Chapter 461 A call from the head of the PR department, Lucy

Paige once again could not help but ask herself, how the hell could she have promoted such an ungrateful woman in the first place?

At this very moment, her mobile phone vibrated once again.

Seeing that it was the head of the public relations department, Lucy, she pressed the answer button.

"What's wrong, Lucy?"

"Behind Francesca, there is indeed someone. This person is the chairman of Sunshine Entertainment, Peter Wood! What's more, I also found out that this Peter is already secretly buying marketing numbers, ready to continue smearing those few artists of our company."

Hearing the words "Sunshine Entertainment", Paige's eyebrows frowned.

Peter has a great background, and his father has powers.

It was because of this that he basically did not put other companies in his eyes, as long as he did not see eye to eye, he would take action.

Once upon a time, they didn't stop tripping up X Entertainment, and there were many fights between the two companies, both explicit and implicit.

She wasn't surprised to hear this person's name.

During this period of time, X Entertainment's artists were becoming popular one after another, taking away a lot of the cake that originally belonged to their company's artists.

It couldn't be more normal for him to make a move at this time.

"I had someone follow Francesca as you requested, and found out that she had a private meeting with Peter at a private club last night." the other side added.

"Okay, I got it." Paige added.

"Also, the people we sent there also took photos of Francesca and Peter walking out of the club intimately, and for those artists who were smeared, those brands endorsed are now contacting us to cancel their contracts." the other side added.

At the same time, Francesca's support group was disbanded, and the big fans, as well as some of the casual fans, announced that they were going to leave the group.

The hot search charts also started to change.

after, those artists who were smeared together with Francesca, led by Ryan, collectively forwarded the official statement released by X Entertainment.

[Morgan: do I need to be under latent rules to get a job?]

[Meredith: Francesca, are you a cerebral palsy?]

[Savannah: Not bother to curse you.]

This group of popular artists from X Entertainment posted collectively, pushing the attention of this matter, once again, to the top.

In a matter of moments, the hot search list changed once again.

afterwards, the various screenshots of those artists' posts dissing her, led by Ryan, also started to come into view.

In the next second, netizens' frantic tirades also crashed into her eyeballs:

[Francesca, will you fucking die? Get the hell out of the entertainment industry.]

Every word that came to her eyes was like a bloodless knife, constantly stimulating her sensitive and fragile nerves.

Soon, those words began to turn into voices in her ears, intertwining and echoing wildly.

She really felt like she was going crazy.

Francesca covered her head with one hand, and with the other hand, she pressed the back button.

The screen switched back to her home page.

At this time, she saw that her unread messages were up to 9999+.

She clicked in again and took a look.

After a few more seconds of silence, Francesca tried to open her mouth again, "I know I'm wrong, I really know I'm wrong this time, please let me go, please help me talk to the company and those artists, don't make me lose money."

"Now that I'm notorious, it's no longer possible for me to be in the entertainment industry. I can't live without money." At the end of the sentence, Francesca began to cry again desperately.

Paige indifferently screwed the lid of the face cream, and then washed her hands, while tying her hair, while adding, "If you knew this day, why did you start?"

In response to Francesca's plea for mercy, her heart did not produce half a ripple.

Paige had never been a saint, and would not forget the hurt that the other party had poured into her just because of a few words of begging for forgiveness.

"Paige, as long as you can forgive me, I am willing to do whatever you want me to do." Francesca added.

She knew that, Mr. Wood would not give her a damn.

At these words, Paige once again raised her eyebrows, and then put the face cream on the skincare shelf next to her, "Oh?"

In her eyes, there was still not much ripple, because everything was under her control.

Francesca, "Really, Paige, I am begging you."

Paige, "I heard that this time, Peter is also involved, right?"

When Francesca heard this, she was confused.

She did not expect that Paige actually knew so much.

The next second, she was speechless.

Thinking about what Peter had just said, she took another deep breath and said, "No, no"

Francesca's denial was also expected by Paige.

Abel, "I'm now at Golden Beach Resort, Blue Sky Villa Area, Building 1, Paradise, I'll tell the security guards, you just bring your ID card into the community."

