Chapter 131 Turn Around

Jocelyn's reputation, in just a dozen hours, took a sharp turn.

She didn't know how many of these people were paid Internet trolls and how many were strangers.

But she could be sure that these people couldn't be all paid Internet trolls.

There must be some people who were misled by others, or strangers who hated the world, or some fans of Ryan.

People from all sides were mixed together, and all kinds of cruel remarks were mixed together, which was disgusting.

There was always a group of people in this world who liked to build their happiness on the Internet to scold those people who were more powerful than themselves with bad words.

The keyboard had become a weapon in their hands. They liked to use a set of logic defined by themselves to vent all the negative emotions they had suppressed in real world.

Jocelyn took a brief look, and then withdrew from the topic.

Her eyes were placed on the second most popular trending topic, Jocelyn was a whore...

She didn't need to click in and see. Because she knew how dirty and disgusting those words must be.

She accidentally slid down heavily. The trending topics list page refreshed automatically.

At this time, a new trending topic appeared in the third trending topics, which was that Jocelyn beat Bella.

Jocelyn knew it would be like this, but she didn't expect that Bella would take actions so fast. She smiled bitterly, and clicked in to take a look.

The first thing that caught her eye was the hottest Internet celebrity, "Someone just sent the news to me, saying that he saw Jocelyn slap Bella in front of a high-end restaurant with his own eyes. Besides, Bella was slapped only because she said a few words for Ryan."

"The netizen also said that Jocelyn has a very bad character and speaks extremely arrogantly. Bella has no power to fight back. Bella is really wretched. I feel sorry for Bella for a second."

At the bottom of Weibo, there was also a photo of her slapping Bella.

The scolding about Jocelyn on the Internet intensified.
The comment section on Jocelyn's Weibo was getting worse and worse.
Those people, who didn't know the truth, were falling into the trap, waiting to see her embarrassment.
About ten minutes later.

The group owner, Coffee Beans, personally posted a Weibo, apologizing to Jocelyn and Ryan and saying that she should not just listen to other people's words and take the lead in raising funds to cyberbully Jocelyn. Then she personally tagged Jocelyn and Ryan.

At the bottom of Weibo, there were also posted Cuttie's remarks that smeared Jocelyn.

Jocelyn directly reposted this Weibo, and posted the screenshot of IP address which Cuttie posted Weibo at that time. It was in the Stewart's Villa.

She added, "Bella, Cuttie is actually your another screen name? Is it fun to spread rumors and pretend to be innocent and kind? With that picture, you can make up so many stories. It's a pity that you don't become a screenwriter."

Just after the post was released, the comments below exceeded 10,000.

"So Jocelyn is going to turn around?"

"So you mean that all this is a rumor made by Bella?"

"What evidence do you have to prove that Bella is spreading rumors? I won't believe you easily."

"Can't wait to whitewash yourself so soon? I don't believe all of your bullshit."

In the comment area below, many people were still wandering between belief and disbelief.

Chapter 133 The Top Celebrity's Confession

What exactly was Ryan thinking? As a popular celebrity, was it okay to talk nonsense like this? Jocelyn immediately dialed Ryan's phone number, "Can you think carefully before speaking?" There was a chuckle over there, "I've weighed it carefully. Do you think what I said is wrong?"

Ryan was sitting in the dressing room of the magazine's studio and doing makeup. In addition to the stylist and stylist's assistant, there were also many female staff members.

He was wearing a white shirt with a houndstooth coat over it.

They were all taking pictures of him with their mobile phones. Everyone was amazed at his handsomeness while taking pictures.

They were all obsessed by him.

But Ryan never looked at them. He just smiled and looked at himself in the mirror, holding the phone and waiting for her to speak.

Jocelyn sighed helplessly, pinched her eyebrows and said, "You don't know how many fans want to be your girlfriend? But you actually said that you wanted to seduce me. Won't your fans be jealous? If there is a misunderstanding, what should we do if they don't follow you?"

"I don't care." Ryan said.

Jocelyn felt that she had a headache, "It doesn't matter to you. But it matters to me, okay? You're the actor on the rise. Please cherish your fans, okay?"

"Well, I cherish fans very much."

"Really?"

"Um."

"If you really cherish your fans, quickly explain on the Weibo and say you are just joking." Jocelyn said.

"I don't like to lie." Ryan stood up in front of everyone's eyes, walked slowly to a corner where no one was there and leaned against the wall lazily. His eyes were full of smiles.

