Chapter 591 Abel is stunned

He hadn't touched another girl since realising his deep love for Paige.

It had been a long time since he'd had a woman to vent to, and he found it particularly difficult in himself.

This moment was even harder for him because of her hair and body ruffling.

However, he did not dare to show anything, he could only forcefully hold down his desire and continue to hug Paige.

Paige struggled to push him away and continued to stride forward trying to walk.

However, after a few steps, her feet start to get weak again

She fell into Abel's arms again.

With the woman he loved in his arms, Abel once again could not resist the urge to relieve his desire in her body.

He feels this way more or less every time he faces Paige.

But at this moment, the feeling is even more pronounced!

Paige was completely unaware of Abel's reaction as she struggled again to leave Abel's embrace, but found that she could not.

It seems to be because the aftertaste of those drinks we just had was just too much.

Seeing this, Abel knew what she was up to.

Without saying a word, he directly picked up Paige in a horizontal embrace.

Just because of drunkenness, her subtle changes, in Abel's eyes, all became alcohol reaction.

"Look at you, you can't even stand up, how do you expect me to feel comfortable letting you leave alone?" Abel added.

She found such Abel gentle today, or she was drunk, she actually felt he seemed more charming than ever.

Or was it because, in her heart, she had become less defensive of Abel that this was the case?

She doesn't understand either

He subconsciously took a step back, and looked at Paige with resignation, "Wife, what are you doing? Why are you treating me like this?"

Only the next second, he reacted.

"If you didn't touch me, how come my waist hurts so much?" Paige became even more furious.

How can this man deny what he has done?

Looking at her like this, Abel instantly felt funny

If her back hurts, she's been touched by him? How can this woman have so little common sense?

Didn't she know that if she could get her back hurt by him, then everywhere else, she would feel it too!

Could it be that she still hasn't experienced this?

Thinking of this, Abel's good feeling towards Paige began to drift up again.

These days, there aren't many girls like her.

"You shameless bastard, I warn you, don't think you can have me just because you possess me."

"I was going to give you a chance, but now it looks like that's totally unnecessary! You scumbag, wait until you go to jail!"

She was really getting fed up with this shameless thing.

Paige once again looked at Abel and cursed through clenched teeth.

She had just woken up, not particularly refreshed and her hair was a bit messy.

This look, combined with the angry state, Abel thought it cute and funny

Abel couldn't help but laugh out loud.

Even though his lower body hurts, he still can't hold back his laughter.

"Do you know what you just said by omission?" Abel looked at Paige with a smirk.
Paige frowned slightly and looked at Abel without good grace, asking faintly, "What?"
With those words, she began a new round of struggle.
In the end, there was a force disparity between her and Abel.

And the scariest part is that because she always struggled and dawdled, he seemed to...

Feeling this, Paige's body shook and the atmosphere did not dare to come out.

Abel's breathing began to gradually become lower and his body became tense, especially the lower part of his body showing his desire.

"If you move again, I can't hold back any longer?" Abel's tone began to become ambiguous, and his eyes did the same.

At those words, Paige was quiet for a moment, her face getting redder and redder, and her heart beating faster and faster, "Let go of me."

Abel, "You said you've been thinking about giving me a chance lately, is that true?"

Speaking of this topic, Abel's expression instantly became more vivid.

As soon as he said that, Paige recalled her indiscriminate speech earlier.

She felt embarrassed, "That that was just a slip of the tongue."

Abel, "I believe you hell you say, are you impressed by me? So thinking of testing me more and just giving me a chance?"

Paige's heart tightened, "No."

Abel laughed lightly, "Why are you stammering?"

He instantly rendered her speechless.

Paige frowned slightly and glared at Abel without good grace, "Shut up! I was born to stutter, can't I?"

Abel laughed lightly again, "Well, okay, I just like stammerers."

It was hard to imagine that such a young master as Abel, who never cooked, would actually try to cook for her.

She could now slowly make up a mental picture of Abel clumsily holding a spatula, holding a pan and frying an egg.

The picture in her head of him being dumb is all a bit cute.

"Do you have any burn ointment or anything at home?" Paige asked indifferently.

"Yes, however, I've heard that there is a solution for scalded that works."

"What's the solution?"

"It's getting a kiss from the woman you love."

"..."

Paige was a bit speechless, "You are shameless."

With those words, she couldn't help but give him another blank stare.

Instead he laughed again. He then rubbed her hair, "Paige, how come you look so good?"