Soon, Abel then pressed hang up.

Paige frowned helplessly, took the big parcel in one hand and went straight out the door.

Driving her black Mercedes, Paige arrived at the place Abel had mentioned.

This place was located on the first line of the sea view, the whole neighborhood was white with three-storey European-style rustic villas.

The neighbourhood was only one road away from the sea, and when she looked at the entrance of the neighbourhood, she could see the blue sea and the blue sky.

Just one glance was enough to smooth her heart.

After showing her ID card to the security guard at the entrance, Paige drove into the community.

In the community, the greenery was very well done.

As soon as she entered, there was a large expanse of greenery, which made her feel relaxed and happy.

Abel's villa was located at the entrance, and as soon as she entered, she found her target.

She drove the car to the entrance of his house.

After the car stopped steadily, she got out of the car, holding the big parcel.

As soon as she looked up, she saw Abel with a bottle of wine in his hand, lazily leaning against the white balustrade on the balcony, looking down at her.

He was wearing a white silk loose loungewear suit, a superb fabric that glistened in the sunlight, setting him off in an increasingly aristocratic manner.

"The password is your birthday, you can enter by inputting it." Abel added.

At these words, Paige frowned slightly.

She thought to herself Abel was worthy to be a master in hooking up girls.

However, she was not moved.

She only gave Abel a faint glance, then input the password and entered the door.

Chapter 466 Meeting an Old Classmate by Chance

When he came downstairs, Paige was sitting on the sofa, flipping through a financial magazine.

Hearing the whistle, Paige got up, turned her head to look in his direction, and said, "Let's go."

With those words, she took the lead and went out the door.

Abel followed up.

As soon as Paige went out, she got into her own black Mercedes.

Abel saw this and then naturally got into the car from the other side, crossing his legs and slowly fastening his seatbelt, "Go out and turn left, one hundred meters ahead, north of the road, Meeting West Restaurant."

Paige did not respond, but only accelerated the speed of the car, his other hand was lazily resting against his jaw, his elbow against the glass.

Warm sun spilled in from outside the car, kept jumping on her face, making her look bright and moving.

The perfect side of her face made Abel's heart chaotic.

Before her, there had never been any woman that made him feel this way.

"So beautiful." Abel couldn't help but praise, the corners of his mouth hooked in an arc, and those eyes were full of appreciation.

Paige glanced at him, "Can you stop staring at me all the time?"

Abel, "No."

Paige, "....."

Abel, "You have a pretty face, wouldn't it be a pity if I didn't look at it more often?"

Paige, "....."

Abel, "Wife, you're really a beautiful woman."

Paige couldn't help but frown again, "I said, don't call me wife again."

Abel, "Wife."

Paige, "....."

She thought that this person around her was, by and large, the most cheeky she had ever seen.

She even deliberately stole her crush, Aadam.
After getting Aadam, Emily then kept pulling Aadam, showing affection in front of her and zapping her heart.
On top of that, Emily also lied to Aadam that she was being bullied by her.
Two slaps were given to Aadam directly.
Being hit by her crush like that, she was heartbroken at the time.
However, she did not show weakness, and after being slapped, she beat Aadam badly.
And she withdrew her feelings for Aadam permanently.
They didn't bring Paige any good memories, so she didn't want to pick up on them.
She only glanced at them before continuing to follow the waiter's footsteps forward.
"Isn't this Paige?" Emily, however, did not give her a chance to leave, pulling Aadam and blocking in front of her.
As the words fell, she then tightened her arms around Aadam, stick to Aadam, her eyes full of condescension.
"What a coincidence." Paige indifferently glanced at them, and then prepared to step forward to continue walking.
At this time, Emily clutched her hand, "Paige, my husband and I just returned to country today and met you, it's really fate. By the way, I forgot to tell you, he and I, after graduation, got married, we are very much in love."
She was still the same as before, showing love in front of her.
Before, she could make her sad, but now, not anymore.
Paige smiled lightly, "Well, congratulations. I still have things to do, so I gotta leave."