When he laughed, there seemed to be stars in his eyes. The lights in the studio were so dazzling, but they were less than the light his eyes.

When Jocelyn heard this, she was stunned for a moment. A flash of disbelief flashed in her eyes, "What do you mean?"

"You are really a cheap slut who can do anything to achieve your goals. You are jealous that Jocelyn is better looking than you, and Ryan appreciates her but not you, right? It's so mean!"

Seeing this, Jocelyn felt that she was completely relieved.

The emotions she suppressed was completely vented.

At the same time, in the Stewart's villa.

Bella comfortably soaked in the rose petal milk bath. After applying the mask, she lit a scented candle in the room, sat comfortably in front of the dresser, and applied several layers of expensive skin care products to her face.

She didn't know the situation at all. She was in a very good mood at the moment. Thinking that Jocelyn was still being cyberbullied, she felt comfortable.

Even if she just took a bath at home and applied some skin care products, she felt very happy.

The faint fragrance in the air had become extraordinarily pleasant.

Although the right side of her face was still swollen and painful, it didn't affect her good mood at all.

The phone on the side vibrated. She immediately looked at the phone screen.

At this moment, the message popped up on the phone screen almost stunned her!

"Jocelyn seduced Ryan? No! It's purely the rumor Bella spread! Now the truth is revealed, and Bella suffered cyber violence!"

She was dumbfounded.

After speaking, Archie went out the door in a huff.

Bella suffered from cyber violence just now. Now she was slapped mercilessly by her father. She felt even more unbearable.

All the depression was like a volcanic eruption which spouted out instantly and completely drowned her.

The whole world seemed to have lost its color.

"Damn it!!!" Bella shouted, stomping with all her strength.

However, she still got incandescent with rage.

"Jocelyn, you bitch!!! I'll kill you!!!"

When she finished shouting, she quickly changed into a white Chanel woolen dress, black over-the-knee boots and a white beret. With her black Chanel rhombus bag, she went out in a hurry.

When she went downstairs, there was no one downstairs. She got into a blue Lamborghini sports car, stepped on the accelerator, and drove out!

She vented all her anger on the car! The car drove like a rocket!

The roar of the sports car almost drowned everything!

She was going to Murphy Properties Group!

She was going to have a bone to pick with Jocelyn, the slut!

She wanted to beat this bitch hard! All these things she encountered were all because of Jocelyn!

"Jocelyn, wait for me!" Bella gritted her teeth. Her eyes were like sharp knives, extremely ruthless.

"Are you proud that Ryan likes you, right? I never thought he would like a married woman."

"Jocelyn, you must be in front of him every day and seduce him. That's why he likes you, right? It's shameless. You're still thinking about hooking up other men even after getting married!"

"If you dare to divorce and to be with Ryan, I will blacken you. I'll tell everyone that you cheated on your husband and ruin you two together!"

"If you don't want to ruin Ryan, just stay away from him! A married old woman is not worthy of such a clean man!"

Bella staggered forward under the rough push of the security guards. But she kept turning her head and continued to shout.

Jocelyn just stood there quietly and watched her yell. She didn't want to respond to her at all.

At this moment, she felt that Bella was a pure lunatic.

Jocelyn didn't turn around until she saw Bella being forced into the company's car by two security guards.

At this time, she saw many people leaning on the glass at the door and looking at her.

Everyone had adoration in their eyes.

When she looked at them, they immediately gave her a thumbs up.

After that, they quickly dispersed and quickly returned to their original position.

Jocelyn smiled and straightened her hair. While seeing Weibo, she walked to her red Maserati not far away.

She directly clicked on the topic, "Does Ryan like Jocelyn?"

As soon as she clicked into the topic, she saw that it was very lively inside.

Apart from some fans of Ryan crying, envy and jealousy of her, there were also a large number of people who were discussing whether she was divorced or it was really just like Bella said that she and her husband hadn't intervened each other for a long time.

Chapter 137 Money Is Her Confidence

"Joyce, although Bella has gone too far, it's not necessary to send her to the jail, right?" Archie said again.

Jocelyn snorted coldly, "Do you really think it's not necessary?"

Archie said, "I don't think it's necessary. She just let others scold you online, and did not cause any real harm to you."

Jocelyn felt so speechless.

No real harm? Being attacked by words and being maliciously smeared, wasn't it considered harm?

"You didn't experience it, so you don't know how painful it is." Jocelyn smiled bitterly.

"Joyce, I understand, but the matter has already happened. I'll just apologize to you in her place. I hope you can forgive her for my sake, okay?" Archie's tone was very sincere.

