followed suit and extinguished a lot.
[That's good.]
[Scared the hell out of me. That's good, that's good.]
[I thought you had a crush on our boss. Yeah, no crush is right.]
[The fact that our boss is a married woman or not is not something that ordinary professionals like us can just think about.]
[Yes, to ordinary people, we are rich, famous, and have status, which is great, but to Jocelyn, we are nothing.]
Hearing this, Alex felt his heart stabbed hard by something.

That's not a nice thing to say though.

But, the truth.

What is he compared to Jocelyn?

Alex frowned deeply again, "Stop gossiping and play your games."

Everyone nodded and settled down, going back to their seats and starting a game each.

"No, this evening at eight o'clock, Abel wants to invite you and Noah to dinner in the newly opened Western restaurant on the top floor of Grand Treasure Plaza." Paige said.

Hearing this, Jocelyn took a moment to reckon with her time.

She is available.

She just doesn't know how it's going with Noah.

"I'm OK with it, I'm not sure about my husband's time." Jocelyn said.

Paige, "Then ask your husband, Abel said that he was going to invite Robert and Ryan and the others to come over together."

"It says we're all going to get together." added Paige.

"Okay." Jocelyn said.

After a brief chat with Paige, Jocelyn hung up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, Jocelyn went straight downstairs.

Downstairs in the living room, the faintly sweet scent of baking bread permeates the room.

Following the scent, Jocelyn made her way into the kitchen.

At this moment, in the kitchen, Noah was carefully slicing the toast that had been baked.

He is dressed in black formal wear with a black apron on the outside, looking regal and homely at a glance.

Jocelyn stepped forward and said, "Honey, good morning."

"Good morning."

"By the way, Abel said he's inviting us all to dinner this evening at eight o'clock, saying he wants to get together, are you free?"

"I'm not available, just go by yourself." Noah said without thinking.

"What's the matter with you?" Jocelyn asked.

"Can't let you know just yet." Noah did not answer positively.

Hearing this reply, Jocelyn's curiosity was piqued.

Chapter 1004 Romantic Proposal

This moment, she felt even more, male protagonist, very romantic.
She unconsciously looked around for a moment, wanting to see, which one was the heroine.
Just as Paige's eyes wandered around, the crowd suddenly gasped again -
"So romantic."
"What kind of divine proposal is this."
Paige glanced at the people around him, and then followed everyone's gaze and looked overhead.
She saw numerous pink vertical banners draped over the railings at the topmost level of the mall.

The length of the vertical span can be from the top, all the way to the ground level.

Not only that, but those vertical banners, around the circle, surrounded the hall, on the first floor.

Above each vertical banner, written in large white letters -

[Paige, I love you.]

[Paige, let's get married.]

[Paige, for the rest of my life, I just want you.]

[Paige, you are in my eyes].

[Paige, I'll never cheat.]

[Paige, I want to be with you for the rest of my life.]

[Paige, let's grow old together].

[Paige, in the future I will be a loyal husband, whoever wants to bully you, I will stand up to protect you].

Not only that, but underneath all those big white letters, there was a picture of it.

On the photos are various, small, random pictures of her and Abel in their lives together.

In the group photo, they are always smiling.

Chapter 1005 Grand Treasure Plaza, The Proposal Scene

Riding the lift, Abel was like a hero of the world, with his luxurious group of friends and family by his side, walking step by step, through the sea of people, to Paige.

The room was silent at this time.

The world is breathless with the impact of such romance, such beautiful images.

Paige's heart went straight to her throat.

She took a deep breath, and then slowly exhaled, and continued to look at Abel, weeping continuously, unable to utter a word.

She doesn't know if it's because, the mall is so beautifully lit, or the scene is so dreamy.

She felt that Abel at this moment was gentle and charming.

In this moment, she wanted nothing more than to be with this man until she was old.

Whatever he said, she would nod her head in agreement.

"Paige, will you marry me?" Abel asked.

With these words, he took out, with one hand, from his pocket, a delicate red velvet ring box, opened it, and then knelt down on one knee.

Inside the ring box is a ten-carat, teardrop-shaped diamond ring.

In the light, the perfectly cut diamond shone with an unusually flamboyant brilliance.

The crowd at the scene was left even more breathless.

Everyone could not help but shout with excitement once again -

"Marry him, marry him."

"Marry him, marry him."

Paige once again took a deep breath, and then raised her hand, trembling, and placed it in front of Abel, nodding slightly.

Seeing this, Abel's heart, which was hanging in the air, immediately fell.

He thought a lot about this proposal before preparing it.

[Am I the only one who noticed that the watch on this man's hand is worth 50 million? And it's the only one of its kind in the world, how prestigious is this man's status?]

[This proposal scene, this proposal ring, this boyfriend really makes people envious and jealous].

The marketing numbers, on the other hand, are forwarding.

Paige, who was proposed to, was in the limelight.

Meanwhile, the man and woman involved in the incident are celebrating with a group of their good friends, drinking in a luxurious Western restaurant private room.

Tonight Abel is in the best of moods.

So drinking, too, is very enjoyable.

Only after three rounds of wine had passed did Abel stop, put his arm around Paige and asked with a smile, "Wife, when are you going to get married to me?"

Paige, "Preferably a warm time, and before, or after Jocelyn have given birth, or recovered from childbirth."

Paige's greatest wish was for Jocelyn to attend her wedding.