Paige, "..."

Abel, "How do you think I love you so much?"

Paige, "Don't be so nonsense, hurry up and bring me the burn ointment."

Her tone was overbearing and not to be denied.

Even in front of the noble Abel, she is equally haughty and aloof, with an imperial demeanour.

Abel appreciates her.

This character is attracting.

"Hurry up, do you hear me?" Paige ordered coldly.

Abel nodded obediently, meekly put down Paige, directly got up and pulled open the bedside table, took out the burn ointment from it, as well as cotton swabs, and handed them to Paige.

Paige patted the seat beside herself and added, "Sit down!"

Chapter 595 Taking Ivan's New Movie

"Hello, Miss Gill, I've decided to settle on Ryan for the male lead in my new movie."

It was a message from director Ivan.

Last night, he clearly said that there were a few more great male actors behind him, waiting to be picked.

How come today, this is immediately different?

Did all the actors who auditioned for the next few roles fail?

No matter what, when she saw this message, she was still overwhelmed with excitement, and she quickly replied, "Thank you, Ivan, don't worry, I will make sure Ryan prepares properly."

Ivan responded, "Okay, I'll send the script to Ryan afterwards, and the start date is the 30th of next month."

Paige, "Okay."

Paige was happy to have secured such a good opportunity for Ryan.

Immediately at this moment, the corners of her mouth involuntarily curled up into a smile.

"What are you laughing at?" Abel asked.

"Nothing." Paige smiled and didn't want to tell Abel too much.

After giving her a deep look, Abel lowered his head and continued to eat his breakfast.

Just at this time, his special assistant Luna sent a message, "Mr. Mccall, Ivan has agreed."

Without responding, Abel lifted his head again and looked at Paige.

He seemed to know now what she had just been happy about, and what he liked to see most was the smiling face of Paige.

The visitor is no other than Noah.

He is holding a large bouquet of roses in his right hand.

The moment they saw Noah, Lacie, and the three male photographers, had all been stunned.

The three photographers, subconsciously, pointed their cameras at Noah.

Lacie did not expect at all that his interview with Jocelyn today would have a windfall.

She can't believe she's met the man who never gives any interviews, Noah!

Noah indifferently glanced at Lacie and the others, walked over to Jocelyn and put the flowers into her arms, "I bought them casually on the way here, I hope you like them."

The fragrance of the roses spread through her nose, and at this moment, Jocelyn felt extremely happy.

She looked at Noah with eyes full of surprise and asked, "I love it so much. Why are you here? Didn't you say you are busy this morning?"

"No matter how busy I am, I can't ignore my wife."

Lacie wished to have this kind of a husband too.

Without waiting for Jocelyn to say anything more, Noah immediately added, "You continue. I'll go wait for you."

At that, Lacie then quickly stood up and looked at Noah and said, "Mr. Mason, is it convenient to take an interview together?"

Noah responded indifferently, "No."

With those words, he turned around and walked straight to Jocelyn's desk and sat down.

His cold attitude was completely different from the time when he was facing Jocelyn just now.

Lacie felt like she was now, completely frozen.

Jocelyn softly glanced at him and looked at Lacie, "Sorry, he doesn't like to be interviewed."

"Surprise! The one who set off a night of fireworks at the Peach Blossom Manor a few months ago was actually Noah!"

The content of today's interview, which came out so quickly, is something she really didn't expect.

This news was sent by Weibo News

She saw this and then quickly clicked in to have a look.

The first thing that caught her eye was a large paragraph that said, in an interview with First Financial magazine, she leaked the story of the fireworks at Peach Blossom Manor

Immediately below is a clip of Lacie's interview with her, as forwarded by Weibo News and just released by First Financial magazine.

And the part where she says that it was Noah who set off the fireworks at Peach Blossom Manor.

That First Financial post, which has only just been sent out, is only a minute ago.

The number of comments has exceeded 100,000.

She clicked into the comments section and glanced at

In the comment section, the first one is a comment posted by First Financial itself: [When Jocelyn was interviewed by our reporter today, she also leaked a lot of small clips of her love affair with Noah. The rest will be put in the magazine, those who are interested can buy the magazine. The magazine will be released next Monday, as long as the release day, the purchase volume exceeds one million, we will put the full record of Jocelyn's interview.]

Seeing this comment, Jocelyn couldn't help but sigh: First Financial is good.

This marketing of theirs is first class.

It's just that such a marketing approach is all she's ever seen from those celebrities

In the comments section below, there has been comments.