"Paige, just for the sake of us being once classmates, don't get angry, okay?" Emily added.

Looking at her pitiful appearance, Paige frowned slightly.

She was just about to say forget it, but Abel opened his mouth, blocking out all the words she hadn't said, "It's not that simple."

After saying that, Abel then looked at Aadam and said, "I won't work with your company again in the future."

Paige tugged at the corner of Abel's coat, "Forget it, she has also been taught a lesson."

Abel, however, coldly snorted, "You can forget it, but I can't. Whoever dares to disrespect you, Paige, I will return it a hundred times over."

A single sentence, in an instant, warmed Paige's innermost heart.

The next second, Abel took Paige into his private room, and then locked the door behind him.

Only Aadam and Emily were left standing in the same place, shivering.

Neither of them had thought that this matter could evolve to such a state.

Looking at the closed door, Emily trembled as she held Aadam's hand and cautiously said, "Honey, what should we do now?"

The moment Emily opened her mouth, the anger Aadam was holding in his heart instantly rose up.

Aadam raised his hand again and slapped Emily's face twice.

Two slaps fell again, and Emily's face swelled up in no time.

Both cheeks were stamped with deep red slap marks.

At that moment, Emily only felt that her face was burning painful, and her ears were buzzing.

"Bitch! It's all because of you!" Aadam coldly scolded, "If you had been more polite to Paige just now, would we have to face this situation? Why are you showing off? Compared to Abel, your husband is fucking nothing."

Emily was sad but dare not say anything, she just took Aadam's hand, saying, "I am wrong, I do know that Paige has Able as her backup, for I heard that she is still single."

Adam glared at her with hatred, but did not say anything, just silently leaned against the cold wall, lit a cigarette and smoked.

Paige's heart tightened, "That's because the situation was special just now, there's no need for you to take advantage of me."

Abel, "Fine, since you don't like it, I'll call you, baby? Sweetheart?"

The name that poured into her ears made Paige feel more and more disgusting.

Paige felt her heart trembled slightly, "You are disgusting."

Abel continued to say, "Since so, you prefer me to call you honey? Otherwise I will call you, baby, sweetheart, my love."

Paige was speechless at once.

She really felt that she was being stuck to cowries, and still can't shake it off!

"Abel! Is it fun for you to take advantage of me?"

"Yes, it is."

She didn't bother to talk to him anymore, so she simply took out her phone and planed to play a game.

By the time she finished playing a round, she would just be able to eat.

"Honey, what are you looking at?"

"Playing Honors of Kings."

Abel couldn't help but laugh lightly.

Hearing his laughter, Paige instantly blushed to the base of her neck.

She instantly frowned in dissatisfaction and looked at Abel, "Abel! How dare you take advantage of me!"

But Abel was still smiling, just shrugging innocently, "I did not."

Chapter 470 I want to stay alive and protect my wife

Just at this time, the opposite AD exploded with output.
Abel saw this and then blocked in front of Paige.
In the end, Paige escaped to the grass behind her teammates with little blood.
And Abel likewise had the opposite left.
afterwards, the opposite AD unleashed another skill towards Abel, who avoided the attack by walking away.
Seeing this scene, Paige's heart instantly warmed up.
afterwards, the opposite AD once again launched an attack towards their side's middle player.
The middle player was attacked into little blood, and the two died in the same time.
Finally, Paige killed the opposite support.
In the end, they won.
It was at this time that the middle player on their side spoke up.
[Fish with Wings]: Mr. Mccall, you're right behind me, why don't you help me block skills?
Abel then coldly snorted in disdain.

[Mr. Mccall]: I want to stay alive and protect my wife.

[Fish with Wings]: I am richer than your wife.

[Mr. Mccall]: Though she is not rich, she is priceless in my heart.

Looking at the dialogue in the game, Paige was stunned.

She let out a long sigh and said, "I'm really not your wife, can you stop that?"

Abel but once again smiled, "Although not now, but in the future you will definitely be, I just call you honey in advance."

Paige had a black face, "Abel, where in the world did you get the confidence?"