Chapter 1007 Paige's Pregnancy

It must be that her mother has watched the news.

"Paige. I saw the news." Her mother said, "Your boyfriend proposed to you, and you said yes."

The tone of her mother is full of happiness.

She knew that Paige had a boyfriend.

And she knew what the young man did.

She had been hoping that the two would be able to make it work.

She just didn't expect it to be so soon.

Although she had never met the man, she trusted her daughter's eyes.

A man who can be fancy by Paige must not be bad.

She, the daughter, never needed the family to worry about her.

All the choices made from childhood to adulthood have been the right ones.

Most importantly, that man's family conditions are unattainable.

At that, Paige said with a smile, "Yes, I'll bring him home to see you guys some day."

"Mom, you're not angry that I rashly agreed to propose, right?" Paige carried a touch of incredulity under her eyes.

She originally thought her mother would be angry because, before she had even met Abel, she had rashly agreed to the proposal.

But to her surprise, her mother wasn't even half angry.

She was even very happy.

Paige's mother laughed, "Why should I be angry? Didn't you say that man is very nice, you like him very much, I believe in your vision."

"What choices have you made since you were a child that were wrong?" Paige's mother added.

"Also, that man is much better than those men our neighbours introduced to you," Paige's mother said again.

Hearing this, Paige smiled, "Then I will take him back to see you some day."

"Why does it feel worse? Wife, it's all my fault, I spun you too hard, sorry."

At this moment, Abel was a bit frazzled.

He then turned his head to look at Jocelyn and said, "Jocelyn, please do something, my wife is throwing up even more, and, if I just turn my wife like that, will it affect the health of my wife and the fetus?"

Jocelyn looked at Abel's nervous look and felt even more that he cared about Paige as well as the baby.

Jocelyn shook her head, "It's okay, don't worry, in a minute, it'll be fine."

Abel, "Really? Should I call an ambulance?"

Paige did not hold back and gave Abel a blank stare, "Abel, can you not be so exaggerated?"

Abel rubbed his head in aggravation, "Oh, I'm mostly worried about you."

Paige was panting and dry heaving while saying, "I'm fine, you guys go wait for me outside, I'll be ready in a minute."

Abel shook his head and insisted to, "No."

Paige stopped paying attention to him and just continued to dry heave into the toilet.

The feeling of vomiting was very strong, but Paige could not throw up anything.

Such a feeling is more unpleasant than just vomiting.

"With so many of us here, it will cause a lack of air circulation, Abel stay, let's go back to the private room." Jocelyn added.

The others nodded, and then, together with Jocelyn, returned to the private room.

After they all left, Paige's dry heaving continued.

At this instant, looking at Paige suffering so much, the original feeling of joy in Abel's heart over the matter of Paige's pregnancy began to fade away.

Paige's eyes, with a bit of probing, fell on Abel's face, "What?"
"I'll make a call now and inform the family." said Abel happily, "Good news, naturally, should be shared."
Paige nodded.
Not wanting to disturb him from talking to his parents, Paige stepped into the private room.

After Paige left, Abel went to the front of the sink and called his mother.

Soon, Abel's mother answered, "What is it, son?"

Abel could not hold back his heart full of joy, said, "I am going to be a father. I want to find a time to do the wedding with Paige, you have to agree."

In any case, the attitude must be put here.

On the other side of the phone, in the glorious McCall family, Abel's mother was currently sitting in front of a luxurious European-style sofa, holding her mobile phone and listening to the call with a calm face.

When she heard the words coming out of Abel's mouth, Abel's mother's eyes, however, were written with shock, "What? Pregnant?"

Although she agreed for the two of them to go out.

But as for the marriage thing, she still hoped, in her heart, that it would not be possible.

Even kept her fingers crossed that Abel would slowly get tired of playing.

But now, hearing Abel say this, she knew that her calculations had fallen flat.

In any case, the children of the McCall family are not likely to be strayed.

The McCall family could not possibly not give up this child.

She only felt that Paige really had a heart.

It's amazing that you can get pregnant so quickly, so soon.

"What other reaction can there be? Naturally they are happy." Abel said, "For our marriage matter, they just agreed, didn't say anything."

A flash of consternation flashed across Paige's eyes, "Really?"

They went through a lot of mental struggle when they first agreed to the two of them dating.

Today, there was actually no struggle at all in agreeing to their marriage.

She then thought unbelievable.

After all, she knew that the people of the Mccall family, at their core, did not actually like her.

It's just because Abel insisted there was no way out.

She guess this time they really decided to get married, and they could agree so because she was pregnant.

Abel nodded, "Yes, what am I lying to you for? My mum said that if I want to do something, I can do it."

"Mostly, she didn't know what you like, what the rules are on your side of the family, anyway, she just told me to get started on everything and then the money will be paid by them." Abel continued.

There were many things that he naturally could not tell Paige and make Paige unhappy.

So, naturally, he had to go ways to embellish it.

Paige nodded carelessly.

Rather than suspecting anything, shifted his gaze to Jocelyn and said, "You two go on, what else I need to pay attention to? I will write down."

Abel, on the other hand, immediately quieted down and concentrated, looking at Jocelyn and Rosa.

At this moment, the two of them were like schoolchildren listening attentively to a lesson.

Jocelyn couldn't help but smile at the two of them reacting like that.

Immediately afterwards, she went on to tell them some notes.

While she was talking, Abel was holding his phone and making notes inside the memo.