[Ahhh, it was actually Noah, I should have thought it was this guy!]

Chapter 598 Tell me, what happened to you?

Although the details of the situation are not clear to Jocelyn.

But from the conversation the two of them had just had, she could already guess.

This woman, and her family, spent all of Jace's money, causing Jace to fall on hard times now.

And when she saw that Jace had fallen on hard times, she looked down on him and went straight to find a better boyfriend.

This shows that the person in front of me is a total gold-digger.

As far as she knows, Jace is very obedient to her and takes good care of her.

Now, this woman is treating Jace like this, which is really saddening.

What she hates the most is this type of woman.

There was just one thing that Jocelyn couldn't figure out.

Jace still has a skill even if he has no more money.

He is perfectly capable of continuing to make money with his superior medical skills.

It's not at all like being down in the dumps like this.

The only explanation is that something big must have happened to Jace.

And seeing how angry Jace was, she always felt that this big event was probably also related to this woman.

At the beginning, when she first returned to China, she was still in contact with Jace.

However, then Jace suddenly disappeared.

She now feels that the reason for Jace's disappearance is also related to this big event.

Presumably he had some very complicated things happen to him because of this woman, and he felt ashamed to face his former friend anymore, so he stopped contacting her.

What exactly is the situation, later, she still needs to ask Jace properly.

"A heartless gold-digging girl like you will not end well." Jocelyn looked at the woman coldly and added.

The woman drew a cold breath backwards, but still did not dare to speak.

Chapter 599 Jace's Story

Jace sighed long and helplessly, "This will have to be told to you from the beginning."

"Our family used to have our house demolished and got three million in demolition money, and when my parents died, they gave the money all to me."

"At first I thought I was in a stable relationship with Serena, my girlfriend, plus I just loved her too much."

"So I gave the card to Serena, and after getting the money, she was particularly fond of going in and out of fancy places and buying Hermes and even paid off her dad's gambling debts."

"I let her do everything because I loved her, and soon my savings were completely spent."

"I was disgruntled, but I just loved her too much to leave her, so I didn't blame her."

"After spending all my savings, in the first place because I was still working as a doctor in the hospital, plus, still working part-time as a private doctor for someone else's family."

"So, we were living and getting by, and her life wasn't affected too much, but just three months ago..."

"Her dad provoked a rich man in a casino and was beaten up and almost killed and put in ICU."

"When I found out, I went to the police, but they didn't care, so I went to the rich man."

"As a result, not only did he pay the money, but also insulted me, and Serena's father cursed me."

"In a fit of anger, I beat that rich man. After that, I was completely banned from the world of medicine by him and everything I had was gone."

"I can't even get a job in the medical profession, and then, a month ago, her dad gambled again and owed three million to casino."

"She came back and begged me to sell the house, so I sold it and ended up with nothing"

"I thought that she would be moved to stay with me, but to my surprise, she started to resent me."

"After I had nothing, her attitude towards me got worse and worse, even finding reasons not to come home."

Chapter 600 Why

Hearing him say this, Jocelyn was not surprised at all.

This is what Jace is all about, his character is as good as it gets.

He was a man who never claimed credit for helping others.

And even less likely to think about getting something out of someone else

Jocelyn silently took out a blank cheque from her wallet, signed it sharply for 50 million and pushed it in front of Jace.

Seeing the astronomical cheque, Jace shook his head and pushed the cheque back in front of Jocelyn with a serious face, "Don't, I can't accept this. What can I do to ask you for 50 million? The little I gave in the beginning was not worth 50 million."

Jocelyn smiled, "I lend it to you, take this money, open a private hospital. I believe in your medical skills, and your ability will certainly be able to run the hospital well. When you earn money, you return to me."

She knew that if she gave the money directly, Jace would not accept it.

So she got this idea.

Jace shook his head, "No need, if I lost, even if I sell myself, I can not afford to pay. I thought well, it is impossible to me and her to go back to the past time."

"We are over."

"A woman like that is not worthy of my thoughts much."

"Now that we've split up, there's nothing left for me in this city, so I'm taking a plane back to my old home tomorrow."

"I will go find a small factory to work in save some money and then do some small business." Jace added.

Hearing this, Jocelyn frowned and said seriously, word for word.

"You obviously have a high level of medical skills, and you're willing to just do that? She treats you with disdain and even humiliates you in public because you're broke."

"If that's the case, then why don't you put up a fight, make yourself good again?"