But Jocelyn knew that this sincerity was all fake.

She knew better than anyone what kind of people the Stewart family was.

The reason why he showed such an attitude was simply that he was afraid that his precious daughter would actually go to the jail.

"I'm sorry. If you have nothing else, I have to hang up first."

After speaking, Jocelyn directly hung up the phone.

Immediately afterwards, Archie called again.

When Jocelyn saw it, she simply refused to pick up, then started the car and turned around.

Jocelyn knew very well that the possible consequences of rejecting Archie might be the same as what Bella said, which was that Archie would withdraw from the project cooperating with Murphy Properties Group.

That project was a high-end landscape villa. It was jointly developed by Murphy Properties Group and Stewart Food Group, with a total investment of 20 billion dollars. Murphy Properties Group invested 12 billion, and Stewart Food Group invested 8 billion.

This was the cooperation they decided before Griffin Group withdrew from Stewart Food Group.

"If I get through his phone, I'll make it clear to him. I'll scold him." Allie said seriously.

"I will handle my business myself." Noah said.

"No, I'll do it." Allie said.

Allie knew Noah's temperament well. He was definitely very angry when he saw that his brother actually said such words, though his brother didn't know about the truth.

She was afraid that there would be a conflict between them two.

"In short, leave it to me, okay?" Allie said again.

"No." Noah said without hesitation.

Seeing that he made it clear that he was determined, Allie knew that it was useless to talk too much, so she could only say, "Okay, you promise me that you guys won't have a fight."

"Don't worry." Noah said.

Allie let out a long sigh of relief, "Okay, I got it."

Speaking of this, she was also quite angry.

She was not angry that Ryan liked his sister-in-law.

After all, he wasn't very clear about these things.

Part of the reason why Allie was so angry was that she felt that her son was a little wild.

Even if he didn't know that Jocelyn was his sister-in-law, he should know that she was married, right?

After all, there were rumors about Jocelyn on the Internet. So Allie didn't believe that Ryan didn't know it.

"I've made up my mind. If you want to retaliate against me, just come on. Our family is not so easy to bully." Allen said again.

He was going to fight them to the end. Bella had gone too far.

He must help her daughter.

If a man couldn't even protect his daughter, what kind of man was he?

A real man must never let the people around him feel wronged.

"Okay... I announce that our family will withdraw the capital now. Return the eight billion to us immediately."

"Aren't you tough? I want to see where you're going to make money all of sudden."

"Then the project will be suspended and you will be exhausted. Don't beg us at that time." Phoebe continued to speak with gritted teeth. Her eyes were filled with hatred.

At this moment, Allen's cell phone vibrated.

Seeing that it was his special assistant's call, Allen immediately answered it.

Soon, a gentle woman's voice came from there, "Mr. Murphy, just now, the staff of Griffin Group called us and said that they intend to invest in us, and they also said that if you need the money, you can find them at any time. Money is not the problem."

"What? What group are you talking about?" Allen couldn't believe his ears.

Jocelyn and Allen were very close, so she could hear the content of the phone clearly.

Phoebe nodded again, "I'm just afraid that he doesn't want to cooperate with us anymore. If we knew it early, we shouldn't mention the withdrawal of capital and it wouldn't come to this point."

Now Phoebe was so regretful.

If they cooperated, there would be many opportunities to meet. Then the awkward relationship that was originally caused by Gloria, Joseph, and Bella could also be eased.

At that time, if the Murphy family really rose up, their family would also be able to get some benefits.

Jocelyn followed Allen into the study.

After they walked into the study, Allen took her and sat at the small coffee table beside the bed.

There was a set of expensive blue and white porcelain tea set on the coffee table.

The tea in the teapot was still hot and it was steaming right now.

The faint fragrance of the tea rose to the tip of the nose along the heat, which smelt very fresh.

Jocelyn poured a cup of tea for Allen, and put it in front of him, "Thank you, Dad."

"For what? Protecting you is what Dad should do." Allen said.

Jocelyn's eyes turned slightly red again, "Dad, you are so kind."

Allen fondly rubbed her hair, "Silly child! You are my precious daughter."

Jocelyn smiled, tears dripping down from her cheeks.

"Why are you crying? Stop crying and wipe away your tears." Allen took a few tissues and wiped her tears.

The warm sunshine came in from the side, making the picture more and more warm and sweet.

Jocelyn sniffed and said, "By the way, Dad, why did Griffin Group find us all of a sudden? Why did they offer such good benefits? What do you think they want from us?"
